Public Law 96-367
96th Congress

An Act

Making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, and for other purposes.

Oct. 1, 1980
[H.R. 7590]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, for energy and water development, and for other purposes, namely:

Energy and Water Development Appropriation Act, 1981.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

OPERATING EXPENSES

ENERGY SUPPLY, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

For operating expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for energy supply, research and development activities and other activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), $2,268,754,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That during fiscal year 1981 and within the resources and authority available, gross obligations for the principal amount of direct loans for the Hydropower Feasibility Studies Loan Program shall not exceed $10,000,000.

42 USC 7101 note.

URANIUM SUPPLY AND ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

For operating expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for uranium supply and enrichment activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), $1,009,040,000, to remain available until expended, of which $979,585,000 shall be derived from revenues received from the enrichment of uranium as authorized by section 111(h) of Public Law 93-438, as amended, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3617 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 484): Provided, That within the limits of this appropriation, obligations may be incurred in advance of uranium enrichment revenue collections and shall be liquidated from such collections: Provided further, That this appropriation as well as all prior year balances are merged with the Uranium Supply and Enrichment Activities Plant and Capital Equipment Appropriation.

42 USC 5821.

GENERAL SCIENCE AND RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

For operating expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for general science and research activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), $378,015,000, to remain available until expended.

ATOMIC ENERGY DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

42 USC 7101 note.

For operating expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for atomic energy defense activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), $2,890,623,000, to remain available until expended.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

For salaries and expenses for the Office of the Secretary of Energy necessary for administering the Department in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), and for official reception and representation expenses (not to exceed $35,000), $4,892,000.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

42 USC 5821.

For salaries and expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for general management, program administration, field office and program support functions and other activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the hire of passenger motor vehicles; $390,324,000, to remain available until expended, of which $184,267,000 shall be derived from moneys received as authorized by section 201 of Public Law 95-238, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3617 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 484): Provided, That of the funds provided, $7,075,000 shall be for the Office of the Inspector General.

PLANT AND CAPITAL EQUIPMENT

ENERGY SUPPLY, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

42 USC 2011 note.

For expenses of the Department of Energy in connection with the purchase, construction and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses incidental thereto necessary for energy supply, research and development activities and other activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion; purchase of passenger motor vehicles (not to exceed 135 of which 131 are for replacement only) including 6 police-type vehicles; $373,287,000, and in addition, $10,000,000 for the construction or acquisition by the Secretary of Energy of capacity for the away from reactor storage of spent nuclear fuel from electric powerplants licensed under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, all to remain available until expended.

URANIUM SUPPLY AND ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

42 USC 7101 note.

For expenses of the Department of Energy in connection with the purchase, construction and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses incidental thereto necessary for uranium supply and enrichment activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion; purchase of passenger motor vehicles (not to exceed 20 for replacement only); $276,760,000, to remain available until expended, of which $274,460,000 shall be derived from revenues received from the enrichment of uranium as authorized by section 111(h) of Public Law 93-438, as amended, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3617 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 484): Provided, That within the limits of this appropriation, obligations may be incurrred in advance of uranium enrichment revenue collections and shall be liquidated from such collections: Provided further, That this appropriation as well as all prior balances are merged with the Uranium Supply and Enrichment Activities Operating Expenses Appropriation. 42 USC 5821.

GENERAL SCIENCE AND RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

For expenses of the Department of Energy in connection with the purchase, construction and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses incidental thereto necessary for general science and research activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion; purchase of passenger motor vehicles (not to exceed 15 for replacement only); $126,400,000, to remain available until expended. 42 USC 7101 note.

ATOMIC ENERGY DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

For expenses of the Department of Energy in connection with the purchase, construction and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses incidental thereto necessary for atomic energy defense activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion; purchase of passenger motor vehicles (not to exceed 237 of which 212 are for replacement only) including 7 police-type vehicles; purchase of one aircraft for replacement only and acquisition of one additional aircraft at no cost through transfer from the Environmental Protection Agency; $600,005,000, to remain available until expended.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

For expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for departmental administration and other activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, or for the purchase, construction or acquisition of capital equipment and other expenses incidental thereto, $38,065,000, to remain available until expended.

Power Marketing Administrations

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, ALASKA POWER ADMINISTRATION

For engineering and economic investigations to promote the development and utilization of the water, power, and related resources of Alaska, and for necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of projects in Alaska and of marketing electric power and energy, $3,069,000, to remain available until expended.

BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION FUND

16 USC 838i.

Expenditures from the Bonneville Power Administration Fund, established pursuant to Public Law 93-454, are approved for construction of Southwest Oregon Service—Buckley-Summer Lake 500 KV transmission line and related facilities; and for official reception and representation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,000.

During fiscal year 1981 and within the resources and authority available, gross obligations for the principal amount of direct loans shall not exceed $2,400,000.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHEASTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

For necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of power transmission facilities and of marketing electric power and energy pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), as applied to the southeastern power area, $1,552,000, to remain available until expended.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHWESTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

For necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of power transmission facilities and of marketing electric power and energy, and for construction and acquisition of transmission lines, substations and appurtenant facilities, and for administrative expenses connected therewith, in carrying out the provisions of section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), as applied to the southwestern power area, $28,208,000, to remain available until expended.

CONSTRUCTION, REHABILITATION, OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

42 USC 7152.

For carrying out the functions authorized by title III, section 302(a)(1)(E) of the Act of August 4, 1977 (Public Law 95-91), other than the Upper Colorado River Storage Project, and for operation and maintenance of electric power transmission facilities, and power marketing including purchase power and wheeling, as authorized by law, including the purchase of passenger motor vehicles (not to exceed 17 of which 16 are for replacement only); $138,502,000, to remain available until expended, of which $124,200,000 shall be derived from the Department of the Interior Reclamation Fund and $600,000 shall be derived from the Colorado River Dam Fund for power marketing and transmission expenses of the Boulder Canyon Project.

COLORADO RIVER BASINS POWER MARKETING FUND, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

For carrying out the functions authorized by title III, section 302(a)(1)(E) of the Act of August 4, 1977 (Public Law 95-91), for the Upper Colorado River Storage Project, as authorized by the Act of April 11, 1956, as amended (43 U.S.C. 620d), $3,548,000, to remain available until expended.

EMERGENCY FUND, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

For the "Emergency Fund", as authorized by the Act of June 26, 1948 (43 U.S.C. 502), to remain available until expended for the purposes specified in that Act, $200,000, to be derived from the Department of the Interior Reclamation Fund.

FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to carry out the provisions of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, $74,374,000.

42 USC 7101 note.

GEOTHERMAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT FUND

GEOTHERMAL LOAN GUARANTEE AND INTEREST ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

For carrying out the Loan Guarantee and Interest Assistance Program as authorized by the Geothermal Energy Research, Development and Demonstration Act of 1974, as amended, $1,284,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That the indebtedness guaranteed or committed to be guaranteed through funds provided by this or any other appropriation Act shall not exceed the aggregate of $500,000,000: Provided further, That no part of this or any other appropriation for the purpose of the Loan Guarantee and Interest Assistance Program shall be available for obligation for loan guarantees or interest assistance contracts entered into after September 2, 1984: Provided further, That notwithstanding provisions in Public Law 94-355; Public Law 95-96 and Public Law 96-69 to the contrary, such portion of the funds previously appropriated for the Geothermal Loan Guarantee and Interest Assistance Program as are required to secure outstanding loan guarantee obligations for those loans still in force as of September 2, 1984, may remain available for obligation after that date for payment of valid claims against the program for a period not in excess of thirty years.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Motor vehicles, aircraft.

SEC. 101. Appropriations to the Department of Energy under this title for the current fiscal year shall be available for hire of passenger motor vehicles; hire, maintenance and operation of aircraft; purchase, repair and cleaning of uniforms; and reimbursement to the General Services Administration for security guard services. From these appropriations, transfers of sums may be made to other agencies of the United States Government for the performance of work for which this appropriation is made. None of the funds made available to the Department of Energy under this Act shall be used to implement or finance authorized price support or loan guarantee programs unless specific provision is made for such programs in an appropriation Act. The Secretary is authorized to accept lands, buildings, equipment and other contributions from public and private sources and to prosecute projects in cooperation with other agencies, Federal, State or private.

Contributions, acceptance.

Waste Isolation Pilot Plant, N. Mex.

SEC. 102. None of the funds appropriated for Department of Energy activities by this Act shall be available for any purpose related to the obtaining or issuing of a license by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to operate the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant, Delaware Basin, Southeast New Mexico (Project 77-13-f), or for any purpose related to the storage at the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant project site, radioactive waste not resulting from the national defense activities of the Department of Energy.

Appropriation transfers, submittal to congressional committees.

SEC. 103. Not to exceed 5 per centum of any appropriations made available for the current fiscal year for Energy Supply, Research and Development Activities; Uranium Supply and Enrichment Activities; General Science and Research Activities; Atomic Energy Defense Activities; and Departmental Administration may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation, except as otherwise provided, shall be increased or decreased by more than 5 per centum by any such transfers, and any such proposed transfers shall be submitted promptly to the Committees on Appropriations and the appropriate authorizing committees of the House and Senate for approval.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE—CIVIL

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—CIVIL

The following appropriations shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Army and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers for authorized civil functions of the Department of the Army pertaining to rivers and harbors, flood control, beach erosion, and related purposes.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIONS

River and harbor, flood control, shore protection, study.

For expenses necessary for the collection and study of basic information pertaining to river and harbor, flood control, shore protection, and related projects, restudy of authorized projects, and when authorized by law, surveys and studies of projects prior to authorization for construction, $134,013,000 to remain available until expended: Provided, That none of the funds made available in this paragraph shall be obligated or expended for the study of Diversion of Lake Michigan at Chicago, if such study would result in adverse diminution of generation at hydroelectric facilities on the Niagara or St. Lawrence Rivers.

CONSTRUCTION, GENERAL

For the prosecution of river and harbor, flood control, shore protection, and related projects authorized by laws; and detailed studies, and plans and specifications, of projects (including those for development with participation or under consideration for participation by States, local governments, or private groups) authorized or made eligible for selection by law (but such studies shall not constitute a commitment of the Government to construction), $1,585,742,000 to remain available until expended: Provided, That notwithstanding the provisions of Public Law 89-72 of the Federal Water Project Recreation Act of 1965 (79 Stat. 213, July 9, 1965), section 2A2, which limits the costs to be allocated to recreation or to fish and wildlife enhancement, the Corps of Engineers is directed to proceed with construction of site 20 of the Papio Creek Basin

16 USC 460*l*-13.

Nebraska plan of flood control improvements authorized by Public Law 94-83, the Flood Control Act of 1968: Provided further, That within available funds, $1,500,000 shall be for emergency beach nourishment at Mt. Baldy at the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore and shall remain available until expended: Provided further, That funds appropriated for the Siuslaw River and Bar, Oregon navigation project, authorized by the Rivers and Harbors Act of 1910, as amended and modified, shall be used to design and construct further modifications to that project in accordance with the Report of the Division Engineer, North Pacific Division, dated 16 June 1976: Provided further, That the Chief of Engineers is directed to spend not more than $3,000,000 to provide beach nourishment to replenish the authorized project for beach erosion control at Oceanside, San Diego County, California, to its previous configuration from any materials that he may reasonably obtain for that purpose.

82 Stat. 739.

36 Stat. 630.

FLOOD CONTROL, MISSISSIPPI RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES

For expenses necessary for prosecuting work of flood control, and rescue work, repair, restoration, or maintenance of flood control projects threatened or destroyed by flood, as authorized by law (33 U.S.C. 702a, 702g-1), $232,519,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That not less than $250,000 shall be available for bank stabilization measures as determined by the Chief of Engineers to be advisable for the control of bank erosion of streams in the Yazoo Basin, including the foothill area, and where necessary such measures shall complement similar works planned and constructed by the Soil Conservation Service and be limited to the areas of responsibility mutually agreeable to the District Engineer and the State Conservationist: Provided further, That none of the funds available to the Corps of Engineers' civil works program shall be available, except on a voluntary basis, for the acquisition of land or easements for the impoundment of floodwaters, or for the purpose of enlarging the four Yazoo Basin reservoirs, as determined by the Corps to be necessary because records of recent years show a more frequent incidence of high lake levels than originally calculated for the four lake projects in the Yazoo Basin, Mississippi, but this provision shall not apply to the acquisition of rights-of-way for a plan for flood protection for the town of Coffeeville which has the concurrence of community officials: Provided further, That funds in this Act for the Tensas Basin Red River Backwater Area, Louisiana project are to be used to construct features for flood control and allied purposes for Sicily Island and Below Red River including pumping stations and such other modifications of these or existing features in this area as the Chief of Engineers determines advisable, subject to non-Federal cooperation for each separable feature of such work at the time of construction as is required for work pursuant to the August 18, 1941, authorization.

55 Stat. 638.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, GENERAL

For expenses necessary for the preservation, operation, maintenance, and care of existing river and harbor, flood control, and related works, including such sums as may be necessary for the maintenance of harbor channels provided by a State, municipality or other public agency, outside of harbor lines, and serving essential needs of general commerce and navigation; administration of laws pertaining to preservation of navigable waters; surveys and charting of northern and northwestern lakes and connecting waters; clearing and straightening channels; and removal of obstructions to navigation; $902,605,000 to remain available until expended: Provided, That not to exceed $1,000,000 shall be available to reimburse non-Federal public interests for the costs of diking dredged disposal areas at Federal projects provided by non-Federal public interests and for funds contributed or advanced to the Secretary of the Army by non-Federal public interests for diking of dredged disposal areas at Federal projects, during the period October 1, 1978, to December 3, 1979, where the Secretary of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers, determines that such costs of diking or funds contributed or advanced and expended were not specifically required of such non-Federal public interests by project authorization: Provided further, That the authorized project dimensions for East Pass Channel, Florida, are hereby modified to provide a channel length of approximately 3,800 feet in lieu of 2,000 feet from the East Pass Channel into Old Pass Lagoon, with no changes in width and depth.

REVOLVING FUND

For design and construction of hopper dredges, and for the purchase of one aircraft, $43,225,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That approximately $8,500,000 of this amount shall be used for the purchase of one aircraft for replacement of the existing aircraft of the Chief of Engineers.

GENERAL EXPENSES

For expenses necessary for general administration and related functions in the office of the Chief of Engineers and offices of the Division Engineers; activities of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors and the Coastal Engineering Research Center; commercial statistics; and miscellaneous investigations; $81,030,000.

SPECIAL RECREATION USE FEES

For construction, operation, and maintenance of outdoor recreation facilities, including collection of special recreation use fees, to remain available until expended, $5,000,000, to be derived from the special account established by the Land and Water Conservation Act of 1965, as amended (16 U.S.C. 460l).

16 USC 460l-4 note.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Appropriations in this title shall be available for expenses of attendance by military personnel at meetings in the manner authorized by 5 U.S.C. 4110, uniforms, and allowances therefor, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 5901-5902), and for printing, either during a recess or session of Congress, of survey reports authorized by law, and such survey reports as may be printed during a recess of Congress shall be printed, with illustrations, as documents of the next succeeding session of Congress; not to exceed $2,000 for official reception and representation expenses; and during the current fiscal year the revolving fund, Corps of Engineers, shall be available for purchase (not to exceed 221 of which 216 shall be for replacement only) and hire of passenger motor vehicles: Provided, That the total accrued expenditures of the capital investment program of the revolving fund shall not exceed $150,000,000 in fiscal year 1981.

GENERAL PROVISION

SEC. 201. None of the funds appropriated in this title, except as specifically contained herein, shall be used to alter, modify, dismantle, or otherwise change any project which is partially constructed but not funded for construction in this title.

FLOOD CONTROL PROJECTS

SEC. 202. (a) The Secretary of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers, is authorized and directed to design and construct, at full Federal expense, such flood control measures at or in the vicinity of—

(1) Pikesville, Kentucky, and of Grundy, Virginia, on the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River,

(2) Pineville, Kentucky, on the Cumberland River, and

(3) Williamson and Matewan, West Virginia, on the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River, as the Chief of Engineers determines necessary and advisable to afford these communities and other flood damaged localities and their immediate environs on both the Levisa and Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River and Cumberland River a level of protection against flooding at least sufficient to prevent any future losses to these communities from the likelihood of flooding such as occurred in April 1977, at an estimated cost of $284,000,000. Non-Federal interests shall hold and save the United States free from damages due to construction works referred to in this section, and maintain and operate all such works after their completion in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Army.

(b) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(c) The Congress finds that the benefits attributable to the objectives set forth in section 209 of the Flood Control Act of 1970 exceed the cost of the flood control measures authorized by this section. 42 USC 1962-2.

TITLE III—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

WATER AND POWER RESOURCES SERVICE

For carrying out the functions of the Water and Power Resources Service as provided in the Federal reclamation laws (Act of June 17, 1902, 32 Stat. 388, and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto) and other Acts applicable to that Service as follows: 43 USC 371 note.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIONS

For engineering and economic investigations of proposed Federal reclamation projects and studies of water conservation and development plans and activities preliminary to the reconstruction, rehabilitation and betterment, financial adjustment, or extension of existing projects, to remain available until expended, $38,629,000, of which $38,579,000 is to be derived from the reclamation fund.

CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

For construction and rehabilitation of projects and parts thereof (including power transmission facilities for Water and Power Resources Service use) and for other related activities as authorized by law, to remain available until expended, $570,641,000, of which $118,392,000 shall be available for advances to the Upper Colorado

43 USC 620d. River Basin Fund authorized by section 5 of the Act of April 11, 1956, and $135,235,000 shall be available for advances to the Lower Colorado River Basin Fund authorized by section 403 of the Act of 43 USC 1543. September 30, 1968: Provided, That of the total appropriated, $162,602,000 shall be derived from the Reclamation Fund: Provided further, That advances to the Upper Colorado River Basin Fund and Lower Colorado River Basin Development Fund may be increased or decreased by transfers within the overall appropriation to this heading: Provided further, That the unexpended balances of the appropriation accounts for "Construction and Rehabilitation", "Colorado River Basin Salinity Control Projects", and "Recreational and Fish and Wildlife" shall be merged into one and made available for the same purposes as appropriations under this heading: Provided further, That the final point of discharge for the interceptor drain for the San Luis Unit shall not be determined until development by the Secretary of the Interior and the State of California of a plan, which shall conform with the water quality standards of the State of California as approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to minimize any detrimental effect of the San Luis drainage waters: Provided further, That of the total amount appropriated in this Act not to exceed $2,000,000 is for archeological research and recovery operations, in addition to any funds otherwise authorized for such operations, at New Melones Dam and Reservoir, California, authorized by the Flood Control Act of 1962: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to allocate as nonreimbursable and nonreturnable that part of the cost of constructing Red Fleet Dam on the Jensen Unit, Central Utah Project, which resulted from changes in the design to recognize state-of-the-art criteria deemed necessary for dam safety: Provided further, That no part of the funds herein approved shall be available for construction or operation of facilities to prevent waters of Lake Powell from entering any national monument: Provided further, That of the amount herein appropriated not to exceed $6,000,000 for the Wellton-Mohawk Irrigation and Drainage District, Gila Project, Arizona, shall be available for improvement of the Gila River Channel to facilitate drainage of lands within the District under a repayment obligation heretofore established by existing contract between the Secretary of the Interior and the District: Provided further, That of the amount herein appropriated not to exceed $10,000 shall be available to initiate a rehabilitation and betterment program with the Fremont-Madison Irrigation District to rehabilitate the facilities of the Marysville, Farmer's Own, Yellowstone, Squirrel Creek, and Silky Canal Companies under the Act of October 7, 1949 (63 Stat. 724), as amended, to be repaid in full by the lands served and under conditions satisfactory to the Secretary of Interior. 43 USC 504.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

For operation and maintenance of reclamation projects or parts thereof and other facilities, as authorized by law; and for a soil and moisture conservation program on lands under the jurisdiction of the Water and Power Resources Service pursuant to law, to remain available until expended, $101,117,000, of which $62,398,000 shall be derived from the reclamation fund and $12,858,000 shall be derived from the Colorado River Dam fund: Provided, That funds advanced by water users for operation and maintenance of reclamation projects or parts thereof shall be deposited to the credit of this appropriation and may be expended for the same objects and in the same manner as sums appropriated herein may be expended, and such advances shall remain available until expended.

LOAN PROGRAM

For loans to irrigation districts and other public agencies for construction of distribution systems on authorized Federal reclamation projects, and for loans and grants to non-Federal agencies for construction of projects, as authorized by the Acts of July 4, 1955, as amended (43 U.S.C. 421a–421d), and August 6, 1956, as amended (43 U.S.C. 422a–422k), including expenses necessary for carrying out the program, $22,924,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That during 1981, and within the resources and authority available, gross obligations for the principal amount of direct loans shall not exceed $38,000,000: Provided further, That any contract under the Act of July 4, 1955, (69 Stat. 244), as amended, not yet executed by the Secretary, which calls for the making of loans beyond the fiscal year in which the contract is entered into shall be made only on the same conditions as those prescribed in section 12 of the Act of August 4, 1939 (53 Stat. 1187, 1197).

43 USC 421a.

43 USC 388.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of general administration and related functions in the offices of the Commissioner of the Water and Power Resources Service and in the regional offices of the Water and Power Resources Service, $38,150,000, to be derived from the reclamation fund and to be nonreimbursable pursuant to the Act of April 19, 1945 (43 U.S.C. 377): Provided, That no part of any other appropriation in this Act shall be available for activities or functions budgeted for the current fiscal year as general administrative expenses.

SPECIAL FUNDS

Sums herein referred to as being derived from the Reclamation fund, the Colorado River Dam fund, or the Colorado River development fund, are appropriated from the special funds in the Treasury created by the Act of June 17, 1902 (43 U.S.C. 391), the Act of December 21, 1928 (43 U.S.C. 617a), and the Act of July 19, 1940 (43 U.S.C. 618a) respectively. Such sums shall be transferred, upon request of the Secretary, to be merged with and expended under the heads herein specified; and the unexpended balances of sums transferred for expenditure under the heads "Operation and Maintenance" and "General Administrative Expenses" shall revert and be credited to the special fund from which derived.

Transfer of funds.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Appropriations for the Water and Power Resources Service shall be available for purchase of not to exceed 30 passenger motor vehicles of which 26 shall be for replacement only; payment of claims for damages to or loss of property, personal injury, or death arising out of activities of the Water and Power Resources Service; payment, except as otherwise provided for, of compensation and expenses of persons on the rolls of the Water and Power Resources Service appointed as authorized by law to represent the United States in the negotiations and administration of interstate compacts without reimbursement or return under the reclamation laws; for service as authorized by 5

U.S.C. 3109, in total not to exceed $300,000; rewards for information or evidence concerning violations of law involving property under the jurisdiction of the Water and Power Resources Service; performance of the functions specified under the head "Operation and Maintenance Administration", Bureau of Reclamation, in the Interior Department Appropriation Act, 1945; preparation and dissemination of useful information including recordings, photographs, and photographic prints; and studies of recreational uses of reservoir areas, and investigation and recovery of archeological and paleontological remains in such areas in the same manner as provided for in the Act of August 21, 1935 (16 U.S.C. 461-467): Provided, That no part of any appropriation made herein shall be available pursuant to the Act of April 19, 1945 (43 U.S.C. 377), for expenses other than those incurred on behalf of specific reclamation projects except "General Administrative Expenses" and amounts provided for reconnaissance, basin surveys, and general engineering and research under the head "General Investigations".

58 Stat. 463.

Sums appropriated herein which are expended in the performance of reimbursable functions of the Water and Power Resources Service shall be returnable to the extent and in the manner provided by law.

No part of any appropriation for the Water and Power Resources Service, contained in this Act or in any prior Act, which represents amounts earned under the terms of a contract but remaining unpaid, shall be obligated for any other purpose, regardless of when such amounts are to be paid: Provided, That the incurring of any obligation prohibited by this paragraph shall be deemed a violation of section 3679 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (31 U.S.C. 665).

43 USC 377a.

No funds appropriated to the Water and Power Resources Service for operation and maintenance, except those derived from advances by water users, shall be used for the particular benefits of lands (a) within the boundaries of an irrigation district, (b) of any member of a water users' organization, or (c) of any individual when such district, organization, or individual is in arrears for more than twelve months in the payment of charges due under a contract entered into with the United States pursuant to laws administered by the Water and Power Resources Service.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Emergency reconstruction.

SEC. 301. Appropriations in this title shall be available for expenditure or transfer (within each bureau or office), with the approval of the Secretary, for the emergency reconstruction, replacement, or repair of aircraft, buildings, utilities, or other facilities or equipment damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, storm, or other unavoidable causes: Provided, That no funds shall be made available under this authority until funds specifically made available to the Department of the Interior for emergencies shall have been exhausted.

Additional appropriations.

SEC. 302. The Secretary may authorize the expenditure or transfer (within each bureau or office) of any appropriation in this title, in addition to the amounts included in the budget programs of the several agencies, for the suppression or emergency prevention of forest or range fires on or threatening lands under jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior.

Facilities, operation.

SEC. 303. Appropriations in this title shall be available for operation of warehouses, garages, shops, and similar facilities, wherever consolidation of activities will contribute to efficiency, or economy, and said appropriations shall be reimbursed for services rendered to any other activity in the same manner as authorized by the Act of June 30, 1932 (31 U.S.C. 686): Provided, That reimbursements for costs of supplies, materials, equipment, and for services rendered may be credited to the appropriation current at the time such reimbursements are received.

Aircraft and motor vehicles.

SEC. 304. Appropriations in this title shall be available for hire, maintenance, and operation of aircraft; hire of passenger motor vehicles; purchase of reprints; payment for telephone services in private residences in the field, when authorized under regulations approved by the Secretary; and the payment of dues, when authorized by the Secretary, for library membership in societies or associations which issue publications to members only or at a price to members lower than to subscribers who are not members.

96th Congress

An Act

To authorize the Department of Energy to carry out a high-level liquid nuclear waste management demonstration project at the Western New York Service Center in West Valley, New York.

Oct. 1, 1980
[S. 2443]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the "West Valley Demonstration Project Act".

West Valley Demonstration Project Act.
42 USC 2021a note.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary shall carry out, in accordance with this Act, a high level radioactive waste management demonstration project at the Western New York Service Center in West Valley, New York, for the purpose of demonstrating solidification techniques which can be used for preparing high level radioactive waste for disposal. Under the project the Secretary shall carry out the following activities:

42 USC 2021a note.

Activities.

(1) The Secretary shall solidify, in a form suitable for transportation and disposal, the high level radioactive waste at the Center by vitrification or by such other technology which the Secretary determines to be the most effective for solidification.

(2) The Secretary shall develop containers suitable for the permanent disposal of the high level radioactive waste solidified at the Center.

(3) The Secretary shall, as soon as feasible, transport, in accordance with applicable provisions of law, the waste solidified at the Center to an appropriate Federal repository for permanent disposal.

(4) The Secretary shall, in accordance with applicable licensing requirements, dispose of low level radioactive waste and transuranic waste produced by the solidification of the high level radioactive waste under the project.

(5) The Secretary shall decontaminate and decommission—

(A) the tanks and other facilities of the Center in which the high level radioactive waste solidified under the project was stored,

(B) the facilities used in the solidification of the waste, and

(C) any material and hardware used in connection with the project, in accordance with such requirements as the Commission may prescribe.

(b) Before undertaking the project and during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, the Secretary shall carry out the following:

Hearings.

(1) The Secretary shall hold in the vicinity of the Center public hearings to inform the residents of the area in which the Center is located of the activities proposed to be undertaken under the project and to receive their comments on the project.

(2) The Secretary shall consider the various technologies available for the solidification and handling of high level radioactive waste taking into account the unique characteristics of such waste at the Center.

(3) The Secretary shall—

(A) undertake detailed engineering and cost estimates for the project,

(B) prepare a plan for the safe removal of the high level radioactive waste at the Center for the purposes of solidification and include in the plan provisions respecting the safe breaching of the tanks in which the waste is stored, operating equipment to accomplish the removal, and sluicing techniques,

(C) conduct appropriate safety analyses of the project, and

(D) prepare required environmental impact analyses of the project.

41 USC 501 note.

(4) The Secretary shall enter into a cooperative agreement with the State in accordance with the Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act of 1977 under which the State will carry out the following:

(A) The State will make available to the Secretary the facilities of the Center and the high level radioactive waste at the Center which are necessary for the completion of the project. The facilities and the waste shall be made available without the transfer of title and for such period as may be required for completion of the project.

(B) The Secretary shall provide technical assistance in securing required license amendments.

State costs.

(C) The State shall pay 10 per centum of the costs of the project, as determined by the Secretary. In determining the costs of the project, the Secretary shall consider the value of the use of the Center for the project. The State may not use Federal funds to pay its share of the cost of the project, but may use the perpetual care fund to pay such share.

Licensing amendment application.

(D) Submission jointly by the Department of Energy and the State of New York of an application for a licensing amendment as soon as possible with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission providing for the demonstration.

42 USC 2011 note.
42 USC 5801 note.

(c) Within one year from the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall enter into an agreement with the Commission to establish arrangements for review and consultation by the Commission with respect to the project: Provided, That review and consultation by the Commission pursuant to this subsection shall be conducted informally by the Commission and shall not include nor require formal procedures or actions by the Commission pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, as amended, or any other law. The agreement shall provide for the following:

Publication in Federal Register.

(1) The Secretary shall submit to the Commission, for its review and comment, a plan for the solidification of the high level radioactive waste at the Center, the removal of the waste for purposes of its solidification, the preparation of the waste for disposal, and the decontamination of the facilities to be used in solidifying the waste. In preparing its comments on the plan, the Commission shall specify with precision its objections to any provision of the plan. Upon submission of a plan to the Commission, the Secretary shall publish a notice in the Federal Register of the submission of the plan and of its availability for public inspection, and, upon receipt of the comments of the Commission respecting a plan, the Secretary shall publish a notice in the Federal Register of the receipt of the comments and of the availability of the comments for public inspection. If the Secretary does not revise the plan to meet objections specified in the comments of the Commission, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register a detailed statement for not so revising the plan.

(2) The Secretary shall consult with the Commission with respect to the form in which the high level radioactive waste at the Center shall be solidified and the containers to be used in the permanent disposal of such waste.

Reports to Commission.

(3) The Secretary shall submit to the Commission safety analysis reports and such other information as the Commission may require to identify any danger to the public health and safety which may be presented by the project.

(4) The Secretary shall afford the Commission access to the Center to enable the Commission to monitor the activities under the project for the purpose of assuring the public health and safety.

Consultation.

(d) In carrying out the project, the Secretary shall consult with the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, the Secretary of Transportation, the Director of the Geological Survey, and the commercial operator of the Center.

Appropriation authorization.
42 USC 2021a note.

SEC. 3. (a) There are authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary for the project not more than $5,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981.

(b) The total amount obligated for the project by the Secretary shall be 90 per centum of the costs of the project.

(c) The authority of the Secretary to enter into contracts under this Act shall be effective for any fiscal year only to such extent or in such amounts as are provided in advance by appropriation Acts.

Report to Speaker of the House and President pro tempore of the Senate.
42 USC 2021a note.

SEC. 4. Not later than February 1, 1981, and on February 1 of each calendar year thereafter during the term of the project, the Secretary shall transmit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the Senate an up-to-date report containing a detailed description of the activities of the Secretary in carrying out the project, including agreements entered into and the costs incurred during the period reported on and the activities to be undertaken in the next fiscal year and the estimated costs thereof.

42 USC 2021a note.

42 USC 2011 note.

42 USC 5801 note.

SEC. 5. (a) Other than the costs and responsibilities established by this Act for the project, nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting any rights, obligations, or liabilities of the commercial operator of the Center, the State, or any person, as is appropriate, arising under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 or under any other law, contract, or agreement for the operation, maintenance, or decontamination of any facility or property at the Center or for any wastes at the Center. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting any applicable licensing requirement of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 or the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974. This Act shall not apply or be extended to any facility or property at the Center which is not used in conducting the project. This Act may not be construed to expand or diminish the rights of the Federal Government.

(b) This Act does not authorize the Federal Government to acquire title to any high level radioactive waste at the Center or to the Center or any portion thereof.

Definitions.
42 USC 2021a note.

SEC. 6. For purposes of this Act:

(1) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Energy.

(2) The term "Commission" means the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

(3) The term "State" means the State of New York.

(4) The term "high level radioactive waste" means the high level radioactive waste which was produced by the reprocessing at the Center of spent nuclear fuel. Such term includes both liquid wastes which are produced directly in reprocessing, dry solid material derived from such liquid waste, and such other material as the Commission designates as high level radioactive waste for purposes of protecting the public health and safety.

(5) The term "transuranic waste" means material contaminated with elements which have an atomic number greater than 92, including neptunium, plutonium, americium, and curium, and which are in concentrations greater than 10 nanocuries per gram, or in such other concentrations as the Commission may prescribe to protect the public health and safety.

(6) The term "low level radioactive waste" means radioactive waste not classified as high level radioactive waste, transuranic waste, or byproduct material as defined in section 11 e. (2) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954. 42 USC 2014.

(7) The term "project" means the project prescribed by section 2(a).

(8) The term "Center" means the Western New York Service Center in West Valley, New York.

96th Congress

Joint Resolution

Making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1981, and for other purposes.

Oct. 1, 1980
[H.J. Res. 610]

Continuing appropriations, FY 1981.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and out of applicable corporate or other revenues, receipts, and funds, for the several departments, agencies, corporations, and other organizational units of the Government for the fiscal year 1981, and for other purposes, namely:

SEC. 101. (a)(1) Such amounts as may be necessary for projects or activities (not otherwise specifically provided for in this joint resolution) for which appropriations, funds, or other authority would be available in the following appropriation Acts:

Agriculture, Rural Development, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981;

District of Columbia Appropriation Act, 1981;

Department of Housing and Urban Development—Independent Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981;

Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981;

Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981;

Military Construction Appropriation Act, 1981;

Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981;

Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981; and Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriation Act, 1981.

(2) Appropriations made by this subsection shall be available to the extent and in the manner which would be provided by the pertinent appropriation Act.

(3) Whenever the amount which would be made available or the authority which would be granted under an Act listed in this subsection as passed by the House as of October 1, 1980, is different from that which would be available or granted under such Act as passed by the Senate as of October 1, 1980, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the lesser amount or the more restrictive authority: Provided, That where an item is included in only one version of an Act as passed by both Houses as of October 1, 1980, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the appropriation, fund, or authority granted by the one House, but at a rate for operations not exceeding the current rate or the rate permitted by the action of the one House, whichever is lower, and under the authority and conditions provided in applicable appropriation Acts for the fiscal year 1980.

(4) Whenever an Act listed in this subsection has been passed by only the House as of October 1, 1980, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the appropriation, fund, or authority granted by the House, but at a rate for operations not exceeding the current rate or the rate permitted by the action of the House, whichever is lower, and under the authority and conditions provided in applicable appropriation Acts for the fiscal year 1980, except section 201 of title II of the Departments of Labor, and Health, Education, and Welfare and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1980 (H.R. 4389) as adopted by the House of Representatives on August 2, 1979, and except for title III of the Agriculture, Rural Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, the programs in which shall continue at the rate of operations as provided for in the House-passed appropriation bill for fiscal year 1981.

(5) No provision which is included in an appropriation Act enumerated in this subsection but which was not included in the applicable appropriation Act of 1980, and which by its terms is applicable to more than one appropriation, fund, or authority shall be applicable to any appropriation, fund, or authority provided in the joint resolution unless such provision shall have been included in identical form in such bill as enacted by both the House and the Senate.

22 USC 2680.

(b) Notwithstanding section 10 of Public Law 91-672, and section 15(a) of the Act entitled, "An Act to provide certain basic authority for the Department of State", approved August 1, 1956, as amended, such amounts as may be necessary for continuing projects or activities which were conducted in fiscal year 1980 and would be provided for in H.R. 7854, the Foreign Assistance and Related Programs Appropriation Act, 1981, as reported July 29, 1980, at a rate of operations not in excess of the rate which would have been provided under the terms of the conference report (House Report 96-787), and in accordance with associated agreements stated in the Joint Explanatory Statement of the Committee of Conference, accompanying H.R. 4473, except that for Operating Expenses of the Agency for International Development the rate for operations shall be at an annual rate of $280,000,000: Provided, That not more than $105,700,000 of this amount shall be for AID/Washington Operating Expenses.

(c) Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing projects and activities under all the conditions and to the extent and in the manner as provided in H.R. 7593, entitled the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1981, as passed the House of Representatives, July 21, 1980, except section 309 of H.R. 7593 shall be deemed not to be applicable to the General Accounting Office; and the provisions of section 306 of H.R. 7593 shall apply to any appropriation, fund or authority made available for the period October 1, 1980, through December 15, 1980, by this or any other Act. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except section 102, and notwithstanding section 110 of this joint resolution, none of the funds made available by this joint resolution for programs and activities for which appropriations would be available in H.R. 7998, entitled the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981, as passed the House of Representatives on August 27, 1980, shall be used to perform abortions except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term; or except for such medical procedures necessary for the victims of rape or incest, when such rape has within seventy-two hours been reported to a law enforcement agency or public health service; nor are payments prohibited for drugs or devices to prevent implantation of the fertilized ovum, or for medical procedures necessary for the termination of an ectopic pregnancy:

(l) Such amounts as provided in H.R. 8105, entitled the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1981, as passed the House of Representatives, September 16, 1980, and under the authority and conditions provided in the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1980.

Appropriations, availability.

SEC. 102. Appropriations and funds made available and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall be available from October 1, 1980, and shall remain available until (a) enactment into law of an appropriation for any project or activity provided for in this joint resolution, or (b) enactment of the applicable appropriation Act by both Houses without any provision for such project or activity, or (c) December 15, 1980, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 103. Appropriations and funds made available or authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution may be used without regard to the time limitations for submission and approval of apportionments set forth in section 665(d)(2) of title 31, United States Code, but nothing herein shall be construed to waive any other provision of law governing the apportionment of funds.

SEC. 104. Appropriations made and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall cover all obligations or expenditures incurred for any project or activity during the period for which funds or authority for such projects or activity are available under this joint resolution.

SEC. 105. Expenditures made pursuant to this joint resolution shall be charged to the applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization whenever a bill in which such applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization is contained is enacted into law.

SEC. 106. Any appropriation for the fiscal year 1981 required to be apportioned pursuant to section 665 of title 31, United States Code, may be apportioned on a basis indicating the need (to the extent any such increases cannot be absorbed within available appropriations) for a supplemental or deficiency estimate of appropriation to the extent necessary to permit payment of such pay increases as may be granted pursuant to law to civilian officers and employees and to active and retired military personnel. Each such appropriation shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of section 665 of title 31, United States Code.

SEC. 107. All obligations incurred in anticipation of the appropriations and authority provided in this joint resolution for the purposes of maintaining the minimum level of essential activities necessary to protect life and property and bringing about orderly termination of other functions are hereby ratified and confirmed if otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this joint resolution.

SEC. 108. No provision in any appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1981 that makes the availability of any appropriation provided therein dependent upon the enactment of additional authorizing or other legislation shall be effective before the date set forth in section 102(c) of this joint resolution.

Public school voluntary prayer and meditation.

SEC. 109. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except section 102, none of the funds made available by this joint resolution for programs and activities for which appropriations would be available in H.R. 7998, entitled the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981, as passed the House of Representatives on August 27, 1980, shall be used to prevent the implementation of programs of voluntary prayer and meditation in the public schools.

Abortions. Funding restrictions.

SEC. 110. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except section 102, none of the funds made available by this joint resolution for programs and activities for which appropriations would be available in H.R. 7998, entitled the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1981, as passed the House of Representatives on August 27, 1980, shall be used to perform abortions except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term; or except for such medical procedures necessary for the victims of rape or incest, when such rape or incest has been reported within forty-eight hours to a law enforcement agency or public health service; nor are payments prohibited for drugs or devices to prevent implantation of the fertilized ovum, or for medical procedures necessary for the termination of an ectopic pregnancy: Provided, however, That the several States are and shall remain free not to fund abortions to the extent that they in their sole discretion deem appropriate.

Joint Resolution

Authorizing and requesting the President of the United States to issue a proclamation designating the seven calendar days beginning October 5, 1980, as "National Port Week", and for other purposes.

Oct. 3, 1980
[H.J. Res. 551]

Whereas the past development of the public ports of the United States is the result of a fruitful partnership in which State and local authorities have assumed major responsibilities for land-based port development with the Federal Government constructing and maintaining the navigable waterways and harbors of the United States;

Whereas the economic, social, and cultural developments in the history of the port cities and States has mirrored the conditions of the ports of the United States;

Whereas ports serving the United States waterborne commerce are responsible for the creation and continued employment of more than one million workers and an annual contribution in excess of $56,000,000,000 to our Nation's economic well-being;

Whereas the development of our Nation's ports is indispensable to our foreign trade and vital for the achievement of a favorable balance of trade;

Whereas viable United States ports are necessary to national security and the maintenance of an adequate defense;

Whereas the continued development of the ports of the United States is being adversely affected by economic, physical, and other factors, including the problems associated with the adequacy of the harbors and channels;

Whereas the ability of the public ports to continue their vital contribution to national security and welfare may be in question; and

Whereas there is an urgent need for continuing attention to the needs of the public ports of the United States: Now, therefore, be it

National Port Week. Designation authorization.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the seven-day period beginning October 5, 1980, as "National Port Week" and to invite the Governors of the several States, the chief officials of local governments, and the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

TITLE I—ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW TITLE I OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

NEW PROGRAMS ESTABLISHED

SEC. 101. (a) Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "Act") is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE I—CONTINUING POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION PROGRAM AND PLANNING

"PART A—COMMISSION ON NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

"FINDINGS

"SEC. 101. The Congress finds— 20 USC 1001.

"(1) that institutions of higher education in our Nation and their human and intellectual resources are critical to the future of the American society, and that the Nation's economic potential, its strength and freedom, and the quality of life for all citizens are tied to the quality and extent of higher education available;

"(2) that it is the responsibility of the Federal Government, consistent with the rights, duties, and privileges of States and institutions of higher education, to promote—

"(A) equality of access to postsecondary education, without regard to age, race, sex, creed, handicap, national origin, geographic location, or economic status;

"(B) freedom of choice to students who wish to participate in postsecondary education, to select institutions and programs which meet their needs and abilities;

"(C) quality of postsecondary education, including the maintenance and extension of academic freedom, responsibility, and educational diversity;

"(D) responsiveness of postsecondary education to rapidly changing social and economic needs; and

"(E) the efficient use of resources in postsecondary education, and the optimal allocation of human, physical and financial resources, through efficient planning and management to achieve these goals; and

"(3) that demographic, economic, and social changes will require institutions of postsecondary education to adapt to the future needs of individuals and of American society.

"ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSION ON NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

20 USC 1002.

"SEC. 102. (a) There is established a Commission to be known as the Commission on National Development in Postsecondary Education to review the effectiveness of policies to promote the Federal responsibilities set forth in clauses (A) through (E) of section 101(2).

"(b) The Commission shall be composed of twenty-five members as follows:

"(1) Nine members shall be appointed by the President of the United States.

"(2) Eight of the members shall be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate upon the recommendation of the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader.

"(3) Eight members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"(c)(1) Of each class specified in subsection (b) not more than four members shall be from the same political party, except in the case of the members appointed under clause (1), in which case not more than five members shall be from the same political party. The members of the Commission appointed from private life shall be individuals who by reason of experience or training are especially qualified to serve on the Commission.

Appointments.

"(2) In making appointments under subsection (b) of this section the President, the President pro tempore, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall give due consideration to the appointment of individuals who, collectively, will provide appropriate representation of institutions of higher education, State agencies responsible for postsecondary education, labor, the business community, and public service.

"(d) Any vacancy in the Commission shall not affect its powers but shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

"(e) The Commission shall select a Chairman and a Vice Chairman from among its members.

"(f) Thirteen members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but the Commission may establish a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of holding hearings, taking testimony, and receiving evidence.

Compensation.

"(g)(1) Members of the Commission who are Members of Congress or officers or employees of the executive branch of the Government shall serve without additional compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence and other necessary expenses incurred by them in carrying out the duties of the Commission.

"(2) Members of the Commission not otherwise employed by the Federal Government shall receive compensation at a rate equal to the daily rate prescribed for GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, including traveltime for each day they are engaged in the performance of their duties as members of the Commission and shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred by them in carrying out the duties of the Commission.

"DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION

Study.
20 USC 1003.

"SEC. 103. (a) The Commission shall study and investigate the extent to which national policies promote the objectives set forth in clauses (A) through (E) of section 101(2). Such study shall include, but not be limited to, consideration of—

"(1) the extent to which postsecondary educational planning by States and localities and institutions of higher education is designed to identify the future needs of education in American society;

"(2) the effectiveness of Federal financial assistance to students and institutions of higher education in promoting national development of postsecondary education in the most efficient manner;

"(3) the physical and financial capacity of institutions of higher education to carry out their mission, including the conduct of basic and applied research in the humanities and scientific and technical fields, and the relationship between institutions of higher education, public agencies, and the private sector in developing the capacity of higher education to promote such research;

"(4) the human and technical resources currently and prospectively available to institutions of higher education to enable them to address and respond to national and worldwide social and economic forces;

"(5) the effect of demographic changes on institutions of higher education and their constituent disciplines and professions and the ability of such institutions to meet national needs; and

"(6) the extent to which Federal student assistance may be used to promote the recruiting of individuals to serve in the Armed Forces and to retain members of the Armed Forces.

"(b)(1) In addition, the Commission shall conduct a study of the remaining barriers to adult postsecondary education which analyzes the characteristics of current or potential adult postsecondary students, the Federal response to the needs of adult postsecondary students, and the ability of educational institutions to respond to the growing postsecondary student population. For the purpose of the study conducted under this subsection, the term 'adult postsecondary student' means individuals twenty-two years of age or older.

"Adult postsecondary student."

"(2) In analyzing the characteristics of current or potential adult postsecondary students and the Federal response to their needs, the Commission shall—

"(A) review the extent to which such students are motivated by employment goals, and whether these students seek further education in order to enter the labor force or reenter after an extended absence, advance in a current career, or move from one career to another;

"(B) analyze the relationship between different employment motivations and sources of financial assistance for education, choice of institution or patterns of participation in postsecondary education;

"(C) evaluate the extent to which the unavailability or inaccessibility of financial aid sources may prevent educational participation by economically or socially disadvantaged adults, or otherwise limit their choice of educational focus or intensity of study; and

"(D) evaluate the extent to which age represents a barrier to participation in postsecondary education and the potential for greater participation in postsecondary education by individuals age 60 and older.

"(3) In analyzing the ability of postsecondary institutions to respond to the potential adult postsecondary student population, the Commission shall, at a mimimum—

"(A) review the availability of outreach, information, counseling, or supportive service programs, with particular attention to programs serving adults such as homemakers or retirees who are least likely to have access to normal sources of educational information; and

"(B) review the availability of alternative methods of evaluating past education credits and experience to promote adult participation in postsecondary education, and the availability of remedial courses for adult students.

"(4) The Commission shall coordinate the study conducted under this subsection with the research and demonstration priorities of the National Institute of Education, and such other studies on student financial assistance as are authorized by this Act.

Reports to President and Congress.

"(c) The Commission shall submit to the President and to the Congress such interim reports as it deems advisable and, not later than December 31, 1983, a final report of its study and investigation together with such recommendations, including recommendations for legislation, as the Commission deems advisable.

Termination.

"(d) The Commission shall cease to exist 60 days after the submission of its final report.

"POWERS AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

20 USC 1004.

"Sec. 104. (a) The Commission or, on authorization of the Commission, any subcommittee or member thereof, may, for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, hold such hearings, sit and act at such times and places, as the Commission or such subcommittee or member may deem advisable.

"(b) The Commission may acquire directly from the head of any department, agency, independent instrumentality, or other authority of the executive branch of the Government, available information which the Commission considers useful in the discharge of its duties. All departments, agencies, and independent instrumentalities, or other authorities of the executive branch of the Government, shall cooperate with the Commission and furnish all information requested by the Commission to the extent permitted by law.

"(c) The Commission is authorized to—

5 USC 101.
5 USC 5101 et seq.
5 USC 5331.

"(1) appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, and without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates;

"(2) obtain the services of experts and consultants in accordance with the provisions of section 3109 of title 5, United States Code;

"(3) enter into agreements with the General Services Administration for procurement of necessary financial and administrative services, for which payment shall be made by reimbursement from funds of the Commission in such amounts as may be agreed upon by the Chairman and the Administrator of General Services;

"(4) procure supplies, services, and property, and make contracts, without regard to the laws and procedures applicable to Federal agencies; and

"(5) enter into contracts with Federal or State agencies, private firms, institutions, and agencies for the conduct of research or surveys, the preparation of reports, and other activities necessary to the discharge of its duties.

Contract authority.

"AUTHORIZATION

"Sec. 105. There are authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 to carry out the provisions of this part for the period beginning October 1, 1981 through March 1, 1984.

20 USC 1005.

"Part B—Education Outreach Programs

"FINDINGS

"Sec. 111. The Congress finds that—

20 USC 1011.

"(1) the rapid pace of social, economic, and technological change has created pressing needs for postsecondary educational opportunities for adults in all stages of life;

"(2) postsecondary educational opportunities in the United States are traditionally provided for individuals between the ages of eighteen and twenty-two;

"(3) many adults are barred from advancement or self-sufficiency by lack of access to, and lack of retention in, postsecondary educational opportunities appropriate to their needs, or by lack of information or support services concerning the availability of postsecondary educational opportunities;

"(4) access to postsecondary educational opportunities is severely limited for adults whose educational needs have been inadequately served during youth, or whose age, sex, race, handicap, national origin, rural isolation, or economic circumstance may be a barrier to such opportunities;

"(5) with declining population growth rates, the future of postsecondary education in the United States is largely dependent upon its ability to respond to the challenges of new student populations;

"(6) service in continuing education will be better achieved through increased emphasis on planning and coordination which more effectively utilizes existing resources of both public and private sectors; and

"(7) to meet the unique problems and needs of adults who are disadvantaged in seeking access to postsecondary educational opportunities, resources must be marshalled from a wide range of institutions and groups, including community colleges, community-based educational institutions, business, industry, labor, and other public and private organizations and institutions.

"STATE ALLOTMENTS

"Sec. 112. (a)(1) From 90 per centum of the funds appropriated for is part for each fiscal year, the Secretary shall—

Post, p. 1493.

"(A) allot to each State having an agreement under section 1203 of this Act an amount which bears the same ratio to 60 per centum of such amount as the adult population of that State bears to the adult population of all States, and

"(B) allot 40 per centum of such amount to all States having an agreement under section 1203 on an equal basis, except that no State shall receive less than $187,500 in any such fiscal year. If 90 per centum of the sums appropriated for any fiscal year are insufficient to pay the allotment specified in clauses (A) and (B) of the previous sentence and the exception contained in the previous sentence, the amount of each State's allotment under such clauses (A) and (B) (but not the amount in the exception) shall be ratably reduced. If 90 per centum of the sums appropriated for any fiscal year are insufficient after the application of the previous sentence, the amount of each State's allotment shall be equal. In case additional funds become available in making such payments in any fiscal year during which the second and third sentence of this paragraph are applicable, such reduced amounts shall be increased on the same basis as they were reduced.

"(2) Ten per centum of the funds appropriated for this part shall be available for carrying out section 116.

"(b) If, in any fiscal year, a State does not wish to conduct comprehensive planning pursuant to section 113, the Secretary shall allot to such State an amount equal to the amount the State would otherwise receive for the conduct of programs of continuing education and information services under this part. The Secretary shall reallot the funds that would have been used by such State for the conduct of statewide planning under section 113 to all other States having agreements under section 1203. Such reallotments shall be made in proportion to their allotments pursuant to subsection (a).

"COMPREHENSIVE STATEWIDE PLANNING

20 USC 1013.

"SEC. 113. (a)(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), each State with an agreement pursuant to section 1203 of this Act shall use at least 15 per centum but not to exceed 20 per centum of its allotment for the purpose of conducting comprehensive statewide planning for improving access and retention within the State to postsecondary educational programs for traditional and nontraditional learners, coordinating educational and occupational information and counseling services to youth and adults throughout the State, and promoting more effective and efficient use of available resources for continuing education within the State.

"(2) In any fiscal year in which appropriations for this part are equal to or exceed $18,500,000 but are less than $24,000,000, each State with an agreement pursuant to section 1203 of this Act shall use at least 10 per centum but not to exceed 15 per centum of its allotment for the purpose described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

"(3) In any fiscal year in which the appropriations for this part are equal to or exceed $24,000,000, each State having an agreement pursuant to section 1203 of this Act shall use not to exceed 10 per centum of its allotment for the purpose described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

Programs, grants, and contracts, State report.

"(b) A State shall submit to the Secretary at the end of each fiscal year for which sums have been received a list of programs assisted under this part, a brief description of the purposes of the programs, and an analysis of the relationship between grants and contracts awarded under this part and comprehensive statewide planning for postsecondary education.

Continuing education.

"(c) Of the sums granted to States for comprehensive statewide planning, not less than 50 per centum shall be for the purpose of carrying out a program of statewide planning for continuing education in order to improve access for adults within the State to postsecondary education programs and to promote more effective and efficient use of available resources, including efforts to ensure equal treatment of applicants in the evaluation of grant proposals, except that the Secretary may, upon application, grant a waiver to a State which has demonstrated that the State has adequately provided for meeting the needs of adult learners in its statewide planning activities. Such planning shall give particular consideration to the educational needs of adults who have been inadequately served by programs of postsecondary education.

"(d) Planning undertaken pursuant to this section shall be coordinated, to the maximum extent feasible, with the planning activities under subpart 4 of part A and part B of title IV and section 485 of this Act; the Vocational Education Act; the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act; the Older Americans Act of 1965; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Career Education Incentive Act; the Adult Education Act; the Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act; and other Federal, State, and local activities intended to provide outreach, guidance, counseling, and educational, student aid, and occupational information to persons within the State.

State studies.

"(e) Each State may use the funds available for this section to conduct studies of student financial assistance needs and resources, information coordination, continuing education, and other topics consistent with the purposes of subsections (a) and (c) of this section.

"INFORMATION SERVICES

20 USC 1014.

"SEC. 114. (a) Each State shall use not less than $50,000 nor more than 12 per centum of its allotment, whichever is greater, to conduct programs to develop and coordinate new and existing educational and occupational information and counseling programs to eliminate unnecessary duplication and to provide a more comprehensive delivery of services to both traditional and nontraditional learners seeking educational information and to youth and adults seeking occupational information.

"(b) Such educational and occupational information and counseling programs shall be coordinated to the maximum extent possible with those authorized by subpart 4 of part A and part B of title IV and section 485 of this Act; the Vocational Education Act; the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act; the Older Americans Act of 1965; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Career Education Incentive Act; the Adult Education Act; the Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act; and other Federal, State, and local activities intended to provide outreach, guidance, counseling, and educational, student aid, and occupational information to persons within the State.

Grants and contracts.

"(c) For the purposes of carrying out this section, each State may make grants to, and enter into contracts with, institutions of higher education, public and private institutions and organizations, business, industry, and labor, or any combination thereof.

"CONTINUING EDUCATION

20 USC 1015.

"SEC. 115. (a) Each State shall use such sums as may remain available from that State's allotment after reserving the amounts required to carry out the provisions of sections 113 and 114 of this part for the purpose of—

"(1) promoting access to and retention in postsecondary educational programs for adults whose educational needs have been inadequately served;

"(2) expanding and improving postsecondary education programs which help adults develop their occupational potential and prepare for transitions between education and work;

"(3) eliminating barriers posed by previous education or training, age, sex, race, handicap, national origin, rural isolation, or economic circumstance which may place adults at a disadvantage in seeking postsecondary educational opportunities;

"(4) strengthening statewide and other mechanisms of information, counseling, and referral which provide access to postsecondary education and serve the special needs of adults; and

"(5) developing strategies to promote the financial self-sufficiency of postsecondary education programs initiated pursuant to this part.

Programs, grants and contracts.

"(b) To promote the purposes of subsection (a), each State may make grants to and enter into contracts with public and private institutions and organizations, institutions of higher education, business, industry, and labor, or any combination thereof, for programs, such as—

"(1) the creation or expansion of labor education, training and technical assistance programs, and the development of cooperative relationships between State and local labor organizations and institutions and agencies which provide opportunities for continuing education;

"(2) the removal of barriers to continuing education caused by rural isolation or other rural-related factors;

"(3) legal, vocational, and health educational services and information services for older individuals who use preretirement education as a means to adjust to retirement;

"(4) the promotion of resource sharing for innovative uses of technology, including telecommunications, either on an interstate or intrastate basis, to overcome barriers to postsecondary educational opportunities;

"(5) educational and occupational information and counseling services designed to meet the special needs of adult women, particularly homemakers, and to assist their entry or reentry into postsecondary education and the labor force;

"(6) the collection and dissemination of information, including data banks, on sources of student financial assistance and information designed to assist individuals to make choices among postsecondary institutions, programs, and other educational opportunities;

"(7) community education service activities consistent with the purpose of this section for adults in rural areas;

"(8) postsecondary educational programs suited to individuals whose educational needs have been inadequately served, especially the handicapped, older individuals, migrant and seasonal farmworkers, individuals who can participate in programs only on a part-time basis, and individuals who otherwise would be unlikely to continue their education beyond high school;

"(9) child care services to assist individuals desiring to participate to enter or reenter the field of postsecondary education and the labor force; and

"(10) the promotion or delivery of postsecondary education services to women at the place of their employment or in conjunction with their employment.

Grant and contract agreement provisions.

"(c) No grant or contract may be entered into to carry out the activities described in clause (9) of subsection (b) unless the agreement to make the grant or the contract contains provisions designed to assure that—

"(1) the State will provide assurances that the State has established a cooperative agreement between the State entity responsible for planning under section 113 and the agency responsible for coordinating child care services within the State; and

"(2) funds made available pursuant to such grant or contract will be used for services furnished only by child care providers licensed in the State or child care providers who have applied for renewal of such a license and are determined by the State to be likely to be approved for renewal.

Program administration and operation.

"(d) Each State may use an amount which does not exceed 5 per centum of sums available for this section or $40,000, whichever is greater, for the administration and operation of programs described in subsection (b) of this section.

"FEDERAL DISCRETIONARY GRANTS

20 USC 1016.

"SEC. 116. (a) From 10 per centum of the sums appropriated to carry out the provisions of this part, the Secretary is authorized to make grants to and enter into contracts with public and private institutions and organizations, institutions of higher education, business, industry, labor, and States, or any combination thereof for activities which—

"(1) develop and evaluate innovative delivery systems to increase access to postsecondary education for underserved adults;

"(2) expand the range of educational and community resources used to meet the needs of underserved adults for continuing education;

"(3) promote the development of interstate educational delivery systems, cooperative and consortial arrangements, and programs (including telecommunications) which more effectively address regional needs for continuing education;

"(4) stimulate and evaluate creative approaches to the problems of access for adults inadequately served by existing educational offerings;

"(5) develop statewide, regional, or national programs to coordinate educational and occupational information, including information on student financial assistance, through creation and expansion of data banks for the more effective coordination and dissemination of such information;

"(6) assist States to perform their functions of authorizing institutions of higher education effectively; and

"(7) provide preservice and inservice training to teachers and administrative personnel involved in child care programs, including the recruitment and training of low-income parents for child care positions, and provide specialized training in early childhood education, and to provide improved teacher certification criteria for child care programs.

"(b) No grant may be awarded under this section within a State unless the Secretary has provided the State entity responsible for comprehensive planning under section 1203, if applicable, an opportunity to comment on the relationship of the proposed grant to such planning.

Post, p. 1493.

"NATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL ON CONTINUING EDUCATION

Appointments. 20 USC 1017.

"SEC. 117. (a) The President shall appoint a National Advisory Council on Continuing Education consisting of eight representatives of Federal agencies having postsecondary continuing education and training responsibilities, including but not limited to, one representative each from the Departments of Education, Agriculture, Defense, and Labor, and the Veterans' Administration; and twelve members, not full-time employees of the Federal Government, who are knowledgeable and experienced in the field of continuing education, including State and local government officials, representatives of business, labor, and community groups, and adults whose educational needs have been inadequately served. The Advisory Council shall meet at the call of the chairman but not less than twice a year.

Regulation preparation.

"(b) The Advisory Council shall advise the Secretary in the preparation of general regulations and with respect to policies and procedures arising in the administration of this title.

"(c) The Advisory Council shall examine all federally supported continuing education and training programs and make recommendations with regard to policies to eliminate duplication and to effectuate the coordination of programs under this title and other federally funded continuing education and training programs and services.

Report to President, transmittal to Congress.

"(d) The Advisory Council shall make annual reports to the President, the Congress, and the Secretary, commencing on September 30, 1981, of its findings and recommendations, including recommendations for changes in the provisions of this title and other Federal laws relating to continuing education and training activities. The President shall transmit each such report to the Congress with his comments and recommendations. The Advisory Council shall make such other reports or recommendations to the President, the Congress, the Secretary, or the head of any other Federal department or agency as may be appropriate.

"(e) The Advisory Council may utilize the services and facilities of any agency of the Federal Government as may be necessary. The Advisory Council may accept, employ, and dispose of gifts or bequests to carry out its responsibilities under this title.

"DEFINITIONS

20 USC 1018.

"SEC. 118. For the purposes of this subpart—

"(1) the term 'Commission' means the Commission on National Development in Postsecondary Education established under section 102;

"(2) the term 'Advisory Council' means the National Advisory Council on Continuing Education established under section 117;

"(3) the term 'adults whose educational needs have been inadequately served' means individuals eighteen years of age or older who, because of circumstances of age, sex, low income, handicap, minority status, rural isolation, status of unemployment or underemployment, lack of education, or other significant barriers have been discouraged from obtaining equal educational opportunities;

"(4) the term 'continuing education' means postsecondary instruction and support services designed to meet the educational needs of adults, including the expansion of available learning opportunities for adults whose educational needs are inadequately served by current educational offerings in their communities; and

"(5) the term 'adult population' means the population eighteen years old and older of a State and of all the States which shall be determined by the Secretary on the basis of the most recent satisfactory data available from the Department of Commerce.

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED AND PAYMENTS

20 USC 1019.

"SEC. 119. (a) There is authorized to be appropriated $20,000,000 for fiscal year 1981; $30,000,000 for fiscal year 1982; $40,000,000 for fiscal year 1983; $50,000,000 for fiscal year 1984; and $60,000,000 for fiscal year 1985 to carry out the provisions of this part.

"(b) Payments under this part shall not exceed two-thirds of the cost of activities assisted under this part. The non-Federal share may be in cash or in kind, but may not include payments received under any other Federal program.

"(c) Each State is authorized to use not more than 50 per centum of the funds provided under section 113 for the purpose of carrying out programs under section 115.".

Repeal.
20 USC 1070d-2, 1070d-3.

(b) Subpart 5 of part A of title IV of the Act is repealed.

TITLE II—AMENDMENT AND EXTENSION OF TITLE II OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

EXTENSION AND REVISION OF LIBRARY PROGRAMS

SEC. 201. Title II of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE II—COLLEGE AND RESEARCH LIBRARY ASSISTANCE AND LIBRARY TRAINING AND RESEARCH

"PURPOSE; AUTHORIZATION

20 USC 1021.

"SEC. 201. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program to assist—

"(1) institutions of higher education in the acquisition of library resources, including law library resources, and in the establishment and maintenance of networks for sharing library resources in accordance with part A;

Post, p. 1384.

"(2) in the training of persons in librarianship and to encourage research and development relating to the improvement of libraries (including the promotion of economical and efficient information delivery, cooperative efforts, and developmental projects) in accordance with part B;

Post, p. 1385.

"(3) the Nation's major research libraries, in maintaining and strengthening their collections, and in making their holdings available to other libraries whose users have need for research materials, in accordance with part C; and

Post, p. 1386.

"(4) the establishment of a National Periodical System Corporation, in accordance with part D.

Post, p. 1386.

Appropriation authorization.

"(b)(1)(A) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out part A $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $30,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982 and for each of the two succeeding fiscal years, and $35,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985.

"(B) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out part B $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $30,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982 and for each of the two succeeding fiscal years, and $35,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985.

"(C) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out part C $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $15,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982 and each of the three succeeding fiscal years.

"(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no funds are authorized to be appropriated for part D unless the appropriation for each of parts A, B, and C equals or exceeds the amount appropriated for each such part, respectively, for fiscal year 1979.

"(c) No grant may be made under this title for books, periodicals, documents, or other related materials to be used for sectarian instruction or religious worship, or primarily in connection with any part of the program of a school or department of divinity.

"NOTIFICATION OF STATE AGENCY

20 USC 1022.

Post, p. 1493.

"SEC. 202. Each institution of higher education which receives a grant under this title shall annually inform the State agency designated pursuant to section 1203 of its activities under this title.

"PART A—COLLEGE LIBRARY RESOURCES

"RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

20 USC 1029.

"SEC. 211. (a) From the amount appropriated for this part, the Secretary shall make grants to institutions of higher education or combinations thereof (and to each branch of an institution which is located in a community different from that in which its parent institution is located), and to other public and private nonprofit library institutions whose primary function is to provide library and information services to institutions of higher education on a formal, cooperative basis. The amount of a resource development grant under this section shall not exceed $10,000.

Limitation.

Application requirements.

"(b) A grant under this part may be made only if the application provides—

"(1) information about the institution and its library resources as prescribed by the Secretary in regulations;

"(2) satisfactory assurance that the applicant will expend, for all library material expenditures (exclusive of construction) during the fiscal year for which the grant is sought, from funds other than funds received under this part, an amount not less than the average annual aggregate amount or the average amount per full-time equivalent student it expended for such purposes during the two fiscal years preceding the fiscal year for which assistance is sought under this part;

"(3) for such fiscal control and fund accounting procedures as are necessary to assure proper disbursement of and accounting for Federal funds paid to the applicant under this part; and

"(4) for making such reports as the Secretary may require and for keeping such records and for affording such access thereto as the Secretary deems necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

Waiver.

"Very unusual circumstances."

"(c) If the Secretary determines, in accordance with regulations, that there are very unusual circumstances which prevent the applicant from making the assurance required by subsection (b)(2), the requirement for such assurance may be waived. For purposes of this subsection, the term 'very unusual circumstances' means theft, vandalism, fire, flood, earthquake, or other occurrence which may temporarily reduce the level of expenditures for library materials and total library purposes, or which resulted in unusually high expenditures for library materials and total library purposes.

"(d) Grants under this part may be used only for books, periodicals, documents, magnetic tapes, phonographic records, audiovisual materials, and other related library materials (including necessary binding) and for the establishment and maintenance networks for sharing library resources with other institutions of higher education.

"PART B—LIBRARY TRAINING, RESEARCH, AND DEVELOPMENT

"GRANTS AUTHORIZED

20 USC 1031.

"SEC. 221. From the amount appropriated for this part, the Secretary shall make grants in accordance with sections 222, 223, and 224. Of such amount, one-third shall be available for the purposes of each such section.

"LIBRARY CAREER TRAINING

Grants and contracts.
20 USC 1032.

"SEC. 222. (a) The Secretary shall make grants to, and contracts with, institutions of higher education and library organizations or agencies to assist them in training persons in librarianship. Such grants or contracts may be used by such institutions, library organizations, or agencies (1) to assist in covering the cost of courses of training or study (including short term or regular session institutes), (2) to establish and maintain fellowships or traineeships with stipends (including allowances for travel, subsistence, and other expenses) for fellows and others undergoing training and their dependents, not in excess of such maximum amounts as may be determined by the Secretary, and (3) to establish, develop, or expand programs of library and information science, including new techniques of information transfer and communication technology.

"(b) Not less than 50 per centum of the grants made under this section shall be for the purpose of establishing and maintaining fellowships or traineeships under subsection (a)(2).

"RESEARCH AND DEMONSTRATIONS

Grants and contracts.
20 USC 1033.

"SEC. 223. The Secretary is authorized to make grants to, and contracts with, institutions of higher education and other public or private agencies, institutions, and organizations for research and demonstration projects related to the improvement of libraries, training in librarianship, and information technology, and for the dissemination of information derived from such projects.

"SPECIAL PURPOSE GRANTS

20 USC 1034.

"SEC. 224. (a) The Secretary is authorized to make special purpose grants to (1) institutions of higher education to meet special national or regional needs in the library or information sciences, (2) combinations of institutions of higher education which demonstrate a need for special assistance in establishing and strengthening joint-use library facilities, resources, or equipment, (3) other public and private nonprofit library institutions which provide library and information services to institutions of higher education on a formal, cooperative basis for the purpose of establishing, developing, or expanding programs or projects that improve their services, and (4) institutions of higher education which demonstrate a need for special assistance to develop or expand programs or projects that will service the communities in which the institutions are located.

Grant application approval.

"(b) A grant under this section may be made only if the application therefor (whether by an individual institution or a combination of institutions) is approved by the Secretary on the basis of criteria prescribed in regulations and provides satisfactory assurance that (1) the applicant will expend during the fiscal year for which the grant is sought (from funds other than funds received under this title), for the same purpose as such grant, an amount from such other sources equal to not less than one-third of such grant, and (2) the applicant will expend during such fiscal year from such other sources for all library purposes (exclusive of construction) an amount not less than the average annual amount it expended for such purposes during the two fiscal years preceding the fiscal year for which the grant is sought under this section.

"PART C—STRENGTHENING RESEARCH LIBRARY RESOURCES

"ELIGIBILITY FOR ASSISTANCE

Grants.
20 USC 1041.

"SEC. 231. (a)(1) From the amount appropriated for this part, the Secretary shall make grants to institutions with major research libraries.

"Major research library."

"(2) For the purposes of this part, the term 'major research library' means a public or private nonprofit institution (including the library resources of an institution of higher education), an independent research library, or a State or other public library, having a library collection which is available to qualified users and which—

"(A) makes a significant contribution to higher education and research;

"(B) is broadly based and is recognized as having national or international significance for scholarly research;

"(C) is of a unique nature, and contains material not widely available; and

"(D) is in substantial demand by researchers and scholars not connected with that institution.

"(b) No institution receiving a grant under this part for any fiscal year may receive a grant under section 211 or 224 for that year.

"GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS

20 USC 1042.

"SEC. 232. In making grants under this part, the Secretary shall endeavor to achieve broad and equitable geographical distribution throughout the Nation.

"PART D—NATIONAL PERIODICAL SYSTEM

"PURPOSE

20 USC 1047.

"SEC. 241. It is the purpose of this part to assess the feasibility and advisability of, and, if feasible and advisable, prepare a design for a national periodical system to serve as a national periodical resource by contributing to the preservation of periodical materials and by providing access to a comprehensive collection of periodical literature to public and private libraries throughout the United States.

"ESTABLISHMENT

"SEC. 242. There is established a nonprofit corporation, to be known as the National Periodical System Corporation, which shall not be considered an agency or establishment of the United States Government. The Corporation shall be subject to the provisions of this part, and to the extent consistent with this Act, to the laws of the jurisdiction where incorporated.

National Periodical System Corporation. 20 USC 1047a.

"FUNCTIONS OF THE CORPORATION

"SEC. 243. (a) The Corporation shall assess the feasibility and advisability of a national system and, if feasible and advisable, design such a system to provide reliable and timely document delivery from a comprehensive collection of periodical literature. A design may be implemented by the Corporation only in accordance with the provisions of section 248.

20 USC 1047b.

"(b) Any design for a national periodical system shall include provisions for such system to—

"(1) acquire current and past issues of periodicals, and to preserve and maintain a dedicated collection of such documents;

"(2) provide information on periodicals to which the system can insure access, including those circulated from private sector sources, and cooperate in efforts to improve bibliographic and physical access to periodicals;

"(3) make such periodicals available through libraries, by loan, photoreproduction or other means;

"(4) cooperate with and participate in international borrowing and lending activities as may be appropriate for such purposes;

"(5) ensure that copyright owners who do not wish to participate in such system are not required to participate;

"(6) ensure that copyright fees are fixed by the copyright owners for any reproduction or dissemination of a document delivered through the system;

"(7) complement and not duplicate activities in the private sector to provide access to periodical literature;

"(8) ensure, to the maximum extent feasible, that such system not adversely affect the publication and distribution of current periodicals, particularly scholarly periodicals of small circulation; and

"(9) ensure coordination with existing programs to distribute periodical literature, including programs of regional libraries and programs of interlibrary loan and library networks.

"(c) Any design shall include provisions for the role, if any, of the Corporation in the governance, administration, and operation of the system.

"(d) Any design shall be accompanied by an estimate of the cost for each fiscal year of carrying out the system proposed in the design.

"BOARD OF DIRECTORS

"SEC. 244. (a) The Corporation shall have a Board of Directors, consisting of fifteen members, including fourteen members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and the Director of the Corporation.

Appointments. 20 USC 1047c.

"(b) The members of the Board appointed by the President shall be equitably representative of the needs and interests of the Government, academic and research communities, libraries, publishers, the information community, authors, and the public. Except for the initial Board of Directors, the members shall be appointed after consultation with the Board.

"(c) The members of the initial Board of Directors shall serve as incorporators and shall take whatever actions are necessary to establish the Corporation under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated.

Term of office.

"(d) The term of office for each member of the Board (other than the Director) shall be two years except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, a member whose term has expired may serve until his successor has taken office.

Compensation.

"(e)(1) The members of the Board shall not, by reason of membership, be deemed employees of the United States. Except as provided in paragraph (2), members shall, while engaged in activities of the Board, be entitled to receive compensation at the rate equal to the daily rate prescribed for grade GS–18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, for each day and, while away from their homes or regular place of business, may be allowed travel expenses.

"(2) Members of the Corporation who are full-time officers and employees of the United States shall receive no additional pay, allowances, or benefits by reason of their service on the Corporation.

"(f) Eight members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

"(g) The Board shall elect annually one of its members to serve as the Chairman.

"(h) The Board shall meet annually or at the call of the Chairman or a majority of its members.

"DIRECTOR AND STAFF OF CORPORATION

20 USC 1047d.

"SEC. 245. (a) The Corporation shall have a Director, and such other officers as appointed by the Board for the terms and at rates of compensation fixed by the Board. The Director shall manage the operations of the Corporation, subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Board.

"(b) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Board, the Director may appoint and fix the pay of personnel and may procure temporary and intermittent services.

"NONPROFIT NATURE OF CORPORATION

20 USC 1047e.

"SEC. 246. (a) The Corporation shall have no power to issue any shares of stock, or to declare or pay any dividends.

"(b) No part of the incomes or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer, employee, or any other individual except as salary or reasonable compensation for services.

Tax exempt status.

"(c) The National Periodical System Corporation shall be exempt from taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, or any territory or possession thereof, or by any State, county, municipality, or local taxing authority.

"AUTHORITY OF CORPORATION

20 USC 1047f.

"SEC. 247. (a) The Corporation is authorized to—

"(1) obtain grants from and to make contracts with individuals and with private, State, and Federal agencies, organizations, and institutions;

"(2) conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have officers and exercise the power granted by this section in any State without regard to any qualification or similar statute in any State;

"(3) lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with any property (real, personal, or mixed), or any interest therein, wherever situated;

"(4) sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of its property and assets; and

"(5) enter into contracts, execute instruments, incur liabilities, and do all things as are necessary or incidental to the proper management of its affairs and the proper conduct of its business.

Contract authority.

"(b) To carry out its functions and to engage in the activities described in subsection (a), the Corporation shall have the usual powers conferred upon a nonprofit corporation by the jurisdiction in which the Corporation is incorporated.

"(c) The Corporation may use the United States mails in the same manner and under the same conditions as departments and agencies of the United States. The Administrator of General Services shall provide to the Corporation on a reimbursable basis such administrative support services as the Corporation may request.

GSA administrative support services.

"(d) The Corporation is authorized to accept, hold, administer, and use gifts, bequests, and devises of property, both real and personal, for the purpose of aiding or facilitating the authority of the Corporation pursuant to section 243. For the purpose of Federal income, estate, and gift taxes, property accepted by the National Periodical System Corporation shall be a gift, bequest, or devise to the United States.

Gifts and bequests.

"(e) The Corporation shall be subject to the provisions of section 552b of title 5, United States Code.

"IMPLEMENTING THE DESIGN

"SEC. 248. Any design established under this part shall be submitted to the Congress not later than December 31, 1981, and may not be implemented until the design is approved in whole or in part by enactment of a joint resolution of the Congress approving such design.

Congressional approval.
20 USC 1047g.

"COPYRIGHT ACT

"SEC. 249. Nothing in this part shall be considered to amend, affect, or redefine the provisions of title 17, United States Code, relating to copyrights.

17 USC 1.

"DEFINITIONS

"SEC. 250. As used in this part—

20 USC 1047i.

"(1) the term 'access' means the ability to identify, locate, and obtain a specific item (generally a periodical article), and includes both bibliographic access (the ability to identify a specific item from its description) and physical access to materials (the ability to obtain the text of an item in an appropriate form, such as visual, audio, or printed formats);

"(2) the term 'Board' means the Board of Directors of the National Periodical System Corporation;

"(3) the term 'comprehensive collection' means a collection of periodical titles which will provide access to approximately 90 per centum of the requests received, except that such titles need not all be physically located in the same place;

"(4) the term 'copyright owner' means the owner of any one of the exclusive rights comprised in a copyright;

"(5) the term 'Corporation' means the National Periodical System Corporation established under this part;

"(6) the term 'dedicated collection' means a collection of periodicals maintained for the sole purpose of assuring the provision of permanent physical access;

"(7) the term 'document' means any portion or the entire issue of a periodical;

"(8) the term 'periodical' means a publication consisting of issues in a continuous series under the same title published at regular or irregular intervals, over an indefinite period, individual issues in the series being numbered consecutively or each issue being dated; and

"(9) the term 'private sector' means nongovernmental, nonprofit, and for-profit organizations.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

20 USC 1047j.

"SEC. 251. (a) There are authorized to be appropriated, for the purpose of carrying out this part, $750,000 for each of fiscal years 1981 and 1982, and such sums as may be necessary for each of the fiscal years 1983, 1984, and 1985.

"(b) In any fiscal year after the joint resolution described in section 248 is enacted, there are authorized to be appropriated such additional sums as may be necessary to implement an approved design for any such fiscal year ending prior to October 1, 1985.".

TITLE III—ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW TITLE III OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

PROGRAMS AUTHORIZED

SEC. 301. Title III of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE III—INSTITUTIONAL AID

"FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

20 USC 1051.

"SEC. 301. (a) The Congress finds that—

"(1) many institutions of higher education in this era of declining enrollments and scarce resources face problems which threaten their ability to survive;

"(2) the problems relate to the management and fiscal operations of certain institutions of higher education, as well as to an inability to engage in long-range planning, recruitment activities, and development activities;

"(3) the solution of the problems of these institutions would enable them to become viable, thriving institutions of higher education; and

"(4) these institutions play an important role in the American system of higher education, and there is a strong national interest in assisting them in solving their problems and in stabilizing their management and fiscal operations.

"(b) It is the purpose of this title to assist such institutions through a program of Federal assistance.

"PART A—STRENGTHENING INSTITUTIONS

"PROGRAM PURPOSE

"SEC. 311. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program, in accordance with this part, to improve the academic quality, institutional management, and fiscal stability of eligible institutions, in order to increase their self-sufficiency and strengthen their capacity to make a substantial contribution to the higher education resources of the Nation. 20 USC 1057.

"(b) From the sums available for this part under section 347(a)(1), the Secretary may award grants to any eligible institution with an application approved under section 341 in order to assist such an institution to plan, develop, or implement activities that promise to strengthen the institution. Special consideration shall be given to applications which propose to engage in the following activities pursuant to the institution's plan: Grants.

"(1) faculty development;

"(2) funds and administrative management;

"(3) development and improvement of academic programs;

"(4) acquisition of equipment for use in strengthening funds management and academic programs;

"(5) joint use of facilities such as libraries and laboratories; and

"(6) student services.

"DEFINITIONS

"SEC. 312. For purposes of this part: 20 USC 1058.

"(1) The term 'educational and general expenditures' means the total amount expended by an institution of higher education for instruction, research, public service, academic support (including library expenditures), student services, institutional support, scholarships and fellowships, operation, and maintenance expenditures for physical plant, and any mandatory transfers which the institution is required to pay by law.

"(2) The term 'eligible institution' means—

"(A) an institution of higher education—

"(i)(I) which, in the case of an institution which awards a bachelor's degree, has an enrollment which includes a substantial percentage of students receiving awards under subpart 1 of part A of title IV, the average amount of which is high in comparison with the average amount of all grants awarded under such subpart to students at such institutions, and (II) which, in the case of junior or community colleges, has an enrollment which includes a substantial percentage of students receiving awards under subpart 1 of title IV, the average amount of which is high in comparison with the average amount of all grants awarded under such subpart to students at such institutions; 20 USC 1070a.

"(ii) except as provided in section 342(a), the average educational and general expenditures of which are low, per full-time equivalent undergraduate student, in comparison with the average educational and general expenditures per full-time equivalent undergraduate student of institutions that offer similar instruction;

"(iii)(I) is legally authorized to provide, and provides within the State, an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's degree, or (II) is a junior or community college;

"(iv) is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association determined by the Secretary to be reliable authority as to the quality of training offered or is, according to such an agency or association, making reasonable progress toward accreditation;

"(v) except as provided in section 342(b) has, during the five academic years preceding the academic year for which it seeks assistance under this part—

"(I) met the requirement of either clause (iii)(I) or (iii)(II), or of both such clauses (simultaneously or consecutively); and

"(II) met the requirement of clause (iv); and

"(vi) meets such other requirements as the Secretary may prescribe; or

"(B) any branch of any institution of higher education described under subparagraph (A) which by itself satisfies the requirements contained in clauses (i) and (ii) of such subparagraph.

For purposes of the determination of whether an institution is an eligible institution under this paragraph, the factor described under subparagraph (A)(i) shall be given twice the weight of the factor described under subparagraph (A)(ii).

"(3) The term 'full-time equivalent students' means the sum of the number of students enrolled full time at an institution, plus the full-time equivalent of the number of students enrolled part time (determined on the basis of the quotient of the sum of the credit hours of all part-time students divided by twelve) at such institution.

"(4) The term 'junior or community college' means an institution of higher education—

"(A) that admits as regular students persons who are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance in the State in which the institution is located and who have the ability to benefit from the training offered by the institution;

"(B) that does not provide an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's degree (or an equivalent degree); and

"(C) that—

"(i) provides an educational program of not less than two years that is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, or

"(ii) offers a two-year program in engineering, mathematics, or the physical or biological sciences, designed to prepare a student to work as a technician or at the semiprofessional level in engineering, scientific, or other technological fields requiring the understanding and application of basic engineering, scientific, or mathematical principles of knowledge.

"DURATION OF GRANT

20 USC 1059.

"SEC. 313. (a) The Secretary may award a grant to an eligible institution under this part for—

"(1) not to exceed three years, or

"(2) not less than four nor more than seven years, subject for each fiscal year to the availability of appropriations therefor. The Secretary shall not accept the application of an eligible institution for a grant under both paragraphs (1) and (2) for a fiscal year.

"(b) The Secretary shall not award a grant under this part to an eligible institution that has, for any prior fiscal year, received a grant under subsection (a)(2).

"(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the Secretary may award a grant to an eligible institution under this part for a period of one year for the purpose of assisting such institution in the preparation of plans and applications under this part.

"PART B—AID TO INSTITUTIONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

"PROGRAM PURPOSE

"SEC. 321. (a) The purpose of this part is to provide for a program of short-term Federal assistance to strengthen the planning, management, and fiscal capabilities of institutions with special needs. 20 USC 1060.

"(b) From the sums available for this part under section 347(a)(1), the Secretary may make grants to any institution with special needs with an application approved under section 341 in order to assist such an institution to plan, develop, or implement activities consistent with the purpose of this part. Such activities shall include— Grants.

"(1) faculty development;

"(2) funds and administrative management;

"(3) development and improvement of academic programs;

"(4) acquisition of equipment for use in strengthening funds management and academic programs;

"(5) joint use of facilities such as libraries and laboratories; and

"(6) student services.

"DEFINITIONS

"SEC. 322. (a) For purposes of this part: 20 USC 1061.

"(1) The term 'educational and general expenditures' means the total amount expended by an institution of higher education for instruction, research, public service, academic support (including library expenditures), student services, institutional support, scholarships and fellowships, operation, and maintenance expenditures of physical plant, and any mandatory transfers which the institution is required to pay by law.

"(2) The term 'institution with special needs' means—

"(A) an institution of higher education—

"(i)(I) which, in the case of an institution which awards a bachelor's degree, has an enrollment which includes a substantial percentage of students receiving need-based assistance under title IV of this Act, the average amount of which assistance is high in comparison with the average amount of all assistance provided under such title to students at such institutions, and (II) which, in the case of junior or community colleges, has an enrollment which includes a substantial percentage of students receiving need-based assistance under title IV, the average amount of which assistance is high in comparison with the average amount of all assistance provided under such title to students at such institutions; 20 USC 1070.

"(ii) except as provided in section 342(a), the average educational and general expenditures of which are low, per full-time equivalent undergraduate student, in comparison with the average educational and general expenditures per full-time equivalent undergraduate student of institutions that offer similar instruction;

"(iii)(I) is legally authorized to provide, and provides within the State, an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's degree, or (II) is a junior or community college;

"(iv) is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association determined by the Secretary to be reliable authority as to the quality of training offered or is, according to such an agency or association, making reasonable progress toward accreditation;

"(v) except as provided in section 342(b) has, during the five academic years preceding the academic year for which it seeks assistance under this part—

"(I) met the requirement of either clause (iii)(I) or (iii)(II), or of both such clauses (simultaneously or consecutively); and

"(II) met the requirement of clause (iv);

"(vi) has an enrollment of not less than 100 full-time equivalent students in the academic year for which the determination is made; and

"(vii) meets such other requirements as the Secretary may prescribe; or

"(B) any branch of any institution of higher education described under subparagraph (A) which by itself satisfies the requirements contained in clauses (i), (ii), and (vi) of such subparagraph and which is located in a community different from that in which its parent institution is located.

For purposes of the determination of whether an institution is an eligible institution under this paragraph, the factor described under subparagraph (A)(i) shall be given the same weight as the factor described under subparagraph (A)(ii), and the Secretary may also consider the factors specified under subsection (b) of this section.

"(3) The term 'full-time equivalent students' means the sum of the number of students enrolled full time at an institution, plus the full-time equivalent of the number of students enrolled part time at such institution (determined on the basis of the quotient of the sum of the credit hours of all part-time students divided by twelve).

"(4) The term 'junior or community college' means an institution of higher education—

"(A) that admits as regular students persons who are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance in the State in which the institution is located and who have the ability to benefit from the training offered by the institution;

"(B) that does not provide an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's degree (or an equivalent degree); and

"(C) that—

"(i) provides an educational program of not less than two years that is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, or "(ii) offers a two-year program in engineering, mathematics, or the physical or biological sciences, designed to prepare a student to work as a technician or at the semiprofessional level in engineering, scientific, or other technological fields requiring the understanding and application of basic engineering, scientific, or mathematical principles of knowledge.

"(b) In determining whether an institution is an institution with special needs under subsection (a)(2), the Secretary may also consider the following factors:

Institutions with special needs, determination.

"(1) extreme financial limitations requiring low faculty salaries, low costs of instruction for students, and low library expenditures;

"(2) a little or no endowment, whether or not unrestricted;

"(3) a high student to faculty ratio;

"(4) a substantial percentage of students receiving need-based Federal student assistance;

"(5) limited library resources;

"(6) a low percentage of faculty with doctorate degrees;

"(7) poor physical facilities and limited resources to maintain physical facilities;

"(8) little or no support from foundations, alumni, or corporations;

"(9) limited or no sponsored research or faculty publications;

"(10) inadequate development offices and a limited capacity for long-range planning; and

"(11) poor or inadequate fiscal management and accounting procedures.

"DURATION OF GRANT

"SEC. 323. The Secretary may make a grant to any institution with special needs under this part for a period of not more than five years. A grant to enhance the planning capabilities of an institution shall not exceed one year.

20 USC 1062.

"FEDERAL SHARE

"SEC. 324. The Federal share of the cost of grants made to institutions with special needs under this part shall be 100 per centum for the first two years in which an institution receives a grant, 90 per centum for the third year an institution receives a grant, 80 per centum for the fourth year an institution receives a grant, and 70 per centum for the fifth year an institution receives a grant.

Grants.
20 USC 1063.

"PART C—CHALLENGE GRANTS FOR INSTITUTIONS ELIGIBLE FOR ASSISTANCE UNDER PART A OR PART B

"ESTABLISHMENT OF CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAM

"SEC. 331. (a)(1) From the sums available under section 347(a)(2) for each fiscal year, the Secretary may award a challenge grant to each institution—

20 USC 1064.

"(A) which is an eligible institution under part A or would be considered to be such an institution if section 312(2)(A)(iii) referred to a postgraduate degree rather than a bachelor's degree; or

Ante, p. 1391.

"(B) which is an institution with special needs under part B or would be considered to be such an institution if section

Ante, p. 1393.

322(a)(2)(A)(iii) referred to a postgraduate degree rather than a bachelor's degree.

Waiver.

"(2) The Secretary may waive the requirements set forth in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) with respect to a postgraduate degree in the case of any institution otherwise eligible under such paragraph for a challenge grant upon determining that the institution makes a substantial contribution to medical education opportunities for minorities and the economically disadvantaged.

"(b) The Secretary may make a grant under this section for a period of not more than 5 years. A grant under this section may be used for the programs and activities described in part A or part B, as the case may be.

Ante, pp. 1391, 1393.

"APPLICATIONS FOR CHALLENGE GRANTS

20 USC 1065.

"SEC. 332. (a) Any institution eligible for a challenge grant under section 331(a) may apply for such a grant under section 341, except that the application for the purpose of this part shall—

"(1) provide evidence that funds are available to the applicant to match funds that the Secretary is requested to make available to the institution as a challenge grant;

"(2) in the case of an application by a public institution, contain the recommendations of an appropriate State agency responsible for higher education in the State, or provide evidence that the institution requested the State agency to comment but the State agency failed to comment; and

"(3) in the case of an application by an institution described under section 331(a)(1)(B), demonstrate how challenge grant funds will be used to eradicate the conditions enumerated in section 322(b) (1) through (11), and lead to greater financial independence.

"(b) Not later than April 1 of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which any grant is to be made under this part, the Secretary shall determine which institutions will receive challenge grants under this part and notify the institutions of the amount of the grant.

"(c) In approving applications for grants under this part, preference shall be given to institutions which are receiving, or have received, grants under part A or part B.

"PART D—GENERAL PROVISIONS

"APPLICATIONS FOR ASSISTANCE

20 USC 1066.

"SEC. 341. (a) Any institution which is eligible for assistance under this title may submit to the Secretary an application for assistance at such time, in such form, and containing such information, as may be necessary to enable the Secretary to evaluate its need for assistance. Subject to the availability of appropriations to carry out this title, the Secretary may approve an application for a grant under this title if the application meets the requirements of subsection (b) and shows that the applicant is eligible for assistance in accordance with the part of this title under which the assistance is sought.

Application requirements.

"(b) An institution, in its application for a grant, shall—

"(1) set forth, or describe how it will develop, a comprehensive development plan to strengthen the institution's academic quality and institutional management, and otherwise provide for institutional self-sufficiency and growth (including measurable objectives for the institution and the Secretary to use in monitoring the effectiveness of activities under this title);

"(2) set forth policies and procedures to ensure that Federal funds made available under this title for any fiscal year will be used to supplement and, to the extent practical, increase the funds that would otherwise be made available for the purposes of section 311(b) or 321(b), and in no case supplant those funds;

"(3) set forth policies and procedures for evaluating the effectiveness in accomplishing the purpose of the activities for which a grant is sought under this title;

"(4) provide for such fiscal control and fund accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure proper disbursement of and accounting for funds made available to the applicant under this title;

Recordkeeping.

"(5) provide for making such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the Secretary may require to carry out his functions under this title (including not less than one report annually setting forth the institution's progress toward achieving the objectives for which the funds were awarded), and for keeping such records and affording such access thereto, as the Secretary may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports;

"(6) provide that the institution will comply with the limitations set forth in section 346;

"(7) include such other information as the Secretary may prescribe; and Development project.

"(8) describe in a comprehensive manner any development project for which funds are sought under the application and include—

"(A) a description of the various components of the development project, including the estimated time required to complete each such component;

"(B) in the case of any development project which consists of several components (as described by the applicant pursuant to subparagraph (A)), a statement identifying those components which, if separately funded, would be sound investments of Federal funds and those components which would be sound investments of Federal funds only if funded under this title in conjunction with other parts of the development project (as specified by the applicant);

"(C) an evaluation by the applicant of the priority given any development project for which funds are sought in relation to any other projects for which funds are sought by the applicant under this title, and a similar evaluation regarding priorities among the components of any single development project (as described by the applicant pursuant to subparagraph (A));

"(D) in the case of a request for an award for a period of more than one year, a statement of reasons explaining why funds are necessary for each year of such period and why a single year award would be inadequate;

"(E) information explaining the manner in which the development project will assist the applicant to prepare for the critical financial problems that all institutions of higher education will face during the subsequent decade as a result of declining enrollment, increased energy costs, and other problems;

"(F) a detailed budget showing the manner in which funds for any development project would be spent by the applicant; and

"(G) a detailed description of any activity which involves the expenditure of more than $25,000, as identified in the budget referred to in subparagraph (F).

"WAIVER AUTHORITY AND REPORTING REQUIREMENT

20 USC 1067.

"SEC. 342. (a)(1) The Secretary may waive the requirements set forth in section 312(2)(A)(ii) or section 322(a)(2)(A)(ii) if the Secretary determines, based on persuasive evidence submitted by the institution, that the institution's failure to meet that criterion is due to factors which, when used in the determination of compliance with such criterion, distort such determination, and that the institution's designation as an eligible institution under part A or as an institution with special needs under part B (as the case may be) is otherwise consistent with the purposes of such parts.

Ante, p. 1391.
Ante, p. 1393.

Report to Congress.

"(2) The Secretary shall submit to the Congress each year a report concerning the institutions which, although not satisfying the criterion contained in section 312(2)(A)(ii) or section 322(a)(2)(A)(ii), have been determined to be eligible institutions under part A or institutions with special needs under part B, as the case may be. Such report shall—

"(A) identify the factors referred to in paragraph (1) which were considered by the Secretary as factors that distorted the determination of compliance with section 312(2)(A)(ii) or section 322(a)(2)(A)(ii), as the case may be; and

"(B) contain a list of each institution determined to be an eligible institution under part A or as an institution with special needs under part B and include a statement of the reasons for each such determination.

Waiver qualifications.

"(b) The Secretary may waive the requirement set forth in sections 312(2)(v) and 322(a)(2)(v) in the case of an institution—

"(1) located on or near an Indian reservation or a substantial population of Indians, if the Secretary determines that the waiver will substantially increase higher education opportunities appropriate to the needs of American Indians;

"(2) wherever located, if the Secretary determines that the waiver will substantially increase higher education opportunities appropriate to the needs of Spanish-speaking people;

"(3) wherever located, if the Secretary determines that the waiver will substantially increase higher education opportunities appropriate to the needs of individuals living in rural areas, whose needs are for the most part unserved by other postsecondary education institutions;

"(4) wherever located, if the Secretary determines that the waiver will substantially increase higher education opportunities appropriate to the needs of low-income individuals; or

"(5) wherever located, if the Secretary determines that the institution has traditionally served substantial numbers of black students.

"APPLICATION REVIEW PROCESS

20 USC 1068.

Conflict-of-interest safeguard.

"SEC. 343. (a)(1) All applications submitted under this title by institutions of higher education shall be read by a panel of readers composed of individuals selected by the Secretary. The Secretary shall ensure that no individual assigned under this section to review any application has any conflict of interest with regard to the application which might impair the impartiality with which the individual conducts the review under this section.

"(2) All readers selected by the Secretary shall receive thorough instruction from the Secretary regarding the evaluation process for applications submitted under this title and consistent with the provisions of this title, including—

"(A) explanations and examples of the types of activities referred to in section 311(b) that should receive special consideration for grants awarded under part A and of the types of activities referred to in section 321(b) that should receive special consideration for grants awarded under part B;

Ante, p. 1391.

Ante, p. 1393.

"(B) an enumeration of the factors to be used to determine the quality of applications submitted under this title; and

"(C) an enumeration of the factors to be used to determine whether a grant should be awarded for a project under this title, the amount of any such grant, and the duration of any such grant.

"(b) In awarding grants under this title, the Secretary shall take into consideration the recommendations of the panel made under subsection (a).

Applicant notification.

"(c) Not later than June 30 of each year, the Secretary shall notify each institution of higher education making an application under this title of—

"(1) the scores given the applicant by the panel pursuant to this section,

"(2) the recommendations of the panel with respect to such application, and

"(3) the reasons for the decision of the Secretary in awarding or refusing to award a grant under this title, and any modifications, if any, in the recommendations of the panel made by the Secretary.

"COOPERATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Grants.
20 USC 1069.

"SEC. 344. (a) The Secretary may make grants to encourage cooperative arrangements—

"(1) with funds available to carry out part A, between institutions eligible for assistance under part A; or

"(2) with funds available to carry out part B, between institutions eligible for assistance under part B; for the activities described in section 311(b) or section 321(b), as the case may be, so that the resources of the cooperating institutions might be combined and shared to achieve the purposes of such parts and avoid costly duplicative efforts.

"(b) The Secretary shall give priority to grants for the purposes described under subsection (a) whenever the Secretary determines that the cooperative arrangement is geographically and economically sound.

"(c) Grants to institutions having a cooperative arrangement may be made under this section for a period as determined under section 313 or 323, as the case may be.

"ASSISTANCE TO INSTITUTIONS UNDER OTHER PROGRAMS

20 USC 1069a.

"SEC. 345. (a) Each institution which the Secretary determines to be an eligible institution under part A or an institution with special needs under part B shall be eligible for waivers in accordance with subsection (b).

Waiver.

"(b)(1) Subject to, and in accordance with, regulations promulgated for the purpose of this section, in the case of any application by an institution referred to in subsection (a) for assistance under any programs specified in paragraph (2), the Secretary is authorized, if such application is otherwise approvable, to waive any requirement for a non-Federal share of the cost of the program or project, or, to the extent not inconsistent with other law, to give, or require to be given, priority consideration of the application in relation to applications from other institutions.

Ante, p. 1383, 20 USC 1070, ante, p. 1472, 20 USC 1133.

"(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to any program authorized by title II, IV, VII, or VIII of this Act.

"(c) The Secretary shall not waive, under subsection (b), the non-Federal share requirement for any program for applications which, if approved, would require the expenditure of more than 10 per centum of the appropriations for the program for any fiscal year.

"LIMITATIONS

20 USC 1069b.

"SEC. 346. The funds appropriated under section 347 may not be used—

"(1) for a school or department of divinity or any religious worship or sectarian activity;

"(2) for an activity that is inconsistent with a State plan for desegregation of higher education applicable to such institution;

"(3) for an activity that is inconsistent with a State plan of higher education applicable to such institution; or

"(4) for purposes other than those set forth in the approved application under which the funds were made available to the institution.

"AUTHORIZATIONS

Ante, pp. 1391, 1393.

"SEC. 347. (a)(1) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out parts A and B $175,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982, $185,000,000 for the fiscal year 1983, $200,000,000 for the fiscal year 1984, and $220,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985. Of the amounts appropriated under this paragraph for each fiscal year, 50 per centum shall be made available to carry out part A and 50 per centum shall be made available to carry out part B.

Ante, p. 1395.

"(2) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out part C $25,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982, $35,000,000 for the fiscal year 1983, $45,000,000 for the fiscal year 1984, and $50,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985.

Multiple year award.

"(b) In the event of a multiple year award to any institution under this title, the Secretary shall make funds available for such award from funds appropriated for this title for the fiscal year in which such funds are to be used by the recipient.

Funds, allocation.

"(c)(1) Of the sums appropriated under subsection (a)(1) for any fiscal year for part A, the Secretary shall make available to use for the purposes of each such part—

"(A) not less than 24 per centum to institutions that are junior or community colleges, and

"(B) the remainder to institutions that plan to award a bachelor's degree during that year.

"(2) Of the sums appropriated under subsection (a)(1) for any fiscal year for part B, the Secretary shall make available to use for the purposes of each such part—

"(A) not less than 30 per centum to institutions that are junior or community colleges, and

"(B) the remainder to institutions that plan to award a bachelor's degree during that year.

"(d) Of the sums appropriated under subsection (a)(1) for the purpose of part A for any fiscal year, the Secretary shall make available not less than 25 per centum for grants under section 313(a)(2). Any funds made available under this subsection for such grants which are not expended during the fiscal year for which such funds were appropriated shall remain available for expenditure for the purpose of making such grants during subsequent fiscal years. Ante, p. 1391.

"(e) The Secretary shall assure that in each fiscal year the amount available under part B for institutions with special needs that historically serve substantial numbers of black students will not be less than 50 per centum of the amount received by such institutions for fiscal year 1979.". Ante, p. 1393.

TITLE IV—STUDENT ASSISTANCE

PART A—GRANTS TO STUDENTS IN ATTENDANCE AT INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

SEC. 401. Section 401(a) of the Act is amended— 20 USC 1070.

(1) by striking out "qualified students" and inserting in lieu thereof "eligible students (defined in accordance with section 484)"; and

(2) by striking out "of exceptional need who, for lack of such a grant, would be unable to obtain the benefits of a postsecondary education" in paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof "who demonstrate financial need".

PELL GRANTS

SEC. 402. (a) Section 411(a)(1) of the Act is amended to read as follows: 20 USC 1070a.

"SEC. 411. (a)(1)(A) The Secretary shall, during the period beginning July 1, 1972, and ending September 30, 1985, pay to each eligible student (defined in accordance with section 484) for each academic year during which that student is in attendance at an institution of higher education, as an undergraduate, a basic grant in the amount for which that student is eligible, as determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

"(B) The purpose of this subpart is to provide a basic grant that (i) as determined under paragraph (2), will meet in academic year 1985-1986, 70 per centum of a student's cost of attendance not in excess of $3,700; and (ii) in combination with reasonable parental or independent student contribution and supplemented by the programs authorized under subparts 2 and 3 of this part, will meet 75 per centum of a student's cost of attendance, unless the institution determines that a greater amount of assistance would better serve the purposes of section 401.

"(C) Basic grants made under this subpart shall be known as 'Pell Grants'.". "Pell Grants."

(b)(1) Section 411(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Act is amended to read as follows: Basic grants.

"(2)(A)(i) The amount of the basic grant for a student eligible under this part shall be—

"(I) $1,900 for academic year 1981-1982,

"(II) $2,100 for academic year 1982-1983,

"(III) $2,300 for academic year 1983-1984,

"(IV) $2,500 for academic year 1984-1985, and

"(V) $2,600 for academic year 1985-1986, less an amount equal to the amount determined under section 482 to be the expected family contribution with respect to that student for that year.".

20 USC 1070a.

(2) Section 411(a)(2)(A)(ii) of this Act is amended by striking out "February 1 of each year" and inserting in lieu thereof "January 1, 1981, October 1, 1981, and on October 1 of each succeeding year".

(c)(1) Section 411(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

Limitations.

"(B)(i) The amount of a basic grant to which a student is entitled under this subpart for any academic year shall not exceed—

"(I) 50 per centum of the cost of attendance (as defined under section 482(d)) at the institution at which the student is in attendance for that year, when the maximum grant is less than or equal to $1,900;

"(II) 55 per centum of such cost of attendance when the maximum basic grant is more than $1,900 but is less than $2,100;

"(III) 60 per centum of such cost of attendance when the maximum basic grant is at least $2,100 but is less than $2,300;

"(IV) 65 per centum of such cost of attendance when the maximum basic grant is at least $2,300 but is less than $2,600; and

"(V) 70 per centum of such cost of attendance when the maximum basic grant is $2,600.".

(2) Section 411(a)(2)(B)(ii) of the Act is amended by striking out "actual" each time it appears.

(3) Section 411(a)(2)(B)(iv) of the Act is repealed.

(d)(1) Section 411(a)(3) of the Act is repealed.

(2) Paragraph (4) of section 411(a) of the Act is redesignated as paragraph (3).

(e) Section 411(a)(3) of the Act (as redesignated by subsection (d)(2)) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) The period during which a student may receive basic grants shall be the period required for the completion of the first undergraduate baccalaureate course of study being pursued by that student at the institution at which the student is in attendance. Nothing in this section shall exclude from eligibility courses of study which are noncredit or remedial in nature which are determined by the institution as necessary to help the student be prepared for the pursuit of a first undergraduate baccalaureate degree.".

(f) Section 411(b)(3)(B)(i) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(B)(i) If, during any period of any fiscal year, the funds available for payments under this subpart are insufficient to satisfy fully all entitlements, the amount paid with respect to each such entitlement, as calculated prior to the cost of attendance limitation provided in section 411(a)(2)(B)(i) under this subpart, shall be—

"(I) the full amount in the case of any student's eligibility index which is less than 601;

"(II) 90 per centum of the amount when the student's eligibility index is 601 but less than 801;

"(III) 80 per centum of the amount when the student's eligibility index is 801 but less than 1001;

"(IV) 70 per centum when the student's eligibility index is 1001 but less than 1201;

"(V) 60 per centum when the student's eligibility index is 1201 but less than 1601; and

"(VI) 50 per centum when the student's eligibility index is 1601 or greater.

For the purpose of this division, a 'student's eligibility index' is the index of need of a student established by the Secretary in carrying out section 482, relating to the family contribution schedule.".

"Student's eligibility index."
Post, p. 1445.

20 USC 1070a. (h) Subsections (d) and (e) of section 411 of the Act are repealed.

SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

20 USC 1070b. SEC. 403. (a) Section 413A(a) of the Act is amended by striking out "who, for lack of financial means, would be unable to obtain such benefits without such a grant" and inserting in lieu thereof "who demonstrate financial need in accordance with the provisions of section 482".

Post, p. 1445.

20 USC 1070b.

(b)(1) The first sentence of section 413A(b)(1) of the Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: "and $350,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, and for each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985".

(2) Section 413A(b)(3) of the Act is amended by inserting "second" before "fiscal year" the second time it appears in such section.

20 USC 1070b-1.

(c)(1) Section 413B(a)(2)(A) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(2)(A) The amount of the payment to any student pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be equal to the amount determined by the institution, in accordance with the provisions of section 482, to be needed by that student to enable him to pursue a course of study at the institution, except that such amount shall not exceed $2,000.".

(2) Section 413B(a)(2)(B) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "For a student enrolled for less than a full academic year, the minimum payment required shall be reduced proportionately.".

(3) Section 413B(a)(2) of the Act is further amended by striking out subparagraph (C).

(4) Section 413B(b) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) The period during which a student may receive supplemental grants shall be the period required for the completion of the first undergraduate baccalaureate course of study being pursued by that student at the institution at which the student is in attendance.

"(2) A supplemental grant awarded under this subpart shall entitle the student to whom it is awarded to payments pursuant to such grant only if the student meets the requirements of section 484, except as provided in section 413C(c).".

Post, p. 1448.

(d) Section 413C of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"SELECTION OF RECIPIENTS; AGREEMENTS WITH INSTITUTIONS

20 USC 1070b-2.

Post, p. 1451.

"SEC. 413C. (a) An individual shall be eligible for the award of a supplemental grant under this subpart by an institution of higher education which, in accordance with section 487, has an agreement with the Secretary applicable to this subpart, if the individual makes application at a time and in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Secretary and that institution, and meets the requirements of section 484.

"(b) From among individuals who are eligible for supplemental grants for each fiscal year, the institution shall, in accordance with the agreement under section 487, and within the amount allocated to the institution for that purpose for that year under section 413D(b), select individuals who are to be awarded such grants and determine, in accordance with section 413B, the amounts to be paid to them.

Infra.

"(c) An eligible institution may use not more than 10 per centum of its allocation for less-than-half-time undergraduate students who are determined by the institution to be in need of such grants and who meet the requirements of section 484, other than the requirement of clause (2) of section 484(a).".

20 USC 1070b-3.

(e)(1) Section 413D(a)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out "persons" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "undergraduates".

(2) Section 413D(a)(2) is amended by striking out "section 431A(b)(2)" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 413A(b)(2)".

(3) Section 413D(b)(1)(B)(ii) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

Funds, allocation determination.

"(ii) Allocations under division (i) by the Secretary to such institutions shall be made in accordance with a formula which determines institutional need for funds under this subpart by subtracting from 75 per centum of total student expenses the sum of expected family or independent student contributions, awards made under subparts 1 and 3 of this part, and 25 per centum of grants and awards made by the institution from its own resources. In addition, the Secretary, in establishing equitable criteria, shall not issue any regulation which has the effect of penalizing institutions that under existing State law must provide scholarships or grant assistance from their own funds and yet are not free under laws in effect on January 1, 1979, either to select the recipients of such assistance or to adjust the criteria by which the recipients are selected. The formula established under this division shall not result in any institution receiving an amount less than—20 USC 1070a, 1070c.

"(I) 100 per centum of the amount such institution received and used under this section for fiscal year 1979 in the case of any fiscal year for which the appropriation for this part is less than $400,000,000;

"(II) 80 per centum of such amount in the case of any fiscal year for which such appropriation is at least $400,000,000 but less than $420,000,000;

"(III) 60 per centum of such amount in the case of any fiscal year for which such appropriation is at least $420,000,000 but less than $440,000,000;

"(IV) 40 per centum of such amount in the case of any fiscal year for which such appropriation is at least $440,000,000 but less than $460,000,000; or

"(V) 20 per centum of such amount in the case of any fiscal year for which such appropriation is at least $460,000,000 but less than $480,000,000.".

20 USC 1070b-3.

(4) Section 413D(b)(2) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Such allocation shall be made in accordance with the formula prescribed by regulation under division (ii) of paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection.".

(f) Section 413D(b) of the Act is amended by redesignating paragraph (3) as paragraph (4) and by inserting after paragraph (2) the following new paragraph:

"(3) Each institution receiving allocations under this subsection from apportionments made to the State under subsection (a)(1) and under subsection (a)(2) may use its allocations for initial supplemental grants and for continuing supplemental grants in such manner as the institution determines will best achieve the purposes of this subpart.".

GRANTS TO STATES FOR STATE STUDENT INCENTIVES

SEC. 404. (a) Section 415A of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"PURPOSE; APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

20 USC 1070c.

"SEC. 415A. (a) It is the purpose of this subpart to make incentive grants available to the States to assist them in providing grants to eligible students attending institutions of higher education.

Appropriation authorization.

"(b)(1) There are authorized to be appropriated $100,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 1981 and 1982, $150,000,000 for fiscal year 1983, $200,000,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $250,000,000 for fiscal year

1985, for payments to the States for grants to eligible students under this subpart.

"(2) Sums appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) for any fiscal year shall remain available for payments to States for the award of student grants under this subpart until the end of the fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year for which such sums were appropriated.".

(b) Section 415B(a)(1)(A) of the Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: "except that no State shall receive less than the State received for fiscal year 1979". 20 USC 1070c-1.

(c) Section 415C of the Act is amended— 20 USC 1070c-2.

(1) in subsection (a), by striking out "shall submit" and inserting in lieu thereof "shall have a State agreement pursuant to section 1203 and shall submit"; Post, p. 1493.

(2) in subsection (b)(1), by inserting "under section 1203" immediately after "agency";

(3) in subsection (b)(2), by striking out "$1,500" and inserting in lieu thereof "$2,000", and by striking out "as an undergraduate";

(4) in subsection (b)(4), by inserting immediately before the semicolon at the end thereof the following: "or in any State in which participation of nonprofit institutions of higher education is in violation of a statute of the State which was enacted prior to October 1, 1978"; and

(5) in subsection (b), by striking out "and" at the end of clause (5), by redesignating clause (6) as clause (8), and by inserting after clause (5) the following new clauses:

"(6) provides that institutions of higher education, with the approval of the State agency, may use any proportion of the payments received in any fiscal year for grants to otherwise eligible students who fail to meet the requirement of section 484(a)(2); Grants. Post, p. 1448.

"(7) provides for State expenditures under such program of an amount not less than the average annual aggregate expenditures for the preceding three fiscal years or the average annual expenditure per full-time equivalent student for such years; and".

(d) Section 415E of the Act is repealed. Repeal. 20 USC 1070c-4.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS FROM DISADVANTAGED BACKGROUNDS

SEC. 405. Subpart 4 of part A of title IV of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"SUBPART 4—SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS FROM DISADVANTAGED BACKGROUNDS

"PROGRAM AUTHORITY; AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"SEC. 417A. (a) The Secretary shall, in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, carry out a program of making grants and contracts designed to identify qualified individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds, to prepare them for a program of postsecondary education, to provide special services for such students who are pursuing programs of postsecondary education, and to train persons serving or preparing for service in programs and projects so designed. Grants and contracts. 20 USC 1070d.

"(b)(1) For the purposes described in subsection (a), the Secretary is authorized, without regard to section 3709 of the Revised Statutes (41 U.S.C. 5), to make grants to, and contracts with, institutions of higher education, public and private agencies and organizations, and, in exceptional circumstances, secondary schools for planning, developing, or carrying out one or more of the services assisted under this subpart.

"(2) In making grants and contracts under this subpart, the Secretary shall consider the prior experience of service delivery under the particular program for which funds are sought by each applicant.

Appropriation authorization.

"(c) For the purpose of making grants and contracts under this subpart there are authorized to be appropriated $400,000,000 for fiscal year 1982 and such sums as may be necessary for each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985.

Definitions.

"(d) For the purposes of this subpart—

"(1) the term 'first generation college student' means a person neither of whose parents completed a baccalaureate degree; and

"(2) the term 'low-income individual' means an individual from a family whose taxable income for the preceding year did not exceed 150 per centum of an amount equal to the poverty level determined by using criteria of poverty established by the Bureau of the Census.

Veteran eligibility.

"(e) No individual who is an eligible veteran, as that term is defined by section 1652(a) of title 38, United States Code, shall be deemed ineligible to participate in any program under this subpart by reason of such individual's age.

"TALENT SEARCH

20 USC 1070d-1.

"Sec. 417B. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program to be known as talent search which shall be designed—

"(1) to identify qualified youths with potential for education at the postsecondary level and to encourage such youth to complete secondary school and to undertake a program of postsecondary education;

"(2) to publicize the availability of student financial assistance available to persons who pursue a program of postsecondary education; and

"(3) to encourage persons who have not completed programs of education at the secondary or postsecondary level, but who have the ability to complete such programs, to reenter such programs.

Tutorial services.

"(b) A talent search project assisted under this subpart may include, in addition to the services described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (a), tutorial services for youths being encouraged to undertake or reenter programs of postsecondary education if such tutorial services are not otherwise available to such youths through a project assisted under this subpart.

Application approval.

"(c) In approving applications for talent search projects under this subpart for any fiscal year the Secretary shall—

"(1) require an assurance that not less than two-thirds of the youths participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application be low-income individuals who are first generation college students;

"(2) require that such participants be persons who either have completed six years of elementary education or are at least twelve years of age but not more than twenty-seven years of age, unless the imposition of any such limitation with respect to any person would defeat the purposes of this section or the purposes of section 417E; and

"(3) require an assurance that individuals participating in the project proposed in the application do not have access to services from another project funded under this section or under section 417E.

"(d) In approving applications for talent search projects under this subpart for any fiscal year, the Secretary shall require assurances that the project will be located in a setting accessible to the persons proposed to be served by the project.

"UPWARD BOUND

20 USC 1070d-1a.

"SEC. 417C. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program to be known as upward bound which shall be designed to generate skills and motivation necessary for success in education beyond high school.

Project services.

"(b) Any upward bound project assisted under the subpart may provide services such as—

"(1) instruction in reading, writing, study skills, mathematics, and other subjects necessary for success beyond high school;

"(2) personal counseling;

"(3) academic advice and assistance in high school course selection;

"(4) tutorial services;

"(5) exposure to cultural events, academic programs, and other activities not usually available to disadvantaged youth;

"(6) activities designed to acquaint youths participating in the project with the range of career options available to them;

"(7) instruction designed to prepare youths participating in the project for careers in which persons from disadvantaged backgrounds are particularly underrepresented;

"(8) on-campus residential programs; and

"(9) programs and activities as described in paragraphs (1) through (8) which are specially designed for students of limited English proficiency.

Application approval requirements.

"(c) In approving applications for upward bound projects under this subpart for any fiscal year the Secretary shall—

"(1) require an assurance that not less than two-thirds of the youths participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application be low-income individuals who are first generation college students;

"(2) require an assurance that the remaining youths participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application be either low-income individuals or be first generation college students;

"(3) require that there be determination, with respect to each participant in such project, that the participant has a need for academic support in order to pursue successfully a program of education beyond high school; and

"(4) require that such participants be persons who have completed eight years of elementary education and are at least thirteen years of age but not more than nineteen years of age, unless the imposition of any such limitation would defeat the purposes of this section.

Stipends.

"(d) Youths participating in a project proposed to be carried out under any application may be paid stipends not in excess of $60 per month during June, July, and August, and not in excess of $40 per month during the remaining period of the year.

"SPECIAL SERVICES FOR DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS

20 USC 1070d-1b.

"SEC. 417D. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program to be known as special services for disadvantaged students (hereinafter referred to as 'special services') which shall be designed to provide supportive services to persons participating in the projects.

Project services.

"(b) A special services project assisted under this subpart may provide services such as—

"(1) instruction in reading, writing, study skills, mathematics, and other subjects necessary for success beyond high school;

"(2) personal counseling;

"(3) academic advice and assistance in course selection;

"(4) tutorial services;

"(5) exposure to cultural events and academic programs not usually available to disadvantaged students;

"(6) activities designed to acquaint students participating in the project with the range of career options available to them;

"(7) activities designed to assist students participating in the project in securing admission and financial assistance for enrollment in graduate and professional programs; and

"(8) programs and activities as described in paragraphs (1) through (7) which are specially designed for students of limited English proficiency.

Application approval requirements.

"(c) In approving applications for special services projects under this subpart for any fiscal year the Secretary shall—

"(1) require an assurance that not less than two-thirds of the persons participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application—

"(A) be physically handicapped, or

"(B) be low-income individuals who are first generation college students;

"(2) require an assurance that the remaining students participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application either be low-income individuals, first generation college students, or physically handicapped;

"(3) require that there be a determination, with respect to each participant in such project, that the participant has a need for academic support in order to pursue successfully a program of education beyond high school; and

"(4) require that such participants be enrolled or accepted for enrollment at the institution which is the recipient of the grant or contract.

"(d) In approving applications for special services projects under this subpart for any fiscal year, the Secretary shall require an assurance from the institution which is the recipient of the grant or contract that each student enrolled in the project will receive sufficient financial assistance to meet that student's full financial need.

"EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY CENTERS

20 USC 1070d-1c.

"SEC. 417E. (a) The Secretary shall carry out a program of paying up to 75 per centum of the cost of establishing and operating programs to be known as educational opportunity centers which shall be designed—

"(1) to provide information with respect to financial and academic assistance available for individuals desiring to pursue a program of postsecondary education; and

"(2) to provide assistance to such persons in applying for admission to institutions at which a program of postsecondary education is offered, including preparing necessary applications for use by admissions and financial aid officers.

Tutorial and counseling services.

"(b) An educational opportunity center assisted under this subpart may provide, in addition to the services described in clauses (1) and (2) of subsection (a), tutorial and counseling services for persons participating in the project if such tutorial and counseling services are not otherwise available through a project assisted under this subpart.

Application approval requirements.

"(c) In approving applications for educational opportunity centers under this subpart for any fiscal year the Secretary shall—

"(1) require an assurance that not less than two-thirds of the persons participating in the project proposed to be carried out under any application be low-income individuals who are first generation college students;

"(2) require that such participants be persons who are at least nineteen years of age, unless the imposition of such limitation with respect to any person would defeat the purposes of this section or the purposes of section 417B; and

"(3) require an assurance that individuals participating in the project proposed in the application do not have access to services from another project funded under this section or under section 417B.

"STAFF DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

Grants.
20 USC 1070d-1d.

"SEC. 417F. For the purpose of improving the operation of the programs and projects authorized by this subpart, the Secretary is authorized to make grants to institutions of higher education and other public and private nonprofit institutions and organizations to provide training for staff and leadership personnel employed in, or preparing for employment in, such programs and projects. Such training shall include conferences, internships, seminars, and workshops designed to improve the operation of such programs and projects and shall be carried out in the various regions of the Nation in order to ensure that the training opportunities are appropriate to meet the needs in the local areas being served by such programs and projects. Grants for the purposes of this section shall be made only after consultation with regional and State professional associations of persons having special knowledge with respect to the needs and problems of such programs and projects.".

SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR MIGRANT AND SEASONAL FARMWORK STUDENTS

SEC. 406. Subpart 5 of part A of title IV of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"SUBPART 5—SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS WHOSE FAMILIES ARE ENGAGED IN MIGRANT AND SEASONAL FARMWORK

20 USC 1070d-2.

"SEC. 418A. (a) The Secretary shall maintain and expand existing secondary and postsecondary high school equivalency program and college assistance migrant program projects, which shall be designed to provide services to students of families who are engaged in migrant and seasonal farmwork. The services authorized by this subpart include—

"(1) instruction in reading, writing, study skills, mathematics, communication skills, and other subjects necessary for success beyond high school, and in preparation for the examination for a certificate of high school equivalency;

"(2) personal and academic counseling;

"(3) outreach and recruitment, special admissions, and financial assistance;

"(4) tutorial services;

"(5) career-oriented work study;

"(6) housing support and on-campus residential programs;

"(7) activities designed to acquaint youths participating in the project with the range of career options available to them;

"(8) exposure to cultural events, academic programs and other activities not usually available to migrant youth; and

"(9) other essential supportive services, as needed to ensure the success of eligible migrant and seasonal farmwork students at the secondary and postsecondary levels.

Appropriation authorization.

"(b) There is authorized to be appropriated $9,600,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $12,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982, $14,000,000 for the fiscal year 1983, $16,000,000 for the fiscal year 1984, and $18,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985, to carry out the provisions of this subpart.".

VETERANS' COST-OF-INSTRUCTION PAYMENTS

SEC. 407. Section 420 of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"VETERANS' COST-OF-INSTRUCTION PAYMENTS TO INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Eligible institutions.
20 USC 1070e-1.

"SEC. 420. (a)(1) During the period beginning July 1, 1972, and ending September 30, 1985, each institution of higher education shall be entitled to a payment under, and in accordance with, this section during any fiscal year if—

38 USC 1501 et seq.
38 USC 1651 et seq.

"(A) the number of persons who are veterans receiving vocational rehabilitation under chapter 31 of title 38, United States Code, or veterans receiving educational assistance under chapter 34 of such title, and who are in attendance as undergraduate students at such institution during any academic year, equals at least—

"(i) 110 per centum of the number of such recipients who were in attendance at such institution during the preceding academic year, or

"(ii) 10 per centum of the total number of undergraduate students in attendance at such institution during such academic year and if such number does not constitute a per centum of such undergraduate students which is less than such per centum for the preceding academic year; and

"(B) the number of such persons is at least 25.

"(2) With respect to any academic year ending on or before September 30, 1986, each institution which has qualified for payment under this section for the preceding year shall be entitled during such academic year, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1)(A), to a payment under this section if—

"(A) the number of persons referred to in paragraph (1) equals at least the number which bears the same ratio to the number of such recipients who were in attendance at such institution during the first academic year in which the institution was entitled to payments under this section as the number of such recipients in all institutions of higher education during the academic year for which the determination is made bears to the number of such recipients in all institutions of higher education for the first such academic year; or

"(B) in the event that subparagraph (A) of this paragraph is not satisfied, the Secretary determines, on the basis of evidence presented by such institution, that such institution is making reasonable efforts, taking into consideration the extent to which the number of persons referred to in such paragraph (1) falls short of meeting the ratio criterion set forth in such subparagraph (A), to continue to recruit, enroll, and provide necessary services to veterans.

"(3) For any fiscal year beginning after September 30, 1980, the Secretary may waive the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection for any institution of higher education which has qualified for payment under this section for any preceding fiscal year but subsequently became ineligible, if— Waiver.

"(A) the institution would have been eligible had section 420(a)(2) been in effect when such institution became ineligible,

"(B) the institution has had a full-time office of veterans' affairs since that institution was so eligible, and

"(C) the appropriations made available in any such fiscal year for this section are in excess of (i) $14,380,000, or (ii) the amount requested for carrying out this section in the budget of the President submitted under section 201 of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921, whichever is greater, by an amount sufficient to make payments to all institutions meeting the requirements of clauses (A) and (B) of this paragraph. 31 USC 11.

"(b)(1) The amount of the payment to which any institution shall be entitled under this section for any fiscal year shall be—

"(A) $300 for each person who is a veteran receiving vocational rehabilitation under chapter 31 of title 38, United States Code, or a veteran receiving educational assistance under chapter 34 of such title 38, and who is in attendance at such institution as an undergraduate student during such year; and 38 USC 1501 et seq. 38 USC 1651 et seq.

"(B) in addition, $150 for each person who is in attendance at such institution as an undergraduate student during such year and who has been the recipient of educational assistance under subchapter V or VI of chapter 34 of such title 38, or who has a service-connected disability as defined in section 101(16) of such title 38, or who is disabled, as determined in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Secretary after consultation with the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. 38 USC 1690, 1695.

"(2) In any case where a person on behalf of whom a payment is made under this section attends an institution on less than a full-time basis, the amount of the payment on behalf of that person shall be reduced in proportion to the degree to which that person is not attending on a full-time basis. In no case shall a payment be made on behalf of a person who attends an institution on less than a half-time basis.

"(c)(1) An institution of higher education shall be eligible to receive the payment to which it is entitled under this section only if it makes application therefor to the Secretary. An application under this section shall be submitted at such time or times, in such manner, in such form and containing such information as the Secretary determines necessary to carry out the functions of the Secretary under this title, and shall— Application requirements.

"(A) set forth such policies, assurances, and procedures as will insure that—"(i) the funds received by the institution under this section and available to it after the requirements of subsection (e) have been met will be used solely to defray instructional expenses in academically related programs of the applicant;

"(ii) the funds received by the institution under this section will not be used for a school or department of divinity or for any religious worship or sectarian activity;

"(iii) the applicant will expend, during the academic year for which a payment is sought, for all academically related programs of the institution, an amount equal to at least the average amount so expended during the three years preceding the year for which the grant is sought; and

"(iv) the applicant will submit to the Secretary such reports as the Secretary may require by regulation;

"(B) contain such other statement of policies, assurances, and procedures as the Secretary may require by regulation in order to protect the financial interests of the United States; and

"(C) set forth such plans, policies, assurances, and procedures as will insure that the applicant will make an adequate effort—

"(i) to maintain a full-time office of veterans' affairs which has responsibility for veterans' outreach, recruitment, and special education programs, including the provision of educational, vocational, and personal counseling for veterans,

"(ii) to carry out programs designed to prepare educationally disadvantaged veterans for postsecondary education (I) under subchapter V of chapter 34 of title 38, United States Code, and (II) in the case of any institution located near a military installation, under subchapter VI of such chapter 34,

38 USC 1690.

38 USC 1695.

"(iii) to carry out active outreach (with special emphasis on service-connected disabled veterans, other disabled or handicapped veterans, incarcerated veterans, and educationally disadvantaged veterans), recruiting, and counseling activities through the use of funds available under federally assisted work-study programs (with special emphasis on the veteran-student services program under section 1685 of such title 38),

"(iv) to carry out an active tutorial assistance program (including dissemination of information regarding such program) in order to make maximum use of the benefits available under section 1692 of such title 38, and

"(v) to coordinate activities carried out under this part with the readjustment counseling program authorized under section 612A of title 38, United States Code, and with the veterans employment and training initiatives authorized under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act and under chapters 41 and 42 of title 38, United States Code, in order to assist in serving the readjustment, rehabilitation, personal counseling, and employment needs of veterans, except that an institution which the Secretary determines, in accordance with regulations jointly prescribed by the Secretary and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs (hereinafter referred to as the 'Administrator'), cannot feasibly itself, in terms of the number of veterans in attendance there, carry out any or all of the programs set forth in subclauses (i) through (v) of clause (C), may carry out such program or programs through a consortium agreement with one or more other institutions of higher education and shall be required to carry out such programs only to the extent that the Secretary determines, in accordance with regulations jointly prescribed by the Secretary and the Administrator, is appropriate in terms of the number of veterans in attendance at such institution. The adequacy of efforts to meet the requirements of clause (C) of this paragraph shall be determined by the Secretary, based upon the recommendations of the Administrator, in accordance with criteria established in regulations jointly prescribed by the Secretary and the Administrator.

38 USC 2001 et seq., 2011 et seq.

"(2) The Secretary shall not approve an application under this subsection unless he determines that the applicant will implement the requirements of clause (C) of paragraph (1) within the first academic year during which it receives a payment under this section.

Payments.

"(d)(1) The Secretary shall pay to each institution of higher education which has had an application approved under subsection (c) the amount to which it is entitled under this section.

"(2) The maximum amount of payments to any institution of higher education, or any branch thereof which is located in a community which is different from that in which the parent institution thereof is located, in any fiscal year shall be $75,000. In making payments under this section for any fiscal year, the Secretary shall apportion the appropriation for making such payments, from funds which become available as a result of the limitation on payments set forth in the preceding sentence, in such a manner as will result in the receipt by each institution which is eligible for payment under this section of the first $9,000 (or the amount of its entitlement for that fiscal year, whichever is the lesser) and then additional amounts up to the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence.

Waiver.

"(e) Not less than 90 per centum of the amounts paid to any institution under subsection (d) in any fiscal year shall be used to implement the requirement of clause (C)(i) of paragraph (1) of subsection (c), and to the extent that such funds remain after implementing such requirement, funds limited by such 90 per centum requirement shall be used for implementing the requirements of subclauses (ii) through (v) of clause (C) of such paragraph (1), except that the Secretary may, in accordance with criteria established in regulations jointly prescribed by the Secretary with the Administrator, waive the requirement of this subsection to the extent that he finds that such institution is adequately carrying out all such requirements without the necessity for such application of such amount of the payments received under this subsection.

"(f) The Secretary, in carrying out the provisions of this section, shall seek to assure the coordination of programs assisted under this section with programs carried out by the Veterans' Administration pursuant to title 38, United States Code, and the Administrator shall provide all assistance, technical consultation, and information otherwise authorized by law as necessary to promote the maximum effectiveness of the activities and programs assisted under this section.

38 USC 101.

Administration.

"(g) The program provided for in this section shall be administered by an identifiable administrative unit in the Department of Education.".

"Temporarily totally disabled."

"(j) The term 'temporarily totally disabled' when used with respect to a borrower means a borrower who, by reason of injury or illness, cannot be expected to be able to attend an eligible institution or to be gainfully employed during a reasonable period of recovery from such injury or illness not to exceed three years. Such term when used with respect to the spouse of a borrower means a spouse who, by reason of injury or illness, cannot be expected to be gainfully employed during a reasonable period of recovery from such injury or illness not to exceed three years and who during such period required continuous nursing or other similar services.".

STATE AGENCIES AS LENDERS OF LAST RESORT

20 USC 1078.

SEC. 414. Section 428 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Post, p. 1430.

"(h)(1) From sums advanced by the Association pursuant to section 439(p), each State agency and nonprofit private institution or organization with which the Secretary has an agreement under subsection (b) of this section or an eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1) (D) or (F) of the Act is authorized to make loans directly to students otherwise unable to obtain loans under this part.

"(2)(A) Each State agency or nonprofit private institution or organization which has an agreement under subsection (b) of this section or an eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1) (D) or (F) and which has an application approved under section 439(p)(2) may receive advances under section 439(p) for each fiscal year in an amount necessary to meet the demand for loans under this section. The amount such agency, institution, organization, or lender is eligible to receive may not exceed 25 per centum of the average of the loans guaranteed by that agency, institution, organization, or lender for the three years preceding the fiscal year for which the determination is made. Whenever the determination required by the preceding sentence cannot be made because the agency, institution, organization, or lender does not have three years previous experience, the amount such agency, institution, organization, or lender is eligible to receive may not exceed 25 per centum of the loans guaranteed under a program of a State of comparable size.

"(B) Each State agency or nonprofit private institution or organization which has an agreement under subsection (b) of this section and each eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1) (D) or (F) shall repay advances made under section 439(p) in accordance with agreements entered between the Association and such agency, institution, organization, or lender. 20 USC 1085. Post, p. 1430.

"(3) Loans made pursuant to this subsection shall have the same terms, conditions, and benefits as all other loans made under this part.".

INTEREST RATE AND PAYMENT

SEC. 415. (a)(1) Part B of the Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 427 the following new section:

"APPLICABLE INTEREST RATES

"SEC. 427A. (a) With respect to any loan to cover the cost of instruction for any period of instruction beginning on or after January 1, 1981, the rate of interest applicable to any borrower shall— 20 USC 1077a.

"(1) not exceed 7 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan in the case of any borrower who, on the date of entering into the note or other written evidence of that loan, has an outstanding balance of principal or interest on any loan made, insured, or guaranteed under this part, other than a loan for which the interest rate is determined under paragraph (2) or (3) of this subsection;

"(2) except as provided in paragraph (3), be 9 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan in the case of any borrower who, on the date of entering into the note or other written evidence of that loan, has no outstanding balance of principal or interest on any loan made, insured, or guaranteed under this part, or who has such an outstanding balance on a loan for which the interest rate is determined under this paragraph; or

"(3) be 8 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan in the case of any borrower not subject to paragraph (1) or (2) for any loan to cover the cost of education for any period of enrollment beginning on or after a date which is three months after a determination made under subsection (b).

"(b) If for any twelve-month period beginning on or after January 1, 1981, the Secretary, after consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, determines that the average of the bond equivalent rates of ninety-one-day Treasury bills auctioned for such twelve-month period is equal to or less than 9 per centum, the interest rate for loans under this part shall be the rate prescribed in subsection (a)(3) for borrowers described in such subsection.

"(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a lender from charging a borrower interest at a rate less than the rate which is applicable under this part.".

(2) Section 427(b) of the Act is amended by striking "No maximum" and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in section 427A, no maximum". 20 USC 1077.

(3) Section 428(a)(3)(B)(ii) of the Act is amended by striking out "7 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance" and inserting in lieu thereof "the applicable interest rate under this part". 20 USC 1078.

(4) Section 428(b)(1)(F) of the Act is amended by inserting immediately before the semicolon at the end thereof a comma and the following: "except as otherwise required by section 427A".

20 USC 1078.

(5) Section 428(d) of the Act is amended by striking out "7 per centum per annum" and inserting in lieu thereof "the rate specified in this part".

20 USC 1077.

(b)(1)(A) Section 427(a)(2)(B) of the Act is amended by striking out "nine-to-twelve-month period" the first time it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "six months".

(B) Such section 427(a)(2)(B) is further amended by striking out "nine months nor later than one year" and inserting in lieu thereof "six months".

20 USC 1078.

(2)(A) Section 428(b)(1)(E) of the Act is amended by striking out "nine-to-twelve-month period" the first time it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "six months".

(B) Such section 428(b)(1)(E) is further amended by striking out "nine months nor later than one year" in both places that it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "six months".

COLLECTION PRACTICES

20 USC 1080.

SEC. 416. (a)(1) Section 430(b) of the Act is amended by inserting "(1)" after "(b)" and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Credit bureau organizations, cooperative agreements.

15 USC 1681 note.

"(2)(A) For the purpose of promoting responsible repayment of loans covered by Federal loan insurance pursuant to this part, the Secretary shall enter into cooperative agreements with credit bureau organizations providing for the exchange of information concerning student borrowers in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. For the purpose of assisting such organizations to comply with the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such agreements may provide for timely response by the Secretary to requests from such organizations for responses to objections raised by such borrowers. Subject to the requirements of subparagraph (C), such agreements shall provide for the disclosure by the Secretary to such organizations with respect to any loan for which the Secretary has received a notice of default under subsection (a) of this section of—

"(i) the date of disbursement and the amount of any such loan;

"(ii) information concerning collection of any such loan, including information concerning the status of any defaulted loan on which the Secretary has made a payment pursuant to subsection (a) of this section; and

20 USC 1087.

"(iii) the date of cancellation of the note upon completion of repayment by the borrower of any such loan or payment by the Secretary pursuant to section 437.

"(B) Such agreements may also provide for the disclosure by such organizations to the Secretary, upon receipt from the Secretary of a notice under subparagraph (A)(ii) that such a loan is in default, of information concerning the borrower's location or other information which may assist the Secretary in proceeding to collection of the defaulted amount.

"(C) Agreements entered into pursuant to this paragraph shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to ensure that—

"(i) no information is disclosed by the Secretary unless its accuracy and completeness have been verified, and no information stating that a loan is in default is disclosed until the Secretary has made a reasonable effort to collect the debt;

"(ii) as to any information so disclosed, such organizations will be promptly notified of, and will promptly record, any change submitted by the Secretary with respect to such information, or any objections by the borrower with respect to any such information, as required by section 611 of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681i);

"(iii) no use will be made of any such information which would result in the use of collection practices with respect to such a borrower that are not fair and reasonable or that involve harassment, intimidation, false or misleading representations, or unnecessary communication concerning the existence of such loan or concerning any such information; and

"(iv) except for disclosures made to obtain the borrower's location, the Secretary (I) shall not disclose any such information until he has notified the borrower that such information will be disclosed to credit bureau organizations unless the borrower enters into repayment of his loan, but (II) shall, if the borrower has not entered into repayment within a reasonable period of time, but not less than thirty days, from the date such notice has been sent to the borrower, disclose the information required by this subsection.

"(D)(i) The Secretary shall, within ninety days after the date of enactment of this paragraph, take such steps as may be necessary to establish the disclosure of information described in subparagraph (A) (i), (ii), and (iii) as a routine use in accordance with section 552a(b)(3) of title 5, United States Code, and to establish a system for the prompt notification of any borrower of any disclosure made pursuant to this paragraph.

Information disclosure.

"(ii) Information disclosed by the Secretary to credit bureau organizations under the requirements of this paragraph shall not constitute a system of records within the meaning of section 552a of title 5, United States Code (the Privacy Act of 1974); and credit bureau organizations which enter into agreements with the Secretary under this paragraph shall not be considered Government contractors within the meaning of that Act.".

(2) Section 427(a)(2) of the Act is amended by redesignating subparagraphs (H) and (I) as subparagraphs (I) and (J), respectively, and by inserting after subparagraph (G) the following new subparagraph:

20 USC 1077.

"(H)(i) contains a notice of the system of disclosure of information concerning such loan to credit bureau organizations under section 430(b)(2), and (ii) provides that the lender on request of the borrower will provide information on the repayment status of the note to such organizations,".

Ante, p. 1420.

(b) Section 430(c) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Any forbearance which is approved by the Secretary under this subsection with respect to the repayment of a loan shall not be considered as indicating that a holder of a federally insured loan has failed to exercise reasonable care and due diligence in the collection of the loan.".

(c) Section 432 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

20 USC 1082.

"(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may provide to eligible lenders, and to any State or any nonprofit private institution or organization having a guaranty agreement under section 428(c)(1), any information with respect to the names and addresses of borrowers or other relevant information which is available to the Secretary, from whatever source such information may be derived.".

20 USC 1078.

ADMINISTRATIVE IMPROVEMENTS

20 USC 1078.

Sec. 417. (a) Section 428(b)(1)(H) of the Act is amended by inserting before the semicolon a comma and the following: "and insures that the proceeds of the premium will not be used for incentive payments to lenders".

(b)(1) Section 428(c)(6)(A)(ii) of the Act is amended—

(A) by striking out "and" the first time it appears and inserting in lieu thereof a comma; and

(B) by inserting after "prevention" a comma and the following: "and the administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students".

(2) Section 428(c)(6)(B) is amended—

(A) by striking out "and" at the end of clause (i) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma;

(B) by inserting "and" at the end of clause (ii); and

(C) by adding after clause (ii) the following:

Definition.

"(iii) 'administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students' means any administrative costs by a guaranty agency which are directly related to ascertaining the student's enrollment status, prompt notification to the lender of such status, an audit of the note agreement to determine if the provisions of that agreement are consistent with the records of the guaranty agency as to the principal amount of the loan guaranteed, and an examination of the note to assure that the repayment provisions are consistent with the provisions of this part,".

(3) Section 428(f)(1)(A) of the Act is amended—

(A) by striking out "or" at the end of clause (iii);

(B) by redesignating clause (iv) as clause (v); and

(C) by inserting after clause (iii) the following new clause: "(iv) the administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students; or".

(4)(A) Section 428(f)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out "(f)(1)(A)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(f)(1)" and by striking out subparagraphs (B) and (C).

(B) Such section is further amended by redesignating clauses (i) through (v) as clauses (A) through (E), respectively.

(5) Section 428(f)(2) of the Act is amended—

(A) by striking out "or" at the end of clause (iii);

(B) by redesignating clause (iv) as clause (v); and

(C) by inserting after clause (iii) the following new clause: "(iv) the administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students; or".

(6) Section 428(f)(3) of the Act is amended—

(A) by striking out "and" at the end of clause (B);

(B) by striking out the period at the end of clause (C) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and

(C) by adding after clause (C) the following new clause:

"(D) 'administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students' means any administrative costs by a guaranty agency which are directly related to ascertaining the student's enrollment status, prompt notification to the lender of such status, an audit of the note agreement to determine if the provisions of that agreement are consistent with the records of the guaranty agency as to the principal amount of the loan guaranteed, and an examination of the note to assure that the repayment provisions are consistent with the provisions of this part,".

(c) Section 428(f)(3)(A) of the Act is amended by redesignating clauses (iv) and (v) as clauses (vi) and (vii) respectively, and by inserting after clause (iii) the following new clauses: "(iv) the costs of providing interest and special allowance computation and billing services to lenders, (v) the amount of non-Federal funds expended by an insurer as incentive payments to lenders to induce them to improve or expand their program participation,". 20 USC 1078.

(d) Section 428 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(i)(1) Any State agency or any nonprofit private institution or organization which has an agreement under subsection (b) of this section may enter into an agreement with any eligible lender (other than an eligible institution or an agency or instrumentality of the State) for the purpose of authorizing multiple disbursements of the proceeds of a loan under which the lender will pay the proceeds of such loans into an escrow account to be administered by the State agency or any nonprofit private institution or organization in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection.

"(2) Each State agency or each nonprofit private institution or organization entering into an agreement under paragraph (1) of this subsection is authorized to—

"(A) make the disbursements in accordance with the note evidencing the loan;

"(B) commingle the proceeds of all loans paid to it pursuant to the escrow agreement entered into under such paragraph (1);

"(C) invest the proceeds of such loans in obligations of the Federal Government or obligations which are insured or guaranteed by the Federal Government;

"(D) retain interest or other earnings on such investment; and

"(E) return to the eligible lender undisbursed funds when the student ceases to carry at an eligible institution at least one-half of the normal full-time academic workload as determined by the institution.".

LOAN INFORMATION PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

SEC. 418. Title IV of the Act is amended by adding after section 433 the following new section:

"STUDENT LOAN INFORMATION BY ELIGIBLE LENDERS

"SEC. 433A. Each eligible lender shall enter into an agreement with the Secretary under which the eligible lender will, at the time such lender makes a loan to a student borrower which is insured or guaranteed under this part, provide thorough and accurate loan information on loans insured or guaranteed under this part to the student borrower. The loan information required by this section shall include— 20 USC 1083a.

"(1) the yearly and cumulative maximum amounts that may be borrowed by a student;

"(2) the terms on which repayment will begin;

"(3) the maximum number of years in which the loan must be repaid;

"(4) the interest rate that will be repaid, and the minimum amount of required monthly payment;

"(5) any special options the borrower may have for deferral, cancellation, prepayment, consolidation, or other refinancing of the loan;

"(6) a definition of default and the consequences to the borrower if the borrower should default, including a description of any arrangements made with credit bureau organizations; and

"(7) to the extent practicable, the effect of accepting the loan on the eligibility of the borrower for other forms of student assistance.".

LOANS TO PARENTS

SEC. 419. Part B of title IV of the Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 428A the following new section:

"LOANS TO PARENTS OF DEPENDENT UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

20 USC 1078-2.

"SEC. 428B. (a) Parents of a dependent undergraduate student (as defined by regulations by the Secretary) shall be eligible to borrow funds under this part in amounts specified in subsection (b), and unless otherwise specified in subsections (c) and (d), such loans shall have the same terms, conditions, and benefits as all other loans made under this part. Whenever necessary to carry out the provisions of this section the terms 'student' and 'student borrower' used in this part shall include a parent borrower under this section.

"Student" and "student borrower."

Limitation.

"(b)(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the maximum amount parents may borrow for one student in any academic year or its equivalent (as defined by regulation by the Secretary) is $3,000.

"(2) The aggregate insured principal amount for insured loans made to parents on account of an undergraduate dependent student shall not exceed $15,000.

"(3) No loan may be made to any parent or student under this part which would cause their combined loans for any academic year to exceed the student's estimated cost of attendance minus such student's estimated financial assistance as certified by the eligible institution under section 428(a)(2)(A) of this part. The annual insurable limit on account of any student shall not be deemed to be exceeded by a line of credit under which actual payments to the borrower will not be made in any year in excess of the annual limit.

20 USC 1078.

"(c)(1) Repayment of principal on loans made under this section shall commence not later than sixty days after the date such loan is disbursed by a lender.

"(2) No payments to reduce interest costs shall be paid pursuant to section 428(a) of this part on loans made pursuant to this section.

"(3) Interest on loans made pursuant to this section shall be at the rate of 9 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan, except that, if the loan is to cover the cost of education for a period of enrollment which begins on or after a date which is three months after the date on which the Secretary has made a determination under section 427A(b) and that borrower, on the date of entering into the note or other written evidence of the loan, has no obligation to repay any amount of principal or interest on any other loan made under this section with respect to the same student, then the interest shall be at the rate of 8 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan.

Ante, p. 1419.

Loan insurance.

"(d) Loans made under this section shall be insured by the Secretary in a State only if—

"(1) the State is not served by a State agency or nonprofit private institution or organization having an agreement with the Secretary pursuant to section 428(b), or

"(2) an agency, institution, or organization in a State having such an agreement does not authorize loans under this section (A) within one hundred and twenty days after the effective date of this amendment, or (B) if a State is prohibited from authorizing loans under this section because of existing State law, one hundred and twenty days after the adjournment of the next regular session of the State legislature which convenes after the effective date of this amendment.".

SPECIAL ALLOWANCES

SEC. 420. (a) Section 438 of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"SPECIAL ALLOWANCES

"SEC. 438. (a) In order to assure (1) that the limitation on interest payments or other conditions (or both) on loans made or insured under this part, do not impede or threaten to impede the carrying out of the purposes of this part or do not cause the return to holders of loans to be less than equitable, (2) that incentive payments on such loans are paid promptly to eligible lenders, and (3) that appropriate consideration of relative administrative costs and money market conditions is made in setting the quarterly rate of such payments, the Congress finds it necessary to establish an improved method for the determination of the quarterly rate of the special allowances on such loans, and to provide for a thorough, expeditious and objective examination of alternative methods for the determination of the quarterly rate of such allowances. 20 USC 1087-1.

"(b)(1) A special allowance shall be paid for each of the three-month periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of every year and the amount of such allowance paid to any holder with respect to any three-month period shall be a percentage of the average unpaid balance of principal (not including unearned interest added to principal) of all eligible loans held by such holder during such period.

"(2)(A) Subject to subparagraph (D) and paragraph (4), the special allowance paid pursuant to this subsection on loans for which the applicable interest rate is 7 per centum per annum or less shall be computed (i) by determining the average of the bond equivalent rates of the ninety-one-day Treasury bills auctioned for such three-month period, (ii) by subtracting 3.5 per centum from such average, (iii) by rounding the resultant per centum upward to the nearest one-eighth of 1 per centum, and (iv) by dividing the resultant per centum by four.

"(B) Subject to subparagraph (D) and paragraph (4), the special allowance paid pursuant to this subsection on loans for which the applicable interest rate is 8 per centum per annum shall be computed (i) by determining the average of the bond equivalent rates of the ninety-one-day Treasury bills auctioned for such three-month period, (ii) by subtracting 4.5 per centum from such average, (iii) by rounding the resultant per centum upward to the nearest one-eighth of 1 per centum, and (iv) by dividing the resultant per centum by four.

"(C) Subject to subparagraph (D) and paragraph (4), the special allowance paid pursuant to this subsection on loans for which the applicable interest rate is 9 per centum per annum shall be computed (i) by determining the average of the bond equivalent rates of the ninety-one-day Treasury bills auctioned for such three-month period, (ii) by subtracting 5.5 per centum from such average, (iii) by rounding the resultant per centum upward to the nearest one-eighth of 1 per centum, and (iv) by dividing the resultant per centum by four.

"(D)(i) The quarterly rate of the special allowance for holders of loans which were made or purchased with funds obtained by the holder from the issuance of obligations, the income from which is exempt from taxation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be one-half the quarterly rate of the special allowance established under subparagraph (A), (B), or (C). Such rate shall also apply to holders of loans which were made or purchased with funds obtained by the holder from collections or default reimbursements on, or interests or other income pertaining to, eligible loans made or purchased with funds described in the preceding sentence of this subparagraph or from income on the investment of such funds. This subparagraph shall not apply to loans which were made or insured prior to October 1, 1980.

26 USC 1.

"(ii) The rate set under division (i) shall not be less than (I) 2.5 per centum per annum in the case of loans for which the applicable interest rate is 7 per centum per annum, (II) 1.5 per centum per annum in the case of loans for which the applicable interest rate is 8 per centum per annum, or (III) 0.5 per centum in the case of loans for which the applicable rate is 9 per centum per annum.

"(iii) No special allowance may be paid under this subparagraph unless the issuer of such obligations complies with section 420(b) of the Education Amendments of 1980.

Ante, p. 1425.

"(3) The holder of an eligible loan shall be deemed to have a contractual right against the United States, during the life of such loan, to receive the special allowance according to the provisions of this section. Subject to paragraph (4) the special allowance determined for any such three-month period shall be payable at such time, after the close of such period, as may be specified by or pursuant to regulations promulgated under this section.

20 USC 1078.

"(4)(A) If payments of the special allowances payable under this section or of interest payments under section 428(a) with respect to a loan have not been made within thirty days after the Secretary has received an accurate, timely, and complete request for payment thereof, the special allowance payable to such holder shall be increased by an amount equal to the daily interest accruing on the special allowance and interest benefits payments due the holder.

"(B) Such daily interest shall be computed at the daily equivalent rate of the sum of the special allowance rate computed pursuant to paragraph (2) and the interest rate applicable to the loan and shall be paid for the later of (i) the thirty-first day after the receipt of such request for payment from the holder, or (ii) the thirty-first day after the final day of the period or periods covered by such request, and shall be paid for each succeeding day until, and including, the date on which the Secretary authorizes payment.

Reports to Congress.

"(C) For purposes of reporting to the Congress the amounts of special allowances paid under this section, amounts of special allowances paid pursuant to this paragraph shall be segregated and reported separately.

"Eligible loan."

"(5) As used in this section, the term 'eligible loan' means a loan which is insured under this part, or made under a program covered by an agreement under section 428(b) of this Act.

"(6) The Secretary shall pay the holder of an eligible loan, at such time or times as are specified in regulations, a special allowance prescribed pursuant to this subsection subject to the condition that such holder shall submit to the Secretary, at such time or times and in such a manner as he may deem proper, such information as may be required by regulation for the purpose of enabling the Secretary to carry out his functions under this section and to carry out the purposes of this section.

"(c) The Secretary shall adopt or amend appropriate regulations pertaining to programs carried on under this part to prevent, where practicable, any practices which he finds have denied loans to a substantial number of eligible students.". Regulations.

(b) In order for the holders of loans which were made or purchased with funds obtained by the holder from an Authority issuing obligations, the income from which is exempt from taxation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, to be eligible to receive a special allowance under section 438(b)(2)(D) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, the Authority shall submit to the Secretary a plan for doing business. The Secretary shall approve or disapprove such plan within 30 days after the date of its submission. Each such plan shall contain provisions designed to assure that— Plans, submittal. 20 USC 1087-1a. 26 USC 1. Ante, p. 1425.

(1) no eligible lender in the area served by the Authority will be excluded from participation in the program of the Authority and that all eligible lenders may participate in the program on the same terms and conditions if eligible lenders are going to participate in the program;

(2) no director or staff member of the Authority who receives compensation from the Authority may own stock in, or receive compensation from any agency that would contract to service and collect the loans of the Authority;

(3) student loans will not be purchased from participating lenders at a premium or discount amounting to more than 1 per centum of the unpaid principal amount borrowed plus accrued interest to the date of acquisition, but a reasonable loan transfer fee may be paid by the purchaser;

(4) the Authority will, within the limit of funds available and subject to applicable State and Federal law, make loans to, or purchase loans incurred by, all eligible students who are residents of, or who attend an eligible institution within, the area served by the Authority;

(5) the Authority has a plan under which the Authority will pursue the development of new lender participation in a continuing program of benefits to students together with assurances of existing lender commitments to the program; and

(6) there will be an annual audit of the Authority by a certified public accounting firm which will include review of compliance by the Authority with the provisions of the plan.

THE STUDENT LOAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION

SEC. 421. (a)(1) Section 439(a)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out "Government-sponsored". 20 USC 1087-2.

(2) Section 439(f) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(f)(1) The Association shall have common stock having such par value as may be fixed by its Board of Directors from time to time which may be issued only to lenders under this part, pertaining to guaranteed student loans, who are qualified as insured lenders under this part or who are eligible institutions, as defined in section 435(a), other than an institution outside of the United States. Common stock. 20 USC 1085.

"(2) Each share of common stock shall be entitled to one vote with rights of cumulative voting at all elections of Directors. Voting shall be by classes as described in subsection (c)(3).

"(3) The maximum number of shares of common stock that the Association may issue and have outstanding at any one time shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Any common share issued shall be fully transferable, except that, as to the Association, it shall be transferred only on the books of the Association.

"(4) To the extent that net income is earned and realized, subject to subsection (g)(2), dividends may be declared on common stock and nonvoting common stock by the Board of Directors. Such dividends as may be declared by the Board shall be paid to the holders of outstanding shares of common stock and nonvoting common stock, except that no such dividends shall be payable with respect to any share which has been called for redemption past the effective date of such call.

"(5) The Association is authorized to issue nonvoting common stock having such par value as may be fixed by its Board of Directors from time to time. Any nonvoting common stock shall be freely transferable, except that, as to the Association, it shall be transferable only on the books of the Association.".

Nonvoting preferred stock.
20 USC 1087-2.

(3) The first sentence of section 439(g)(1) of the Act is amended to read as follows: "The Association is authorized to issue nonvoting preferred stock having such par value as may be fixed by its Board of Directors from time to time.".

(b)(1) Section 439(d) of the Act is amended—

(A) in paragraph (1), by inserting "or repurchase," after "purchase" and by inserting "or resell, offer participations, or pooled interests," after "sell";

(B) by amending paragraph (2) to read as follows:

Warehousing advance.

"(2) Any warehousing advance made under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made on the security of (A) insured loans, (B) marketable obligations and securities issued, guaranteed or insured by, the United States, or for which the full faith and credit of the United States is pledged for the repayment of principal and interest thereof, or (C) marketable obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by any agency, instrumentality or corporation of the United States for which the credit of such agency, instrumentality or corporation is pledged for the repayment of principal and interest thereof, in an amount equal to the amount of such advance. The proceeds of any such advance secured by insured loans shall either be invested in additional insured loans or the lender shall provide assurances to the Association that during the period of the borrowing it will maintain a level of insured loans in its portfolio not less than the aggregate outstanding balance of such loans held at the time of the borrowing. The proceeds from any such advance secured by collateral described in clauses (B) and (C) shall be invested in additional insured student loans."; and

(C) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Securities, issuance.

"(4) Securities issued pursuant to the offering of participations or pooled interests under paragraph (1) of this subsection may be in the form of debt obligations, or trust certificates of beneficial ownership, or both. Student loans set aside pursuant to the offering of participations or pooled interests shall at all times be adequate to ensure the timely principal and interest payments on such securities.".

(2) Section 439(l) of the Act is amended by inserting "including those made under subsection (d)(4)" immediately after "All obligations issued by the Association".

(c) Section 439(e)(A) of the Act is amended by striking out "$50,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$75,000,000". 20 USC 1087-2.

(d)(1) Section 439(h)(1) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(h)(1) The Association is authorized with the approval of the Secretary of Education and the Secretary of the Treasury to issue and have outstanding obligations having such maturities and bearing such rate or rates of interest as may be determined by the Association. The authority of the Secretary of Education to approve the issuance of such obligations is limited to obligations issued by the Association and guaranteed by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subsection. Such obligations may be redeemable at the option of the Association before maturity in such manner as may be stipulated therein. The Secretary of the Treasury may not direct as a condition of his approval that any such issuance of obligations by the Association be made or sold to the Federal Financing Bank.". Outstanding obligations, issuance.

(2) Section 439(h)(2) of the Act is amended—

(A) by striking out "July 1, 1982" and inserting in lieu thereof "October 1, 1984"; and

(B) by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to authorize the Secretary of Education or the Secretary of the Treasury to limit, control, or constrain programs of the Association or support of the Guaranteed Student Loan Program by the Association.".

(3) Section 439(h) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

"(4) Upon receipt of a request from the Association under this subsection requiring approvals by the Secretary of Education or the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Education or the Secretary of the Treasury shall act promptly either to grant approval or to advise the Association of the reasons for withholding approval. In no case shall such an approval be withheld for a period longer than sixty days unless, prior to the end of such period, the Secretary of Education and the Secretary of the Treasury submit to the Congress a detailed explanation of reasons for doing so.

"(5) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to purchase any obligations issued by the Association pursuant to this subsection as now or hereafter in force, and for such purpose the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to use as a public debt transaction the proceeds of the sale of any securities hereafter issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as now or hereafter in force, and the purposes for which securities may be issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as now or hereafter in force are extended to include such purchases. The Secretary of the Treasury shall not at any time purchase any obligations under this subsection if such purchase would increase the aggregate principal amount of his then outstanding holdings of such obligations under this subsection to an amount greater than $1,000,000,000. Each purchase of obligations by the Secretary of the Treasury under this subsection shall be upon such terms and conditions as to yield a return at a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration the current average rate on outstanding marketable obligations of the United States of comparable maturities as of the last day of the month preceding the making of such purchase. The Secretary of the Treasury may, at any time, sell, upon such terms and conditions and at such price or prices as he shall determine, any of the obligations acquired by him under this subsection. All redemptions, purchases, and sales by the Secretary of the Treasury of such obligations under this subsection shall be treated as public debt transactions of the United States.

Obligations, purchase authorization.

31 USC 774.

20 USC 1078, 1079.

"(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law the Association is authorized to sell or issue obligations on the security of student loans, the payment of interest or principal of which has at any time been guaranteed under section 428 or 429 of this part, to the Federal Financing Bank.".

20 USC 1087-2.

(e)(1) Section 439 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

Loans.

"(o)(1)(A) The Association or its designated agent may, upon request of a borrower who has received loans under this title from two or more programs or lenders, or has received any other federally insured or guaranteed student loan, and where the borrower's aggregate outstanding indebtedness is in excess of $5,000, or where the borrower's aggregate outstanding indebtedness is in excess of $7,500 from a single lender under this part, make, notwithstanding any other provision of this part limiting the maximum insured principal amount for all insured loans made to a borrower, a new loan to the borrower in an amount equal to the unpaid principal and accrued unpaid interest on the old loans. The proceeds of the new loan shall be used to discharge the liability on such old loans.

20 USC 1085.

"(B) The Association in making loans pursuant to this subsection in any State served by a State agency or nonprofit private institution or organization with which the Secretary has an agreement under section 428(b) or an eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1) (D) or (F) may designate as its agent such agency, institution, organization, or lender to perform such functions as the Association determines appropriate. Any agreements made pursuant to this subparagraph shall be on such terms and conditions as agreed upon by the Association and such agency, institution, organization, c lender.

20 USC 1079.

"(2) Loans made pursuant to this subsection shall be insurable either by the Secretary under section 429 with a certificate of comprehensive insurance coverage provided for under section 429(b)(1) or by a State or nonprofit private institution or organization with which the Secretary has an agreement under section 428(b), except that such State or nonprofit private institution or organization shall provide the Association with a certificate of comprehensive insurance coverage. The terms of loans made under this subsection shall be such as may be agreed upon by the borrower and the Association and meet the requirements of section 427, except that (A) the ten-year maximum period referred to in section 427(a)(2)(B) may be extended to no more than twenty years, and (B) clause (ii) of section 427(a)(2)(B) shall not be applicable.

"(3)(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the Association, with the agreement of the borrower, may establish such repayment terms as it determines will promote the objectives of this subsection including, but not limited to, the establishment of graduated, income sensitive repayment schedules.

Ante, p. 1419.

"(B) For any borrower who has received two or more loans under this part bearing interest at the rate of 9 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of the loan and who requests a new loan under this subsection for the purpose of consolidation on a date after the date on which the Secretary has made a determination under section 427A(b), the rate of interest on such new loan shall not exceed 8 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance of such new loan.

"(4) The Association shall develop a program to ensure the dissemination of information to students, lenders, and institutions of higher education regarding the loans authorized by this subsection.

"(p)(1) The Association shall make advances in each fiscal year from amounts available to it to each State agency, nonprofit institution or organization, and eligible lender described in subsection 428(h)(1) which has an agreement with the Association which sets forth that advances are necessary to enable such agency, institution, organization or lender to make student loans in accordance with section 428(h) of this title and that such advances will be repaid to the Association in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be set forth in the agreement and agreed to by the Association and such agency, institution, organization, or lender. Advances made under this subsection shall not be subject to section 439(d)(2) of this Act.

Ante, p. 1418.

Ante, p. 1428.

"(2) No advance may be made under this subsection unless the State agency or nonprofit private institution, organization, or lender makes an application to the Association, which shall be accompanied by such information as the Association determines to be reasonably necessary.

"(q)(1)(A) Whenever the Secretary determines that eligible borrowers in a State not served by a State agency or nonprofit private institution or organization having an agreement pursuant to section 428(b), or an eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1) (D) or (F) are seeking and are unable to obtain loans under this part, the Association or its designated agent may begin making loans in accordance with this subsection at the request of the Secretary. The Association shall give preference to such States in making loans under this subsection.

20 USC 1078.
20 USC 1085.

"(B) Loans made pursuant to this subsection shall be insurable by the Secretary under section 429 with a certificate of comprehensive insurance coverage provided for under section 429(b)(1).

20 USC 1079.

"(2)(A) Whenever the Secretary, after consultation with, and with the agreement of, representatives of the agency in a State or nonprofit private institution or organization having an agreement pursuant to section 428(b), or an eligible lender in a State described in section 435(g)(1)(D), determines that a substantial portion of eligible borrowers in such State or within an area of such State are seeking and are unable to obtain loans under this part, the Association or its designated agent may begin making loans in accordance with this subsection at the request of the Secretary.

"(B) Loans made pursuant to this subsection shall be insurable by the agency identified in subparagraph (A) having an agreement pursuant to section 428(b). For loans insured by such agency, the agency shall provide the Association with a certificate of comprehensive insurance coverage, if the Association and the agency have mutually agreed upon a means to determine that the agency has not already guaranteed a loan under this part to a student which would cause a subsequent loan made by the Association to be in violation of any provision under this part.

"(3) The Association or its designated agent shall cease making loans under this part in any State at such time as it is determined by the Secretary, with regard to loans made under paragraph (1), or by any party to the agreement required by paragraph (2), that—

"(A) the conditions which caused the implementation of this subsection have ceased to exist; or

"(B) the implementation of this subsection has either (i) further reduced the availability of loans from other sources in the applicable geographical area, or (ii) inhibited the formation in a State of an agency which would have an agreement pursuant to section 428(b) of this part which would have the responsibility of developing local sources of funds for student loans.".

20 USC 1085.

(2) Section 435(g)(1) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (E), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (F), and by adding at the end thereof the following:

Ante, p. 1430.

"(G) for purposes of making loans under section 439 (o) and (q), the Student Loan Marketing Association; and

"(H) for purposes of making loans under section 428(j), a State agency or a nonprofit private institution or organization having an agreement under section 428(b).".

PROMPT DUE DILIGENCE DETERMINATIONS

20 USC 1080.

SEC. 422. Section 430(a) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "The Secretary shall make the determination required to carry out the provisions of this section not later than ninety days after the notification by the insurance beneficiary and shall make payment in full on the amount of the beneficiary's loss pending completion of his due diligence investigation.".

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

20 USC 1077.

SEC. 423. (a)(1) Section 427(a)(1) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

Post, p. 1448.

"(1) made to a student who (A) is an eligible student under section 484, and (B) has agreed to notify promptly the holder of the loan concerning any change of address; and".

20 USC 1078.

(2) Section 428(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

Post, p. 1445.

"(i) a student's estimated cost of attendance means the cost of attendance for such student determined in accordance with section 482(d);".

(b) The first sentence of section 428(c)(1)(A) of the Act is amended by striking out everything after "of any insured loan" and inserting in lieu thereof a period.

(c) Section 428(e) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

Ante, p. 1424.

"(e) From funds appropriated to carry out this part in any fiscal year, the Secretary shall pay to each eligible institution the amount of $10 per academic year for each student enrolled in that institution who is in receipt of a loan described in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this section or made under section 428B, for that year. Payments received by an institution under this subsection shall be used solely for the purpose of offsetting the costs to the institution for the program under this part.".

(d) Section 428(f) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5)(A) The Secretary shall make payments in accordance with this paragraph to an agency, institution, or organization in any State which has an agreement under subsection (b) of this section which provides a lender referral service for students who meet the requirements of subparagraph (B).

"(B) A student is eligible to apply for lender referral services to an agency, institution, or organization in a State if (i) such student is either a resident of such State or is accepted for enrollment in or is attending an eligible institution in such State, and (ii) such student has sought and was unable to find a lender willing to make a loan under this part.

"(C) The amount which the Secretary shall pay to any eligible agency, institution, or organization under this paragraph shall be equal to one-half of 1 per centum of the total principal amount of the loans upon which insurance was issued under this part on loans made to a student described in subparagraph (B) who subsequently obtained such loans because of such agency's, institution's, or organization's referral service.

"(D) Nothing in this or any law shall prohibit an agency from using all or a portion of the funds received under this part for the payment of incentive fees to lenders who agree to participate in a loan referral service.

"(E) There is authorized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.".

Appropriation authorization.

PART C—WORK-STUDY PROGRAMS

PURPOSE; APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

SEC. 431. Section 441 of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"PURPOSE; APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

USE OF CERTAIN UNUSED COLLEGE WORK-STUDY PROGRAM FUNDS FOR THE SUPPORT OF COOPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

SEC. 433. (a) The first sentence of section 442(d) of the Act is amended by inserting before the period a comma and the following: "except that the Secretary shall give preference for the first 50 per centum of such reallotments to eligible institutions for use for initiating, improving, and expanding programs of cooperative education conducted in accordance with title VIII of this Act".

20 USC 1133.

(b) Section 442(d) of the Act is amended by inserting "(1)" after the subsection designation and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) The requirement for preference under reallotment contained in the exception of the first sentence of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made upon application by the eligible institution to the Secretary in such manner and such form as the Secretary may require. The Secretary shall allot funds under such preference based upon the ratio of the number of students assisted under the cooperative education program authorized by title VIII for the fiscal year for which the determination is made enrolled in the eligible institution making application under this paragraph to the number of such students for such year enrolled in all eligible institutions applying under this part.". 20 USC 1133.

GRANTS FOR WORK-STUDY PROGRAMS

SEC. 434. Part C of title IV of the Act is amended by striking out sections 443 and 444 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: 42 USC 2753, 2754.

"GRANTS FOR WORK-STUDY PROGRAMS

42 USC 2753.

"SEC. 443. (a) The Secretary is authorized to enter into agreements with institutions of higher education under which the Secretary will make grants to such institutions to assist in the operation of work-study programs as provided in this part.

Grant agreements, requirements.

"(b) An agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall—

"(1) provide for the operation by the institution of a program for the part-time employment of its students in work for the institution itself (except in the case of a proprietary institution of higher education) or work in the public interest for a Federal, State, or local public agency or private nonprofit organization under an arrangement between the institution and such agency or organization, and such work—

"(A) will not result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for services;

"(B) will be governed by such conditions of employment as will be appropriate and reasonable in light of such factors as type of work performed, geographical region, and proficiency of the employee;

"(C) does not involve the construction, operation, or maintenance of so much of any facility as is used or is to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place for religious worship; and

"(D) will not pay any wage to students employed under this subpart that is less than the current Federal minimum wage as mandated by section 6(a) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938; 29 USC 206.

"(2) provide that funds granted an institution of higher education, pursuant to section 443, may be used only to make payments to students participating in work-study programs, except that an institution may use a portion of the sums granted to it to meet administrative expenses in accordance with section 489 of this Act, may use a portion of the sums granted to it to meet the cost of a job location and development program in accordance with section 447 of this part, and may transfer funds in accordance with the provisions of section 488 of this Act; Post, p. 1453. 42 USC 2756a. Post, p. 1452.

"(3) provide that in the selection of students for employment under such work-study program, only students who demonstrate financial need in accordance with the provisions of section 482, and who meet the requirements of section 484 will be assisted, except that each eligible institution may reserve and award not more than 10 per centum of the funds made available under this part for each fiscal year for less-than-half-time students who are determined by the institution to be in need of such grants and Post, p. 1445. Post, p. 1448.

who meet the requirements of section 484, other than the requirement of clause (2) of section 484(a); Post, p. 1448.

"(4) provide that no student in a work-study program under this part shall be required to terminate that employment during a semester (or other regular enrollment period) at the time income derived from any employment (including work-study or nonwork-study or both) is in excess of the determination of the amount of such student's need for that semester under clause (3) of this subsection, but when such excess income equals $200 or more, continued employment under a work-study program shall not be subsidized with funds appropriated under this part;

"(5) provide that the institution will meet the requirements of section 487(2) of this Act (relating to maintenance of effort); Post, p. 1451.

"(6) provide that the Federal share of the compensation of students employed in the work-study program in accordance with the agreement will not exceed 80 per centum of such compensation; except that the Federal share may exceed 80 per centum of such compensation if the Secretary determines, pursuant to regulations adopted and promulgated by him establishing objective criteria for such determinations, that a Federal share in excess of 80 per centum is required in furtherance of the purposes of this part;

"(7) include provisions to make employment under such work-study program reasonably available (to the extent of available funds) to all eligible students in the institution in need thereof, and to make equivalent employment offered or arranged by the institution reasonably available (to the extent of available funds) to all students in the institution who desire such employment;

"(8) provide assurances that employment made available from funds under this part will, to the maximum extent practicable, complement and reinforce the educational program or vocational goals of each student receiving assistance under this part; and

"(9) include such other provisions as the Secretary shall deem necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this part.".

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSISTANCE

SEC. 435. (a) Section 446(a) of the Act is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new sentence: "The criteria established under this subsection shall not result in any institution's receiving an amount less than the institution used under this section for fiscal year 1979, unless there is a substantial decline in the student enrollment of the institution.". 42 USC 2756.

(b) Section 446 of the Act is amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:

"(b) Of the sums granted to an eligible institution under this part for any fiscal year, 10 per centum may, at the discretion of the institution, remain available for expenditure during the succeeding fiscal year to carry out programs under this part. Any of the sums so granted to an institution for a fiscal year which are not needed by that institution to operate work-study programs during that fiscal year, and which it does not wish to use during the next fiscal year as authorized in the preceding sentence, shall remain available to the Secretary for making grants under section 443 to other institutions in the same State until the close of the second fiscal year next succeeding the fiscal year for which such funds were appropriated.

"(c) Up to 10 per centum of the sums the Secretary determines an eligible institution may receive from funds which have been appropriated for a fiscal year may be used by the Secretary to make grants under this part to such institution for expenditure during the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year for which the sums were appropriated.".

JOB LOCATION AND DEVELOPMENT

42 USC 2756a.

SEC. 436. Section 447 of the Act is amended by striking out "$15,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$25,000".

WORK STUDY FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE-LEARNING

SEC. 437. Part C of title IV of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"WORK STUDY FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE-LEARNING ON BEHALF OF LOW-INCOME INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES

42 USC 2756b.

"SEC. 448. (a) The purpose of this section is to encourage and enable institutions of higher education to develop work study programs involving eligible students in community service-learning designed to develop, improve, or expand services for low-income individuals and families or to solve particular problems related to the needs of low-income individuals.

Definitions.

"(b) For the purpose of this section—

"(1) 'community service-learning' means a program of student work that—

"(A) provides tangible community services for or on behalf of low-income individuals or families; and

"(B) provides participating students with work-learning opportunities related to their educational or vocational programs or goals; and

"(2) 'community services' means direct service, planning or applied research activities designed to improve the quality of life for community residents, particularly low-income individuals, or to solve particular problems related to their needs including, but not limited to, such fields as health care, education, welfare, social services, public safety, crime prevention and control, transportation, recreation, housing and neighborhood improvement, rural development, and community improvement.

Post, p. 1453.

"(c) Each institution participating under this part may use funds made available under the last sentence of section 489(a) to conduct that institution's program of community service-learning, including—

"(1) development of mechanisms to assure the academic quality of the student experience,

"(2) assuring student access to educational resources, expertise, and supervision necessary to achieve community service objectives, and

"(3) collaboration with public and private nonprofit agencies in the planning and administration of such programs.".

PART D—NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOANS

EXTENSION OF PROGRAM

Appropriation authorization.
20 USC 1087aa.

SEC. 441. (a) Section 461(b)(1) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) For the purpose of enabling the Secretary to make contributions to student loan funds established under this part, there are authorized to be appropriated $400,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 1981 and 1982, $475,000,000 for fiscal year 1983, $550,000,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $625,000,000 for fiscal year 1985, except that no funds are authorized to be appropriated for any fiscal year which begins after there has been a capital distribution under section 466(a).". 20 USC 1087ff.

(b) Section 461(b)(2) of the Act is amended— 20 USC 1087aa.

(1) by striking out "for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1980, and each of the three succeeding fiscal years" and inserting in lieu thereof "for fiscal year 1985 and each of the five succeeding fiscal years"; and

(2) by striking out "October 1, 1980" and inserting in lieu thereof "October 1, 1985".

ALTERNATIVE FUNDING FOR DIRECT LOANS; RECAPTURE OF CURRENT BALANCES

SEC. 442. (a) Part E of title IV of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

"ALTERNATIVE SOURCE OF FUNDS

Obligations.
20 USC 1087hh.

"SEC. 468. (a)(1) The Secretary shall, not later than April 1 of each fiscal year, issue and have outstanding at any one time notes, debentures, bonds, or other obligations in such amounts as shall be necessary to carry out functions under this part, subject to such annual limitations as may be provided in an appropriation Act with respect to such fiscal year, except that the Secretary shall not issue any such obligation without the prior concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury as to the terms and conditions of such obligations. The Secretary of the Treasury may direct that any such issuance by the Secretary be sold to the Department of the Treasury for its own account or to the Federal Financing Bank.

"(2) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to purchase any obligations issued under this section, and for that purpose, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to use as a public debt transaction the proceeds from the sale of any securities hereafter issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act, and the purposes for which securities may be issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act are extended to include such purchases. Each purchase of obligations by the Secretary of the Treasury under this section shall be upon such terms and conditions as to yield a return at a rate not less than a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration the current average yield on outstanding marketable obligations of the United States of comparable maturity. Interest due on obligations of the Secretary held by the Treasury may be deferred, at the discretion of the Secretary, but any such deferred interest shall bear interest at the rate specified in this section. The Secretary of the Treasury may sell, upon such terms and conditions and at such price or prices as he shall determine, any of the obligations acquired by him under this section. All redemptions, purchases, and sales by the Secretary of the Treasury of such obligations under this section shall be treated as public debt transactions of the United States.

"(3) All obligations of the Secretary issued under this section shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest and shall constitute general obligations of the United States, backed by the full faith and credit of the Government of the United States of America. Such guarantee shall be expressed on the face of all such obligations.

"(4) Obligations of the Secretary issued pursuant to this section shall be lawful investments, and may be accepted as security for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. All stock and obligations issued by the Secretary pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be exempt securities within the meaning of laws administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission, to the same extent as securities which are direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed as to principal or interest by, the United States.

"(5) In order that the Secretary may be supplied with such forms of notes, debentures, bonds, or other such obligations as it may need for issuance under this section, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prepare such forms as shall be suitable and approved by the Secretary, to be held in the Treasury subject to delivery, upon order of the Secretary. The engraved plates, dies, bed pieces, and so forth, executed in connection therewith shall remain in the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary shall reimburse the Secretary of the Treasury for any expenses incurred in the preparation, custody, and delivery of such notes, debentures, bonds, or other obligations.

"(6) All moneys of the Secretary not otherwise employed may be—

"(A) deposited with the Treasury of the United States subject to withdrawal by the Secretary, by check drawn on the Treasury of the United States by a Treasury disbursing officer, or

"(B) with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, deposited in any Federal Reserve bank, or

"(C) with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and by authorization of the Secretary, used in the purchase for redemption and retirement of any notes, debentures, bonds, or other obligations issued by the Secretary.

Federal capital contributions.
20 USC 1087cc.

"(b)(1) The Secretary shall make payments under this section for any fiscal year to each institution of higher education having an agreement under section 463 on the basis of the estimated needs of that institution for making student loans taking into consideration—

"(A) the cost of attendance at that institution,

"(B) the financial need of students at that institution to meet the cost of attendance as determined under section 482, and Post, p. 1445.

"(C) the financial assistance received by students at that institution under parts A and C of this title, or any other provision of Federal law (other than part B), and other scholarship, grant, work, and loan assistance received by students, 20 USC 1070. 42 USC 2751. 20 USC 1071.

subject to the limitations specified in section 464(a)(2). No application under subsection (c) shall be approved which requests an amount greater than the amount determined under this subsection to be needed by that institution. 20 USC 1087dd.

"(2) If the total amount of Federal capital contributions requested in applications under subsection (c) exceeds the amount available under this section for a fiscal year, the request from each institution shall be ratably reduced, except that no reduction may be made under this sentence to an amount which, together with funds available to the institution of higher education under section 463(a)(2) (A) and (B) for that fiscal year, is less than the amount which was used by that institution for making loans under this part during fiscal year 1980. In case additional amounts become available for such contributions in any fiscal year in which requests have been so reduced, such requests shall be increased on the same basis as they were reduced, except that no such request shall be increased above the amount requested in the application.

"(c) Any institution of higher education desiring to receive payments of Federal capital contributions from the apportionment under subsection (b) shall submit an application therefor to the Secretary at such time as the Secretary prescribes.

Application submittal.

"(d) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to pay the differential between the rate of return on obligations of the Secretary made under this section and the interest collected on student loans made under this part.

Appropriation authorization.

"(e) In carrying out the provisions of this part, the Secretary is authorized—

"(1) to consent to modification, with respect to rate of interest, time of payment of any installment of principal and interest or any portion thereof, or any other provision of any note evidencing a loan which has been made under this part;

"(2) to enforce, pay, compromise, waive, or release any right, title, claim, lien, or demand, however acquired, including any equity or any right of redemption;

"(3) to conduct litigation in accordance with the provisions of section 432(a)(2); and

20 USC 1082.

"(4) to enter into a contract or other arrangement with State or nonprofit agencies and, on a competitive basis, with collection agencies for servicing and collection of loans under this part.

"RECAPTURE OF CURRENT BALANCE OF STUDENT LOAN FUNDS

"SEC. 469. If, by April 1 of any fiscal year, the Secretary has made available for deposit in student loan funds pursuant to section 463(a)(2)(C) an amount which equals or exceeds $1,000,000,000 to be available for loans for such fiscal year, there shall be collected from each student loan fund established under this part the current balance of such student loan fund as follows:

20 USC 1087ii.

Infra.

"(1) The Secretary shall first be paid an amount which bears the same ratio to the balance in such fund (excluding any portion of such balance which was deposited pursuant to section 463(a)(2)(C)) as the total amount of Federal capital contributions to such fund by the Secretary from funds appropriated under section 461 or under title II of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 bears to the sum of such Federal capital contributions and the institution's capital contribution to such fund. Such amounts shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States.

20 USC 1087aa.

20 USC 421.

"(2) The remainder of such balance, excluding any portion of such balance which was deposited pursuant to section 463(a)(2)(C), shall be paid to the institution.

"(3) Any portion of such balance which was deposited pursuant to section 463(a)(2)(C) shall be retained in the student loan fund for use in accordance with this part.".

(b)(1) Section 463(a)(2) of the Act is amended to read as follows:

20 USC 1087cc.

"(2) provide for the deposit in such fund of—

"(A) Federal capital contributions from funds appropriated under section 461;

"(B) a capital contribution by such institution in an amount equal to not less than one-ninth of the amount of the Federal capital contributions described in subparagraph (A);

"(C) Federal capital contributions from funds provided by the Secretary under section 468;

Ante, p. 1437.

"(D) collections of principal and interest on student loans made from deposited funds other than those described in subparagraph (C);

20 USC 1087dd.

"(E) charges collected pursuant to regulations under section 464(c)(1)(H); and

"(F) any other earnings of the funds;".

20 USC 1087cc.

(2) Section 463(a)(3)(D) of the Act is amended by striking out "section 464(c)(1)(G)" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 464(c)(1)(H)".

Student loans. Principal and interest collections.

(3) Section 463(a) of the Act is further amended by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (5), by redesignating paragraph (6) as paragraph (9), and by inserting immediately after paragraph (5) the following new paragraph:

"(6)(A) provide that collections of principal and interest on student loans made from funds described in paragraph (2)(C), after deduction of any costs of litigation and other servicing and collection costs agreed to by the Secretary in connection with the servicing and collection of such a loan (and interest thereon) or a charge assessed pursuant to regulations under section 464(c)(1)(H), shall be paid to the Secretary at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States; or

"(B) provide that, if an institution of higher education determines not to service and collect student loans made from funds described in paragraph (2)(C), the institution will assign, at the beginning of the repayment period, notes or evidence of obligations of student loans made from funds described in such paragraph to the Secretary;".

(4) Section 463(b) of the Act is amended by inserting "(1)" after the subsection designation and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) An institution which has entered into an agreement under subsection (a) and has elected to assign the notes or evidence of obligations of student loans in accordance with paragraph (6)(B) of such subsection shall be eligible to receive, from funds available to the Secretary, an amount equal to $10 per academic year for each student enrolled in that institution who in that year received a loan from funds described in paragraph (2)(C) of subsection (a) of this section. Payments received by an institution under this paragraph shall be used for the purpose of offsetting the costs to the institution for the program under this part.".

20 USC 1087dd.

(5) Section 464(c)(1)(G) of the Act is amended by inserting before the semicolon a comma and the following: "and except as necessary to carry out section 463(a)(6)(B)".

20 USC 1087ee.

(6) Section 465(b) of the Act is amended by inserting immediately before the period at the end of the first sentence the following: ", minus an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts of any such loans so canceled which were made from Federal capital contributions to its student loan fund provided by the Secretary under section 468".

(b) Section 464(c)(1)(A) of the Act is amended by striking out "nine months" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "six months".

(c) Section 464(c)(2) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) No repayment of principal of, or interest on, any loan for any period of study, service, or disability described in subparagraph (A) or any combination thereof shall begin until six months after the completion of such period of study, service, disability, or combination thereof.".

(d) Section 464(c)(3) of the Act is amended by inserting "(A)" immediately after "(3)" and by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(B) Pursuant to uniform criteria established by the Secretary, the repayment period for any student borrower who during the repayment period is a low-income individual may be extended for a period not to exceed ten years and the repayment schedule may be adjusted to reflect the income of that individual.".

COLLECTION PRACTICES

20 USC 1087cc. Ante, p. 1440.

SEC. 445. (a) Section 463(a) of the Act (as amended by section 442(b)(3)) is further amended by inserting after paragraph (6) the following new paragraph:

"(7) provide that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary will provide to the institution any information with respect to the names and addresses of borrowers or other relevant information which is available to him, from whatever source such information may be derived;".

(b)(1) Section 463 of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Cooperative agreements with credit bureaus.

"(c)(1) For the purpose of promoting responsible repayment of loans made pursuant to this part, the Secretary shall enter into cooperative agreements with credit bureau organizations to provide for the exchange of information concerning student borrowers concerning whom the Secretary has received a referral pursuant to section 467.

20 USC 1087gg.

Ante, p. 1420.

"(2) Each cooperative agreement made pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be made in accordance with requirements of section 430(b)(2) except that such agreement shall provide for the disclosure by the Secretary to such organizations, with respect to any loan for which the Secretary is responsible, of—

"(A) the date of disbursement and the amount of any such loan;

"(B) information concerning collection of any such loan, including information concerning the status of any defaulted loan; and

"(C) the date of cancellation of the note upon completion of repayment by the borrower of any such loan.".

20 USC 1087dd.

(2) Section 464(c)(1) of such Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of subparagraph (G), by striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (H) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and", and by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(I) shall contain a notice of the system of disclosure of information concerning default on such loan to credit bureau organizations under section 463(c).".

Supra.

20 USC 1087gg.

(c) Section 467 of the Act is amended by inserting "(a)" after "SEC. 467." and by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(b) The Secretary shall continue to attempt to collect any loan assigned under section 463(a) (5) or (6) or referred under subsection (a) of this section until a date which is not earlier than four years after the date of default (determined in a manner consistent with section 430(e)).".

20 USC 1080.

INTEREST RATES

20 USC 1087dd.

SEC. 446. Section 464(c)(1)(D) of the Act is amended by inserting immediately after "3 per centum per annum" the following: "or 4 per centum per annum in the case of any loan made on or after October 1, 1980".

STUDENT LOAN INFORMATION PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

"(8) provide assurances that the institution will comply with the provisions of section 463A;".

Post, p. 1443.

(b) Part E of title IV of the Act is amended by adding after section 463 the following new section:

"STUDENT LOAN INFORMATION BY INSTITUTIONS

"SEC. 463A. Each institution of higher education, in order to carry out the provisions of section 463(a)(7), shall, at the time such institution makes a loan to a student borrower which is made under this part, provide thorough and adequate loan information on loans made under this part to the student borrower. The loan information required by this section shall include— 20 USC 1087cc-1. Ante, p. 1442.

"(1) the yearly and cumulative maximum amounts that may be borrowed by a student;

"(2) the terms on which repayment will begin;

"(3) the maximum number of years in which the loan must be repaid;

"(4) the interest rate that will be repaid and the minimum amount of required monthly payment;

"(5) any special options the borrower may have for deferral, cancellation, prepayment, consolidation, or other refinancing of the loan;

"(6) a definition of default and the consequences to the borrower if the borrower should default, including a description of any arrangements made with credit bureau organizations; and

"(7) to the extent practicable, the effect of accepting the loan on the eligibility of the borrower for other forms of student assistance.".

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

SEC. 448. (a) Section 462 of the Act is amended by striking out subsection (d). 20 USC 1087bb.

(b) Section 463(b) of the Act is amended by striking out "section 493" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 485". 20 USC 1087cc.

(2) Section 464(e) of the Act is repealed.

(d) Section 465(a)(2) of the Act is amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'handicapped children' has the meaning set forth in section 602(1) of the Education of the Handicapped Act.". 20 USC 1087ee.

(e) Section 465(a) of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5) The amount of a loan, and interest on a loan, which is canceled under this section shall not be considered income for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.". 26 USC 1.

PART E—GENERAL PROVISIONS

STUDENT ASSISTANCE GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 451. (a) Part F of title IV of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"Part F—General Provisions Relating to Student Assistance Programs

"definitions

20 USC 1088.
20 USC 1070e, 1071.
20 USC 1141.

"Sec. 481. (a)(1) For the purposes of this title, except subpart 6 of part A and part B, the term 'institution of higher education' includes, in addition to the institutions covered by the definition contained in section 1201(a)—

"(A) a proprietary institution of higher education;

"(B) a postsecondary vocational institution;

"(C) a department, division, or other administrative unit in a college or university which provides primarily or exclusively an accredited program of education in professional nursing and allied subjects leading to the degree of bachelor of nursing, or to an equivalent degree, or to a graduate degree in nursing; and

"(D) a department, division, or other administrative unit in a junior college, community college, college, or university which provides primarily or exclusively an accredited two-year program of education in professional nursing and allied subjects leading to an associate degree in nursing or to an equivalent degree.

"(2) The term 'accredited' when applied to any program of nurse education means a program accredited by a recognized body or bodies approved for such purpose by the Secretary.

"(b) For the purposes of this section, the term 'proprietary institution of higher education' means a school (1) which provides not less than a six-month program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation, (2) which meets the requirements of clauses (1) and (2) of section 1201(a), (3) which does not meet the requirement of clause (4) of section 1201(a), (4) which is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association approved by the Secretary for this purpose, and (5) which has been in existence for at least two years. Such term also includes a proprietary educational institution in any State which, in lieu of the requirement in clause (1) of section 1201(a), admits as regular students persons who are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance in the State in which the institution is located and who have the ability to benefit from the training offered by the institution. For purposes of this subsection, the Secretary shall publish a list of nationally recognized accrediting agencies or associations which he determines to be reliable authority as to the quality of training offered.

"(c) For the purposes of this section, the term 'postsecondary vocational institution' means a school (1) which provides not less than a six-month program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation, (2) which meets the requirements of clauses (1), (2), (4), and (5) of section 1201(a), and (3) which has been in existence for at least two years. Such term also includes an educational institution in any State which, in lieu of the requirement in clause (1) of section 1201(a), admits as regular students persons who are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance in the State in which the institution is located and who have the ability to benefit from the training offered by the institution.

"(d) For the purpose of any program under this title, the term 'academic year' shall be defined by the Secretary by regulation.

"NEED ANALYSIS

"SEC. 482. (a)(1) For the purpose of determining a student's need for financial assistance under this title (other than under subpart 3 of part A and under part B), the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register, no later than July 1, 1981, April 1, 1982, and on April 1 of each succeeding calendar year, a proposed schedule of expected family contributions for the academic year which begins after July 1 of the calendar year which succeeds such calendar year for various levels of family income, which, except as is otherwise provided in paragraph (2), together with any amendments thereto, shall become effective July 1 of the calendar year which succeeds such calendar year. During the thirty-day period following such publication the Secretary shall provide interested parties with an opportunity to present their views and make recommendations with respect to such schedule. Such schedule shall be adjusted annually.

Publication in Federal Register.
20 USC 1089.
20 USC 1070c, 1071.

Effective date.

"(2) The schedule of expected family contributions required for each academic year shall be submitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives not later than the time of its publication in the Federal Register. If either the Senate or the House of Representatives adopts, prior to October 1, 1981, July 1, 1982, or July 1 of any succeeding year following the submission of such schedule as required by this paragraph, a resolution of disapproval of such schedule, in whole or in part, the Secretary shall publish a new schedule of expected family contributions in the Federal Register not later than fifteen days after the adoption of such resolution of disapproval. Such new schedule shall take into consideration such recommendations as may be made in either House in connection with such resolution. If within fifteen days following the submission of the revised schedule either the Senate or the House of Representatives again adopts a resolution of disapproval, in whole or in part, of such revised schedule, the Secretary shall publish a new schedule of expected family contributions in the Federal Register not later than fifteen days after the adoption of such resolution of disapproval. This procedure shall be repeated until neither the Senate nor the House of Representatives adopts a resolution of disapproval. The Secretary shall publish together with each new schedule a statement identifying the recommendations made in either House in connection with such resolution of disapproval and explaining his reasons for the new schedule.

Expected family contributions schedule.
Publication in Federal Register.

"(3) The Secretary, in cooperation with representatives of agencies and organizations involved in student financial assistance, shall develop a proposed schedule of expected family contributions each year for publication in the Federal Register.

"(b)(1) For the purposes of this section, the term 'family contribution' with respect to any student means the amount which the student and his family may be reasonably expected to contribute toward his postsecondary education for the academic year for which the determination is made, as determined in accordance with regulations. In promulgating such regulations, the Secretary shall follow the basic criteria set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

"Family contributions."

"(2) The basic criteria to be followed in promulgating regulations with respect to expected family contributions are as follows:

Criteria.

"(A) The amount of the effective income of the student or the effective family income of the student's parents.

"(B) The number of dependents of the family of the student.

"(C) The number of dependents of the student's family who are in attendance in a program of postsecondary education and for whom the family may be reasonably expected to contribute for their postsecondary education.

"(D) The amount of the assets of the student and the assets of the student's family.

"(E) Any unusual expenses of the student or his family, such as unusual medical expenses and those which may arise from a catastrophe.

"(F) Any educational expenses of other dependent children in the family.

"Effective family income."

"(3) For purposes of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), the term 'effective family income' with respect to a student, means the annual adjusted family income, as determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary, received by the parents or legal guardians of the student minus Federal, State and local taxes paid or payable with respect to such income, and includes any amount paid under the Social Security Act to, or on account of, the student which would not be paid if he were not a student and one-half any amount paid the student under chapters 34 and 35 of title 38, United States Code. The term 'effective family income' includes any effective student income after any offset as determined by regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

38 USC 1651 et seq., 1700 et seq.

"(4) In determining the expected family contribution under this section for any academic year after academic year 1978-1979, an assessment rate of not more than 14 per centum shall be applied to parental discretionary income for families with adjusted gross family income which does not exceed $25,000 for each such year. The Secretary may set an assessment rate or a series of assessment rates to be applied to parental discretionary income for families with adjusted gross incomes which exceed $25,000 for each such year for income in excess of $25,000.

"(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(D), the assets shall be determined by—

"(A) excluding all equity in a single principal place of residence from the computation of assets;

"(B) deducting an asset reserve of not less than $10,000 from the net value of all assets; and

"(C) if net assets include farm or business assets, deducting an additional asset reserve of not less than $50,000 from the net assets.

Regulations.

"(c)(1) The Secretary shall promulgate special regulations for determining the expected family contribution and effective family income of an independent student. Such special regulations shall be consistent with the basic criteria set forth in paragraph (2) of subsection (b). In addition, such regulations shall—

"(A) provide that the portion of assets which shall be exempt from assessment for contribution for an independent student who has one or more dependents shall be the same as the portion so exempt for the family of a dependent student;

"(B) provide that the rate of assessment for contribution on that portion of assets of such an independent student which is not exempt under subparagraph (A) shall be the same as the rate applied to the comparable portion of assets of the family of a dependent student;

"(C) in establishing a portion of effective family income which shall be exempt from assessment for contribution by reason of subsistence requirements of independent students who have no dependents, use the same method for computation of such portion for such students as is used for dependent students and for independent students who have dependents;

"(D) in determining the family contribution for an independent student who has one or more dependents, provide that the assessment rate which is to be applied to the student's discretionary income shall be the same as the assessment rate applied to discretionary income of the family of a dependent student; and

"(E) provide that a married student shall be considered independent if, notwithstanding prior dependency status, such student certifies that in the year of application he (i) will not live with parents for more than six weeks; (ii) will not be claimed by parents as a dependent on any tax return filed for purposes of Federal income taxes; and (iii) will not receive more than $750 in support from parents.

"(2) For purposes of this title, the term 'independent student' means a student who is determined, pursuant to regulations of the Secretary, to be independent of the parents or legal guardians of the student.

"Independent student."

"(d) For the purposes of this title, the term 'cost of attendance' means—

"Cost of attendance."

"(1) tuition and fees normally assessed a full-time student at the institution at which the student is in attendance;

"(2) an allowance for books, supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous personal expenses;

"(3) an allowance for room and board costs incurred by the student which—

"(A) beginning in academic year 1981-1982 shall be an allowance of not less than $1,100 for a student without dependents residing at home with parents;

"(B) for students without dependents residing in institutionally owned or operated housing, shall be a standard allowance determined by the institution based on the amount normally assessed most of its residents for room and board;

"(C) for all other students without dependents, shall be a standard allowance determined by the institution based on the expenses reasonably incurred by such students for room and board; and

"(D) for students with dependents, shall be an allowance based on the expenses reasonably incurred by such students for room and board;

"(4) for a student engaged in a program of study by correspondence, only tuition and fees and, if required, books and supplies, and travel and room and board costs incurred specifically in fulfilling a required period of residential training;

"(5) for a student enrolled in an academic program which normally includes a formal program of study abroad, reasonable costs associated with such study;

"(6) for a student with dependent children, an allowance based on the expenses reasonably incurred for child care; and

"(7) for a handicapped student, an allowance for those expenses related to his handicap, including special services, transportation, equipment, and supplies that are reasonably incurred and not provided for by other assisting agencies.

"(e) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an institution, in individual cases, from adjusting the financial need determination for a student aided under subpart 2 of part A or part C or E of this title if the basis for such adjustment is documented.

Financial need determination.

20 USC 1070b, 42 USC 2751, 20 USC 1088.

"FORMS AND REGULATIONS

20 USC 1090.

"SEC. 483. (a) The Secretary, in cooperation with representatives of agencies and organizations involved in student financial assistance, shall prescribe a common Federal financial aid application form to be used to determine the need and eligibility of a student for financial assistance under this title (other than under subpart 3 of part A and under part B). No student or parent of a student shall be charged a fee for processing the data elements of the form prescribed by the Secretary. The Secretary shall, to the extent practicable, enter into not less than three contracts with States, institutions of higher education, or private organizations for the purpose of processing the application required under this subsection and issuing eligibility reports. The Secretary may also contract for additional services to assure coordination of financial aid from both Federal and non-Federal sources, and to provide information, training, and similar services to institutions, aid officers, counselors, lenders, parents and students. Nothing in this section shall prohibit States, institutions, or private organizations from simultaneously collecting data elements, in addition to the data elements prescribed by the Secretary, as may be necessary to determine the eligibility of a student for financial aid funds not covered by this title (or covered under subpart 3 of part A or under part B of this title).

Contract authority.

"(b) Copies of all rules, regulations, guidelines, instructions, and application forms published or promulgated pursuant to this title shall be provided to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources of the Senate and the Committee on Education and Labor of the House of Representatives at least thirty days prior to their effective date.

Contract authority.

"(c) To help insure access to postsecondary education by providing early notice to students of their potential eligibility for financial aid, the Secretary is authorized to enter into contracts with States, institutions of higher education, and private organizations for the purpose of—

"(1) developing a common pre-eligibility Federal financial aid form,

"(2) distributing and processing such form on a year-round basis free of charge to students, and

"(3) issuing on the basis of information reported by the student on such form a pre-eligibility index designed to estimate the amount of Federal (and, if feasible, non-Federal) funds for which the student might qualify in later completing and submitting the application form called for under this section.

The Secretary shall widely disseminate the pre-eligibility form through post offices and other appropriate Federal installations, schools, postsecondary institutions, libraries, and community-based agencies, including projects assisted under subpart 4 of part A of this title.

Ante, p. 1407.

"STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

20 USC 1091.

"SEC. 484. (a) In order to receive any grant, loan, or work assistance under this title, a student must—

"(1) be enrolled or accepted for enrollment at an institution of higher education that is an eligible institution in accordance with the provisions of section 487;

"(2) except as otherwise specifically provided, be carrying or planning to carry at least one-half the normal full-time workload for the course of study the student is pursuing, as determined by the institution;

"(3) if the student is presently enrolled at an institution, be maintaining satisfactory progress in the course of study the student is pursuing according to the standards and practices of the institution at which the student is in attendance;

"(4) not owe a refund on grants previously received at such institution under this title, or be in default on any loan from a student loan fund at such institution provided for in part E, or a loan made, insured, or guaranteed by the Secretary under this title for attendance at such institution; and 20 USC 1088.

"(5) file with the institution of higher education which the student intends to attend, or is attending (or in the case of a loan or loan guarantee with the lender), a statement of educational purpose (which need not be notarized) stating that the money attributable to such grant, loan, or loan guarantee will be used solely for expenses related to attendance or continued attendance at such institution.

"(b) Any permanent resident of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands or of the Northern Mariana Islands shall be eligible for assistance under this title to the same extent that citizens of the United States are eligible for such assistance.

"INSTITUTIONAL AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS

"SEC. 485. (a)(1) Each eligible institution participating in any program under this title shall carry out information dissemination activities for prospective and enrolled students regarding the institution and financial assistance under this title. The information required by this section shall be produced and be made readily available, through appropriate publications and mailings, to all current students, and to any prospective student upon request. The information required by this section shall accurately describe— 20 USC 1092.

"(A) the student financial assistance programs available to students who enroll at such institution;

"(B) the methods by which such assistance is distributed among student recipients who enroll at such institution;

"(C) any means, including forms, by which application for student financial assistance is made and requirements for accurately preparing such application;

"(D) the rights and responsibilities of students receiving financial assistance under this title;

"(E) the cost of attending the institution, including (i) tuition and fees, (ii) books and supplies, (iii) estimates of typical student room and board costs or typical commuting costs, and (iv) any additional cost of the program in which the student is enrolled or expresses a specific interest;

"(F) a statement of the refund policy of the institution for the return of unearned tuition and fees or other refundable portion of cost, as described in clause (E) of this paragraph;

"(G) the academic program of the institution, including (i) the current degree programs and other educational and training programs, (ii) the instructional, laboratory, and other physical plant facilities which relate to the academic program, and (iii) the faculty and other instructional personnel;

"(H) each person designated under subsection (b) of this section, and the methods by which and locations in which any person so designated may be contacted by students and prospective students who are seeking information required by this subsection;

"(I) special facilities and services available to handicapped students;

"(J) the names of associations, agencies, or governmental bodies which accredit, approve, or license the institution and its programs, and the procedures under which any current or prospective student may obtain or review upon request a copy of the documents describing the institution's accreditation, approval, or licensing; and

"(K) the standards which the student must maintain in order to be considered to be making satisfactory progress, pursuant to section 484(a)(3).

"Prospective student."

"(2) For purposes of this section, the term 'prospective student' means any individual who has contacted an eligible institution requesting information concerning admission to that institution.

"(b) Each eligible institution shall designate an employee or group of employees who shall be available on a full-time basis to assist students or potential students in obtaining information as specified in subsection (a). The Secretary may, by regulation, waive the requirement that an employee or employees be available on a full-time basis for carrying out responsibilities required under this section whenever an institution in which the total enrollment, or the portion of the enrollment participating in programs under this title at that institution, is too small to necessitate such employee or employees being available on a full-time basis. No such waiver may include permission to exempt any such institution from designating a specific individual or a group of individuals to carry out the provisions of this section.

Waiver.

Federal student assistance programs, descriptions.

"(c) The Secretary shall make available to eligible institutions descriptions of Federal student assistance programs including the rights and responsibilities of student and institutional participants, in order to (1) assist students in gaining information through institutional sources, and (2) assist institutions in carrying out the provisions of this section, so that individual and institutional participants will be fully aware of their rights and responsibilities under such programs.

"TRAINING IN FINANCIAL AID AND STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Contract authority.
20 USC 1093.

"SEC. 486. (a) The Secretary is authorized to enter into contracts with appropriate public agencies or nonprofit private organizations or institutions of higher education to provide training for financial aid administrators, student peer counselors, student staff or volunteers, and other part-time staff and volunteers who provide financial aid, admissions and academic counseling and outreach, and student support programs in postsecondary education in postsecondary institutions, communities or statewide programs.

"(b) Financial assistance under this section may be used for—

"(1) development of materials and inservice training and career awareness programs;

"(2) operation of short-term training institutes designed to improve the skills and career awareness of participants in such institutes; and

"(3) special programs to assist in training of students and part-time staff or volunteers at institutions eligible for assistance under title III of this Act.

20 USC 1051.

"(c) There are authorized to be appropriated $1,000,000 to carry out the provisions of this section for fiscal year 1981 and for each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985.

Appropriation authorization.

"PROGRAM PARTICIPATION AGREEMENTS

"SEC. 487. (a) In order to be an eligible institution for the purposes of any program authorized under this title, an institution must be an institution of higher education or an eligible institution (as that term is defined for purposes of that program) and shall, except with respect to a program under subpart 3 of part A, enter into a program participation agreement with the Secretary. The agreement shall condition the initial and continuing eligibility of an institution to participate in a program upon compliance with the following requirements:

20 USC 1094.

"(1) The institution will use funds received by it for any program under this title solely for the purposes specified in, and in accordance with, the provisions of that program.

"(2) In the case of an institution participating in any program authorized under subpart 2 of part A or part C of this title for any fiscal year, the institution will continue to spend in its own scholarship and student aid program, from sources other than funds received under such parts, not less than the average expenditures per year made for that purpose during the most recent period of three fiscal years preceding the effective date of the program participation agreement, except that, under special and unusual circumstances prescribed by regulation, the Secretary is authorized to waive the requirements of this paragraph.

"(3) The institution will establish and maintain such administrative and fiscal procedures and records as may be necessary to ensure proper and efficient administration of funds received from the Secretary or from students under this title.

"(4) The institution will comply with the provisions of subsection (b) of this section and the regulations prescribed under that subsection, relating to fiscal eligibility.

"(5) The institution will submit reports to the Secretary and, in the case of an institution participating in a program under part B or part E, to holders of loans made to the institution's students under such parts at such times and containing such information as the Secretary may reasonably require to carry out the purposes of this title.

20 USC 1071, 1088.

"(6) The institution will comply with the requirements of section 485.

"(b)(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, the Secretary is authorized to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to provide for—

Regulations.

"(A) a fiscal audit of an eligible institution with regard to any funds obtained by it under this title or obtained from a student who has a loan insured or guaranteed by the Secretary under this title;

"(B) the establishment of reasonable standards of financial responsibility and appropriate institutional capability for the administration by an eligible institution of a program of student financial aid under this title;

"(C) the establishment, by each eligible institution under part B responsible for furnishing to the lender the statement required by section 428(a)(2)(A)(i), of policies and procedures by which the latest known address and enrollment status of any student who has had a loan insured under this part and who has either formally terminated his enrollment, or failed to re-enroll on at least a half-time basis, at such institution, shall be furnished either to the holder (or if unknown, the insurer) of the note, not later than sixty days after such termination or failure to re-enroll; and

"(D) the limitation, suspension, or termination of the eligibility for any program under this title of any otherwise eligible institution, or the imposition of a civil penalty under paragraph (2)(B) whenever the Secretary has determined, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing on the record, that such institution has violated or failed to carry out any provision of this title or any regulation prescribed under this title, except that no period of suspension under this section shall exceed sixty days unless the institution and the Secretary agree to an extension or unless limitation or termination proceedings are initiated by the Secretary within that period of time.

Eligibility status, suspension or termination.

"(2)(A) Upon determination, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing on the record, that an eligible institution has engaged in substantial misrepresentation of the nature of its educational program, its financial charges, or the employability of its graduates, the Secretary may suspend or terminate the eligibility status for any or all programs under this title of any otherwise eligible institution, in accordance with procedures specified in paragraph (1)(D) of this subsection, until the Secretary finds that such practices have been corrected.

Civil penalties.

"(B)(i) Upon determination, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing on the record, that an eligible institution—

"(I) has violated or failed to carry out any provision of this title or any regulation prescribed under this title; or

"(II) has engaged in substantial misrepresentation of the nature of its educational program, its financial charges, and the employability of its graduates, the Secretary may impose a civil penalty upon such institution of not to exceed $25,000 for each violation or misrepresentation.

"(ii) Any civil penalty may be compromised by the Secretary. In determining the amount of such penalty, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, the appropriateness of the penalty to the size of the institution of higher education subject to the determination, and the gravity of the violation, failure, or misrepresentation shall be considered. The amount of such penalty, when finally determined, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, may be deducted from any sums owing by the United States to the institution charged.

"(3) The Secretary shall publish a list of State agencies which the Secretary determines to be reliable authority as to the quality of public postsecondary vocational education in their respective States for the purpose of determining eligibility for all Federal student assistance programs.

"Eligible institution."
20 USC 1085.

"(c) For the purpose of this section the term 'eligible institution' means any such institution described in section 435(a) of this Act.

"TRANSFER OF ALLOTMENTS

20 USC 1095.
20 USC 1070b-3,
42 USC 2756.

"SEC. 488. Up to 10 per centum of the allotment of an eligible institution for a fiscal year under section 413D or 446 of this Act, may be transferred to, and used for the purposes of, the institution's allotment under the other section within the discretion of such institution in order to offer an arrangement of types of aid, including institutional and State aid, which best fits the needs of each individual student. The Secretary shall have no control over such transfer, except as specifically authorized, except for the collection and dissemination of information.

"ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

"SEC. 489. (a) From the sums appropriated for any fiscal year for purposes of the program authorized under subpart 1 of part A, the Secretary shall reserve such sums as may be necessary to pay to each institution with which he has an agreement under section 487, an amount equal to $10 for each student at that institution who receives assistance under subpart 1 of part A. In addition, an institution which has entered into an agreement with the Secretary under subpart 2 of part A or part C (other than section 448), of this title or under part E of this title shall be entitled for each fiscal year for which it receives an allotment by payment under any such part to a payment for the purposes set forth in subsection (b). The payment for a fiscal year shall be payable from each such allotment by payment in accordance with regulations of the Secretary and shall be equal to 5 per centum of the institution's first $2,750,000 of expenditures plus 4 per centum of the institution's expenditures greater than $2,750,000 and less than $5,500,000, plus 3 per centum of the institution's expenditures in excess of $5,500,000 during the fiscal year from the sum of its grants to students under subpart 2 of part A, its expenditures during such fiscal year under part C for compensation of students, and the principal amount of loans made during such fiscal year from its student loan fund established under part E, excluding the principal amount of any such loans which the institution has agreed to assign under section 463(a)(6)(B). The payment for a fiscal year for the purpose of subsection (b) with respect to section 448 shall be payable from each allotment under part C in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, and shall be 10 per centum of the institution's expenditures during such fiscal year under such section.

"(b) The sums paid to institutions under this part are for the sole purpose of offsetting the administrative costs of the programs described in subsection (a).

"CRIMINAL PENALTIES

"SEC. 490. (a) Any person who knowingly and willfully embezzles, misapplies, steals, or obtains by fraud, false statement, or forgery any funds, assets, or property provided or insured under this title shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both; but if the amount so embezzled, misapplied, stolen, or obtained by fraud, false statement, or forgery does not exceed $200, the fine shall not be more than $1,000 and imprisonment shall not exceed one year, or both.

"(b) Any person who knowingly and willfully makes any false statement, furnishes any false information, or conceals any material information in connection with the assignment of a loan which is made or insured under this title shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

"(c) Any person who knowingly and willfully makes an unlawful payment to an eligible lender under part B as an inducement to make, or to acquire by assignment, a loan insured under that part shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

"(d) Any person who knowingly and willfully destroys or conceals any record relating to the provision of assistance under this title with intent to defraud the United States or to prevent the United States from enforcing any right obtained by subrogation under this part, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

"NATIONAL COMMISSION ON STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Establishment.
20 USC 1098.

"SEC. 491. (a) There is established, as an independent agency within the executive branch, a National Commission on Student Financial Assistance (referred to in this section as the 'Commission').

Appointments.

"(b)(1) The Commission shall be composed of twelve members. Four of the members shall be appointed by the President. Four of the members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House, including two Members of the House, one from each political party. Four of the members shall be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, including two Members of the Senate, one from each political party.

"(2) The Chairman shall be designated by the President from among the members appointed by him. If the President has not appointed four members of the Commission and designated a Chairman within sixty days of the enactment of this Act, the members of the Commission appointed by the Speaker of the House and the President pro tempore of the Senate shall elect a Chairman who shall continue to serve for the duration of the Commission.

"(3) Any vacancy in the Commission shall be filled by appointment of the same person who appointed the person who has left the Commission.

Studies.

"(c)(1) The Commission shall make a study of the following issues:

"(A) more effective means to reduce default, fraud, abuse, and delinquency in the programs authorized by this title;

"(B) the appropriate balance between loans and other sources of financing postsecondary education from the point of view of the needs and welfare of students and their parents;

"(C) the adequacy of capital to serve the postsecondary educational needs of students or their parents for credit; if adequate credit is available, the likelihood it will continue to remain available; if adequate credit is not available, the likelihood it will become available and the steps that can be taken to provide adequate credit for the postsecondary educational needs of students;

"(D) the impact of various levels of student borrowing, grants, gift aid, and employment on the educational performance, future career choices, and future educational choices of students;

"(E) the impact of various levels of parent borrowing for postsecondary education on parents;

"(F) the appropriate annual and aggregate self-help limits and gift aid for parents, dependent students, and independent students;

"(G) the most appropriate mechanism for the effective and efficient origination, servicing, and collection of student loans and for the effective and efficient delivery of other forms of student assistance;

"(H) the most appropriate source or sources of student loan capital considering both the cost and the reliability of adequate capital availability;

"(I) the appropriate level of public subsidy to students and parents for the cost of capital for student loans;

"(J) the impact of the availability of Federal student financial assistance on the availability of student financial assistance from all other sources;

"(K) the impact of the availability of student assistance, particularly from Federal sources, on the level of postsecondary education costs;

"(L) the most appropriate mechanism to provide students and parents with the flexible repayment options and opportunities for consolidation of student loan indebtedness;

"(M) means to remove barriers to capital availability caused by patterns of lender discrimination;

"(N) the cost to the Federal Government of the arbitrage derived from revenue bonds issued by agencies for the purpose of making or purchasing loans under part B of this title and the appropriate role of such bonds as a mechanism for raising student loan capital; and

20 USC 1071.

"(O) the effectiveness in serving the purposes of this title of the existing formulas for allotment among the States in subpart 2 of part A and in parts C and E of this title.

20 USC 1070b, 42 USC 2751, 20 USC 1088.

Insurance premiums.

Ante, p. 1422.

"(2) The Commission shall make a study of the insurance premium charged by an insurer pursuant to section 428(b)(1)(H) in order to determine if the rate of the insurance premium exceeds the rate necessary to protect the reserves of the insurer and to determine if a statutory limit should be enacted for the rate of such premium.

Quarterly rate of special allowances, determination.

Ante, p. 1425.

"(3)(A) The Commission shall make a study of an improved method or methods for determination of the quarterly rate of special allowances paid under part B of this title which the Commission determines will carry out the objectives set forth in section 438(a).

"(B) The Commission shall make every effort to reach a unanimous decision with respect to the method for determination of the quarterly rate of the special allowances required to be studied by this paragraph.

"(C) In developing the method for the determination of the quarterly rate of the special allowances under this paragraph, the Commission shall consider—

"(i) the experiences of students and eligible lenders under the method in operation during the period of the study,

"(ii) the administrative costs of various types of eligible lenders under part B of title IV,

20 USC 1071.

"(iii) relevant and widely available financial indicators which accurately reflect the costs of capital invested in programs under such part, or substitute financial indicators which equitably represent the cost of such capital,

"(iv) an administrative mechanism necessary to produce a prompt and rapidly disseminated determination of the quarterly rate of the special allowances, in order to avoid delays in the determination and dissemination of that rate and in the actual payment of the special allowances to eligible lenders, and

"(v) such other factors as the Commission considers necessary to carry out the purposes of section 438(a).

"(4) The Commission shall conduct a study to determine if institutions of higher education which meet the requirements of section 1201(a) (other than the provisions of subclauses (A) and (B) of clause

20 USC 1141.

(5) of such section), but fail to meet such requirements because the institution is not located in a State, should be included in the definition of institution of higher education under section 481.

Financial assistance, student eligibility.

"(5) The Commission shall conduct a study to determine if student eligibility for financial assistance under section 484 on the basis of maintaining satisfactory academic progress should include provisions which would require that a student complete successfully a specified portion of the workload undertaken during the academic period for which assistance was received by the student.

Postsecondary education.

"(6) The Commission shall, in consultation with the National Center for Education Statistics, conduct longitudinal studies of high school students in order to determine the effect of federally authorized student assistance programs upon postsecondary education access and choices of high school students.

Graduate education.

"(7)(A) The Commission shall, in consultation with appropriate higher education associations and representatives from institutions of higher education, collect data necessary for the study of graduate education throughout the United States required by this paragraph. Such study shall—

"(i) analyze trends and shortcomings in the sources of support available to students for the financing of graduate education, and compare the nature and level of support available in the various academic disciplines, including sources of support from student assistance and research programs sponsored by—

"(I) the Federal Government,

"(II) State and local governments,

"(III) foundations, corporations, and other private entities, and

"(IV) institutions of higher education, and in addition, consider the resources of the students and the students' families;

"(ii) examine the extent to which students may be dissuaded from pursuing graduate education on financial grounds, to the consequent detriment of—

"(I) the major fields of knowledge which need to attract the most able and talented students of each generation if they are to remain strong and vigorous; and

"(II) the Nation as a whole, if some of its most promising students are precluded because of financial circumstances from developing their capacities and abilities to the fullest possible extent;

"(iii) investigate existing and projected levels of graduate student indebtedness, and consider the implications (for the students involved and for the health of graduate education generally) or existing and projected expectations for borrowing to meet the costs of graduate education;

"(iv) assess the desirability of modifying existing Federal fellowship and student assistance programs or establishing a new Federal graduate student assistance program in which the selection of students and the amounts of their awards are based on merit or financial need or both, particularly with regard to the special needs of students in the humanities and social sciences or other disciplines; and

"(v) examine and assess the financial and educational needs of individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds in order to enhance their participation in graduate and professional education and their potential for employment in occupational areas where these individuals are underrepresented.

"(B) In conducting the study described in this paragraph, the Commission shall consult with representatives of the National Science Foundation, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Endowment for the Arts, and representatives of higher education institutions and associations, learned societies, and professional organizations.

Guaranteed student loan program, proposed amendment. 20 USC 1071.

"(8)(A) The Commission shall conduct a study of a proposal to amend the guaranteed student loan program authorized by part B of title IV by recapturing interest subsidies from borrowers who do not obtain loans for undergraduate study under such part by reason of need or who borrow under such part for graduate study to the extent such loans are made for graduate study. In conducting such study, the Commission shall analyze the long term effect on the Budget of the United States of recapturing the interest subsidy in accordance with such proposal outlined in this paragraph and the impact of such proposal on the availability of funds for postsecondary education for students.

"(B) In conducting the study under this paragraph, the Commission shall also consider other alternative proposals designed to reduce the cost of the guaranteed student loan program under part B of title IV in fiscal years subsequent to fiscal year 1982 and the impact of such proposals on the availability of funds for postsecondary education for students.

Reports to President and Congress.

"(d)(1) The Commission shall prepare and submit reports and recommendations to the President and to the Congress on the studies required to be conducted under subsection (c) of this section. The reports for the studies required by paragraphs (2), (3), (5), and (8) of such subsection shall be submitted as soon as practicable but in no event later than one year after the date of the first meeting of the Commission. The reports for the studies required by paragraphs (1), (4), (6), and (7) shall be submitted as soon as practicable but in no event later than July 1, 1983.

Draft legislation.

"(2) Any recommendations and reports submitted under this paragraph which contemplate changes in Federal legislation shall include draft legislation to accomplish the recommendations.

Termination.

"(3) The Commission shall cease to exist 90 days following the submission of its final report.

"(e)(1) Members of the Commission who are officers or full-time employees of the United States shall serve without compensation in addition to that received for their services as officers or employees of the United States; but they may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

Travel expenses and per diem.

"(2) Members of the Commission who are not officers or full-time employees of the United States may each receive $150 per diem when engaged in the actual performance of duties vested in the Commission. In addition, they may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

Personnel appointments.

"(f) Such personnel as the Commission deems necessary may be appointed by the Commission without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, and may be paid without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subtitle III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates, but no individual so appointed shall be paid in excess of the rate authorized for GS-18 of the General Schedule.

5 USC 5101 et seq., 5331.

5 USC 5332 note.

Hearings.

"(g)(1) The Commission or, on the authorization of the Commission, any committee thereof, may, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Act, hold such hearings and sit and act at such times and such places within the United States as the Commission or such committee may deem advisable.

"(2) In carrying out its duties under the Act, the Commission shall consult with other Federal agencies, representatives of State and local governments, and private organizations to the extent feasible.

"(3) The Commission is authorized to secure directly from any executive department, bureau, agency, board, commission, office, independent establishment, or instrumentality, information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics for the purpose of this section, and each such department, bureau, agency, board, commission, office, establishment, or instrumentality is authorized and directed, to the extent permitted by law, to furnish such information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics directly to the Commission, upon request made by the Chairman.

Contract authority.

Consultants, authorization.

"(4) For the purpose of securing the necessary data and information the Commission may enter into contracts with universities, research institutions, foundations, and other competent public or private agencies. For such purpose, the Commission is authorized to obtain the services of experts and consultants in accordance with section 3109 of title 5, United States Code.

"(5) The heads of all Federal agencies are, to the extent not prohibited by law, directed to cooperate with the Commission in carrying out this section.

"(6) The Commission is authorized to utilize, with their consent, the services, personnel, information and facilities of other Federal, State, local and private agencies with or without reimbursement.

Monetary grants, gifts or bequests.

"(7) The Commission shall have authority to accept in the name of the United States, grants, gifts, or bequests of money for immediate disbursement in furtherance of the functions of the Commission. Such grants, gifts, or bequests, after acceptance by the Commission, shall be paid by the donor or his representative to the Treasurer of the United States whose receipts shall be their acquittance. The Treasurer of the United States shall enter them in a special account to the credit of the Commission for the purposes in each case specified.

"(8) Six members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number of two or more may conduct hearings.

Appropriation authorization.

"(h) There is authorized to be appropriated an amount not to exceed a total of $10,000,000 for fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 1980, to carry out the provisions of this section, which shall remain available until expended or until the termination of the Commission, whichever occurs first.".

Repeal.
20 USC 1087-4.

(b) Section 440 of the Act is repealed.

Effective date.
20 USC 1088 note.

(c) The amendments made by section 6 of the Middle Income Student Assistance Act shall take effect on July 1, 1972.

20 USC 1088.
20 USC 1087-1.

(d) Section 438 of the Act is amended by striking out subsections (e), (f), and (g).

TEACHER TRAINING

SEC. 504. Section 533 of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"TRAINING FOR HIGHER EDUCATION PERSONNEL

Grants.
20 USC 1119a-1.

"SEC. 533. (a) The Secretary is authorized to make grants to schools of education for the purposes of—

"(1) developing model projects within schools of education to carry out improved preservice or support activities for preparing elementary or secondary school teachers;

"(2) achieving diversification and redirection of education programs for elementary and secondary school teachers in order to make maximum use of human resources in the fields of education and public service;

"(3) retraining faculty members of such schools of education to provide courses of study for training elementary and secondary school teachers to teach in programs of career education, education of the gifted and talented children, education of handicapped individuals, community education, adult education programs, earth sciences, and other related programs;

"(4) training and orientation projects for faculty members of schools of education designed to prepare the faculty to teach and train personnel to work in conjunction with personnel who carry out projects under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act and under title VIII of this Act, relating to cooperative education and training of individuals to prepare for the workplace; and

Post, p. 1481.

"(5) training educational personnel who will specialize in the implementation of the urban and environmental policies of the United States, and for other areas of critical need within education which are developing or are likely to develop as provided in section 406(b)(5) of the General Education Provisions Act.

20 USC 1221e-1.

"(b) The Secretary is authorized to make grants to schools of education for the fiscal year 1981 and for each of the four succeeding years to carry out model projects for the purposes set forth in subsection (a). No grant may be made under this subsection unless an application is made to the Secretary, at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information as the Secretary may reasonably require.

Agreements.

"(c)(1) The Secretary is authorized to enter into agreements with consortia of schools of education for planning programs designed to help member schools of the consortium to diversify and redirect programs and curricula of the member schools of education.

"(2)(A) The Secretary shall develop criteria for determining the regions of the country in which consortia of schools of education are to be established.

"(B) No consortium may receive a grant in excess of $200,000 in any fiscal year under this section.

"(C) No cooperative agreement may be entered into under this section unless an application is submitted through the State education agency of the State in which the applicant is located. Each such State agency will review and approve the application to assure its consistency with the comprehensive plan mandated by sections 404(a)(12) and 522(2) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. Such application shall be submitted at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such other information as the Secretary may reasonably require.

20 USC 3084, 3162.

"(d) For purposes of this section, the term 'schools of education' means institutions of higher education, and administrative units of institutions of higher education, specializing in the training of individuals to serve as teachers, guidance and counseling personnel, administrative personnel, or other education specialists.".

"Schools of education."

TRAINING FOR TEACHERS OF HANDICAPPED CHILDREN IN AREAS WITH A SHORTAGE

SEC. 505. (a) Title V of the Act is amended by adding after part B the following new part:

"PART C—TRAINING FOR ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL TEACHERS TO TEACH HANDICAPPED CHILDREN IN AREAS WITH A SHORTAGE

"GRANTS AUTHORIZED

"SEC. 541. (a) The Secretary is authorized to make grants, in accordance with the provisions of this part, to State educational agencies to enable such agencies to support a fellowship program of stipends and allowances to institutions of higher education for teachers to be trained to provide special education for handicapped children.

20 USC 1119b.

"(b) The Secretary shall establish criteria for—

Criteria, establishment.

"(1) determining if there is a shortage of teachers in the area of special education for handicapped children in the State;

"(2) assuring that the institutions of higher education, at which recipients of fellowships awarded under this part are pursuing courses of study, offer a program designed to prepare such recipients in the area of special education for handicapped children; and

"(3) assuring that individuals trained with assistance under this part receive specialized training in the subject areas in which there is the greatest need for such teachers.

"(c) The Secretary shall assure an equitable distribution among the States of grants made under this part, consistent with criteria established under subsection (b).

"APPLICATION

20 USC 1119b-1.

"SEC. 542. (a) No grant may be made under this part unless an application is made by a State educational agency at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information as the Secretary may reasonably require. Each such application shall—

"(1) describe a fellowship program under which the State will make stipends to recipients and make allowances to institutions of higher education, in accordance with the provisions of this part, for teachers and other specialists to be trained in special education for handicapped children;

Recipient's responsibilities.

"(2) provide assurances that each recipient of a fellowship under this part will enter into an agreement with the State under which the recipient will—

"(A) within the five-year period after the completion of the training for which the fellowship was awarded, teach for a period of not less than two years in an elementary or secondary school of a local educational agency of that State, a public elementary or secondary school of that State, or a public educational program approved by the local educational agency or the State, which has, or has provided assurances that it will have, a special education program for handicapped children, or

"(B) repay all of the stipend awarded to the recipient plus the allowances paid to any institution of higher education based upon that fellowship in the event that the conditions of clause (A) are not complied with, except when such conditions are not complied with for reasons beyond a recipient's control;

"(3) provide procedures under which recipients of fellowships who teach, for reasons beyond their control, less than the two-year period required under clause (2) of this subsection will have the repayment requirement reduced according to a schedule established by the State agency;

"(4) provide procedures under which stipends and institution of higher education allowances will be paid by the State agency in accordance with the provisions of this part; and

"(5) provide that the State agency will make continuing efforts to encourage recipients of fellowships under this part to continue to provide special education for handicapped children in areas where there is a shortage of such teachers.

"(b) The Secretary shall approve any application which meets the requirements of subsection (a) of this section. Prior to approving any applications under this section, the Secretary shall prepare regulations setting forth detailed requirements with respect to clauses (2) and (3) of subsection (a).

"STIPENDS AND INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION ALLOWANCES

20 USC 1119b-2.

"SEC. 543. (a)(1) Each State educational agency receiving a grant under this part shall pay to individuals awarded fellowships under this part such stipends (including such allowances for subsistence and other expenses for such persons and their dependents) as the Secretary may determine to be consistent with prevailing practices under comparable federally supported programs.

"(2) No stipend may be paid to any single recipient in any one year in excess of $9,000.

"(b) Each State educational agency receiving a grant under this part shall (in addition to the stipends paid to persons under subsection (a)) pay to the institution of higher education at which such individual is pursuing a course of study such amounts as the Secretary may determine to be consistent with prevailing practices under comparable federally supported programs, except that such amount charged to a fellowship recipient and collected from such recipient by the institution for tuition and other expenses required by the institution as part of the recipient's instructional program shall be deducted from the payments to the institution under this subsection.

"FELLOWSHIP CONDITIONS

"SEC. 544. (a) An individual awarded a fellowship under the provisions of this part shall continue to receive the payments provided in this part only during such periods as the State educational agency finds that the individual is maintaining satisfactory progress and devoting at least one-half of the full-time academic workload to study in the field in which such fellowship was awarded in an institution of higher education, and is not engaging in gainful employment other than employment approved by the Secretary by or pursuant to regulation. The amount of any payment to an individual engaged in such gainful employment shall be appropriately reduced pursuant to regulation. 20 USC 1119b-3.

"(b) The State educational agency is authorized to require reports containing such information in such form and to be filed at such times as it determines necessary from any individual awarded a fellowship under the provisions of this part. Such reports shall be accompanied by a certificate from an appropriate official at the institution of higher education approved by the State educational agency, stating that such individual is making satisfactory progress in, and is devoting at least one-half of the full-time academic workload to, the program for which the fellowship was awarded. Reports.

"(c) No fellowship shall be awarded under this part for study at a school or department of divinity.

"DEFINITION

"SEC. 545. As used in this part 'special education' has the same meaning as prescribed by section 602(16) of the Education of the Handicapped Act. 20 USC 1119b-4. 20 USC 1401.

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

"SEC. 546. There are authorized to be appropriated $2,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $3,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982, and $5,000,000 for the fiscal year 1983 and for each of the fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985 to carry out the provisions of this part.". 20 USC 1119b-5.

(b) The Secretary shall promulgate regulations to carry out the amendment made by subsection (a) of this section not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of the Education Amendments of 1980. Regulations. 20 USC 1119b note. Ante, p. 1367.

EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

SEC. 506. Title V of the Act is further amended by adding after part C (as added by section 504) the following new part:

"PART D—COORDINATION OF EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

"FINDINGS

20 USC 1119c.

"SEC. 551. The Congress finds that—

"(1) many Federal programs have been enacted to train and develop education professionals;

"(2) such programs make Federal funds available to States, local education agencies, colleges and universities, and other agencies;

"(3) such programs should be coordinated at the Federal level to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort; and

"(4) such programs should be responsive to State needs and priorities for education professional development.

"POLICY

20 USC 1119c-1.

"SEC. 552. Federal programs which support education professional development should be administered in a coordinated manner, and the activities authorized under such programs should have complementary purposes whenever possible in order to provide the most effective use of Federal funds.

"OFFICE OF EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Establishment and functions.
20 USC 1119c-2.

"SEC. 553. (a) There is established in the Department an Office of Education Professional Development, the function of which is to review the operations of and to coordinate program activities among the various Federal education professional development programs within the Department to eliminate unnecessary duplication of effort.

Review.

"(b) The Office shall review on a biennial basis each education professional development program administered by the Department and shall—

"(1) identify inconsistencies in program policies and procedures;

"(2) identify overlap in program purpose and operations; and

"(3) coordinate program activities among the various Federal education professional development programs, and wherever necessary, make legislative recommendations to coordinate such programs.

Report to Congress.

"(c) The Secretary shall report biennially to the Congress on the findings and recommendations of the Office.".

TITLE VI—ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW TITLE VI OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

PROGRAMS AUTHORIZED

SEC. 601. (a) Title VI of the Higher Education Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE VI—INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

"Part A—International and Foreign Language Studies

"FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

20 USC 1121.

"Sec. 601. (a) The Congress finds that—

"(1) knowledge of other countries is important in promoting mutual understanding and cooperation between nations;

"(2) strong American educational resources are a necessary base for strengthening our relations with other countries;

"(3) present and future generations of Americans should be given the opportunity to develop to the fullest extent possible their intellectual capacities in all areas of knowledge pertaining to other countries, peoples, and cultures; and

"(4) the economy of the United States and the long range security of the Nation are dependent upon acquiring such knowledge.

"(b) It is the purpose of this part to assist in the development of resources and trained personnel for international study, international research, and foreign language study and to coordinate programs of the Federal Government in the areas of international study and research and foreign language study.

"GRADUATE AND UNDERGRADUATE LANGUAGE AND AREA CENTERS

Grants or contracts.
20 USC 1122.

"Sec. 602. (a)(1) The Secretary is authorized to make grants to, and enter into contracts with, institutions of higher education, or combination of such institutions, for the purpose of establishing, strengthening, and operating graduate and undergraduate centers and programs which will be national resources for the teaching of any modern foreign language, for instruction in fields needed to provide a full understanding of the areas, regions, or countries in which such language is commonly used, or for research and training in international studies and the international aspects of professional and other fields of study.

"(2) Any such grant or contract may be used to pay all or part of the cost of establishing or operating a center or program, including the cost of faculty, staff, and student travel in foreign areas, regions, or countries, the cost of teaching and research materials, the cost of curriculum planning and development, the cost of bringing visiting scholars and faculty to the center to teach or to conduct research, and the cost of training and improvement of the staff, for the purpose of, and subject to such conditions as the Secretary finds necessary for, carrying out the objectives of this section.

"(3) The Secretary may make grants to centers described in paragraph (1) having important library collections for the maintenance of such collections.

Stipends.

"(b) The Secretary is also authorized to pay stipends to individuals undergoing such advanced training in any center or program approved by the Secretary under this part, including allowances for dependents and for travel for research and study in the United States and abroad.

Travel expenses.

"(c) No funds may be expended under this part for undergraduate travel except in accordance with rules prescribed by the Secretary setting forth policies and procedures to assure that Federal funds made available for such travel are expended as part of a formal program of supervised study.

"INTERNATIONAL STUDIES CENTERS

Graduate and undergraduate centers, grants.
20 USC 1123.

"Sec. 603. (a)(1) The Secretary is authorized to make grants to institutions of higher education, or combinations of such institutions, for the purpose of establishing, strengthening, and operating graduate and undergraduate centers which will be regional resources to increase access to research and training in international and foreign language studies and the international aspects of professional and other fields of study. Activities carried out in such centers may be concentrated either on specific geographical areas of the world or on particular fields or issues in world affairs which concern one or more countries, or on both. In addition to providing training to students enrolled in the institution of higher education in which the center is located, the centers serving as regional resources shall, in order to qualify for assistance under this section, offer programs to strengthen international studies and foreign languages in the two-year and four-year colleges and universities in the region served by each such center.

"(2) The Secretary may also make grants to public and private nonprofit agencies and organizations, including professional and scholarly associations, whenever the Secretary determines that such grants will make an especially significant contribution to attaining the objectives of this section.

"(b) Grants under this section may be used to pay part or all of the cost of establishing, strengthening, equipping, and operating research and training centers, including the cost of teaching and research materials and resources, the cost of programs for bringing visiting scholars and faculty to the center, and the cost of training, improvement, and travel of the staff for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this section. Such grants may also include funds for stipends (in such amounts as may be determined in accordance with regulations of the Secretary) to individuals undergoing training in such centers, including allowances for dependents and for travel for research and study in the United States and abroad.

"(c) Grants under this section shall be made on such conditions as the Secretary determines to be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

"UNDERGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROGRAMS

Grants.
20 USC 1124.

"Sec. 604. (a) The Secretary is authorized to make grants to institutions of higher education, or combinations of such institutions, to assist them in planning, developing, and carrying out a comprehensive program to strengthen and improve undergraduate instruction in international studies and foreign languages. Grants made under this section may be for projects and activities which are an integral part of such a comprehensive program, such as—

"(1) planning for the development and expansion of undergraduate programs in international studies;

"(2) teaching, research, curriculum development, and other related activities;

"(3) training of faculty members in foreign countries;

"(4) expansion of foreign language courses;

"(5) programs under which foreign teachers and scholars may visit institutions as visiting faculty;

"(6) programs designed to integrate undergraduate education with terminal Masters Degree programs having an international emphasis; and

"(7) the development of an international dimension in teacher training.

"(b) The Secretary may also make grants to public and private nonprofit agencies and organizations, including professional and scholarly associations, whenever the Secretary determines such grants will make an especially significant contribution to attaining the objective of this section.

"RESEARCH; STUDIES; ANNUAL REPORT

"SEC. 605. (a) The Secretary may, directly or through grants or contracts, conduct research and studies which contribute to the purposes of this part and part N of title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. Such research and studies may include but are not limited to— 20 USC 1125. Post, p. 1471.

"(1) studies and surveys to determine the need for increased or improved instruction in modern foreign languages and in other fields needed to provide a full understanding of the places in which such languages are commonly used;

"(2) research on more effective methods of providing instruction and evaluating competency in such foreign languages and other fields; and

"(3) the development of specialized materials for use in providing such instruction and evaluation or for use in training individuals to provide such instruction and evaluation.

"(b) The Secretary shall prepare and publish an annual report which shall include an index and analysis of the books and research materials produced with assistance under this title.

"EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

"SEC. 606. (a) The Secretary shall make excellence the criterion for selection of grants awarded under section 602. 20 USC 1126.

"(b) To the extent practicable and consistent with the criterion of excellence, the Secretary shall award grants under this part (other than section 602) in such manner as will achieve an equitable distribution of funds throughout the Nation.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"SEC. 607. There are authorized to be appropriated $45,000,000 for fiscal year 1981, $50,000,000 for fiscal year 1982, $60,000,000 for fiscal year 1983, $70,000,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $80,000,000 for fiscal year 1985, to carry out the provisions of this part. 20 USC 1127.

"PART B—BUSINESS AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

"FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

"SEC. 611. (a) The Congress finds that— 20 USC 1130.

"(1) the future economic welfare of the United States will depend substantially on increasing international skills in the business community and creating an awareness among the American public of the internationalization of our economy;

"(2) concerted efforts are necessary to engage business schools, language and area study programs, public and private sector organizations, and United States business in a mutually productive relationship which benefits the Nation's future economic interests;

"(3) few linkages presently exist between the manpower and information needs of United States business and the international education, language training and research capacities of institutions of higher education in the United States, and public and private organizations; and

"(4) organizations such as world trade councils, world trade clubs, chambers of commerce and State departments of commerce are not adequately used to link universities and business for joint venture exploration and program development.

"(b) It is the purpose of this part—

"(1) to enhance the broad objective of this Act by increasing and promoting the Nation's capacity for international understanding and economic enterprise through the provision of suitable international education and training for business personnel in various stages of professional development; and

"(2) to promote institutional and noninstitutional educational and training activities that will contribute to the ability of United States business to prosper in an international economy.

"EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS

Grants.
20 USC 1130a.

"SEC. 612. (a) The Secretary shall make grants to, and enter into contracts with, institutions of higher education to pay the Federal share of the cost of programs designed to promote linkages between such institutions and the American business community engaged in international economic activity. Each program assisted under this part shall both enhance the international academic programs of institutions of higher education and provide appropriate services to the business community which will expand its capacity to engage in commerce abroad.

Activities.

"(b) Eligible activities to be conducted by institutions of higher education under this section shall include, but are not limited to—

"(1) innovation and improvement in international education curricula to serve the needs of the business community, including development of new programs for nontraditional, mid-career, or part-time students;

"(2) development of programs to inform the public of increasing international economic interdependence and the role of American business within the international economic system;

"(3) internationalization of curricula at the junior and community college level, and at undergraduate and graduate schools of business;

"(4) development of area studies programs and interdisciplinary international programs;

"(5) establishment of export education programs through cooperative arrangements with regional and world trade centers and councils, and with bilateral and multilateral trade associations;

"(6) research for and development of specialized teaching materials, including language materials, and facilities appropriate to business-oriented students;

"(7) establishment of student and faculty fellowships and internships for training and education in international business activities;

"(8) development of opportunities for junior business and other professional school faculty to acquire or strengthen international skills and perspectives; and

"(9) development of research programs on issues of common interest to institutions of higher education and private sector organizations and associations engaged in or promoting international economic activity.

"(c) No grant may be made and no contract may be entered into under the provisions of this part unless an institution of higher education submits an application at such time and in such manner as the Secretary may reasonably require. Each such application shall be accompanied by a copy of the agreement entered into by the institution of higher education with a business enterprise, trade organization or association engaged in international economic activity, or a combination or consortium of such enterprises, organizations or associations, for the purpose of establishing, developing, improving or expanding activities eligible for assistance under subsection (b) of this section. Each such application shall contain assurances that the institution of higher education will use the assistance provided under this part to supplement and not to supplant activities conducted by institutions of higher education described in subsection (b). Applications.

"(d) The Federal share under this part for each fiscal year shall not exceed 50 per centum of the cost of such program.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"SEC. 613. There are authorized to be appropriated $7,500,000 for fiscal year 1981 and for each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985, to carry out the provisions of this part. 20 USC 1130b.

"PART C—GENERAL PROVISIONS

"ADVISORY BOARD

"SEC. 621. (a) Not less than four times each year the Secretary shall convene meetings of an advisory board on the conduct of programs under this title. The board shall consist of— Membership. 20 USC 1131.

"(1) one member selected by the Secretary of State;

"(2) one member selected by the Secretary of Defense;

"(3) one member selected by the Secretary of the Treasury;

"(4) one member selected by the Secretary of Commerce;

"(5) one member selected by the Secretary to serve as Chairman and coordinator of the activities of the board;

"(6) one member selected by the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities;

"(7) one member selected by the Director of the International Development Cooperation Agency;

"(8) one member selected by the Director of the International Communication Agency;

"(9) one member selected by the President and Chairman of the Export-Import Bank of the United States;

"(10) one member selected by the Administrator, Small Business Administration;

"(11) five members selected by the Secretary from among representatives of the postsecondary educational community;

"(12) two members selected by the Secretary from among representatives of the elementary and secondary education community;

"(13) three members selected by the Secretary from among members of the public; and

"(14) three members selected by the Secretary from among representatives of the business community.

Subcommittees.

"(b)(1) The Advisory Board shall establish two subcommittees to carry out the functions described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.

Ante, p. 1391, post, p. 1471.

"(2) The first such subcommittee shall consider the grants made, or contracts entered into, under part A and part N of title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. The board shall advise the Secretary on (A) any geographic areas of special need or concern to the United States, (B) the specific foreign languages to be designated under section 394(b)(3) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, (C) innovative approaches which may help to fulfill the purposes of this title, (D) activities which are duplicative of programs operated under other provisions of Federal law, (E) changes which should be made in the operation of programs under this part to ensure that the attention of scholars is attracted to problems of critical concern to United States international relations, and (F) the administrative and staffing requirements of international education programs in the Department.

"(3) The second such subcommittee shall review the programs under section 612 and shall advise the Secretary, who shall seek the advice of the Secretary of Commerce, on (A) changes which should be made to advance the purposes of part B and to assure the success of the programs authorized by part B, (B) special needs of such programs, and (C) any program elements which are duplicative of programs operated under other provisions of Federal law.

TITLE VII—AMENDMENT TO TITLE VII OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

AMENDMENT

Sec. 701. Title VII of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE VII—CONSTRUCTION, RECONSTRUCTION, AND RENOVATION OF ACADEMIC FACILITIES

"GENERAL PURPOSES

20 USC 1132a.

"Sec. 701. The Secretary shall carry out programs of financial assistance to institutions of higher education and to higher education building agencies for the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of academic facilities and the acquisition of special equipment if the primary purpose of such assistance is—

"(1) to enable such institutions to economize on the use of energy resources, with a priority for the use of coal, solar, and renewable resources;

"(2) to enable such institutions to bring their academic facilities into conformity with the requirements of—

"(A) the Act of August 12, 1968, commonly known as the Architectural Barriers Act of 1968,

42 USC 4151 note.
29 USC 794.

"(B) section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or

"(C) environmental protection or health and safety programs mandated by Federal, State, or local law, if such requirements were not in effect at the time such facilities were constructed;

"(3) to enable such institutions to construct, reconstruct, or renovate the Nation's research facilities, including libraries, and to acquire special research equipment;

"(4) to enable institutions with unusual increases in enrollment (according to data and criteria established by the Secretary) to construct, reconstruct, or renovate their facilities; or

"(5) to enable such institutions to detect, remove, or otherwise contain asbestos hazards in academic or other facilities used by students, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

20 USC 1132a-1.

"Sec. 702. There are authorized to be appropriated $100,000,000 for fiscal year 1981 and for each succeeding fiscal year ending prior to October 1, 1985, for part A. There are authorized to be appropriated $80,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981 and for each succeeding fiscal year ending prior to October 1, 1985, for part B. There are authorized to be appropriated $80,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981 and for each succeeding fiscal year ending prior to October 1, 1985, for part C, and such sums as may be necessary for each such fiscal year for section 734.

"PART A—GRANTS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION, RECONSTRUCTION, AND RENOVATION OF UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC FACILITIES

"STATE PLAN

"SEC. 711. (a) Any State desiring to participate in the grant program authorized by this part shall have an agreement pursuant to section 1203 and submit annually to the Secretary, through the State agency designated in such agreement, a State plan which shall— 20 USC 1132b. Post, p. 1493.

"(1) provide that the plan shall be administered by the State entity having an agreement under section 1203;

"(2) set forth objective standards and methods which are consistent with basic criteria established under section 712, for—

"(A) determining the relative priorities of eligible projects submitted by institutions of higher education within the State, and

"(B) certifying the Federal share of the cost of each project;

"(3) provide for every applicant an opportunity for a hearing before the State agency regarding the priority assigned to such project, or any other decision by the State agency adversely affecting such applicant; and

"(4) provide for accounting procedures necessary to assure proper disbursement of Federal funds.

"(b) The Secretary shall not disapprove any State plan, or modification thereof, without first affording the State agency reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing.

"(c) Whenever the Secretary finds that the State plan substantially fails to comply with this section, the Secretary shall notify the State that it is ineligible to participate in the program under this part until a determination is made that there is no longer a failure to comply. Compliance, failure.

"BASIC CRITERIA

"SEC. 712. (a) The Secretary shall, by regulation, prescribe basic criteria for the consideration of State plans which ensure— 20 USC 1132b-1.

"(1) flexibility for States to accommodate the varied needs of institutions in the States;

"(2) consideration of the degree to which applicant institutions are effectively using existing facilities; and

"(3) that the Federal share shall not exceed 50 percent of the development costs of a project.

"(b) Section 553 of title 5, United States Code, shall apply to the prescription of regulations under this section.

"ALLOTMENT OF FUNDS

"SEC. 713. (a) From the sums appropriated pursuant to section 702 to carry out the purposes of this part, not less than 24 per centum shall be allotted to States under subsection (b) for public community colleges and public technical institutes. The remainder of such sums shall be allotted States under subsection (c) for all other institutions of higher education. 20 USC 1132b-2.

"(b)(1) For the purpose of making grants to public community colleges and public technical institutes, the Secretary shall allot to each State an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount available for allotment under this subsection as the product of—

"(A) the number of persons in the State who have graduated from high school or received an equivalent certificate during the previous school year, and

"(B) the State's allotment ratio, bears to the sum of the corresponding products for all the States.

Computation.

"(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the allotment ratio shall be 1.00 less the product of—

"(i) 0.50, and

"(ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the income per person for the State by the income per person for all States (not including Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and Guam).

"(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A)—

"(i) the allotment ratio shall in no case be less than 0.33⅓ or more than 0.66⅔;

"(ii) the allotment ratio for Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and Guam shall be 0.66⅔; and

"(iii) the allotment ratio of any State shall be 0.50 for any fiscal year if the Secretary finds that the cost of school construction in such State exceeds twice the median of such costs in all the States as determined by him on the basis of statistics and data as the Secretary shall deem adequate and appropriate.

Allotment ratios.

"(C) Allotment ratios shall be promulgated annually by the Secretary on the basis of the average personal income in the State and in all the States for the three most recent consecutive calendar years for which data are available from the Department of Commerce.

"(c) For the purpose of making grants to all other institutions of higher education, the Secretary shall allot to each State—

"(1) an amount which bears the same ratio to 50 per centum of the amount available for allotment under this subsection as the number of students enrolled in institutions of higher education in such State bears to the number of students so enrolled in all States; and

"(2) an amount which bears the same ratio to 50 per centum of the amount available for allotment under this subsection as the number of students enrolled in grades nine through twelve of schools in such State bears to the total number of students so enrolled in all the States.

"(d) The aggregate amount allotted to any State under subsections (b) and (c) for any fiscal year shall not be less than $100,000. If the sums appropriated pursuant to section 702 are not sufficient to make payments to each State, then the amount of each State's allotment shall be ratably reduced.

"(e) Any portion of a State's allotment under subsections (b) and (c) for any fiscal year for which applications from qualified institutions have not been received by the State agency prior to January 1 of such fiscal year shall, by request, be available for payment of the Federal share of cost of other approved projects.

"(f) Amounts allotted under this section for any fiscal year which are not used by the close of the fiscal year, shall be reallotted by the Secretary among the States which are able to use these funds without delay during the next fiscal year.

"(g) Funds available under this part may be used for construction, reconstruction, or renovation of undergraduate facilities and combined graduate and undergraduate facilities.

"PART B—GRANTS FOR CONSTRUCTION, RECONSTRUCTION, AND RENOVATION OF GRADUATE ACADEMIC FACILITIES

"GRANTS

"SEC. 721. (a)(1) Funds available for this part shall be used by the Secretary to make grants to graduate institutions of higher education whose applications for assistance are consistent with the objectives of this title. 20 USC 1132c.

"(2) The total payment for any fiscal year made to institutions of higher education in any State shall not exceed 12.5 per centum of sums appropriated for this part.

"(b) In making grants under this section, the Secretary shall seek the advice and recommendations of a panel of specialists who are not regular full-time employees of the Federal Government and are competent to evaluate such applications. Panel recommendations.

"(c) The amount of the grant shall not exceed 50 per centum of the development cost of the project.

"PART C—LOANS FOR CONSTRUCTION, RECONSTRUCTION, AND RENOVATION OF ACADEMIC FACILITIES

"ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS, AMOUNTS, AND TERMS

"SEC. 731. (a) From the sums available for this part, the Secretary shall make and insure loans to institutions of higher education and to higher education building agencies for programs consistent with the purposes of this title. No loan shall be made unless the Secretary finds that— 20 USC 1132d.

"(1) not less than 20 per centum of the development cost of the project will be financed from non-Federal sources;

"(2) the applicant is unable to secure the loan from other sources upon terms and conditions equally as favorable as those applicable to loans under this part;

"(3) the project will be undertaken in an economical manner; and

"(4) for any project with regard to an infirmary or other outpatient care facility for students and institutional personnel, assistance will not be provided under title IV of the Housing Act of 1950. 12 USC 1749.

"(b) Loans shall be repaid within fifty years and shall bear interest at (1) a rate annually determined by the Secretary which shall be not less than one-quarter of 1 percentage point above the average annual interest rate on all interest-bearing obligations of the United States forming a part of the public debt as computed at the end of the preceding fiscal year, adjusted to the nearest one-eighth of 1 per centum, or (2) the rate of 4 per centum per annum, whichever is less. Repayment.

"GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR LOAN PROGRAM

"SEC. 732. (a) Financial transactions of the Secretary, except with respect to administrative expenses, shall be final and conclusive on all officers of the Government and shall not be reviewable by any court. 20 USC 1132d-1.

"(b) In the performance of, and with respect to, the functions vested in him by this part, the Secretary may—

"(1) prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this part; Regulations.

Suits.

"(2) sue and be sued in any court of record of a State having general jurisdiction or in any district court of the United States, and such district courts shall have jurisdiction of civil actions arising under this part without regard to the amount in controversy, and any action instituted under this subsection by or against the Secretary shall survive notwithstanding any change in the person occupying the office of the Secretary or any vacancy in such office; but no attachment, injunction, garnishment, or other similar process, mesne or final, shall be issued against the Secretary or property under his control, and nothing herein shall be construed to except litigation arising out of activities under this part from the application of sections 507(b) and 517 and 2679 of title 28, United States Code;

Foreclosure.

"(3) foreclose on any property and bid for and purchase at any foreclosure, or any other sale, any property in connection with which he has made a loan pursuant to this part; in the event of such an acquisition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law relating to the acquisition, handling, or disposal of real property by the United States, the Secretary may complete, administer, remodel and convert, dispose of, lease and otherwise deal with, such property; except that (A) such action shall not preclude any other action by him to recover any deficiency in the amounts loaned and (B) any such acquisition of real property shall not deprive any State or political subdivision thereof of its civil or criminal jurisdiction in and over such property or impair the civil rights under the State or local laws of the inhabitants on such property;

"(4) sell, exchange, or lease real or personal property and securities or obligations;

Repayment

"(5) modify, with respect to the rate of interest, the time of payment of principal, interest, security, or any other term of any contract or agreement to which he is a party, including (A) granting a moratorium on the repayment of principal or interest to a party temporarily unable to make such repayment without undue financial hardship provided the applicant files, and the Secretary approves, a plan to make repayment, and (B) for any party for which a loan has been authorized prior to January 1, 1976, granting the option to pay into the fund pursuant to section 733, 75 per centum of the party's total obligation if the party desiring to exercise such option makes payment from non-Federal sources prior to October 1, 1985; and

"(6) include in any contract such other covenants, conditions, or provisions necessary to ensure that the purposes of this title will be achieved.

"REVOLVING LOAN AND INSURANCE FUND

Establishment.
20 USC 1132d-2

"SEC. 733. (a) There is created within the Treasury a revolving loan fund for the purpose of making and insuring loans under this part (hereafter called the 'fund') which shall be available to the Secretary without fiscal year limitation. The total of any loans made from the fund in any fiscal year shall not exceed limitations specified in appropriations Acts.

Funds, transfer.

"(b)(1) The Secretary shall transfer to the fund appropriations provided under section 702 to provide capital for making loans. Interest and principal payments on loans, and any other moneys, property, or assets derived from activities under this part shall be deposited in the fund.

"(2) All loans, expenses, and payments pursuant to operation of this part shall be paid from the fund, including expenses and payments in connection with sale, pursuant to section 302(c) of the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act, of participations in obligations acquired under this part. At the close of each fiscal year, the Secretary shall pay interest on the cumulative amount of funds paid out for loans under this part less the average undisbursed cash balance in the fund during the year. The interest rate shall be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration the average market yield on outstanding Treasury obligations of maturity comparable to the average maturity of loans made from the fund during the month preceding each fiscal year. Interest payments may be deferred with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but interest payments so deferred shall themselves bear interest. If the Secretary determines that moneys in the fund exceed the present and prospective needs of the fund, the excess may be transferred to the general fund of the Treasury.

42 USC 1450.
Interest payments.

Funds, transfer.

"ANNUAL INTEREST GRANTS

20 USC 1132d-3.

"SEC. 734. (a) To assist institutions of higher education and higher education building agencies in reducing the cost of borrowing from other sources for projects under this part, the Secretary may make annual interest grants to such institutions and agencies with respect to any project made over a fixed period not exceeding forty years, and provision for the grants shall be embodied in the contract guaranteeing their payment. Grants shall not be greater than the difference between (1) the average annual debt service which would be required to be paid during the life of the loan on the amount borrowed from other sources for the construction of such facilities, and (2) the average annual debt service which the institution or agency would have been required to pay during the life of the loan if the applicable interest rate had been determined by the Secretary in accordance with section 731(b).

"(b) The total amount of annual interest grants which may be paid to institutions of higher education and higher education building agencies in any year pursuant to contracts entered into for such year under this section shall not exceed $13,500,000.

"(c) The total payment for any fiscal year made to institutions of higher education and higher education building agencies in any State shall not exceed 12.5 per centum of sums appropriated for this section.

"(d) No annual interest grant shall be made unless (1) assurance is provided that not less than 10 per centum of the costs of the project will be financed from non-Federal sources, (2) the applicant is unable to secure a loan from other sources upon terms and conditions as favorable as those applicable to loans under this title, and (3) the project will be undertaken in an economical manner. Loans for which an interest grant is made shall, for purposes of this section only, not be considered financing from a non-Federal source.

"ACADEMIC FACILITIES LOAN INSURANCE

20 USC 1132d-4.

"SEC. 735. (a)(1) In order to assist institutions of higher education and higher education building agencies to procure loans for programs consistent with the purposes of this title, the Secretary may insure the payment of interest and principal on such loans if such institutions and agencies meet criteria prescribed under section 734 for the making of annual interest grants.

"(2) No loan insurance may apply to any loan principal which exceeds 90 per centum of the development cost of the academic facility.

Waiver.

"(b)(1) The United States shall be entitled to recover from any institution or agency to which loan insurance has been issued under this section the amount of any payment made pursuant to that insurance, unless the Secretary waives its right of recovery. Upon making any such payment, the United States shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the recipient of the payment with respect to which the payment was made.

"(2) Any insurance issued under subsection (a) shall be incontestable in the hands of the institution or agency on whose behalf insurance is issued, and as to any lenders which make or contract to make a loan to such institution or agency in reliance thereon, except for fraud or misrepresentation on the part of such institution or agency or on the part of the lender who makes or contracts to make such loan.

"(c) Insurance may be issued by the Secretary under subsection (a) only if he determines that the terms, conditions, maturity, security (if any), and schedule and amounts of repayments with respect to the loan are sufficient to protect the financial interests of the United States and are otherwise reasonable and in accord with regulations, including a determination that the rate of interest does not exceed a per centum per annum on the principal obligation outstanding as the Secretary determines to be reasonable, considering interest rates prevailing in the private market for similar loans and the risks assumed by the United States. The Secretary may charge a premium for such insurance in an amount determined by him to be necessary to cover administrative expenses and probable losses under subsections (a) and (b). Such insurance shall be subject to such further terms and conditions as the Secretary determines to be necessary.

"Part D—General

"RECOVERY OF PAYMENTS

20 USC 1132e. Ante, pp. 1473, 1475.

"Sec. 741. (a) The Congress declares that, if a facility constructed with the aid of a grant under part A or B of this title is used as an academic facility for twenty years following completion of such construction, the public benefit accruing to the United States will equal in value the amount of the grant. The period of twenty years after completion of such construction shall therefore be deemed to be the period of Federal interest in such facility for the purposes of this title.

Academic facility.

"(b) If, within twenty years after completion of construction of an academic facility which has been constructed, in part with a grant under part A or B of this title—

"(1) the applicant (or its successor in title or possession) ceases or fails to be a public or nonprofit institution, or

"(2) the facility ceases to be used as an academic facility, or the facility is used as a facility excluded from the term 'academic facility', unless the Secretary determines that there is good cause for releasing the institution from its obligation, the United States shall be entitled to recover from such applicant (or successor) an amount which bears to the value of the facility at that time (or so much thereof as constituted an approved project or projects) the same ratio as the amount of Federal grant bore to the cost of the facility financed with the aid of such grant. The value shall be determined by agreement of the parties or by action brought in the United States district court for the district in which such facility is situated.

"(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), no project assisted with funds under this title shall ever be used for religious worship or a sectarian activity or for a school or department of divinity.

Funds, usage restrictions.

"DEFINITIONS

"SEC. 742. The following definitions apply to terms used in this title:

20 USC 1132e-1.

"(1)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the term 'academic facilities' means structures suitable for use as classrooms, laboratories, libraries, and related facilities necessary or appropriate for instruction of students, or for research, or for administration of the educational or research programs, of an institution of higher education, and maintenance, storage, or utility facilities essential to operation of the foregoing facilities. For purposes of part A or C, such term includes infirmaries or other facilities designed to provide primarily for outpatient care of student and instructional personnel. Plans for such facilities shall be in compliance with such standards as the Secretary may prescribe or approve in order to insure that projects assisted with the use of Federal funds under this title shall be, to the extent appropriate in view of the uses to be made of the facilities, accessible to and usable by handicapped persons.

"(B) The term 'academic facilities' shall not include (i) any facility intended primarily for events for which admission is to be charged to the general public, or (ii) any gymnasium or other facility specially designed for athletic or recreational activities, other than for an academic course in physical education or where the Secretary finds that the physical integration of such facilities with other academic facilities included under this title is required to carry out the objectives of this title, or (iii) any facility used or to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place for religious worship, or (iv) any facility which (although not a facility described in the preceding clause) is used or to be used primarily in connection with any part of the program of a school or department of divinity, or (v) any facility used or to be used by a school of medicine, school of dentistry, school of osteopathy, school of pharmacy, school of optometry, school of podiatry, or school of public health as these terms are defined in section 724 of the Public Health Service Act, or a school of nursing as defined in section 843 of that Act, except that the term 'academic facilities' may include any facility described in clause (v) to the degree that such facility is owned, operated, and maintained by the institution of higher education requesting the approval of a project; and that funds available for such facility under such project shall be used solely for the purpose of conversion or modernization of energy utilization techniques to economize on the use of energy resources; and that such project is not limited to facilities described in clause (v) of this subsection.

"(2)(A) The term 'construction' means (i) erection of new or expansion of existing structures, and the acquisition and installation of initial equipment therefor; or (ii) acquisition of existing structures not owned by the institution involved; or (iii) a combination of either of the foregoing. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the term 'equipment' includes, in addition to machinery, utilities, and built-in equipment and any necessary enclosures or structures to house them, all other items necessary for the functioning of a particular facility as an academic facility, including necessary furniture, except books, curricular, and program materials, and items of current and operating expense such as fuel, supplies, and the like; the term 'initial equipment' means equipment acquired and installed in connection with construction; and the terms 'equipment', 'initial equipment', and 'built-in equipment', shall be more particularly defined by the Secretary by regulation.

"(B) The term 'reconstruction or renovation' means rehabilitation, alteration, conversion, or improvement (including the acquisition and installation of initial equipment, or modernization or replacement of such equipment) of existing structures. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the term 'equipment' includes, in addition to machinery, utilities, and built-in equipment and any necessary enclosures or structures to house them, all other items necessary for the functioning of a particular facility as an academic facility, including necessary furniture, except books, curricular, and program materials, and items of current and operating expense such as fuel, supplies, and the like; the term 'initial equipment' means equipment acquired and installed either in connection with construction as defined in paragraph (2)(A), or as part of the rehabilitation, alteration, conversion, or improvement of an existing structure, which structure would otherwise not be adequate for use as an academic facility; the terms 'equipment', 'initial equipment', and 'built-in equipment' shall be more particularly defined by the Secretary by regulation; and the term 'rehabilitation, alteration, conversion, or improvement' includes such action as may be necessary to provide for the architectural needs of, or to remove architectural barriers to, handicapped persons with a view toward increasing the accessibility to, and use of, academic facilities by such persons.

"(3)(A) The term 'development cost', with respect to an academic facility, means the amount found by the Secretary to be the cost, to the applicant for a grant or loan under this title, of the construction, reconstruction, or renovation involved and the cost of necessary acquisition of the land on which the facility is located and of necessary site improvements to permit its use for such facility. There shall be excluded from the development cost—

Development cost exclusions.

"(i) in determining the amount of any grant under part A or B, an amount equal to the sum of (I) any Federal grant which the institution has obtained or is assured of obtaining, under any law other than this title, with respect to the construction, reconstruction, or renovation that is to be financed with the aid of a grant under part A or B, and (II) the amount of any non-Federal funds required to be expended as a condition of such other Federal grant; and

"(ii) in determining the amount of any loan under part C, an amount equal to the amount of any Federal financial assistance which the institution has obtained, or is assured of obtaining, under any law other than this title, with respect to the construction, reconstruction, or renovation that is to be financed with the aid of a loan under part C.

"(B) In determining the development cost with respect to an academic facility, the Secretary may include expenditures for works of art for the facility of not to exceed 1 per centum of the total cost (including such expenditures) to the applicant of construction, reconstruction, or renovation of, and land acquisition and site improvements for, such facility.

"(4) The term 'Federal share' means in the case of any project a percentage (as determined under the applicable State plan) not in excess of 50 per centum of its development cost.

"(5) The term 'higher education building agency' means (A) an agency, public authority, or other instrumentality of a State authorized to provide, or finance the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of, academic facilities for institutions of higher education (whether or not also authorized to provide or finance other facilities for such or other educational institutions, or for their students or faculty), or (B) any corporation (no part of the net earnings of which inures or may lawfully inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual (i) established by an institution of higher education for the sole purpose of providing academic facilities for the use of such institution, and (ii) upon dissolution of which, all title to any property purchased or built from the proceeds of any loan made under part C will pass to such institution), or (C) an institution of postsecondary education.

"(6) The term 'public community college and public technical institute' means an institution of higher education which is under public supervision and control, and is organized and administered principally to provide a two-year program which is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree, or a two-year program in engineering, mathematics, or the physical or biological sciences which is designed to prepare the student to work as a technician and at a semiprofessional level in engineering, scientific, or other technological fields which require the understanding and application of basic engineering, scientific, or mathematical principles or knowledge; and the term includes a branch of an institution of higher education offering four or more years of higher education which is located in a community different from that in which its parent institution is located.

"(7) The term 'public educational institution' does not include a school or institution of any agency of the United States.

"(8) The term 'State' includes in addition to the several States of the Union, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.".

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS

Sec. 902. (a) Part B of title IX of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"Part B—Fellowships for Graduate and Professional Study

"STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

20 USC 1134d.

"Sec. 921. It is the purpose of this part to provide, through institutions of higher education, a program of grants to assist in making available the benefits of post-baccalaureate education to graduate and professional students who demonstrate financial need.

"PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

Grants.
20 USC 1134e.

"Sec. 922. (a) The Secretary shall make grants to institutions of higher education to enable such institutions to make grants in accordance with the provisions of this part.

"(b)(1) In making such grants the Secretary shall, to the maximum extent feasible, ensure an equitable geographic distribution of awards and an equitable distribution among eligible public and independent institutions of higher education.

"(2) The Secretary shall not make a grant to a single institution of higher education of less than $75,000 from the sums appropriated under this part for any fiscal year.

"(3) Whenever the Secretary determines that an institution of higher education is unable to use all of the amounts available to it under this part, the Secretary shall, on such dates during each fiscal year as the Secretary may fix, reallot such amounts not needed to institutions which can use the grants authorized by this part.

"(c) Any eligible institution of higher education offering a program of postbaccalaureate study leading to a graduate or professional degree may apply for grants under this part. Each such institution may make an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information as the Secretary may reasonably require.

"(d) In making grants to institutions of higher education, the Secretary shall—

"(1) take into account present and projected needs for highly trained individuals in all areas of education beyond high school;

"(2) take into account present and projected needs for highly trained individuals in other than academic career fields of high national priority; and

"(3) consider the need to prepare a larger number of individuals from minority groups, especially from among such groups which have been traditionally underrepresented in colleges and universities, but nothing contained in this paragraph shall be interpreted to require any educational institution to grant preference or disparate treatment to the members of one minority group on account of an imbalance which may exist with respect to the total number or percentage of individuals of such group participating in or receiving the benefits of the program authorized in this section, in comparison with the total number or percentage of individuals of such group in any community, State, section, or other area.

Awards.

"(e) The Secretary shall assure that, in making grants under this part, awards are made to—

"(1) individuals who plan to pursue a career in public service;

"(2) individuals who plan to pursue advanced study in domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation, including oil, gas, coal, oil shale, and uranium; and

"(3) individuals from traditionally underrepresented groups, as determined by the Secretary, undertaking graduate or professional study.

Fellowships.

The Secretary shall assure that the amount expended for categories of fellowships described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection for each fiscal year is not less than the amount expended for each category in fiscal year 1979.

"(f) From sums required to be expended by the Secretary for grants under subsection (e), the Secretary may (in addition to the awards made to individuals) pay to the institution of higher education at which such person is pursuing his course of study such amounts as the Secretary may determine to be consistent with prevailing practices under comparable federally supported programs, except that such amount charged to a fellowship recipient and collected from such recipient by the institution for tuition and other expenses required by the institution as part of the recipient's instructional program shall be deducted from the payments to the institution under this subsection.

Fellowship restriction.

"(g) No fellowship shall be awarded under this part for study at a school or department of divinity.

"AWARD OF FELLOWSHIPS

20 USC 1134f.

"SEC. 923. (a) An institution of higher education receiving funds under this part shall make available to financially needy graduate and professional students an award determined by such institution of higher education, except that no award under this part may exceed $4,500, or the demonstrated level of financial need according to measurements of need approved by the Secretary, whichever is lower.

"(b) No student shall receive an award except during periods in which such student is maintaining satisfactory progress in, and devoting essentially full time to, study or research in the field in which such fellowship was awarded and is not engaging in gainful employment other than part-time employment by the institution of higher education involved in teaching, research, or similar activities, approved by the Secretary. Such period shall not exceed a total of 3 years, except that the Secretary may provide by regulation for the granting of such fellowships for a period of study not to exceed one twelve-month period, in addition to the 3 year period set forth in this section, under special circumstances which the Secretary determines would most effectively serve the purposes of this part. The Secretary shall make a determination to provide such twelve-month extension of an award to an individual fellowship recipient upon review of an application for such extension by the recipient.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

20 USC 1134g.

"SEC. 924. There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out the provisions of this part $60,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 1981 and 1982 and such sums as may be necessary for the fiscal year 1983 and each of the succeeding fiscal years ending before October 1, 1985.".

Repeal.
20 USC 1134i–1134s.

(b) Parts C, D, E, and F of such title IX are repealed.

NEW PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

SEC. 903. Title IX of the Act is amended by inserting after part B (as amended by this Act) the following new part:

"PART C—NATIONAL GRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAM

"AWARD OF NATIONAL GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS

20 USC 1134h.

"SEC. 931. (a) During the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, and each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to October 1, 1985, the Secretary is authorized to award not more than 450 fellowships in accordance with the provisions of this part for graduate study in the arts, humanities, and social sciences by students of superior ability selected on the basis of demonstrated achievement and exceptional promise. Such fellowships shall be awarded for such periods as the Secretary may determine, but not in excess of forty-eight months.

Independent study.

"(b) The Secretary may allow a fellowship recipient to interrupt periods of study for a period not to exceed twelve months for the purpose of work, travel, or independent study away from the campus, if such independent study is supportive of the fellowship recipient's academic program, except that for such period the Secretary shall make no payments to the fellowship recipients or payments to institutions pursuant to the fellowship award of the recipient.

"(c) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this part.

"ALLOCATION OF FELLOWSHIPS

National Graduate Fellows Program Fellowship Board. Establishment. 20 USC 1134i.

"SEC. 932. (a)(1) The President shall appoint a National Graduate Fellows Program Fellowship Board consisting of not less than nine and not more than fifteen individuals representative of both public and private institutions of higher education especially qualified to serve on the Board. In making appointments, the President shall give due consideration to the appointment of individuals who are highly respected in the academic community.

"(2) The Board shall—

"(A) establish general policies for the program established by this part and oversee its operation;

"(B) select each year the fields in which fellowships under this part are to be awarded;

"(C) determine the number of fellowships each year to be awarded under this part in each designated field;

"(D) appoint distinguished panels in each field for the purpose of selecting fellows; and

Report to Congress.

"(E) prepare and submit to the Congress, at least once in every three year period, a report on any modifications in the program that the Board determines to be appropriate.

Consultations.

"(3) In carrying out its responsibilities, the Board shall consult on a regular basis with representatives of the National Science Foundation, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Endowment for the Arts, and representatives of institutions of higher education and associations of such institutions, learned societies, and professional organizations.

Term of office.

"(4) The term of office of each member of the Board shall be six years; except that (A) the members first taking office shall serve as designated by the President, one-third of the members for terms of two years, one-third of the members for terms of four years, and one-third of the members for terms of six years, and (B) any member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was appointed. No member may serve for a period in excess of eight years.

"(5) The President shall call the first meeting of the Board, at which the first order of business shall be the election of a Chairman and a Vice Chairman, who shall serve until one year after the date of their appointment. Thereafter each officer shall be elected for a term of two years. In case a vacancy occurs in either office, the Board shall elect an individual from among the members of the Board to fill such vacancy.

"(6)(A) A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

"(B) The Board shall meet at least four times a year.

Travel and per diem expenses.

"(7) Members of the Board, while serving on the business of the Board, shall be entitled to receive compensation at rates fixed by the President, but not exceeding the rate prescribed for GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332, title 5, United States Code, including traveltime; and while so serving away from their homes or regular places of business, they may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in Government service employed intermittently.

Fellowship recipients, selection.

"(b) The recipients of fellowships shall be selected in each designated field from among all applicants nationwide in each field by distinguished panels appointed by the Fellowship Board to make such selections under criteria established by the Board. The number of recipients in each field in each year shall not exceed the number of fellows allocated to that field for that year by the Fellowship Board.

"(c) Each recipient shall be entitled to use the fellowship in a doctoral program at any accredited institution of higher education in which the recipient may decide to enroll.

"STIPENDS

20 USC 1134j.

"SEC. 933. (a) The Secretary shall pay to individuals awarded fellowships under this part such stipends (including such allowances for subsistence and other expenses for such individuals and their dependents) as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate, adjusting such stipends as necessary so as not to exceed the fellow's demonstrated level of need according to measurements of need approved by the Secretary.

"(b) The Secretary shall (in addition to the stipends paid to individuals under subsection (a)) pay to the institution of higher education at which such person is pursuing his course of study such amount as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate, except that such amount charged to a fellowship recipient and collected from such recipient by the institution for tuition and other expenses required by the institution as part of the recipient's instructional program shall be deducted from the payments to the institution under this subsection.

20 USC 1134k.

"SEC. 934. (a) An individual awarded a fellowship under the provisions of this part shall continue to receive payments provided in section 933 only during such periods as the Secretary finds that he is maintaining satisfactory proficiency in, and devoting essentially full time to, study or research in the field in which such fellowship was awarded, in an institution of higher education, and is not engaging in gainful employment other than part-time employment by such institution in teaching, research, or similar activities, approved by the Secretary.

Reports.

"(b) The Secretary is authorized to require reports containing such information in such form and to file at such times as the Secretary determines necessary from any person awarded a fellowship under the provisions of this part. The reports shall be accompanied by a certificate from an appropriate official at the institution of higher education, library, archive, or other research center approved by the Secretary, stating that such individual is making satisfactory progress in, and is devoting essentially full time to the program for which the fellowship was awarded."

TRAINING AND LEGAL ASSISTANCE PROFESSION PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

SEC. 904. Title IX of the Act is amended by adding after part C (as added by section 904 of this Act) the following new part:

"PART D—ASSISTANCE FOR TRAINING IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

"PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

Grants.
20 USC 1134*l*.

"SEC. 941. (a) The Secretary is authorized prior to October 1, 1985, to make grants to, or enter into contracts with, public and private agencies and organizations other than institutions of higher education for the purpose of assisting individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds, as determined in accordance with criteria prescribed by the Secretary, to undertake training for the legal profession.

"(b) Grants made, and contracts entered into, under subsection (a) may cover, in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, all or part of the cost of—

"(1) selecting individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds for training for the legal profession,

"(2) facilitating the entry of such individuals into institutions of higher education for the purpose of pursuing such training,

"(3) providing counseling or other services designed to assist such individuals to complete successfully such training,

"(4) providing, for not more than six months prior to the entry of such individuals upon their courses of training for the legal profession, preliminary training for such individuals designed to assist them to complete successfully such training for the legal profession,

"(5) paying such stipends (including allowances for travel and for dependents) as the Secretary may determine for such individuals for any such period of preliminary training or for any period of training for the legal profession during which such individuals maintain satisfactory academic proficiency, as determined by the Secretary, and

"(6) paying for administrative activities of the agencies and organizations which receive such grants, or with which such contracts are entered into, to the extent such activities are for the purpose of furthering activities described in clauses (1) through (5).

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"SEC. 942. There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out the provisions of this part $5,000,000 for fiscal year 1981, $5,000,000 for fiscal year 1982, $7,500,000 for fiscal year 1983, $7,500,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $10,000,000 for fiscal year 1985.". 20 USC 1134m.

LAW SCHOOL PROGRAMS INCLUDED IN TITLE IX

SEC. 905. Title IX of the Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new part:

"PART E—LAW SCHOOL CLINICAL EXPERIENCE PROGRAMS

"PROGRAM AUTHORIZATION

"SEC. 951. (a) The Secretary is authorized to enter into grants or contracts with accredited law schools in the States for the purpose of paying not to exceed 90 per centum of the costs of establishing or expanding programs in such schools to provide clinical experience to students in the practice of law, which includes any form of law student work involving performance in the role of a lawyer exercising legal skills and roles such as those of an advocate, counselor, negotiator, investigator, and ethical practitioner, whether by way of the provision of representation of or services to an identifiable client in actual cases or situations (subject to existing State or local limitations upon such provision) or by way of simulation of such provision through appropriate exercises. The cases and situations handled in actuality or by simulation may encompass any one or more of the following: Grants. 20 USC 1134n.

"(1) judicial, administrative, executive, or legislative proceedings, including the full range of preparation therefor;

"(2) office or house counsel problems; or

"(3) factual investigation, empirical research, or policy or legal analysis.

"(b) Such costs may include necessary expenditures incurred for—

"(1) planning;

"(2) training of faculty members and salary for additional faculty members;

"(3) travel and per diem for faculty and students;

"(4) reasonable stipends for students for work in the public service performed as part of any such program at a time other than during the regular academic year;

"(5) equipment and library resources;

"(6) involving practicing lawyers in the process of training law students to perform as lawyers; and

"(7) such other items as are allowed pursuant to regulations issued by the Secretary.

"(c) No law school may receive more than $100,000 in any fiscal year pursuant to this part, no part of which may be used to pay for indirect costs or charges.

"Accredited law school."

"(d) For the purpose of this part the term 'accredited law school' means any law school which is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association approved by the Secretary for this purpose, including any combination or consortium of such schools.

"APPLICATIONS

20 USC 1134o.

"SEC. 952. (a) A grant or contract authorized by this part may be made by the Secretary upon application which—

"(1) is made at such time or times and contains such information as he may prescribe;

"(2) provides for such fiscal control and fund accounting procedures as may be necessary to assure proper disbursement of and accounting for Federal funds paid to the applicant under this part; and Reports and records.

"(3) provides for making such reports, in such form and containing such information as the Secretary may require to carry out his functions under this part, and for keeping such records and for affording such access thereto as the Secretary may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

Grants or contracts.

"(b) The Secretary shall allocate grants or contracts under this part in such manner as will provide an equitable distribution of such grants or contracts throughout the United States among law schools which show promise of being able to use funds effectively for the purposes of this part.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

20 USC 1134p.

"SEC. 953. There are authorized to be appropriated $5,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $8,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982, $8,000,000 for the fiscal year 1983, $9,000,000 for the fiscal year 1984, and $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1985, to carry out the purposes of this part.".

"TITLE X—FUND FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

"PART A—ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF FUND

"AUTHORIZATION OF PROGRAM

Grants.
20 USC 1135.

"SEC. 1001. Subject to the provisions of section 1002, the Secretary is authorized to make grants to, and contracts with, institutions of postsecondary education (including combinations of such institutions) and other public and private educational institutions and agencies (except that no grant shall be made to an educational institution or agency other than a nonprofit institution or agency) to improve postsecondary educational opportunities by providing assistance to such educational institutions and agencies for—

"(1) encouraging the reform, innovation, and improvement of postsecondary education, and providing equal educational opportunity for all;

"(2) the creation of institutions and programs involving new paths to career and professional training, and new combinations of academic and experiential learning;

"(3) the establishment of institutions and programs based on the technology of communications;

"(4) the carrying out in postsecondary educational institutions of changes in internal structure and operations designed to clarify institutional priorities and purposes;

"(5) the design and introduction of cost-effective methods of instruction and operation;

"(6) the introduction of institutional reforms designed to expand individual opportunities for entering and reentering institutions and pursuing programs of study tailored to individual needs;

"(7) the introduction of reforms in graduate education, in the structure of academic professions, and in the recruitment and retention of faculties; and

"(8) the creation of new institutions and programs for examining and awarding credentials to individuals, and the introduction of reforms in current institutional practices related thereto.

"CONSULTATION

Comments and recommendations.
20 USC 1135a.
Post, p. 1493.

"SEC. 1002. No grant shall be made or contract entered into under section 1001 for a project or program with any institution of postsecondary education unless it has been submitted to the appropriate State entity having an agreement under section 1203, and an opportunity has been afforded such entity to submit its comments and recommendations to the Secretary.

"NATIONAL BOARD OF THE FUND FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

Establishment.
20 USC 1135a-1.

"SEC. 1003. (a) There is established a National Board of the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education. The Board shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the Secretary for overlapping three-year terms. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum. Any member of the Board who has served for six consecutive years shall thereafter be ineligible for appointment to the Board during a two-year period following the expiration of such sixth year.

Membership.

"(b) The Secretary shall designate one of the members as Chairman. A majority of the members of the Board shall be public interest representatives, including students, and a minority shall be educational representatives. All members selected shall be individuals able to contribute an important perspective on priorities for improvement in postsecondary education and strategies of educational and institutional change.

Duties.

"(c) The Board shall—

"(1) advise the Secretary and the Director of the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education on priorities for the improvement of postsecondary education and make such recommendations as it may deem appropriate for the improvement of postsecondary education and for the evaluation, dissemination, and adaptation of demonstrated improvements in postsecondary educational practice;

"(2) advise the Secretary and the Director of the Fund on the development of programs to be carried out by the Fund and on the selection of projects under consideration for support by the Fund in its competitions;

"(3) advise the Secretary and the Director of the Fund on the operation of the Fund, including advice on planning documents, guidelines, and procedures for grant competitions prepared by the Fund; and

"(4) meet at the call of the Chairman, except that it shall meet (A) at least four times during each fiscal year, or (B) whenever one-third of the members request in writing that a meeting be held.

Information availability.

"(d) The Director shall make available to the Board such information and assistance as may be necessary to enable the Board to carry out its functions.

"ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

20 USC 1135a-2.
5 USC 101.
5 USC 5101 et seq.
5 USC 5331.

"SEC. 1004. (a) The Secretary may appoint, for terms not to exceed three years, without regard to the provisions of title 5 of the United States Code governing appointments in the competitive service, not more than five technical employees to administer this title who may be paid without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates.

Review.

"(b) The Director shall establish procedures for reviewing and evaluating grants and contracts made or entered into under this title. Procedures for reviewing grant applications or contracts for financial assistance under this section may not be subject to any review outside of officials responsible for the administration of the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education.

"AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"SEC. 1005. There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out this title $20,000,000 for fiscal year 1981, $30,000,000 for fiscal year 1982, $40,000,000 for fiscal year 1983, $45,000,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $50,000,000 for fiscal year 1985.". 20 USC 1135a-3.

(b)(1) Part C of title X of the Act is redesignated as part B, and sections 1071 and 1072 thereof are redesignated as sections 1021 and 1022, respectively. 20 USC 1135c, 1135c-1.

(2) Section 1021(a) of the Act (as so redesignated) is amended by striking out "this title,". 20 USC 1135c.

(c) Section 404 of the General Education Provisions Act is repealed. Repeal. 20 USC 1221d.

TITLE XI—ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW TITLE XI OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965

PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

SEC. 1101. Title XI of the Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE XI—URBAN GRANT UNIVERSITY PROGRAM

"FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

"SEC. 1101. (a) The Congress finds and declares— 20 USC 1136.

"(1) that there exists within the Nation's urban universities an underutilized reservoir of skills, talents, and knowledge applicable toward the amelioration of the multitude of problems that face the Nation's urban centers;

"(2) that the skills, talents, and knowledge of urban universities must be applied in a systematic and sustained manner to make a significant contribution toward the solution of these problems;

"(3) that the application of the skills, talents, and knowledge of urban universities is hindered by the limited funds available to sustain their commitment; and

"(4) that it is the policy of the United States to encourage and facilitate the application of the skills, talents, and knowledge of urban universities toward serving the needs of urban centers of the Nation.

"(b) The Secretary shall carry out programs in accordance with the provisions of this title, for the purpose of aiding urban universities to help find answers to urban problems, and aiding such universities to make their resources more readily and effectively available to the urban communities in which they are located.

"APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

"SEC. 1102. (a) For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this title there is authorized to be appropriated $15,000,000 for fiscal year 1981, $25,000,000 for fiscal year 1982, $35,000,000 for fiscal year 1983, $45,000,000 for fiscal year 1984, and $55,000,000 for fiscal year 1985. 20 USC 1136a.

"(b) In the event of a multiple-year grant to any urban university under this title, the Secretary shall make funds available for such grant from funds appropriated for this title for the fiscal year in which such funds are to be used by the recipient.

"PROJECT ASSISTANCE

Grants. 20 USC 1136b.

"SEC. 1103. (a)(1) The Secretary shall make grants to urban universities to pay the Federal share of the cost of carrying out projects consistent with the purposes of this title.

Applications.

"(2) The Secretary shall give priority to applications containing cooperative arrangements between urban universities within an urban area.

"(b) An application submitted under this section shall contain provisions designed to show that the chief executive of the local agency or agencies of general government within whose jurisdiction fall the need or needs to be addressed by the project or projects described has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon the proposed project or projects. In making grants under this title, the Secretary shall consider the degree to which there is evidence in the application of (1) the participation of such local agency or agencies of general government and of the community in the development of the project or projects for which assistance is requested under this section; (2) local government and community participation in the implementation of the proposed project or projects; and (3) a commitment by such local agency or agencies of general government to pay the portion of the non-Federal share of the cost of such project or projects required by subsection (d) of this section. Not more than one-half of such non-Federal share may be in the form of services, supplies, or equipment.

"(c) The Secretary may request the advice of any Federal agency the Secretary considers appropriate before approving an application for project assistance under this section.

"(d) Each grant under this section shall be 90 per centum of the cost of the project for which assistance is granted.

"Urban grant university."

"(e) An institution of higher education which receives a grant under this section shall be designated by the Secretary as an 'urban grant university'. The Secretary shall annually publish a list of the institutions of higher education which have been so designated.

"LIMITATION

20 USC 1136c.

"SEC. 1104. (a) The total amount of payments in any fiscal year under section 1103 to institutions within any one State shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total amount paid.

"(b) In allocating assistance under section 1103 of this title, the Secretary shall endeavor to achieve broad and equitable geographical distribution throughout the Nation.

"DEFINITIONS

20 USC 1136d.

"SEC. 1105. As used in this title—

"(1) 'urban area' means a standard metropolitan statistical area having a population of not less than five hundred thousand persons; or, in any State which has no standard metropolitan statistical area within its borders which has such a population, the entity of the State having an agreement under section 1203 may, or if no such entity has an agreement, the Secretary shall designate one urban area for the purposes of this part;

"(2) 'urban university' means an institution of higher education which (A) is located in an urban area, (B) draws a substantial portion of its undergraduate students from the urban area in which it is located or contiguous urban areas, (C) carries out programs to make postsecondary education opportunities more accessible to residents of such urban area or contiguous areas, (D) has the present capacity to provide resources responsible to the needs and priorities of such urban area and contiguous areas, (E) offers a range of professional or graduate programs sufficient to sustain its capacity to provide such resources, and (F) has demonstrated and sustained a sense of responsibility to such urban area and contiguous areas and its people;

"(3) for the purposes of paragraphs (2) and (4) of this section, 'institution of higher education' includes any combination of such institutions, any one of which meets all the qualifications of paragraph (2); and

"(4) 'resources' are programs of institutions of higher education including specialized training, research services, and technical assistance responsible to the needs and priorities of the urban area and contiguous areas.".

TITLE XII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

AMENDMENTS

SEC. 1201. Title XII of the Act is amended by striking out sections 1202, 1203, 1205, 1206, and 1208, by redesignating section 1207 as section 1202, and by adding after such section the following new sections: 20 USC 1142, 1142a, 1142b, 1145, 1145a, 1145c.

"FEDERAL-STATE RELATIONSHIPS; STATE AGREEMENTS

"SEC. 1203. (a) Any State which desires to receive assistance under an applicable program, as described in subsection (f), shall enter into an agreement with the Secretary pursuant to subsection (b) setting forth the terms and conditions for the relationship between the Federal Government and that State for the purposes set forth in the applicable programs. 20 USC 1143.

"(b) Such agreement shall consist of assurances by the State, including a description of the means to be used by the State to fulfill the assurances, that—

"(1) the State will provide for such methods of administration as are necessary for the proper and efficient administration of any program in keeping with the purposes of the applicable programs described in subsection (f);

"(2) the State will provide such fiscal control and fund accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure proper disbursement of, and accounting for, Federal funds paid to the State under any title of this Act;

"(3) the State will follow policies and practices of administration that will ensure that non-Federal funds will not be supplanted by Federal funds, and that equitable and appropriate criteria will be used in evaluation of applications or proposals for grants or contracts under any such applicable program; and

"(4) the State has a comprehensive planning or policy formulation process which—

"(A) considers the relation between State administration of any such applicable program, and administration of similar State programs or processes;

"(B) encourages State policies designed to consider effects on declining enrollments on all sectors of postsecondary education in the State;

"(C) considers the postsecondary education needs of unserved and underserved individuals within the State, including individuals beyond the traditional college age;

"(D) considers the resources of institutions, organizations, or agencies (both public and private) within the State capable of providing postsecondary educational opportunities in the State; and

"(E) provides for direct, equitable and active participation in the comprehensive planning or policy formulation process or processes of representatives of institutions of higher education (including community colleges, proprietary institutions, and independent colleges and universities), students, other providers of postsecondary education services, and the general public in the State.

Participation under subclause (E) shall, consistent with State law, be achieved through membership on State planning commissions, State advisory councils, or other State entities established by the State to conduct federally assisted comprehensive planning or policy formulation.

"(c) The information and assurances provided by a State in accordance with paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (b), and regulations issued by the Secretary related directly to such assurances, shall be satisfactory for the purposes of, and shall be considered in lieu of, any comparable requirements for information and assurances in any applicable program described in subsection (f).

"(d)(1) An agreement of a State shall remain in effect subject to modification as changes in information or circumstances require.

Notice and hearing.

"(2) Whenever the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing has been given to the State, finds that there is a failure to comply substantially with the assurances required in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subsection (b), the Secretary shall notify the State that it is no longer eligible to participate in any applicable program described in subsection (f) until the Secretary is satisfied that there is no longer any such failure to comply.

"(e)(1) For the purpose of this section, the selection of the State entity or entities authorized to act on behalf of the State for the purpose of entering into an agreement with the Secretary shall be in accordance with the State law of each individual State with respect to the authority to make legal agreements between the State and the Federal Government.

"(2)(A) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the Secretary to require any State to adopt, as a condition for entering into an agreement, or for participation in an applicable program as defined in subsection (f), a specific State organizational structure for achieving participation in the planning, or administration of programs, or for statewide planning, coordination, governing, regulating, or administering of postsecondary education agencies, institutions, or programs in the State.

"(B) Nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation on the authority of any State to adopt a State organizational structure for postsecondary education agencies, institutions, or programs which is appropriate to the needs, traditions, and circumstances of that State, or as a limitation on the authority of a State entering into an agreement pursuant to this section to modify the State organizational structure at any time subsequent to entering into such an agreement.

"Applicable program."

"(f) For the purposes of this section an 'applicable program' is defined as—

"(1) title I; Ante, p. 1373.
"(2) subpart 3 of part A of title IV; and 20 USC 1070c.
"(3) part A of title VII. Ante, p. 1473.

"TREATMENT OF TERRITORIES AND TERRITORIAL STUDENT ASSISTANCE

20 USC 1144a.

"SEC. 1204. (a) The Secretary is authorized to provide such modifications of any programs under this Act as the Secretary deems necessary in order to adapt such programs to the needs of Guam, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands. Such program modifications may include the consolidation of grants for any single program on a regional or interterritorial basis. Such program modifications shall be established in cooperation with the governments of such territories and shall be governed by a memorandum of understanding between such governments and the Department of Education.

Educational needs, analysis. Report to Congress.

"(b) In conjunction with the development of program modifications under subsection (a), the Secretary shall, within eighteen months after the date of enactment of this section, conduct an analysis of the unique educational needs of Guam, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands, and report to the Congress on the results of such analysis. Such report shall include recommendations of the Secretary with respect to the most appropriate form of Federal postsecondary education assistance for such territories, an evaluation of the effectiveness of the authority contained in subsection (a), and whether such authority should be extended or modified.

Appropriation authorization.

"(c) Pending legislative implementation of the recommendations submitted by the Secretary under subsection (b), there are authorized to be appropriated $2,000,000 for each fiscal year ending prior to October 1, 1985 to support the cost of providing postsecondary education programs on Guam for nonresident students from the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa. Such sums shall be allocated by the Secretary among the educational institutions on Guam providing such programs on the basis of the number of students enrolled from the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa. Sums authorized under this subsection shall remain available until appropriated and sums appropriated under this subsection shall remain available until expended.

"NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ACCREDITATION AND INSTITUTIONAL ELIGIBILITY

Establishment. 20 USC 1145.

"SEC. 1205. (a) There is established in the Department of Education a National Advisory Committee on Accreditation and Institutional Eligibility which shall be composed of 15 members appointed by the Secretary from among individuals knowledgeable concerning education, and including persons who are (1) representative of institutions, (2) representative of students and youth, (3) representative of professional associations, (4) representative of State educational agencies, and (5) representative of the general public. The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Secretary.

"(b) The term of office of each member of the Committee shall be three years, except that—

"(1) the members first appointed to the Committee shall serve as designated by the Secretary, five for a term of one year, five for a term of two years, and five for a term of three years, and

"(2) any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of that term.

Responsibilities.

"(c) The Committee shall, with respect to all matters pertaining to institutional eligibility—

"(1) advise the Secretary with regard to the responsibility to publish a list of nationally recognized accrediting agencies and associations which he determines to be reliable authority as to the quality of training offered, including advising the Secretary with respect to the criteria and procedures for carrying out such responsibility;

"(2) advise the Secretary with regard to the responsibility to designate State agencies as reliable authorities on the quality of public postsecondary vocational education or training;

"(3) develop and recommend to the Secretary standards and criteria for specific categories of vocational training institutions and institutions of higher education for which there are no recognized accrediting agencies, associations, or State agencies, in order to establish the eligibility of such institutions on an interim basis for participation in federally funded programs; and

"(4) carry out such other advisory functions relating to accreditation and institutional eligibility as may be assigned by the Secretary.

"(d) The Committee shall meet not less than twice each year at the call of the Chairman. The date of, and agenda for, each meeting of the Committee shall be submitted in advance to the Secretary for approval. A representative of the Secretary shall be present at all meetings of the Committee.

Report to Congress.

"(e) The Committee shall, not later than November 30 of each year, make an annual report through the Secretary to the Congress. The annual report shall contain a list of the members of the Committee and their addresses, a list of the Committee's functions, a list of dates and places of each meeting during the preceding fiscal year, and a summary of the activities, findings, and recommendations made by the Committee during the preceding fiscal year.

20 USC 1233g.

"(f) Subject to section 448(b) of the General Education Provisions Act, the Committee shall continue to exist until September 30, 1985.".

SEC. 1331. (a)(1) The Congress finds that— 20 USC 1221-1 note.

(A) like other Native Americans, Native Hawaiians rank among the lowest in level of educational attainment and per capita income; and

(B) existing Federal, State, and local assistance in the field of education fails to address the basic and special needs of Native Hawaiians.

(2) The Congress declares its commitment to assist in providing the educational services and opportunities which Native Hawaiians need.

Advisory Council on Native Hawaiian Education. Establishment.

(b) There is established the Advisory Council on Native Hawaiian Education which shall consist of seven members appointed by the Secretary of Education, after consultation with the Governor of Hawaii, from among individuals who are professionals in the various fields relating to human development, and who are familiar with the educational problems of Native Hawaiians.

(c) The Council shall—

(1) advise the Secretary with respect to the operation of programs administered by the Department of Education and other programs making educational assistance available to Native Hawaiians;

Study.

(2) conduct a study which shall (A) evaluate the effectiveness of State and federally assisted educational programs in serving Native Hawaiian children and the extent to which such programs achieve their purposes with respect to such children, and (B) take into account the special health, social, and psychological needs of Native Hawaiian children; and Report to Secretary and Congress.

(3) submit a report to the Secretary and to the Congress not later than January 31, 1983, containing the findings and recommendations of the Council with respect to the matters described in paragraphs (1) and (2).

Termination.

(d) The Council shall terminate 60 days after the submission of its report under subsection (c).

Appropriation authorization.

(e) There are authorized to be appropriated a total amount of not more than $500,000 for the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983 to carry out this section.

PART E—SPECIAL IMPACT AID PROGRAM

PROGRAM AUTHORIZED

SEC. 1341. The Act of September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874, 81st Cong.), relating to impact aid, is amended by adding after section 4 the following new section:

"SPECIAL PROGRAM

20 USC 239a.

"SEC. 4A. (a)(1) Any local educational agency that experiences an enrollment increase in any school year of at least 20 students as a result of the entry into any school supported by such agency of eligible children shall be eligible to receive payment for such children enrolled in its schools in accordance with the provisions of this section.

"Eligible children."

"(2) For purposes of this section the term 'eligible children' means—

"(A) aliens who fled from Cambodia, Vietnam, or Laos and who, on or after January 1, 1979—

"(i) were admitted into the United States as refugees under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act;

Ante, p. 103.

"(ii) are applicants for asylum or have been granted asylum in the United States; or

"(iii) were paroled into the United States as refugees under section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act; or

8 USC 1182.

"(B) aliens who fled from Cuba or Haiti and who, on or after November 1, 1979—

"(i) were admitted into the United States as refugees under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act;

"(iii) are paroled into the United States as refugees under section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act; or

"(iv) are Cuban-Haitian entrants (status pending) who entered the United States on or after such date.

"(3)(A) Each such local educational agency is authorized to receive for the fiscal year 1981 an amount equal to the product of the number of eligible children in average daily attendance in the schools of such agency in excess of 20 such eligible children multiplied by the current local expenditure rate of that local educational agency, plus $200 for each such eligible child in excess of 20. Payment computation.

"(B) For the purpose of this paragraph the current local expenditure rate shall be deemed to be the non-Federal expenditure rate of the local educational agency.

"(4) No provision of this Act which is inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to the administration of this section.

"(5) Each local educational agency which is authorized to receive assistance under this section shall provide the Secretary with assurances that no eligible child counted for the purpose of this section shall be counted for payments made under any other provision of this Act.

"(b) There are authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal year 1981 such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.".

PART F—THE NAVAJO COMMUNITY COLLEGE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

AMENDMENTS TO THE NAVAJO COMMUNITY COLLEGE ACT

SEC. 1351. (a) Section 5(a)(1) of the Navajo Community College Act is amended by striking out "two" and inserting in lieu thereof "three". 25 USC 640c-1.

(b) Section 5(b) of such Act is amended by striking out paragraphs (1) and (2), by redesignating paragraph (3) as paragraph (2), and by inserting immediately before such paragraph the following:

"(b)(1) There is further authorized to be appropriated for grants to the Navajo Community College, for any fiscal year beginning on or after October 1, 1979, an amount equal to the amount necessary for operation and maintenance of the college, including, but not limited to, administrative, academic, and operations and maintenance costs.". Grant funds.

(c) Such Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS

"SEC. 6. Except as specifically provided by law, eligibility for assistance under this Act shall not, by itself, preclude the eligibility of the Navajo Community College to receive Federal financial assistance under any program authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965 or any other applicable program for the benefit of institutions of higher education, community colleges, or postsecondary educational institutions.". 25 USC 640c-2. 20 USC 1001 note.

Public Law 96-375
96th Congress

An Act

Oct. 3, 1980
[H.R. 5278]

To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to engage in feasibility investigations of certain water resource developments, and for other purposes.

Water resource developments, feasibility investigations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to engage in feasibility studies of the following proposals:

(1) Hungry Horse Project, Hungry Horse Powerplant Enlargement and Reregulating Reservoir, located on the South Fork of the Flathead River in Flathead County, Montana.

(2) Boise Project, Power and Modification Study, located in southwestern Idaho (Ada, Boise, Canyon, Elmore, Gem, Payette, and Valley Counties) and in eastern Oregon (Malheur County).

(3) San Francisco Bay Area Waste Water Reclamation Project, located in the San Francisco Bay area and western San Joaquin Valley of California.

(4) San Joaquin Valley Drainage Investigation with a study area in the San Joaquin River basin, Tulare basin, and the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta-Suisun Bay area of California.

(5) Delta Overland Water Service Facilities, located in the Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano, and Contra Costa Counties of California.

(6) Chino Valley Project, located in north central Yavapai County and south central Coconino County in Arizona.

(7) North Platte River Hydroelectric Power Study, Pick-Sloan Missouri Basin Program, Western Division, located in Natrona and Carbon Counties, Wyoming.

(8) Wind-Hydroelectric Energy Project in Carbon and Albany Counties, Wyoming.

(9) Lake Meredith Salinity Project, in Quay County, New Mexico, and Oldham, Potter, Moore, Carson, and Hutchinson Counties in Texas.

(10) Colorado-Big Thompson Powerplants of the Pick-Sloan Missouri Basin Program in Colorado.

(11) The relocation of the intake of the Contra Costa County Water District Canal from Rock Slough to the vicinity of the Clifton Court Forebay in Contra Costa County, California.

(12) The Los Vaqueros Dam, pump-generating plant, and related features at a site approximately eight miles west of the Clifton Court Forebay in Contra Costa County, California.

(13) The obtaining of a water supply of up to ten thousand acre-feet per year for existing and potential domestic, recreational, and municipal water users along the Colorado River in California who do not hold water rights or whose rights are insufficient to meet their requirements.

(14) To determine the cause and extent of the high groundwater levels which developed in and adjacent to the town of Moses Lake, Washington, following the initiation of irrigation of the lands in and adjacent to the town and determine by the studies authorized herein measures to resolve the problems caused by the high water levels in the area.

(15) The Cle Elum Dam and Tieton Dam powerplants, Yakima Project, Washington.

(16) The Owyhee Dam powerplant, Owyhee Project, Oregon.

(17) The Wickiup Dam powerplant, Deschutes Project, Oregon.

(18) The Tiber Dam powerplant, Lower Marias Unit, Marias Division, Pick-Sloan Missouri Basin Program, Montana.

(19) The New Siphon Drop powerplant, Yuma Project, Arizona-California.

(20) The Guernsey Dam powerplant enlargement, North Platte Project, Wyoming.

(21) Increasing the height of the Theodore Roosevelt Dam, Salt River Project, Arizona.

(22) The Sly Park Extension Unit, American River Division, Central Valley Project, California.

(23) The Prineville Dam powerplant, Crooked River Project, Oregon.

Shasta Dam and Reservoir, Central Valley Project, Calif.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to engage in feasibility studies relating to enlarging Shasta Dam and Reservoir, Central Valley Project, California, or to the construction of a larger dam on the Sacramento River, California, to replace the present structure.

(b) The Secretary of the Interior is further authorized to engage in feasibility studies for the purpose of determining the potential costs, benefits, environmental impacts, and feasibility of using the Sacramento River for conveying water from the enlarged Shasta Dam and Reservoir or the larger dam to points of use downstream from the dam.

(c) Before funds are expended for the feasibility studies authorized by this section, the State of California shall agree to participate in the studies and to participate in the costs of the studies. The State's share of the costs may be partly or wholly in the form of services directly related to the conduct of the studies.

Kellogg Unit, Central Valley Project, Calif.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to review and revise, as may be necessary, the feasibility study of the Kellogg Unit, Central Valley Project, Contra Costa County, California.

SEC. 4. In preparing the studies and review authorized by subsections (11) and (12) of section 1 and section 3, the Secretary of the Interior shall fully describe all potential beneficial or detrimental impacts resulting from the construction or operation of the projects under study. The Secretary shall further make recommendations to the Congress for assuring that neither the construction nor the operation of any such project results in the deterioration of the water quality and ecology of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta or the San Francisco Bay estuarine system.

Recommendations to Congress.

Lake Berryessa, Calif., concession agreements.
Term renewal.

SEC. 5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to enter into new negotiated concession agreements with the present concessionaires at Lake Berryessa, California. Such agreements shall be for a term ending not later than May 26, 1989, and may be renewed at the request of the concessionaire with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior for no more than two consecutive terms of 10 years each. Concession agreements may be renegotiated preceding renewal. Such agreements must comply with the 1959 National Park Service Public Use Plan for Lake Berryessa, as amended, and with the Water and Power Resources Service Reservoir Area Management Plan: Provided, That the authority to enter into contracts or agreements to incur obligations or to make payments under this section shall be effective only to the extent and in such amounts as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts.

Permanent facilities, ownership.

(b) Notwithstanding any other laws to the contrary, all permanent facilities placed by the concessionaires in the seven resorts at Lake Berryessa shall be considered the property of the respective current concessionaires. Further, any permanent additions or modifications to these facilities shall remain the property of said concessionaires: Provided, That at the option of the Secretary of the Interior, the United States may require that the permanent facilities mentioned herein not be removed from the concession areas, and instead, pay fair value for the permanent facilities or, if a new concessionaire assumes operation of the concession, require that new concessionaire to pay fair value for the permanent facilities to the existing concessionaire.

SEC. 6. The Reclamation Project Authorization Act of 1972 (Public Law 92-514, 86 Stat. 964) is amended—

(a) by inserting in section 101 of such Act, following "on this project", "as modified by the plans shown in the Definite Plan Report of the Water and Power Resources Service, dated November 1979";

86 Stat. 964.

(b) by inserting in section 102(b) of such Act, following "domestic wells in existence", "outside the project boundary"; and

86 Stat. 966.

(c) by striking in section 109 of such Act "$18,246,000 (April 1972 prices)" and inserting in lieu thereof "$57,139,000 (October 1979 prices)".

SEC. 7. The Curecanti Storage Unit of the Colorado River Storage Project constructed under the authority of the Act of April 11, 1956 (70 Stat. 106) is hereby designated and hereafter shall be known as the Wayne N. Aspinall Storage Unit of the Colorado River Storage Project. Any law, regulation, record, map, or other document of the United States referring to the Curecanti Storage Unit shall be held to refer to the Wayne N. Aspinall Storage Unit.

43 USC 485h-1.

SEC. 8. Section 1(5) of the Act of July 2, 1956 (70 Stat. 483), is hereby amended to read as follows: "(5) Provide for payment of rates under any contract entered into pursuant to said subsection (e) in advance of delivery of water on an annual, semiannual, bimonthly, or monthly basis as specified in the contract.".

Solar powerplant, three-year study.

SEC. 9. The Secretary of the Interior in coordination with the Secretary of Energy shall conduct a three-year study of the feasibility of integrating a solar powerplant in Arizona, Nevada, and California into the Federal hydroelectric system, including but not limited to consideration of the applicable solar technology, the operation of the Federal hydroelectric system and the integration of electric power generated by such a powerplant in the Federal system. The study shall specifically consider operations of Department of Energy Project 76-2-b, 10 MW Solar Thermal Power and related technology development. The Secretary shall complete the study by January 1, 1984 and submit a report to the President and the Congress.

Report to President and Congress.

SEC. 10. That the proviso contained in section 201 of the Colorado River Basin Project Act (43 U.S.C. 1511) is amended by striking out "the Secretary" and inserting in lieu thereof "any Federal official".

96th Congress

An Act

Oct. 3, 1980
[S. 2489]

To authorize appropriations for the Coast Guard for fiscal year 1981, to authorize supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 1980, and for other purposes.

Coast Guard, appropriation authorization.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That funds are hereby authorized to be appropriated for necessary expenses of the Coast Guard for fiscal year 1981, as follows:

(1) for the operation and maintenance of the Coast Guard, including expenses related to the Capehart housing debt reduction: $1,248,367,000;

(2) for the acquisition, construction, rebuilding, and improvement of aids to navigation, shore facilities, vessels, and aircraft, including equipment related thereto: $469,320,000;

(3) for the alteration or removal of bridges over navigable waters of the United States, constituting obstructions to navigation: $16,200,000; and

(4) for research, development, test, and evaluation: $30,000,000.

Active duty personnel.

SEC. 2. For fiscal year 1981, the Coast Guard is authorized an end-of-year strength for active duty personnel of 39,600: Provided, That the ceiling shall not include members of the Ready Reserve called to active duty under the authority of section 764 of title 14, United States Code.

Military training student loads.

SEC. 3. For fiscal year 1981, average military training student loads for the Coast Guard are authorized as follows:

(1) recruit and special training: 4,175 student-years;

(2) flight training: 117 student-years;

(3) professional training in military and civilian institutions: 595 student-years; and

(4) officer acquisition: 925 student-years.

Housing leases in foreign countries.

SEC. 4. The second sentence of subsection 475(a) of title 14, United States Code, is amended to read as follows: "When any such lease involves housing facilities in a foreign country, the lease may be made on a multiyear basis for a period not to exceed five years, and, in accordance with local custom and practice, advance payment may be made for the lease.".

Fund, capital increase.

SEC. 5. The third sentence of subsection 650(a) of title 14, United States Code, is amended to read as follows: "In these regulations, whenever the fund is extended to include items not previously stocked, or spare parts obtained as part of a procurement under a different account of major items such as vessels or aircraft, whether or not such parts were previously stocked, the Secretary may authorize an increase in the existing capital of the fund by the value of such usable materials transferred thereto from Coast Guard inventories carried in other accounts.".

SEC. 6. The last sentence of subsection 214(d) of title 14, United States Code, is amended to read as follows: "A person who is appointed under this section may not suffer any reduction in the rate of pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he remained in his former grade and continued to receive the increases in pay and allowances authorized for that grade.".

Sec. 7. (a) Chapter 13 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by adding a new section 512 as follows:

"§512. Monetary allowance for transportation of household effects

"The transportation and reimbursement authorized by subsection (b) of section 406 of title 37, United States Code, shall be available hereafter to pay a monetary allowance in place of such transportation to a member who, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, participates in a program designated by the Secretary in which his baggage and household effects are moved by a privately owned or rental vehicle. This allowance shall not be limited to reimbursement for actual expenses and may be paid in advance of the transportation of the baggage and household effects. The allowance shall, however, be in an amount that will result in savings to the Government when the total cost of the movement of baggage and household effects is compared with the cost that otherwise would have been incurred under subsection (b) of section 406 of title 37, United States Code.".

(b) The analysis of chapter 13 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by adding the following item at the end thereof:

"512. Monetary allowance for transportation of household effects.".

Vessel inspection or examination, reimbursement. 46 USC 382b-1.

Sec. 8. When an inspection or examination of a vessel documented or to be documented as a vessel of the United States is conducted at a foreign port or place at the request of the owner or operator of the vessel, that owner or operator shall reimburse the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating for the travel and subsistence expenses incurred by the personnel assigned to perform the inspection or examination. Amounts received as reimbursement for these expenses shall be credited to the appropriation for operating expenses of the Coast Guard.

Sec. 9. The joint resolution of June 4, 1958 (72 Stat. 179; 36 U.S.C. 161) is amended by striking the words "week which includes July 4" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "week commencing on the first Sunday in June".

Sec. 10. (a) Chapter 17 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by adding a new section 660 as follows:

14 USC 660.

"§660. Transportation to and from certain places of employment

"(a) Whenever the Secretary determines that it is necessary for the effective conduct of the affairs of the Coast Guard, he may, at reasonable rates of fare fixed under regulations to be prescribed by him, provide assured and adequate transportation by motor vehicle or water carrier to and from their places of employment for persons attached to, or employed by, the Coast Guard; and during a war or during a national emergency declared by Congress or the President, for persons attached to, or employed in, a private plant that is manufacturing material for the Coast Guard.

"(b) Transportation may not be provided under subsection (a) unless the Secretary or an officer designated by the Secretary, determines that—

"(1) other transportation facilities are inadequate and cannot be made adequate;

"(2) a reasonable effort has been made to induce operators of private facilities to provide the necessary transportation; and

"(3) the service to be furnished will make proper use of transportation facilities and will supply the most efficient transportation to the persons concerned.

"(c) To provide transportation under subsection (a), the Secretary may—

"(1) buy, lease, or charter motor vehicles or water carriers having a seating capacity of 12 or more passengers;

"(2) maintain and operate that equipment by enlisted members or employees of the Coast Guard, or by private persons under contract; and

"(3) lease or charter the equipment to private or public carriers for operation under terms that are considered necessary by the Secretary or by an officer designated by the Secretary, and that may provide for the pooling of government-owned and privately owned equipment and facilities and for the reciprocal use of that equipment.

"(d) Fares received under subsection (a), and proceeds of the leasing or chartering of equipment under subsection (c)(3), shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.".

(b) The analysis of chapter 17 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by adding the following item at the end thereof:

"660. Transportation to and from certain places of employment.".

An Act

Oct. 3, 1980
[H.R. 7478]

To facilitate the management of the public debt by permitting an increase in the investment yield on United States savings bonds above the existing 7 per centum ceiling, and by increasing the amount of the bonds paying interest in excess of 4¼ per centum which may be outstanding.

U.S. savings bonds, interest rate increase.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, with respect to interest accrual periods beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act, paragraph (3) of section 22(b) of the Second Liberty Bond Act (31 U.S.C. 757c) is amended to read as follows:

"(3) The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, may fix the investment yield on any United States savings bond at a yield which is above the 5½ per centum limitation contained in paragraph (1). The aggregate of the increases in investment yield which may take effect during any 6-month period pursuant to the preceding sentence for any United States savings bonds may not exceed 1 per centum per annum compounded semiannually."

Sec. 2. (a) Effective on the date of the enactment of this Act, the last sentence of the second paragraph of the first section of the Second Liberty Bond Act (31 U.S.C. 752) is amended by striking out "$50,000,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$54,000,000,000".

(b) Effective on October 1, 1980, the last sentence of the second paragraph of the first section of such Act is amended by striking out "$54,000,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$70,000,000,000".

96th Congress

An Act

To amend certain inspection and manning laws applicable to small vessels carrying passengers or freight for hire, and for other purposes.

Oct. 6, 1980
[H.R. 5164]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) section 4426 of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 404), is amended so that the first portion of the section, commencing with the words "4426. The hulls and boilers of every ferryboat," and ending with the words "after December 31, 1953: Provided further," reads as follows:

Small vessels, inspection and manning.

"Sec. 4426. The hulls and boilers of every ferryboat, canal boat, yacht, or other small craft of like character propelled by steam, shall be inspected under the provisions of this title. All mechanically propelled vessels of one hundred gross tons or over, except those vessels propelled by machinery other than steam and engaged in fishing as a regular business, which carry freight or passengers for hire shall likewise be inspected under the provisions of this title. The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall issue regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section for the inspection of hulls, machinery, and equipment; for the manning of these vessels; and for the duties and qualifications of the personnel thereof. Other applicable provisions of law and the regulations issued hereunder shall be complied with before a certificate of inspection may be issued: Provided, That no such vessel of three hundred gross tons or over may be navigated without a licensed engineer and a licensed deck officer: Provided further, That, for any violation of the provisions of this title or of the regulations issued thereunder, these vessels, their masters, officers, and owners shall be subject to the provisions of sections 4496, 4497, 4498, 4499, and 4500 of this title, relating to the imposition of penalties and the enforcement of law: Provided further,".

Regulations.

(b) Title 52 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding the following new section after section 4426:

"Sec. 4426a. (1) An offshore supply vessel is a vessel that—

Offshore supply vessel.
46 USC 404-1.

"(i) is propelled by machinery other than steam,

"(ii) is not within the description of passenger carrying vessels in section 1 of the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390),

"(iii) is of more than fifteen and less than five hundred gross tons, and

"(iv) regularly carries goods, supplies, or equipment in support of exploration, exploitation, or production of offshore mineral or energy resources.

"(2) An existing offshore supply vessel is one that was operating as such on or before January 1, 1979, or that, if not in service of any kind on or before that date, was contracted for on or before that date and entered service as such before the effective date of this section.

Existing offshore supply vessel.

"(3) A new offshore supply vessel is one that is not an existing offshore supply vessel.

New offshore supply vessel.

46 USC 391; ante, p. 1513.

"Passenger."

"(4) In the application of section 4417 or 4426 of this title or the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390–390g), to an offshore supply vessel, the term 'passenger' means any person carried on board the vessel other than—

"(i) the owner;

"(ii) a representative of the owner;

"(iii) the master;

"(iv) a bona fide member of the crew engaged in the business of the vessel who has contributed no consideration for carriage on board and is paid for services on board;

"(v) an employee of the owner, or of a subcontractor to the owner, employed in the business of the owner;

"(vi) a charterer of the vessel;

"(vii) a person with the same relationship to a charterer as a person in (ii) or (v) above has to an owner;

"(viii) a person employed in some phase of exploration, exploitation, or production of offshore mineral or energy resources served by the vessel; or

"(ix) a bona fide guest who has contributed no consideration for carriage on board.

"Freight for hire." "Freight carrying vessel."

"(5) The terms 'freight for hire' in section 4426 of this title and 'freight carrying vessel' in the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390–390g), have no application to an offshore supply vessel.

New offshore supply vessel, inspection.

"(6) Each new offshore supply vessel is subject to inspection as follows:

"(i) a vessel of above fifteen and less than one hundred gross tons is subject to inspection to the same extent as a freight carrying vessel as defined in the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390–390g).

"(ii) a vessel of one hundred gross tons and less than five hundred gross tons is subject to inspection under this title to the same extent as a vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam.

In issuing regulations for the inspection of these vessels, the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall take into consideration the characteristics of these vessels, their method of operations, and the service in which they are engaged.

Existing offshore supply vessel, inspection.

"(7) Each existing offshore supply vessel is likewise subject to inspection under this title or under the Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390–390g), as applicable. Such a vessel, however, shall not be subject to rules, regulations, or standards for major structural or major equipment requirements unless compliance therewith is necessary in order to remove an especially hazardous condition. Each existing offshore supply vessel that does not possess a valid certificate of inspection issued by the Secretary shall be registered by its owner with the Secretary within three months of the date of enactment of this section. The Secretary shall cause the initial inspection of each such vessel to be made within two years of its registration date. Upon registration each existing offshore supply vessel shall be held to be in compliance with all applicable vessel inspection laws pending verification by actual inspection. The Secretary shall establish a reasonable time schedule to bring vessels subject to this subsection into compliance with applicable requirements. For the interim period, between registration and initial inspection, the Secretary shall prescribe a manning level for each such vessel in accordance with applicable law. On or after January 1, 1989, each existing offshore supply vessel that is twenty years or older shall be subject to inspection under subsection (6) of this section.

Manning level.

"(8) No offshore supply vessel may be navigated without a licensed deck officer and, if over two hundred gross tons, without a licensed engineer.

"(9) No offshore supply vessel operating on January 1, 1979, under a certificate of inspection issued by the Secretary shall be subjected to any higher standards or new inspection requirements as a result of the enactment of this section.

"(10) No offshore supply vessel may carry passengers except in an emergency. An offshore supply vessel that takes aboard one or more passengers in an emergency does not alter its character as an offshore supply vessel under this section.".

SEC. 2. Section 4438 of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 224), is amended to read as follows:

Officers, licensing and classification.

"SEC. 4438. The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall license and classify the masters, chief mates, and second and third mates, engineers and pilots of all vessels subject to the vessel inspection or manning laws of the United States. In classifying licensed officers under this section, the Secretary shall, where possible, establish suitable career patterns, and service and other qualifying requirements, appropriate to the particular service or industry in which the officers are engaged. It shall be unlawful to employ any person or for any person to serve as a master, mate, engineer, or pilot of any such vessel, when required to be licensed by the laws of the United States, or the regulations issued in implementation thereof, who is not licensed by the Secretary. Anyone violating this section is liable to a civil penalty of not more than $500 for each offense. Each day of a continuing violation shall constitute a separate offense.".

Violation; penalty.

SEC. 3. The Act of May 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 151), as amended (46 U.S.C. 390–390g), is amended as follows:

46 USC 390.

(1) Section 1(a) is amended by striking the words "passenger-carrying".

(2) Section 1(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Passenger-carrying vessel."

"(b) The term 'passenger-carrying vessel' means any vessel which carries more than six passengers, and which is (1) propelled in whole or in part by steam or by any form of mechanical or electrical power and is of less than one hundred gross tons; (2) propelled by sail and is of seven hundred gross tons or less; or (3) non-self-propelled and is of one hundred gross tons or less; except any public vessel of the United States or of any foreign state, or any lifeboat forming part of a vessel's lifesaving equipment. The term includes (1) a domestic vessel operating on the navigable waters of the United States, or on the high seas outside of those waters and within the normal operating range of the vessel, and (2) a foreign vessel departing from a port of the United States.".

(3) Section 1 is amended by adding a new subsection as follows:

"Freight-carrying vessel."

"(e) The term 'freight-carrying vessel' means a vessel which carries freight for hire, is propelled by machinery, and is above fifteen gross tons and less than one hundred gross tons. The term does not include (1) vessels propelled by machinery other than steam and engaged in fishing as a regular business, or (2) vessels of foreign registry.".

46 USC 390a.

(4) Section 2(a) is amended by striking the words "passenger-carrying vessel," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "passenger-carrying vessel and each freight-carrying vessel,".

46 USC 390b.

(5) Section 3 is amended by striking the words "passenger-carrying vessels" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "passenger-carrying vessels and freight-carrying vessels".

46 USC 390c, 390d.

(6) Sections 4 and 5 are amended by striking in four places the words "passenger-carrying vessel" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "passenger-carrying vessel or freight-carrying vessel".

SEC. 4. Section 13 of the Act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. 1169), as amended (46 U.S.C. 672), is amended to read as follows:

One-hundred-gross-ton vessels, exemptions.

"SEC. 13. (a) All vessels of one hundred gross tons or over shall meet the requirements of this section and the regulations issued hereunder by the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating, hereinafter referred to as 'Secretary', except—

"(1) vessels navigating exclusively on the rivers and smaller inland lakes of the United States; and

"(2) non-self-propelled vessels, other than barges subject to section 10 of the Act of May 28, 1908 (35 Stat. 428), as amended (46 U.S.C. 395), or section 4417(a) of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 391a).

Able seaman, eligibility requirements.

"(b) Every person may be rated an able seaman and qualified to serve as such who is eighteen years of age or older; meets the regulatory requirements with respect to sight, hearing, and physical condition; meets the applicable professional knowledge examination or educational requirements; and meets the following applicable service requirements:

Definitions.

"(1) 'Able seaman' qualified for unlimited service on any vessel and on any waters shall have at least three years' service on deck on vessels operating on the oceans or the Great Lakes.

"(2) 'Able seaman-limited' qualified for limited service on any vessel on any waters shall have at least eighteen months' service on deck on vessels subject to this section operating on the oceans or the navigable waters of the United States including the Great Lakes.

"(3) 'Able seaman-special' qualified for special service on any vessel on any waters shall have at least twelve months' service on deck on vessels operating on the oceans or the navigable waters of the United States including the Great Lakes. For service on a vessel of less than five hundred gross tons engaged in support of exploration, exploitation, or production of offshore mineral or energy resources, a person may be rated as able seaman-special who has at least six months' service on deck on vessels operating on the oceans or the navigable waters of the United States including the Great Lakes.

"(c) 'Service on deck' means service in the deck department in work related to the work usually performed aboard vessels by able seamen and may include service on decked fishing vessels and on public vessels of the United States. Three hundred and sixty days shall be equal to one year's service, and a day shall be equal to eight hours of labor or duty. A graduate of a school ship approved by the Secretary may be rated as able seaman upon satisfactory completion of the course of instruction. The satisfactory completion of other relevant training programs approved by the Secretary may be substituted for not more than one-third of the required service on deck in accordance with applicable regulations. These regulations may not allow substitution for time spent in these training programs for the required service on deck in a ratio greater than three to one.

"(d) No person below the rating of able seaman shall be permitted at the wheel in ports, harbors, and other waters subject to congested vessel traffic; or under conditions of reduced visibility, adverse weather, or other hazardous circumstances.

Compliance.

"(e) No vessel subject to this section may depart from any port of the United States unless the following provisions are complied with:

"(1) Not less than 75 per centum of the crew in each department are able to understand any order given by the officers of the vessel.

"(2) At least 65 per centum of the deck crew, exclusive of licensed officers, are of a rating not less than able seaman. This percentage may be reduced to 50 per centum on vessels that are permitted by the Act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. 1164), as amended (46 U.S.C. 673), to maintain a two watch system. Able seamen shall not be required on tugs and towboats operating on the bays and sounds connected directly with the ocean.

Able seaman, employment.

"(f) Employment of persons rated as able seaman under subsection (b) of this section shall be in accordance with the following scale:

"(1) Persons qualified as able seaman may constitute the entire complement of able seamen required on any vessel.

"(2) Persons qualified as able seaman-limited may constitute the entire complement of able seamen required on a vessel of less than one thousand six hundred gross tons or on a vessel operating on the Great Lakes and the Saint Lawrence River as far east as Sept Iles; persons qualified as able seaman-limited may constitute up to 50 per centum of the complement of able seamen required aboard other vessels.

"(3) Persons qualified as able seaman-special may constitute the entire complement of able seamen required on a vessel of five hundred gross tons or less, or on a seagoing barge, tug, or towboat and may constitute up to 50 per centum of the complement of able seamen required aboard other vessels.

"(4) In no case in which the service of able seaman-limited or able seaman-special is authorized for only a part of the required complement of able seamen aboard a vessel may the combined percentage of persons so qualified be greater than 50 per centum of the required complement.

Certificate of service.

"(g) No vessel may be navigated unless all of the complement in her engine department above the rating of coal passer or wiper and below licensed officer shall be the holders of a certificate of service, attesting to proficiency as a qualified member of the engine department. An applicant for this rating shall have six months' service at sea in a rating at least equal to that of coal passer or wiper. A graduate of a school ship approved by the Secretary may be rated as a qualified member of the engine department upon satisfactory completion of the course of instruction. The satisfactory completion of other courses of instruction approved by the Secretary may be substituted for not more than one-half of the required service at sea in accordance with applicable regulations.

"(h) It is unlawful to employ any person, or for any person to serve aboard a vessel to which this section applies, other than a licensed officer, if that person does not have a certificate of service attesting to proficiency issued by the Secretary.

Regulations.

"(i) The Secretary shall issue regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. These regulations shall, among other things, establish procedures for the processing, verification, examination, and retention of records and affidavits related to the issuance of certificates of service attesting to proficiency.

Violation; penalty.

"(j) Every master, person in charge, owner, or operator who violates a provision of this section or of the regulations issued hereunder, and every vessel that is navigated in violation of this section or of the regulations issued hereunder is equally and severally liable to a civil penalty of not more than $500 for each offense.".

46 USC 660b, 643a.

Sec. 5. The provisions of section 4 of the Act of June 25, 1936 (49 Stat. 1935), as amended (46 U.S.C. 660a), with respect to crew quarters; and section 4551 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (46 U.S.C. 643), shall not apply to non-self-propelled vessels, other than barges subject to section 10 of the Act of May 28, 1908 (35 Stat. 428), as amended (46 U.S.C. 395), or section 4417(a) of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 391a).

Ante, p. 1513.

Sec. 6. Section 2 of the Act of May 11, 1918 (40 Stat. 549; 46 U.S.C. 223), is further amended: (1) by adding immediately before the last clause, the following: "That an offshore supply vessel, as defined in section 4426a of the Revised Statutes shall, when on a voyage of less than six hundred miles, have on board and in her service one licensed mate, but if any such vessel is engaged on a voyage of six hundred miles or more, then such vessel shall have two licensed mates."; and (2) by striking in the last clause the reference "the Act of June Ninth, Nineteen Hundred and Ten," and inserting in lieu thereof "the Act of April 25, 1940, c. 155, 54 Stat. 163,".

46 USC 526–526u.

Sec. 7. Section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. 1164), as amended (46 U.S.C. 673), is amended by deleting from the last proviso the words "tugs and barges" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "tugs, barges, and offshore supply vessels as defined in section 4426a of the Revised Statutes,".

Sec. 8. Section 4399 of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 361), is amended to read as follows:

Steam vessel.

"Sec. 4399. Every vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam and every vessel subject to inspection propelled by machinery other than steam is a steam vessel within the meaning of this title.".

"Motorboat."
46 USC 526.

Sec. 9. Section 1 of the Act of April 25, 1940 (54 Stat. 163; 46 U.S.C. 526–526t), is amended to read as follows: "That the word 'motorboat' where used in this Act includes every vessel propelled by machinery and not more than sixty-five feet in length except tugboats and towboats propelled by steam. The length shall be measured from end to end over the deck, excluding sheer.".

Temporary license or certificate of service.
46 USC 224 note.

Sec. 10. The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating may, for a period of two years after the effective date of this Act, issue a temporary license as master, mate, or engineer, or certificate of service as able seaman or qualified member of the engine department to any person who on or before January 1, 1979, was serving in such a capacity on board an offshore supply vessel as defined in section 4426a of the Revised Statutes. This license or certificate may be for a term no longer than three years. It may not be renewed, nor may more than one such license or certificate be issued to any person, except for replacements occasioned by loss of a license or certificate. A person holding such a license or certificate may not serve under it on any vessel other than an offshore supply vessel. To qualify for a temporary license or certificate the person must apply to the Secretary within three months of the date of enactment of this Act. The Secretary shall acknowledge receipt of that application and advise the person of those positions in which he may serve pending issuance of a temporary license or certificate. Upon receipt of that acknowledgement the person shall be deemed to be in compliance with the appropriate statutes dealing with licensing or certification of merchant marine personnel pending issuance of the temporary license or certificate. Before issuing such a license or certificate, the Secretary shall satisfy himself that the applicant has sufficient qualifications and experience as to warrant the belief that the applicant's continued service in the position for which he is being licensed or certificated will be consistent with the safety of the vessel.

Any temporary license, certificate, or acknowledgement of application issued under this subsection is subject to suspension and revocation on the same grounds and with like procedure as provided in section 4450 of the Revised Statutes. 46 USC 239.

SEC. 11. The following laws are repealed, except with respect to rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were begun before the date of enactment of this Act: Repeals.

(a) the Acts of July 8, 1941, chapters 279 and 280 (55 Stat. 579), (46 U.S.C. 672-2 and 672-1, respectively);

(b) the Act of September 25, 1941 (55 Stat. 732; 46 U.S.C. 672b-1);

An Act

To establish a Towing Safety Advisory Committee in the Department of Transportation.

Oct. 6, 1980

Towing Safety Advisory Committee, establishment. 33 USC 1231a. Membership.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) there is established a Towing Safety Advisory Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee"). The Committee shall consist of sixteen members with particular expertise, knowledge, and experience regarding shallow-draft inland and coastal waterway navigation and towing safety as follows:

(1) seven members from the barge and towing industry, reflecting a regional geographic balance;

(2) one member from the offshore mineral and oil supply vessel industry; and

(3) two members from each of the following—

(A) port districts, authorities, or terminal operators;

(B) maritime labor;

(C) shippers (of whom at least one shall be engaged in the shipment of oil or hazardous materials by barge); and

(D) the general public.

Appointments.

(b) The Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall appoint the members of the Committee. The Secretary shall designate one of the members of the Committee as the Chairman and one of the members as the Vice Chairman. The Vice Chairman shall act as Chairman in the absence or incapacity of, or in the event of a vacancy in the office of, the Chairman. The Secretary may request the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of Commerce to each designate a representative to participate as an observer on the Committee.

Functions.

Meetings.

Public proceedings and record.

(c) The Committee shall advise, consult with, and make recommendations to the Secretary on matters relating to shallow-draft inland and coastal waterway navigation and towing safety. Any advice or recommendation made by the Committee to the Secretary shall reflect the independent judgment of the Committee on the matter concerned. The Secretary shall consult with the Committee before taking any significant action affecting shallow-draft inland and coastal waterway navigation and towing safety. The Committee shall meet at the call of the Secretary, but in any event not less than once during each calendar year. All proceedings of the Committee shall be open to the public, and a record of the proceedings shall be made available for public inspection.

Administrative services.

(d) The Secretary shall furnish to the Committee an executive secretary and such secretarial, clerical, and other services as are considered necessary for the conduct of its business. 38 USC 1810.

SEC. 401. (a) Section 1810 is amended—

(1) by inserting after clause (7) of subsection (a) the following new clause:

"(8) To refinance in accordance with subsection (e) of this section an existing loan guaranteed, insured, or made under this chapter."; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

"(e)(1) For a loan to be guaranteed for the purpose specified in subsection (a)(8) of this section—

"(A) the interest rate of the loan must be less than the interest rate of the loan being refinanced;

"(B) the loan must be secured by the same dwelling or farm residence as was the loan being refinanced and such dwelling or residence must be owned and occupied by the veteran as such veteran's home;

"(C) the amount of the loan may not exceed an amount equal to the sum of the balance of the loan being refinanced and such closing costs (including any discount permitted pursuant to section 1803(c)(3)(A) of this title) as may be authorized by the Administrator, under regulations which the Administrator shall prescribe, to be included in such loan;

38 USC 1803.

"(D) the amount of the guaranty of the loan may not exceed the original guaranty amount of the loan being refinanced; and

"(E) the term of the loan may not exceed the original term of the loan being refinanced.

Loan guarantee.

"(2) A loan to a veteran may be guaranteed by the Veterans' Administration under this chapter for the purpose specified in clause (8) of subsection (a) of this section without regard to the amount of outstanding guaranty entitlement available for use by such veteran, and the amount of such veteran's guaranty entitlement shall not be charged as a result of any guaranty provided for such purpose. For purposes of section 1802(b) of this title, such loan shall be deemed to have been obtained with the guaranty entitlement used to obtain the loan being refinanced.

38 USC 1802.

Surviving spouse.

"(3) If a veteran is deceased and if such veteran's surviving spouse was a co-obligor under an existing loan guaranteed, insured, or made under this chapter, such surviving spouse shall, only for the purpose specified in subsection (a)(8) of this section, be deemed to be a veteran eligible for benefits under this chapter.".

38 USC 1819.

(b) Section 1819(a) is amended—

(1) by adding at the end of paragraph (1) the following new clause:

"(F) To refinance in accordance with paragraph (4) of this subsection an existing loan guaranteed, insured, or made under this section."; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

"(4)(A) For a loan to be guaranteed for the purpose specified in clause (F) of paragraph (1) of this subsection—

"(i) the interest rate of the loan must be less than the interest rate of the loan being refinanced;

"(ii) the loan must be secured by the same mobile home or mobile-home lot, or mobile home and mobile-home lot, as was the loan being refinanced and such mobile home (or a mobile home on such lot) must be owned and occupied by the veteran as such veteran's home;

"(iii) the amount of the loan may not exceed an amount equal to the sum of the balance of the loan being refinanced and such closing costs (including any discount permitted pursuant to section 1803(c)(3)(A) of this title) as may be authorized by the Administrator, under regulations which the Administrator shall prescribe, to be included in such loan; 38 USC 1803.

"(iv) the amount of the guaranty of the loan may not exceed the original guaranty amount of the loan being refinanced; and

"(v) the term of the loan may not exceed the original term of the loan being refinanced.

"(B) A loan to a veteran may be guaranteed by the Veterans' Administration under this chapter for the purpose specified in clause (F) of paragraph (1) of this subsection without regard to the amount of outstanding guaranty entitlement available for use by such veteran, and the amount of such veteran's guaranty entitlement shall not be charged as a result of any guaranty provided for such purpose. For purposes of section 1802(b) of this title, such loan shall be deemed to have been obtained with the guaranty entitlement used to obtain the loan being refinanced. Loan guarantee. 38 USC 1802.

"(C) If a veteran is deceased and if such veteran's surviving spouse was a co-obligor under an existing loan previously guaranteed, insured, or made under this section, such surviving spouse shall, only for the purpose specified in clause (F) of paragraph (1) of this subsection, be deemed to be a veteran eligible for benefits under this chapter.". Surviving spouse.

(c)(1) Section 1803(c)(3)(A) is amended by striking out "section 1810(a)(5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "clause (5) or (8) of section 1810(a) of this title or section 1819(a)(1)(F) of this title". 38 USC 1803. Ante, p. 1532.

(2) The second sentence of section 1811(b) is amended by inserting "(other than the refinancing of a loan under section 1810(a)(8) or 1819(a)(1)(F))" after "section 1810(a) or 1819 of this title". 38 USC 1811.

SEC. 504. (a) Chapter 53 is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

38 USC 3113.

"§ 3113. Limitation on payment of compensation and dependency and indemnity compensation to persons incarcerated for conviction of a felony

"(a)(1) To the extent provided in subsection (d) of this section, any person who is entitled to compensation or to dependency and indemnity compensation and who is incarcerated in a Federal, State, or local penal institution for a period in excess of sixty days for conviction of a felony shall not be paid such compensation or dependency and indemnity compensation, for the period beginning on the sixty-first day of such incarceration and ending on the day such incarceration ends, in an amount that exceeds—

38 USC 314.

"(A) in the case of a veteran with a service-connected disability rated at 20 percent or more, the rate of compensation payable under section 314(a) of this title; or

"(B) in the case of a veteran with a service-connected disability not rated at 20 percent or more or in the case of a surviving spouse, parent, or child, one-half of the rate of compensation payable under section 314(a) of this title.

"(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this section shall not apply with respect to any period during which a person is participating in a work-release program or is residing in a halfway house.

38 USC 3107.

"(b)(1) All or any part of the compensation not paid to a veteran by reason of subsection (a) of this section may, as appropriate in an individual case, be apportioned under the same terms and conditions as are provided under section 3107 of this title.

"(2) All or any part of the dependency and indemnity compensation not paid to a surviving spouse or child by reason of subsection (a) of this section may, as appropriate in an individual case, be apportioned as follows:

"(A) In the case of dependency and indemnity compensation not paid to a surviving spouse, any apportionment shall be to the surviving child or children.

"(B) In the case of dependency and indemnity compensation not paid to a surviving child, any apportionment shall be to the surviving spouse or other surviving children, as applicable.

"(3) No apportionment may be made under this subsection to or on behalf of any person who is incarcerated in a Federal, State, or local penal institution for conviction of a felony.

"(c) The Administrator shall not assign to any veteran a rating of total disability based on the individual unemployability of the veteran resulting from a service-connected disability during any period during which the veteran is incarcerated in a Federal, State, or local penal institution for conviction of a felony.

"(d) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall apply (1) with respect to any period of incarceration of a person for conviction of a felony committed after the date of the enactment of this section, and (2) with respect to any period of incarceration on or after October 1, 1980, for conviction of a felony of a person who on October 1, 1980, is incarcerated for conviction of such felony and with respect to whom the action granting an award of compensation or dependency and indemnity compensation is taken on or after such date.

"(e) For purposes of this section—

"(1) The term 'compensation' includes disability compensation payable under section 351 of this title.

"Compensation."
38 USC 351.

"(2) The term 'dependency and indemnity compensation' means death compensation payable under section 321 or 341 of this title, death compensation and dependency and indemnity compensation payable under section 351 of this title, and any benefit payable under chapter 13 of this title.".

"Dependency and indemnity compensation."
38 USC 321, 341.
38 USC 351.
38 USC 401 et seq.

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

"3113. Limitation on payment of compensation and dependency and indemnity compensation to persons incarcerated for conviction of a felony.".

CONFIDENTIALITY OF MEDICAL QUALITY-ASSURANCE RECORDS

Sec. 505. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 57 is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"§ 3305. Confidentiality of medical quality-assurance records

38 USC 3305.

"(a) Records and documents created by the Veterans' Administration as part of a medical quality-assurance program are confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed to any person or entity except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

"(b)(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, a record or document described in subsection (a) of this section shall, upon request, be disclosed as follows:

"(A) To a Federal agency or private organization, if such record or document is needed by such agency or organization to perform licensing or accreditation functions related to Veterans' Administration health-care facilities or to perform monitoring, required by statute, of Veterans' Administration health-care facilities.

"(B) To a Federal executive agency or provider of health-care services, if such record or document is required by such agency or provider for participation by the Veterans' Administration in a health-care program with such agency or provider.

"(C) To a criminal or civil law enforcement governmental agency or instrumentality charged under applicable law with the protection of the public health or safety, if a qualified representative of such agency or instrumentality makes a written request that such record or document be provided for a purpose authorized by law.

"(D) To health-care personnel, to the extent necessary to meet a medical emergency affecting the health or safety of any individual.

"(2) The name of and other identifying information regarding any individual Veterans' Administration patient or employee, or any other individual associated with the Veterans' Administration for purposes of a medical quality-assurance program, contained in a record or document described in subsection (a) of this section shall be deleted from any record or document before any disclosure made under this subsection if disclosure of such name and identifying information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

"(3) No person or entity to whom a record or document has been disclosed under this subsection shall make further disclosure of such record or document except for a purpose provided in this subsection.

Withholding record from congressional committees.

"(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authority to withhold any record or document from a committee of either House of Congress or any joint committee of Congress, if such record or document pertains to any matter within the jurisdiction of such committee or joint committee.

"(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the use of records and documents described in subsection (a) of this section within the Veterans' Administration (including contractors and consultants of the Veterans' Administration).

"Medical quality-assurance program."

"(c) For the purpose of this section, the term 'medical quality-assurance program' means—

"(1) with respect to any activity carried out before the date of the enactment of this section, a Veterans' Administration systematic health-care review activity carried out by or for the Veterans' Administration for the purpose of improving the quality of medical care or improving the utilization of health-care resources in Veterans' Administration health-care facilities; and

"(2) with respect to any activity carried out on or after the date of the enactment of this section, a Veterans' Administration systematic health-care review activity designated by the Administrator to be carried out by or for the Veterans' Administration for either such purpose.

Regulations.

"(d)(1) Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this section, the Administrator shall prescribe regulations to carry out this section. In prescribing such regulations, the Administrator shall specify those activities carried out before such enactment date which the Administrator determines meet the definition of medical quality-assurance program in subsection (c)(1) of this section and those activities which the Administrator has designated under subsection (c)(2) of this section. The Administrator shall, to the extent appropriate, incorporate into such regulations the provisions of the existing administrative guidelines and procedures governing such programs.

"(2) After the date on which such regulations are first prescribed, no activity shall be considered as having been designated as a medical quality-assurance program for the purposes of subsection (c)(2) of this section unless the designation has been specified in such regulations.

Penalty.

"(e) Any person who, knowing that a document or record is a document or record described in subsection (a) of this section, willfully discloses such record or document except as provided for in subsection (b) of this section shall be fined not more than $5,000 in the case of a first offense and not more than $20,000 in the case of a subsequent offense.".

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 3304 the following new item:

"3305. Confidentiality of medical quality-assurance records.".

MINIMUM NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES OF AMERICAN BATTLE MONUMENTS COMMISSION

SEC. 506. The third paragraph of the first section of the Act entitled "An Act for the creation of an American Battle Monuments Commission to erect suitable memorials commemorating the services of the American soldier in Europe, and for other purposes", approved March 4, 1923 (36 U.S.C. 121), is amended by inserting after the second sentence thereof the following new sentence: "To ensure adequate care and maintenance of the cemeteries, monuments, and memorials under the jurisdiction of the Commission, the Commission, subject to the availability of appropriations, shall employ (1) not less than 50 personnel in the competitive service (as defined in section 2102 of title 5, United States Code), of whom not less than 43 shall be assigned to duty in foreign countries in which such cemeteries, monuments, and memorials are located, and (2) not less than 348 individuals who are citizens of the countries in which such cemeteries, monuments, and memorials are located, who shall be hired for local employment relating to the care and maintenance of such cemeteries, monuments, and memorials.".

LAND TRANSFER, CHEYENNE, WYOMING

SEC. 507. (a) Subject to subsection (b), the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is authorized to execute such instruments as may be necessary to permit the city of Cheyenne, Wyoming, to use for public roadway purposes a tract of land consisting of four acres, more or less, which is a portion of a larger tract of land previously conveyed by the United States to such city under the authority of the Act entitled "An Act authorizing the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to convey certain property to the city of Cheyenne, Wyoming", approved November 8, 1965 (Public Law 89-345; 79 Stat. 1304), for use by such city for park and recreational purposes only.

(b) Any instrument executed by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs under this section shall—

(1) provide that the four-acre tract of land referred to in subsection (a) may be used only for park and recreational purposes or for public roadway purposes, or both, and only in a manner that will not, in the judgment of the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, interfere in any manner with the care and treatment of patients in the Veterans' Administration Center, Cheyenne, Wyoming;

(2) contain such additional terms, conditions, and restrictions as may be determined by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to be necessary to protect the interest of the United States; and

(3) provide that, if the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs determines that the city of Cheyenne has violated any provision of any such instrument, title to the tract of land conveyed under the authority of such Act shall revert to the United States as provided in the deed of conveyance executed pursuant to such Act.

Survey.

(c) The legal description of the four-acre tract of land referred to in subsection (a) shall be determined by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. If a survey is required in order to make such determination, the city of Cheyenne shall bear the expenses of the survey.

TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS TO PUBLIC LAW 96-330

Ante, p. 1036.

Sec. 508. (a) Section 4107(c)(3) is amended by striking out "section 4507" and inserting in lieu thereof "sections 4507 and 5384".

Ante, p. 1039.

(b) Section 4109(b) is amended—

(1) by inserting "after August 25, 1980," after "any period of service"; and

(2) by inserting "after such date" after "such service".

Public Law 96-386
96th Congress

An Act

To provide for an accelerated program of research and development of magnetic fusion energy technologies leading to the construction and successful operation of a magnetic fusion demonstration plant in the United States before the end of the twentieth century to be carried out by the Department of Energy.

Oct. 7, 1980
[H.R. 6308]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Magnetic Fusion Energy Engineering Act of 1980".

Magnetic Fusion Energy Engineering Act of 1980.
42 USC 9301 note.
42 USC 9301.

FINDINGS AND POLICY

SEC. 2. (a) The Congress hereby finds that—

(1) the United States must formulate an energy policy designed to meet an impending worldwide shortage of many exhaustible, conventional energy resources in the next few decades;

(2) the energy policy of the United States must be designed to ensure that energy technologies using essentially inexhaustible resources are commercially available at a time prior to serious depletion of conventional resources;

(3) fusion energy is one of the few known energy sources which are essentially inexhaustible, and thus constitutes a long-term energy option;

(4) major progress in all aspects of magnetic fusion energy technology during the past decade instills confidence that power production from fusion energy systems is achievable;

(5) the United States must aggressively pursue research and development programs in magnetic fusion designed to foster advanced concepts and advanced technology and to develop efficient, reliable components and subsystems;

(6) to ensure the timely commercialization of magnetic fusion energy systems, the United States must demonstrate at an early date the engineering feasibility of magnetic fusion energy systems;

(7) progress in magnetic fusion energy systems is currently limited by the funds made available rather than technical barriers;

(8) it is a proper role for the Federal Government to accelerate research, development, and demonstration programs in magnetic fusion energy technologies; and

(9) acceleration of the current magnetic fusion program will require a doubling within seven years of the present funding level without consideration of inflation and a 25 per centum increase in funding each of fiscal years 1982 and 1983.

(b) It is therefore declared to be the policy of the United States and the purpose of this Act to accelerate the national effort in research, development, and demonstration activities related to magnetic fusion energy systems. Further, it is declared to be the policy of the United States and the purpose of this Act that the objectives of such program shall be—

(1) to promote an orderly transition from the current research and development program through commercial development;

(2) to establish a national goal of demonstrating the engineering feasibility of magnetic fusion by the early 1990's;

(3) to achieve at the earliest practicable time, but not later than the year 1990, operation of a magnetic fusion engineering device based on the best available confinement concept;

(4) to establish as a national goal the operation of a magnetic fusion demonstration plant at the turn of the twenty-first century;

(5) to foster cooperation in magnetic fusion research and development among government, universities, industry, and national laboratories;

(6) to promote the broad participation of domestic industry in the national magnetic fusion program;

(7) to continue international cooperation in magnetic fusion research for the benefit of all nations;

(8) to promote greater public understanding of magnetic fusion; and

(9) to maintain the United States as the world leader in magnetic fusion.

DEFINITIONS

42 USC 9302.

SEC. 3. For the purposes of this Act—

(1) "fusion" means a process whereby two light nuclei, such as deuterium and tritium, collide at high velocity, forming a compound nucleus, which subsequently separates into constituents which are different from the original colliding nuclei, and which carry away the accompanying energy release;

(2) "magnetic fusion" means the use of magnetic fields to confine a very hot, fully ionized gas of light nuclei, so that the fusion process can occur;

(3) "energy system" means a facility designed to utilize energy released in the magnetic fusion process for the generation of electricity and the production of hydrogen or other fuels;

(4) "fusion engineering device" means a magnetic fusion facility which achieves at least a burning plasma and serves to test components for engineering purposes;

(5) "demonstration plant" means a prototype energy system which is of sufficient size to provide safety, environmental reliability, availability, and ready engineering extrapolation of all components to commercial size but which system need not be economically competitive with then alternative energy sources; and

(6) "Secretary" means Secretary of Energy.

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

42 USC 9303.

SEC. 4. (a) The Secretary shall initiate activities or accelerate existing activities in research areas in which the lack of knowledge limits magnetic fusion energy systems in order to ensure the achievement of the purposes of this Act.

Plasma confinement research.

(b)(1) The Secretary shall maintain an aggressive plasma confinement research program on the current lead concept to provide a full measure of support for the design, construction, and operation of the fusion engineering devices.

(2) The Secretary shall maintain a broadly based research program on alternate confinement concepts and on advanced fuels at a sufficient level of funding to achieve optimal design of each successive magnetic fusion facility using the then best available confinement and fuel concept.

(3) The Secretary shall ensure that research on properties of materials likely to be required for the construction of fusion engineering devices is adequate to provide timely information for the design of such devices.

Fusion engineering device designs.

(c)(1) The Secretary shall initiate design activities on a fusion engineering device using the best available confinement concept to ensure operation of such a device at the earliest practicable time, but not later than the year 1990.

(2) The Secretary shall develop and test the adequacy of the engineering design of components to be utilized in the fusion engineering device.

(d) The Secretary shall initiate at the earliest practical time each activity which he deems necessary to achieve the national goal for operation of a demonstration plant at the turn of the twenty-first century.

Magnetic fusion energy systems, assessment factors.

(e) The Secretary shall continue efforts to assess factors which will determine the commercial introduction of magnetic fusion energy systems including, but not limited to—

(1) projected costs relative to other alternative energy sources;

(2) projected growth rates in energy demand;

(3) safety-related design limitations;

(4) environmental impacts; and

(5) limitations on the availability of strategic elements, such as helium, lithium, and special metals.

COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM MANAGEMENT PLAN

42 USC 9304.

SEC. 5. (a) The Secretary shall prepare a comprehensive program management plan for the conduct of the research, development, and demonstration activities under this Act. Such plan shall include at a minimum—

(1) a presentation of the program strategy which will be used to achieve the purposes of this Act;

(2) a five-year program implementation schedule, including identification of detailed milestone goals, with associated budget and program resources requirements;

(3) risk assessments;

(4) supporting research and development needed to solve problems which may inhibit or limit development of magnetic fusion energy systems; and

(5) an analysis of institutional, environmental, and economic considerations which are limiting the national magnetic fusion program.

Submittal to congressional committees.

(b) The Secretary shall transmit the comprehensive program management plan to the Committee on Science and Technology of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate not later than January 1, 1982.

MAGNETIC FUSION ENGINEERING CENTER

42 USC 9305.

SEC. 6. (a) The Secretary shall develop a plan for the creation of a national magnetic fusion engineering center for the purpose of accelerating fusion technology development via the concentration and coordination of major magnetic fusion engineering devices and associated activities at such a national center.

Plan development, factors.

(b) In developing the plan, the Secretary shall include relevant factors including, but not limited to—

(1) means of saving cost and time through the establishment of the national center relative to the cost and schedule currently projected for the program;

(2) means of providing common facilities to be shared by many magnetic fusion concepts;

(3) assessment of the environmental and safety-related aspects of the national center;

(4) provisions for international cooperation in magnetic fusion activities at the national center;

(5) provision of access to facilities for the broader technical involvement of domestic industry and universities in the magnetic fusion energy program;

(6) siting criteria for the national center including a list of potential sites;

(7) the advisability of establishing such a center considering all factors, including the alternative means and associated costs of pursuing such technology; and

(8) changes in the management structure of the magnetic fusion program to allow more effective direction of activities related to the national center.

Report to congressional committees.

(c) The Secretary shall submit not later than July 1, 1981, a report to the House Committee on Science and Technology and the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources characterizing the plan and setting forth the steps necessary for implementation of the plan, including any steps already implemented.

TECHNICAL PANEL ON MAGNETIC FUSION

42 USC 9306.

SEC. 7. (a) A technical panel on magnetic fusion of the Energy Research Advisory Board shall be established to review the conduct of the national magnetic fusion energy program.

Membership.

(b)(1) The technical panel shall be comprised of such representatives from domestic industry, universities, government laboratories, and other scientific and technical organizations as the Chairman of the Energy Research Advisory Board deems appropriate based on his assessment of the technical qualifications of each such representative.

(2) Members of the technical panel need not be members of the full Energy Research Advisory Board.

(c) The activities of the technical panel shall be in compliance with any laws and regulations guiding the activities of technical and fact-finding groups reporting to the Energy Research Advisory Board.

Review.

(d) The technical panel shall review and may make recommendations on the following items, among others:

(1) the preparation of the five-year program plan prepared pursuant to section 5;

(2) the type of future facilities needed to meet the goals of this Act along with their projected completion dates;

(3) the adequacy of participation by universities and industry in the program;

(4) the adequacy of international cooperation in magnetic fusion and any problems associated therewith; and

(5) institutional, environmental, and economic factors limiting, or prospectively limiting, efforts to achieve commercial application of magnetic fusion energy systems.

(e) The technical board shall submit to the Energy Research Advisory Board on at least a triennial basis a written report of its findings and recommendations with regard to the magnetic fusion program.

Written report.

(f) After consideration of the technical panel report, the Energy Research Advisory Board shall submit such report, together with any comments such Board deems appropriate, to the Secretary.

Report to Secretary.

PROGRAM ADVISORY COMMITTEES

SEC. 8. The Secretary may direct the director of each laboratory or installation at which a major magnetic fusion facility is operated for, or funded primarily by, the Federal Government to establish, for the sole purpose of providing advice to such director, a program advisory committee composed of persons with expertise in magnetic fusion from such domestic industry, universities, government laboratories, and other scientific and technical organizations as such director deems appropriate.

42 USC 9307.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

SEC. 9. (a)(1) The Secretary in consultation with the Secretary of State shall actively seek to enter into or to strengthen existing international cooperative agreements in magnetic fusion research and development activities of mutual benefit to all parties.

42 USC 9308.

(2) The Secretary shall seek to achieve equitable exchange of information, data, scientific personnel, and other considerations in the conduct of cooperative efforts with technologically advanced nations.

(b)(1) The Secretary shall examine the potential impacts on the national magnetic fusion program of United States participation in an international effort to construct fusion engineering devices.

(2) The Secretary shall explore, to the extent feasible, the prospects for joint financial participation by other nations with the United States in the construction of a fusion engineering device.

Magnetic fusion, examination and exploration.

(3) Within two years of the enactment of this Act the Secretary shall transmit to the House Committee on Science and Technology and the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources the results of such examinations and explorations with his recommendations for construction of a national or international fusion engineering device: Provided, however, That such examinations and explorations shall not have the effect of delaying design activities related to a national fusion engineering device.

Results, transmittal to congressional committees.

TECHNICAL MANPOWER REQUIREMENTS

SEC. 10. (a) The Secretary shall assess the adequacy of the projected United States supply of manpower in the engineering and scientific disciplines required to achieve the purposes of this Act taking cognizance of the other demands likely to be placed on such manpower supply.

42 USC 9309.

(b) The Secretary shall within one year of the date of enactment of this Act submit a report to the President and to the Congress setting forth his assessment along with his recommendations regarding the need for increased support for education in such engineering and scientific disciplines.

INFORMATION DISSEMINATION

42 USC 9310.

SEC. 11. (a) The Secretary shall take all necessary steps to assure that technical information relevant to the status and progress of the national magnetic fusion program is made readily available to interested persons in domestic industry and universities in the United States: Provided, however, That upon a showing to the Secretary by any person that any information or portion thereof provided to the Secretary directly or indirectly from such person would, if made public, divulge (1) trade secrets or (2) other proprietary information of such person, the Secretary shall not disclose such information and disclosure thereof shall be punishable under section 1905 of title 18, United States Code.

(b) The Secretary shall maintain an aggressive program in the United States for the provision of public information and educational materials to promote widespread knowledge of magnetic fusion among educational, community, business, environmental, labor, and governmental entities and the public at large.

REPORTS

Submittal to Congress.
42 USC 9311.
42 USC 7321.

SEC. 12. As a separate part of the annual report submitted pursuant to section 801 of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), the Secretary shall submit to Congress an annual report of activities pursuant to this Act. Such report shall include—

(a) modifications to the comprehensive program management plan for implementing this Act;

(b) an evaluation of the status of national magnetic fusion energy program in the United States;

(c) a summary of the findings and recommendations of any report of the Energy Research Advisory Board on magnetic fusion;

(d) an analysis of the progress made in commercializing magnetic fusion technology; and

(e) suggestions for improvements in the national magnetic fusion program, including recommendations for legislation.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

42 USC 9312.

SEC. 13. (a) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, such sums as are provided in the annual authorization Act pursuant to section 660 of Public Law 95-91.

42 USC 7270.
Contracts.

(b) In carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Secretary is authorized to enter into contracts only to such extent or in such amounts as may be provided in advance in appropriations Acts.

Approved October 7, 1980.

Public Law 96-387
96th Congress

An Act

To authorize the documentation of certain vessels as vessels of the United States, and for other purposes.

Oct. 7, 1980
[S. 1442]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provisions of title 46 of the United States Code, particularly but not limited to section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), or any other provision of law, the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating, shall cause the vessels Sara (vessel numbered 530082), Aurelia Four, Alice (vessel numbered 289731), Albatross (vessel numbered 299537), Hillbilly I, and Kailua (registration numbered AK-7716-B) to be documented as vessels of the United States, with the privileges of engaging in coastwise trade so long as each such vessel being so documented is owned by a citizen of the United States.

Vessels, coastwise trade documentation. Merchant Marine Act, 1936, amendment.

SEC. 2. The vessel Sara which was constructed in a country other than the United States, is, pursuant to section 1, granted the privilege of engaging in coastwise trade only so long as the vessel is owned by a citizen of the United States and is operated for a nonprofit purpose.

SEC. 3. Section 502 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, is amended by adding at the end of subsection (g) thereof two new subsections to read as follows:

46 USC 1152.

"(h) The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to construct, purchase, lease, acquire, store, maintain, sell, or otherwise dispose of national defense features intended for installation on vessels. The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to install or remove such national defense features on any vessel (1) which is in the National Defense Reserve Fleet as defined by section 11(a) of the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, (2) which is requisitioned, purchased, or chartered under section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, (3) which serves as security for the guarantee of an obligation by the Secretary of Commerce under title XI of this Act, or (4) which is the subject of an agreement between the owner of such vessel and the Secretary of Commerce to install or remove such national defense features. Title to such national defense features which the Secretary of Commerce determines are not to be permanently incorporated in a vessel shall not be affected by such installation or removal unless otherwise transferred in accordance with the provisions of this title V.

National defense features.

50 USC app. 1744.
46 USC 1242.
46 USC 1271.

46 USC 1151.

"(i) The Secretary of Commerce shall submit the plans and specifications for such national defense features and the proposals for their acquisition, storage, utilization, or disposition to the Navy Department for examination thereof and suggestion for such changes therein as may be deemed necessary or proper in order that such features shall be suitable for the use of the United States Government in time of war or national emergency. If the Secretary of the Navy approves such plans, specifications, or proposals as submitted,

Plans, specifications, and proposals.

Certification of approval.

or as modified in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, he shall certify such approval to the Secretary of Commerce.".

46 USC 1119.

SEC. 4. Section 209(b) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, is amended by (a) deleting from clause (2) the words "and cost of national defense features"; (b) inserting after clause (2) the following new clause: "(3) cost of national defense features;"; and, (c) renumbering the remaining clauses accordingly.

Coastwise coal transport, priority loading. 46 USC 1121-1.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any vessel engaged in the coastwise transportation of coal produced in the United States, from a port in the United States to another port in the United States, shall until June 30, 1987, have the priority to load at any such ports ahead of any waiting vessels engaged in the export trade of coal produced in the United States: Provided, That, the Secretary of Commerce may, if he determines that it is in the national interest, eliminate priority loading, as provided herein, at any such port or ports, and to report such action to the Congress within 30 days.

Report to Congress.

Vessel, coastwise trade documentation.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), or any other provision of law to the contrary, the vessel known as the Scuba King, official numbered 532376, owned by Bernard Despins, shall be entitled to be documented to engage in the fisheries and the coastwise trade upon compliance with the usual requirements, so long as such vessel is, from the date of enactment of this section, continuously owned by a citizen of the United States. For the purposes of this section, the term "citizen of the United States" includes corporations, partnerships, and associations, but only those which are citizens of the United States within the meaning of section 2 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 802).

An Act

To establish the United States Holocaust Memorial Council.

Oct. 7, 1980
[H.R. 8081]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established the United States Holocaust Memorial Council (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the "Council"). The Council shall—

U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council. Establishment. 36 USC 1401. Commemoration.

(1) provide for appropriate ways for the Nation to commemorate the Days of Remembrance, as an annual, national, civic commemoration of the holocaust, and shall encourage and sponsor appropriate observances of such Days of Remembrance throughout the United States;

Memorial museum.

(2) plan, construct, and oversee the operation of, a permanent living memorial museum to the victims of the holocaust, in cooperation with the Secretary of the Interior and other Federal agencies as provided in section 5; and President's Commission on the Holocaust.

(3) develop a plan for carrying out the recommendations of the President's Commission on the Holocaust in its report to the President of September 27, 1979, to the extent such recommendations are not otherwise provided for in this Act.

Membership; appointment. 36 USC 1402.

SEC. 2. (a) The Council shall consist of sixty voting members appointed (except as otherwise provided in this section) by the President and the following ex officio nonvoting members:

(1) one appointed by the Secretary of the Interior;
(2) one appointed by the Secretary of State, and
(3) one appointed by the Secretary of Education.

Of the sixty voting members, five shall be appointed by the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives from among members of the United States House of Representatives and five shall be appointed by the President pro tempore of the United States Senate upon the recommendation of the majority and minority leaders from among members of the United States Senate. Any vacancy in the Council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment was made.

Initial members.

Terms.

(b) The members of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, as in effect immediately before the date of the enactment of this Act, are hereby designated as the initial members of the Council. Such initial members (other than the initial members appointed from the United States Senate or the United States House of Representatives) shall serve terms as follows:

(1) All initial members shall serve until January 15, 1986.

(2) On January 15, 1986, the terms of ten of such initial members, as designated in the bylaws of the Council, shall terminate.

(3) On January 15 of each year thereafter through 1990 the terms of ten other initial members, as designated in the bylaws of the Council, shall terminate.

The terms of the initial members appointed from the United States Senate or the United States House of Representatives shall expire upon the expiration of the term of Congress in session at the time of the enactment of this Act.

Terms.

(c)(1) Except as provided in subsection (b) with respect to the initial members of the Council and except as otherwise provided in this subsection, Council members shall serve for five-year terms.

(2) The terms of the five members of the United States House of Representatives and the five members of the United States Senate appointed during any term of Congress shall each expire at the end of such term of Congress.

Vacancies.

(3) Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. A member, other than a Member of Congress appointed by the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives or the President pro tempore of the United States Senate, may serve after the expiration of his term until his successor has taken office.

Officers.

(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Council shall be appointed by the President from among the members of the Council and such Chairperson and Vice Chairperson shall each serve for terms of five years. Vacancies in the offices of Chairperson and Vice Chairperson shall be filled, as they arise, by appointment of the President.

Initial officers.

(2) The Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, as in effect immediately before the date of the enactment of this Act, are hereby designated respectively as the initial Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Council. Such initial Chairperson and Vice Chairperson shall serve until January 15, 1986.

Reappointments.

(e) Members whose terms expire may be reappointed, and the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson may be reappointed to those offices.

Pay.
36 USC 1403.

5 USC 5332 note.

Travel expenses.

SEC. 3. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), members of the Council are each authorized to be paid the daily equivalent of the maximum annual rate of basic pay in effect for grade GS-18 of the General Schedule for each day (including traveltime) during which they are engaged in the actual performance of duties of the Council. While away from their homes or regular places of business in the performance of services for the Council, members of the Council shall be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as persons employed intermittently in Government service are allowed expenses under section 5703 of title 5 of the United States Code.

(b) Members of the Council who are full-time officers or employees of the United States or Members of the Congress shall receive no additional pay by reason of their service on the Council.

Bylaws; quorum.
36 USC 1404.

SEC. 4. (a) The Council shall adopt bylaws to carry out its functions under this Act. One-third of the members of the Council shall constitute a quorum, and any vacancy in the Council shall not affect its powers to function.

Experts and consultants.

5 USC 5332 note.

(b) The Council may obtain the services of experts and consultants in accordance with the provisions of section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, at rates not to exceed the daily equivalent of the maximum annual rate of basic pay in effect for grade GS-18 of the General Schedule.

Contracts.

(c) The Council may, in accordance with applicable law, enter into contracts and other arrangements with public agencies and with private organizations and persons and may make such payments as may be necessary to carry out its functions under this Act.

Other Federal agencies, assistance.

(d) The Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, the Library of Congress, and all executive branch departments, agencies, and establishments of the United States may assist the Council in the performance of its functions under this Act.

Administrative services.

(e) The Secretary of the Interior may provide administrative services and support to the Council on a reimbursable basis.

Executive Director.
36 USC 1405.

SEC. 5. (a) The Council shall, without regard to section 5311(b) of title 5, United States Code, have an Executive Director who shall be appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Chairperson of the Council and who shall be paid at a rate not to exceed the maximum rate of basic pay payable for GS-18 of the General Schedule.

5 USC 5332 note.

Additional personnel. Appointment.

(b) Without regard to section 5311(b) of title 5, United States Code, the Executive Director may appoint and fix the pay of such additional personnel as he considers appropriate. The Executive Director and staff of the Council shall be appointed subject to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates.

5 USC 5101 et seq., 5331.

Memorial museum, real property transfer.
36 USC 1406.

SEC. 6. (a) For purposes of establishing the memorial museum referred to in paragraph (2) of the first section of this Act, any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States is authorized to transfer to the administrative jurisdiction of the Council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior in consultation with the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission, any real property in the District of Columbia which is under the administrative jurisdiction of such department, agency, or instrumentality and which is deemed suitable by the Council for such memorial. With the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in consultation with the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission, the Council may purchase, with the consent of the owner thereof, any real property within the District of Columbia which it deems suitable for purposes of establishing such memorial museum.

Real property purchase.

Architectural design, approval.

(b) The architectural design for such memorial museum shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in consultation with the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission.

Lapse of authority.

(c) The authority conferred pursuant to this Act for the construction and operation of the memorial museum shall lapse on the date five years after the date of the enactment of this Act unless (1) the erection or establishment of such memorial is commenced within such five year period, and (2) prior to the commencement, the Secretary of the Interior certifies that funds are available in an amount sufficient, in the judgment of the Secretary, to ensure completion of the memorial museum.

Gift, bequests, devises of property.
36 USC 1407.

SEC. 7. The Council may solicit, accept, hold, administer, and use gifts, bequests, and devises of property, both real and personal, to aid or facilitate the construction, maintenance, and operation of the memorial. Property may be accepted pursuant to this section, and the property and the proceeds thereof used as nearly as possible in accordance with the terms of the gift, bequest, or devise donating such property. For the purposes of Federal income, estate, and gift taxes, property accepted under this section shall be considered as a gift, bequest, or devise to the United States.

Taxes.

Appropriation authorization.
36 USC 1408.

SEC. 8. There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out the purposes of this Act $722,000 for the fiscal year 1981, $800,000 for the

96th Congress

An Act

To amend the Bretton Woods Agreements Act to authorize consent to an increase in the United States quota in the International Monetary Fund, and for other purposes.

Oct. 7, 1980
[S. 2271]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, Bretton Woods Agreements Act, amendment.

INCREASE IN UNITED STATES QUOTA

SECTION 1. The Bretton Woods Agreements Act (22 U.S.C. 286 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

22 USC 286e-1g.

"SEC. 22. The United States Governor of the Fund is authorized to consent to an increase in the quota of the United States in the Fund equivalent to 4,202.5 million Special Drawing Rights, to such extent or in such amounts as are provided in appropriation Acts.".

BASIC HUMAN NEEDS

SEC. 2. (a) The Bretton Woods Agreements Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

International Monetary Fund economic adjustment programs.
22 USC 286s.

"SEC. 33. (a) The President shall instruct the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of State, and other appropriate Federal officials to use all appropriate means to encourage countries, in formulating economic adjustment programs to deal with their balance of payments difficulties, to design those programs so as to safeguard, to the maximum feasible extent, jobs, investment, real per capita income, policies to reduce the gap in wealth between rich and poor, and social programs such as health, housing, and education.

"(b) To ensure the effectiveness of economic adjustment programs supported by Fund resources and the reinforcement of those programs by longer term efforts to promote sustained growth and improved living conditions—

"(1) United States representatives to the Fund shall recommend and shall work for changes in Fund guidelines, policies, and decisions that would—

"(A) permit stand-by arrangements to be extended beyond three years, as necessary to enable Fund members to implement their economic adjustment programs successfully;

"(B) provide that in approving any economic adjustment program the Fund shall take into account the effect such program will have on jobs, investment, real per capita income, the gap in wealth between the rich and poor, and social programs such as health, housing, and education, in order to seek to minimize the adverse impact of those adjustment programs on basic human needs; and

"(C) provide that letters of intent submitted to the Fund in support of an economic adjustment program reflect that the member country has taken into account the effect such program will have on the factors listed in subparagraph (B);

Review.

"(2)(A) before voting on the approval of any standby arrangement with respect to any economic adjustment program, the United States Executive Director shall review—

"(i) any analysis of factors prepared by the Fund or the member country in accordance with subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1), or

"(ii) if no such analysis is prepared and available for such review, an analysis which shall be prepared by the United States Governor of the Fund which examines the effect of the program on the factors listed in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1); and

"(B) the United States Executive Director of the Fund shall take into account the analysis reviewed pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph in voting on approval of that standby arrangement;

"(3) United States representatives to the Fund, to the Bank, and to other appropriate institutions shall work toward improving coordination among these institutions and, in particular, shall work toward formulation of programs in association with economic adjustment programs supported by Fund resources which (A) will, among other things, promote employment, investment, real income per capita, improvements in income distribution, and the objectives of social programs such as health, housing, and education, and (B) will, to the maximum extent feasible and consistent with the borrowing country's need to improve its balance of payments position within a reasonable period, ameliorate any adverse effects of economic adjustment programs on the poor;

"(4) United States representatives to the Fund and the Bank shall seek amendments to decisions on policies on the use of Fund and Bank resources to provide that, where countries are seeking Extended Fund Facility or upper credit tranche drawings from the Fund and are eligible to receive financing from the Bank, the Fund and Bank will coordinate their financing activities in order—

"(A) to take into account the effects of economic adjustment programs on the areas listed in clause (A) of paragraph (3),

"(B) to provide, to the extent feasible, Bank project loans designed to safeguard and further basic human needs in countries adopting economic adjustment programs supported by Fund resources, and

"(C) to provide, as appropriate, Bank financing for programs of structural adjustment that will facilitate development of a productive economic base and greater attainment of basic human needs objectives over the longer term; and

"(5) United States representatives to the Fund and the Bank shall request the Fund and the Bank to provide periodic analyses of the effects of economic adjustment programs supported by Fund or Bank financing on jobs, investment, real income per capita, income distribution, and social programs such as health, housing, and education.

Annual reports to Congress.

"(c) The National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Policies shall include in each of its annual reports to the Congress a statement detailing the actions and progress made in carrying out the requirements of subsections (a) and (b) of this section.".

(b) Section 30 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act (22 U.S.C. 286e-9) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a) by striking out "entered into pursuant to loans from the Supplementary Financing Facility";

(2) in the first sentence of subsection (b) by striking out "entered into pursuant to loans from the Supplementary Financing Facility"; and

(3) in the second sentence of subsection (b) by striking out "by the Supplementary Financing Facility".

31 USC 27.

SEC. 3. Strike section 7 of Public Law 95-435, the Bretton Woods Agreements Act Amendments of 1978, which reads: "Beginning with Fiscal Year 1981, the total budget outlays of the Federal Government shall not exceed its receipts.", and insert in lieu thereof: "The Congress reaffirms its commitment that beginning with Fiscal Year 1981, the total budget outlays of the Federal Government shall not exceed its receipts.".

RECYCLING BALANCE-OF-PAYMENTS SURPLUSES

22 USC 286t note.

SEC. 4. (a) It is the sense of the Congress that (1) the interests of the United States and those of other member countries require an effective International Monetary Fund equipped with resources adequate to facilitate orderly balance-of-payments adjustments; (2) persistent balance-of-payments surpluses in oil exporting countries have placed, and will continue to place, severe strains on the resources of oil importing countries and on the liquidity of the Fund; (3) these strains can only be relieved if the oil exporting countries assume a greater burden for financing balance-of-payments deficits through direct methods of recycling their surpluses and through proportionally greater contributions to the Fund and to the international lending institutions; and (4) the Fund must explore innovative proposals to encourage more direct recycling of oil surpluses and to increase its own liquidity.

(b) The Bretton Woods Agreements Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

Study and report to Congress. 22 USC 286t.

"SEC. 34. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the United States Executive Director of the Fund, shall study and, following consultations with member countries, shall report to the Congress prior to May 15, 1981, with respect to—

"(1) the current adequacy of Fund resources, together with projected needs of the Fund over the next five years;

"(2) the feasibility of increasing Fund liquidity by encouraging the Fund to borrow directly from the governments of oil exporting countries;

"(3) the feasibility of increasing Fund liquidity by encouraging the Fund to borrow in private capital markets through the issuance of securities backed by Fund resources;

"(4) the feasibility of an offer by the Fund of incentives to oil exporting countries, including financial guarantees by the Fund for government-to-government loans to countries with balance-of-payments deficits, in order to promote more direct recycling of oil surpluses; and

"(5) methods to enhance cooperation between commercial banks and the Fund to promote the availability of adequate resources for balance-of-payments financing.

Report to Congress.
22 USC 286u.

"SEC. 35. It is the sense of the Congress that the Secretary of the Treasury and the United States Executive Director of the Fund shall encourage member countries of the Fund to negotiate a dollar-Special Drawing Rights substitution account in which equitable burden sharing would exist among participants in the account, and shall report to the Congress prior to May 15, 1981, with respect to progress toward achieving this goal.".

DEBT RESCHEDULING COMPARABILITY

22 USC 286e-8.

SEC. 5. Section 29 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act is amended by striking out "on the use of the facility".

TAIWAN

SEC. 6. The Bretton Woods Agreements Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

International Monetary Fund membership.
22 USC 286v.

"SEC. 36. It is the sense of the Congress that it is the policy of the United States that Taiwan (before January 1, 1979, known as the Republic of China) shall be granted appropriate membership in the Fund and that the United States Executive Director of the Fund shall so notify the Fund.".

PALESTINE LIBERATION ORGANIZATION

SEC. 7. The Bretton Woods Agreements Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

22 USC 286w.

"SEC. 37. It is the policy of the United States that the Palestine Liberation Organization should not be given membership in the Fund or be given observer status or any other official status at any meeting sponsored by or associated with the Fund. The United States Executive Director of the Fund shall promptly notify the Fund of such policy.

Presidential report to Congress.

"In the event that the Fund provides either membership, observer status, or any other official status to the Palestine Liberation Organization, such action would result in a serious diminution of United States support. Upon review of such action, the President would be required to report his recommendations to the Congress with regard to any further United States participation in the Fund.".

ASSISTANCE TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR OF EL SALVADOR AND OTHER NATIONS

SEC. 8. The Bretton Woods Agreements Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

22 USC 286x.

"SEC. 38. It is the sense of the Congress that in providing assistance through loans or other means to any nation, in particular El Salvador and Nicaragua, the Fund and the Bank should encourage programs which assist the private sector to create an environment which will stabilize the economy of the nation; and that the United States representatives to the Fund and the Bank shall promote the use of assistance by the Fund and the Bank to encourage such programs.".

International Monetary Fund salaries and travel costs.
22 USC 286a note.

SEC. 9. The United States Executive Director to the Fund shall seek to insure (a) that Fund salaries do not exceed those levels endorsed by the Fund Bank Joint Committee on Staff Compensation Issues; and (b) that travel costs are minimized by limiting first class and supersonic travel to instances where no reasonable alternative exists.

ROLE OF GOLD IN INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEMS

Commission, establishment 31 USC 822a note.

SEC. 10. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall establish and chair a commission consisting of—

(1) three members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and two members of the Council of Economic Advisors, all of whom shall be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury;

(2) one majority and one minority member each from (A) the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress, (B) the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate, and (C) the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs of the House of Representatives, who shall be designated by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate, respectively, upon the recommendations of the majority and minority leaders of the respective Houses; and

(3) four distinguished private citizens with business, finance, or academic backgrounds who shall be designated by the Secretary.

Study and report to Congress.

(b) The commission shall conduct a study to assess and make recommendations with regard to the policy of the United States Government concerning the role of gold in domestic and international monetary systems, and shall transmit to the Congress a report containing its findings and recommendations not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act.

92 Stat. 3092.

(c) Sums appropriated pursuant to section 5 of Public Law 95-612 shall be available to the commission to carry out its functions.

FULL APPROPRIATIONS REQUIRED

22 USC 286e-1g.

SEC. 11. Section 32 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act, as added by section 1 of this Act, is amended by striking "to such extent or in such amounts as are provided in appropriations Acts" and inserting in lieu thereof "limited to such amounts as are appropriated in advance in appropriation Acts."

EFFECTIVE DATE

22 USC 286e note.

SEC. 12. This Act shall take effect on its date of enactment, except that funds may not be appropriated under any authorization contained in this Act for any period prior to October 1, 1980.

Approved October 7, 1980.

An Act

Oct. 7, 1980
[H.R. 7782]

To amend the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958 to provide for the same adjustments in the basic compensation of officers and members of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division as are given to Federal employees under the General Schedule.

U.S. Secret Service Uniformed Division, basic compensation adjustments.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) the purpose of this Act is to insure that officers and members of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division are entitled to adjustments in basic compensation in the same overall percentage as are other Federal employees within the General Schedule under the Federal pay comparability system.

(b) Section 501 of the District of Columbia Police and Firemen's Salary Act of 1958 (D.C. Code, sec. 4-833) is amended—

(1) by striking out "Executive Protective Service" in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof "United States Secret Service Uniformed Division";

(2) by inserting ", and the annual rate of basic compensation of officers and members of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division may be adjusted by the Secretary of the Treasury," in subsection (b)(1) after "Secretary of the Interior"; and

SEC. 2. The Congress finds— 42 USC 9401.

(1) despite the significant progress that has been made in making community mental health services available and in improving residential mental health facilities since the original community mental health centers legislation was enacted in 1963, unserved and underserved populations remain and there are certain groups in the population, such as chronically mentally ill individuals, children and youth, elderly individuals, racial and ethnic minorities, women, poor persons, and persons in rural areas, which often lack access to adequate private and public mental health services and support services;

(2) the process of transferring or diverting chronically mentally ill individuals from unwarranted or inappropriate institutionalized settings to their home communities has frequently not been accompanied by a process of providing those individuals with the mental health and support services they need in community-based settings;

(3) the shift in emphasis from institutional care to community-based care has not always been accompanied by a process of affording training, retraining, and job placement for employees affected by institutional closure and conversion;

(4) the delivery of mental health and support services is typically uncoordinated within and among local, State, and Federal entities;

(5) mentally ill persons are often inadequately served by (A) programs of the Department of Health and Human Services such as medicare, medicaid, supplemental security income, and social services, and (B) programs of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Department of Labor, and other Federal agencies;

(6) health care systems often lack general health care personnel with adequate mental health care training and often lack mental health care personnel and consequently many individuals with some level of mental disorder do not receive appropriate mental health care;

(7) present knowledge of methods to prevent mental illness through discovery and elimination of its causes and through early detection and treatment is too limited;

(8) a comprehensive and coordinated array of appropriate private and public mental health and support services for all people in need within specific geographic areas, based upon a cooperative local-State-Federal partnership, remains the most effective and humane way to provide a majority of mentally ill individuals with mental health care and needed support; and

(9) because of the rising demand for mental health services and the wide disparity in the distribution of psychiatrists, clinical psychologists, social workers, and psychiatric nurses, there is a shortage in the medical specialty of psychiatry and there are also shortages among the other health personnel who provide mental health services.

TITLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART A—DEFINITIONS

DEFINITION OF COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER

42 USC 9411. SEC. 101. (a) For purposes of this Act, the term "community mental health center" means a legal entity (1) through which comprehensive mental health services are provided—

(A) principally to individuals residing in a mental health service area, with special attention to those who are chronically mentally ill,

(B) within the limits of its capacity, to any individual residing or employed in such area regardless of ability to pay for such services, current or past health condition, or any other factor, and

(C) in the manner prescribed by subsection (b), and (2) which is organized in the manner prescribed by subsections (c) and (d).

Comprehensive mental health services.

(b)(1) The comprehensive mental health services which shall be provided through a community mental health center are as follows:

(A) Beginning on the date the community mental health center is established for purposes of section 201, the services provided through the center shall include—

(i) inpatient services, emergency services, and outpatient services;

(ii) assistance to courts and other public agencies in screening residents of the center's mental health service area who are being considered for referral to a State mental health facility for inpatient treatment to determine if they should be so referred and provision, where appropriate, of treatment for such persons through the center as an alternative to inpatient treatment at such a facility;

(iii) provision of followup care for residents of its mental health service area who have been discharged from inpatient treatment at a mental health facility;

(iv) consultation and education services which—

(I) are for a wide range of individuals and entities involved with mental health services, including health professionals, schools, courts, State and local law enforcement and correctional agencies, members of the clergy, public welfare agencies, health services delivery agencies, and other appropriate entities; and

(II) include a wide range of activities (other than the provision of direct clinical services) designed to develop effective mental health programs in the center's mental health service area, promote the coordination of the provision of mental health services among various entities serving the center's mental health service area, increase the awareness of the residents of the center's mental health service area of the nature of mental health problems and the types of mental health services available, and promote the prevention and control of rape and the proper treatment of the victims of rape; and

(v) the services described in subparagraph (B) or, in lieu of such services, the center shall have a plan approved by the Secretary under which the center will, during the three-year period beginning on such establishment date, assume in increments the provision of the services described in subparagraph (B) and will upon the expiration of such three-year period provide all the services described in subparagraph (B).

Additional services.

(B) After the expiration of such three-year period, a community mental health center shall provide, in addition to the services required by subparagraph (A), services which include—

(i) day care and other partial hospitalization services;

(ii) a program of specialized services for the mental health of children, including a full range of diagnostic, treatment, liaison, and followup services (as prescribed by the Secretary);

(iii) a program of specialized services for the mental health of the elderly, including a full range of diagnostic, treatment, liaison, and followup services (as prescribed by the Secretary);

(iv) a program of transitional half-way house services for mentally ill individuals who are residents of its mental health service area and who have been discharged from inpatient treatment in a mental health facility or would without such services require inpatient treatment in such a facility; and

(v) provision of each of the following service programs (other than a service program for which there is not sufficient need (as determined by the Secretary) in the center's mental health service area, or the need for which in the center's mental health service area the Secretary determines is currently being met):

(I) A program for the prevention and treatment of alcoholism and alcohol abuse and for the rehabilitation of alcohol abusers and alcoholics.

(II) A program for the prevention and treatment of drug addiction and abuse and for the rehabilitation of drug addicts, drug abusers, and other persons with drug dependency problems.

Service coordination.

(2) The provision of comprehensive mental health services through a center shall be coordinated with the provision of services by other health and social service agencies (including public mental health facilities) in or serving residents of the center's mental health service area to ensure that persons receiving services through the center have access to all such health and social services as they may require. The center's services (A) may be provided at the center or satellite centers through the staff of the center or through appropriate arrangements with health professionals and others in the center's mental health service area, or, with the approval of the Secretary, in the case of inpatient services, emergency services, partial hospitalization, transitional half-way house services, and certain specialized services, through appropriate arrangements with health professionals and others serving the residents of the mental health service area, (B) shall be available and accessible to the residents of the area promptly, as appropriate, and in a manner which preserves human dignity and assures continuity and high quality care and which overcomes geographic, cultural, linguistic, and economic barriers to the receipt of services, and (C) when medically necessary, shall be available and accessible twenty-four hours a day and seven days a week.

Professional supervision.

(3)(A) The mental health care of every patient of a center shall be under the supervision of a member of the professional staff of the center. The center shall provide for having a member of its professional staff available to furnish necessary mental health care in case of an emergency.

Supervising physician.

(B) Any medical services provided by a center shall be under the supervision of a physician unless otherwise permitted by State law. Whenever possible, the supervising physician shall be a psychiatrist.

Governing body.

(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) or (3), a community mental health center shall have a governing body which (A) is composed of individuals who reside in the center's mental health service area and who, as a group, represent the residents of that area taking into consideration their employment, age, sex, and place of residence, and other demographic characteristics of the area, and (B) is required to meet at least once a month, to establish general policies for the center (including a schedule of hours during which services will be provided), to approve the center's annual budget, and to approve the selection of a director for the center. At least one-half of the members of such body shall be individuals who are not providers of health care.

Advisory committee.

(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), in the case of a community mental health center which is operated by a governmental agency or a hospital, such center may, in lieu of meeting the requirements of paragraph (1), appoint a committee which advises it with respect to the operations of the center and which is composed of individuals who reside in the center's mental health service area, who are representative of the residents of the area as to employment, age, sex, place of residence, and other demographic characteristics, and at least one-half of whom are not providers of health care. A center to which this subparagraph applies shall submit to such a committee for its review any application for a grant under section 201.

(B) Subparagraph (A) does not apply with respect to a community mental health center which on the date of the enactment of this Act had a governing body which met the requirements of paragraph (1).

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply to a community mental health center which is operated by a primary care center, community health center, or migrant center and which meets the applicable requirements of part D of title III of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 255.

"Provider of health care."

(4) For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the term "provider of health care" has the same meaning as is prescribed for that term by section 1531(3) of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 300n.

Center, requirements.

(d) A center shall, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary, have (1) an ongoing quality assurance program (including multidisciplinary utilization and peer review systems) respecting the center's services, (2) an integrated medical records system (including a drug use profile) which, in accordance with applicable Federal and State laws respecting confidentiality, is designed to provide access to all past and current information regarding the health status of each patient and to maintain safeguards to preserve confidentiality and to protect the rights of the patient, (3) a multidisciplinary professional advisory board, which is composed of members of the center's professional staff, to advise the governing board or the advisory committee in establishing policies governing medical and other services provided by such staff on behalf of the center, and (4) an identifiable administrative unit which shall be responsible for providing the consultation and education services described in subsection (b)(1)(A)(iv). The Secretary may waive the requirements of clause (4) with respect to any center if he determines that because of the size of such center or because of other relevant factors the establishment of the administrative unit described in such clause is not warranted.

Waiver.

OTHER DEFINITIONS

42 USC 9412.

SEC. 102. For purposes of this Act:

(1) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

(2) The term "State" includes (in addition to the fifty States) the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands.

(3) The term "State mental health authority" means the agency of a State designated under section 105 to be responsible for the mental health programs of the State.

(4) The term "mental health service area" means an area established under section 106.

(5) The term "nonprofit", as applied to any entity, means an entity which is owned and operated by one or more corporations or associations no part of the net earnings of which inures or may lawfully inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or person.

(6) The term "priority population group" means an identifiable population group in a mental health service area which is unserved or underserved by mental health programs in such area as determined under a health systems plan or a State health plan in effect under section 1513 or 1524 of the Public Health Service Act. 42 USC 300*l*-2, 300m-3.

(7) The term "Governor" means the chief executive officer of a State.

PART B—STATE ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

STATE MENTAL HEALTH AUTHORITY

42 USC 9421.

SEC. 105. Each State shall designate an agency of the State to be responsible for the mental health programs of the State.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE AREAS

Redesignation. 42 USC 9422.

SEC. 106. (a) Each catchment area of a community mental health center designated under the Community Mental Health Centers Act is redesignated as a mental health service area.

Boundaries.

(b) A mental health service area in a State shall, except to the extent permitted under regulations of the Secretary, have boundaries which conform to or are within the boundaries of a health service area established under title XV of the Public Health Service Act and, to the extent practicable, conform to boundaries of one or more school districts or political or other subdivisions in the State. 42 USC 300k-1.

Boundary review; revision.

(c)(1) The State mental health authority of a State shall review the boundaries of any mental health service area in the State which does not meet the requirements of subsection (b) and shall make such revisions in the boundaries of the area as may be necessary to meet such requirements.

(2) The State mental health authority of a State may review the boundaries of any mental health service area in the State and may revise the boundary of any such area to—

(A) ensure that the size of such area is such that the services to be provided in the area are available and accessible to the residents of the area promptly, as appropriate, and

(B) ensure that the boundary of such area eliminates, to the extent possible, barriers to access to the services provided in the area, including barriers resulting from an area's physical characteristics, its residential patterns, its economic and social groupings, and its available transportation.

Notice; hearing.

(3) In conducting a review of a boundary under paragraph (1) or (2) a State mental health authority shall provide notice of its review and shall provide a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on its review and any proposed boundary revision.

ALLOTMENTS TO STATES TO IMPROVE THE ADMINISTRATION OF STATE MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAMS

42 USC 9423.

SEC. 107. (a) For the purpose of assisting State mental health authorities to improve the administration of State mental health programs and to carry out their activities under this Act relating to—

(1) planning and program design,

(2) data collection,
(3) data analysis,
(4) research,
(5) evaluation,
(6) setting and enforcing regulatory and other standards,
(7) reporting to the Secretary, and
(8) establishing, expanding, or operating mental health patients' rights protection programs, the Secretary shall, for each fiscal year and in accordance with regulations, allot to the States the sums appropriated for such year under subsection (c) on the basis of the population and the financial need of the respective States. The populations of the States shall be determined on the basis of the latest figures for the populations of the States available from the Department of Commerce.

Population determination.

(b) No allotment may be made to a State under subsection (a) unless the State has submitted to the Secretary an application for the allotment containing such information as the Secretary may require.

Allotment application.

(c) There are authorized to be appropriated for allotments under subsection (a), $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) Effective September 30, 1981, section 314(g) of the Public Health Service Act is repealed.

Repeal.
42 USC 246.

TITLE II—GRANT PROGRAMS

GRANTS FOR COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTERS

SEC. 201. (a)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private community mental health center to assist it in meeting its costs of operation (other than costs related to construction).

42 USC 9431.

(2) No application for a grant under paragraph (1) for a community mental health center which has not received a grant for its operation under the Community Mental Health Centers Act may be approved unless the application is accompanied by assurances, satisfactory to the Secretary, that the grant applied for and the State, local, and other funds and the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements which the applicant may reasonably be expected to collect in the year for which the grant would be made are sufficient to meet the projected costs of operation for that year.

(3) Grants under paragraph (1) may only be made for a grantee's costs of operation during the first eight years after its establishment. In the case of a community mental health center which received a grant under section 220 of the Community Mental Health Centers Act (as in effect before the date of enactment of the Community Mental Health Centers Amendments of 1975) or section 203(a) of such Act (as in effect after such date), such center shall, for purposes of grants under paragraph (1), be considered as having been in operation since its establishment for a number of years equal to the sum of the number of grants it received under such sections and the number of grants it has received under paragraph (1).

Time limitation.

79 Stat. 428, 84 Stat. 56.
42 USC 2689 note.
42 USC 2689b.

(b) Each grant under subsection (a) to a community mental health center shall be made for the costs of its operation for the one-year period beginning on the first day of the month in which such grant is made, except that if at the end of such period a center has not obligated all the funds received by it under a grant, the center may use the unobligated funds under the grant in the succeeding year for the same purposes for which such grant was made but only if the center is eligible to receive a grant under subsection (a) for such succeeding year.

Unobligated funds.

Grant computation.

(c)(1) The amount of a grant for any year made under subsection (a) shall be the lesser of the amounts computed under subparagraph (A) or (B) as follows:

(A) An amount equal to the amount by which the grantee's projected costs of operation for that year exceed the total of State, local, and other funds and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements which the grantee may reasonably be expected to collect in that year.

(B)(i) Except as provided in clause (ii), an amount equal to the following percentages of the grantee's projected costs of operation: 80 percent of such costs for the first year of its operation, 65 percent of such costs for the second year of its operation, 50 percent of such costs for the third year of its operation, 35 percent of such costs for the fourth year of its operation, 30 percent of such costs for the fifth and sixth years of its operation, and 25 percent of such costs for the seventh and eighth years of its operation.

Designated urban or rural poverty area.

(ii) In the case of a grantee providing services for persons in an area designated by the Secretary as an urban or rural poverty area, an amount equal to the following percentages of the grantee's projected costs of operation: 90 percent of such costs for the first two years of its operation, 80 percent of such costs for the third year of its operation, 70 percent of such costs for the fourth year of its operation, 60 percent of such costs for the fifth year of its operation, 50 percent of such costs for the sixth year of its operation, 40 percent of such costs for the seventh year of its operation, and 30 percent of such costs for the eighth year of its operation.

Unobligated funds.

(2) The amount of a grant prescribed by paragraph (1) for a community mental health center for any year shall be reduced by the amount of unobligated funds from the preceding year which the center is authorized, under subsection (b)(1), to use in the year for which the grant is to be made.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(3) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(A) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(B) the amount of the grant received under subsection (a) by a center, exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year, and if the center is eligible to receive a grant under subsection (a) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the center may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the center can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the center (i) to expand and improve its services, (ii) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (iii) to modernize its facilities, (iv) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (v) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

Operational costs, appropriation authorization.

(d)(1) For initial grants under subsection (a) there are authorized to be appropriated $30,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $35,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $40,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

(2) There are authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, and for each of the next nine fiscal years such sums as may be necessary to make grants, for the number of years prescribed by subsection (a)(3), to community mental health centers which received an initial grant for operations under the Community Mental Health Centers Act or this Act for a fiscal year beginning before October 1, 1984.

42 USC 2689 note.

best copy available

(3) Of the total amount appropriated under paragraphs (1) and (2) for any fiscal year, the Secretary may not obligate more than 5 percent for grants under subsection (a) to community mental health centers which are operated by hospitals and which have advisory committees as prescribed by section 101(c)(2).

Restriction.

GRANTS FOR SERVICES FOR CHRONICALLY MENTALLY ILL INDIVIDUALS

42 USC 9432.

SEC. 202. (a)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any State mental health authority, community mental health center, or other public or nonprofit private entity for projects for the provision of mental health and related support services for chronically mentally ill individuals. No grant may be made under this subsection for a project unless the project provides for at least the following:

Service requirements.

(A) The identification of the chronically mentally ill individuals residing in the area to be served by the project.

(B) Assistance to such individuals in gaining access to essential mental health services, medical and dental care and rehabilitation services, and employment, housing, and other support services designed to enable chronically mentally ill individuals to function outside of inpatient institutions to the maximum extent of their capabilities.

(C) Assuring the availability, for each such chronically mentally ill individual who needs both mental health and related support services, of an individual to assume responsibility for seeing to it that the individual receives any such service that the individual needs.

(D) Coordinating the provision of mental health and related support services to such individuals with the provision of other services to them.

(2) A grant under this subsection for a project in a mental health service area served by a community mental health center may be made only to the community mental health center or to the State mental health authority of the State in which the area is located, except that, if the Secretary finds that because of exceptional circumstances in the mental health service area the chronically mentally ill individuals in the area would be otherwise underserved, a grant may be made to any other public or private nonprofit entity.

Recipients; restriction, exception.

(3) In considering applications for grants under this subsection, the Secretary shall give special consideration to applications for projects designed to supplement and strengthen existing community support services.

Applications, special consideration.

(b) The Secretary may make grants to any State mental health authority to—

Grants, purposes.

(1) improve the skills of personnel providing services to chronically mentally ill individuals by providing or arranging for the provision of inservice training, other training, or retraining for such personnel; or

(2) coordinate the operations of State agencies or intrastate regional agencies responsible for mental health and related support services for chronically mentally ill individuals, and coordinate the provision of mental health and support services for chronically mentally ill individuals with the provision of services to such individuals under titles IV, V, XVI, XVIII, XIX, and XX of the Social Security Act and under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the United States Housing Act, the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, the Developmental Disabilities

29 USC 801 note.

42 USC 6001 note, 3001 note.

Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, the Older Americans Act, and other Federal and State statutes.

Limitation.

(c)(1) No entity may receive more than eight grants under this section.

Grant computation.

(2) The amount of any grant under subsection (a) or (b) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount of—

(A) the first and second grant may not exceed 90 percent of the costs (as determined by the Secretary) of the project for which the grant is made;

(B) the third grant may not exceed 80 percent of such costs;

(C) the fourth grant may not exceed 70 percent of such costs;

(D) the fifth grant may not exceed 60 percent of such costs;

(E) the sixth grant may not exceed 50 percent of such costs;

(F) the seventh grant may not exceed 40 percent of such costs; and

(G) the eighth grant may not exceed 30 percent of such costs.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(3) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(A) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(B) the amount of the grant received under subsection (a) by an entity, exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year and if the entity is eligible to receive a grant under subsection (a) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the entity may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the entity can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the entity (i) to expand and improve its services, (ii) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (iii) to modernize its facilities, (iv) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (v) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), no grant may be made to an entity under subsection (a) or (b) unless the entity meets the requirements of paragraph (2).

Governing body.

(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), an applicant for a grant under subsection (a) to provide the services described in that subsection shall have a governing body which (i) is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area and who, as a group, represent the residents of that area taking into consideration their employment, age, sex, and place of residence, and other demographic characteristics of the area, and (ii) is required to meet at least once a month, to establish general policies for the entity (including a schedule of hours during which services will be provided), to approve the entity's annual budget, and to approve the selection of a director for the entity. At least one-half of the members of such body shall be individuals who are not providers of health care.

Advisory committee.

(B) An applicant which is a hospital, a State agency, or other public or nonprofit private entity which does not have as its primary purpose the provision of mental health services under grants under subsection (a) may appoint a committee which advises it with respect to the operations of the entity which are funded with a grant under subsection (a) or (b) and which is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area, who are representative of the residents of the area as to employment, age, sex, place of residence, and other demographic characteristics, and at least one-half of whom are not providers of health care.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply with respect to an entity which is a primary care center, community health center, or migrant health center and which meets the applicable requirements of part D of title III of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 255.

"Provider of health care."

(4) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "provider of health care" has the same meaning as is prescribed for that term by section 1531(3) of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 300n.

Appropriation authorization.

(e) For grants under subsections (a) and (b) there are authorized to be appropriated $45,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $50,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $60,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

GRANTS FOR SERVICES FOR SEVERELY MENTALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

42 USC 9433.

SEC. 203. (a) The Secretary may make grants to any State mental health authority, community mental health center, or other public or nonprofit private entity for the provision of mental health and related support services for severely mentally disturbed children and adolescents and for members of their families. The services which may be provided under a grant under this subsection shall include at least one of the following:

Service requirements.

(1) The identification and assessment of the needs of severely mentally disturbed children and adolescents and the provision of needed mental health and related support services which are not provided by existing programs.

(2) Assuring the availability of appropriate personnel to be responsible for providing, or arranging for the provision of, the needed mental health and related support services for such children and adolescents.

(3) The provision of auxiliary mental health services under the Education for all Handicapped Children Act of 1975 to such children and adolescents who are handicapped.

20 USC 1401 note.

(4) The establishment of cooperative arrangements with juvenile justice authorities, educational authorities, and other authorities and agencies that come in contact with such children and adolescents to ensure referral of such children and adolescents for appropriate mental health and related support services.

Recipients; restriction, exception.

A grant made under this subsection for a project in a mental health service area served by a community mental health center may be made only to the community mental health center or to the State mental health authority of the State in which the area is located, except that, if the Secretary finds that because of exceptional circumstances in the mental health service area the severely mentally disturbed children and adolescents in the area would otherwise be underserved, a grant may be made to any other public or private nonprofit entity.

Grants, purposes.

(b) The Secretary may make grants to any public entity for projects to coordinate the provision of mental health and related support services to severely mentally disturbed children and adolescents with the activities of community agencies and State agencies and with the provision of services available to such children and adolescents under titles IV, V, XVI, XIX, and XX of the Social Security Act and under the Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975, the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and other Federal and State statutes.

20 USC 1401 note.
42 USC 6001 note.
29 USC 701 note.

Limitation.

(c)(1) No entity may receive more than eight grants under this section.

Grant computation.

(2) The amount of any grant under subsection (a) or (b) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount of—

(A) the first and second grant may not exceed 90 percent of the costs (as determined by the Secretary) of the project for which the grant is made;

(B) the third grant may not exceed 80 percent of such costs;

(C) the fourth grant may not exceed 70 percent of such costs;

(D) the fifth grant may not exceed 60 percent of such costs;

(E) the sixth grant may not exceed 50 percent of such costs;

(F) the seventh grant may not exceed 40 percent of such costs; and

(G) the eighth grant may not exceed 30 percent of such costs.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(3) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(A) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(B) the amount of the grant received under subsection (a) by an entity, exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year and if the entity is eligible to receive a grant under subsection (a) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the entity may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the entity can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the entity (i) to expand and improve its services, (ii) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (iii) to modernize its facilities, (iv) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (v) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), no grant may be made to an entity under subsection (a) or (b) unless the entity meets the requirements of paragraph (2).

Governing body.

(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), an applicant for a grant under subsection (a) to provide the services described in that subsection shall have a governing body which (i) is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area and who, as a group, represent the residents of that area taking into consideration their employment, age, sex, and place of residence, and other demographic characteristics of the area, and (ii) is required to meet at least once a month, to establish general policies for the entity (including a schedule of hours during which services will be provided), to approve the entity's annual budget, and to approve the selection of a director for the entity. At least one-half of the members of such body shall be individuals who are not providers of health care.

Advisory committee.

(B) An applicant which is a hospital, a State agency, or other public or nonprofit private entity which does not have as its primary purpose the provision of mental health services under grants under subsection (a) may appoint a committee which advises it with respect to the operations of the entity which are funded with a grant under subsection (a) or (b) and which is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area, who are representative of the residents of the area as to employment, age, sex, place of residence, and other demographic characteristics, and at least one-half of whom are not providers of health care.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply with respect to an entity which is a primary care center, community health center, or migrant health center and which meets the applicable requirements of part D of title III of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 255.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "provider of health care" has the same meaning as is prescribed for that term by section 1531(3) of the Public Health Service Act.

"Provider of health care."
42 USC 300n.

(e) For grants under subsections (a) and (b) there are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $12,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

Appropriation authorization.

GRANTS FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR ELDERLY INDIVIDUALS AND OTHER PRIORITY POPULATIONS

SEC. 204. (a)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for projects for services for elderly individuals. Each such project shall include at least the following:

42 USC 9434.

Service requirements.

(A) The location of elderly individuals in the mental health service area or areas served by the entity who are in need of mental health services.

(B) The provision or arrangement for the provision of medical differential diagnoses of elderly individuals in such area or areas to distinguish between their need for mental health services and other medical care.

(C) The specification of the mental health needs of elderly individuals in such area or areas and the mental health and support services required to meet such needs.

(D) The provision of—

(i) the mental health and support services specified under subparagraph (C) in the communities in such area or areas, or

(ii) such services for elderly individuals in nursing homes and intermediate care facilities in such area or areas and training of the employees of such homes and facilities in the provision of such services.

(2) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity in a mental health service area in which, as determined by the Secretary, the services described in paragraph (1) are being provided to enable the entity to—

Grants, purposes.

(A) assure the availability of appropriate personnel to be responsible for the provision of or for arranging for the provision of such services to elderly individuals; or

(B) coordinate the provision of such services to elderly individuals with (i) the area agency on aging (as defined in the Older Americans Act) and other community agencies providing mental health and related support services for elderly individuals, and (ii) with the provision of services available to elderly individuals under titles XVI, XVIII, XIX, and XX of the Social Security Act and under the Older Americans Act, the Comprehensive Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Act of 1970, the Drug Abuse Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Act, the United States Housing Act, the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, and other Federal and State statutes.

42 USC 4541 note.
21 USC 1101 note, 42 USC 1437 note.
42 USC 4951 note.

(3)(A) No entity may receive more than eight grants under paragraph (1) or (2).

Limitation.

(B) The amount of any grant under paragraph (1) or (2) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount of—

Grant computation.

(i) the first and second grant may not exceed 90 percent of the costs (as determined by the Secretary) of the project for which the grant is made;

(ii) the third grant may not exceed 80 percent of such costs;

(iii) the fourth grant may not exceed 70 percent of such costs;

(iv) the fifth grant may not exceed 60 percent of such costs;

(v) the sixth grant may not exceed 50 percent of such costs;

(vi) the seventh grant may not exceed 40 percent of such costs; and

(vii) the eighth grant may not exceed 30 percent of such costs.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(C) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(i) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(ii) the amount of the grant received under paragraph (1) by an entity, exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year and if the entity is eligible to receive a grant under paragraph (1) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the entity may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the entity can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the entity (I) to expand and improve its services, (II) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (III) to modernize its facilities, (IV) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (V) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

Recipients; restriction, exception.

(D) A grant made under paragraph (1) for a project in a mental health service area served by a community mental health center may be made only to the community mental health center or to the State mental health authority of the State in which the area is located, except that, if the Secretary finds that because of exceptional circumstances in the mental health service area the elderly individuals in the area would otherwise be underserved, a grant may be made to any other public or private nonprofit entity.

(E)(i) Except as provided in clause (iii), no grant may be made to an entity under paragraph (1) or (2) unless the entity meets the requirements of clause (ii).

Governing body.

(ii)(I) Except as provided in subclause (I), an applicant for a grant under paragraph (1) to provide the services described in that paragraph shall have a governing body which is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area and who, as a group, represent the residents of that area taking into consideration their employment, age, sex, and place of residence, and other demographic characteristics of the area, and which is required to meet at least once a month, to establish general policies for the entity (including a schedule of hours during which services will be provided), to approve the entity's annual budget, and to approve the selection of a director for the entity. At least one-half of the members of such body shall be individuals who are not providers of health care.

Advisory committee.

(II) An applicant which is a hospital, a State agency, or other public or nonprofit private entity which does not have as its primary purpose the provision of mental health services under grants under paragraph (1) may appoint a committee which advises it with respect to the operations of the entity which are funded with a grant under paragraph (1) or (2) and which is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area, who are representative of the residents of the area as to employment, age, sex, place of residence, and other demographic characteristics, and at least one-half of whom are not providers of health care.

(iii) Clause (i) does not apply with respect to an entity which is a primary care center, community health center, or migrant health center and which meets the applicable requirements of part D of title III of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 255.

"Provider of health care."

(iv) For purposes of clause (ii), the term "provider of health care" has the same meaning as is prescribed for that term by section 1531(3) of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 300n.

(b)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for any project for mental health services which—

(A) is designed to serve principally one or more priority population groups in a mental health service area, and

(B) is available to all residents of the area.

Recipients, restriction.

(2) A grant made under paragraph (1) for a project in a mental health service area served by a community mental health center may be made only to the community mental health center or to the State mental health authority of the State in which the area is located and only if the Secretary finds that because of exceptional circumstances in the mental health service area priority populations in the area would be otherwise underserved.

Limitation.

(3)(A) Not more than four grants may be made under paragraph (1) to the same entity for mental health services for the same priority population group or groups, except that, if the entity is a community mental health center or other entity in a mental health service area served by a community mental health center, the number of grants which it may receive for the same population group or groups may not exceed two.

(B) In any fiscal year not more than two grants may be made under paragraph (1) for projects in one mental health service area and the total number of grants that may be made for projects in such an area under paragraph (1) may not exceed eight.

Grant computation.

(C) The amount of any grant under paragraph (1) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount of—

(i) the first such grant may not exceed 90 percent of the costs of the project (as determined by the Secretary) for which the grant is made,

(ii) the second such grant may not exceed 80 percent of such costs,

(iii) the third such grant may not exceed 70 percent of such costs, and

(iv) the fourth such grant may not exceed 60 percent of such costs.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(D) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(i) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(ii) the amount of the grant received under paragraph (1) by an entity,

exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year and if the entity is eligible to receive a grant under paragraph (1) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the entity may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the entity can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the entity (I) to expand and improve its services, (II) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (III) to modernize its facilities, (IV) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (V) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, if a grant could be made under subsection (a) or section 202 or 203 for a project designed primarily to serve a particular population group, such population group shall not be included in the priority population groups for which grants are authorized under this subsection.

Criteria.

(c) An application for a grant under subsection (b) may be approved only if—

(1) the application contains satisfactory assurances that the project for which the application is made will lead to increased or more appropriate mental health services for a priority population group or to the development of mental health services for such a group;

(2) the application contains satisfactory assurances that members of the priority population group or groups to be served by the project will be afforded reasonable opportunity to comment on performance under the project; and

(3) the applicant (A) will during the first three years that it receives a grant under subsection (b) provide outpatient mental health services and any two of the following mental health services determined to be of the greatest need for the priority population to be served by the applicant: inpatient, screening, followup, consultation and education, and emergency services, and (B) unless the applicant is a community mental health center or a State mental health authority receiving a grant under subsection (b) as authorized by paragraph (2) of that subsection, has a plan satisfactory to the Secretary for the provision of all the mental health services described in clause (A) upon the expiration of the first three years that it receives a grant under subsection (b).

The Secretary may not approve an application of an entity which has received a grant for three years under subsection (b) unless the applicant is providing all the mental health services described in paragraph (3)(A).

(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), no grant may be made to an entity under subsection (b) unless the entity meets the requirements of paragraph (2).

Governing body.

(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), an applicant for a grant under subsection (b) to provide the services described in that subsection shall have a governing body which (i) is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area and who, as a group, represent the residents of that area taking into consideration their employment, age, sex, and place of residence, and other demographic characteristics of the area, and (ii) is required to meet at least once a month, to establish general policies for the entity (including a schedule of hours during which services will be provided), to approve the entity's annual budget, and to approve the selection of a director for the entity. At least one-half of the members of such body shall be individuals who are not providers of health care.

Advisory committee.

(B) An applicant which is a hospital, a State agency, or other public or nonprofit private entity which does not have as its primary purpose the provision of mental health services under grants under subsection (b) may appoint a committee which advises it with respect to the operations of the entity which are funded with a grant under subsection (b) and which is composed of individuals who reside in the entity's mental health service area, who are representative of the residents of the area as to employment, age, sex, place of residence, and other demographic characteristics, and at least one-half of whom are not providers of health care.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply with respect to an entity which is a primary care center, community health center, or migrant health center and which meets the applicable requirements of part D of title III of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 255.

"Provider of health care."

(4) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "provider of health care" has the same meaning as is prescribed for that term by section 1531(3) of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 300n.

Appropriation authorization.

(e) For grants under this section there are authorized to be appropriated $30,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $35,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $40,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984. Not less than 40 percent of the amount appropriated under this subsection for any fiscal year shall be obligated by the Secretary for grants under subsection (a).

GRANTS FOR NON-REVENUE-PRODUCING SERVICES

Service requirements.

42 USC 9435.

SEC. 205. (a)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private community mental health center to assist in meeting the costs (as determined by the Secretary by regulation) of—

(A) providing the consultation and education services described in clause (iv) of section 101(b)(1)(A),

(B) providing the followup services described in clause (iii) of such section,

(C) administering the mental health service programs of the center,

(D) providing individuals who will be responsible for assuring that individuals in need of both mental health services and support services receive each of the services that they need, and

(E) any other non-revenue-producing service which the Secretary determines is appropriate for a community mental health center to provide.

Eligibility.

(2) To be eligible for a grant under paragraph (1) a community mental health center must—

(A) have received a grant under section 203(a) of the Community Mental Health Centers Act, under section 220 of such Act as in effect before July 29, 1975, or under section 201 of this Act; and

79 Stat. 428, 84 Stat. 56.

(B) because of the limitations on the period for which a center may receive such a grant or on the number of such grants the center may receive, be no longer eligible to receive such a grant.

Assurances.

(b) An application for a grant under subsection (a) shall contain assurances satisfactory to the Secretary that the applicant will, during the period which it receives a grant under subsection (a), provide, at a minimum—

(1) the comprehensive mental health services described in clauses (i) through (iv) of section 101(b)(1)(A), and

(2) any service described in section 101(b)(1)(B) which the center was providing in the last year it received a grant under the Community Mental Health Centers Act or this Act for its operations.

42 USC 2689 note.

Such an application shall also include information regarding the extent to which and manner in which the applicant has served chronically mentally ill individuals in prior years (if such service has been provided) and proposes to serve chronically mentally ill individuals during the fiscal year for which the grant is sought.

Limitation.

(c)(1) No community mental health center may receive more than five grants under subsection (a).

Grant computation.

Population determination.

(2) The amount of a grant under subsection (a) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that no grant may exceed the product of $1.25 and the population of the mental health service area of the community mental health center receiving the grant. The population of a mental health service area shall be determined on the basis of the latest figures for the populations of the States available from the Department of Commerce.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) For grants under subsection (a) there are authorized to be appropriated $30,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $35,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $40,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

GRANTS FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES IN HEALTH CARE CENTERS

Service requirements. 42 USC 9436.

SEC. 206. (a)(1) For the purpose of assisting health care centers to participate appropriately in the provision of mental health services to their patients, the Secretary may make grants to—

(A) any public or nonprofit private entity which provides mental health services that include at least twenty-four-hour emergency services, outpatient services, and consultation and education services (as described in section 101(b)(1)(A)(iv)) and has in effect an agreement of affiliation, described in paragraph (2), with an entity which is a health care center; or

(B) any public or nonprofit private health care center which has in effect an agreement of affiliation, described in paragraph (2), with an entity described in subparagraph (A).

Affiliation agreement.

(2) An agreement of affiliation referred to in paragraph (1) is an agreement between a mental health services entity described in paragraph (1)(A) and a health care center which agreement—

(A) describes the geographical area the residents of which will be served by the mental health services to be provided under the agreement;

(B) provides for the employment of at least one mental health professional to serve as a liaison between the parties to the agreement and includes a description of the qualifications to be required of that person and of any other professional mental health personnel to be employed under the agreement;

(C) provides satisfactory assurances that the mental health services entity will make mental health services available to patients of the center referred to it by the liaison or other mental health professionals; and

(D) includes transportation arrangements and other arrangements for effecting referral from the center to the mental health services entity of patients needing the services of such entity.

Projects.

(b) Any grant under subsection (a) may be made for a project for any one or more of the following:

(1) The costs of the liaison or other mental health professionals providing services in the health care center in accordance with an agreement of affiliation.

(2) Mental health services provided by other personnel of the center which the mental health services entity determines can be appropriately provided by such personnel.

(3) Consultation and inservice training on mental health provided to personnel of the health care center by the mental health services entity.

(4) Establishing liaison between the center and other providers of mental health services or support services.

Limitation.

(c)(1) No entity may receive more than eight grants under subsection (a).

Grant computation.

(2) The amount of any grant under subsection (a) shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount of—

(A) the first and second grant may not exceed 90 percent of the costs (as determined by the Secretary) of the project for which the grant is made;

(B) the third grant may not exceed 80 percent of such costs;

(C) the fourth grant may not exceed 70 percent of such costs;

(D) the fifth grant may not exceed 60 percent of such costs;

(E) the sixth grant may not exceed 50 percent of such costs;

(F) the seventh grant may not exceed 40 percent of such costs; and

(G) the eighth grant may not exceed 30 percent of such costs.

Costs exceeded by funds, grant adjustment.

(3) If in a fiscal year the sum of—

(A) the total of State, local, and other funds, and of the fees, premiums, and third-party reimbursements collected in that year, and

(B) the amount of the grant received under subsection (a) by a center or other entity, exceeds its actual costs of operation for that year and if the center or entity is eligible to receive a grant under subsection (a) in the succeeding year, an adjustment in the amount of that grant shall be made in such a manner that the center or entity may retain such an amount (not to exceed 50 per centum of the amount by which such sum exceeded such costs) as the center or entity can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary will be used to enable the center or entity (i) to expand and improve its services, (ii) to increase the number of persons which it is able to serve, (iii) to modernize its facilities, (iv) to improve the administration of its service programs, and (v) to establish a financial reserve for the purpose of offsetting the decrease in the percentage of Federal participation in program operations in future years.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) For grants under subsection (a) there are authorized to be appropriated $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $17,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $20,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

(e) For purposes of this section, the term "health care center" includes an outpatient facility operated in connection with a hospital, a primary care center, a community health center, a migrant health center, a clinic of the Indian Health Service, a skilled nursing home, an intermediate care facility, and an outpatient health care facility of a medical group practice, a public health department, or a health maintenance organization.

GRANTS AND CONTRACTS FOR INNOVATIVE PROJECTS

42 USC 9437.

SEC. 207. (a) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for—

(1) projects for the training and retraining of employees adversely affected by changes in the delivery of mental health services and for providing such employees assistance in securing employment;

(2) projects for the innovative use of personnel in the management and delivery of mental health services; and

(3) any other innovative project of national significance respecting mental health services and mental health services personnel.

The Secretary may enter into contracts for the projects described in this subsection with any private entity which is engaged solely in the provision of mental health services.

Limitation.

(b)(1) The total number of grants and contracts which an entity may receive under subsection (a) may not exceed five.

Amount, determination.

(2) The amount of any grant or contract under subsection (a) shall be determined by the Secretary.

Application.

(c) No contract may be entered into under subsection (a) unless an application therefor has been submitted to and approved by the Secretary. The application shall be submitted in such form and manner and shall contain such information as the Secretary may prescribe.

(d) Of the total amount appropriated for any fiscal year under sections 201 through 206, 5 percent is available to the Secretary in such fiscal year for grants and contracts under subsection (a). Of the funds obligated in any fiscal year by the Secretary for such grants and contracts, not less than 50 percent shall be obligated for approvable projects described in subsection (a)(1).

GRANTS FOR THE PREVENTION OF MENTAL ILLNESS AND THE PROMOTION OF MENTAL HEALTH

42 USC 9438.

SEC. 208. (a) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for projects for the prevention of mental illness and the promotion of mental health or to demonstrate the effectiveness of intervention techniques and mental health promotion activities in the—

(1) maintenance and improvement of the mental health of individuals and groups of individuals particularly susceptible to mental illness,

(2) prevention of the onset of mental illness in such individuals and groups,

(3) prevention of the deterioration of the mental health of such individuals and groups,

(4) education of the general public regarding mental health problems and mental illness, the prevention of mental health problems and mental illness, and the promotion of mental health, and

(5) provision of screening, consultation, referral, and education in public school systems and in places of employment to detect and prevent early mental health problems and to promote mental health.

(b) Projects supported by grants under subsection (a) shall be consistent with national goals and priorities regarding the prevention of mental illness and promotion of mental health determined by the Director of the National Institute of Mental Health under section 455(d)(1) of the Public Health Service Act.

42 USC 289k-1.

Application requirements.

(c) An application for a grant under subsection (a) shall—

(1) define the techniques and mental health promotion activities to be funded by the grant;

(2) define the individuals or groups of individuals to be served by such techniques and activities; and

(3) provide for the evaluation of the effectiveness of such techniques and activities and describe the methodology to be used in making such evaluation.

Limitation. Amount, determination.

(d) No entity may receive more than eight grants under subsection (a). The amount of a grant under subsection (a) shall be determined by the Secretary.

Appropriation authorization.

(e) For the purpose of grants under subsection (a) there are authorized to be appropriated $6,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $7,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $8,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING GRANT PROGRAMS

PART A—STATE MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROGRAMS

STATE MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES PROGRAMS

42 USC 9451.

SEC. 301. The State mental health authority of and any entity in a State is not eligible to receive a grant or contract under title II or this title for any fiscal year unless such State has in effect a State mental health services program which—

(1) has been prepared by the State mental health authority in consultation with the Statewide Health Coordinating Council of the State, and

(2) is consistent with the provisions relating to mental health services of the State health plan prepared in accordance with section 1524(c)(2) of the Public Health Service Act. 42 USC 300m-3.

CONTENTS OF PROGRAMS

42 USC 9452.

SEC. 302. A State mental health services program shall be submitted in such form and manner as the Secretary prescribes. The program shall consist of an administrative part and a services part as follows:

Administrative part.

(1) The administrative part shall—

(A) provide that the State mental health authority will assume responsibility for administration of the program;

State advisory council.

(B) provide for the designation of a State advisory council to consult with the State mental health authority in administering the program, which council shall include—

(i) representatives of nongovernmental organizations or groups, and of State agencies, concerned with the planning, operation, or use of facilities for the provision of mental health services, and

(ii) representatives of consumers and providers of such services who are familiar with the need for such services, and the nonprovider members of which shall constitute at least one-half of the membership of the council;

Reports; records, access.

(C) provide that the State mental health authority will make such reports in such form and containing such information as the Secretary may from time to time reasonably require, and will keep such records and afford such access thereto as the Secretary may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports;

Data.

(D) provide that any statistics or other data included in the program or on which the program is based will conform to such criteria, standards, and other requirements relating to their form, method of collection, content, or other aspects as the Secretary may prescribe;

Review; modifications, submittal to Secretary.

(E) provide that the State mental health authority will from time to time, but not less often than annually, review the program and submit to the Secretary appropriate modifications thereof which it considers necessary;

Personnel standards.

(F) include provisions, meeting such requirements as the Office of Personnel Management may prescribe, relating to the establishment and maintenance of personnel standards on a merit basis; and

Employee protection.

(G) include a statement of the arrangements made pursuant to section 801.

Services part.

(2) The services part shall—

(A) identify the mental health service areas within the State;

(B) identify the need in each mental health service area of the State for mental health and related support services after consideration of—

(i) the demographic, economic, cultural, and social characteristics of the population of the area, and

(ii) the special mental health services needs in the area of chronically mentally ill individuals, emotionally disturbed children and adolescents, elderly individuals, and other priority population groups;

(C) identify and evaluate the public and private mental health facilities, the mental health personnel, and the mental health services available in each mental health service area, and determine the additional facilities, personnel, and services necessary to meet the mental health needs of each area;

(D) identify the methods used (i) to determine the mental health needs of each mental health service area, and (ii) to evaluate the facilities, personnel, and services of each mental health service area;

(E) provide the information described in subparagraphs (B) through (D) for mental health services and related support service needs which relate to more than one mental health service area;

(F) list the mental health service needs of each mental health service area in the order of priority that such needs should be addressed through the use of existing Federal, State, and local resources;

(G) identify measures which need to be taken to alleviate geographic, cultural, linguistic, and economic barriers with respect to the delivery of mental health services in the mental health service areas;

(H) identify the legal rights of persons in the State who are mentally ill or otherwise mentally handicapped and describe any measure which needs to be taken to protect such rights;

(I) describe the actions which need to be taken by the State and entities in communities of the State to coordinate the provision of mental health and related support services in the State;

(J) describe, in specific terms, the actions the State mental health authority will take—

(i) to continue the provision of appropriate services which have been provided by local entities in the State with financial assistance under the Community Mental Health Centers Act and this Act and for which Federal financial assistance is no longer available;

42 USC 2689 note.

(ii) to promote the development of comprehensive mental health services in each mental health service area where such services are currently unavailable;

Placement and discharge.

(iii) to ensure substantially that, within a five-year period after the program is in effect in the State (or within such longer period as the Secretary, upon request of the State mental health authority, permits)—

(I) residents of public inpatient mental health facilities who have been inappropriately placed in such facilities are discharged, and, to the extent appropriate, are placed in the least-restrictive settings and provided mental health and related support services appropriate to such persons' level of functioning;

(II) persons who need to be placed in inpatient mental health facilities are placed in the least-restrictive settings and provided mental health and related support services appropriate to such persons' level of functioning; and

Facilities and programs, information and access.

(III) persons who are discharged from, or are in need of placement in, inpatient mental health facilities are informed of available community-based facilities and programs providing mental health and related support services, and provided access to a sufficient number of adequately staffed and adequately funded community-based facilities and programs providing mental health and related support services; and Screening.

(iv) to assist the courts and other public agencies, and appropriate private agencies, in screening persons being considered for inpatient care in mental health facilities in the State in order to determine if such care is medically or psychologically indicated;

Service description.

42 USC 601, 701, 1381, 1395, 1396, 1397.
20 USC 1401 note.
42 USC 3001 note.
42 USC 6001 note.
42 USC 4541 note.
21 USC 1101 note.

(K) include a description of the services made available for mentally ill individuals in the State under titles IV, V, XVI, XVIII, XIX, and XX of the Social Security Act and under the Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975, the Older Americans Act, the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, the Comprehensive Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Act of 1970, the Drug Abuse Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Act, and other relevant Federal statutes;

Service coordination.

(L) describe the steps being taken in the State to coordinate the provision of services under this Act with the provision of services under the Acts referred to in subparagraph (K); and

(M) contain or be accompanied by such additional information or assurances and meet such other requirements as the Secretary prescribes in order to achieve the purposes of this Act.

MENTAL HEALTH PROVISIONS OF STATE HEALTH PLANS

42 USC 300m-2.

Sec. 303. Section 1523(a)(1)(B) of the Public Health Service Act is amended by inserting after "the statewide health needs of the State" the following: ", including the need for mental health services in the State,".

Part B—Applications and Related Provisions

STATE ADMINISTRATION

42 USC 9461.

Sec. 305. (a) The Secretary may enter into an agreement with any qualified State mental health authority of a State under which the authority will be the exclusive agent for the State and entities within the State for purposes of the financial assistance programs authorized by title II (other than the programs authorized by sections 207 and 208).

Qualified State mental health authority.

(b) For purposes of subsection (a), a qualified State mental health authority is an authority which meets the following requirements:

(1) A State mental health authority shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary (A) that it is effectively implementing its State mental health services program prepared pursuant to section 301, and (B) that it, or another agency of the State, is making a good faith effort to establish and implement procedures for carrying out the requirements of paragraph (2).

Chronically mentally ill individuals, discharge monitoring.

(2)(A) For the purpose of eliminating the overconcentration of chronically mentally ill individuals in any community or group of communities in a State, the State mental health authority of the State shall monitor the discharge and diversion of such individuals into communities by inpatient mental health facilities.

Service program.

(B) A State mental health authority shall administer a program of services for chronically mentally ill individuals in the State who have been discharged or diverted from inpatient mental health facilities. Such program shall include at least the following:

Discharge, notification.

(i) The timely notification by the inpatient mental health facilities in the State to the appropriate community mental health centers or other entities of the discharge of and the location of the residence of each chronically mentally ill individual who has given an informed consent to such notification.

Prerelease consultation.

(ii) Before a chronically mentally ill individual is discharged from an inpatient mental health facility into a community, a prerelease consultation between the facility and the appropriate community mental health center or other entity respecting the individual if the individual has given an informed consent to such consultation. Such consultation shall take place without delaying the discharge of such individual from the mental health facility. Such consultation shall include a preliminary evaluation of the physical, mental, social, and monetary needs of the individual to be discharged, and an identification of the services and programs for which such individual is eligible.

Treatment and services plan.

(iii) Development by each inpatient mental health facility of a written treatment and services plan for each chronically mentally ill individual who is to be discharged or who is diverted by the facility and who has given an informed consent to the development of such plan. The plan shall be developed in consultation with a case manager in the community mental health center or other appropriate entity in the mental health service area in which such individual will or does reside. Such plan shall—

(I) to the maximum extent feasible, be developed with the participation of the individual discharged or diverted and the family of such individual;

(II) include appropriate living arrangements suited to the needs of the individual, and, if the individual resides or is to reside in a residence in which there are at least three other chronically mentally ill individuals with whom the individual is not related by blood or marriage and which charges the individual for residing in the residence, assure that the residence meets the requirements prescribed under subparagraph (C) or meets the comparable requirements established under section 1616(e) of the Social Security Act.

42 USC 1382e.

(III) describe appropriate mental health services and other needed services, such as medical and dental services, rehabilitation services, vocational training and placement, social services, and living skills training; and

(IV) identify specific programs and services for which the individual is eligible, including income support.

There shall be a periodic reevaluation of the plan at least every one hundred and twenty days.

Periodic reevaluation.

(iv) In the case of a chronically mentally ill individual for whom a plan has been developed under clause (iii), designation of a case manager to be responsible for the implementation of the plan and the coordination of services under the plan.

(v) The establishment and enforcement of minimum standards for the provision of followup care for the chronically mentally ill by community mental health centers and other appropriate entities.

Compliance with the informed consent requirements of the program shall be determined in accordance with the law of the State in which the program is in effect.

(C) A State mental health authority shall develop a program for regulating, in accordance with guidelines established by the Secretary, residences in which there are at least four chronically mentally ill individuals who are not related by blood or marriage, which charge such individuals for residing in the residence, and which do not meet the comparable requirements established under section 1616(e) of the Social Security Act. Such program shall include the following:

Residence approval, minimum standards.

(i) Minimum standards for approval of a residence, including a standard which requires a mechanism to be available to the residents who are chronically mentally ill to provide referral to and assistance in reaching appropriate medical, dental, mental health, and other services not available at a residence, compliance with appropriate life safety, fire, and sanitation codes, and access for visitation during reasonable hours without prior notice by appropriate mental health and social service staff.

(ii) Procedures for the evaluation, inspection, and monitoring of the compliance of the residence with the requirements of the program.

(iii) Remedies for noncompliance with such requirements.

Educational or informational services.

(D) A State mental health authority shall provide educational or informational services to educate the population of the State regarding the problems of chronically mentally ill individuals, the need for community involvement in programs designed to resolve the problems of chronically mentally ill individuals outside institutional settings, and the resources available or needed to help such programs succeed.

(E) A State mental health authority shall improve the skills of personnel involved in providing services for chronically mentally ill individuals through inservice training, retraining, or other training of such personnel.

Biennial report to Secretary.

(F) A State mental health authority shall provide satisfactory assurances to the Secretary that it will submit a biennial report to the Secretary regarding its efforts and progress under this paragraph, including the manner in which the needs of chronically mentally ill individuals in each mental health service area in the State are being met within the community and the State's progress in implementing mechanisms to ensure that, as chronically mentally ill individuals are discharged from mental health facilities, increased State mental health funds are available for community-based care.

Agreement application.

Notice, publication in Federal Register.

(c) No agreement may be entered into under subsection (a) with a State mental health authority unless the authority has submitted an application to the Secretary in such form and manner as the Secretary shall prescribe. The Secretary shall publish a notice in the Federal Register identifying the States which have made an application for an agreement under subsection (a) and, in considering an application, the Secretary shall provide a reasonable opportunity for submission of comments on the application.

Grants to States.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) The Secretary may make grants to States which have entered into agreements under subsection (a) for purposes of assisting the States in meeting the costs of carrying out the agreements. For grants authorized by this subsection there are authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $4,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $5,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

PROCESSING OF APPLICATIONS BY STATE MENTAL HEALTH AUTHORITIES

42 USC 9462.
Ante, p. 1571.

SEC. 306. (a) Each applicant for a grant under title II (other than an applicant for a grant under section 207 or 208) shall submit its application to the State mental health authority for its State in accordance with such requirements as the authority may prescribe.

(b)(1) If a State mental health authority has entered into an agreement under section 305, the authority shall carry out the following:

Hearing.

(A) The authority shall consider the applications submitted to it in accordance with subsection (a), and, in the course of such consideration, shall provide the applicants and other interested persons with a reasonable opportunity for a hearing before the authority on the applications. The authority shall also provide a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on applications the authority proposes to submit for itself to the Secretary.

(B) The authority may modify any application submitted to it and may return an application to an applicant.

(C) The authority shall (i) rank all the applications which the authority proposes to transmit to the Secretary in the order in which the authority determines the applications should be funded when approved by the Secretary, and (ii) in accordance with the agreement entered into under section 305, transmit such applications to the Secretary.

If the State mental health authority modifies or returns an application, the State mental health authority shall provide the applicant involved with a statement of the reasons for the modification or return.

(2) If a State mental health authority has not entered into an agreement under section 305, the authority shall carry out the following:

Hearing.

(A) The authority shall consider the applications submitted to it in accordance with subsection (a), and, in the course of such consideration, shall provide the applicants and other interested persons with a reasonable opportunity for a hearing before the authority on the applications. The authority shall also provide a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on applications the authority proposes to submit for itself to the Secretary.

Ante, p. 1571.

(B) For each category of grants under title II for which an application was submitted to or proposed by the authority, the authority shall (i) rank all the applications for such category of grants in the order in which the authority determines the applications should be funded when approved by the Secretary, and (ii) in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary, transmit such applications to the Secretary.

(c)(1) An applicant may appeal to the Secretary a decision of a State mental health authority under subsection (b)(1) to return to the applicant its application or to modify its application. In reviewing the decision of the authority, the Secretary shall provide the authority and the applicant involved a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on the appeal of the decision of the authority. If the Secretary finds that the decision of the authority was arbitrary or capricious, the Secretary—

(A) shall, if the decision of the authority was to return the application, return the application to the authority for ranking, and

(B) shall, if the decision of the authority was to modify the application, provide the authority an opportunity to change its rank of the application, and the Secretary may consider the application without regard to the modifications.

(2) An applicant may appeal to the Secretary a decision of a State mental health authority under subsection (b)(2) ranking the application. In reviewing the decision of the authority, the Secretary shall provide the authority and the applicant involved a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on the appeal of the decision of the authority. If the Secretary finds that, on the basis of the record established in the hearing provided under the preceding sentence, there is substantial evidence that the activity proposed in the application involved would better carry out the purposes of the section under which it would be funded than other applications under that section given a higher rank, the Secretary may consider the application without regard to the rank given the application by the State mental health authority.

(3) A decision of the Secretary under paragraph (1) or (2) is not subject to judicial review.

(d) If a State mental health authority fails to carry out, in accordance with an agreement entered into under section 305 or with regulations issued by the Secretary, its responsibilities under subsection (b) with respect to applications submitted to it, the applicants under such applications shall be provided an opportunity to submit their applications directly to the Secretary.

APPLICATIONS

42 USC 9463. Ante, pp. 1585, 1571.

SEC. 307. (a) No grant may be made under this title or title II unless an application therefor is submitted to and approved by the Secretary. The application shall be in such form, submitted in such manner, and contain such information, as the Secretary may require.

(b) An application for a grant under section 201, 202, 203, or 204 must, in addition to the application requirements prescribed in the section under which the grant is to be made, contain or be accompanied by—

Financial plan and budget.

(1) a financial plan and budget covering the year for which the grant is sought (and such additional period as the Secretary may require) showing the sources of funding for the project and allocating the funds available for the project among the various types of services to be provided or assisted or the various types of activities to be conducted or assisted and among the various population groups to which the project is directed;

(2) a statement of the objectives of the project;

(3) with respect to health services which are to be provided, assurances satisfactory to the Secretary that—

Fee schedule.

(A) the applicant (i) has prepared a schedule of fees or payments for the provision of its services designed to cover its reasonable costs of operation and a corresponding schedule of discounts to be applied to the payment of such fees or payments which discounts are adjusted on the basis of the patient's ability to pay; (ii) has made and will continue to make every reasonable effort (I) to secure from patients payment for services in accordance with such approved schedules, and (II) to collect reimbursement for health services to persons described in subparagraph (B) on the basis of the full amount of fees and payments for such services without application of any discount, and (iii) has submitted to the Secretary such reports as the Secretary may require to determine compliance with this subparagraph; and

(B) the applicant has made or will make and will continue to make every reasonable effort to collect appropriate reimbursement for its costs in providing services to persons who are entitled to insurance benefits under title XVIII of the Social Security Act, to medical assistance under a State plan approved under title XIX of such Act, or to assistance for medical expenses under any other public assistance program or private health insurance program; and

42 USC 1395. 42 USC 1396.

(C) the applicant will adopt and enforce a policy (i) under which fees for the provision of mental health services through the applicant will be paid to the applicant, and (ii) which prohibits health professionals who provide such services to patients through the applicant from providing such services to such patients except through the applicant.

(4) in the case of a project which will serve a population which includes a substantial proportion of individuals of limited English-speaking ability, assurances satisfactory to the Secretary that the applicant has (A) developed a plan and made arrangements responsive to the needs of such population for providing services to the extent practicable in the language and cultural context most appropriate to such individuals, and (B) identified an individual on its staff who is fluent in both that language and English and whose responsibilities shall include providing guidance to such individuals and to appropriate staff members with respect to cultural sensitivity and bridging linguistic and cultural differences;

Noncompliance report, employee protection.

(5) assurances that the applicant has in effect a system, satisfactory to the Secretary, to assure that an employee of the applicant who reports to any officer or employee of the Department of Health and Human Services or appropriate State authority any failure on the part of the applicant to comply with an applicable requirement of this Act or regulation of the Secretary or requirement of State law will not on account of such report be discharged or discriminated against with respect to the employee's compensation or the terms, conditions, or privileges of the employee's employment;

(6) satisfactory assurances that each facility to be used in the provision of mental health or support services to be supported by the grant applied for meets the requirements of applicable fire and safety codes imposed by State law;

(7) information on the organization and operation of the applicant;

Records and other documents, accessibility.

(8) satisfactory assurances that the applicant will submit such reports, at such times and containing such information, as the Secretary may request and maintain such records as the Secretary may find necessary for purposes of this Act, and afford the Secretary and the Comptroller General of the United States such access to such records and other documents as may be necessary for an effective audit of the project;

Non-Federal funds, increase.

(9) satisfactory assurances that funds made available under this Act will be used to supplement and, to the extent practical, increase the level of non-Federal funds that would, in the absence of those Federal funds, be made available for the purpose for which the funds under this Act are made available, and will in no event supplant such non-Federal funds;

(10) satisfactory assurances that measures have been taken by the applicant to consult with members of the group or groups to be served, members of the public, and affected organizations and agencies during the development of the application, and to give reasonable opportunities to members of such groups, members of the public, and interested organizations and agencies to comment on the application;

(11) assurances that the applicant has made satisfactory efforts to coordinate the services to be provided with other mental health and support services in the same area;

(12) in the case of a grant under section 201 or 202, information regarding the extent to which and manner in which the applicant has served chronically mentally ill individuals in prior years (if such service has been provided) and proposes to serve chronically mentally ill individuals during the fiscal year for which the grant is sought;

(13) statistics and other information requested by the Secretary necessary to evaluate the compliance of the application with the requirements of this section;

(14) satisfactory assurance that the project is consistent with the State mental health services program; and

(15) such other information and material and such other assurances as the Secretary may prescribe.

(c) If an entity has received a grant under section 201, 202, 203, 204, or 206, the entity is not eligible to apply for a grant under another of such sections unless it continues to provide the service it provided under the grant it received or the Secretary determines that the service is not needed.

(d) If a grant is made for any fiscal year under section 202, 203, or 204(a) for a project in a mental health service area, no more than one grant may be made for such fiscal year for a project in such mental health service area under any one of the other such sections.

INDIAN TRIBES AND ORGANIZATIONS

42 USC 9464. Ante, pp. 1585, 1571.

SEC. 308. (a) Except as provided in this section, the requirements of this title and title II shall apply with respect to any application of an Indian tribe, intertribal organization, or urban Indian organization made for a grant under title II.

(b)(1) Any Indian tribe or intertribal organization may apply directly to the Secretary for a grant under title II for the provision of mental health services if such services will be available within or will specifically serve—

(A) a federally recognized Indian reservation,

(B) any land area in Oklahoma that is held in trust by the United States for Indians or that is a restricted Indian-owned land area,

(C) a native village in Alaska (as defined in section 3(c) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act), or

43 USC 1602.

(D) an Indian community the members of which are recognized as eligible for services under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act.

25 USC 1601 note.

(2) An application of an Indian tribe or intertribal organization authorized by paragraph (1)—

(A) shall also be submitted by the applicant to the Indian Health Service and may not be approved by the Secretary unless the Indian Health Service certifies that the application is consistent with the Tribal Specific Health Plan of the tribe or tribes to be served by the grant,

(B) shall not be subject to consideration by a State mental health authority,

(C) may be made without regard to the State mental health services program in effect in the State in which the tribe or organization is located, and

(D) may be considered, approved, and funded by the Secretary without regard to the mental health service area or areas in which the services under the grant will be provided.

(c) If the application of any Indian tribe, intertribal organization, or urban Indian organization for a grant under title II requests that the Indian Health Service or any entity of the Service provide the mental health services under the grant to members of such tribe or organization—

(1) the application shall not be subject to consideration by a State mental health authority, and

(2) if the application is approved, payments under the grant shall be made to the Indian Health Service or entity of the Service as requested in the application.

(d) For purposes of this section—

"Indian tribe." 25 USC 450 note.

(1) the term "Indian tribe" has the same meaning as is given that term by the Indian Self-Determination Act, and

(2) the term "urban Indian organization" has the same meaning as is given that term by the Indian Health Care Improvement Act.

"Urban Indian organization."

PROCEDURES

42 USC 9465. Ante, pp. 1585, 1571.

SEC. 309. In considering any application for a grant or contract under this title or title II, the Secretary shall provide a reasonable opportunity for the submission of comments on the application. If the Secretary does not approve an application, the Secretary shall provide the applicant and the State mental health authority of the State in which the applicant is located to the Secretary with a statement of the reasons of the Secretary for not approving the application.

PART C—PERFORMANCE

PERFORMANCE CONTRACTS

42 USC 9471.

SEC. 315. No payment may be made under any grant or contract made or entered into under title II or this title unless the Secretary has entered into a contract with the entity to which the grant has been made or with which the contract has been entered into specifying the following with respect to the performance of the activities for which the grant or contract was made or entered into:

(1) A schedule for the performance of such activities.

(2) The standards by which the performance of such activities by the entity will be monitored and evaluated, the incentives which will be provided the entity to meet such standards, and the role of the Secretary and of consumers and representatives of communities affected by such activities in such monitoring and evaluation.

(3) The methods and format which will be used in collecting and transmitting data to the Secretary respecting the performance of such activities.

(4) An expeditious and impartial method for the resolution of disputes between the entity and the Secretary respecting the performance of such activities.

(5) Such other matters which the Secretary includes in the contract to carry out the purposes of the section under which the grant or contract was made or entered into.

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

42 USC 9472.

SEC. 316. (a) The Secretary shall prescribe standard measures of performance designed to test the quality and extent of performance by the recipients of grants and contracts under title II and this title and the extent to which such performance has helped to achieve the national or other objectives for which the grants or contracts were made or entered into.

(b) In determining whether or not to approve an application for a grant or contract under title II or this title, the Secretary shall consider the performance by the applicant under any prior grant or contract under title II or this title as measured under subsection (a).

EVALUATION AND MONITORING

42 USC 9473.

SEC. 317. (a) With the approval of the Secretary, any recipient of a grant or contract under title II or this title may use a portion of that grant or contract for evaluation of the project or activity involved.

Ante, pp. 1571, 1585.

(b) Not more than 1 per centum of the total amount appropriated under title II and this title for any fiscal year shall be used by the Secretary, or through contracts with State mental health authorities or other entities, to monitor activities of the recipients of grants and contracts under title II or this title to determine if the requirements of this Act applicable to the receipt of such grants or contracts are being met.

Part D—Enforcement

ENFORCEMENT

42 USC 9481.

Proposed stop-payment order.
Ante, p. 1585.

Sec. 321. (a) If the Secretary determines that there has been a substantial and persistent failure—

(1) by a State mental health authority to implement its State mental health services program in accordance with the requirements of part A of this title, the Secretary may issue a proposed order to stop payments under title II and this title to any entity in the State, including the State mental health authority, until the Secretary is satisfied that such failure has been or will be corrected, or

(2) by any entity in a State which is receiving funds under a grant or contract under title II or this title to comply with the requirements of this title (other than the requirements of part A), the Secretary may issue a proposed order to stop payments under such grant or contract until the Secretary is satisfied that such failure has been or will be corrected.

The Secretary shall notify each entity affected by an order issued under this subsection of the effect of the order.

Hearing.

(b) If the Secretary issues an order under subsection (a), the Secretary shall provide a reasonable opportunity for an informal hearing for the entities affected by the order. Such a hearing shall be held in the State in which such entities are located. If after such a hearing the Secretary reaffirms the determination on which the order was based, the Secretary may discontinue payments as specified in the proposed order or as revised by the Secretary after the hearing.

Part E—Miscellaneous

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MENTAL HEALTH PREVENTION UNIT

42 USC 289k-1.

Administrative unit, designation.

Sec. 325. Section 455 of the Public Health Service Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) The Director shall designate an administrative unit in the Institute to—

"(1) design national goals and establish national priorities for—

"(A) the prevention of mental illness, and

"(B) the promotion of mental health,

"(2) encourage and assist local entities and State agencies to achieve the goals and priorities described in paragraph (1), and

"(3) develop and coordinate Federal prevention policies and programs and to assure increased focus on the prevention of mental illness and the promotion of mental health.".

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

SEC. 326. Such portion as the Secretary may determine, but not more than 2 percent, of the total amount appropriated under title II for any fiscal year is available to the Secretary to provide technical assistance, including short-term training, to any State mental health authority or other entity which is or has been a recipient of a grant under title II or this title to assist it in developing, or in better administering, the mental health services program or programs for which it is responsible.

42 USC 9491.
Ante, p. 1571.

INDIRECT PROVISION OF SERVICES

SEC. 327. Except as provided in section 101(b)(2), any mental health service which an entity is responsible for providing in a mental health service area under a grant or contract under title II may be provided by it directly at its primary or satellite facilities or through arrangements with other entities or health professionals and others in, or serving residents of, the same mental health service area.

42 USC 9492.

COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS

SEC. 328. In lieu of providing funds under a grant under title II or this title, the Secretary may provide such funds under a cooperative agreement, and all requirements which would apply with respect to such a grant shall apply to the cooperative agreement.

42 USC 9493.

TITLE IV—ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR FOR MINORITY CONCERNS

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR FOR MINORITY CONCERNS

SEC. 401. (a) Section 455 of the Public Health Service Act (as amended by section 325 of this Act) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

42 USC 289k-1.

"(e)(1) The Director of the National Institute of Mental Health shall designate an Associate Director for Minority Concerns.

Designation.

"(2) The Secretary, acting through the Associate Director for Minority Concerns, shall—

Functions.

"(A) develop and coordinate prevention, treatment, research, and administrative policies and programs to assure increased emphasis on the mental health needs of minority populations.

"(B) support programs and projects relating to the delivery of mental health services to minority populations, including demonstration programs and projects;

"(C) develop a plan to increase the representation of minority populations in mental health service delivery and manpower programs;

"(D) support programs of basic and applied social and behavioral research on the mental health problems of minority populations;

"(E) study the effects of discrimination on institutions and individuals, including majority institutions and individuals;

"(F) develop systems to assist minority populations in adapting to, and coping with, the effects of discrimination;

"(G) support and develop research, demonstration, and training programs designed to eliminate institutional discrimination; and

"(H) provide increased emphasis on the concerns of minority populations in training programs, service delivery programs, and research endeavors of the Institute.".

Effective date. 42 USC 289k-1 note.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act or October 1, 1980, whichever occurs later.

TITLE V—MENTAL HEALTH RIGHTS AND ADVOCACY

BILL OF RIGHTS

State laws, review and revision. 42 USC 9501.

SEC. 501. It is the sense of the Congress that each State should review and revise, if necessary, its laws to ensure that mental health patients receive the protection and services they require; and in making such review and revision should take into account the recommendations of the President's Commission on Mental Health and the following:

(1) A person admitted to a program or facility for the purpose of receiving mental health services should be accorded the following:

Appropriate treatment and related services.

(A) The right to appropriate treatment and related services in a setting and under conditions that—

(i) are the most supportive of such person's personal liberty; and

(ii) restrict such liberty only to the extent necessary consistent with such person's treatment needs, applicable requirements of law, and applicable judicial orders.

Individualized written treatment or service plan.

(B) The right to an individualized, written, treatment or service plan (such plan to be developed promptly after admission of such person), the right to treatment based on such plan, the right to periodic review and reassessment of treatment and related service needs, and the right to appropriate revision of such plan, including any revision necessary to provide a description of mental health services that may be needed after such person is discharged from such program or facility.

Service planning, participation.

(C) The right to ongoing participation, in a manner appropriate to such person's capabilities, in the planning of mental health services to be provided such person (including the right to participate in the development and periodic revision of the plan described in subparagraph (B)), and, in connection with such participation, the right to be provided with a reasonable explanation, in terms and language appropriate to such person's condition and ability to understand, of—

(i) such person's general mental condition and, if such program or facility has provided a physical examination, such person's general physical condition;

(ii) the objectives of treatment;

(iii) the nature and significant possible adverse effects of recommended treatments;

(iv) the reasons why a particular treatment is considered appropriate;

(v) the reasons why access to certain visitors may not be appropriate; and

(vi) any appropriate and available alternative treatments, services, and types of providers of mental health services.

(D) The right not to receive a mode or course of treatment, established pursuant to the treatment plan, in the absence of such person's informed, voluntary, written consent to such mode or course of treatment, except treatment—

(i) during an emergency situation if such treatment is pursuant to or documented contemporaneously by the written order of a responsible mental health professional; or

(ii) as permitted under applicable law in the case of a person committed by a court to a treatment program or facility.

Experimentation, non-participation.

(E) The right not to participate in experimentation in the absence of such person's informed, voluntary, written consent, the right to appropriate protections in connection with such participation, including the right to a reasonable explanation of the procedure to be followed, the benefits to be expected, the relative advantages of alternative treatments, and the potential discomforts and risks, and the right and opportunity to revoke such consent.

Restraint or seclusion.

(F) The right to freedom from restraint or seclusion, other than as a mode or course of treatment or restraint or seclusion during an emergency situation if such restraint or seclusion is pursuant to or documented contemporaneously by the written order of a responsible mental health professional.

Humane treatment.

(G) The right to a humane treatment environment that affords reasonable protection from harm and appropriate privacy to such person with regard to personal needs.

(H) The right to confidentiality of such person's records.

Records, access.

(I) The right to access, upon request, to such person's mental health care records, except such person may be refused access to—

(i) information in such records provided by a third party under assurance that such information shall remain confidential; and

(ii) specific material in such records if the health professional responsible for the mental health services concerned has made a determination in writing that such access would be detrimental to such person's health, except that such material may be made available to a similarly licensed health professional selected by such person and such health professional may, in the exercise of professional judgment, provide such person with access to any or all parts of such material or otherwise disclose the information contained in such material to such person.

(J) The right, in the case of a person admitted on a residential or inpatient care basis, to converse with others privately, to have convenient and reasonable access to the telephone and mails, and to see visitors during regularly scheduled hours, except that, if a mental health professional treating such person determines that denial of access to a particular visitor is necessary for treatment purposes, such mental health professional may, for a specific, limited, and reasonable period of time, deny such access if such mental health professional has ordered such denial in writing and such order has been incorporated in the treatment plan for such person. An order denying such access should include the reasons for such denial.

(K) The right to be informed promptly at the time of admission and periodically thereafter, in language and terms appropriate to such person's condition and ability to understand, of the rights described in this section.

Grievance assertions.

(L) The right to assert grievances with respect to infringement of the rights described in this section, including the right to have such grievances considered in a fair, timely, and impartial grievance procedure provided for or by the program or facility.

Rights protection service, accessibility.

(M) Notwithstanding subparagraph (J), the right of access to (including the opportunities and facilities for private communication with) any available—

(i) rights protection service within the program or facility;

(ii) rights protection service within the State mental health system designed to be available to such person; and

(iii) qualified advocate;

for the purpose of receiving assistance to understand, exercise, and protect the rights described in this section and in other provisions of law.

(N) The right to exercise the rights described in this section without reprisal, including reprisal in the form of denial of any appropriate, available treatment.

(C) The right to referral as appropriate to other providers of mental health services upon discharge.

(2)(A) The rights described in this section should be in addition to and not in derogation of any other statutory or constitutional rights.

Records, confidentiality and accessibility.

(B) The rights to confidentiality of and access to records as provided in subparagraphs (H) and (I) of paragraph (1) should remain applicable to records pertaining to a person after such person's discharge from a program or facility.

Admission, non-denial.

(3)(A) No otherwise eligible person should be denied admission to a program or facility for mental health services as a reprisal for the exercise of the rights described in this section.

(B) Nothing in this section should—

(i) obligate an individual mental health or health professional to administer treatment contrary to such professional's clinical judgment;

(ii) prevent any program or facility from discharging any person for whom the provision of appropriate treatment, consistent with the clinical judgment of the mental health professional primarily responsible for such person's treatment, is or has become impossible as a result of such person's refusal to consent to such treatment;

(iii) require a program or facility to admit any person who, while admitted on prior occasions to such program or facility, has repeatedly frustrated the purposes of such admissions by withholding consent to proposed treatment; or

(iv) obligate a program or facility to provide treatment services to any person who is admitted to such program or facility solely for diagnostic or evaluative purposes.

(C) In order to assist a person admitted to a program or facility in the exercise or protection of such person's rights, such person's attorney or legal representatives should have reasonable access to—

(i) such person;

(ii) the areas of the program or facility where such person has received treatment, resided, or had access; and

(iii) pursuant to the written authorization of such person, the records and information pertaining to such person's diagnosis, treatment, and related services described in paragraph (1)(I).

Records and information, accessibility.

(D) Each program and facility should post a notice listing and describing, in language and terms appropriate to the ability of the persons to whom such notice is addressed to understand, the rights described in this section of all persons admitted to such program or facility. Each such notice should conform to the format and content for such notices, and should be posted in all appropriate locations.

Notice.

(4)(A) In the case of a person adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as being incompetent to exercise the right to consent to treatment or experimentation described in subparagraph (D) or (E) of paragraph (1), or the right to confidentiality of or access to records described in subparagraph (H) or (I) of such paragraph, or to provide authorization as described in paragraph (3)(C)(iii), such right may be exercised or such authorization may be provided by the individual appointed by such court as such person's guardian or representative for the purpose of exercising such right or such authorization.

Incompetent persons.

(B) In the case of a person who lacks capacity to exercise the right to consent to treatment or experimentation under subparagraph (D) or (E) of paragraph (1), or the right to confidentiality of or access to records described in subparagraph (H) or (I) of such paragraph, or to provide authorization as described in paragraph (3)(C)(iii), because such person has not attained an age considered sufficiently advanced under State law to permit the exercise of such right or such authorization to be legally binding, such right may be exercised or such authorization may be provided on behalf of such person by a parent or legal guardian of such person.

Incapacitated persons.

(C) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A) and (B) in the case of a person admitted to a program or facility for the purpose of receiving mental health services, no individual employed by or receiving any remuneration from such program or facility should act as such person's guardian or representative.

GRANTS FOR PROTECTION AND ADVOCACY PROGRAMS

SEC. 502. (a)(1) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for projects to protect and advocate the rights of mentally ill individuals if the entity—

(A) has the authority and ability to pursue legal, administrative, and other appropriate remedies to ensure the protection of the rights of mentally ill individuals, and

(B) is independent of any entity which provides treatment or services to mentally ill individuals.

Public or nonprofit private entity, eligibility.
42 USC 9502.

(2) A grant under paragraph (1) for the first fiscal year for which funds are appropriated under subsection (d) may be made only to an entity of the government of a State designated by the Governor of the State or a public or nonprofit private entity in a State recommended by the Governor of the State. A grant under paragraph (1) for a succeeding fiscal year may be made to any public or nonprofit private entity, except that in considering an application of an entity which is not an entity of State government designated by the Governor or which has not been recommended by the Governor of a State, the Secretary shall notify the Governor of the State in which such entity is located of the application and shall provide the Governor and other interested persons a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on the application.

Hearing.

Training and technical assistance.

(b) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity for the provision of training and technical assistance for entities carrying out projects to protect and advocate the rights of mentally ill individuals.

(c) No grant may be made under subsection (a) or (b) unless an application therefor is submitted to and approved by the Secretary. The application shall be submitted in such form and manner, and shall contain such information, as the Secretary may prescribe.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) For grants under subsections (a) and (b), there are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $12,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984. Not more than 10 percent and not less than 5 percent of the amount appropriated under this subsection for any fiscal year shall be obligated for grants under subsection (b).

TITLE VI—RAPE PREVENTION AND CONTROL

RAPE PREVENTION AND CONTROL

42 USC 9511.

Sec. 601. (a) The Secretary, acting through the National Center for the Prevention and Control of Rape (hereafter in this section referred to as the "Center"), may, directly or by grant, carry out the following:

Study and investigation.

(1) A continuing study of rape, including a study and investigation of—

(A) the effectiveness of existing Federal, State, and local laws dealing with rape;

(B) the relationship, if any, between traditional legal and social attitudes toward sexual roles, the act of rape, and the formulation of laws dealing with rape;

(C) the treatment of the victims of rape by law enforcement agencies, hospitals or other medical institutions, prosecutors, and the courts;

(D) the causes of rape, identifying to the degree possible—

(i) social conditions which encourage sexual attacks, and

(ii) the motives of offenders, and

(E) the impact of rape on the victim and family of the victim;

(F) sexual assaults in correctional institutions;

(G) the estimated actual incidence of forcible rape as compared to the reported incidence of forcible rape and the reasons for any difference between the two; and

(H) the effectiveness of existing private and local and State government educational, counseling, and other programs designed to prevent and control rape.

Summaries, publication.

Report to Congress.

(2) The compilation, analysis, and publication of summaries of the continuing study conducted under paragraph (1) and the research and demonstration projects conducted under paragraph (5). The Secretary shall submit not later than March 30, 1983, to the Congress a summary of such study and projects together with a review of their effectiveness and recommendations where appropriate.

Information clearinghouse.

(3) The development and maintenance of an information clearinghouse with regard to—

(A) the prevention and control of rape;

(B) the treatment and counseling of the victims of rape and their families; and

(C) the rehabilitation of offenders.

Training materials.

(4) The compilation and publication of training materials for personnel who are engaged or intend to engage in programs designed to prevent and control rape.

(5) Assistance to community mental health centers and other qualified public and nonprofit private entities in conducting research and demonstration projects concerning the prevention and control of rape, including projects (A) for the planning, development, implementation, and evaluation of alternative methods used in the prevention and control of rape, the treatment and counseling of the victims of rape and their families, and the rehabilitation of offenders; (B) for the application of such alternative methods; and (C) for the promotion of community awareness of the specific locations in which, and the specific social and other conditions under which sexual attacks are most likely to occur.

Costs, assistance.

(6) Assistance to community mental health centers in meeting the costs of providing consultation and education services respecting rape.

Advisory committee, appointment.

Membership.

Compensation.

5 USC 5332 note.

(b) The Secretary shall appoint an advisory committee to advise, consult with, and make recommendations to the Secretary on the implementation of subsection (a). The recommendations of the committee shall be submitted directly to the Secretary without review or revision by any person without the consent of the committee. The Secretary shall appoint to such committee persons who are particularly qualified to assist in carrying out the functions of the committee. A majority of the members of the committee shall be women. Members of the advisory committee shall receive compensation at rates, not to exceed the daily equivalent of the annual rate in effect for grade GS-18 of the General Schedule, for each day (including traveltime) they are engaged in the performance of their duties as members of the advisory committee and, while so serving away from their homes or regular places of business, each member shall be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in Government service employed intermittently.

(c) No grant may be made under subsection (a) unless an application therefor is submitted to and approved by the Secretary. The application shall be submitted in such form and manner and contain such information as the Secretary may prescribe.

Appropriation authorization.

(d) For the purpose of carrying out subsection (a), there are authorized to be appropriated $6,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, $1,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $1,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983.

"Rape."

(e) For purposes of subsection (a), the term "rape" includes statutory and attempted rape and any other criminal sexual assault (whether homosexual or heterosexual) which involves force or the threat of force.

Repeal.
42 USC 2689q.

(f) Part D of the Community Mental Health Centers Act is repealed.

GRANTS FOR SERVICES FOR RAPE VICTIMS

42 USC 9512.

SEC. 602. (a) The Secretary may make grants to any public or nonprofit private entity to assist in meeting the cost of—

(1) providing counseling and followup counseling for rape victims and the immediate family of rape victims;

(2) providing assistance in securing mental health, social, medical, and legal services for rape victims; and

(3) demonstration projects to develop and implement methods of preventing rape and assisting rape victims.

(b)(1) No grant may be made under subsection (a) unless an application therefor is submitted to and approved by the Secretary. The application shall be submitted in such form and manner and contain such assurances as the Secretary may require that the applicant will comply with the requirements of subsection (e) and such other information as the Secretary may prescribe.

Amount, limitation.

(2) The amount of any grant under this section shall be determined by the Secretary, except that the amount may not exceed 90 per centum of the cost of the project (as determined by the Secretary) with respect to which the grant is made.

(c)(1) In carrying out this section, the Secretary shall coordinate with other activities related to rape carried out by the Secretary and the heads of other Federal departments and agencies.

Grant review panel, establishment.

(2) The Secretary shall establish a grant review panel to make recommendations to the Secretary with respect to the approval of applications for grants under subsection (a). The Secretary shall appoint individuals to the panel who are or have been engaged in the provision of services to rape victims.

Appropriation authorization.

(d)(1) There are authorized to be appropriated for grants under subsection (a) $6,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, $9,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, $12,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, and $12,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984.

Funding limits.

(2) The Secretary may in a fiscal year obligate not more than 7.5 percent of the funds appropriated for that fiscal year under paragraph (1) to provide, upon request, technical assistance in the development and submission of applications for a grant under subsection (a). Such assistance shall be provided only to those entities which the Secretary determines do not possess the resources or expertise necessary to develop and submit such an application.

Information disclosure.

(e) No officer or employee of the Federal Government or of any recipient of a grant under subsection (a) may use or disclose any personally identifiable information obtained, in carrying out an activity assisted by such grant, by the recipient (or an officer or employee of the recipient) from a rape victim or a rape victim's immediate family unless such use or disclosure is necessary to carry out the activity or is made with the consent of the person who supplied the information. Such information shall be immune from legal process and may not, without the consent of the person furnishing the information, be admitted as evidence or otherwise used in any civil or criminal action or other judicial or administrative proceeding.

TITLE VII—EXTENSION OF COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTERS ACT

ONE-YEAR EXTENSION OF COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTERS ACT

SEC. 701. (a) Subsection (d) of section 202 of the Community Mental Health Centers Act (42 U.S.C. 2689a(d)) (relating to grants for planning) is amended by striking out "for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1980" and inserting in lieu thereof "each for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1980, and the next fiscal year".

42 USC 2689b.

(b) Subsection (d) of section 203 of such Act (relating to grants for initial operation) is amended—

(1) in paragraph (1), by (A) striking out "and" after "1979,", and (B) inserting before the period a comma and the following: "and $37,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981"; and

(2) effective October 1, 1981, by striking out "(1)" and paragraph (2).

(c) Subsection (c) of section 204 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 2689c(c)) (relating to grants for consultation and education services) is amended (1) by striking out "and" after "1979,", and (2) by inserting before the period a comma and the following: "and $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981".

(d)(1) Section 213 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 2689h) (relating to financial distress grants) is amended (1) by striking out "and" after "1978,", and (B) by inserting after "1979," the following: "and $20,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981,".

(2) Section 212(c) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 2689g(c)) of such Act is amended by striking out "five" and inserting in lieu thereof "six".

(e) Section 206(e)(2)(B) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 2689e(e)(2)(B)) is amended by striking out "the fiscal year ending September 30, 1979, and during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1980" and inserting in lieu thereof "the fiscal years ending September 30, 1979, September 30, 1980, and September 30, 1981".

TITLE VIII—MISCELLANEOUS

EMPLOYEE PROTECTION

42 USC 9521.

SEC. 801. (a)(1) Each State mental health authority shall have in effect equitable arrangements to protect the interests of employees affected adversely by actions taken by the State mental health authority to emphasize outpatient mental health services. Such arrangements shall include arrangements designed to preserve employee rights and benefits and to provide training and retraining of employees, where necessary, for work in mental health or other fields and arrangements under which maximum effort will be made to place employees in employment. The arrangements required by this paragraph shall be established by a State mental health authority in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary with the concurrence of the Secretary of Labor.

Regulations.

(2) The Secretary shall issue the regulations referred to in paragraph (1) not later than six months after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Noncompliance.

(b) Whenever the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing to the State mental health authority involved, finds (after consultation with the Secretary of Labor) that there is a failure to comply substantially with the requirements of subsection (a), the Secretary may, until the Secretary is satisfied that there will no longer be any such failure, discontinue payments to the State mental health authority under sections 107 and 305.

Report to congressional committees.

(c) Not later than March 1, 1983, and March 1, 1984, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall submit to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources of the Senate and the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the House of Representatives a report on actions taken under subsection (a). The report shall include the comments of the Secretary of Labor on such actions and shall include—

Contents.

(1) a statement of the number, by State, of public inpatient mental health facilities which have been closed or partially closed since the date of the enactment of this Act,

(2) a statement of the number, by State, of public employees who were adversely affected by such closings,

(3) a summary, by State, of the arrangements made under subsection (a) for such employees and the cost of carrying out such arrangements,

(4) a description of agency procedures, resources, and personnel used to implement subsections (a) and (b), and

(5) a description of the training and retraining projects funded under section 207.

Ante, p. 1583.

REPORT ON SHELTER AND BASIC LIVING NEEDS OF CHRONICALLY MENTALLY ILL INDIVIDUALS

Report to congressional committees.
42 USC 9522.

SEC. 802. (a) The Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall jointly submit a report to the Committees on Labor and Human Resources and Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate, and the Committees on Interstate and Foreign Commerce and Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs of the House of Representatives, relating to Federal efforts to respond to the shelter and basic living needs of chronically mentally ill individuals.

Contents.

(b) The report required by subsection (a) shall include—

(1) an analysis of the extent to which chronically mentally ill individuals remain inappropriately housed in institutional facilities or have otherwise inadequate or inappropriate housing arrangements;

(2) an analysis of available permanent noninstitutional housing arrangements for the chronically mentally ill;

(3) an evaluation of ongoing permanent and demonstration programs, funded in whole or in part by Federal funds, which are designed to provide noninstitutional shelter and basic living services for the chronically mentally ill, including—

(A) a description of each program;

(B) the total number of individuals estimated to be eligible to participate in each program, the number of individuals served by each program, and an estimate of the total population each program expects to serve; and

(C) an assessment of the effectiveness of each program in the provision of shelter and basic living services;

(4) recommendations of measures to encourage States to coordinate and link the provisions in State health plans which relate to mental health and, in particular, the shelter and basic living needs of chronically mentally ill individuals, with local and State housing plans;

(5) recommendations for Federal legislation relating to the provision of permanent residential noninstitutional housing arrangements and basic living services for chronically mentally ill individuals, including an estimate of the cost of such recommendations; and

(6) any other recommendations for Federal initiatives which, in the judgment of the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, will lead to improved shelter and basic living services for chronically mentally ill individuals.

(c) The report required by subsection (a) shall be submitted to the committees referred to in subsection (a) no later than January 1, 1981.

OBLIGATED SERVICE FOR MENTAL HEALTH TRAINEESHIPS

SEC. 803. (a) Section 303 of the Public Health Service Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection: 42 USC 242a.

"(d)(1) Any individual who has received a clinical traineeship, in psychology, psychiatry, nursing, or social work, under subsection (a)(1) that was not of a limited duration or experimental nature (as determined by the Secretary) is obligated to serve, in service determined by the Secretary to be appropriate in the light of the individual's training and experience, at the rate of one year for each year (or academic year, whichever the Secretary determines to be appropriate) of the traineeship.

"(2) The service required under paragraph (1) shall be performed—

"(A) for a public inpatient mental institution providing inpatient care or any entity receiving a grant under the Mental Health Systems Act, Ante, p. 1564.

"(B) in a health manpower shortage area (as determined under subpart II of part D of this title), or 42 USC 254d.

"(C) in any other area or for any other entity designated by the Secretary, and shall begin within such period after the termination of the traineeship as the Secretary may determine. In developing criteria for determining for which institutions or entities or in which areas, referred to in the preceding sentence, individuals must perform service under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall give preference to institutions, entities, or areas which in his judgment have the greatest need for personnel to perform that service. The Secretary may permit service for or in other institutions, entities, or areas if the Secretary determines that the request for such service is supported by good cause.

"(3) Any individual who fails to perform the service required under this subsection within the period prescribed by the Secretary is obligated to repay to the United States an amount equal to three times the cost of the traineeship (including stipends and allowances) plus interest at the maximum legal rate at the time of payment of the traineeship, multiplied, in any case in which the service so required has been performed in part, by the percentage which the length of the service not so performed is of the length of the service so required to be performed. Repayment to U.S.

"(4)(A) In the case of any individual any part of whose obligation to perform service under this subsection exists at the same time as any part of the individual's obligation to perform service under section 752 or 753 (because of receipt of a scholarship under subpart IV of part C of title VII) or the individual's obligation to perform service under section 472 (because of receipt of a National Research Service 42 USC 294u, 294v. 42 USC 294t. 42 USC 289*l*-1.

Award), or both, the same service may not be used to any extent to meet more than one of those obligations.

"(B) In any case to which subparagraph (A) is applicable and in which one of the obligations is to perform service under section 752 or 753, the obligation to perform service under that section must be met (by performance of the required service or payment of damages) before the obligation to perform service under this subsection or under section 472.

42 USC 294u, 294v.

42 USC 289*l*-1.

"(C) In any case to which subparagraph (A) is applicable, if any part of the obligation to perform service under section 472 exists at the same time as any part of the obligation to perform service under this subsection, the manner and time of meeting each obligation shall be prescribed by the Secretary.

"(5) In disseminating application forms to individuals desiring traineeships, the Secretary shall include with such forms a fair summary of the liabilities under this subsection of an individual who receives a traineeship.".

42 USC 242a note.

42 USC 242a.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) applies in the case of any academic year (of any traineeship awarded under section 303(a)(1) of the Public Health Service Act) beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act if the award for such academic year is made after such date.

CONFORMING AMENDMENTS

SEC. 804. (a) The second sentence of section 455(a) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 289k-1(a)) (relating to the National Institute of Mental Health) is amended—

(1) by striking out "and" after "sections 301 and 303 of this Act" and inserting in lieu thereof a comma; and

CONTRACT AUTHORITY

SEC. 806. The authority of the Secretary to enter into contracts under this Act shall be effective for any fiscal year only to such extent or in such amounts as are provided in advance by appropriation Acts. 42 USC 9523.

TITLE IX—MECHANIZED CLAIMS PROCESSING AND INFORMATION RETRIEVAL SYSTEMS

MECHANIZED CLAIMS PROCESSING AND INFORMATION RETRIEVAL SYSTEMS

SEC. 901. Section 1903 of the Social Security Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection: 42 USC 1396b.

"(r)(1)(A) In order to receive payments under paragraphs (2) and (7) of subsection (a) without being subject to per centum reductions set forth in subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, a State must provide that mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems of the type described in subsection (a)(3)(B) and detailed in an advance planning document approved by the Secretary are operational on or before the deadline established under subparagraph (B).

"(B) The deadline for operation of such systems for a State is the earlier of (i) September 30, 1982, or (ii) the last day of the sixth month following the date specified for operation of such systems in the State's most recently approved advance planning document submitted before the date of the enactment of this subsection.

"(C) If a State fails to meet the deadline established under subparagraph (B), the per centums specified in paragraphs (2) and (7) of subsection (a) with respect to that State shall each be reduced by 5 percentage points for the first two quarters beginning on or after such deadline, and shall be further reduced by an additional 5 percentage points after each period consisting of two quarters during which the Secretary determines the State fails to meet the requirements of subparagraph (A); except that—

"(i) neither such per centum may be reduced by more than 25 percentage points by reason of this paragraph; and

"(ii) no reduction shall be made under this paragraph for any quarter following the quarter during which such State meets the requirements of subparagraph (A).

"(2)(A) In order to receive payments under paragraphs (2) and (7) of subsection (a) without being subject to the per centum reductions set forth in subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, a State must have its mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems, of the type required to be operational under paragraph (1), initially approved by the Secretary in accordance with paragraph (5)(A) on or before the deadline established under subparagraph (B).

"(B) The deadline for approval of such systems for a State is the last day of the fourth quarter that begins after the date on which the Secretary determines that such systems became operational as required under paragraph (1).

"(C) If a State fails to meet the deadline established under subparagraph (B), the per centums specified in paragraphs (2) and (7) of subsection (a) with respect to that State shall each be reduced by 5 percentage points for the first two quarters beginning after such deadline, and shall be further reduced by an additional 5 percentage points at the end of each period consisting of two quarters during which the State fails to meet the requirements of subparagraph (A); except that—

"(i) neither such per centum may be reduced by more than 25 percentage points by reason of this paragraph, and

"(ii) no reduction shall be made under this paragraph for any quarter following the quarter during which such State's systems are approved by the Secretary as provided in subparagraph (A).

"(D) Any State's systems which are approved by the Secretary for purposes of subsection (a)(3)(B) on or before the date of the enactment of this subsection shall be deemed to be initially approved for purposes of this subsection.

"(3)(A) When a State's systems are initially approved, the 75 per centum Federal matching provided in subsection (a)(3)(B) shall become effective with respect to such systems, retroactive to the first quarter beginning after the date on which such systems became operational as required under paragraph (1), except as provided in subparagraph (B).

Per centum reductions.

"(B) In the case of any State which was subject to a per centum reduction under paragraph (2), the per centum specified in subsection (a)(3)(B) shall be reduced by 5 percentage points for the first two quarters beginning after the deadline established under paragraph (2)(B), and shall be further reduced by an additional 5 percentage points at the end of each period consisting of two quarters beginning after such deadline and before the date on which such systems are initially approved, except that no reduction shall be made under this paragraph for any quarter following the quarter during which the State's systems are initially approved by the Secretary.

Approved systems, review.

"(4)(A) The Secretary shall review all approved systems not less often than once each fiscal year, and shall reapprove or disapprove any such systems. Systems which fail to meet the current performance standards, system requirements, and any other conditions for approval developed by the Secretary under paragraph (6) shall be disapproved. Any State having systems which are so disapproved shall be subject to a per centum reduction under subparagraph (B). The Secretary shall make the determination of reapproval or disapproval and so notify the States not later than the end of the first quarter following the review period.

"(B) If the Secretary disapproves a State's systems under subparagraph (A), the Secretary shall, with respect to such State for quarters beginning after the determination of disapproval and before the first quarter beginning after such systems are reapproved, reduce the per centum specified in subsection (a)(3)(B) to a per centum of not less than 50 per centum and not more than 70 per centum as the Secretary determines to be appropriate and commensurate with the nature of noncompliance by such State; except that such per centum may not be reduced by more than 10 percentage points in any 4-quarter period by reason of this subparagraph. No State shall be subject to a per centum reduction under this paragraph (i) before the fifth quarter beginning after such State's systems were initially approved, or (ii) on the basis of a review conducted before October 1, 1981.

Waiver.

"(C) The Secretary may retroactively waive a per centum reduction imposed under subparagraph (B), if the Secretary determines that the State's systems meet all current performance standards and other requirements for reapproval and that such action would improve the administration of the State's plan under this title, except that no such waiver may extend beyond the four quarters immediately prior to the quarter in which the State's systems are reapproved.

"(5)(A) In order to be initially approved by the Secretary, mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems must be of the type described in subsection (a)(3)(B) and must meet the following requirements:

"(i) The systems must be capable of developing provider, physician, and patient profiles which are sufficient to provide specific information as to the use of covered types of services and items, including prescribed drugs.

"(ii) The State must provide that information on probable fraud or abuse which is obtained from, or developed by, the systems, is made available to the State's medicaid fraud control unit (if any) certified under subsection (q) of this section.

"(iii) The systems must meet all performance standards and other requirements for initial approval developed by the Secretary under paragraph (6).

"(B) In order to be reapproved by the Secretary, mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems must meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A)(i) and (A)(ii) and performance standards and other requirements for reapproval developed by the Secretary under paragraph (6).

"(6) The Secretary, with respect to State systems, shall—

Functions.

Performance standards, development.

"(A) develop performance standards, system requirements, and other conditions for approval for use in initially approving such State systems, and shall further develop written approval procedures for conducting reviews for initial approval, including specific criteria for assessing systems in operation to insure that all such performance standards and other requirements are met;

"(B) by not later than October 1, 1980, develop an initial set of performance standards, system requirements, and other conditions for reapproval for use in reapproving or disapproving State systems, and shall further develop written reapproval procedures for conducting reviews for reapproval, including specific criteria for reassessing systems operations over a period of at least six months during each fiscal year to insure that all such performance standards and other requirements are met on a continuous basis;

Systems performance data base, development.

"(C) provide that reviews for reapproval, conducted before October 1, 1981, shall be for the purpose of developing a systems performance data base and assisting States to improve their systems, and that no per centum reduction shall be made under paragraph (4) on the basis of such a review;

"(D) insure that review procedures, performance standards, and other requirements developed under subparagraph (B) are sufficiently flexible to allow for differing administrative needs among the States, and that such procedures, standards, and requirements are of a nature which will permit their use by the States for self-evaluation;

"(E) notify all States of proposed procedures, standards, and other requirements at least one quarter prior to the fiscal year in which such procedures, standards, and other requirements will be used for conducting reviews for reapproval;

"(F) periodically update the systems performance standards, system requirements, review criteria, objectives, regulations, and guides as the Secretary shall from time to time deem appropriate;

Technical assistance to States.

"(G) provide technical assistance to States in the development and improvement of the systems so as to continually improve the capacity of such systems to effectively detect cases of fraud or abuse;

42 USC 1395.
Coding system, development.

"(H) for the purpose of insuring compatibility between the State systems and the systems utilized in the administration of title XVIII—

"(i) develop a uniform identification coding system (to the extent feasible) for providers, other persons receiving payments under the State plans (approved under this title) or under title XVIII, and beneficiaries of medical services under such plans or title;

Liaison between States, carriers and intermediaries.

"(ii) provide liaison between States and carriers and intermediaries having agreements under title XVIII to facilitate timely exchange of appropriate data; and

"(iii) improve the exchange of data between the States and the Secretary with respect to providers and other persons who have been terminated, suspended, or otherwise sanctioned under a State plan (approved under this title) or under title XVIII;

Reasonable costs, definitions.

"(I) develop and disseminate clear definitions of those types of reasonable costs relating to State systems which are reimbursable under the provisions of subsection (a)(3) of this section; and

Report to Congress.

"(J) report on or before October 1, 1981, to the Congress on the extent to which States have developed and operated effective mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems.

Waiver.

"(7)(A) The Secretary shall waive the provisions of this subsection with respect to initial operation and approval of mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems with respect to any State which—

"(i) had a 1976 population (as reported by the Bureau of the Census) of less than 1,000,000 and which made total expenditures (including Federal reimbursement) for which Federal financial participation is authorized under this title of less than $100,000,000 in fiscal year 1976 (as reported by such State for such year), or

"(ii) is a Commonwealth, or territory or possession, of the United States, if such State reasonably demonstrates, and the Secretary does not formally disagree, that the application of such provisions would not significantly improve the efficiency of the administration of such State's plan under this title.

Timetable.

"(B) If the Secretary determines that the application of the provisions described in subparagraph (A) to a State would significantly improve the efficiency of the administration of the State's plan under this title, the Secretary may withdraw the State's waiver under subparagraph (A) and, in such case, the Secretary shall impose a timetable for such State with respect to compliance with the provisions of this subsection and the imposition of per centum reductions. Such timetable shall be comparable to the timetable established under this subsection as to the amount of time allowed such State to comply and the timing of per centum reductions.

"(8)(A) The per centum reductions provided for under this subsection shall not apply to a State for any quarter with respect to which the Secretary determines that such State is unable to comply with the relevant requirements of this subsection—

"(i) for good cause (but such a waiver may not be for a period in excess of 2 quarters), or

"(ii) due to circumstances beyond the control of such State.

Report to Congress.

"(B) If the Secretary determines under subparagraph (A) that such a reduction will not apply to a State, the Secretary shall report to the Congress on the basis for each such determination and on the modification of all time limitations and deadlines as described in subparagraph (C).

Time limitations and deadlines, modification.

"(C) For purposes of determining all time limitations and deadlines imposed under this subsection, any time period during which a State was found under subparagraph (A)(ii) to be unable to comply with requirements of this subsection due to circumstances beyond its control shall not be taken into account, and the Secretary shall modify all such time limitations and deadlines with respect to such State accordingly.".

Approved October 7, 1980.

Public Law 96-399
96th Congress

An Act

Oct. 8, 1980
[S.2719]

To amend and extend certain Federal laws relating to housing, community and neighborhood development and preservation, and related programs, and for other purposes.

Housing and Community Development Act of 1980.
42 USC 5301 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Housing and Community Development Act of 1980".

TITLE I—COMMUNITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT AND CONSERVATION

ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

42 USC 5302.
13 USC 21.
42 USC 5318.
42 USC 5306.

SEC. 101. (a) Section 102(b) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 is amended by adding the following new sentence at the end thereof: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983, (1) no data derived from the 1980 Decennial Census, as provided for in subchapter II of title 13, United States Code, except those relating to population and poverty, shall be taken into account for purposes of section 119 or the allocation of amounts under section 106, and (2) no revision to the criteria for establishing a metropolitan area or defining a central city of such an area published after January 1, 1980, shall be taken into account for purposes of this title, except that any area or city which would newly qualify as a metropolitan area or a central city of such an area by reason of any such revision shall be so considered.".

42 USC 5302.

(b)(1) Section 102 of such Act is amended by striking out subsection (d) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Post, p. 1618.
42 USC 5306.

"(d) With respect to program years beginning with the program year for which grants are made available from amounts appropriated for fiscal year 1982 under section 103(a)(1), the population of any unit of general local government which is included in that of an urban county as provided in subsection (a)(6)(B) shall be included in the population of such urban county for three program years beginning with the program year in which its population was first so included and shall not otherwise be eligible for a grant under section 106 as a separate entity, unless the application by the urban county is disapproved or withdrawn prior to or during such three-year period. During any such three-year period, the population of any unit of general local government which is not included in that of the urban county for the first year shall not be eligible for such inclusion in the second or third year.".

Effective date.
42 USC 5302 note.

(2) The amendment made by paragraph (1) shall take effect on October 1, 1981.

42 USC 5302.

(c) Section 102 of such Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Urban county.

"(e) Any county seeking qualification as an urban county, including any urban county seeking to continue such qualification, shall notify, as provided in this subsection, each unit of general local government, which is included therein and is eligible to elect to have its population excluded from that of an urban county under subsection (a)(6)(B)(i), of its opportunity to make such an election. Such notification shall, at a time and in a manner prescribed by the Secretary, be provided so as to provide a reasonable period for response prior to the period for which such qualification is sought. The population of any unit of general local government which is provided such notification and which does not inform, at a time and in a manner prescribed by the Secretary, the county of its election to exclude its population from that of the county shall, if the county qualifies as an urban county, be included in the population of such urban county as provided in subsection (d).".

(d) Section 104 of such Act is amended by adding the following new subsection at the end thereof: 42 USC 5304.

"(j) In any case in which a metropolitan city is located, in whole or in part, within an urban county, the Secretary may, upon the joint request of such city and county, approve the inclusion of the metropolitan city as part of the urban county for purposes of planning a joint community development program, meeting the application requirements of this section, and implementing such program.".

PRO RATA REDUCTION OF GRANTS

SEC. 102. Section 106(g) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as redesignated by section 111(d) of this Act, is amended— 42 USC 5306.

(1) by striking out "fiscal year 1978, fiscal year 1979, or fiscal year 1980" and inserting in lieu thereof "any fiscal year";

(2) by striking out "and hold-harmless" wherever it appears, and

(3) by striking out "(d)(2)" and "(f)(1)(B)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(c)" and "(e)", respectively.

INCLUSION OF CERTAIN INDEPENDENT CITIES IN DETERMINING COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT GRANT AMOUNTS FOR URBAN COUNTIES

SEC. 103. Section 106(b)(4) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 is amended to read as follows: 42 USC 5306.

"(4) In computing amounts or exclusions under this section with respect to any urban county, there shall be excluded units of general local government located in the county the populations of which are not counted in determining the eligibility of the urban county to receive a grant under this subsection, except that there shall be included any independent city (as defined by the Bureau of the Census) which—

"(A) is not part of any county;

"(B) is not eligible for a grant pursuant to subsection (b)(1);

"(C) is contiguous to the urban county;

"(D) has entered into cooperation agreements with the urban county which provide that the urban county is to undertake or to assist in the undertaking of essential community development and housing assistance activities with respect to such independent city; and

"(E) is not included as a part of any other unit of general local government for purposes of this section.

Any independent city which is included in any fiscal year for purposes of computing amounts pursuant to the preceding sentence shall not be eligible for a grant under subsection (c) or (e) with respect to such fiscal year.".

ENERGY AND ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

42 USC 5304. (b) Section 104(a) of such Act is amended by adding the following new sentence at the end thereof: "The applicant may, at the discretion of the applicant, include (as part of the program summary, formulation, and description requirements described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection) comparable information with respect to the applicant's energy conservation and renewable energy resource needs and objectives.".

42 USC 5305. (c) Section 105(a) of such Act is amended—

(1) by striking out paragraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(2) the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or installation (including design features and improvements with respect to such construction, reconstruction, or installation which promote energy efficiency) of public works, facilities and site or other improvements—including neighborhood facilities, centers for the handicapped, senior centers, historic properties, utilities (including power generation and distribution facilities using renewable resource energy systems), streets, street lights, water and sewer facilities, foundations and platforms for air rights sites, pedestrian malls and walkways, and parks, playgrounds, and recreation facilities (including parks, playgrounds, and recreational facilities established as a result of reclamation and other construction activities carried out in connection with a river and land adjacent thereto where assistance under other Federal laws or programs is determined to be unavailable), flood and drainage facilities in cases where assistance for such facilities under other Federal laws or programs is determined to be unavailable, and parking facilities, solid waste disposal facilities, recycling or conversion facilities, and fire protection services and facilities which are located in or which serve designated community development areas;";

(2) by inserting after "rehabilitation" the first time it appears in paragraph (4) the following: "(including rehabilitation which promotes energy efficiency)";

(3) by inserting after "education," in paragraph (8) the following: "energy conservation,";

(4) by inserting after "community economic development" in paragraph (15) the following: "or energy conservation"; and

(5) by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (14), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (15) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and", and by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

Comprehensive community-wide energy use strategy.

"(16) activities necessary to the development of a comprehensive community-wide energy use strategy, which may include items such as—

"(A) a description of energy use and projected demand by sector, by fuel type, and by geographic area;

"(B) an analysis of the options available to the community to conserve scarce fuels and encourage use of renewable energy resources;

"(C) an analysis of the manner in, and extent to, which the community's neighborhood revitalization, housing, and economic development strategies will support its energy conservation strategy;

"(D) an analysis of the manner in, and the extent to, which energy conservation objectives will be integrated into local government operations, purchasing and service delivery, capital improvements budgeting, land use planning and zoning, and traffic control, parking, and public transportation functions;

"(E) a statement of the actions the community will take to foster energy conservation and the use of renewable energy resources in the private sector, including the enactment and enforcement of local codes and ordinances to encourage or mandate energy conservation or use of renewable energy resources, financial and other assistance to be provided (principally for the benefit of low- and moderate-income persons) to make energy conserving improvements to residential structures, and any other proposed energy conservation activities;

"(F) appropriate provisions for energy emergencies;

"(G) identification of the local governmental unit responsible for administering the energy use strategy;

"(H) provision of a schedule for implementation of each element in the strategy; and

"(I) a projection of the savings in scarce fossil fuel consumption and the development and use of renewable energy resources that will result from implementation of the energy use strategy.".

42 USC 5305.

(d) Section 105(a)(4) of such Act is amended by inserting ", and including the renovation of closed school buildings" after "privately owned properties".

(e) Section 105(a) of such Act is amended—

42 USC 5304.

(1) by inserting after "activities" the first time it appears in paragraph (14) the following: "(as specifically described in the application submitted pursuant to section 104)"; and

(2) by inserting after "project" in paragraph (15) the following: "(as specifically described in the application submitted pursuant to section 104)".

TITLE II—HOUSING ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

LOW INCOME HOUSING

42 USC 1437c.

Contracts.

SEC. 201. (a) Section 5(c) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended to read as follows:

"(c)(1) The Secretary may enter into contracts for annual contributions aggregating not more than $7,875,049,000 per annum, which amount shall be increased by $1,494,400,000 on October 1, 1980. The additional authority to enter into such contracts provided on or after October 1, 1980, shall be effective only in such amounts as may be approved in appropriation Acts; in addition, the aggregate amount which may be obligated, with respect to the additional authority provided on October 1, 1980, over the duration of the contracts may not exceed $31,200,000,000. The Secretary, in utilizing the additional authority to enter into such contracts provided on and after October 1, 1980, shall administer the programs authorized by this Act to provide assistance, to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with section 213(d) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

Post, p. 1629.

"(2)(A) Of the additional authority approved in appropriation Acts and made available on October 1, 1980, the Secretary shall enter into contracts aggregating at least $100,000,000 for assistance to projects under section 14.

Post, p. 1625.

"(B) Of the balance of such additional authority approved in appropriation Acts and made available on October 1, 1980, which remains after deducting the amount to be provided for assistance to projects under section 14, the Secretary may not enter into contracts aggregating—

42 USC 1437f.

"(i) more than 37.5 per centum of such balance for existing units assisted under section 8, including assistance provided under subsection (j) of such section; and

"(ii) more than 62.5 per centum of such balance for newly constructed and substantially rehabilitated units assisted under this Act, of which not more than $265,800,000 shall be made available for such units assisted under this Act other than section 8.

"(3) The Secretary shall enter into only such new contracts for preliminary loans as are consistent with the number of dwelling units for which contracts for annual contributions may be entered into.

Appropriation authorization.

"(4) The full faith and credit of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of all annual contributions contracted for pursuant to this section, and there are hereby authorized to be appropriated in each fiscal year, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the amounts necessary to provide for such payments.

"(5) All payments of annual contributions pursuant to this section shall be made out of any funds available for purposes of this Act when such payments are due, except that funds obtained through the issuance of obligations pursuant to section 4(b) (including repayments or other realizations of the principal of loans made out of such funds) shall not be available for the payment of such annual contributions.". 42 USC 1437b.

(b) Section 9(c) of such Act is amended— 42 USC 1437g.

(1) by striking out "and" immediately after "on or after October 1, 1978,"; and

(2) by inserting immediately before the period at the end thereof the following: ", and not to exceed $826,000,000 on or after October 1, 1980".

(c) Section 6(b) of such Act is amended— 42 USC 1437d.

(1) by inserting the following before the period at the end of the second sentence: "; except that, for projects to be constructed as a result of assistance provided under this Act and which are to be located on Indian reservations or in Alaskan Native villages, the Secretary shall determine and make the prototype costs available within a reasonable time prior to the beginning of each construction season as is determined to be appropriate for the area in which the project is to be located"; and

(2) by striking out "and" at the end of clause (6) of the third sentence, and by adding the following before the period at the end of such sentence: ", and (8) with respect to remote areas such as may be found in connection with projects developed under the Indian and Alaskan Native housing program assisted under this Act, the extensive transportation required to provide the necessary labor, materials, and equipment to the project site and any additional conditions that the Secretary determines should be taken into consideration under clauses (1) through (7) for such projects".

(d) Section 9(a)(1) of such Act is amended by striking out "and" before "(B)" in the second sentence, and by inserting the following before the period at the end of the second sentence: ", and (C) with respect to housing projects developed under the Indian and Alaskan Native housing program assisted under this Act, to provide funds (in addition to any other operating costs contributions approved by the Secretary under this section) as determined by the Secretary to be required to cover the administrative costs to an Indian housing authority during the development period of a project approved pursuant to section 5 and until such time as the project is occupied". 42 USC 1437g. 42 USC 1437c.

(e) Section 6(c)(4)(A) of such Act is amended by inserting immediately after "(A)" the following: "except for projects or portions of projects specifically designated for elderly families with respect to which the Secretary has determined that application of this clause would result in excessive delays in meeting the housing needs of such families,". 42 USC 1437d.

PUBLIC HOUSING COMPREHENSIVE IMPROVEMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

SEC. 202. (a) The United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended by adding the following new section at the end thereof:

"COMPREHENSIVE IMPROVEMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

"SEC. 14. (a) It is the purpose of this section to provide assistance— 42 USC 1437l.

"(1) to improve the physical condition of existing public housing projects, and

"(2) to upgrade the management and operation of such projects, in order to assure that such projects continue to be available to serve low-income families.

Ante, p. 1624.

"(b) The Secretary may make available and contract to make available financial assistance (in such amounts as are authorized pursuant to section 5(c) and as may be approved in appropriations Acts) to public housing agencies for the purpose of improving the physical condition of existing low-rent public housing projects and for upgrading the management and operation of such projects to the extent necessary to maintain such physical improvements.

Eligibility requirements.

"(c) Assistance under subsection (b) may be made available only for low-rent housing projects which—

"(1) are owned by public housing agencies;

Ante, p. 1624.
42 USC 1437g.
42 USC 1437f.

"(2) are operated as rental housing projects and receive assistance under section 5(c) or section 9 of this Act;

"(3) are not assisted under section 8 of this Act; and

"(4) meet such other requirements consistent with the purposes of this section as the Secretary may prescribe.

Applications.

"(d) Except as provided in subsection (e)(4), no assistance may be made available under subsection (b) unless the Secretary has approved an application from the public housing agency which has been developed in consultation with appropriate local officials and with tenants of the housing projects for which assistance is requested. Such application shall contain at least—

"(1) a comprehensive assessment of (A) the current physical condition of each project for which assistance is requested, and (B) the physical improvements necessary for each such project to meet the standards established by the Secretary pursuant to subsection (j);

"(2) an identification, for each such project, of the equipment systems or structural elements which would normally be replaced (assuming routine and timely maintenance is performed) over the remaining period of the annual contributions contract or during the 30-year period beginning on the date of submission of the application, whichever period is longer;

"(3) a comprehensive assessment of the improvements needed to upgrade the management and operation of each such project so that decent, safe, and sanitary living conditions will be provided in such projects; such assessment shall include at least an identification of needs related to—

"(A) the management, financial, and accounting control systems of the public housing agency which are related to each project eligible for assistance under this section;

"(B) the adequacy and qualifications of personnel employed by such public housing agency (in the management and operation of such projects) for each category of employment; and

"(C) the adequacy and efficacy of—

"(i) tenant programs and services in such projects;

"(ii) the security of each such project and its tenants;

"(iii) policies and procedures of the public housing agency for the selection and eviction of tenants in such projects; and

"(iv) other policies and procedures of such agency relating to such projects, as specified by the Secretary; and

"(4) a plan for making the improvements and replacements, and for meeting the needs, described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3); such plan shall include at least—

"(A) a schedule of those actions which are to be completed, over a period of not greater than 5 years from the date of approval of such application by the Secretary, within each 12-month period covered by such plan and which are necessary—

"(i) to make the improvements, described in paragraph (1)(B), for each project for which assistance is requested, and

"(ii) to upgrade the management and operation of such projects as described in paragraph (3);

"(B) the estimated cost of each of the actions described in subparagraph (A);

"(C) an estimate of the total costs of the replacement of the items identified for each such project pursuant to paragraph (2) over the remaining period of the annual contributions contract or during the 30-year period beginning on the date of submission of the application, whichever period is longer, including an estimate of the amount of funds necessary to fund the costs which have accrued for the period which ends upon the date on which the application is made, and an estimate of the costs which will accrue during each 12-month period subsequent to such application;

"(D) an operating budget for each such project for each 12-month period covered by such plan, excluding costs described in subparagraphs (B) and (C); and

"(E) an estimate of the financial resources which will be available from all sources to each such project and to the public housing agency (to the extent the resources of the agency relate to such project), and the amounts of assistance which are being requested pursuant to subsection (b) for each 12-month period covered by the plan.

Financial assistance, limitation.

"(e) The amount of financial assistance made available under subsection (b) to any public housing agency with respect to any year may not exceed the sum of—

"(1) an amount determined by the Secretary to be necessary to undertake the actions specified for such year in the schedule submitted pursuant to subsection (d)(4)(A);

"(2) the amount determined necessary by the Secretary to fund the replacement costs which have been identified pursuant to subsection (d)(4)(C) for each project, which have accrued for the period ending at the beginning of such year, and for which payment under subsection (b) has not been made previously;

"(3) the amount determined necessary by the Secretary to reimburse the public housing agency for the cost of developing the plan described pursuant to subsection (d)(4), less any amount which has been provided such public housing agency with respect to such year under paragraph (4); and

"(4) in the case of a public housing agency which meets such criteria of financial distress as are established by the Secretary and which has submitted the information described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (d), the amount determined necessary by the Secretary to enable such agency to develop the plan described pursuant to subsection (d)(4);

except that not more than 5 per centum of the total amount utilized for annual contributions contracts under subsection (b) in any year shall be made available for the purposes described in paragraphs (3) and (4).

Low-rent housing project, demolition.

"(f) Where an application made pursuant to this section proposes demolition of any low-rent housing project or any portion of such a project, the Secretary may not approve such application unless the Secretary determines that—

"(1) timely replacement of the units in such project will be undertaken by the public housing agency;

"(2) the total cost of providing such replacement housing is less than the total cost of rehabilitation of such project, except that the Secretary may waive such requirement where the Secretary determines that the demolition is necessary to meet the purposes of this section; and

"(3) low-income families displaced by such proposed demolition will be provided with decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing.

"(g) No assistance shall be made available to a public housing agency pursuant to subsection (b) for any year subsequent to the first year for which such assistance is made available to such agency unless the Secretary has determined that such agency has made substantial efforts to meet the objectives for the preceding year under the plan described in subsection (d)(4) and approved by the Secretary.

"(h) In making assistance available under subsection (b), the Secretary shall give preference to public housing agencies—

"(1) which request assistance for projects (A) having conditions which threaten the health or safety of the tenants, or (B) having a significant number of vacant, substandard units; and

"(2) which have demonstrated a capability of carrying out the activities proposed in the plan submitted by the agency pursuant to subsection (d)(4) and approved by the Secretary.

"(i)(1) In addition to assistance made available under subsection (b), the Secretary may, without regard to the requirements of subsections (c), (d), (e), (g), and (h), make available and contract to make available financial assistance (in such amounts as are authorized pursuant to section 5(c) and as approved in appropriation Acts) to any public housing agency in an amount which the Secretary determines is necessary to meet emergency or special purpose needs. Such needs shall be limited to—

Ante, p. 1624.

"(A) correcting conditions which threaten the health or safety of the tenants of any project (i) which is described in subsection (c), and (ii) with respect to which an application for assistance pursuant to subsection (d) has not been approved by the Secretary;

"(B) correcting conditions (i) which threaten the health or safety of the tenants of any project with respect to which an application for assistance pursuant to subsection (d) has been approved, and (ii) which were unanticipated at the time of the development of such application;

"(C) correcting conditions which threaten the health or safety of the occupants of any low-income housing project not described in subsection (c) and not assisted pursuant to section 8; or

42 USC 1437f.

"(D) physical improvements needs which (i) would not otherwise be eligible for assistance under this section, and (ii) pertain to any low-income housing project other than a project assisted under section 8.

"(2) The Secretary may issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out this subsection.

"(j)(1) The Secretary may issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this section.

"(2) The Secretary shall issue rules and regulations establishing standards which provide for decent, safe, and sanitary living conditions in low-rent public housing projects and for energy conserving improvements in such projects and which, to the extent practicable, are consistent with the Minimum Property Standards for Multi-Family Housing as they reasonably would be applied to existing housing, except that the Secretary may establish higher standards on a project-by-project basis in such cases where the Secretary deems such higher standards appropriate for furthering the purposes of this section.".

(b) Section 13 of such Act is amended— 93 Stat. 1109. 42 USC 1437k.

(1) by striking out subsection (a); and

(2) by striking out "(b)" in subsection (b).

(c) Section 6(f) of such Act is amended by inserting "pursuant to section 14" after "modifications" in the first and second sentences thereof. 42 USC 1437d.

(d) Section 213(d)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 is amended by striking out "modernization of low-income housing projects" and inserting in lieu thereof "carrying out section 14 of such Act". 42 USC 1439. Ante, p. 1625.

SECTION 8 AMENDMENTS

SEC. 203. (a) Section 8(c)(1) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended by adding the following new sentence after the second sentence: "In the case of newly constructed and substantially rehabilitated units, the exception in the preceding sentence shall not apply to more than 20 per centum of the total amount of authority to enter into annual contributions contracts for such units which is allocated to an area and obligated with respect to any fiscal year beginning on or after October 1, 1980.". 42 USC 1437f.

(b) Section 8(e)(5) of such Act is amended by inserting the following new sentence after the second sentence thereof: "Notwithstanding subsection (c)(1) of this section, the Secretary may, in carrying out the preceding sentence, establish a maximum monthly rent (for units upgraded pursuant to this paragraph) which exceeds the fair market rental by not more than 20 per centum if such units are located in an area where the Secretary finds cost levels so require, except that the Secretary may approve maximum monthly rents which exceed the fair market rentals by more than 20 but not more than 30 per centum where the Secretary determines that special circumstances warrant such higher rent or where necessary to the implementation of a local housing assistance plan.".

OPERATING ASSISTANCE FOR TROUBLED MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECTS

SEC. 204. (a) The first sentence of section 201(h) of the Housing and Community Development Amendments of 1978 is amended— 12 USC 1715z-1a.

(2) by inserting before the period at the end thereof the following: ", and not to exceed $31,100,000 for the fiscal year 1981".

(b) Section 236(f)(3)(B) of the National Housing Act is amended— 12 USC 1715z-1.

(1) by striking out "October 15, 1980" in the third sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "September 30, 1981"; and

(2) by striking out "on or after October 1, 1978," in the first sentence and all that follows through "October 31, 1978,".

RENT SUPPLEMENTS

12 USC 1701s.

SEC. 205. Section 101(1) of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 is amended—

(1) by striking out "may" the first time it appears in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "shall, not later than 4 years after the date of enactment of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980,";

(2) by inserting the following new sentence after the first sentence thereof: "In amending such contracts, the Secretary shall provide that the housing with respect to which payments are made under this section be maintained as low- and moderate-income housing during the term of the original contract."; and

(3) by striking out "preceding" in the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "the first sentence of this paragraph".

SECTION 235 STANDARD PROGRAM

12 USC 1715z.

SEC. 206. (a) Section 235 of the National Housing Act is amended—

(1) by striking out "$32,000", "$38,000", "$38,000", and "$44,000" in the last proviso in subsection (b)(2) and inserting in lieu thereof "$40,000", "$47,500", and "$47,500", and "$55,000", respectively;

(2) by striking out "$32,000", "$38,000", "$38,000", and "$44,000", wherever they appear in subsections (i)(3)(B) and (i)(3)(C), and inserting in lieu thereof "$40,000", "$47,500", "$47,500", and "$55,000", respectively;

(3) by striking out "$44,000", and "$49,000" in subsection (i)(3)(D) and inserting in lieu thereof "$55,000", and "$61,250", respectively;

(4) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Mortgage insurance.

"(p) The Secretary may insure a mortgage under this section involving a principal obligation which exceeds, by not more than 10 per centum, the maximum limits specified under subsection (b)(2) or (i)(3) of this section, or, if applicable, the maximum principal obligation insurable pursuant to subsection (o) of this section, if the mortgage relates to a dwelling to be occupied by a physically handicapped person and the Secretary determines that such action is necessary to reflect the cost of making such dwelling accessible to and usable by such person.".

(b)(1) Subsection (c) of such section is amended—

(A) by inserting "(1)" after "(c)";

(B) by redesignating paragraphs (1) and (2) of such subsection as subparagraphs (A) and (B), respectively; and

(C) by adding the following new paragraph at the end of such subsection:

"(2)(A) Upon disposition by the homeowner of any property assisted pursuant to this section or where the homeowner ceases for a period of 90 continuous days or more making payments required under the mortgage, loan, or advance of credit secured by such a property, or rents such a property (or the owner's unit in the case of a two- to four-family property) for a period longer than one year, the Secretary shall provide for the recapture of an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of assistance actually received under this section, other than any amount provided under subsection (e), or (ii) an amount equal to at least 50 per centum of the net appreciation of the property, as determined by the Secretary. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term 'net appreciation of the property' means any increase in the value of the property over the original purchase price, less the reasonable costs of sale, the reasonable costs of improvements made to the property, and any increase in the mortgage amount as of the time of sale over the original mortgage balance due to the mortgage being insured pursuant to section 245. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any such assistance shall constitute a debt secured by the property to the extent that the Secretary may provide for such recapture.

"Net appreciation of the property."

12 USC 1715z-10.

"(B) Subparagraph (A) does not apply to any property with respect to which there is assumption in accordance with paragraph (1) of this subsection or to any property which is subject to a mortgage, loan, or other advance of credit insured pursuant to subsection (q).".

(2) The amendment made by paragraph (1) does not apply to any assistance contract under section 235 of the National Housing Act entered into pursuant to a commitment issued within 6 months following the date of enactment of this Act.

12 USC 1715z note.

12 USC 1715z.

(c)(1) The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall conduct a study of the effects which the application of subsection (n) of section 235 of the National Housing Act has had or is likely to have on the program established by subsection (a) of such section. If the program established by subsection (q) of such section is implemented, the Secretary shall include in the study an analysis of the effects on the subsection (q) program of the application of subsection (n) to such program.

Study.

12 USC 1715z note.

(2) The Secretary shall transmit to the Congress, not later than January 1, 1982, a report containing the findings and conclusions of the study described in paragraph (1).

Report to Congress.

SECTION 235(q) PROGRAM

SEC. 207. Section 235 of the National Housing Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

12 USC 1715z.

"(q)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, except subsection (n), if the Secretary determines that there is a substantial need for emergency stimulation of the housing market, the Secretary is authorized to make and enter into contracts to make periodic assistance payments, to the extent of not to exceed 75 per centum of the authority available pursuant to subsection (h)(1), on behalf of homeowners, including owners of manufactured homes, to mortgagees or other lenders holding mortgages, loans, or advances of credit which meet the requirements of this subsection. The Secretary may establish such criteria, terms, and conditions relating to homeowners and mortgages, loans, or advances of credit assisted under this subsection as the Secretary deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of this subsection. The Secretary is authorized to insure a mortgage which meets the requirements of and is to be assisted under this subsection. The authority to enter into contracts to provide assistance payments and to insure mortgages under this subsection shall terminate on June 1, 1981, or at such earlier date as the Secretary may deem appropriate, upon a determination by the Secretary that the conditions which gave rise to the exercise of authority under this subsection are no longer present, except pursuant to a commitment entered into prior to such date.

Contracts.

Eligibility requirements.

"(2) Payments under this subsection may be made only on behalf of a homeowner who satisfies such eligibility requirements as may be prescribed by the Secretary and who—

12 USC 1703.

"(A)(i) is a mortgagor under a mortgage which meets the requirements of and is insured under this subsection, or (ii) is the original owner of a new manufactured home consisting of two or more modules and a lot on which the manufactured home is situated, where insurance under section 2 of this Act covering the loan, advance of credit, or purchase of an obligation representing such loan or advance of credit to finance the purchase of such manufactured home and lot has been granted to the lender making such loan, advance of credit, or purchase of an obligation; and

"(B) has a family income, at the time of initial occupancy, which does not exceed 130 per centum of the area median income for the area (with adjustments for smaller and larger families, unusually high or low median family income, or other factors), as determined by the Secretary.

Assistance payments.

"(3) Assistance payments to a mortgagee or other lender by the Secretary on behalf of a homeowner shall be made only during such time as the homeowner shall continue to occupy the property which secures the mortgage, loan, or advance of credit. The Secretary may, where a mortgage insured under this subsection has been assigned to the Secretary, continue making such assistance payments.

"(4) The amount of the assistance payments in the case of a mortgage shall not at any time exceed the lesser of—

"(A) the balance of the monthly payment for principal, interest, taxes, insurance, and any mortgage insurance premium due under the mortgage remaining unpaid after applying a minimum of 25 per centum of the mortgagor's income, except that the Secretary may reduce such per centum of income to the extent he deems necessary, but not lower than 20 per centum of the mortgagor's income; or

Post, p. 1652.

"(B) the difference between the amount of the monthly payment for principal, interest, and any mortgage insurance premium which would be required if the mortgage were a level payment mortgage bearing interest at a rate equal to the maximum interest rate which is applicable to level payment mortgages insured under section 203(b), other than mortgages subject to section 3(a)(2) of Public Law 90-301, and the monthly payment for principal and interest which the mortgagor would be obligated to pay if the mortgage were a level payment mortgage bearing interest at the rate of at least 9½ per centum per annum.

"(5) Assistance payments on behalf of the owner of a manufactured home shall not at any time exceed the lesser of—

12 USC 1703.

"(A) the balance of the monthly payment for principal, interest, real and personal property taxes, insurance, and insurance premium chargeable under section 2 of this Act due under the loan or advance of credit remaining unpaid after applying a minimum of 25 per centum of the manufactured homeowner's income, except that the Secretary may reduce such per centum of income to the extent he deems necessary, but not lower than 20 per centum of the mortgagor's income; or

"(B) the difference between the amount of the monthly payment for principal, interest, and insurance premium chargeable under section 2 of this Act which the manufactured homeowner is obligated to pay under the loan or advance of credit and the monthly payment of principal and interest which the owner would be obligated to pay if the loan or advance of credit were to bear an interest rate determined by the Secretary which shall not be less than 12 per centum per annum.

"(6) The Secretary may include in the payment to the mortgagee or other lender such amount, in addition to the amount computed under paragraph (4) or (5), as the Secretary deems appropriate to reimburse the mortgagee or other lender for its reasonable and necessary expenses in handling the mortgage, loan, or advance of credit.

Regulations.

"(7) The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as the Secretary deems necessary to assure that the sales price of, or other consideration paid in connection with, the purchase by a homeowner of the property with respect to which assistance payments are to be made is not greater than the appraised value as determined by the Secretary.

"(8) Assistance payments pursuant to paragraph (5) shall not be made with respect to more than 20 per centum of the total number of units with respect to which assistance is approved under this subsection.

Mortgage insurance.

"(9) The Secretary may, in addition to mortgages insured under subsection (i) or (j), insure, upon application by the mortgagee, a mortgage executed by a mortgagor who meets the eligibility requirements for assistance payments prescribed by the Secretary under paragraph (2). Commitments for the insurance of such mortgages may be issued by the Secretary prior to the date of their execution or disbursement thereon, upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe.

Eligibility requirements.

"(10) To be eligible for insurance under this subsection, a mortgage shall—

"(A) be a first lien on real estate held in fee simple, or on a leasehold under a lease which meets terms and conditions established by the Secretary;

"(B) have been made to, and be held by, a mortgagee approved by the Secretary as responsible and able to service the mortgage properly;

"(C) involve a one- to four-family dwelling which has been approved by the Secretary prior to the beginning of construction, or if not so approved, has been completed within one year prior to the filing of the application for insurance and which has never been sold other than to the mortgagor;

"(D) involve a principal residence the sales price of which does not exceed 82 per centum of the applicable maximum principal obligation of a mortgage which may be insured in the area pursuant to section 203(b)(2), determined without regard to the last sentence of such section;

Post, p. 1654.

"(E) have maturity and amortization provisions satisfactory to the Secretary;

"(F) bear interest (exclusive of premium charges for insurance, and service charges if any) at not to exceed the applicable maximum rate for mortgages insured pursuant to section 203(b);

"(G) be executed by a mortgagor who shall have paid in cash or its equivalent, on account of the property, at least an amount equal to 3 per centum of the Secretary's estimate of the cost of acquisition; and

"(H) contain such other terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe.

Land and energy conservation.

"(11) The Secretary shall, to the extent practicable, insure mortgages under this subsection which are secured by properties which contribute to the conservation of land and energy resources.

Graduated payments. 12 USC 1715z-10.

"(12) A mortgage to be assisted under this subsection shall, where the Secretary deems it appropriate, provide for graduated payments pursuant to section 245.

Allocation system.

"(13) The Secretary shall develop and utilize a system to allocate assistance under this subsection in a manner which assures a reasonable distribution of such assistance among the various regions of the country and which takes into consideration such factors as population, relative decline in building permits, the need for increased housing production, and other factors he deems appropriate. Assistance provided under this subsection shall not be subject to section 213 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

42 USC 1439. Recapture.

"(14) Upon the disposition by the homeowner of any property assisted pursuant to this subsection, or where the homeowner ceases for a period of 90 continuous days or more making payments on the mortgage, loan, or advance of credit secured by the property, or rents the property (or the owner's unit in the case of a two- to four-family residence) for a period longer than one year, the Secretary shall provide for the recapture of an amount equal to the lesser of (A) the amount of assistance actually received under this subsection, other than any amount provided under paragraph (6), or (B) an amount at least equal to 50 per centum of the net appreciation of the property, as determined by the Secretary. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term 'net appreciation of the property' means any increase in the value of the property over the original purchase price, less the reasonable costs of sale, the reasonable costs of improvements made to the property, and any increase in the mortgage balance as of the time of sale over the original mortgage balance due to the mortgage being insured pursuant to section 245. In providing for such recapture, the Secretary shall include incentives for the homeowner to maintain the property in a marketable condition. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any such assistance shall constitute a debt secured by the property to the extent that the Secretary may provide for such recapture.

"Net appreciation of property."

12 USC 1715z-10.

Income recertification.

"(15) Procedures shall be adopted by the Secretary for recertification of the homeowner's income at intervals of two years (or at shorter intervals where the Secretary deems it desirable) for the purpose of adjusting the amount of such assistance payments within the limits of the formula described in paragraph (4) or (5).".

CONGREGATE SERVICES PROGRAM AMENDMENTS

42 USC 8004.

SEC. 208. (a) Section 405(c) of the Housing and Community Development Amendments of 1978 is amended by inserting after "for assistance" the following: "to provide congregate services to elderly residents".

(b) Section 405(d) of such Act is amended by inserting after "this title" in the first sentence the following: "for the provision of congregate services to elderly residents".

(c) Section 405(e) of such Act is amended—

(1) by striking out "When" and all that follows through "local agency" in paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "A public housing agency or nonprofit corporation applying for assistance to provide congregate services to nonelderly handicapped residents shall consult with the appropriate agency"; and

(2) by striking out "local" in the first sentence of paragraph (2).

SECURITY PROGRAM FOR PUBLIC HOUSING

SEC. 209. (a) This section may be cited as the "Public Housing Anti-Crime Amendments of 1980".

Public Housing Anti-Crime Amendments of 1980. 12 USC 1701z-6 note.

(b) The Congress finds that—

(1) public housing and surrounding neighborhoods continue to suffer substantially from rising crime and the fear of crime;

(2) funding to provide more security for public housing can be used to leverage funding from other sources and thereby produce more successful anti-crime efforts;

(3) the effects of inflation and the need for reductions in the budget of the Federal Government result in a need for more co-targeting of Federal and local anti-crime resources;

(4) as authorized by the Public Housing Security Demonstration Act of 1978, the Urban Initiatives Anti-Crime Program has performed in a promising manner; and

12 USC 1701z-6 note.

(5) the First Annual Report to Congress of the Urban Initiatives Anti-Crime Program and the two General Accounting Office reports to Congress on such Program have provided useful suggestions which can now be implemented.

(c) It is, therefore, the purpose of this section to continue the efforts of the Urban Initiatives Anti-Crime Program so that more progress can be made in providing secure, decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling units for low-income and elderly tenants in public housing projects.

12 USC 1701z-6 note.

(d) Section 207 of the Housing and Community Development Amendments of 1978 is amended—

12 USC 1701z-6 note.

(1) by striking out subsection (c)(4) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(4) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Secretary shall coordinate and jointly target resources with other agencies, particularly the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Labor, the Department of Justice, the Department of the Interior, the Department of Commerce, the Department of Education, ACTION, the Community Services Administration, and State and local agencies.

"(5) In order to assess the impact of crime and vandalism in public housing projects, the Secretary may, as part of the Annual Housing Survey conducted by the Department of Housing and Urban Development or by other means, collect data on crime and vandalism and integrate the data collection with the victimization surveys undertaken by the Department of Justice and the Department of Commerce.

Crime and vandalism, data collection.

"(6) The Secretary shall, to the maximum extent practicable, utilize information derived from the program authorized by this section for assisting in establishing (A) guidelines to be used by public housing authorities in determining strategies to meet the security needs of tenants of public housing projects assisted under the United States Housing Act of 1937, other than under section 8 of such Act, and (B) guidelines for improvements relating to the security of projects (and the tenants living in such projects) assisted under section 14 of such Act.";

Guidelines.

42 USC 1437 note, 1437f.

Ante, p. 1625.

(2) by striking out "this Act" in the first sentence of subsection (e) and inserting in lieu thereof "the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980"; and

(3) by adding the following new sentence at the end of subsection (f): "Of the authority approved in appropriation Acts for the purpose of entering into annual contributions contracts under

Contract authority.

Ante, p. 1624.

section 5(c) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 with respect to the fiscal year beginning on October 1, 1980, the Secretary may enter into contracts to carry out this section, except that the aggregate amount obligated over the duration of such contracts may not exceed $10,000,000.".

SOLAR ENERGY SYSTEMS IN PUBLIC HOUSING PROJECTS

42 USC 1437c.

SEC. 210. Section 5 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

42 USC 1437f.

"(i) In entering into contracts for assistance with respect to newly constructed or substantially rehabilitated projects under this section (other than for projects assisted pursuant to section 8), the Secretary shall require the installation of a passive or active solar energy system in any such project where the Secretary determines that such installation would be cost effective over the estimated life of the system.".

SECTION 236 AMENDMENT

12 USC 1715z-1.

SEC. 211. Section 236 of the National Housing Act is amended by adding the following new subsection at the end thereof:

42 USC 1437f.

Ante, p. 1624.

42 USC 1437f.

"(q) The Secretary may provide assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 with respect to residents of units in a project assisted under this section. In entering into contracts under section 5(c) of such Act with respect to the additional authority provided on October 1, 1980, the Secretary shall not utilize more than $20,000,000 of such additional authority to provide assistance for elderly or handicapped families which, at the time of applying for assistance under such section 8, are residents of a project assisted under this section and are expending more than 50 percent of their income on rental payments.".

PAYMENT OF NONFEDERAL SHARE

SEC. 212. The United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"PAYMENT OF NONFEDERAL SHARE

42 USC 1437m.

42 USC 1437f.

"SEC. 15. Any of the following may be used as the non-Federal share required in connection with activities undertaken under Federal grant-in-aid programs which provide social, educational, employment, and other services to the tenants in a project assisted under this Act, other than under section 8:

"(1) annual contributions under this Act for operation of the project; or

"(2) rental or use-value of buildings or facilities paid for, in whole or in part, from development, modernization, or operation cost financed with loans or debt service annual contributions under this Act.".

MANAGEMENT AND PRESERVATION OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT-OWNED MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECTS

12 USC 1701z-11.

SEC. 213. (a) Section 203(a) of the Housing and Community Development Amendments of 1978 is amended—

(1) by striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(1) preserving the housing units so that at least those units which are occupied by low- and moderate-income persons or which are vacant, at the time of acquisition, are available to and affordable by such persons;";

(2) by striking out "and" at the end of clause (4);

(3) by striking out the period at the end of clause (5) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and"; and

(4) by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(6) maintaining the project for the purpose of providing rental or cooperative housing.".

(b) Section 203(b)(1) of such Act is amended by inserting after "considering the low- and moderate-income character of the project" the following: ", including the number of units in the project occupied by low- and moderate-income persons,".

12 USC 1701z-11.

(c) Section 203(c) of such Act is amended—

(1) by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (1);

(2) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (2) of such subsection and inserting in lieu thereof "; and"; and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3) maintain the project for purposes of providing rental or cooperative housing for the longest feasible period.".

(d) Subparagraphs (B) and (C) of section 203(d)(2) of such Act are amended by inserting "except for tenants of above-moderate income," before "to".

(e) Section 203(f) of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"(f) For the purpose of this section, the term 'multifamily housing project' means any multifamily rental housing project which is, or prior to acquisition by the Secretary was, assisted or insured under the National Housing Act, or was subject to a loan under section 202 of the Housing Act of 1959 or section 312 of the Housing Act of 1964, or which is acquired by the Secretary pursuant to any other provision of law.".

"Multifamily housing project."

12 USC 1701q.
42 USC 1452b.

RESTRICTION ON USE OF ASSISTED HOUSING

SEC. 214. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development may not make financial assistance available for the benefit of any nonimmigrant student-alien.

Nonimmigrant student aliens.
42 USC 1436a.

(b) For purposes of this section—

Definitions.

(1) the term "financial assistance" means financial assistance made available pursuant to the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 235 or 236 of the National Housing Act, or section 101 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965; and

42 USC 1437 note,
12 USC 1715z, 1715z-1.
12 USC 1701s, 42 USC 1451, 1465.

(2) the term "nonimmigrant student-alien" means (A) an alien having a residence in a foreign country which he or she has no intention of abandoning, who is a bona fide student qualified to pursue a full course of study and who is admitted to the United States temporarily and solely for purpose of pursuing such a course of study at an established institution of learning or other recognized place of study in the United States, particularly designated by him or her and approved by the Attorney General after consultation with the Department of Education of the United States, which institution or place of study shall have agreed to report to the Attorney General the termination of attendance of each nonimmigrant student, and if any such institution of learning or place of study fails to make reports promptly the approval shall be withdrawn, and (B) the alien spouse and minor children of any such alien if accompanying him or her or following to join him or her.

REPORT ON HOUSING ASSISTANCE BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM

Transmittal to Congress.

SEC. 215. The Secretary shall conduct a comprehensive examination of the feasibility of a housing assistance block grant program, including the feasibility of replacing the categorical housing assistance programs proposed to be utilized in fiscal year 1982, and shall transmit to the Congress a report thereon not later than March 31, 1981. Such examination shall include, but not be limited to—

(1) simplified and expedited application and review procedures;

(2) an equitable allocation formula which reflects both current program experience and identified needs; and

(3) such other recommendations as the Secretary deems appropriate.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IN IMPACTED AREAS

Ante, p. 1614.

"(3) For all insurance authorized by this subsection and provided pursuant to a commitment entered into after the date of enactment of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, the Secretary may not accept an offer to prepay or request refinancing of a mortgage secured by rental housing unless the Secretary takes appropriate action that will obligate the borrower (and successors in interest thereof) to utilize the property as a rental property for a period of five years from the date on which the insurance was provided (twenty years in the case of any such mortgage purchased under section 305) unless the Secretary finds that—

"(A) the conversion of the property to a cooperative, or condominium form of ownership is sponsored by a bona fide tenants' organization representing a majority of the households in the project;

"(B) continuance of the property as rental housing is clearly unnecessary to assure adequate rental housing opportunities for low- and moderate-income people in the community; or

"(C) continuance of the property as rental housing would have an undesirable and deleterious effect on the surrounding neighborhood."; and

(8) by inserting "(5)" before the sentence beginning "In the case of refinancing of an existing hospital" and redesignating that sentence as paragraph (5).

TITLE INSURANCE RELIEF

Indian land claims.
12 USC 1709.

SEC. 328. Section 203 of the National Housing Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(p)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or any other section of this title, the Secretary is authorized to insure, and to commit to insure, under subsection (b) of this section as modified by this subsection a mortgage which meets both the requirements of this subsection and such criteria as the Secretary by regulation shall prescribe to further the purpose of this subsection, in any community where the Secretary determines that—

"(A) temporary adverse economic conditions exist throughout the community as a direct and primary result of outstanding claims to ownership of land in the community by an American Indian tribe, band, or nation;

"(B) such ownership claims are reasonably likely to be settled, by court action or otherwise; and

"(C) fifty or more individual homeowners were joined as parties defendant or were members of a defendant class prior to April 1, 1980, in litigation involving claims to ownership of land in the community by an American Indian tribe, band, group, or nation pursuant to a dispute involving the Articles of Confederation, Trade and Intercourse Act of 1790, or any similar State or Federal law.

USC prec. title I.
1 Stat. 137.

"(2) A mortgage shall be eligible for insurance under subsection (b) of this section as modified by this subsection without regard to limitations in this title relating to marketability of title, or any other statutory restriction which the Secretary determines is contrary to the purpose of this subsection, but only if the mortgagor is an owner-occupant of a home in a community specified in paragraph (1). The Secretary, in connection with any mortgage insured under subsection (b) as modified by this subsection, shall have all statutory powers, authority, and responsibilities which the Secretary has with respect to other mortgages insured under subsection (b), except that the Secretary may modify such powers, authority, or responsibilities where the Secretary deems such action to be necessary because of the special nature of the mortgage involved. Notwithstanding section 202 of this title, the insurance of a mortgage under subsection (b) of this section as modified by this subsection shall be the obligation of the Special Risk Insurance Fund created pursuant to section 238 of this title.".

12 USC 1708.

12 USC 1715z-3.

PARTICIPATION BY LOCAL PERSONS AND FIRMS IN ASSISTED PROJECTS

SEC. 329. Section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 is amended—

12 USC 1701u.

MORTGAGE-BACKED SECURITIES PROGRAM

Report to Congress.
12 USC 1723a note.

SEC. 330. If the Federal National Mortgage Association submits to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development or the Secretary of the Treasury, after the date of enactment of this section, a proposal with respect to undertaking a mortgage-backed securities program, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development or the Secretary of the Treasury, as the case may be, shall, within 90 days after submission of such proposal, approve the proposal or transmit to the Congress a report explaining why the proposal has not been approved.

EXTENSION OF HUD MINIMUM PROPERTY STANDARDS; LOCAL ACCEPTABLE STANDARDS FOR MASONRY CONSTRUCTION

Thermal requirements.

SEC. 331. (a) Until the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development submits the report required by subsection (b) to the Congress, any final rule published for effect by the Secretary pertaining to increases in thermal requirements for the Department of Housing and Urban Development's minimum property standards shall provide for the continuation of any local acceptable standards exemptions, approved by the Secretary prior to May 31, 1979, which are applicable to masonry construction.

Analysis, report to Congress.

(b) The Secretary shall conduct an analysis and, on August 1, 1981, report to Congress on the cost of constructing, heating, and cooling masonry, frame, log, and other buildings that comply with the increased thermal requirements and on the competitive economic impact of applying such increased thermal standards or permitting any exemptions from them.

Exemption.

(c) If such analysis shows there is an economic justification for any exemption from the thermal standards, an appropriate exemption for a specific construction type in a specific geographical location may be provided by the Secretary.

NEGOTIATED INTEREST RATES UNDER SECTION 203

12 USC 1709-1.

SEC. 332. Section 3(a) of Public Law 90-301 is amended—

(2) by inserting ", except those provided for in paragraph (2)," in the first sentence after "for all purposes"; and

(3) by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

Commitment agreement.
12 USC 1709.

"(2)(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may provide that the interest rate applicable to mortgages insured under section 203(b) of the National Housing Act shall be an interest rate specified in a commitment agreement which is negotiated between the mortgagor and mortgagee if—

"(i) the mortgagee discloses to the borrower, prior to the commitment, information on the applicable maximum rate established under paragraph (1) and a good faith estimate of the prevailing number of discount points associated with such rate;

"(ii) the agreement commits the mortgagee to such specified interest rate for at least 30 days after the date on which it is entered into; and "(iii) the agreement contains a commitment with respect to any discount points to be charged which shall be binding during the same period as the commitment period with respect to the specified interest rate.

"(B) The number of mortgages which are insured in accordance with this paragraph in any fiscal year may not exceed— Mortgages, limitation.

"(i) the number of mortgages which exceeds 10 per centum of all mortgages insured under such section 203 during the preceding fiscal year, or 12 USC 1709.

"(ii) 50,000 mortgages, whichever is greater.

"(C) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to mortgages which are subject to section 245 of the National Housing Act.

12 USC 1715z-10. Report to Congress.

"(D) The Secretary shall monitor experience under this paragraph and report to Congress by March 1, 1982, comparing the discount points and effective yields associated with mortgages insured under this paragraph with the discount points and effective yields associated with (i) mortgages in the conventional mortgage market, and (ii) other mortgages insured under section 203(b) of the National Housing Act.".

12 USC 1715u.

"SEC. 230. (a)(1) Upon receiving notice of the default of any mortgage covering a one-, two-, three-, or four-family residence insured under this Act, the Secretary (for the purpose of avoiding foreclosure of the mortgage, and notwithstanding the fact that the Secretary has previously approved a request of the mortgagee for an extension of the time for curing the default and of the time for commencing foreclosure proceedings or for otherwise acquiring title to the mortgaged property, or has approved a modification of the mortgage for the purpose of changing the amortization provisions by recasting the unpaid balance) may make all or part of the monthly payments due under the mortgage directly to the mortgagee on behalf of the mortgagor, if such default was caused by circumstances which are beyond the mortgagor's control and render the mortgagor temporarily unable to correct a mortgage delinquency and to resume full mortgage payments. Payments may be made only in accordance with the provisions of this subsection and shall be subject to any additional requirements the Secretary may prescribe.

"(2) No payments may be provided under this subsection unless the Secretary has determined that such payments are necessary to avoid foreclosure and that there is a reasonable prospect that the mortgagor will be able—

"(A) to resume full mortgage payments within thirty-six months after the beginning of the period for which such payments are provided or upon termination of assistance under this subsection;

"(B) to commence repayment of the payments made under this subsection at a time designated by the Secretary; and

"(C) to pay the mortgage in full by its maturity date or by a later date established by the Secretary for completing the mortgage payments.

"(3) Payments under this subsection may be in an amount determined by the Secretary up to the amount of the principal, interest, taxes, assessments, ground rents, hazard insurance, mortgagee's expenses in connection with payments or repayments under this subsection, and mortgage insurance premiums due under the mortgage, and the initial payment may include an amount necessary to make the payments on the mortgage current. Payments may not exceed amounts which the Secretary determines to be necessary to supplement the amounts, if any, which the mortgagor is capable of contributing toward the mortgage payments.

Payment period, extension.

"(4) Payments under this subsection may be provided for a period of not to exceed eighteen months, and any period of default. Such period may be extended, in the Secretary's discretion, for not to exceed eighteen months where the Secretary has determined that such extension is necessary to avoid foreclosure and that there is a reasonable prospect that the mortgagor will be able to make the payments and repayments specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection. The Secretary shall establish procedures for periodic review of the mortgagor's financial circumstances for the purpose of determining the necessity for continuation, termination, or adjustment in the amount of the payments. Payments shall be discontinued at any time when the Secretary determines that, because of changes in the mortgagor's financial circumstances, the payments are no longer necessary to avoid foreclosure or that there is no longer a reasonable prospect that the mortgagor will be able to make the payments and repayments specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

Mortgagor's financial circumstances, review.

Lien.

"(5) All payments shall be secured by a lien on the property and by such other obligation as the Secretary may require. Payments shall be repayable upon terms and conditions prescribed by the Secretary, and such terms and conditions may include requirements for repayment of any amount paid by the Secretary toward a mortgagee's expenses in connection with the payment or repayments made under this subsection. The Secretary may establish interest charges on payments made under this subsection; except that such charges shall not exceed a rate which is more than the maximum interest rate applicable with respect to level payment mortgages insured pursuant to section 203(b) of this Act at the time assistance under this section is approved by the Secretary. Such charges shall be payable notwithstanding any provision of any State constitution or law or local law which limits the rate of interest on loans or advances of credit.

Interest.

12 USC 1709.

"(6) Payments under this subsection may be made without regard to whether the Secretary has previously taken action to avoid mortgage acquisition or foreclosure, except that payments may be provided on behalf of a mortgagor previously assisted under this section only in cases in which full mortgage payments (and any repayments to the Secretary which may have been requested) have been made by such mortgagor for at least 12 months from the time such previous assistance under this section was terminated.

"(b)(1) When the Secretary receives notice of a default described in subsection (a)(1) and makes a determination that assistance under subsection (a) would be inappropriate in the case of the mortgagor, the Secretary (for the purpose of avoiding foreclosure of the mortgage, and notwithstanding the facts described in the parenthetical material contained in subsection (a)(1) and the fact that payments have been made under subsection (a) with respect to the mortgage) shall, if determined necessary by the Secretary, acquire the mortgage and security therefor upon payment of the insurance benefits in an amount equal to the unpaid principal balance of the mortgage plus any unpaid mortgage interest and reimbursement for such costs and attorney's fees as the Secretary finds were properly incurred in connection with the defaulted mortgage and its assignment to the Secretary, and for any proper advances theretofore made by the mortgagee under the provisions of the mortgage. After the acquisition of such mortgage by the Secretary, the mortgagee shall have no further rights, liabilities, or obligations with respect thereto. The provisions of section 204 relating to the issuance of debentures incident to the acquisition of foreclosed properties shall apply with respect to debentures issued under this subsection, and the provisions of section 204 relating to the rights, liabilities, and obligations of a mortgagee shall apply with respect to the Secretary when the Secretary has acquired an insured mortgage under this section, in accordance with and subject to regulations (modifying such provisions to the extent necessary to render their application for such purpose appropriate and effective) which shall be prescribed by the Secretary.

Mortgage acquisition by Secretary.

Debenture issuance.
12 USC 1710.

"(2) The Secretary may provide assistance, to a mortgagor whose mortgage has been acquired under paragraph (1) of this subsection, through forebearance of interest or principal, or both, or through other means, for a period of not more than eighteen months after the acquisition of the mortgage, if the mortgagor has not been assisted under subsection (a) within twelve months of the date of such acquisition and if the Secretary determines that there is a reasonable prospect that the mortgagor will be able to meet the conditions described in subsection (a)(2). Such period may be extended, in the Secretary's discretion, for not to exceed eighteen months where the Secretary has determined that such extension is necessary to avoid foreclosure and that there is a reasonable prospect that the mortgagor will be able to meet the conditions described in subsection (a)(2). Such assistance (which may include any expenses of the Secretary incurred in connection with providing such assistance) shall be repayable upon terms and conditions prescribed by the Secretary, except that in no event shall any interest rate charged on such repayments exceed the interest rate chargeable for repayments of assistance made under subsection (a). Such rate shall be payable notwithstanding any provision of any State constitution or law or local law which limits the rate of interest on loans or advances of credit.

Interest or principal.

Assistance repayment.

"(3) In carrying out paragraph (1), the Secretary shall, if determined necessary by the Secretary, acquire a mortgage, with respect to which assistance was being provided under subsection (a) immediately prior to such acquisition, for the sole purpose of extending the term of repayment under the mortgage so that the mortgagor will be able to make the full payments on the mortgage.

"(c) All expenditures made under this section shall be made from the insurance fund chargeable for insurance benefits on the mortgage covering the property to which the payments made relate, and Insurance fund.

any payments received under this section shall be credited to such fund; except that payments made pursuant to subsection (a) of this section may only be made to the extent approved in appropriation Acts.

Homeownership counseling.

"(d) The Secretary shall, to the extent practicable, provide homeownership counseling to persons assisted under this section.".

TITLE IV—PLANNING ASSISTANCE

SEC. 401. Section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954 is amended to read as follows:

"PLANNING ASSISTANCE

40 USC 461.

"SEC. 701. (a) The Congress finds that—

"(1) the general welfare requires the conservation and the orderly and efficient growth and development of the Nation's communities, particularly communities suffering from fiscal, economic, and social distress;

"(2) effective and coordinated planning efforts at all levels of government are necessary in order for such conservation, growth, and development to be effectively and efficiently achieved;

"(3) a major component of such planning effort should be detailed strategies that can guide governmental actions in order to assure that, to the maximum extent practicable, the goals and objectives of such plans will be achieved through the implementation of such planning efforts;

"(4) such planning efforts and strategies should be consistent with National Policy Objectives; and

"(5) Federal actions and programs, to the extent practicable, should be administered in conformance with State, areawide and local plans and strategies.

"(b) The purposes of this section are—

"(1) to provide assistance to encourage State and local governments and areawide planning organizations to develop strategies for implementing comprehensive plans (or components of such plans) and to the extent necessary comprehensive plans or components of such plans, giving particular emphasis to those strategies which are designed to implement those components of the plan which relate to the National Policy Objectives; and

"(2) to encourage, to the maximum extent practicable, the coordination of Federal policy and program decisions with such plans and strategies.

Definitions.

"(c) As used in this section—

"(1) the term 'Secretary' means the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development;

"(2) the term 'State' means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;

"(3) the term 'unit of general local government' means any city, county, town, township, parish, village, or other general purpose political subdivision of a State;

"(4) the term 'Indian tribe' means any Indian tribe, band, group, and nation, including Alaska Indians, Aleuts, and Eskimos, and any Alaskan Native Village, of the United States, which is considered an eligible recipient under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (Public Law 93-638) or under the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972 (Public Law 92-512);

25 USC 450 note.
31 USC 1221 note.

"(5) the term 'metropolitan area' means a standard metropolitan statistical area, established by the Department of Commerce, except that, to the extent the Secretary deems appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section, the Secretary may modify or extend such an area, but such modification or extension shall not affect the boundaries of any standard metropolitan statistical area for any other purpose;

"(6) the term 'areawide planning organization' means any multijurisdictional unit which—

"(A) is established under State law, interstate compact, or interlocal agreement for the purpose of formulating policies and plans for the orderly development of a substate or interstate region;

"(B) is formally charged with carrying out the provisions of section 401 of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968;

42 USC 4231.

"(C) in the absence of State law to the contrary, has at least a majority of elected officials from local governments on its governing body; and

"(D) meets such other standards as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation;

"(7) the term 'National Policy Objectives' means—

"(A) the conservation and improvement of existing communities, particularly the improvement of those communities which are characterized by fiscal, economic or social distress;

"(B) an increase in housing and employment opportunities and choices, particularly for lower income, minority persons, women, and persons with special needs such as the elderly and handicapped, and a reduction in the cost of housing; and

"(C) the promotion of orderly and efficient growth and development of communities, regions and States, taking into consideration the necessity of conserving energy;

"(8) the term 'comprehensive plan' means a plan which includes, at least, housing and land use elements which take into account factors prescribed by the Secretary, including those required to achieve the National Policy Objectives;

"(9) the term 'strategy' means a detailed strategy statement designed to identify and describe the actions required to implement such plan, or components of such plan, in order to achieve, to the maximum extent practicable, the goals and objectives of such plan or, in the absence of such plan, the actions which will be required in the course of developing a comprehensive plan; and

"(10) the term 'action program' means a program which includes (A) an identification of specific actions that are necessary for implementing elements included in the strategy statement; (B) an identification of the governmental entity responsible for undertaking each such action; (C) a timetable specifying when each such action may be reasonably expected to be carried out; and (D) to the maximum extent practicable, agreements, by the governmental entities identified as being responsible for undertaking such actions, that they will undertake such actions.

Grants.

"(d)(1) The Secretary may contract to make, and make, grants on an annual basis which are approved in accordance with the provisions of this section to—

"(A) States, for statewide activities;

"(B) States, for the provision of assistance to (i) nonmetropolitan areawide planning organizations; (ii) units of general local government (except counties) having a population of less than 50,000 according to the latest decennial or mid-decade census, as appropriate; (iii) counties, other than urban counties as defined under title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974; and (iv) any group of adjacent units of general local government having a total population of less than 50,000 (according to the latest decennial or mid-decade census, as appropriate) and having common or related planning needs; except that a grant may not be made under this paragraph where the State would be undertaking the activities described in subsection (e) on behalf of such organization, local government, county, or group of adjacent units of local government unless such organization, local government, county, or group of adjacent units of local government requests the State to undertake such activities; 42 USC 5301.

"(C) metropolitan areawide planning organizations;

"(D) units of general purpose local government having a total population of fifty thousand or more according to the latest decennial or mid-decade census, as appropriate;

"(E) urban counties as defined under title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974;

"(F) Indian tribes; and

"(G) the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

"(2) In making grants under paragraph (1), the Secretary may make grants to States for the provision of assistance to any entity which is described in subparagraphs (C), (D), or (E) and which does not receive direct funding from the Secretary under paragraph (1), except that such grants may be made only if such entity notifies the Secretary of its desire to receive funding through the State.

"(e) Grants may be made under this section only for those activities determined by the Secretary to be necessary to assist—

"(1) in the development of strategies and action programs to implement a comprehensive plan or a part thereof or related plans or planning and, where such a plan does not exist or is determined by the Secretary to be inadequate, in the development of a comprehensive plan;

"(2) in the development of evaluations or studies related to such plan, strategies, or action programs; or

"(3) in the carrying out of the clearinghouse functions required pursuant to OMB Circular A-95.

Grant recipients, action programs and plans.

"(f)(1) The Secretary shall require that each recipient develop strategies and action programs and, except as provided in paragraph (2), maintain and update a comprehensive plan and a planning process.

"(2) In the case of a recipient that is not covered by or does not have a comprehensive plan and a planning process, the Secretary shall require, with respect to such a plan and process, only that such recipient begin the phased development of such a plan and process in a manner designed to assure that such a plan and process will be completed in a reasonable period of time taking into consideration the nature and scope of the recipient's reasonable planning needs and its financial resources.

"(3) In carrying out this subsection, the Secretary shall require—

"(A) citizen participation pursuant to regulations of the Secretary;

"(B) the development and subsequent modifications of an implementation strategy and an action program and, to the extent necessary, a comprehensive plan and the review of such strategy, program, and plan, at least triennially for necessary or desirable amendments; and

"(C) procedures, including criteria set forth in advance, for evaluating programs and activities undertaken pursuant to this section to determine whether such programs and activities are meeting the goals and objectives set forth in the strategies.

Grant approval.

"(g) The Secretary may not approve a grant for any year after the first year in which a grant pursuant to this section is made to a recipient unless the Secretary determines that—

"(1) additional funds are required to assist in the development of the strategy, action program, and, to the extent necessary, the comprehensive plan or part thereof; and

"(2) substantial progress has been made in the development and implementation of the strategy.

To assist the Secretary in making such determinations, the applicant shall submit to the Secretary such information as the Secretary may require, including the performance report required pursuant to subsection (l), except that at least triennially the Secretary shall require the applicant to submit a detailed evaluation of the progress it has made during the preceding three-year period toward the development of such strategy and its implementation.

"(h) The Secretary shall encourage the cooperation of all interested States, areawide planning organizations, municipalities, political subdivisions, public agencies, and other parties in the preparation of and in the carrying out of programs developed pursuant to this section. Such parties shall be afforded by the recipient organization or government a reasonable opportunity to comment on such strategies, plans, and programs.

Areawide planning organizations.

"(i) States are authorized, subject to approval of the Secretary, to provide for the administration by areawide planning organizations of assistance provided pursuant to subsection (d), except that responsibility for adherence to the requirements of this section and other applicable laws shall remain with the State.

Terms and conditions.

"(j)(1) Contracts to make grants pursuant to this section shall contain such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe.

"(2) A grant made under subsection (d) shall not exceed two-thirds of the estimated cost of the work for which the grant is made.

"(3) The Secretary is authorized by grant, contract, or otherwise to provide technical assistance directly to the entities referred to in subsection (d) to assist such entities to carry out the purposes of this section.

"(k) In providing assistance to areawide planning organizations under subsection (d), the Secretary (or the State, in the case of assistance provided through the State) shall give preference to, and may provide additional funding for, organizations which provide for voting rights among their members weighted in proportion to the population of the areas represented by such members.

Grant application criteria.

"(l)(1) The Secretary shall, by regulation, establish criteria for the evaluation and approval of applications for grants under this section.

Performance reports, reviews, and audits.

"(2) For each year in which activities assisted under this section are being carried out, each entity receiving assistance directly from the Secretary shall submit to the Secretary a performance report concerning activities carried out with such assistance. The Secretary shall, at least on an annual basis, make such reviews and audits as may be necessary or appropriate to determine whether a recipient of funds under this section has carried out activities substantially as described in its application, whether such actions and activities conformed to the requirements of this section and other applicable laws, and whether the recipient has a continuing capacity to carry out such actions and activities in a timely manner. The Secretary shall adjust, reduce, or withdraw grant funds, or take other action as appropriate in accordance with such reviews and audits.

GAO audits.

"(3) Insofar as they relate to funds provided under this section, the financial transactions of recipients of such funds may be audited by the General Accounting Office under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller General of the United States. The representatives of the General Accounting Office shall have access to all books, accounts, records, reports, files, and other papers, things, or property belonging to or in use by such recipients pertaining to such financial transactions and necessary to facilitate the audit.

"(m)(1) Grants made under this section shall only be used to carry out planning and related activities necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

"(2) Grant assistance under this section shall not be used to defray the cost of the acquisition, construction, repair or rehabilitation of, or the preparation of engineering drawings or similar detailed specifications for, specific housing, capital facilities, public works projects, or for financing routine administrative responsibilities of any State or local government.

Communities, grant eligibility.

"(3) Grant assistance under this section may be made available for—

"(A) communities with populations of 25,000 or less; or

"(B) communities with populations above 25,000 but less than 50,000 which meet the criteria set forth in section 119(e) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974;

42 USC 5318.

for the preparation of applications for Federal financial assistance, except that there shall be a priority for such assistance to communities with populations of 25,000 or less.

"(n)(1) The Secretary shall utilize, to the maximum extent practicable, the plans and strategies approved by the Secretary under this section to guide policy and funding decisions with respect to the programs and activities of the Department of Housing and Urban Development which affect the geographical areas covered by such plans.

"(2) The Secretary shall encourage other Federal departments and agencies to use the plans and strategies approved by the Secretary, to the maximum extent practicable, to guide policy and funding decisions with respect to their programs and activities which affect the geographical areas covered by such plans and strategies. The Secretary shall encourage other Federal departments and agencies, consistent with their program authority, to adopt approved plans (or components thereof) as all or part of the planning requirements of such departments or agencies.

"(3) A plan and strategy approved by the Secretary under this section shall remain in effect for a maximum of three years following the date of its approval. Any extension of a plan and strategy beyond such three-year term, or any major modification (as approved by the Secretary) of such a plan and strategy during such term, shall meet all of the requirements of this section and must be approved by the Secretary. Any proposed modification shall be submitted to the Secretary prior to its incorporation into the plan or strategy.

"(4) The Secretary shall report to the Congress no later than January 15, 1984, and no later than January 15 of every third year thereafter, concerning the progress made in encouraging other Federal departments and agencies to use approved plans and strategies as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection.

Report to Congress.

"(o) The consent of the Congress is hereby given to any two or more States to enter into agreements or compacts, not in conflict with any law of the United States, for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the comprehensive planning for the growth and development of interstate, metropolitan, or other urban areas, and to establish such agencies, joint or otherwise, as they may deem desirable for making effective such agreements and compacts.

State compacts.

"(p) There is authorized to be appropriate for purposes of this section an amount not to exceed $40,000,000 for the fiscal year 1981, and not to exceed $40,000,000 for the fiscal year 1982. Any amounts appropriated shall remain available until expended.".

Appropriation authorization.

SEC. 402. This title shall become effective on the effective date of regulations implementing section 401 of this title, but in no event later than May 1, 1981.

Effective date. 40 USC 461 note.

42 USC 1485. (c) Section 515 of such Act is amended—

(1) by inserting "and Indian tribes" after "consumer cooperatives" in subsection (a); and

(2) by inserting "Indian tribe," after "trust," in subsection (b).

42 USC 1486. (d) Section 516 of such Act is amended by inserting "or any Indian tribe," after "or political subdivision thereof" in subsection (a).

42 USC 1490c. (e) Section 523 of such Act is amended—

(1) by inserting "Indian tribes," after "organizations," in subsection (b)(1)(A);

(2) by inserting "and to Indian tribes" after "private nonprofit organizations" in subsection (b)(1)(B); and

(3) by inserting ", including Indian tribes," after "other associations" in subsection (b)(2).

42 USC 1490d. (f) Section 524(a) of such Act is amended by inserting "and to Indian tribes" after "nonprofit organizations" the first time it appears in the first sentence.

42 USC 1490e. (g) Section 525 of such Act is amended by inserting "Indian tribes," after "organizations," in the first sentences of subsections (a) and (b).

42 USC 1471. (h) The second sentence of section 501(c) of such Act is amended by inserting "or Indian tribe" after "local public agency".

Condominium and Cooperative Abuse Relief Act of 1980.

TITLE VI—CONDOMINIUM AND COOPERATIVE CONVERSION PROTECTION AND ABUSE RELIEF

SHORT TITLE

15 USC 3601 note.

SEC. 601. This title may be cited as the "Condominium and Cooperative Abuse Relief Act of 1980".

FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

15 USC 3601.

SEC. 602. (a) The Congress finds and declares that—

(1) there is a shortage of adequate and affordable housing throughout the Nation, especially for low- and moderate-income and elderly and handicapped persons;

(2) the number of conversions of rental housing to condominiums and cooperatives is accelerating, which in some communities may restrict the shelter options of low- and moderate-income and elderly and handicapped persons;

(3) certain long-term leasing arrangements for recreation and other condominium- or cooperative-related facilities which have been used in the formation of cooperative and condominium projects may be unconscionable; in certain situations State governments are unable to provide appropriate relief; as a result of these leases, economic and social hardships may have been imposed upon cooperative and condominium owners, which may threaten the continued use and acceptability of these forms of ownership and interfere with the interstate sale of cooperatives and condominiums; appropriate relief from these abuses requires Federal action; and

(4) there is a Federal involvement with the cooperative and condominium housing markets through the operation of Federal tax, housing, and community development laws, through the operation of federally chartered and insured financial institutions, and through other Federal activities; that the creation of many condominiums and cooperatives is undertaken by entities operating on an interstate basis.

(b) The purposes of this title are to seek to minimize the adverse impacts of condominium and cooperative conversions particularly on the housing opportunities of low- and moderate-income and elderly and handicapped persons, to assure fair and equitable principles are followed in the establishment of condominium and cooperative opportunities, and to provide appropriate relief where long-term leases of recreation and other cooperative- and condominium-related facilities are determined to be unconscionable.

CONVERSION LENDING

SEC. 603. It is the sense of the Congress that lending by federally insured lending institutions for the conversion of rental housing to condominiums and cooperative housing should be discouraged where there are adverse impacts on housing opportunities of the low- and moderate-income and elderly and handicapped tenants involved. 15 USC 3602.

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 604. For the purpose of this title— 15 USC 3603.

(1) "affiliate of a developer" means any person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a developer. A person "controls" a developer if the person (A) is a general partner, officer, director, or employer of the developer, (B) directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, owns, controls, holds with power to vote, or holds proxies representing, more than 20 per centum of the voting interests of the developer, (C) controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of the developer, or (D) has contributed more than 20 per centum of the capital of the developer. A person "is controlled by" a developer if the developer (i) is a general partner, officer, director or employer of the person, (ii) directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, owns, controls, holds with power to vote, or holds proxies representing, more than 20 per centum of the voting interests of the person, (iii) controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors, or (iv) has contributed more than 20 per centum of the capital of the person;

(2) "automatic rent increase clause" means a provision in a lease permitting periodic increases in the fee under the lease which is effective automatically or at the sole option of the lessor, and which provides that the fee shall increase at the rate of an economic, commodity, or consumer price index or at a percentage rate such that the actual increases in the rental payment over the lease term cannot be established with specificity at the time the lease is entered into;

(3) "common elements" means all portions of the cooperative or condominium project, other than the units designated for separate ownership or for exclusive possession or use;

(4) "condominium association" means the organization, whose membership consists exclusively of all the unit owners in the condominium project, which is, or will be, responsible for the operation, administration, and management of the condominium project;

(5) "condominium project" means real estate (A) which has five or more residential condominium units, in each residential structure, and the remaining portions of the real estate are designated for common ownership solely by the owners of those units, each owner having an undivided interest in the common elements, and (B) where such units are or have been offered for sale or sold, directly or indirectly, through the use of any means or instruments of transportation or communication of interstate commerce, or the mails;

(6) "condominium unit" means a portion of a condominium project designated for separate ownership;

(7) "conversion project" means a project, which has five or more residential units, which was used primarily for residential rental purposes immediately prior to being converted to a condominium or cooperative project;

(8) "convey or conveyance" means (A) a transfer to a purchaser of legal title in a unit at settlement, other than as security for an obligation, or (B) the acquisition by a purchaser of a leasehold interest for more than five years;

(9) "cooperative association" means an organization that owns the record interest in the residential cooperative property or a leasehold of the residential property of a cooperative project and that is responsible for the operation of the cooperative project;

(10) "cooperative project" means real estate (A) which has five or more residential cooperative units, in each residential structure, subject to separate use and possession by one or more individual cooperative unit owners whose interest in such units and in the undivided assets of the cooperative association which are appurtenant to the unit are evidenced by a membership or share interest in a cooperative association and a lease or other muniment of title or possession granted by the cooperative association as the owner of all the cooperative property, and (B) an interest in which is or has been offered for sale or lease or sold, or leased directly or indirectly, through use of any means or instruments of transportation or communication in interstate commerce or of the mails;

(11) "cooperative property" means the real estate and personal property subject to cooperative ownership and all other property owned by the cooperative association;

(12) "cooperative unit" means a part of the cooperative property which is subject to exclusive use and possession by a cooperative unit owner. A unit may be improvements, land, or land and improvements together, as specified in the cooperative documents;

(13) "cooperative unit owner" means the person having a membership or share interest in the cooperative association and holding a lease, or other muniment of title or possession, of a cooperative unit that is granted by the cooperative association as the owner of the cooperative property;

(14) "developer" means (A) any person who offers to sell or sells his interest in a cooperative or condominium unit not previously conveyed, or (B) any successor of such person who offers to sell or sells his interests in units in a cooperative or condominium project and who has the authority to exercise special developer control in the project including the right to: add, convert, or withdraw real estate from the cooperative or condominium project, and maintain sales offices, management offices and rental units; exercise easements through common elements for the purpose of making improvements within the cooperative or condominium; or exercise control of the owners' association;

(15) "interstate commerce" means trade, traffic, transportation, communication, or exchange among the States, or between any foreign country and a State, or any transaction which affects such trade, traffic, transportation, communication, or exchange;

(16) "lease" includes any agreement or arrangement containing a condominium or cooperative unit owner's obligation, individually, collectively, or through an association to make payments for a leasehold interest or for other rights to use or possess real estate, or personal property (which rights may include the right to receive services with respect to such real estate or personal property), except a lease does not include mortgages or other such agreements for the purchase of real estate;

(17) "person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, association, trust or other entity, or any combination thereof;

(18) "purchaser" means any person, other than a developer, who by means of a voluntary transfer acquires a legal or equitable interest in a unit, other than (A) a leasehold interest (including renewal options) of less than five years, or (B) as security for an obligation;

(19) "real estate" means any leasehold or other estate or interest in, over or under land, including structures, fixtures, and other improvements and interests which by custom, usage, or law pass with a conveyance of land though not described in the contract of sale or instrument of conveyance. "Real estate" includes parcels with or without upper or lower boundaries, and spaces that may be filled with air or water;

(20) "residential" means used as a dwelling;

(21) "sale", "sale of a cooperative unit" or "sale of a condominium unit" means any obligation or arrangement for consideration for conveyance to a purchaser of a cooperative or condominium unit, excluding options or reservations not binding on the purchaser;

(22) "special developer control" means any right arising under State law, cooperative or condominium instruments, the association's bylaws, charter or articles of association or incorporation, or power of attorney or similar agreement, through which the developer may control or direct the unit owners' association or its executive board. A developer's right to exercise the voting share allocated to any condominium or cooperative unit which he owns is not deemed a right of special developer control if the voting share allocated to that condominium or cooperative unit is the same voting share as would be allocated to the same condominium or cooperative unit were that unit owned by any other unit owner at that time;

(23) "State" includes the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the territories and possessions of the United States; and

(24) "tenants' organization" means a bona fide organization of tenants who represent a majority of the occupied rental units in a rental housing project.

EXEMPTIONS

SEC. 605. The provisions of this title shall not apply to— 15 USC 3604.

(1) a cooperative or condominium unit sold or offered for sale by the Federal Government, by any State or local government, by any corporate instrumentality of the United States, or by any agency thereof;

(2) a cooperative or condominium project in which all units are restricted to nonresidential purposes or uses; or

(3) any lease or portion thereof—

(A) which establishes any leasehold or other estate or interest in, over or under land on or in which one or more residential condominium or cooperative units are located, the termination of which will terminate the condominium or cooperative project, or reduce the number of units in such project, or

(B) which establishes a leasehold interest in, or other rights to use, possess, or gain access to, a condominium or cooperative unit.

CONDOMINIUM AND COOPERATIVE CONVERSIONS

15 USC 3605.

SEC. 606. It is the sense of the Congress that, when multifamily rental housing projects are converted to condominium or cooperative use, tenants in those projects are entitled to adequate notice of the pending conversion and to receive the first opportunity to purchase units in the converted projects and that State and local governments which have not already provided for such notice and opportunity for purchase should move toward that end. The Congress believes it is the responsibility of State and local governments to provide for such notice and opportunity to purchase in a prompt manner. The Congress has decided not to intervene and therefore leaves this responsibility to State and local governments to be carried out.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION INSURANCE

15 USC 3606.

SEC. 607. Where an application for mortgage or loan insurance in connection with a conversion or purchase of a rental housing project being undertaken by a tenants' organization is submitted, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall expedite the processing of the application in every way and shall make a final decision on such application at the earliest practicable time.

OPTIONAL TERMINATION OF SELF-DEALING CONTRACTS

15 USC 3607.

SEC. 608. (a) Any contract or portion thereof which is entered into after the effective date of this title, and which—

(1) provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a condominium or cooperative association in a conversion project, or of property serving the condominium or cooperative unit owners in such project;

(2) is between such unit owners or such association and the developer or an affiliate of the developer;

(3) was entered into while such association was controlled by the developer through special developer control or because the developer held a majority of the votes in such association; and

(4) is for a period of more than three years, including any automatic renewal provisions which are exercisable at the sole option of the developer or an affiliate of the developer, may be terminated without penalty by such unit owners or such association.

(b) Any termination under this section may occur only during the two-year period beginning on the date on which—

(1) special developer control over the association is terminated; or

(2) the developer owns 25 per centum or less of the units in the conversion project, whichever occurs first.

(c) A termination under this section shall be by a vote of owners of not less than two-thirds of the units other than the units owned by the developer or an affiliate of the developer.

(d) Following the unit owners' vote, the termination shall be effective ninety days after hand delivering notice or mailing notice by prepaid United States mail to the parties to the contract.

Effective date.

CIVIL ACTION; UNCONSCIONABLE LEASES

SEC. 609. (a) Cooperative and condominium unit owners through the unit owners' association may bring an action seeking a judicial determination that a lease or leases, or portions thereof, were unconscionable at the time they were made. An action may be brought under this section if each such lease has all of the following characteristics:

15 USC 3608.

(1) it was made in connection with a cooperative or condominium project;

(2) it was entered into while the cooperative or condominium owners' association was controlled by the developer either through special developer control or because the developer held a majority of the votes in the owners' association;

(3) it had to be accepted or ratified by purchasers or through the unit owners' association as a condition of purchase of a unit in the cooperative or condominium project;

(4) it is for a period of more than twenty-one years or is for a period of less than twenty-one years but contains automatic renewal provisions for a period of more than twenty-one years;

(5) it contains an automatic rent increase clause; and

(6) it was entered into prior to June 4, 1975.

Such action must be authorized by the cooperative or condominium unit owners through a vote of not less than two-thirds of the owners of the units other than units owned by the developer or an affiliate of the developer, and may be brought by the cooperative or condominium unit owners through the units owners' association. Prior to instituting such action, the cooperative or condominium unit owners must, through a vote of not less than two-thirds of the owners of the units other than units owned by the developer or an affiliate of the developer, agree to enter into negotiation with the lessor and must seek through such negotiation to eliminate or modify any lease terms that are alleged to be unconscionable; if an agreement is not reached in ninety days from the date on which the authorizing vote was taken, the unit owners may authorize an action after following the procedure specified in the preceding sentence.

Unit owners authorization.

(b) A rebuttable presumption of unconscionability exists if it is established that, in addition to the characteristics set forth in subsection (a) of this section, the lease—

(1) creates a lien subjecting any unit to foreclosure for failure to make payments;

(2) contains provisions requiring either the cooperative or condominium unit owners or the cooperative or condominium association as lessees to assume all or substantially all obligations and liabilities associated with the maintenance, management and use of the leased property, in addition to the obligation to make lease payments;

(3) contains an automatic rent increase clause without establishing a specific maximum lease payment; and

(4) requires an annual rental which exceeds 25 per centum of the appraised value of the leased property as improved: Provided, That, for purposes of this paragraph "annual rental" means the amount due during the first twelve months of the lease for all units, regardless of whether such units were occupied or sold

"Annual rental."

"Appraised value."

during that period, and "appraised value" means the appraised value placed upon the leased property the first tax year after the sale of a unit in the condominium or after the sale of a membership or share interest in the cooperative association to a party who is not an affiliate of the developer.

Once the rebuttable presumption is established, the court, in making its finding, shall consider the lease or portion of the lease to be unconscionable unless proven otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence to the contrary.

Evidence presentation.

(c) Whenever it is claimed, or appears to the court, that a lease or any portion thereof is, or may have been, unconscionable at the time it was made, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence at least as to—

(1) the commercial setting of the negotiations;

(2) whether a party has knowingly taken advantage of the inability of the other party reasonably to protect his interests;

(3) the effect and purpose of the lease or portion thereof, including its relationship to other contracts between the association, the unit owners and the developer or an affiliate of the developer; and

(4) the disparity between the amount charged under the lease and the value of the real estate subject to the lease measured by the price at which similar real estate was readily obtainable in similar transactions.

Remedial relief.

(d) Upon finding that any lease, or portion thereof, is unconscionable, the court shall exercise its authority to grant remedial relief as necessary to avoid an unconscionable result, taking into consideration the economic value of the lease. Such relief may include, but shall not be limited to rescission, reformation, restitution, the award of damages and reasonable attorney fees and court costs. A defendant may recover reasonable attorneys' fees if the court determines that the cause of action filed by the plantiff is frivolous, malicious, or lacking in substantial merit.

(e) Nothing in this section may be construed to authorize the bringing of an action by cooperative and condominium unit owners' association, seeking a judicial determination that a lease or leases, or portions thereof, are unconscionable, where such unit owners or a unit owners' association representing them has, after the termination of special developer control, reached an agreement with a holder of such lease or leases which either—

(1) sets forth the terms and conditions under which such lease or leases is or shall be purchased by such unit owners or associations; or

(2) reforms any clause in the lease which contained an automatic rent increase clause, unless such agreement was entered into when the leaseholder or his affiliate held a majority of the votes in the owners' association.

PROHIBITIONS

Developer, reimbursement.
15 USC 3609.

SEC. 610. Any provision in any lease or contract requiring unit owners or the owners' association in any conversion project involving a contract meeting the requirements of section 608 of this title or in any project involving a lease meeting the requirements of section 609 of this title, to reimburse, regardless of outcome, the developer, his successor, or affiliate of the developer for attorneys' fees or money judgments, in a suit between unit owners or the owners' association and the developer arising under the lease or agreement, is against public policy and void.

STATE AND LOCAL JURISDICTION

SEC. 611. Nothing in this title may be construed to prevent or limit the authority of any State or local government to enact and enforce any law, ordinance, or code with regard to any condominium, cooperative, or conversion project, if such law, ordinance, or code does not abridge, deny, or contravene any standard for consumer protection established under this title. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the provisions of this title, except for the application of section 609 and the prohibition included in section 610 as it relates to a lease with respect to which a cause of action may be established under section 609, shall not apply in the case of any State or local government which has the authority to enact and enforce such a law, ordinance, or code, if, during the three-year period following the date of enactment of this title, such State or local government enacts a law, ordinance, or code, or amendments thereto, stating in substance that such provisions of this title shall not apply in that State or local government jurisdiction. 15 USC 3610.

ADDITIONAL REMEDIES

SEC. 612. (a) Unless otherwise limited as in section 608 or 609 of this title, any person aggrieved by a violation of this title may sue at law or in equity. 15 USC 3611.

(b) In any action authorized by this section for a violation of section 608 or 610 where actual damages have been suffered, such damages may be awarded or such other relief granted as deemed fair, just, and equitable.

(c) Every person who becomes liable to make any payment under this section may recover contributions from any person who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(d) The amounts recoverable under this section may include interest paid, reasonable attorneys' fees, independent engineer and appraisers' fees, and court costs. A defendant may recover reasonable attorneys' fees if the court determines that the cause of action filed by the plaintiff is frivolous, malicious, or lacking in substantial merit.

JURISDICTION

SEC. 613. The district courts of the United States, the United States courts of any territory, and the United States District Court for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction under this title and, concurrent with State courts, of actions at law or in equity brought under this title without regard to the amount in controversy. Any such action may be brought in the district wherein the defendant is found or is an inhabitant or transacts business, or in the district where the sale took place, and process in such cases may be served in other districts of which the defendant is an inhabitant or wherever the defendant may be found. No case arising under this title and brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction shall be removed to any court of the United States, except where any officer or employee of the United States in his official capacity is a party. 15 USC 3612.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

15 USC 3613.

SEC. 614. No action shall be maintained to enforce any right or liability created by this title unless brought within six years after such cause of action accrued, except that an action pursuant to section 609 must be brought within four years after the date of enactment of this title.

CONTRARY STIPULATIONS VOID

15 USC 3614.

SEC. 615. Any condition, stipulation, or provision binding any person to waive compliance with any provisions of this title shall be void.

ADDITIONAL REMEDIES

15 USC 3615.

SEC. 616. The rights and remedies provided by this title shall be in addition to any and all other rights and remedies that may exist under Federal or State law.

SEPARABILITY

15 USC 3616.

SEC. 617. If any provisions of this title or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this title shall not be affected thereby.

EFFECTIVE DATE

15 USC 3601 note.

SEC. 618. The provisions of this title shall become effective upon enactment, except that section 609, and the prohibition included in section 610 as it relates to a lease with respect to which a cause of action may be established under section 609, shall become effective one year after enactment.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 301. During the current fiscal year applicable appropriations to the Department of Transportation shall be available for maintenance and operation of aircraft; hire of passenger motor vehicles and aircraft; purchase of liability insurance for motor vehicles operating in foreign countries on official departmental business; and uniforms, or allowances therefor, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 5901-5902).

SEC. 302. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for the planning or execution of programs the commitments for which are in excess of $700,000,000 in fiscal year 1981 for grants-in-aid for airport planning, noise compatibility planning and programs, and development.

Highway-related safety grants.

SEC. 303. None of the funds provided under this Act shall be available for the planning or execution of programs, the obligations for which are in excess of $28,000,000 in fiscal year 1981 for "Highway-related safety grants".

State and community highway safety.

SEC. 304. None of the funds provided under this Act shall be available for the planning or execution of programs the total obligations for which are in excess of $150,405,000 in fiscal year 1981 for "State and Community Highway Safety": Provided, That none of the funds under State and Community Highway Safety shall be used for construction, rehabilitation or remodeling costs or for office furnishings and fixtures for State, local, or private buildings or structures.

Panama Canal Commission, pay increases.

SEC. 305. Funds appropriated for the Panama Canal Commission may be apportioned notwithstanding section 3679 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (31 U.S.C. 665), to the extent necessary to permit payment of such pay increases for officers or employees as may be authorized by administrative action pursuant to law which are not in excess of statutory increases granted for the same period in corresponding rates of compensation for other employees of the Government in comparable positions.

FAA personnel, dependents' school expenses.
20 USC 241 note.

SEC. 306. Funds appropriated under this Act for expenditure by the Federal Aviation Administration shall be available (1) except as otherwise authorized by the Act of September 30, 1950 (20 U.S.C. 236-244), for expenses of primary and secondary schooling for dependents of Federal Aviation Administration personnel stationed outside the continental United States at costs for any given area not in excess of those of the Department of Defense for the same area, when it is determined by the Secretary that the schools, if any, available in the locality are unable to provide adequately for the education of such dependents and (2) for transportation of said dependents between schools serving the area which they attend and their places of residence when the Secretary, under such regulations as he may prescribe, determines that such schools are not accessible by public means of transportation on a regular basis.

SEC. 307. Appropriations contained in this Act for the Department of Transportation shall be available for services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, but at rates for individuals not to exceed the per diem rate equivalent to the rate for a GS-18.

5 USC 5332 note.

Mass transit fare for elderly and handicapped.
49 USC 1604.

SEC. 308. None of the funds provided under this Act shall be made available under section 5 of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, to support mass transit facilities, equipment, or operating expenses unless the applicant for such assistance has given satisfactory assurances in such manner and forms as the Secretary may require, and in accordance with such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe, that the rates charged elderly and handicapped persons during nonpeak hours shall not exceed one-half of the rates generally applicable to other persons at peak hours: Provided, That the Secretary, in prescribing the terms and conditions for the provision of such assistance shall (1) permit applicants to continue the use of preferential fare systems for elderly or handicapped persons where those systems were in effect on or prior to November 26, 1974, (2) allow applicants a reasonable time to expand the coverage of operating preferential fare systems as appropriate, (3) allow applicants to continue to use preferential fare systems incorporating the offering of a free return ride upon payment of the generally applicable full fare where any such applicant's existing fare collection system does not reasonably permit the collection of half fares, and (4) allow applicants to define the eligibility of "handicapped persons" for the purposes of preferential fares in conformity with other Federal laws and regulations governing eligibility for benefits for disabled persons.

Fiscal year limitation.

SEC. 309. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

Federal-aid highways.

SEC. 310. None of the funds provided under or included in this Act shall be available for the planning or execution of programs, the obligations for which are in excess of $8,750,000,000 for "Federal-Aid Highways" in fiscal year 1981: Provided, That this limitation shall not apply to obligations for emergency relief authorized by 23 U.S.C. 125: Provided further, for replacement of the West Seattle bridge in the State of Washington, $50,000,000 to be made available from obligations authorized by 23 U.S.C. 125 on August 4, 1978: Provided further, That this limitation shall not become effective if subsequent legislation containing an obligation limitation on "Federal-Aid Highways" for fiscal year 1981 is enacted into law by September 30, 1980: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Secretary of Transportation shall, not later than 60 days after date of enactment of this Act, designate under 23 U.S.C. 103(e)(1) as a route on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways 3.03 miles in the State of Missouri extending I-170 southward from I-70 to tie into U.S. 40 and 6.25 miles in the State of Alabama connecting I-10 and I-65 in the vicinity of Mobile-Prichard: Provided further, That there shall be no obligation constraints placed upon ongoing emergency projects funded under the Discretionary Bridge Replacement Fund or the Emergency Relief Fund.

West Seattle bridge, Wash.

Funding allocation formula.

(a) For fiscal year 1981, the Secretary of Transportation shall control the obligation of the limitation imposed by the above allocation according to the following formula: 80 per centum in the ratio which sums authorized to be appropriated for Federal-aid highways and highway safety construction which are apportioned or allocated to a State for fiscal year 1981 bears to the total of the sums authorized to be appropriated for Federal-aid highways and highway safety construction which are apportioned or allocated to all the States for such fiscal year; the remaining 20 per centum not so allocated, in the order in which States having obligated all such sums so allocated submit projects on or after August 1, 1981, to the Secretary of Transportation for his approval and in the amounts for such projects.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the Secretary shall—

(1) provide all States with authority sufficient to prevent lapses of sums authorized to be appropriated for Federal-aid highways and highway safety construction which have been apportioned or allocated to a State, except in those instances in which a State indicates its intention to lapse sums apportioned under section 104(b)(5)(A) of title 23, United States Code;

(2) after August 1, 1981, revise a distribution of the 80 per centum made under subsection (a) if a State will not obligate the amount distributed during fiscal year 1981 and redistribute sufficient amounts to those States able to obligate amounts in addition to those previously distributed during fiscal year 1981; and

(3) not distribute amounts authorized for administrative expenses and forest highways.

Great River Road.

SEC. 311. Obligations for the Great River Road shall include preliminary engineering and the planning or execution of projects for the acquisition of areas of archeological, scientific, or historical importance and of necessary easements for scenic purposes, the construction or reconstruction of roadside rest areas, bicycle trails, and scenic viewing areas, the reconstruction and rehabilitation of existing road segments, and the construction of new route segments. No such funds, however, shall be used for constructing new segments until 60 per centum of the Great River Road in each State is completed: Provided, That such completion may be waived if the Administrator determines that circumstances in such State prevent such completion: Provided further, None of the funds provided under this Act shall be available for the planning or execution of programs for the Great River Road, the obligations for which are in excess of $37,500,000 in fiscal year 1981.

Waiver.

Dulles airport access highway extension.

SEC. 312. None of the funds provided under this Act shall be available for constructing an extension of the Dulles airport access highway prior to an agreement with the Commonwealth of Virginia under which that Commonwealth assumes responsibility for maintenance and operation of such extension.

Offshore Oil Pollution Compensation Fund.

SEC. 313. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for the implementation or execution of programs the obligations for which are in excess of $60,000,000 in fiscal year 1981 for the "Offshore Oil Pollution Compensation Fund".

Panama Canal Commission.

SEC. 314. None of the funds appropriated in this Act for the Panama Canal Commission may be expended unless in conformance with the Panama Canal Treaties of 1977 and any law implementing those treaties.

Rail-highway crossings.

SEC. 315. None of the funds provided in this Act may be used for planning or construction of rail-highway crossings under section 322(a) of title 23, United States Code, or under sections 701(a)(5) or section 703(1)(A) of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976 at the—

45 USC 851, 853.

(1) School Street crossing in Groton, Connecticut; and

(2) Broadway Extension crossing in Stonington, Connecticut.

Regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings.

SEC. 316. None of the funds in this Act shall be used for the planning or execution of any program to pay the expenses of, or otherwise compensate, non-Federal parties intervening in regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings funded in this Act.

Vehicles, inspection fees or sticker requirements.

SEC. 317. None of the funds in this Act shall be used to assist, directly or indirectly, any State in imposing mandatory State inspection fees or sticker requirements on vehicles which are lawfully registered in another State, including vehicles engaged in interstate commercial transportation which are in compliance with Part 396—Inspection and Maintenance of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations of the U.S. Department of Transportation.

49 CFR Part 396.

Consulting service contracts.

SEC. 318. Except as otherwise provided under existing law or under an existing Executive order issued pursuant to an existing law, the obligation or expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for contracts for any consulting service shall be limited to contracts which are (1) a matter of public record and available for public inspection, and (2) thereafter included in a publicly available list of all contracts entered into within 24 months prior to the date on which the list is made available to the public and of all contracts on which performance has not been completed by such date. The list required by the preceding sentence shall be updated quarterly and shall include a narrative description of the work to be performed under each such contract.

Contract requirements.

SEC. 319. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be obligated or expended by any executive agency, as referred to in the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act (41 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) for a contract for services unless such executive agency (1) has awarded and entered into such contract in full compliance with such Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder and (2) requires any report prepared pursuant to such contract, including plans, evaluations, studies, analyses and manuals, and any report prepared by the agency which is substantially derived from or substantially includes any report prepared pursuant to such contract, to contain information concerning (A) the contract pursuant to which the report was prepared and (B) the contractor who prepared the report pursuant to such contract.

End-of-fiscal-year spending limitation.

SEC. 320. (a) No appropriations made available in this Act shall be obligated in a manner that would cause obligations from the total budget authority available to any department, agency, or establishment (as defined in 31 U.S.C. chapter 1, subchapter I, section 2) or any major administrative subdivision thereof during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, to exceed 30 per centum for the last quarter of such fiscal year or 15 per centum for any month in the last quarter of such fiscal year. The Director of the Office of Management and Budget may waive the requirements of the preceding sentence with respect to any program or activity if the Director determines in writing that the waiver is necessary to avoid a serious disruption in carrying out such program or activity.

Quarterly report to congressional committees and OMB Director.

(b) Not later than 45 days after the close of each quarter of the fiscal year, the head of each department, agency, or establishment shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations and to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, specifying the amount of obligations incurred during the quarter and the percentage of total available budget authority for the fiscal year which the obligations constitute.

(c) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall keep the Committees on Appropriations fully informed of actions taken to carry out the requirements of this section, including any waivers granted, and shall promptly report in writing any situation in which the obligations of any department, agency, or establishment exceed such requirements other than pursuant to a waiver. Not later than December 31, 1981, the director shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations on the results and impact of the requirements of this section and actions taken under this section, including the effects upon procurement and apportionment processes, together with any recommendations the Director considers appropriate. Concurrent with the submittal of the report to the Committees on Appropriations under the preceding sentence, the director shall submit a copy of such report to the Comptroller General, who shall promptly review that report and submit to the Committees on Appropriations an analysis of the report and any recommendations which the Comptroller General considers appropriate.

Report to congressional committees.

Unresolved audits.

SEC. 321. All unresolved audits currently pending within agencies and departments, for which appropriations are made under this Act, shall be resolved not later than September 30, 1981. Any new audits, involving questioned expenditures, arising after the enactment of this Act shall be resolved within 6 months of completing the initial audit report.

Overdue debts owed U.S.

SEC. 322. Each department and agency for which appropriations are made under this Act shall take immediate action (1) to improve the collection of overdue debts owed to the United States within the jurisdiction of that department or agency; (2) to bill interest on delinquent debts as required by the Federal Claims Collection Standards; and (3) to reduce amounts of such debts written off as uncollectible.

Consultant services reduction.

SEC. 323. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the amounts otherwise available to agencies under the Act for procurement of consultant services shall be reduced by the following amounts: Department of Transportation, $3,894,000.

Estimate, submittal to congressional committees.
31 USC 28.
31 USC 2.

(b) For fiscal year 1982 and thereafter, a department or establishment—as defined in section 2 of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921—shall submit annually to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, as part of its budget justification, the estimated amount of funds requested for consulting services; the appropriation accounts in which such funds are located; and a brief description of the need for consulting services, including a list of major programs that require consulting services.

Progress evaluation, submittal to Congress.
31 USC 28.

(c) For fiscal year 1982 and thereafter, the Inspector General of such department or establishment, or comparable official, or if there is no Inspector General or comparable official, the agency head or the agency head's designee, shall submit to the Congress along with the budget justification, an evaluation of the agency's progress to institute effective management controls and improve the accuracy and completeness of the data provided to the Federal Procurement Data System regarding consultant service contractual arrangements.

Wheelchair lifts.

SEC. 324. None of the funds in this Act may be used for the planning or execution of programs to compel local transit authorities to purchase wheelchair lifts to comply with section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, except—

29 USC 794.

(1) to the extent which would be required under the amendment contained in section 118 of S. 2720 (96th Congress, Federal Public Transportation Act of 1980), as passed by the Senate on June 25, 1980, or

(2) where such authorities have elected to purchase such lifts.

This section shall be effective only until modified by subsequent legislation.

SEC. 325. None of the funds in this Act shall be used to implement, administer, or enforce any regulation which has been disapproved pursuant to a resolution of disapproval duly adopted in accordance with the applicable law of the United States.

Advertising or public relations funds, reduction.

SEC. 326. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, any amount appropriated by this Act for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, for any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, which is available to pay for or conduct advertising or public relations activities is reduced by 10 percent.

Interstate highway I-69.

SEC. 327. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for interstate highway I-69 between Charlotte and Lansing, Michigan, for a period of 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

Washington National Airport.

SEC. 328. None of the funds in this Act shall be used to mandate any reduction under the Washington National Airport Policy of the number of certificated air carrier slots per hour at Washington National Airport below the number authorized on September 12, 1980, until April 26, 1981.

Public Law 96-401
96th Congress

An Act

Relating to certain leases involving the Secretary of the Interior and the Northern Cheyenne Indian Reservation.

Oct. 9, 1980
[S. 2126]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress finds that—

Northern Cheyenne Indian Reservation, leases.

(1) certain mineral leases and prospecting permits entered into between the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council and private parties in 1969, 1970, and 1971, presently encumber approximately 56 per centum of the lands within the boundaries of the Northern Cheyenne Indian Reservation;

(2) due to the likelihood of permanent and large-scale physical and social disruption of their tribal community that would result from development under such leases and permits, the Northern Cheyenne Indian Tribe has been and continues to be opposed to any development under these leases and permits;

(3) although such leases and permits were approved by representatives of the Secretary of the Interior, there are serious questions whether such approval is lawful and consistent with the trust responsibility of the Secretary of the Interior to "act in the best interests" of Indian tribes and individuals;

(4) the present impasse with regard to such leases and permits, unless resolved, can only result in expensive and time-consuming litigation that does not hold out the likelihood of a satisfactory solution that would be fair to all parties; and

(5) cancellation of such leases and permits, and providing a fair remedy to any party or parties whose property interest, invested in good faith, would be adversely affected by such cancellation, appears to be the most direct and effective manner within which to resolve this impasse.

Cancellation agreement negotiations.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of entering into a cancellation agreement under section 3 of this Act, the Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized and directed to negotiate with the Northern Cheyenne Tribe and each party holding a lease, permit, or right to a lease issued under the provisions of the Act of May 11, 1938 (52 Stat. 347; 25 U.S.C. 396a), as follows:

	C-57-P-44	May 21, 1971

SEC. 3. (a) With respect to any lease, permit, or right to a lease referred to in section 2 of this Act, the Secretary is authorized to execute a cancellation agreement under which the Secretary, the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, and the party holding such lease, permit, or right to a lease agree in writing that such lease, permit, or right to a lease is canceled and under which such party shall be issued:

Federal coal leases.

(1) a noncompetitive lease or leases for such federally owned coal deposits which for the foreseeable future are unlikely to be separately mined efficiently or economically except by incorporation into an existing mining unit controlled by such party, and for the surface of public lands containing such deposits, as may be agreed upon by the Secretary and such party. Such lease or leases shall be issued at the fair market value provided for in subsection (c) of this section only after a determination by the Secretary that such deposits and lands are acceptable for further consideration for coal leasing: Provided, That such cancellation agreement shall also provide that if, after further consideration, the Secretary determines that all or any part of such deposits or lands are not acceptable for coal leasing, such party shall be issued a certificate of bidding rights that may be used to acquire Federal coal leases at competitive sales. Such bidding rights shall have a value equal to the amount of the actual cash investment, plus interest on such investment compounded at a rate not to exceed 7 per centum per annum, made by the party involved in connection with the lease, permit, or right to a lease to be canceled under such cancellation agreement, multiplied by the percentage of the otherwise recoverable tonnage of any coal deposits for which the party does not, by reason of such determination by the Secretary, receive a lease under this subsection; or,

Bidding rights certificate.

(2) a certificate of bidding rights that may be used to acquire Federal coal leases at competitive sales. Such bidding rights shall have a value equal to the amount of the actual cash investment, plus interest on such investment compounded at a rate not to exceed 7 per centum per annum, made by the party involved in connection with the lease, permit, or right to a lease to be canceled under such cancellation agreement.

Final determination.

(b) A determination by the Secretary under subsection (a)(1) of this section shall be final.

Fair market value.

Bonus.

(c) Any noncompetitive lease issued under subsection (a)(1) of this section shall be valued at a sum equal to fair market value, as determined by the Secretary. Any bonus due may be reduced by an amount equal to so much of the investment and interest on such investment, compounded at a rate not to exceed 7 per centum per annum, made by the party involved in connection with the lease, permit, or right to a lease, to be canceled under this section as the Secretary may consider appropriate.

(d) Any lease issued under subsection (a)(1) of this section shall, except as provided in this Act, be issued under, and be subject to the provisions of the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, as amended (30 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), and the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 (30 U.S.C. 1201 et seq.).

Deadlines.

SEC. 4. (a) With respect to any lease referred to in section 2 of this Act, any cancellation agreement entered into pursuant to section 3 of this Act shall be valid only if executed in writing, before November 1, 1980, by the Secretary, the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, and the party holding the lease. If such cancellation agreement is not so executed, such lease shall be canceled on November 1, 1980.

(b) With respect to any permit or right to a lease referred to in section 2 of this Act, any cancellation agreement entered into pursuant to section 3 of this Act shall be valid only if executed in writing, on or before January 1, 1982, by the Secretary, the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, and the party holding the permit or right to a lease. If such cancellation agreement is not so executed, such permit or right to a lease shall be canceled upon the expiration of a period ending ninety days after any date on which the Secretary, the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, and such party agree in writing that negotiations under section 2 of this Act are at an impasse, or on January 1, 1982, whichever occurs first.

U.S. Court of Claims, jurisdiction.

(c) If any lease, permit, or right to a lease is canceled under subsection (a) or (b) of this section, the United States Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to render judgment on any claim against the United States arising out of such cancellation.

Extinguished claim or liability.

SEC. 5. (a) Execution of any cancellation agreement under section 3 of this Act shall extinguish any claim or liability that may otherwise arise in connection with the lease, permit, or right to a lease canceled under such agreement.

Claim or liability.

(b) With respect to any lease, permit, or right to a lease canceled under section 4 of this Act, nothing in this Act shall establish or extinguish any claim or liability that may arise in connection with such lease, permit, or right to a lease so canceled.

Report to Congress.

Sec. 6. Not later than March 1, 1982, the Secretary shall report to the Congress on the implementation of this Act.

Approved October 9, 1980.

Public Law 96-402
96th Congress
An Act

To amend title 10, United States Code, to remove certain inequities in the Survivor Benefit Plan provided for under chapter 73 of such title, and for other purposes.

Oct. 9, 1980
[S. 91]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Uniformed Services Survivor Benefits Amendments of 1980".

Uniformed Services Survivor Benefits Amendments of 1980.
10 USC 1447 note.

SEC. 2. Section 1447(2) of title 10, United States Code, relating to definitions, is amended—

(1) in subparagraph (C)—

(A) by inserting "but which is not less than $300" after "under the Plan"; and

(B) by striking out ", but not less than $300;" and inserting in lieu thereof a period; and

(2) by striking out "as increased from time to time under section 1401a of this title.".

SEC. 3. (a) Subsection (a) of section 1451 of title 10, United States Code, relating to the amount of annuities under the Survivor Benefit Plan, is amended to read as follows:

Monthly annuity.
10 USC 1450.

"(a)(1) The monthly annuity payable to a widow, widower, or dependent child who is entitled under section 1450(a) of this title to an annuity shall be—

10 USC 1401a.
10 USC 1448.

"(A) 55 percent of the base amount, as adjusted from time to time under section 1401a of this title, if the annuity is provided by virtue of eligibility under section 1448(a)(1)(A) of this title; or

"(B) a lesser percentage (determined by the Secretary of Defense in accordance with subsection (d)) of the base amount, as adjusted from time to time under section 1401a of this title on or after the date the person becomes entitled to retired pay under chapter 67 of this title, if the annuity is provided by virtue of eligibility under section 1448(a)(1)(B) of this title.

10 USC 1331.

"(2) In the case of a widow who has one dependent child, the monthly annuity shall be reduced by the lesser of (A) an amount equal to the amount of the mother's benefit, if any, to which the widow would be entitled under title II of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) based solely upon service by the person concerned as described in section 210(l)(1) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 410(l)(1)) and calculated assuming that the person concerned lived to age 65, or (B) an amount equal to 40 percent of the amount of the monthly annuity as determined under paragraph (1).

"(3) When the widow or widower reaches age 62, or there is no longer a dependent child, whichever occurs later, the monthly annuity shall be reduced by the lesser of (A) an amount equal to the amount of the survivor benefit, if any, to which the widow or widower would be entitled under title II of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) based solely upon service by the person concerned as described in section 210(l)(1) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 410(l)(1)) and calculated assuming that the person concerned lives to age 65, or (B) an amount equal to 40 percent of the amount of the monthly annuity as determined under paragraph (1). For the purpose of the preceding sentence, a widow or widower shall not be considered as entitled to a benefit under title II of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) to the extent that such benefit has been offset by deductions under section 203 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 403) on account of work.

"(4) In the computation of any reduction made under paragraph (2) or (3), there shall be excluded any period of service described in section 210(l)(1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 410(l)(1)) which was performed after the effective date of the Uniformed Services Survivor Benefits Amendments of 1980 and which involved periods of service of less than 30 continuous days for which the person concerned is entitled to receive a refund under section 6413(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the social security tax which he had paid.".

Ante, p. 1705.

26 USC 6413.

(b) Subsection (c) of such section is amended—

10 USC 1448.

(1) by striking out "section, or section 1448(d) of this title, on the day before the effective day of that increase" in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "section or under section 1448(d) of this title"; and

(2) by striking out "title, or" in the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "title or under".

(c) Subsection (d) of such section is amended by striking out "(a)(2)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(a)(1)(B)".

SEC. 4. Section 1452 of title 10, United States Code, relating to reductions in retired and retainer pay, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

Plan participation, discontinuance request.

"(g)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter but subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), any person who has elected to participate in the Plan and who is suffering from a service-connected disability rated by the Veterans' Administration as totally disabling and has suffered from such disability while so rated for a continuous period of 10 or more years (or, if so rated for a lesser period, has suffered from such disability while so rated for a continuous period of not less than 5 years from the date of such person's last discharge or release from active duty) may discontinue participation in the Plan by submitting to the Secretary concerned a request to discontinue participation in the Plan. Any such person's participation in the Plan shall be discontinued effective on the first day of the first month following the month in which a request under this paragraph is received by the Secretary concerned. Effective on such date, the Secretary concerned shall discontinue the reduction being made in such person's retired or retainer pay on account of participation in the Plan or, in the case of a person who has been required to make deposits in the Treasury on account of participation in the Plan, such person may discontinue making such deposits effective on such date. Any request under this paragraph to discontinue participation in the Plan shall be in such form and shall contain such information as the Secretary concerned may require by regulation.

"(2) A person described in paragraph (1) may not discontinue participation in the Plan under such paragraph without the written consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of such person under the Plan.

"(3) The Secretary concerned shall furnish promptly to each person who files a request under paragraph (1) to discontinue participation in the Plan a written statement of the advantages of participating in the Plan and the possible disadvantages of discontinuing participation. A person may withdraw a request made under paragraph (1) if it is withdrawn within 30 days after having been submitted to the Secretary concerned.

"(4) Upon the death of any person described in paragraph (1) who has discontinued participation in the Plan in accordance with this subsection, any amounts deducted from the retired or retainer pay of the deceased under section 1452 of this title shall be refunded to the widow or widower.

Deductions, refund.

Ante, p. 1706.

"(5) Any person described in paragraph (1) who has discontinued participation in the Plan may again elect to participate in the Plan if (A) at any time after having discontinued participation in the Plan the Veterans' Administration reduces such person's service-connected disability rating to less than total, and (B) such person applies to the Secretary concerned, within such period of time after the reduction in such person's service-connected disability rating has been made as the Secretary concerned may prescribe, to again participate in the Plan and includes in such application such information as the Secretary concerned may require. Such person's participation in the Plan under this paragraph is effective beginning on the first day of the month after the month in which the Secretary concerned receives the application for resumption of participation in the Plan, and the Secretary concerned shall begin making reductions in such person's retired or retainer pay, or require such person to make deposits in the Treasury under subsection (d), as appropriate, effective on such day.

Plan participation, resumption.

"(h) Whenever retired and retainer pay is increased under section 1401a of this title, the amount of the reduction to be made under subsection (a) or (b) in the retired or retainer pay of any person shall be increased at the same time and by the same percentage as such retired or retainer pay is increased under section 1401a of this title.".

Retired and retainer pay, increased, reduction.

SEC. 5. (a)(1) The Secretary concerned shall pay an annuity to any individual who is the surviving spouse of a member of the uniformed services who—

Surviving spouse, annuity payment provisions.
10 USC 1448 note.

(A) died before September 21, 1972;

(B) was serving on active duty in the uniformed services at the time of his death and had served on active duty for a period of not less than 20 years; and

(C) was at the time of his death entitled to retired or retainer pay or would have been entitled to that pay except that he had not applied for or been granted that pay.

(2) An annuity under paragraph (1) shall be paid under the provisions of subchapter II of chapter 73 of title 10, United States Code, in the same manner as if such member had died on or after September 21, 1972.

10 USC 1447.

(b)(1) The amount of retired or retainer pay to be used as the basis for the computation of an annuity under subsection (a) is the amount of the retired or retainer pay to which the member would have been entitled if the member had been entitled to that pay based upon his years of active service when he died, adjusted by the overall percentage increase in retired and retainer pay under section 1401a of title 10, United States Code (or any prior comparable provision of law), during the period beginning on the date of the member's death and ending on the day before the effective date of this section.

(2) In addition to any reduction required under the provisions of subchapter II of chapter 73 of title 10, United States Code, the annuity paid to any surviving spouse under this section shall be reduced by any amount such surviving spouse is entitled to receive as an annuity under subchapter I of such chapter.

Annuity payment, reduction.

10 USC 1431.

(c) If an individual entitled to an annuity under this section is also entitled to an annuity under subchapter II of chapter 73 of title 10, United States Code, based upon a subsequent marriage, the individual may not receive both annuities but must elect which to receive.

10 USC 1447.

Definitions.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) The term "uniformed services" means the Armed Forces and the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

(2) The term "surviving spouse" has the meaning given the terms "widow" and "widower" in section 1447 of title 10, United States Code.

(3) The term "Secretary concerned" has the meaning given such term in section 101(8) of title 10, United States Code, and includes the Secretary of Commerce, with respect to matters concerning the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the Secretary of Health and Human Services, with respect to matters concerning the Public Health Service.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of the Act entitled "An Act to amend chapter 73 of title 10, United States Code, to establish a Survivor Benefit Plan, and for other purposes", approved September 21, 1972 (10 U.S.C. 1448 note), is amended—

(1) by striking out "section 9(b) of the Veterans' Pension Act of 1959 (73 Stat. 436)" in subsection (a)(2) and inserting in lieu thereof "section 306 of the Veterans' and Survivors' Pension Improvement Act of 1978";

38 USC 521 note.

(2) by striking out "in the limitation on annual income for purposes of eligibility for benefits under section 541(b) of title 38, United States Code" in the first sentence of subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof "under section 3112 of title 38, United States Code, in the maximum annual rate of pension under section 541(b) of such title"; and

38 USC 541.

(3) by striking out "limitation on annual income" in the second sentence of subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof "the maximum annual rate of pension".

Effective date.
10 USC 1447 note.

SEC. 7. The amendments made by sections 2, 3, and 4 of this Act and the provisions of section 5 of this Act shall be effective on the first day of the second calendar month following the month in which this Act is enacted and shall apply to annuities payable by virtue of such amendments and provisions for months beginning on or after such date. No benefits shall accrue to any person by virtue of the enactment of this Act for any period before the date of the enactment of this Act.

[H.J. Res. 472]

Designating October 19, 1981, as a "Day of National Observance of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington at Yorktown, Virginia."

Whereas October 19, 1981, is the two hundredth anniversary of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington at Yorktown, Virginia; and

Whereas such date marks the anniversary of the end of the heroic struggle by our forefathers for political freedom and the ideals of liberty upon which our institutions are founded; and

Whereas it is fitting that this historic event be commemorated in such manner as to rekindle love of country and devotion to its principles by recalling to this generation the trials and triumphs of the past: Now, therefore, be it Observance of 200th Anniversary of Surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington. Designation.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That October 19, 1981, is proclaimed a Day of National Observance of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington at Yorktown, Virginia, and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Joint Resolution

Oct. 9, 1980
[H.J. Res. 560]

To proclaim March 19, 1981, as "National Agriculture Day".

Whereas agriculture is this Nation's most basic industry, and its associated production, processing, and marketing segments, together provide more jobs than any other single industry; and

Whereas the productivity of American agriculture is a vital ingredient in our strength as a Nation, both domestically and on the world scene; and

Whereas to maintain a healthy agriculture it is necessary that all Americans should understand how agriculture affects their lives and well-being, and should be aware of their personal stake in an abundant food and fiber supply: Now, therefore, be it

National Agriculture Day. Designation.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That March 19, 1981, is hereby proclaimed "National Agriculture Day", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

An Act

To improve the Federal judicial machinery by clarifying and revising certain provisions of title 28, United States Code, relating to the judiciary and judicial review of international trade matters, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[S. 1654]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Customs Courts Act of 1980".

Customs Courts Act of 1980.
28 USC 1 note.

TITLE I—COMPOSITION OF THE COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES TO OTHER COURTS

COMPOSITION OF COURT

SEC. 101. Section 251 of title 28, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 251. Appointment and number of judges; offices

"(a) The President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, nine judges who shall constitute a court of record to be known as the United States Court of International Trade. Not more than five of such judges shall be from the same political party. The court is a court established under article III of the Constitution of the United States.

USC prec. title 1.

"(b) The President shall designate one of the judges of the Court of International Trade who is less than seventy years of age to serve as chief judge. The chief judge shall continue to serve as chief judge until he reaches the age of seventy years and another judge is designated as chief judge by the President. After the designation of another judge to serve as chief judge, the former chief judge may continue to serve as a judge of the court.

"(c) The offices of the Court of International Trade shall be located in New York, New York.".

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

SEC. 102. (a) Section 293(b) of title 28, United States Code, is amended by striking out "Customs Court" and all that follows through "need arises" and inserting in lieu thereof "Court of International Trade to perform judicial duties in any circuit, either in a court of appeals or district court, upon presentation of a certificate of necessity by the chief judge or circuit justice of the circuit in which the need arises".

(b) Section 293(d) of title 28, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(d) The chief judge of the Court of International Trade may, upon presentation to him of a certificate of necessity by the chief judge of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals or the chief judge of the Court of Claims, designate and assign temporarily any judge of the Court of International Trade to serve as a judge of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals or the Court of Claims.".

TITLE II—JURISDICTION OF THE COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

JURISDICTION OF THE COURT

"(1) 'interested party' has the meaning given such term in section 771(9) of the Tariff Act of 1930; and

"(2) 'party-at-interest' means—

"(A) a foreign manufacturer, producer, or exporter, or a United States importer, of merchandise which is the subject of a final determination under section 305(b)(1) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979;

"(B) a manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler in the United States of a like product;

"(C) United States members of a labor organization or other association of workers whose members are employed in the manufacture, production, or wholesale in the United States of a like product; and

"(D) a trade or business association a majority of whose members manufacture, produce, or wholesale a like product in the United States.

28 USC 2632.

"§ 2632. Commencement of a civil action

"(a) Except for civil actions specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a civil action in the Court of International Trade shall be commenced by filing concurrently with the clerk of the court a summons and complaint, with the content and in the form, manner, and style prescribed by the rules of the court.

19 USC 1515, 1516.

"(b) A civil action in the Court of International Trade under section 515 or section 516 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court a summons, with the content and in the form, manner, and style prescribed by the rules of the court.

19 USC 1516a.

"(c) A civil action in the Court of International Trade under section 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court a summons or a summons and a complaint, as prescribed in such section, with the content and in the form, manner, and style prescribed by the rules of the court.

"(d) The Court of International Trade may prescribe by rule that any summons, pleading, or other paper mailed by registered or certified mail properly addressed to the clerk of the court with the proper postage affixed and return receipt requested shall be deemed filed as of the date of mailing.

28 USC 2633.

"§ 2633. Procedure and fees

"(a) A filing fee shall be payable to the clerk of the Court of International Trade upon the commencement of a civil action in such court. The amount of the fee shall be prescribed by the rules of the court, but shall be not less than $5 nor more than the filing fee for commencing a civil action in a district court of the United States. The court may fix all other fees to be charged by the clerk of the court.

"(b) The Court of International Trade shall prescribe rules governing the summons, pleadings, and other papers, for their amendment, service, and filing, for consolidations, severances, suspensions of cases, and for other procedural matters.

"(c) All summons, pleadings, and other papers filed in the Court of International Trade shall be served on all parties in accordance with rules prescribed by the court. When the United States, its agencies, or its officers are adverse parties, service of the summons shall be made upon the Attorney General and the head of the Government agency whose action is being contested. When injunctive relief is sought, the summons, pleadings, and other papers shall also be served upon the named officials sought to be enjoined.

"§ 2634. Notice

28 USC 2634.

"Reasonable notice of the time and place of trial or hearing before the Court of International Trade shall be given to all parties to any civil action, as prescribed by the rules of the court.

"§ 2635. Filing of official documents

28 USC 2635.

"(a)(1) Upon service of the summons on the Secretary of the Treasury in any civil action contesting the denial of a protest under section 515 of the Tariff Act of 1930 or the denial of a petition under section 516 of such Act, the appropriate customs officer shall forthwith transmit to the clerk of the Court of International Trade, as prescribed by its rules, and as a part of the official record— 19 USC 1515. 19 USC 1516.

"(A) the consumption or other entry and the entry summary;
"(B) the commercial invoice;
"(C) the special customs invoice;
"(D) a copy of the protest or petition;
"(E) a copy of the denial, in whole or in part, of the protest or petition;
"(F) the importer's exhibits;
"(G) the official and other representative samples;
"(H) any official laboratory reports; and
"(I) a copy of any bond relating to the entry.

"(2) If any of the items listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection do not exist in a particular civil action, an affirmative statement to that effect shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court.

"(b)(1) In any civil action commenced in the Court of International Trade under section 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930, within forty days or within such other period of time as the court may specify, after the date of service of a complaint on the administering authority established to administer title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930 or the United States International Trade Commission, the administering authority or the Commission shall transmit to the clerk of the court the record of such action, as prescribed by the rules of the court. The record shall, unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, consist of— 19 USC 1516a. 19 USC 1671.

"(A) a copy of all information presented to or obtained by the administering authority or the Commission during the course of the administrative proceedings, including all governmental memoranda pertaining to the case and the record of ex parte meetings required to be maintained by section 777(a)(3) of the Tariff Act of 1930; and 19 USC 1677f.

"(B)(i) a copy of the determination and the facts and conclusions of law upon which such determination was based, (ii) all transcripts or records of conferences or hearings, and (iii) all notices published in the Federal Register.

"(2) The administering authority or the Commission shall identify and transmit under seal to the clerk of the court any document, comment, or information that is accorded confidential or privileged status by the Government agency whose action is being contested and that is required to be transmitted to the clerk under paragraph (1) of this subsection. Any such document, comment, or information shall be accompanied by a nonconfidential description of the nature of the material being transmitted. The confidential or privileged status of such material shall be preserved in the civil action, but the court may examine the confidential or privileged material in camera and may make such material available under such terms and conditions as the court may order.

"(c) Within fifteen days, or within such other period of time as the Court of International Trade may specify, after service of a summons and complaint in a civil action involving an application for an order directing the administering authority or the International Trade Commission to make confidential information available under section 777(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930, the administering authority or the Commission shall transmit under seal to the clerk of the Court of International Trade, as prescribed by its rules, the confidential information involved, together with pertinent parts of the record. Such information shall be accompanied by a nonconfidential description of the nature of the information being transmitted. The confidential status of such information shall be preserved in the civil action, but the court may examine the confidential information in camera and may make such information available under a protective order consistent with section 777(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930. 19 USC 1677f.

"(d)(1) In any other civil action in the Court of International Trade in which judicial review is to proceed upon the basis of the record made before an agency, the agency shall, within forty days or within such other period of time as the court may specify, after the date of service of the summons and complaint upon the agency, transmit to the clerk of the court, as prescribed by its rules—

"(A) a copy of the contested determination and the findings or report upon which such determination was based;

"(B) a copy of any reported hearings or conferences conducted by the agency; and

"(C) any documents, comments, or other papers filed by the public, interested parties, or governments with respect to the agency's action.

"(2) The agency shall identify and transmit under seal to the clerk of the court any document, comment, or other information that was obtained on a confidential basis and that is required to be transmitted to the clerk under paragraph (1) of this subsection. Any such document, comment, or information shall include a nonconfidential description of the nature of the material being transmitted. The confidential or privileged status of such material shall be preserved in the civil action, but the court may examine such material in camera and may make such material available under such terms and conditions as the court may order.

"(3) The parties may stipulate that fewer documents, comments, or other information than those specified in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court.

"(4) Civil actions commenced under section 777(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930.

19 USC 1677f.

"(5) Civil actions commenced to review any decision of the Secretary of the Treasury to deny or revoke a customhouse broker's license under section 641(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930.

19 USC 1641.

"(6) Civil actions commenced under section 1582 of this title.

"(b) In any civil action commenced in the Court of International Trade under section 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930, the court shall review the matter as specified in subsection (b) of such section.

19 USC 1516a.

"(c) In any civil action commenced in the Court of International Trade to review any final determination of the Secretary of Labor under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 or any final determination of the Secretary of Commerce under section 251 or section 271 of such Act, the court shall review the matter as specified in section 284 of such Act.

19 USC 2273.

19 USC 2341, 2371.

Post, p. 1746.

"(d) In any civil action not specified in this section, the Court of International Trade shall review the matter as provided in section 706 of title 5.

"§ 2641. Witnesses; inspection of documents

28 USC 2641.

"(a) Except as otherwise provided by law, in any civil action in the Court of International Trade, each party and its counsel shall have an opportunity to introduce evidence, to hear and cross-examine the witnesses of the other party, and to inspect all samples and papers admitted or offered as evidence, as prescribed by the rules of the court. Except as provided in section 2639 of this title, subsection (b) of this section, or the rules of the court, the Federal Rules of Evidence shall apply to all civil actions in the Court of International Trade.

28 USC app.

"(b) The Court of International Trade may order that trade secrets and commercial or financial information which is privileged and confidential, or any information provided to the United States by any foreign government or foreign person, may be disclosed to a party, its counsel, or any other person under such terms and conditions as the court may order.

"§ 2642. Analysis of imported merchandise

28 USC 2642.

"The Court of International Trade may order an analysis of imported merchandise and reports thereon by laboratories or agencies of the United States.

"§ 2643. Relief

28 USC 2643.

"(a) The Court of International Trade may enter a money judgment—

"(1) for or against the United States in any civil action commenced under section 1581 or 1582 of this title; and

Ante, pp. 1728, 1729.

"(2) for or against the United States or any other party in any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party action under section 1583 of this title.

Ante, p. 1729.

"(b) If the Court of International Trade is unable to determine the correct decision on the basis of the evidence presented in any civil action, the court may order a retrial or rehearing for all purposes, or may order such further administrative or adjudicative procedures as the court considers necessary to enable it to reach the correct decision.

"(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection, the Court of International Trade may, in addition to the orders specified in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, order any other form of relief that is appropriate in a civil action, including, but not limited to, declaratory judgments, orders of remand, injunctions, and writs of mandamus and prohibition.

"(2) The Court of International Trade may not grant an injunction or issue a writ of mandamus in any civil action commenced to review any final determination of the Secretary of Labor under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, or any final determination of the Secretary of Commerce under section 251 or section 271 of such Act. 19 USC 2273. 19 USC 2341, 2371.

"(3) In any civil action involving an application for the issuance of an order directing the administering authority or the International Trade Commission to make confidential information available under section 777(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930, the Court of International Trade may issue an order of disclosure only with respect to the information specified in such section. 19 USC 1677f.

Ante, p. 1728. "(4) In any civil action described in section 1581(h) of this title, the Court of International Trade may only order the appropriate declaratory relief.

"(d) If a surety commences a civil action in the Court of International Trade, such surety shall recover only the amount of the liquidated duties, charges, or exactions paid on the entries included in such action. The excess amount of any recovery shall be paid to the importer of record.

28 USC 2644.

"§ 2644. Interest

"If, in a civil action in the Court of International Trade under section 515 of the Tariff Act of 1930, the plaintiff obtains monetary relief by a judgment or under a stipulation agreement, interest shall be allowed at an annual rate established under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Such interest shall be calculated from the date of the filing of the summons in such action to the date of the refund. 19 USC 1515. 26 USC 6621.

28 USC 2645.

"§ 2645. Decisions

"(a) A final decision of the Court of International Trade in a contested civil action or a decision granting or refusing a preliminary injunction shall be supported by—

"(1) a statement of findings of fact and conclusions of law; or

"(2) an opinion stating the reasons and facts upon which the decision is based.

"(b) After the Court of International Trade has rendered a judgment, the court may, upon the motion of a party or upon its own motion, amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the decision and judgment accordingly. A motion of a party or the court shall be made not later than thirty days after the date of entry of the judgment.

"(c) A decision of the Court of International Trade is final and conclusive, unless a retrial or rehearing is granted pursuant to section 2646 of this title or an appeal is taken to the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals within the time and in the manner provided in section 2601 of this title. 28 USC 2601.

"§ 2646. Retrial or rehearing

28 USC 2646.

"After the Court of International Trade has rendered a judgment or order, the court may, upon the motion of a party or upon its own motion, grant a retrial or rehearing, as the case may be. A motion of a party or the court shall be made not later than thirty days after the date of entry of the judgment or order.

"§ 2647. Precedence of cases

28 USC 2647.

"The following civil actions in the Court of International Trade shall be given precedence, in the following order, over other civil actions pending before the court, and shall be assigned for hearing at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way:

"(1) First, a civil action involving the exclusion of perishable merchandise or the redelivery of such merchandise.

"(2) Second, a civil action for the review of a determination under section 516A(a)(1)(B) (i) or (ii) of the Tariff Act of 1930. 19 USC 1516a.

"(3) Third, a civil action commenced under section 515 of the Tariff Act of 1930 involving the exclusion or redelivery of merchandise. 19 USC 1515.

"(4) Fourth, a civil action commenced under section 516 or 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930, other than a civil action described in paragraph (2) of this section.". 19 USC 1516, 1516a.

EMERGENCY CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 202. The Secretary of the Navy may establish or develop installations and facilities by proceeding with construction made necessary by changes in missions and responsibilities which have been occasioned by (1) unforeseen security considerations, (2) new weapons developments, (3) new and unforeseen research and development requirements, (4) improved production schedules, or (5) revisions in the tasks or functions assigned to a military installation or facility or for environmental considerations, if the Secretary of Defense determines that deferral of such construction for inclusion in the next Military Construction Authorization Act would be inconsistent with interests of national security and, in connection therewith, may acquire, construct, convert, rehabilitate, or install permanent or temporary public works, including land acquisition, site preparation, appurtenances, utilities, and equipment in the total amount of $20,000,000. The Secretary of the Navy, or the Secretary's designee, shall notify the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, immediately upon reaching a final decision to implement, of the cost of construction of any public work undertaken under this section, including those real estate actions pertaining thereto. This authorization shall expire on October 1, 1981, or on the date of the enactment of the Military Construction Authorization Act for fiscal year 1982, whichever is later, except for those public works projects concerning which the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives have been notified pursuant to this section prior to such date.

Notification to congressional committees.

Expiration date.

MINOR CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 203. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to accomplish minor construction projects under section 2674 of title 10, United States Code, in the amount of $33,010,000.

DUAL PURPOSE AIR TERMINAL, KEFLAVIK, ICELAND

SEC. 204. (a) The Secretary of the Navy may contract for the construction of the Air Passenger Terminal in Keflavik, Iceland, in accordance with this section and any agreement which may be made between the Government of Iceland and the Government of the United States. Of the amount authorized in section 201 for the Naval Station, Keflavik, Iceland, no more than $20,000,000 may be contributed by the United States as the United States share of the cost of such construction.

(b) A contract for such construction may not be entered into until the Government of Iceland agrees (1) to provide to the Government of the United States funds equal to the difference between the amount required to complete the construction and the amount of the United States share authorized in subsection (a), and (2) to make those funds available, in advance of the time when payments are due, in such amounts and at such times as may be required by the Government of the United States.

NAVAL REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

SEC. 205. None of the funds authorized to be appropriated for the construction of the Naval Regional Medical Center, San Diego, California, may be obligated or expended until—

Report to congressional committees.

(1) the Secretary of the Navy has submitted a report to the Committees on Armed Services and on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives which includes (A) an evaluation of the Balboa Park and Helix Heights areas as proposed sites for the construction of such medical center, (B) a statement of the Secretary's preference between the two sites, and (C) a statement justifying the Secretary's preference; and

(2) a period of 30 calendar days has elapsed after the date on which such report is received by such committees.

NAVAL WEAPONS CENTER, CHINA LAKE, CALIFORNIA

SEC. 206. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to acquire such lands or interests in lands as may be needed for two established low-level, high-speed aircraft corridors to serve the Naval Weapons Center at China Lake, California. The acquisition of such lands or interests may be made only by exchange, on an equal value basis, of excess land of the Naval Weapons Center, China Lake, California.

SEC. 402. The Secretary of Defense may establish or develop installations and facilities which he determines to be vital to the security of the United States and, in connection therewith, may acquire, construct, convert, rehabilitate, or install permanent or temporary public works, including land acquisition, site preparation, appurtenances, utilities, and equipment in the total amount of $15,000,000. The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, shall notify the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, immediately upon reaching a final decision to implement, of the cost of construction of any public work undertaken under this section, including real estate actions pertaining thereto.

MINOR CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 403. The Secretary of Defense is authorized to accomplish minor construction projects under section 2674 of title 10, United States Code, in the amount of $3,680,000.

NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION INFRASTRUCTURE

SEC. 404. (a)(1) The Secretary of Defense, acting on behalf of the United States, may participate in the five-year slice group plan for 1980 through 1984 to implement the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure program. The Secretary may participate in such five-year slice group plan, heretofore agreed to by member nations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, only to the extent that the United States share under such plan does not exceed 27.42 percent of the total amount of the commitments made by all member nations under such plan.

(2) No funds may be obligated or expended in connection with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure program in any year unless such funds have been authorized by law for such program for such year.

(b) The Secretary of Defense is authorized to incur obligations in amounts not to exceed $300,000,000 for the United States share of the cost of multilateral programs for the acquisition or construction of military facilities and installations (including military headquarters) for the collective defense of the North Atlantic Treaty Area.

Notification to congressional committees.

(c) Within thirty days after the end of each calendar year quarter, the Secretary of Defense shall furnish to the Committees on Armed Services and on Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives a description of all obligations incurred by the United States during the preceding quarter to meet the United States share of the cost of the multilateral programs for which the Secretary of Defense is authorized to incur obligations.

SPECIAL CONTINGENCY FACILITIES CONSTRUCTION FUNDS

Appropriation authorization.

SEC. 405. (a) There is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary of Defense the sum of $150,000,000 for the construction of contingency facilities to support the national security interests of the United States in strategic areas of the world, including the Middle East and Indian Ocean areas.

(b) None of the funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) may be obligated or expended for the construction of any facility until (1) the United States and the country which exercises sovereignty over the land on which the facility is to be constructed have entered into a formal agreement which guarantees the United States access to and use of such facility during the term of the agreement, and (2) a copy of such agreement has been transmitted to the Congress.

(c) None of the funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) may be obligated or expended for such construction if such construction is authorized under the terms of a renegotiated, amended, or extended agreement, previously entered into by the United States with any other country, until after a copy of the renegotiated, amended, or extended agreement has been transmitted to the Congress.

(d) On each separate occasion that the Secretary of Defense plans to obligate any part of the funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a), he shall—

Report to congressional committees.

(1) transmit to the appropriate committees of the Congress a written report stating the purpose for which the funds are to be obligated and the amount proposed to be obligated for such purpose; and

(2) withhold such amount from obligation for such purpose for a period of thirty days following the day on which such report is received by such committees.

Contents.

Each report transmitted under this subsection shall include (A) a detailed accounting of funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) that have been previously obligated, (B) a detailed accounting of funds planned for obligation, and (C) a statement of the purposes and the estimated amounts for which any unobligated balance of such funds are to be used (excluding the amount for which an explanation under clause (B) is included).

(e) None of the funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) may be obligated or expended to carry out any contract for the construction of any contingency facility referred to in such subsection unless such contract requires that (1) all construction materials (except cement, cement products, and aggregates) used in the construction of such facility under such contract will be materials produced, manufactured, or refined in the United States, and (2) materials will be transported on United States flagships from the United States to the country in which the contingency facility is to be located.

(f) The provisions of subsections (c) and (e) of this section shall apply with respect to funds appropriated pursuant to sections 201 and 301 for the construction of a naval support facility at Diego Garcia.

DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY BUILDING STUDY

SEC. 406. (a) None of the funds authorized to be appropriated in this title for the construction of a new facility at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, District of Columbia, for the Defense Intelligence Agency may be obligated or expended until—

Study.

(1) the Secretary of Defense has conducted a study to examine alternatives to the facility currently planned for construction at Bolling Air Force Base;

Report to congressional committees.

(2) the Secretary of Defense has submitted the results of such study to the appropriate committees of the Congress together with his decision regarding the location and scope of the facility to be constructed for the Defense Intelligence Agency; and

(3) a period of thirty calendar days has elapsed after the date on which such study is received by such committees.

(b) The study conducted pursuant to subsection (a)(1) shall, as a minimum—

(1) examine alternatives in project scope for the proposed facility referred to in subsection (a) which could result in reduced requirements for new construction;

(2) examine alternative sites for the construction of such facility taking into account available lands and facilities as well as land and facilities that could be made available by consolidations; and

(3) provide detailed costs and operational efficiency comparisons of the alternatives considered.

(c) The study conducted pursuant to subsection (a)(1) shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the Congress not later than ninety days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

TITLE V—MILITARY FAMILY HOUSING

AUTHORIZATION TO CONSTRUCT OR ACQUIRE HOUSING

Sec. 501. (a) The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, is authorized to construct or acquire sole interest in existing family housing units in the numbers and at the locations hereinafter named, but no family housing construction shall be commenced at any such location in the United States until the Secretary shall have consulted with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development as to the availability of suitable private housing at such location. If agreement cannot be reached with respect to the availability of suitable private housing at any location, the Secretary of Defense shall notify the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, in writing, of such difference of opinion, and no contract for construction at such location shall be entered into for a period of thirty days after such notification has been given. This authority shall include the authority to acquire land, and interests in land, by gift, purchase, exchange of Government-owned land, or otherwise.

Notification to congressional committees.

(b) With respect to the family housing units authorized to be constructed by this section, the Secretary of Defense is authorized to acquire sole interest in privately owned or Department of Housing and Urban Development-held family housing units in lieu of constructing all or a portion of the family housing authorized by this section, if the Secretary, or the Secretary's designee, determines such action to be in the best interests of the United States, but any family housing units acquired under authority of this subsection shall not exceed the cost limitations specified in this section for the project nor the limitations on size specified in section 2684 of title 10, United States Code. In no case may family housing units be acquired under this subsection through the exercise of eminent domain authority, and in no case may family housing units other than those authorized by this section be acquired in lieu of construction unless the acquisition of such units is hereafter specifically authorized by law.

(c) Family housing units:

Marine Corps Air Station, Yuma, Arizona, one hundred thirty-two units, $8,050,000.

Defense Housing Complex, South Bay, San Francisco, California, two hundred seventy units, $19,045,000.

Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, California, three hundred units, $17,483,000.

Fort Ord, California, five hundred units, $30,808,000.

Naval Complex, New London, Connecticut, four hundred units, $24,608,000.

Fort Stewart, Georgia, two hundred units, $9,716,000.

Fort Polk, Louisiana, two hundred units, $11,173,000.

Naval Air Station, Brunswick, Maine, sixty-two units, $3,956,000.

Naval Complex, Norfolk, Virginia, two hundred and thirty-two units, $12,093,000.

Lajes Field, Azores, one hundred and fifty units $9,768,000.

Incirlik Air Base, Turkey, two hundred units, $11,723,000.

Classified location overseas, five units, $468,000.

(d) The amounts specified in this section may, at the discretion of the Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, be increased by 10 per centum, if he determines that such increase (1) is required for the sole purpose of meeting unusual variations in cost, and (2) could not have been reasonably anticipated at the time such estimate was submitted to the Congress. The amounts authorized include the costs of shades, screens, ranges, refrigerators, and all other installed equipment and fixtures, the cost of the family housing unit, supervision, inspection, overhead, land acquisition, site preparation, installation of utilities, and solar energy systems.

IMPROVEMENT OF EXISTING QUARTERS

SEC. 502. (a) The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, is authorized to accomplish alterations, additions, expansions, or extensions, not otherwise authorized by law, to existing public quarters at a cost not to exceed—

(1) for the Department of the Army, $42,436,000, of which $27,150,000 shall be available only for energy conservation projects;

(2) for the Department of the Navy, $13,562,000, of which $2,819,000 shall be available only for energy conservation projects;

(3) for the Department of the Air Force, $52,819,000, of which $17,000,000 shall be available only for energy conservation projects; and

(4) for the Defense Agencies, $23,000.

42 USC 1594h-2.

Improvement costs, limitation.

(b) The first sentence of section 610(a) of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1968 (Public Law 90-110, 81 Stat. 305) is amended to read as follows: "None of the funds authorized by this or any other Act may be expended for the improvement of any single family housing unit, or for the improvement of two or more housing units when such units are to be converted into or used as a single family housing unit, if the total cost of such improvements exceeds $20,000, adjusted by the area construction cost index (as developed by the Department of Defense) for the location at the time of contract award. The total cost of any such improvement shall include all repair costs undertaken as part of the improvement project and all costs in connection with (1) the furnishing of electricity, gas, water, and sewage disposal, (2) the construction or repair of roads and walks, and (3) any grading and drainage work.".

(c) The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, within the amounts specified in subsection (a), is authorized to accomplish repairs and improvements to existing family housing in amounts in excess of the dollar limitation prescribed in section 610(a) of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1968 (42 U.S.C. 1594h-2), as follows:

Redstone Arsenal, Alabama, forty units, $891,000.

Navy Public Works Center, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, one hundred and forty-six units, $5,468,000.

Fort Knox, Kentucky, one hundred units, $2,592,000.

Loring Air Force Base, Maine, five hundred and sixty-five units, $12,723,600.

Kirtland Air Force Base, New Mexico, one hundred and twenty-five units, $2,458,100.

Marine Corps Development and Education Command, Quantico, Virginia, fifty-two units, $1,910,000.

Warren Air Force Base, Wyoming, one hundred and sixty-two units, $3,150,000.

Hahn Air Base, Federal Republic of Germany, twenty-eight units, $980,000.

Ramstein Air Base (Vogelweh and Landstuhl), Federal Republic of Germany, twenty units, $993,000.

Yokota Air Base, Japan, two hundred and sixty-eight units, $9,054,800.

ADVANCE PLANNING AND DESIGN

Sec. 503. The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, may carry out advance planning and construction design and may obtain architectural and engineering services in connection with any family housing construction, including improvements, authorized or not otherwise authorized by law at a total cost of not to exceed—

(1) for the Department of the Army, $3,993,000;

(2) for the Department of the Navy, $2,994,000;

(3) for the Department of the Air Force, $1,380,000; and

(4) for the Defense agencies, $2,000.

LEASING OF FAMILY HOUSING

Sec. 504. (a) Subsection (c) of section 2686 of title 10, United States Code, relating to leases for military family housing in the United States, is amended to read as follows:

"(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), expenditures for the rental of such housing facilities (including the cost of utilities, maintenance, and operation) may not exceed $515 per month for any unit.

"(2) The Secretary of Defense may lease not more than five hundred housing units under this section for which the expenditure for the rental of such facilities (including the cost of utilities, maintenance, and operation) exceeds $515 per month but does not exceed $600 per month.".

Cost limitation.
10 USC 2675.

(b) The first sentence of section 2675(d)(1) of such title, relating to leases in foreign countries, is amended to read as follows: "Expenditures for the rental of family housing in foreign countries (including the cost of utilities and maintenance and operation) may not exceed $1,115 per month for any unit.".

SETTLEMENT OF CONTRACTOR CLAIMS ON MILITARY FAMILY HOUSING

Report to congressional committees.
42 USC 1594h-3.

Sec. 505. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the proposed settlement of any contractor claim or claims arising out of the construction of new or improvement of existing family housing would cause authorized cost limitations on the construction or improvement of family housing to be exceeded, the Secretary of Defense may proceed with the settlement of such claim or claims after (1) he has submitted a report regarding such claim or claims, including the amount of the proposed settlement, to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, and (2) a period of thirty days has elapsed after the date of submission of such report to such committees.

OCCUPANT LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES TO FAMILY HOUSING

Sec. 506. (a) Chapter 165 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

10 USC 2775

"§ 2775. Liability of member for damages to family housing, equipment, and furnishings

"(a) A member of the armed forces shall be liable to the United States for damage to any family housing unit, or damage to or loss of any equipment or furnishing of any family housing unit, assigned to or provided such member if it is determined, under regulations issued by the Secretary of Defense, that such damage or loss was caused by the abuse or negligence of such member or a dependent of such member.

"(b)(1) The Secretary concerned may deduct from a member's pay an amount sufficient to pay for the cost of the repairs or replacements made necessary as the result of any abuse or negligence referred to in subsection (a) on the part of such member or any dependent of such member.

"(2) The final determination of an amount to be deducted from the pay of an officer of an armed force in accordance with regulations issued under this section shall be deemed to be a special order authorizing such deduction for the purposes of section 1007 of title 37.

"(c) Amounts deducted from members' pay under this section shall be credited to the Department of Defense family housing management account established under section 501 of Public Law 87-554 (76 Stat. 236; 42 U.S.C. 1594a-1) and shall be available for use for the same purposes and under the same circumstances as other funds in such account.

Regulations.

"(d) The Secretary of Defense shall issue regulations to carry out the provisions of this section, including regulations for determining the cost of repairs or replacements made necessary as the result of abuse or negligence on the part of a member or dependent of a member.".

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 165 of such title is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

"2775. Liability of member for damages to family housing, equipment, and furnishings.".

INCREASED AUTHORIZATION FOR CONSTRUCTION, OAHU, HAWAII

SEC. 507. Notwithstanding the limitations on costs contained in sections 501(a) and 502 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1974 (Public Law 93-166; 87 Stat. 673) and sections 501(a) and 502 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1975 (Public Law 93-552; 88 Stat. 1757, 1758), the Secretary of Defense is authorized to complete construction of two thousand six hundred family housing units in support of Department of Defense requirements in Oahu, Hawaii, at a total cost of not to exceed $117,150,000.

DEFICIENCY AUTHORIZATION FOR NEW CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 508. (a) Section 501(c) of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1979 (Public Law 95-356; 92 Stat. 577), is amended—

(1) by striking out "$1,509,000" in the item relating to the Naval Facility, Centerville Beach, California, and inserting in lieu thereof "$2,030,000"; and

(2) by striking out "$4,307,000" in the item relating to the Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms, California, and inserting in lieu thereof "$6,069,000".

(b)(1) Section 505(1) of such Act is amended by striking out "$139,105,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$140,867,000".

(2) Section 602(5) of such Act is amended by striking out "$1,701,605,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$1,703,367,000".

REPEAL OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO ENERGY CONSUMPTION METERING DEVICES AND EXCESS ENERGY CONSUMPTION CHARGES

Sec. 509. Sections 506 and 507 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1978 (Public Law 95-82; 91 Stat. 372), are repealed.

Repeal.
10 USC 4593 note.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

Sec. 510. (a) There is authorized to be appropriated for fiscal year 1981 for use by the Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, for military family housing as authorized by law for the following purpose:

(1) For construction of, or acquisition of sole interest in, family housing, including minor construction, improvements to public quarters, relocation of family housing, and planning, an amount not to exceed $276,100,000.

(2) For support of military family housing, including operating expenses, leasing, maintenance of real property, payments of principal and interest on mortgage debts incurred, payment to the Commodity Credit Corporation, and mortgage insurance premiums authorized under section 222 of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1715), an amount not to exceed $1,880,760,000, of which not more than $25,000,000 may be obligated or expended for the leasing of military family housing in the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and Guam, and of which not more than $95,000,000 may be obligated or expended for the leasing of military family housing in foreign countries.

12 USC 1715m.

(b) The amounts authorized to be appropriated in subsection (a)(2) may be increased to the extent additional funds are necessary for increased pay costs associated with actions taken pursuant to law.

FAMILY HOUSING MANAGEMENT ACCOUNT

Sec. 511. Subsection (b) of section 501 of Public Law 87-554 (42 U.S.C. 1594a-1) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) The management account shall be administered by the Secretary of Defense as a single account. There shall be transferred into such account (1) appropriations made to the Department of Defense for the purpose of, or which are available for, the payment of costs arising in connection with the construction, acquisition, leasing, relocation, operating and maintenance, and disposal of family housing, including the cost of principal and interest charges, and insurance premiums, arising in connection with the acquisition of such housing, and mortgage insurance premiums payable under section 222(c) of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1715m(c)), (2) proceeds from the rental of family housing and mobile home facilities under the control of the Department of Defense, reimbursements from occupants of such facilities for services rendered (including utility costs), funds obtained from individuals as a result of losses, damages, or destruction to such facilities caused by the abuse or negligence of such individuals, and reimbursements from other Government agencies for expenditures from the management account, and (3) notwithstanding any other provision of law, proceeds of the handling and the disposal of family housing of the Department of Defense, including related land and improvements, whether effected by the Department of Defense or any other Federal agency, but less those expenses payable pursuant to section 204(b) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (40 U.S.C. 485(b)), to remain available until expended.".

TITLE VI—AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

WAIVER OF RESTRICTIONS

Sec. 601. The Secretary of each military department may proceed to establish or develop installations and facilities under this Act without regard to section 3648 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 529) and sections 4774 and 9774 of title 10, United States Code. The authority to place permanent or temporary improvements on land includes authority for surveys, administration, overhead, planning, and supervision incident to construction. That authority may be exercised before title to the land is approved under section 355 of the Revised Statutes (40 U.S.C. 255) and even though the land is held temporarily. The authority to acquire real estate or lands includes authority to make surveys and to acquire land and interests in land (including temporary use), by gift, purchase, exchange of Government-owned land, or otherwise.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

Sec. 602. There are authorized to be appropriated for fiscal years beginning after September 30, 1980, such sums as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act, but appropriations for public works projects authorized by titles I, II, III, and IV shall not exceed—

(1) for title I: inside the United States $586,800,000; outside the United States $248,140,000; minor construction $44,560,000; for a total of $879,500,000.

(2) for title II: inside the United States $777,925,000; outside the United States $178,757,000; minor construction $33,010,000; for a total of $989,692,000.

(3) for title III: inside the United States $546,985,000; outside the United States $144,487,000; minor construction $24,870,000; for a total of $716,342,000.

(4) for title IV: a total of $587,610,000, including $3,680,000 for minor construction.

COST VARIATIONS

Sec. 603. (a) Overall Title Total Limitation.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (b), (c), (d), and (g), the total cost of all construction and acquisition in each of titles I, II, III, and IV may not exceed the total amount authorized to be appropriated in that title.

(b) Variations in Installation Totals—Unusual Variations in Cost.—Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d), any of the amounts specified in titles I, II, III, and IV of this Act (other than in sections 103, 203, 303, and 403) may, at the discretion of the Secretary of the military department or Director of the defense agency concerned, be increased by 5 per centum when inside the United States (other than Alaska or Hawaii), and by 10 per centum when outside the United States or in Alaska or Hawaii, if the Secretary of the military department or Director of the defense agency concerned determines that such increase (1) is required for the sole purpose of meeting unusual variations in cost, and (2) could not have been reasonably anticipated at the time such estimate was submitted to the Congress.

(c) VARIATIONS IN INSTALLATION TOTALS—ONLY ONE PROJECT AT AN INSTALLATION.—When the amount named for any construction or acquisition in title I, II, III, or IV of this Act involves only one project at any military installation and the Secretary of the military department or Director of the defense agency concerned determines that the amount authorized must be increased by more than the applicable percentage prescribed in subsection (b), the Secretary of the military department or Director of the defense agency concerned may proceed with such construction or acquisition if the amount of the increase does not exceed by more than 25 per centum the amount named for such project by the Congress.

(d) VARIATIONS IN INSTALLATION TOTALS—REPORTS BY THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.—When the Secretary of Defense determines that any amount named in title I, II, III, or IV of this Act must be exceeded by more than the percentages permitted in subsections (b) and (c) to accomplish authorized construction or acquisition, the Secretary of the military department or Director of the defense agency concerned may proceed with such construction or acquisition after a written report of the facts relating to the increase of such amount, including a statement of the reasons for such increase, has been submitted to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, and either (1) thirty days have elapsed after the date of submission of such report, or (2) both committees have indicated approval of such construction or acquisition. Notwithstanding the provisions in prior Military Construction Authorization Acts, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to such prior Acts.

(e) COST AND SCOPE VARIATIONS OF INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS; REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—No individual project authorized under title I, II, III, or IV of this Act for any specifically listed military installation for which the current working estimate is greater than the statutory upper limit for minor construction projects, may be placed under contract if—

(1) the approved scope of the project is reduced in excess of 25 per centum; or

(2) the current working estimate, based upon bids received, for the construction of such project exceeds by more than 25 per centum the amount authorized for such project by the Congress;

until a written report of the facts relating to the reduced scope or increased cost of such project, including a statement of the reasons for reduction in scope or increase in cost, has been submitted to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, and either thirty days have elapsed after the date of submission of such report, or both committees have indicated approval of such reduction in scope or increase in cost, as the case may be.

(f) ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, shall submit an annual report to the Congress identifying each individual project (other than a project authorized under section 103, 203, 303, or 403) which has been placed under contract in the preceding twelve-month period and with respect to which the then current working estimate of the Department of Defense, based upon bids received, for such project exceeded the amount authorized by the Congress for that project by more than 25 per centum. The Secretary shall also include in such report each individual project with respect to which the scope was reduced by more than 25 per centum in order to permit contract award within the available authorization for such project. Such report shall include all pertinent cost information for each individual project, including the amount in dollars and percentage by which the current working estimate based on the contract price for the project exceeded the amount authorized for such project by the Congress.

(g) Cost and Floor Area Variations—Solar Energy.—The Secretary of Defense shall encourage the utilization of solar energy as a source of energy for projects authorized by this Act where utilization of solar energy would be practical and economically feasible. In order to equip any project authorized by this Act with solar heating equipment, solar cooling equipment, or both solar heating and solar cooling equipment, the Secretary of Defense may authorize increases in the cost limitations or floor area limitations for such project by such amounts as may be necessary for such purpose. Any increase under this section in the cost or floor area of a project authorized by this Act shall be in addition to any other increase in such cost or variation in floor area limitations authorized by this or any other Act.

CONSTRUCTION SUPERVISION

Sec. 604. Contracts for construction made by the United States for performance within the United States and its possessions under this Act shall be executed under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Department of the Navy, or such other department or Government agency as the Secretaries of the military departments recommend and the Secretary of Defense approves to assure the most efficient, expeditious, and cost-effective accomplishment of the construction herein authorized. The Secretaries of the military departments shall report annually to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives a breakdown of the dollar value of construction contracts completed by each of the several construction agencies selected together with the design, construction supervision, and overhead fees charged by each of the several agents in the execution of the assigned construction. Further, such contracts (except architect and engineering contracts which, unless specifically authorized by the Congress, shall continue to be awarded in accordance with presently established procedures, customs, and practice) shall be awarded, insofar as practicable, on a competitive basis to the lowest responsible bidder, if the national security will not be impaired and the award is consistent with chapter 137 of title 10, United States Code. The Secretaries of the military departments shall report annually to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives with respect to all contracts awarded on other than a competitive basis to the lowest responsible bidder. Such reports shall also show, in the case of the ten architect-engineering firms which, in terms of total dollars, were awarded the most business; the names of such firms; the total number of separate contracts awarded each firm; and the total amount paid or to be paid in the case of each such action under all such contracts awarded such firm.

10 USC 2301 et seq.

REPEAL OF PRIOR YEAR AUTHORIZATIONS: EXCEPTIONS

Ante, p. 1749.

Sec. 605. (a) As of October 1, 1981, or the date of the enactment of the Military Construction Authorization Act for fiscal year 1982, whichever is later, all authorizations for military public works, including family housing, to be accomplished by the Secretary of a military department in connection with the establishment or development of installations and facilities, and all authorizations for appropriations therefor, that are contained in titles I, II, III, IV, and V of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1980 (Public Law 96-125; 93 Stat. 928), and all such authorizations contained in Acts approved before November 26, 1979, and not superseded or otherwise modified by a later authorization are repealed except—

93 Stat. 928, 931, 934, 938, 940.

UNIT COST LIMITATIONS

Sec. 606. None of the authority contained in titles I, II, III, and IV of this Act shall be deemed to authorize any building construction projects inside the United States in excess of a unit cost to be determined in proportion to the appropriate area construction cost index, based on the following unit cost limitations where the area construction index is 1.0:

(1) $52 per square foot for permanent barracks; or

(2) $56 per square foot for unaccompanied officer quarters; unless the Secretary of Defense, or the Secretary's designee, determines that, because of special circumstances, application to such project of the limitations on unit cost contained in this section is impracticable. Notwithstanding the limitations contained in prior Military Construction Authorization Acts on units costs, the limitations on such costs contained in this section shall apply to all prior authorizations for such construction not heretofore repealed and for which construction contracts have not been awarded by the date of the enactment of this Act.

AMENDMENT TO PRIOR AUTHORIZATION

Sec. 607. (a) Section 301 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1979 (Public Law 95-356; 92 Stat. 572), is amended under the heading "Inside the United States" by striking out "$141,782,000" in the item relating to Vandenberg Air Force Base, California, under the subheading "strategic air command" and inserting in lieu thereof "$223,161,000".

92 Stat. 580.

(b) Section 602(3) of such Act is amended by striking out "$423,059,000" and "$522,743,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$504,438,000" and "$604,122,000", respectively.

EFFECTIVE DATE FOR PROJECT AUTHORIZATIONS

10 USC 2675 note.

Sec. 608. Titles I, II, III, IV, and V shall take effect on October 1, 1980.

TITLE VII—GUARD AND RESERVE FORCES FACILITIES

AUTHORIZATION FOR FACILITIES

10 USC 2231 et seq.

Sec. 701. Subject to chapter 133 of title 10, United States Code, the Secretary of Defense may establish or develop additional facilities for the Guard and Reserve Forces, including the acquisition of land therefor, but the cost of such facilities shall not exceed the following amounts:

(1) For the Department of the Army—

(A) for the Army National Guard of the United States, $36,000,000; and

(B) for the Army Reserve, $42,225,000.

(2) For the Department of the Navy: for the Naval and Marine Corps Reserves, $30,550,000.

(3) For the Department of the Air Force—

(A) for the Air National Guard of the United States, $73,500,000; and

(B) for the Air Force Reserve, $17,725,000.

WAIVER OF CERTAIN RESTRICTIONS

Sec. 702. The Secretary of Defense may establish or develop installations and facilities under this title without regard to section 3648 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 529) and sections 4774 and 9774 of title 10, United States Code. The authority to place permanent or temporary improvements on lands includes authority for surveys, administration, overhead, planning, and supervision incident to construction. That authority may be exercised before title to the land is approved under section 355 of the Revised Statutes (40 U.S.C. 255) and even though the land is held temporarily. The authority to acquire real estate or land includes authority to make surveys and to acquire land and interests in land (including temporary use), by gift, purchase, exchange of Government-owned land, or otherwise.

TITLE VIII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

IMPACT ASSISTANCE FOR FISCAL YEAR 1981 FOR AREAS AFFECTED BY THE MX WEAPON SYSTEM AND THE EAST COAST TRIDENT BASE

Sec. 801. During fiscal year 1981, the Secretary of Defense may utilize funds appropriated for planning and design purposes to provide community planning assistance as follows:

(1) To assist communities near MX Weapon System sites, $5,000,000.

(2) To assist communities near the East Coast Trident Base, $1,000,000.

IMPACT ASSISTANCE FOR FISCAL YEARS AFTER FISCAL YEAR 1981 FOR AREAS AFFECTED BY THE MX WEAPON SYSTEM AND THE EAST COAST TRIDENT BASE

10 USC 139 note.

Sec. 802. (a) The Secretary of Defense (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to assist communities located near MX Weapon System sites, communities located near the East Coast Trident Base, and the States in which such communities are located in meeting the costs of providing increased municipal services and facilities to the residents of such communities, if the Secretary determines that there is an immediate and substantial increase in the need for such services and facilities in such communities as a direct result of work being carried out in connection with the construction, installation, testing, and operation of the MX Weapon System or the East Coast Trident Base, as the case may be, and that an unfair and excessive financial burden will be incurred by such communities, or the States in which such communities are located, as a result of the increased need for such services and facilities.

(b)(1) The Secretary shall carry out the program of assistance authorized under this section through existing Federal programs. In carrying out such program of assistance, the Secretary is authorized, subject to the provisions of subsection (d), to (A) supplement funds made available under such Federal programs through a direct transfer of funds from the Secretary to the department or agency concerned in such amounts as the Secretary considers necessary, (B) provide financial assistance to communities described in subsection (a) to help such communities pay their share of the costs under such programs, and (C) guarantee State or municipal indebtedness for improved public facilities related to the MX Weapon System or the East Coast Trident Base.

(2) The head of each department and agency of the Federal Government concerned shall cooperate fully with the Secretary in carrying out the provisions of this section on a priority basis.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary, in cooperation with the heads of other departments and agencies of the Federal Government, is authorized to provide facilities and services in anticipation of the work to be carried out in connection with the MX Weapon System and the East Coast Trident Base. No department or agency may charge a management fee for assisting the Secretary in carrying out the provisions of this section.

(c) In determining the amount of financial assistance to be made available under this section to any local community for any community service or facility, the Secretary shall consult with the head of the department or agency concerned with the type of service or facility for which financial assistance is being made available and shall take into consideration (1) the time lag between the initial impact of increased population in any such community and any increase in the local tax base which will result from such increased population, (2) the possible temporary nature of the increased population and the long-range cost impact on the permanent residents of any such community, (3) the initial capitalization required for municipal sewer and water systems, (4) the initial operating cost for upgrading municipal services, and (5) such other pertinent factors as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(d) Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for carrying out the MX Weapon System and the East Coast Trident Base may, to the extent specifically authorized in Military Construction Authorization Acts, be utilized by the Secretary in carrying out the provisions of this section.

Report to congressional committees.

(e) The Secretary shall transmit to the Committees on Armed Services and Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives, not later than sixty days after the end of each fiscal year beginning after fiscal year 1981, a written report indicating the total amount transferred to and the amount obligated and expended by each local community or State which has been provided assistance under the authority of this section during the preceding fiscal year, the specific projects for which assistance was provided during such year, and the total amount for each such project during such year.

COMMUNITY IMPACT ASSISTANCE STUDY

SEC. 803. (a) The Congress finds that—

(1) the Department of Defense is required from time to time, for national security reasons, to provide for the construction in the United States of major, new military facilities which have a serious adverse impact on the communities and the areas in which such facilities are constructed; and

(2) neither the impacted local governments nor the States in which such facilities are constructed should be expected to bear the full cost of such impact.

(b) The President shall conduct a thorough study of the adverse impact on communities in areas in which major, new military facilities are constructed with a view to determining the most effective and practicable means of promptly mitigating such impact. In carrying out such study the President shall, as a minimum—

(1) identify those potential Department of Defense actions that are sufficient in scope to warrant impact assistance by the Federal Government;

(2) examine various options and recommend organizational mechanisms to administer the Federal community impact assistance to be made available;

(3) examine various options and recommend procedures for the budgeting of community impact assistance funds;

(4) recommend such changes in existing programs as may be necessary to provide effective and timely impact assistance to areas adversely affected by the construction of major, new military facilities; and

(5) consult with and seek the advice of appropriate State and local leaders and officials regarding the problems and needs of communities that result from the construction of major, new military facilities in or near such communities.

Report to Congress.

(c) The President shall submit the results of the study required by subsection (b) to the Congress not later than March 1, 1981, together with such comments and recommendations as the President considers appropriate.

USE OF SOLAR ENERGY SYSTEMS IN NEW CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 804. Section 2688(b) of title 10, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

Life cycle costing procedures.

"(b) For the purposes of this section, a solar energy system shall be considered to be cost effective if the original investment cost differential can be recovered over the expected life of the facility using accepted life cycle costing procedures. Such accepted life cycle costing procedures shall include—

"(1) the use of undiscounted, constant dollars in all calculations;

"(2) an assumption that any additional maintenance costs incurred as a result of the installation of a solar system will be offset by a corresponding reduction in the maintenance costs for a conventional back-up system; and

"(3) the use of realistic assumptions with regard to the rate of inflation on the cost of fossil fuel as compared with the general rate of inflation, but in no event may the assumed general rate of inflation be greater than the assumed rate of inflation on the cost of fossil fuel.".

REPORTS ON REAL PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS

SEC. 805. Section 2662 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out "$50,000" each place it appears in subsections (a), (b), and (e) and inserting in lieu thereof "$100,000".

INCREASE IN MAXIMUM AMOUNT THE SECRETARY OF A MILITARY DEPARTMENT IS AUTHORIZED TO EXPEND FOR ACQUISITION OF INTERESTS IN LAND

SEC. 806. (a) Section 2672 of title 10, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking out "$50,000" in the catchline and inserting in lieu thereof "$100,000"; and

(2) by striking out "$50,000" each place it appears in the text of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "$100,000".

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 159 of such title is amended by striking out "$50,000" in the item relating to section 2662 and inserting in lieu thereof "$100,000".

ALTERNATE FUELS USE STUDY

Report to congressional committees.

SEC. 807. (a) Within one hundred and eighty days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall furnish a report to the appropriate committees of the Congress outlining a plan (1) to convert to the use of a fuel other than oil or gas all oil and gas fired plants of the Department of Defense which have heat input rates of fifty million British thermal units per hour or more, and (2) to replace, in each case in which such action would be cost effective, existing oil or gas fired plants with new central plants that use a fuel other than oil or gas.

Contents.

(b) Such report shall include with respect to each plant the following:

(1) The estimated cost of conversion or replacement, including a breakdown of costs by major work items (powerplant, utilities, fuel handling facilities, pollution abatement facilities, and related or similar items).

(2) The estimated oil and gas savings that would result from such conversion or replacement.

(3) The estimated annual net fuel cost savings that would result from such conversion or replacement.

(4) The computed benefit-cost ratio and the estimated payback period using accepted life cycle costing procedures.

Such report shall also include funding schedules based on the assumption that such conversions and replacements are to be completed within (A) a five-year period, and (B) a ten-year period.

NEW BOILER PLANT CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 808. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, no new facility or plant which requires heat input rates of fifty million British thermal units per hour or more and which uses oil or gas (or a derivative of either) as fuel may be constructed on lands under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense.

Waiver.

(b) The Secretary of Defense may waive the provisions of subsection (a) in rare, unusual situations, but no such waiver shall become effective until after the Secretary has notified the appropriate committees of the Congress of the waiver in writing.

(c) The Secretary of Defense may not provide heating service for any new facility or plant in increments in order to avoid the prohibition contained in subsection (a).

REMOVAL OF CHEMICAL MUNITIONS, ROCKY MOUNTAIN ARSENAL

SEC. 809. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Defense shall remove all chemical munitions from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal, Colorado, within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Notification to congressional committees.

(b) Within ninety days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall notify the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives in writing of the methods proposed to be used in carrying out the provisions of subsection (a).

(c) The Secretary of Defense shall not take any action to carry out the provisions of subsection (a) until a period of thirty days has elapsed after the receipt by the Committees on Armed Services of the notification required under subsection (b).

DECONTAMINATION STUDY, KAHOOLAWE ISLAND

SEC. 810. (a) In order to determine the feasibility and cost of clearing the island of Kahoolawe, Hawaii, and the adjacent waters of ordnance and other debris resulting from the use of such island as a target range by the United States Navy, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to (1) develop appropriate technology for clearing unexploded ordnance from test land which has the same or similar soil composition as the island of Kahoolawe and from submerged land which has the ecology characteristics of subtropical waters, and (2) demonstrate the developed technology at selected sites on the island of Kahoolawe.

(b) The Secretary of the Navy shall begin work on the development of the technology described in subsection (a) within six months after the date of the enactment of this Act and shall complete the development and demonstration of such technology at the earliest practicable date. The Secretary of the Navy shall submit progress reports to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives each year until the project provided for in subsection (a) is completed.

Reports to congressional committees.

(c) Any land or water area which may be cleared of unexploded ordnance incident to the demonstration of the technology shall be fenced or buoyed and be used for such purpose or purposes as the Secretary of the Navy may approve.

(d) There are authorized to be approriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section during fiscal year 1981.

Appropriation authorization.

STUDY OF CONDITION OF THE STRATEGIC RAIL CORRIDOR

SEC. 811. (a) The Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Secretary of Transportation, shall conduct a study of the condition of railroad lines identified in the Strategic Rail Corridor Network (STRACNET) for National Defense (Military Traffic Management Command Report RND 76-1, An Analysis of a Strategic Rail Corridor Network for National Defense, November 1976). Such study shall include (1) an identification of those segments of the corridor which, as a result of deferred maintenance or deterioration, may potentially have an adverse impact on the movement of personnel, equipment, and materials among Federal military arsenals and installations, and (2) an estimate of the cost of rehabilitating such segments.

(b) The Secretary of Defense shall submit the results of such study, together with recommendations for correcting deficiencies in the Strategic Rail Corridor Network in order to strengthen the Armed Forces' combat readiness and mobilization base, to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives not later than July 1, 1981.

Report to congressional committees.

LAND CONVEYANCE, SOUTH PORTLAND, MAINE

SEC. 812. (a) The first section and section 2 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the conveyance to the State of Maine of certain lands located in such State", approved August 28, 1957 (71 Stat. 467), are amended by striking out "for vocational or other school purposes" and inserting in lieu thereof "for public purposes".

(b) The Secretary of the Navy shall issue such written instructions, deeds, or other instruments as may be necessary to bring the conveyance made to the State of Maine under the authority of the Act referred to in subsection (a) into conformity with the amendment made by such subsection.

MODIFICATION OF PRIOR AUTHORITY FOR LAND CONVEYANCE, SOUTH CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

SEC. 813. Section 609 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1977 (Public Law 94-431; 90 Stat. 1365), is amended—

(1) by striking out "a section of land" in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "three parcels of land";

(2) by striking out "4.5 acres" in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "eight acres";

(3) by striking out "eight acres" in the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "approximately ten acres"; and

(4) by striking out the period at the end of the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "or the Department of the Navy.".

MODIFICATION OF PRIOR LAND ACQUISITION, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

SEC. 814. (a)(1) Subject to paragraph (3), the Secretary of the Navy (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") shall amend the declaration of taking described in paragraph (2) by substituting for the interest described in such declaration of taking which is condemned for the use of the United States an interest consisting of all right, title, and interest of the City of San Diego, California, in and to the tract of land described in such declaration subject to a possibility of reverter of such tract of land (including improvements thereon) to the City of San Diego in the event that the United States ceases to use the land for hospital or medical purposes (or purposes related thereto).

(2) The declaration of taking referred to in paragraph (1) is the declaration of taking signed by the Secretary on December 26, 1979, and filed in Civil Action No. 80-0021-E in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California under the authority of section 809 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1980 (Public Law 96-125; 93 Stat. 950), condemning for the use of the United States all right, title, and interest of the City of San Diego, California, in and to a certain tract of land consisting of 40 acres, more or less, in Balboa Park, San Diego, California.

(3) The amendment to such declaration of taking authorized by paragraph (1) may not be made without the consent of the City of San Diego.

Naval Regional Medical Center, San Diego, Calif., conveyance.

(b) The Secretary may convey to the City of San Diego as consideration, in whole or in part, for the acquisition under the declaration of taking described in subsection (a) all right, title, and interest of the United States, or any lesser interest, in and to all or any part of the real property (including improvements thereon) of the Naval Regional Medical Center, San Diego, California, that has been conveyed, leased, or otherwise made available to the United States by the City of San Diego other than through the acquisition under such declaration of taking.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may construct on the land referred to in subsection (a) or on any other land acquired by the United States from the City of San Diego which is contiguous to such land and in which the United States has less than a fee simple absolute interest any military construction project for a hospital or other medical facility which is otherwise authorized by law.

(d) The provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of section 809 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1980, shall apply to the acquisition under the declaration of taking described in subsection (a), as amended under such subsection.

93 Stat. 950.

LAND ACQUISITION, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

Fairhaven School.

SEC. 815. (a) The Secretary of the Navy (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to acquire by exchange all right, title, and interest of the San Diego Unified School District (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "District") in and to certain parcels of land in the County of San Diego, State of California, comprising approximately 5.11 acres of land (together with improvements thereon) known and identified as the Fairhaven School, San Diego, California, as shown and more particularly described on a map entitled "Naval Station San Diego, California, Acquisition of Fairhaven School", on file at the Western Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, San Bruno, California.

(b) In consideration for the acquisition under subsection (a), the Secretary is authorized to convey to the District all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to land and improvements having a fair market value (as determined by the Secretary) equal to or greater than the fair market value (as determined by the Secretary) of the improvements on the property to be acquired. If the fair market value of the land and improvements conveyed by the Secretary exceeds the fair market value of such improvements, the difference shall be paid by the District to the United States and shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(c) The exact acreages and legal descriptions of the properties to be acquired or conveyed under this section shall be determined by surveys which are satisfactory to the Secretary.

LAND ACQUISITION, SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

SEC. 816. (a) The Secretary of the Air Force (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to acquire by exchange all right, title, and interest in all or any part of three tracts of land contiguous to McClellan Air Force Base, Sacramento County, California, consisting of a total of approximately 443.3 acres.

Fair market value.

(b) As consideration for any acquisition under subsection (a), the Secretary is authorized to convey to the owners of the property to be acquired all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to real property of the United States under the jurisdiction of the Secretary (including any improvements thereon) having a fair market value of not more than the fair market value of the property to be acquired.

(c) The exact acreage and legal description of any real property acquired or conveyed under this section shall be determined by surveys which are satisfactory to the Secretary.

LAND EXCHANGE, WABASHA, MINNESOTA

United States Army Reserve Center.

SEC. 817. (a) Subject to subsection (b), the Secretary of the Army (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to convey to the City of Wabasha, Minnesota (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "City") all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to the land and improvements comprising the United States Army Reserve Center, Wabasha, Minnesota.

(b) In consideration for the acquisition under subsection (a), the City shall convey to the United States all right, title, and interest of the City in and to a certain tract of land of approximately seven acres owned by the City. If the fair market value of the land conveyed by the City under this subsection is less than the fair market value of the land conveyed by the United States under subsection (a), the City shall pay to the United States the amount of the difference between such fair market values. Any amount received under the preceeding sentence shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

Fair market value.

New Army Reserve Center.

(c) The conveyances under subsections (a) and (b) shall not be made until a new Army Reserve Center has been constructed on the land to be conveyed to the United States under subsection (b) and the existing Army Reserve Center referred to in subsection (a) has been vacated. Before such conveyances are made, the City shall make available to the Secretary without charge the lands to be conveyed under subsection (b) for the purpose of allowing the construction of the new Army Reserve Center.

(d) The exact acreages and legal descriptions of any property acquired or conveyed under this section shall be determined by surveys which are satisfactory to the Secretary.

(e) The Secretary is authorized to accept and administer any real property conveyed to the United States under this section.

LAND CONVEYANCE, GUAM, MARIANAS ISLANDS

SEC. 818. (a)(1) Subject to subsections (b) and (c), the Secretary of the Navy (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to convey, without monetary consideration, to the Government of Guam all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to the lands (or any part of the lands) described in paragraph (2), together with the improvements thereon.

(2) The lands referred to in paragraph (1) consist of approximately 927 acres of land located on Cabras Island and within the northern portion of the Apra Harbor Naval Complex, Guam, Marianas Islands, as shown and more particularly described on a map entitled "Apra Harbor Complex, Guam, Marianas Islands, Conveyance of 927 Acres of Land to the Government of Guam", on file at the Pacific Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

(b)(1) Conveyance of the property described in subsection (a) shall be made at such times, and shall be subject to such terms and conditions, as the Secretary considers to be in the interest of national defense.

(2) Conveyance of the property described in subsection (a) shall be subject to the condition that any disposal by sale or lease of any part or all of the property by the Government of Guam shall only be for a monetary consideration equal to or in excess of the fair market value (at the time of the disposal) of the property concerned, or of the leasehold interest therein, as determined by the Administrator of General Services, and any such monetary consideration received by the Government of Guam, minus any reasonable development costs incurred by such Government in preparing the property concerned for disposal, shall be paid to the United States.

Easements, reserve.

(3) The United States shall reserve easements for all existing utilities and navigation aids in the conveyed parcels as exist on the date of conveyance of the property whether or not such utilities and facilities are specifically mentioned in the conveyance documents for the property. The Government of Guam, for as long as it owns the conveyed lands, shall agree to issue easements not interfering with their facilities and operations to the United States at no cost for the future facility installations including, but not limited to, construction, installation, reconstruction, operation, maintenance, and removal of water, oil, gas, fuel, and other pipelines, drainage and sewage systems, power and telephone transmission lines, water sewage, and other utility lines, navigation aids, and all things incident thereto, in, on, under, and over the conveyed lands together with all necessary rights and privileges for the full enjoyment of the foregoing, including, without limitation, the right of ingress and egress. The Government of Guam shall agree that for as long as it owns the conveyed lands, it will bear all costs of relocation of existing and future utility lines and other facilities owned by the United States in the conveyed lands requisite to construction on the conveyed lands by the Government of Guam and authorized other parties.

Utility lines and other U.S. owned facility lines, relocation costs.

(4) All leases, licenses, easements, and other property interests affecting the conveyed lands at the time of conveyance issued by the United States shall be honored by the Government of Guam until their final expiration dates. All rents due to be collected under such contracts shall be remitted to the United States for all periods prior to the date the property is conveyed, after which date the rents will be the property of the Government of Guam.

(5) All leases, licenses, easements, conveyances of land, and other real estate interests granted by the Government of Guam after conveyance, shall be subject to the terms, conditions, convenants, and reservations stated in this subsection and shall recite the same in the contractual documents.

(c) The exact acreages and legal descriptions of all lands to be conveyed under this section shall be determined by surveys which are satisfactory to the Secretary. The cost of such surveys, together with all other direct and indirect costs related to any conveyance under this section, shall be borne by the Government of Guam.

Approved October 10, 1980.

An Act

To provide for the settlement of land claims of Indians, Indian nations and tribes and bands of Indians in the State of Maine, including the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7919]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980".

Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980.
25 USC 1721 note.

CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

25 USC 1721.

SEC. 2. (a) Congress hereby finds and declares that:

(1) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Maliseet Tribe are asserting claims for possession of lands within the State of Maine and for damages on the ground that the lands in question were originally transferred in violation of law, including, but without limitation, the Trade and Intercourse Act of 1790 (1 Stat. 137), or subsequent reenactments or versions thereof.

(2) The Indians, Indian nations, and tribes and bands of Indians, other than the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, that once may have held aboriginal title to lands within the State of Maine long ago abandoned their aboriginal holdings.

(3) The Penobscot Nation, as represented as of the time of passage of this Act by the Penobscot Nation's Governor and Council, is the sole successor in interest to the aboriginal entity generally known as the Penobscot Nation which years ago claimed aboriginal title to certain lands in the State of Maine.

(4) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, as represented as of the time of passage of this Act by the Joint Tribal Council of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, is the sole successor in interest to the aboriginal entity generally known as the Passamaquoddy Tribe which years ago claimed aboriginal title to certain lands in the State of Maine.

(5) The Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, as represented as of the time of passage of this Act by the Houlton Band Council, is the sole successor in interest, as to lands within the United States, to the aboriginal entity generally known as the Maliseet Tribe which years ago claimed aboriginal title to certain lands in the State of Maine.

(6) Substantial economic and social hardship to a large number of landowners, citizens, and communities in the State of Maine, and therefore to the economy of the State of Maine as a whole, will result if the aforementioned claims are not resolved promptly.

(7) This Act represents a good faith effort on the part of Congress to provide the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians with a fair and just settlement of their land claims. In the absence of congressional action, these land claims would be pursued through the courts, a process which in all likelihood would consume many years and thereby promote hostility and uncertainty in the State of Maine to the ultimate detriment of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, their members, and all other citizens of the State of Maine.

(8) The State of Maine, with the agreement of the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation, has enacted legislation defining the relationship between the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and their members, and the State of Maine.

(9) Since 1820, the State of Maine has provided special services to the Indians residing within its borders, including the members of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians. During this same period, the United States provided few special services to the respective tribe, nation, or band, and repeatedly denied that it had jurisdiction over or responsibility for the said tribe, nation, and band. In view of this provision of special services by the State of Maine, requiring substantial expenditures by the State of Maine and made by the State of Maine without being required to do so by Federal law, it is the intent of Congress that the State of Maine not be required further to contribute directly to this claims settlement.

(b) It is the purpose of this Act—

(1) to remove the cloud on the titles to land in the State of Maine resulting from Indian claims;

(2) to clarify the status of other land and natural resources in the State of Maine;

(3) to ratify the Maine Implementing Act, which defines the relationship between the State of Maine and the Passamaquoddy Tribe, and the Penobscot Nation, and

(4) to confirm that all other Indians, Indian nations and tribes and bands of Indians now or hereafter existing or recognized in the State of Maine are and shall be subject to all laws of the State of Maine, as provided herein.

DEFINITIONS

25 USC 1722.

SEC. 3. For purposes of this Act, the term—

(a) "Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians" means the sole successor to the Maliseet Tribe of Indians as constituted in aboriginal times in what is now the State of Maine, and all its predecessors and successors in interest. The Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians is represented, as of the date of the enactment of this Act, as to lands within the United States, by the Houlton Band Council of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians;

(b) "land or natural resources" means any real property or natural resources, or any interest in or right involving any real property or natural resources, including but without limitation minerals and mineral rights, timber and timber rights, water and water rights, and hunting and fishing rights;

(c) "Land Acquisition Fund" means the Maine Indian Claims Land Acquisition Fund established under section 5(c) of this Act;

(d) "laws of the State" means the constitution, and all statutes, regulations, and common laws of the State of Maine and its political subdivisions and all subsequent amendments thereto or judicial interpretations thereof;

(e) "Maine Implementing Act" means section 1, section 30, and section 31, of the "Act to Implement the Maine Indian Claims Settlement" enacted by the State of Maine in chapter 732 of the public laws of 1979;

(f) "Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation" means those lands as defined in the Maine Implementing Act;

(g) "Passamaquoddy Indian Territory" means those lands as defined in the Maine Implementing Act;

(h) "Passamaquoddy Tribe" means the Passamaquoddy Indian Tribe, as constituted in aboriginal times and all its predecessors and successors in interest. The Passamaquoddy Tribe is represented, as of the date of the enactment of this Act, by the Joint Tribal Council of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, with separate councils at the Indian Township and Pleasant Point Reservations;

(i) "Penobscot Indian Reservation" means those lands as defined in the Maine Implementing Act;

(j) "Penobscot Indian Territory" means those lands as defined in the Maine Implementing Act;

(k) "Penobscot Nation" means the Penobscot Indian Nation as constituted in aboriginal times, and all its predecessors and successors in interest. The Penobscot Nation is represented, as of the date of enactment of this Act, by the Penobscot Nation Governor and Council;

(l) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior;

(m) "Settlement Fund" means the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Fund established under section 5(a) of this Act; and

(n) "transfer" includes but is not limited to any voluntary or involuntary sale, grant, lease, allotment, partition, or other conveyance; any transaction the purpose of which was to effect a sale, grant, lease, allotment, partition, or conveyance; and any act, event, or circumstance that resulted in a change in title to, possession of, dominion over, or control of land or natural resources.

APPROVAL OF PRIOR TRANSFERS AND EXTINGUISHMENT OF INDIAN TITLE AND CLAIMS OF THE PASSAMAQUODDY TRIBE, THE PENOBSCOT NATION, THE HOULTON BAND OF MALISEET INDIANS, AND ANY OTHER INDIANS, INDIAN NATION, OR TRIBE OR BAND OF INDIANS WITHIN THE STATE OF MAINE

25 USC 1723.

SEC. 4. (a)(1) Any transfer of land or natural resources located anywhere within the United States from, by, or on behalf of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, or any of their members, and any transfer of land or natural resources located anywhere within the State of Maine, from, by, or on behalf of any Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians, including but without limitation any transfer pursuant to any treaty, compact, or statute of any State, shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with the Constitution and all laws of the United States, including but without limitation the Trade and Intercourse Act of 1790, Act of July 22, 1790 (ch. 33, Sec. 4, 1 Stat. 137, 138), and all amendments thereto and all subsequent reenactments and versions thereof, and Congress hereby does approve and ratify any such transfer effective as of the date of said transfer: Provided however, That nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or eliminate the personal claim of any individual Indian (except for any Federal common law fraud claim) which is pursued under any law of general applicability that protects non-Indians as well as Indians.

(2) The United States is barred from asserting on behalf of any Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians any claim under the laws of the State of Maine arising before the date of this Act and arising from any transfer of land or natural resources by any Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians, located anywhere within the State of Maine, including but without limitation any transfer pursuant to any treaty, compact, or statute of any State, on the grounds that such transfer was not made in accordance with the laws of the State of Maine.

(3) The United States is barred from asserting by or on behalf of any individual Indian any claim under the laws of the State of Maine arising from any transfer of land or natural resources located anywhere within the State of Maine from, by, or on behalf of any individual Indian, which occurred prior to December 1, 1873, including but without limitation any transfer pursuant to any treaty, compact, or statute of any State.

(b) To the extent that any transfer of land or natural resources described in subsection (a)(1) of this section may involve land or natural resources to which the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, or any of their members, or any other Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians had aboriginal title, such subsection (a)(1) shall be regarded as an extinguishment of said aboriginal title as of the date of such transfer.

(c) By virtue of the approval and ratification of a transfer of land or natural resources effected by this section, or the extinguishment of aboriginal title effected thereby, all claims against the United States, any State or subdivision thereof, or any other person or entity, by the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians or any of their members or by any other Indian, Indian nation, tribe or band of Indians, or any predecessors or successors in interest thereof, arising at the time of or subsequent to the transfer and based on any interest in or right involving such land or natural resources, including but without limitation claims for trespass damages or claims for use and occupancy, shall be deemed extinguished as of the date of the transfer.

Effective date.

Publication in Federal Register.

(d) The provisions of this section shall take effect immediately upon appropriation of the funds authorized to be appropriated to implement the provisions of section 5 of this Act. The Secretary shall publish notice of such appropriation in the Federal Register when such funds are appropriated.

ESTABLISHMENT OF FUNDS

Maine Indian Claims Settlement Fund.
25 USC 1724.

SEC. 5. (a) There is hereby established in the United States Treasury a fund to be known as the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Fund in which $27,000,000 shall be deposited following the appropriation of sums authorized by section 14 of this Act.

(b)(1) One-half of the principal of the settlement fund shall be held in trust by the Secretary for the benefit of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, and the other half of the settlement fund shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Penobscot Nation. Each portion of the settlement fund shall be administered by the Secretary in accordance with reasonable terms established by the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation, respectively, and agreed to by the Secretary: Provided, That the Secretary may not agree to terms which provide for investment of the settlement fund in a manner not in accordance with section 1 of the Act of June 24, 1938 (52 Stat. 1037), unless the respective tribe or nation first submits a specific waiver of liability on the part of the United States for any loss which may result from such an investment: Provided, further, That until such terms have been agreed upon, the Secretary shall fix the terms for the administration of the portion of the settlement fund as to which there is no agreement.

(2) Under no circumstances shall any part of the principal of the settlement fund be distributed to either the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation, or to any member of either tribe or nation: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent the Secretary from investing the principal of said fund in accordance with paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(3) The Secretary shall make available to the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation in quarterly payments, without any deductions except as expressly provided in subsection 6(d)(2) and without liability to or on the part of the United States, any income received from the investment of that portion of the settlement fund allocated to the respective tribe or nation, the use of which shall be free of regulation by the Secretary. The Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation annually shall each expend the income from $1,000,000 of their portion of the settlement fund for the benefit of their respective members who are over the age of sixty. Once payments under this paragraph have been made to the tribe or nation, the United States shall have no further trust responsibility to the tribe or nation or their members with respect to the sums paid, any subsequent distribution of these sums, or any property or services purchased therewith.

Maine Indian Claims Land Acquisition Fund, establishment.

(c) There is hereby established in the United States Treasury a fund to be known as the Maine Indian Claims Land Acquisition Fund in which $54,500,000 shall be deposited following the appropriation of sums authorized by section 14 of this Act.

(d) The principal of the land acquisition fund shall be apportioned as follows:

(1) $900,000 to be held in trust for the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians;

(2) $26,800,000 to be held in trust for the Passamaquoddy Tribe; and

(3) $26,800,000 to be held in trust for the Penobscot Nation.

Land or natural resources, acquisition.

The Secretary is authorized and directed to expend, at the request of the affected tribe, nation or band, the principal and any income accruing to the respective portions of the land acquisition fund for the purpose of acquiring land or natural resources for the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians and for no other purpose. The first 150,000 acres of land or natural resources acquired for the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the first 150,000 acres acquired for the Penobscot Nation within the area described in the Maine Implementing Act as eligible to be included within the Passamaquoddy Indian Territory and the Penobscot Indian Territory shall be held in trust by the United States for the benefit of the respective tribe or nation. The Secretary is also authorized to take in trust for the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation any land or natural resources acquired within the aforesaid area by purchase, gift, or exchange by such tribe or nation. Land or natural resources acquired outside the boundaries of the aforesaid areas shall be held in fee by the respective tribe or nation, and the United States shall have no further trust responsibility with respect thereto. Land or natural resources acquired within the State of Maine for the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians shall be held in trust by the United States for the benefit of the band: Provided, That no land or natural resources shall be so acquired for or on behalf of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians without the prior enactment of appropriate legislation by the State of Maine approving such acquisition: Provided further, That the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation shall each have a one-half undivided interest in the corpus of the trust, which shall consist of any such property or subsequently acquired exchange property, in the event the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians should terminate its interest in the trust.

State of Maine and Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, negotiations.

(4) The Secretary is authorized to, and at the request of either party shall, participate in negotiations between the State of Maine and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians for the purpose of assisting in securing agreement as to the land or natural resources to be acquired by the United States to be held in trust for the benefit of the Houlton Band. Such agreement shall be embodied in the legislation enacted by the State of Maine approving the acquisition of such lands as required by section 5(d)(3). The agreement and the legislation shall be limited to:

(A) provisions providing restrictions against alienation or taxation of land or natural resources held in trust for the Houlton Band no less restrictive than those provided by this Act and the Maine Implementing Act for land or natural resources to be held in trust for the Passamaquoddy Tribe or Penobscot Nation;

(B) provisions limiting the power of the State of Maine to condemn such lands that are no less restrictive than the provisions of this Act and the Maine Implementing Act that apply to the Passamaquoddy Indian Territory and the Penobscot Indian Territory but not within either the Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation or the Penobscot Indian Reservation;

(C) consistent with the trust and restricted character of the lands, provisions satisfactory to the State and the Houlton Band concerning:

(i) payments by the Houlton Band in lieu of payment of property taxes on land or natural resources held in trust for the band, except that the band shall not be deemed to own or use any property for governmental purposes under the Maine Implementing Act;

(ii) payments of other fees and taxes to the extent imposed on the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation under the Maine Implementing Act, except that the band shall not be deemed to be a governmental entity under the Maine Implementing Act or to have the powers of a municipality under the Maine Implementing Act;

(iii) securing performance of obligations of the Houlton Band arising after the effective date of agreement between the State and the band.

(D) provisions on the location of these lands.

Report to congressional committees.

Except as set forth in this subsection, such agreement shall not include any other provisions regarding the enforcement or application of the laws of the State of Maine. Within one year of the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary is directed to submit to the appropriate committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate having jurisdiction over Indian affairs a report on the status of these negotiations.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of the Act of August 1, 1888 (25 Stat. 357), as amended, and section 1 of the Act of February 26, 1931 (46 Stat. 1421), the Secretary may acquire land or natural resources under this section from the ostensible owner of the land or natural resources only if the Secretary and the ostensible owner of the land or natural resources have agreed upon the identity of the land or natural resources to be sold and upon the purchase price and other terms of sale. Subject to the agreement required by the preceding sentence, the Secretary may institute condemnation proceedings in order to perfect title, satisfactory to the Attorney General, in the United States and condemn interests adverse to the ostensible owner. Except for the provisions of this Act, the United States shall have no other authority to acquire lands or natural resources in trust for the benefit of Indians or Indian nations, or tribes, or bands of Indians in the State of Maine.

40 USC 258a.

(f) The Secretary may not expend on behalf of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians any sums deposited in the funds established pursuant to the subsections (a) and (c) of this section unless and until he finds that authorized officials of the respective tribe, nation, or band have executed appropriate documents relinquishing all claims to the extent provided by sections 4, 11, and 12 of this Act and by section 6213 of the Maine Implementing Act, including stipulations to the final judicial dismissal with prejudice of their claims.

(g)(1) The provisions of section 2116 of the Revised Statutes shall not be applicable to (A) the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians or any other Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians in the State of Maine, or (B) any land or natural resources owned by or held in trust for the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians or any other Indian, Indian nation or tribe or band of Indians in the State of Maine. Except as provided in subsections (d)(4) and (g)(2), such land or natural resources shall not otherwise be subject to any restraint on alienation by virtue of being held in trust by the United States or the Secretary.

25 USC 177.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, any transfer of land or natural resources within Passamaquoddy Indian Territory or Penobscot Indian Territory, except (A) takings for public uses consistent with the Maine Implementing Act, (B) takings for public uses pursuant to the laws of the United States, or (C) transfers of individual Indian use assignments from one member of the Passamaquoddy Tribe or Penobscot Nation to another member of the same tribe or nation, shall be void ab initio and without any validity in law or equity.

Land or natural resources held in trust.

(3) Land or natural resources within the Passamaquoddy Indian Territory or the Penobscot Indian Territory or held in trust for the benefit of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians may, at the request of the respective tribe, nation, or band, be—

(A) leased in accordance with the Act of August 9, 1955 (69 Stat. 539), as amended;

25 USC 415-415d, 396.

(B) leased in accordance with the Act of May 11, 1938 (52 Stat. 347), as amended;

25 USC 396a-396f and notes.

(C) sold in accordance with section 7 of the Act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 857), as amended;

25 USC 407.

(D) subjected to rights-of-way in accordance with the Act of February 5, 1948 (62 Stat. 17);

25 USC 323-328 and note.

(E) exchanged for other land or natural resources of equal value, or if they are not equal, the values shall be equalized by the payment of money to the grantor or to the Secretary for deposit in the land acquisition fund for the benefit of the affected tribe, nation, or band, as the circumstances require, so long as payment does not exceed 25 per centum of the total value of the interests in land to be transferred by the tribe, nation, or band; and

(F) sold, only if at the time of sale the Secretary has entered into an option agreement or contract of sale to purchase other lands of approximate equal value.

Land or natural resources, administration.

(h) Land or natural resources acquired by the Secretary in trust for the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation shall be managed and administered in accordance with terms established by the respective tribe or nation and agreed to by the Secretary in accordance with section 102 of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (88 Stat. 2206), or other existing law.

25 USC 450f.

(i)(1) Trust or restricted land or natural resources within the Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation or the Penobscot Indian Reservation may be condemned for public purposes pursuant to the Maine Implementing Act. In the event that the compensation for the taking is in the form of substitute land to be added to the reservation, such land shall become a part of the reservation in accordance with the Maine Implementing Act and upon notification to the Secretary of the location and boundaries of the substitute land. Such substitute land shall have the same trust or restricted status as the land taken. To the extent that the compensation is in the form of monetary proceeds, it shall be deposited and reinvested as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) Trust land of the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation not within the Passamaquoddy Reservation or Penobscot Reservation may be condemned for public purposes pursuant to the Maine Implementing Act. The proceeds from any such condemnation shall be deposited in the land acquisition fund established by section 5(c) and shall be reinvested in acreage within unorganized or unincorporated areas of the State of Maine. When the proceeds are reinvested in land whose acreage does not exceed that of the land taken, all the land shall be acquired in trust. When the proceeds are invested in land whose acreage exceeds the acreage of the land taken, the respective tribe or nation shall designate, with the approval of the United States, and within thirty days of such reinvestment, that portion of the land acquired by the reinvestment, not to exceed the area taken, which shall be acquired in trust. The land not acquired in trust shall be held in fee by the respective tribe or nation. The Secretary shall certify, in writing, to the Secretary of State of the State of Maine the location, boundaries, and status of the land acquired.

Condemnation proceedings.

State jurisdiction, U.S. judicial review.

(3) The State of Maine shall have initial jurisdiction over condemnation proceedings brought under this section. The United States shall be a necessary party to any such condemnation proceedings. After exhaustion of all State administrative remedies, the United States is authorized to seek judicial review of all relevant matters in the courts of the United States and shall have an absolute right of removal, at its discretion, over any action commenced in the courts of the State.

(j) When trust or restricted land or natural resources of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians are condemned pursuant to any law of the United States other than this Act, the proceeds paid in compensation for such condemnation shall be deposited and reinvested in accordance with subsection (i)(2) of this section.

APPLICATION OF STATE LAWS

State civil and criminal jurisdiction.
25 USC 1725.

SEC. 6. (a) Except as provided in section 8(e) and section 5(d)(4), all Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians in the State of Maine, other than the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and their members, and any lands or natural resources owned by any such Indian, Indian nation, tribe or band of Indians and any lands or natural resources held in trust by the United States, or by any other person or entity, for any such Indian, Indian nation, tribe, or band of Indians shall be subject to the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the State, the laws of the State, and the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the courts of the State, to the same extent as any other person or land therein.

(b)(1) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and their members, and the land and natural resources owned by, or held in trust for the benefit of the tribe, nation, or their members, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the State of Maine to the extent and in the manner provided in the Maine Implementing Act and that Act is hereby approved, ratified, and confirmed.

(2) Funds appropriated for the benefit of Indian people or for the administration of Indian affairs may be utilized, consistent with the purposes for which they are appropriated, by the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation to provide part or all of the local share as provided by the Maine Implementing Act.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede any Federal laws or regulations governing the provision or funding of services or benefits to any person or entity in the State of Maine unless expressly provided by this Act.

Report to congressional committees.

(4) Not later than October 30, 1982, the Secretary is directed to submit to the appropriate committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate having jurisdiction over Indian affairs a report on the Federal and State funding provided the Passamaquoddy Tribe and Penobscot Nation compared with the respective Federal and State funding in other States.

State criminal jurisdiction, effective date.

(c) The United States shall not have any criminal jurisdiction in the State of Maine under the provisions of sections 1152, 1153, 1154, 1155, 1156, 1160, 1161, and 1165 of title 18 of the United States Code. This provision shall not be effective until sixty days after the publication of notice in the Federal Register as required by subsection 4(d) of this Act.

(d)(1) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, and all members thereof, and all other Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians in the State of Maine may sue and be sued in the courts of the State of Maine and the United States to the same extent as any other entity or person residing in the State of Maine may sue and be sued in those courts; and section 1362 of title 28, United States Code, shall be applicable to civil actions brought by the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians: Provided, however, That the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and their officers and employees shall be immune from suit to the extent provided in the Maine Implementing Act.

31 USC 203.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3477 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, the Secretary shall honor valid final orders of a Federal, State, or territorial court which enters money judgments for causes of action which arise after the date of the enactment of this Act against either the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation by making an assignment to the judgment creditor of the right to receive income out of the next quarterly payment from the settlement fund established pursuant to section 5(a) of this Act and out of such future quarterly payments as may be necessary until the judgment is satisfied.

(e)(1) The consent of the United States is hereby given to the State of Maine to amend the Maine Implementing Act with respect to either the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation: Provided, That such amendment is made with the agreement of the affected tribe or nation, and that such amendment relates to (A) the enforcement or application of civil, criminal, or regulatory laws of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the State within their respective jurisdictions; (B) the allocation or determination of governmental responsibility of the State and the tribe or nation over specified subject matters or specified geographical areas, or both, including provision for concurrent jurisdiction between the State and the tribe or nation; or (C) the allocation of jurisdiction between tribal courts and State courts.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the State of Maine and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians are authorized to execute agreements regarding the jurisdiction of the State of Maine over lands owned by or held in trust for the benefit of the band or its members.

Separate jurisdiction.

(f) The Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation are hereby authorized to exercise jurisdiction, separate and distinct from the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the State of Maine, to the extent authorized by the Maine Implementing Act, and any subsequent amendments thereto.

(g) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the State of Maine shall give full faith and credit to the judicial proceedings of each other.

(h) Except as other wise provided in this Act, the laws and regulations of the United States which are generally applicable to Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians shall be applicable in the State of Maine, except that no law or regulation of the United States (1) which accords or relates to a special status or right of or to any Indian, Indian nation, tribe or band of Indians, Indian lands, Indian reservations, Indian country, Indian territory or land held in trust for Indians, and also (2) which affects or preempts the civil, criminal, or regulatory jurisdiction of the State of Maine, including, without limitation, laws of the State relating to land use or environmental matters, shall apply within the State.

Certain Indian tribes, financial benefits and tax treatment.

(i) As federally recognized Indian tribes, the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians shall be eligible to receive all of the financial benefits which the United States provides to Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians to the same extent and subject to the same eligibility criteria generally applicable to other Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians. The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians shall be treated in the same manner as other federally recognized tribes for the purposes of Federal taxation and any lands which are held by the respective tribe, nation, or band subject to a restriction against alienation or which are held in trust for the benefit of the respective tribe, nation, or band shall be considered Federal Indian reservations for purposes of Federal taxation.

TRIBAL ORGANIZATION

25 USC 1726.

SEC. 7. (a) The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians may each organize for its common welfare and adopt an appropriate instrument in writing to govern the affairs of the tribe, nation, or band when each is acting in its governmental capacity. Such instrument and any amendments thereto must be consistent with the terms of this Act and the Maine Implementing Act. The Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians shall each file with the Secretary a copy of its organic governing document and any amendments thereto.

Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, membership.

(b) For purposes of benefits under this Act and the recognition extended the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, no person who is not a citizen of the United States may be considered a member of the Houlton Band of Maliseets, except persons who, as of the date of this Act, are enrolled members on the band's existing membership roll, and direct lineal descendants of such members. Membership in the band shall be subject to such further qualifications as may be provided by the band in its organic governing document or amendments thereto subject to the approval of the Secretary.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE INDIAN CHILD WELFARE ACT

Indian child custody proceedings, tribal jurisdiction.
25 USC 1727.
25 USC 1901 note.
25 USC 1918.

SEC. 8. (a) The Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation may assume exclusive jurisdiction over Indian child custody proceedings pursuant to the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 (92 Stat. 3069). Before the respective tribe or nation may assume such jurisdiction over Indian child custody proceedings, the respective tribe or nation shall present to the Secretary for approval a petition to assume such jurisdiction and the Secretary shall approve that petition in the manner prescribed by sections 108(a)-(c) of said Act.

(b) Any petition to assume jurisdiction over Indian child custody proceedings by the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation shall be considered and determined by the Secretary in accordance with sections 108 (b) and (c) of the Act.

(c) Assumption of jurisdiction under this section shall not affect any action or proceeding over which a court has already assumed jurisdiction.

Reservations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation and the Penobscot Indian Reservation are "reservations" within section 4(10) of the Act.

Indian tribe.

(e) For the purposes of this section, the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians is an "Indian tribe" within section 4(8) of the Act, provided, that nothing in this subsection shall alter or effect the jurisdiction of the State of Maine over child welfare matters as provided in subsection 6(e)(2) of this Act.

Indian child custody proceedings, jurisdiction.

(f) Until the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation has assumed exclusive jurisdiction over the Indian child custody proceedings pursuant to this section, the State of Maine shall have exclusive jurisdiction over Indian child custody proceedings of that tribe or nation.

EFFECT OF PAYMENTS TO PASSAMAQUODDY TRIBE, PENOBSCOT NATION, AND HOULTON BAND OF MALISEET INDIANS

25 USC 1728.

SEC. 9. (a) No payments to be made for the benefit of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation, or the Houlton Band of Maliseet

Indians pursuant to the terms of this Act shall be considered by any agency or department of the United States in determining or computing the eligibility of the State of Maine for participation in any financial aid program of the United States.

(b) The eligibility for or receipt of payments from the State of Maine by the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation or any of their members pursuant to the Maine Implementing Act shall not be considered by any department or agency of the United States in determining the eligibility of or computing payments to the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation or any of their members under any financial aid program of the United States: Provided, That to the extent that eligibility for the benefits of such a financial aid program is dependent upon a showing of need by the applicant, the administering agency shall not be barred by this subsection from considering the actual financial situation of the applicant.

(c) The availability of funds or distribution of funds pursuant to section 5 of this Act may not be considered as income or resources or otherwise utilized as the basis (1) for denying any Indian household or member thereof participation in any federally assisted housing program, (2) for denying or reducing the Federal financial assistance or other Federal benefits to which such household or member would otherwise be entitled, or (3) for denying or reducing the Federal financial assistance or other Federal benefits to which the Passamaquoddy Tribe or Penobscot Nation would otherwise be eligible or entitled.

DEFERRAL OF CAPITAL GAINS

25 USC 1729.

SEC. 10. For the purpose of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, any transfer by private owners of land purchased or otherwise acquired by the Secretary with moneys from the land acquisition fund whether in the name of the United States or of the respective tribe, nation or band shall be deemed to be an involuntary conversion within the meaning of section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

26 USC 1033.

TRANSFER OF TRIBAL TRUST FUNDS HELD BY THE STATE OF MAINE

25 USC 1730.

SEC. 11. All funds of either the Passamaquoddy Tribe or the Penobscot Nation held in trust by the State of Maine as of the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to the Secretary to be held in trust for the respective tribe or nation and shall be added to the principal of the settlement fund allocated to that tribe or nation. The receipt of said State funds by the Secretary shall constitute a full discharge of any claim of the respective tribe or nation, its predecessors and successors in interest, and its members, may have against the State of Maine, its officers, employees, agents, and representatives, arising from the administration or management of said State funds. Upon receipt of said State funds, the Secretary, on behalf of the respective tribe and nation, shall execute general releases of all claims against the State of Maine, its officers, employees, agents, and representatives, arising from the administration or management of said State funds.

OTHER CLAIMS DISCHARGED BY THIS ACT

25 USC 1731.

SEC. 12. Except as expressly provided herein, this Act shall constitute a general discharge and release of all obligations of the State of Maine and all of its political subdivisions, agencies, departments, and all of the officers or employees thereof arising from any treaty or agreement with, or on behalf of any Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians or the United States as trustee therefor, including those actions now pending in the United States District Court for the District of Maine captioned United States of America against State of Maine (Civil Action Nos. 1966-ND and 1969-ND).

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

SEC. 13. Except as provided in this Act, no provision of this Act shall be construed to constitute a jurisdictional act, to confer jurisdiction to sue, or to grant implied consent to any Indian, Indian nation, or tribe or band of Indians to sue the United States or any of its officers with respect to the claims extinguished by the operation of this Act. 25 USC 1732.

AUTHORIZATION

SEC. 14. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated $81,500,000 for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1980, for transfer to the funds established by section 5 of this Act. 25 USC 1733.

INSEPARABILITY

SEC. 15. In the event that any provision of section 4 of this Act is held invalid, it is the intent of Congress that the entire Act be invalidated. In the event that any other section or provision of this Act is held invalid, it is the intent of Congress that the remaining sections of this Act shall continue in full force and effect. 25 USC 1734.

CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 16. (a) In the event a conflict of interpretation between the provisions of the Maine Implementing Act and this Act should emerge, the provisions of this Act shall govern. 25 USC 1735.

(b) The provisions of any Federal law enacted after the date of enactment of this Act for the benefit of Indians, Indian nations, or tribes or bands of Indians, which would affect or preempt the application of the laws of the State of Maine, including application of the laws of the State to lands owned by or held in trust for Indians, or Indian nations, tribes, or bands of Indians, as provided in this Act and the Maine Implementing Act, shall not apply within the State of Maine, unless such provision of such subsequently enacted Federal law is specifically made applicable within the State of Maine.

Joint Resolution

Oct. 10, 1980
[S.J. Res. 82]

To designate the week commencing with the third Monday in February of 1981 as "National Patriotism Week".

Whereas the freedom known in this country was won through great sacrifice and long tribulation; and

Whereas similar sacrifices have been made by the citizenry of the United States to extend liberty and well-being to other nations of the world; and

Whereas it is altogether fitting and proper to recognize such great freedoms, and to honor so great a Nation: Now, therefore, be it

National Patriotism Week. Designation.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week commencing with the third Monday in February of 1981 is hereby designated as "National Patriotism Week".

SEC. 2. The President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation—

(1) calling upon the people of the United States to commemorate National Patriotism Week with appropriate celebrations and observances;

(2) encouraging primary and secondary schools to adopt an appropriate curriculum for that week including such elements as the study of the Pledge of Allegiance and the national anthem, national symbols, seals, and mottos, and national monuments, heroes, and accomplishments; and

(3) requesting each Federal agency to recognize such week by taking such action as it may deem appropriate.

Approved October 10, 1980.

An Act

To provide general assistance to local educational agencies for the education of Cuban and Haitian refugee children, to provide special impact aid to such agencies for the education of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children, and to provide assistance to State educational agencies for the education of Cuban and Haitian refugee adults.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7859]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980".

Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980.
8 USC 1522 note.

TITLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 101. As used in this Act—

8 USC 1522 note.

(1) The terms "Cuban and Haitian refugee adults" and "Cuban and Haitian refugee children" mean aliens who have fled from Cuba or Haiti and who—

(A) on or after November 1, 1979—

(i) have been admitted into the United States as refugees under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act;

Ante, p. 103.

(ii) have been paroled into the United States by the Attorney General pursuant to section 212(d)(5) of such Act; or

Ante, p. 107.

(iii) are applicants for asylum, or have been granted asylum, in the United States; or

(B) are Cuban-Haitian entrants (status pending) who entered the United States on or after November 1, 1979.

For purposes of this paragraph, any person who is a Cuban-Haitian entrant as described in subparagraph (B) at any time after the date of the enactment of this Act shall be considered to maintain such status for purposes of this Act regardless of any subsequent change in status under any other law.

(2) The terms "elementary school", "local educational agency", "secondary school", "State", and "State educational agency" have the meanings given such terms under section 198(a) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

20 USC 2854.

(3) The term "elementary or secondary nonpublic schools" means schools which comply with the compulsory education laws of the State and which are exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

26 USC 501.

(4) The term "Indochinese refugee children" means aliens who have fled from Cambodia, Vietnam, or Laos, and, on or after January 1, 1979—

(A) have been admitted into the United States as refugees under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act;

Ante, p. 103.

Ante, p. 107.

(B) have been paroled into the United States by the Attorney General pursuant to section 212(d)(5) of such Act; or

(C) are applicants for asylum, or have been granted asylum, in the United States.

(5) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Education.

AUTHORIZATIONS AND ALLOCATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 102. (a) There are authorized to be appropriated for each of the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983, but only in a lump sum for all programs under this Act, subject to allocation in accordance with subsection (b), such sums as may be necessary to make payments to which State educational agencies are entitled under this Act and payments for administration under section 104.

Post, pp. 1801, 1803, 1807.

(b)(1) If the sums appropriated for any fiscal year to make payments to States under this Act are not sufficient to pay in full the sum of the amounts which State educational agencies are entitled to receive under titles II through IV for such year, the allocations to State educational agencies under each of such titles shall be ratably reduced by the same percentage to the extent necessary to bring the aggregate of such allocations within the limits of the amounts so appropriated.

(2) In the event that funds become available for making payments under this Act for any period after allocations have been made under paragraph (1) of this subsection for such period, the amounts reduced under such paragraph shall be increased on the same basis as they were reduced.

TREATMENT OF CERTAIN JURISDICTIONS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 103. (a) The jurisdictions to which this section applies are Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

Grants.

(b)(1) Each jurisdiction to which this section applies shall be entitled to grants for the purposes set forth in sections 201(a), 302, and 402 in amounts equal to amounts determined by the Secretary in accordance with criteria established by the Secretary, except that the aggregate of the amount to which such jurisdictions are so entitled for any period—

(A) for the purposes set forth in section 201(a), shall not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent of the aggregate of the amounts to which all States are entitled under section 201 for that period;

(B) for the purposes set forth in section 302, shall not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent of the aggregate of the amounts to which all States are entitled under section 301 for that period; and

(C) for the purposes set forth in section 402, shall not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent of the aggregate of the amounts to which all States are entitled under section 401 for that period.

Aggregate amount reduction.

(2) If the aggregate of the amounts determined by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (1) to be so needed for any period exceeds an amount equal to such 1 percent limitation, the entitlement of each such jurisdiction shall be reduced proportionately until such aggregate does not exceed such limitation.

STATE ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 104. The Secretary is authorized to pay to each State educational agency amounts equal to the amounts expended by it for the proper and efficient administration of its functions under this Act, except that the total of such payments for any period shall not exceed 1 percent of the amounts which that State educational agency is entitled to receive for that period under this Act.

WITHHOLDING

Notice and hearing.
8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 105. Whenever the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing to any State educational agency, finds that there is a failure to meet the requirements of any title of this Act, the Secretary shall notify that agency that further payments will not be made to the agency under such title, or in the discretion of the Secretary, that the State educational agency shall not make further payments under such title to specified local educational agencies or other entities (in the case of funds under title IV) whose actions cause or are involved in such failure until the Secretary is satisfied that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until the Secretary is so satisfied, no further payments shall be made to the State educational agency under such title, or payments by the State educational agency under such title shall be limited to local educational agencies or other entities (in the case of funds under title IV) whose actions did not cause or were not involved in the failure, as the case may be.

Post, p. 1807.

TITLE II—GENERAL ASSISTANCE FOR LOCAL EDUCATIONAL AGENCIES

STATE ENTITLEMENTS

Cuban and Haitian refugee children.
8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 201. (a) The Secretary shall, in accordance with the provisions of this title, make payments to State educational agencies for each of the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983 for the purpose of assisting local educational agencies of that State in providing basic education for Cuban and Haitian refugee children. Payments made under this title to any State shall be used in accordance with applications approved under section 202 for public educational services for Cuban and Haitian refugee children enrolled in the elementary and secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of the local educational agencies of that State.

Grants.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) and in subsection (c), the amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is entitled under this title, for any fiscal year described in subsection (a), shall be equal to the product of—

(A) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children enrolled in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency within that State during the period for which the determination is made;

multiplied by—

(B) $450.

Grant reductions.

(2) The amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is otherwise entitled for any fiscal year, as determined under paragraph (1), shall be reduced by the amounts made available for such fiscal year under any other Federal law for expenditure within the State for the same purposes as those for which funds are made available under this title, except that the reduction shall be made only to the extent that such amounts (A) are allocated to the State (or to agencies or entities providing services within the State) on the basis of a statutory formula, and (B) are made available for such purposes specifically because of the refugee, parolee, or asylee status of the individuals to be served by such funds. The amount of the reduction required under this paragraph shall be determined by the Secretary in a manner consistent with subsection (c).

"State."

(3) For the purpose of this subsection, the term "State" does not include Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. The entitlements of such jurisdictions shall be determined in the manner specified in section 103, but for purposes of this title and section 105 any payments made under section 103 for the purposes set forth in section 201(a) shall be considered to be payments under this title.

Determinations.

(c) Determinations by the Secretary under this title for any period with respect to the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and the amount of the reduction under subsection (b)(2) shall be made, whenever actual satisfactory data are not available, on the basis of estimates. No such determination shall operate because of an underestimate or overestimate to deprive any State educational agency of its entitlement to any payment (or the amount thereof) under this title to which such agency would be entitled had such determination been made on the basis of accurate data.

APPLICATIONS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 202. (a) No State educational agency shall be entitled to any payment under this title for any period unless that agency submits an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information, as the Secretary may reasonably require. Each such application shall—

(1) provide that the payments under this title will be used for the purposes set forth in section 201(a);

(2) provide assurances that such payments will be distributed among local educational agencies within that State in accordance with section 201;

(3) provide assurances that the State educational agency will not finally disapprove in whole or in part any application for funds received under this title without first affording the local educational agency submitting the application for such funds reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing; and Reports.

(4) provide for making such reports as the Secretary may reasonably require to carry out this title.

Approval or disapproval.

(b) The Secretary shall approve an application which meets the requirements of subsection (a). The Secretary shall not finally disapprove an application of a State educational agency except after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing on the record to such agency.

PAYMENTS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 203. The Secretary shall pay to each State educational agency having an application approved under section 202 the amount which that State is entitled to receive under this title.

TITLE III—SPECIAL IMPACT ASSISTANCE FOR SUBSTANTIAL INCREASES IN REFUGEE ATTENDANCE

STATE ENTITLEMENTS

Payments.
8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 301. (a) The Secretary shall, in accordance with the provisions of this title, make payments to State educational agencies for each of the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983 for the purpose set forth in section 302.

Educational agency grants.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3) and in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, the amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is entitled under this title—

(A) for fiscal year 1981, shall be equal to the product of (i) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during such fiscal year in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, multiplied by (ii) $750;

(B) for fiscal year 1982, shall be equal to the sum of—

(i) the amount equal to the product of (I) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during fiscal year 1982 in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, who were not enrolled in such schools during fiscal year 1981, multiplied by (II) $750; and

(ii) the amount equal to the product of (I) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during fiscal year 1982 in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, who were enrolled in such schools during fiscal year 1981, multiplied by (II) $500; and

(C) for fiscal year 1983, shall be equal to the sum of—

(i) the amount equal to the product of (I) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during fiscal year 1983 in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, who were not enrolled in such schools during either fiscal year 1981 or fiscal year 1982, multiplied by (II) $750;

(ii) the amount equal to the product of (I) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during fiscal year 1983 in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, who were enrolled in such schools during either fiscal year 1981 or fiscal year 1982 (but not during both such fiscal years), multiplied by (II) $500; and

(iii) the amount equal to the product of (I) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled during fiscal year 1983 in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of each local educational agency described under paragraph (2) within that State, or in any elementary or secondary nonpublic school within the districts served by each such local educational agency, who were enrolled in such schools during both of the fiscal years 1981 and 1982, multiplied by (II) $350.

Local educational agencies.

(2) The local educational agencies referred to in paragraph (1) are those local educational agencies in which the sum of the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children who are enrolled in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of such agencies, or in elementary or secondary nonpublic schools within the districts served by such agencies, during the fiscal year for which the payments are to be made under this title, and are receiving supplementary educational services during such period, is equal to—

(A) at least 500; or

(B) at least 5 percent of the total number of students enrolled in such public or nonpublic schools during such fiscal year; whichever number is less. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the local educational agencies referred to in paragraph (1) shall include local educational agencies eligible to receive assistance by reason of the last sentence of section 3(b) and section 3(c)(2)(B) of the Act of September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874, Eighty-first Congress), relating to Federal impact aid, subject to paragraph (5) of this subsection.

Grant reductions.

(3) The amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is otherwise entitled for any fiscal year, as determined under paragraph (1), shall be reduced by the amounts made available under any other Federal law to agencies or other entities for educational, or education-related, services or activities within the State because of the significant concentration of Cuban and Haitian refugee children or Indochinese refugee children, except that the reduction shall be made only to the extent that such amounts are allocated to the State, or to such agencies or entities, on the basis of a statutory formula. The amount of the reduction required under this paragraph shall be determined by the Secretary in a manner consistent with subsection (c).

"State."

(4) For the purpose of this subsection, the term "State" does not include Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. The entitlements of such jurisdictions shall be determined in the manner specified in section 103, but for purposes of this title and section 105 any payments made under section 103 for the purposes set forth in section 302 shall be considered to be payments under this title.

(5) The amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is entitled as a result of the last sentence of paragraph (2) shall be limited to Cuban and Haitian refugee children who meet the requirements of section 101(1).

Determinations.

(c) Determinations by the Secretary under this title for any period with respect to the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children and the amount of the reduction under subsection (b)(3) shall be made, whenever actual satisfactory data are not available, on the basis of estimates. No such determination shall operate because of an underestimate or overestimate to deprive any State educational agency of its entitlement to any payment (or the amount thereof) under this title to which such agency would be entitled had such determination been made on the basis of accurate data.

Unused payments.

(d) Whenever the Secretary determines that any amount of a payment made to a State under this title for a fiscal year will not be used by such State for carrying out the purpose for which the payment was made, the Secretary shall make such amount available for carrying out such purpose to one or more other States to the extent the Secretary determines that such other States will be able to use such additional amount for carrying out such purpose. Any amount made available to a State from an appropriation for a fiscal year in accordance with the preceding sentence shall, for purposes of this title, be regarded as part of such State's payment (as determined under subsection (b)) for such year, but shall remain available until the end of the succeeding fiscal year.

USES OF FUNDS

Refugee children, school enrollment.
8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 302. (a) Payments made under this title to any State may be used in accordance with applications approved under section 303 for supplementary educational services and costs, as described under subsection (b) of this section, for Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled in the elementary and secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of the local educational agencies of the State described in section 301(b)(2) and in elementary and secondary nonpublic schools of that State within the districts served by such agencies.

Supplementary educational services.

(b) Financial assistance provided under this title shall be available to meet the costs of providing Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children supplementary educational services, including but not limited to—

(1) supplementary educational services necessary to enable those children to achieve a satisfactory level of performance, including—

(A) English language instruction;

(B) other bilingual educational services; and

(C) special materials and supplies;

(2) additional basic instructional services which are directly attributable to the presence in the school district of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children, including the costs of providing additional classroom supplies, overhead costs, costs of construction, acquisition or rental of space, costs of transportation, or such other costs as are directly attributable to such additional basic instructional services; and

(3) special inservice training for personnel who will be providing instruction described in either paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection.

APPLICATIONS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 303. (a) No State educational agency shall be entitled to any payment under this title for any period unless that agency submits an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information, as the Secretary may reasonably require. Each such application shall—

(1) provide that the educational programs, services and activities for which payments under this title are made will be administered by or under the supervision of the agency;

(2) provide assurances that payments under this title will be used for purposes set forth in section 302;

(3) provide assurances that such payments will be distributed among local educational agencies within that State in accordance with section 301;

(4) provide assurances that the State educational agency will not finally disapprove in whole or in part any application for funds received under this title without first affording the local educational agency submitting an application for such funds reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing;

Reports.

(5) provide for making such reports as the Secretary may reasonably require to perform his functions under this Act; and

(6) provide assurances—

(A) that to the extent consistent with the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee children and Indochinese refugee children enrolled in the elementary or secondary nonpublic schools within the district served by a local educational agency, such agency, after consultation with appropriate officials of such schools, shall provide for the benefit of these children secular, neutral, and nonideological services, materials, and equipment necessary for the education of such children;

(B) that the control of funds provided under this paragraph and the title to any materials, equipment, and property repaired, remodeled, or constructed with those funds shall be in a public agency for the uses and purposes provided in this title, and a public agency shall administer such funds and property; and

(C) that the provision of services pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided by employees of a public agency or through contract by such public agency with a person, association, agency or corporation who or which, in the provision of such services, is independent of such elementary or secondary nonpublic school and of any religious organization; and such employment or contract shall be under the control and supervision of such public agency, and the funds provided under this paragraph shall not be commingled with State or local funds.

Approval or disapproval.

(b) The Secretary shall approve an application which meets the requirements of subsection (a). The Secretary shall not finally disapprove an application of a State educational agency except after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing on the record to such agency.

PAYMENTS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 304. (a) The Secretary shall pay to each State educational agency having an application approved under section 303 the amount which that State is entitled to receive under this title.

Waiver.

(b) If a State is prohibited by law from providing public educational services for children enrolled in elementary and secondary nonpublic schools, as required by section 303(a)(6), or if the Secretary determines that a local educational agency has substantially failed or is unwilling to provide for the participation on an equitable basis of children enrolled in such schools, the Secretary may waive such requirement and shall arrange for the provision of services to such children through arrangements which shall be subject to the requirements of this Act.

TITLE IV—ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS

STATE ENTITLEMENTS

Cuban and Haitian refugee adults.
8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 401. (a) The Secretary shall, in accordance with the provisions of this title, make payments to State educational agencies for each of the fiscal years 1982 and 1983 for the purposes of providing for the operation of adult education programs as described under section 402 for Cuban and Haitian refugee adults aged 16 or older. Payments made under this title to any State shall be used in accordance with applications approved under section 403.

Grants.

(b)(1) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is entitled under this Act, for any fiscal year described in subsection (a), shall be equal to the product of—

(A) the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee adults aged 16 or older who are enrolled, during the period for which the determination is made, in programs of instruction referred to in section 402 which are offered within that State, other than any such refugees who are enrolled in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of local educational agencies; multiplied by—

(B) $300.

Grant reductions.

(2) The amount of the grant to which a State educational agency is otherwise entitled for any fiscal year, as determined under paragraph (1), shall be reduced by the amounts made available for such fiscal year under any other Federal law for expenditure within the State for the same purposes as those for which funds are made available under this title, except that the reduction shall be made only to the extent that such amounts (A) are allocated to the State (or to agencies or entities providing services within the State) on the basis of a statutory formula, and (B) are made available for such purposes specifically because of the refugee, parolee, or asylee status of the individuals to be served by such funds. The amount of the reduction required under this paragraph shall be determined by the Secretary in a manner consistent with subsection (c).

"State."

(3) For the purpose of this subsection, the term "State" does not include Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. The entitlements of such jurisdictions shall be determined in the manner specified in section 103, but for purposes of this title and section 105 any payments made under section 103 for the purposes set forth in section 402 shall be considered to be payments under this title.

Determinations.

(c) Determinations by the Secretary under this title for any period with respect to the number of Cuban and Haitian refugee adults and the amount of the reduction under subsection (b)(2) shall be made, whenever actual satisfactory data are not available, on the basis of estimates. No such determination shall operate because of an underestimate or overestimate to deprive any State educational agency of its entitlement to any payment (or the amount thereof) under this title to which such agency would be entitled had such determination been made on the basis of accurate data.

USE OF FUNDS

Refugee adults, school enrollment. 8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 402. (a) Funds made available to State educational agencies under this title shall be used by such agencies to provide for programs of adult education and adult basic education to Haitian and Cuban refugee adults aged 16 or older in need of such services who are not enrolled in elementary or secondary public schools under the jurisdiction of local educational agencies. Such programs may be provided directly by the State educational agency, or such agency may make grants, or enter into contracts, with local educational agencies, and other public or private nonprofit agencies, organizations, or institutions to provide for such programs. Funds available under this title may be used for—

(1) programs of instruction of such adult refugees in basic reading and mathematics, in development and enhancement of necessary skills, and for the promotion of literacy among such refugees;

(2) administrative costs of planning and operating such programs of instruction;

(3) educational support services which meet the need of such adult refugees, including guidance and counseling with regard to educational, career, and employment opportunities; and

(4) special projects designed to operate in conjunction with existing Federal and non-Federal programs and activities to develop occupational and related skills for individuals, particularly programs authorized under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 or under the Vocational Education Act of 1963.

29 USC 801 note. 20 USC 2301 note.

(b) The State educational agency shall review applications for grants and contracts in a manner consistent with the purposes of paragraphs (12) and (13) of section 306(b) of the Adult Education Act.

20 USC 1205.

(c) The State educational agency shall provide for the use of funds made available under this title in such manner that the maximum number of Haitian and Cuban refugee adults aged 16 or older residing within the State receive education under the programs of instruction described under subsection (a).

APPLICATIONS

8 USC 1522 note.

SEC. 403. (a) No State educational agency shall be entitled to any payment under this title for any period unless that agency submits an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and containing or accompanied by such information, as the Secretary may reasonably require. Each such application shall—

(1) provide that payments made under this title will be used only for the purposes, and in the manner, set forth in section 402;

(2) provide assurances that the State educational agency will not finally disapprove in whole or in part any application for funds received under this title without first affording the entity submitting an application for such funds reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing; and

Reports.

(3) provide for making periodic reports to the Secretary evaluating the effectiveness of the payments made under this title, and such other reports as the Secretary may reasonably require to perform his functions under this Act.

Approval or disapproval.

(b) The Secretary shall approve an application which meets the requirements of subsection (a). The Secretary shall not finally disapprove an application of a State educational agency except after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing on the record to such agency.

TITLE V—OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO CUBAN AND HAITIAN ENTRANTS

AUTHORITIES FOR OTHER PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

SEC. 501. (a)(1) The President shall exercise authorities with respect to Cuban and Haitian entrants which are identical to the authorities which are exercised under chapter 2 of title IV of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The authorizations provided in section 414 of that Act shall be available to carry out this section without regard to the dollar limitation contained in section 414(a)(2).

8 USC 1522 note.

Ante, p. 110.

Ante, p. 116.

(2) Any reference in chapter III of title I of the Supplemental Appropriations and Rescission Act, 1980, to section 405(c)(2) of the International Security and Development Assistance Act of 1980 or to the International Security Act of 1980 shall be construed to be a reference to paragraph (1) of this subsection.

Ante, p. 865.

(b) In addition, the President may, by regulation, provide that benefits granted under any law of the United States (other than the Immigration and Nationality Act) with respect to individuals admitted to the United States under section 207(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall be granted in the same manner and to the same extent with respect to Cuban and Haitian entrants.

Ante, p. 103.

(c)(1)(A) Any Federal agency may, under the direction of the President, provide assistance (in the form of materials, supplies, equipment, work, services, facilities, or otherwise) for the processing, care, maintenance, security, transportation, and initial reception and placement in the United States of Cuban and Haitian entrants. Such assistance shall be provided on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.

(B) Funds available to carry out this subsection shall be used to reimburse State and local governments for expenses which they incur for the purposes described in subparagraph (A). Such funds may be used to reimburse Federal agencies for assistance which they provide under subparagraph (A).

Reimbursements.

(2) The President may direct the head of any Federal agency to detail personnel of that agency, on either a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis, for temporary duty with any Federal agency directed to provide supervision and management for purposes of this subsection.

(3) The furnishing of assistance or other exercise of functions under this subsection shall not be considered a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

42 USC 4321 note.

(4) Funds to carry out this subsection may be available until expended.

(5) To facilitate the transfer of the functions described in paragraph (1) from the Federal Emergency Management Agency to other Federal agencies pursuant to this subsection, the purposes for which the funds appropriated to the President in the first paragraph under the heading "FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY" in chapter VII of title I of the Supplemental Appropriations and Rescission Act, 1980, are available may be construed to include use in carrying out this subsection to the extent that those funds are allocated for use for any of the purposes described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

96th Congress

An Act

To amend the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 to authorize additional appropriations, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[S. 2730]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Federal Railroad Safety Authorization Act of 1980".

Federal Railroad Safety Authorization Act of 1980.
45 USC 421 note.

AUTHORIZATION FOR APPROPRIATIONS

SEC. 2. The Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 431 et seq.) is amended by striking out section 212 and by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

Post, p. 1815.
45 USC 441.

"SEC. 214. AUTHORIZATION FOR APPROPRIATIONS.

45 USC 444.

"(a) There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out the provisions of this Act not to exceed $38,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, and not to exceed $40,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982.

"(b) The amounts appropriated under subsection (a) of this section for a fiscal year shall be available for expenditure in such fiscal year as follows:

"(1) For the Office of Safety, including salaries and expenses for not more than (A) six hundred safety inspectors, (B) forty-five signal and train control inspectors, and (C) one hundred and twenty-five clerical personnel, not to exceed $22,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, and not to exceed $24,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982. Such funds shall be available for travel expenses of safety inspectors for not less than twenty days per month.

"(2) To carry out the provisions of section 206(d) of this Act, relating to State safety programs, not to exceed $2,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, and not to exceed $2,500,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982.

45 USC 435.

"(3) For the Federal Railroad Administration, for salaries and expenses not otherwise provided for, not to exceed $3,500,000.

"(4) For conducting safety research and development activities under this Act, not to exceed $10,000,000, of which not less than $500,000 shall be available for assisting in the treatment of alcohol and drug abuse problems of railroad employees.

"(c) Sums appropriated under this section for research and development, automated track inspection, and the State safety grant program are authorized to remain available until expended.".

EMERGENCY SAFETY ORDERS

SEC. 3. Section 203 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 432) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 203. EMERGENCY POWERS.

Unsafe conditions or practices; order.

"(a) If the Secretary determines, on the basis of testing, inspection, investigation, or research carried out pursuant to this title, that an unsafe condition or practice, or a combination of unsafe conditions or practices, or both, create an emergency situation involving a hazard of death or injury to persons, the Secretary may immediately issue an order, without regard to the provisions of section 202(b) of this title, imposing such restrictions or prohibitions as may be necessary to bring about the abatement of such emergency situation.

45 USC 431.

Review.

"(b) After the issuance of an order under this section, opportunity for review of such order shall be provided in accordance with section 554 of title 5, United States Code.

"(c) If a petition for review of an order has been filed under subsection (b) of this section but administrative review of such order has not been completed by the end of the thirty-day period beginning on the date such order was issued, such order shall cease to be effective at the end of such period unless the Secretary determines in writing that the emergency situation remains in existence.

Relief, standards and procedures.

"(d) In issuing any order under this section, the Secretary shall describe the conditions or practices which create an emergency situation (as determined by the Secretary), and shall establish standards and procedures under which relief from such order may be obtained. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the discretion of the Secretary under this section to maintain an order in effect until the emergency situation has been abated.

Court action.

"(e) Any employee of a common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce who may be exposed to imminent physical injury in the course of his employment because of the Secretary's failure, without any reasonable basis, to seek relief under subsection (a) of this section, or the authorized representative of such an employee, shall have the right to bring an action against the Secretary in the United States district court for the judicial district in which the emergency situation is alleged to exist or in which the employer has its principal executive office, or for the District of Columbia, to compel the Secretary to issue an order under this section. The failure of the Secretary to seek relief under subsection (a) of this section shall be reviewed solely under the standards of section 706 of title 5, United States Code.".

SCOPE OF STATE PARTICIPATION

SEC. 4. (a) Section 206 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 435) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Investigation and surveillance.

"(g) In addition to the provisions for State participation set forth in subsections (a) and (c) of this section, the Secretary may enter into agreements with any State to provide investigative and surveillance activities with respect to those functions transferred to the Secretary by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A)).".

(b) Section 206(d) of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 435(d)) is amended by inserting "or (g)" immediately after "subsection (c)".

STATE ENFORCEMENT POWER

SEC. 5. Section 207 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 436) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 207. ENFORCING COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL RAILROAD SAFETY RULES, REGULATIONS, ORDERS, AND STANDARDS.

Civil penalty, application for assessment and collection.
45 USC 438.
49 USC 1655.

"(a)(1) In any case in which the Secretary has failed to assess the civil penalty applicable under section 209 of this title with respect to a violation of any railroad safety rule, regulation, order, or standard issued under this title or under any law transferred by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), or (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act, within sixty days after the date on which notification was received by the Secretary from a State agency participating in investigative and surveillance activities under the provisions of section 206 of this title, that State agency may apply to the United States district court for the judicial district in which the violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office for the assessment and collection of the civil penalty included in or made applicable to such rule, regulation, order, or standard.

Exception.

"(2) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply in any case in which the Secretary has affirmatively determined in writing that no violation has occurred.

Injunctive relief.
45 USC 439.

"(b)(1) In any case in which the Secretary has not commenced an action for injunctive relief under section 210 of this title with respect to a violation of any railroad safety rule, regulation, order, or standard issued under this title or under any law transferred by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), or (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act, within 15 days after the date on which the Secretary received notification of the violation, together with a request that an injunctive action be instituted, from a State agency participating in investigative and surveillance activities under the provisions of section 206 of this title, that State agency may apply to the United States district court for the judicial district in which the violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office for injunctive relief to restrain further violation of such rule, regulation, order, or standard.

Exception.

"(2) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply in any case in which the Secretary has affirmatively determined in writing that (A) no violation has occurred, or (B) an action for injunctive relief is not necessary because of other enforcement action undertaken by the Secretary with respect to the subject violation.

Geographic limitation.

"(c) A State agency may not bring an action under this section in any United States district court located outside the boundaries of the State.".

CONSOLIDATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS

SEC. 6. (a) Section 208(b) of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 437(b)) is amended by inserting "and under the functions transferred by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A))" immediately after "this title".

(b) Section 208 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 437) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

DOT Secretary, authorized actions.

"(d)(1) In carrying out the functions formerly vested in the Interstate Commerce Commission and transferred to the Secretary by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A)), the Secretary is authorized to perform any act authorized in subsection (a) of this section that he considers necessary to carry out such transferred functions, including, but not limited to, conducting investigations, Orders.

49 USC 1655.

making reports, issuing subpenas, requiring production of documents, taking depositions, and prescribing recordkeeping and reporting requirements. The Secretary is further authorized to issue orders directing compliance with the laws transferred by section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act or with any regulation or order issued thereunder.

Enforcement.

"(2) The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction, upon petition by the Attorney General, to enforce by appropriate means any order issued by the Secretary under paragraph (1) of this subsection.".

CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR FALSE REPORTING

Penalties.

SEC. 7. Section 209 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 438) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) Any person who knowingly and willfully—

"(1) makes a false entry in any record or report required under this title to be made, prepared, or preserved;

"(2) destroys, mutilates, changes, or by another means falsifies any such record or report;

"(3) does not enter required specified facts and transactions in any such record or report;

"(4) makes, prepares, or preserves any such record or report in violation of a regulation or order issued under this title; or

"(5) files a false record or report with the Secretary, shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.".

VENUE

SEC. 8. (a) Section 209(c) of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 438(c)) is amended by striking out "having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation occurred" and inserting in lieu thereof "for the judicial district in which such violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office".

(b) Section 6 of the Act of March 2, 1893 (45 U.S.C. 6), is amended by striking out "having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed" and inserting in lieu thereof "for the judicial district in which such violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office".

(c) Section 9 of the Act of February 17, 1911 (45 U.S.C. 34), is amended by striking out "having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed" and inserting in lieu thereof "for the judicial district in which such violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office".

(d) Section 25(h) of the Act of February 4, 1887 (49 U.S.C. 26(h)), is amended by striking out "having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed" and inserting in lieu thereof "for the judicial district in which such violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office".

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

SEC. 9. (a) Section 210(a) of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 439(a)) is amended by inserting "and to restrain violations of or to enforce rules, regulations, orders, or standards established under any statute transferred to the Secretary under section 6 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655 (e)(1), (e)(2), and (e)(6)(A))" immediately before the period at the end thereof.

(b) Section 210 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 439) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Location. Ante p. 1812.

"(c) Subject to section 207(d) of this title, any action under subsection (a) of this section may be brought in the United States district court for the judicial district in which the violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office.".

PROTECTION AND RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES

SEC. 10. The Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 431 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 211 the following new section:

"SEC. 212. PROTECTION AND RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES.

45 USC 441.

"(a) A common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce may not discharge or in any manner discriminate against any employee because such employee, whether acting in his own behalf or in a representative capacity, has—

"(1) filed any complaint or instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding under or related to the enforcement of the Federal railroad safety laws; or

"(2) testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding.

"(b)(1) A common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce may not discharge or in any manner discriminate against any employee for refusing to work when confronted by a hazardous condition related to the performance of the employee's duties, if—

"(A) the refusal is made in good faith and no reasonable alternative to such refusal is available to the employee;

"(B) the hazardous condition is of such a nature that a reasonable person, under the circumstances then confronting the employee, would conclude that—

"(i) the condition presents an imminent danger of death or serious injury; and

"(ii) there is insufficient time, due to the urgency of the situation, to eliminate the danger through resort to regular statutory channels; and

"(C) the employee, where possible, has notified his employer of his apprehension of such hazardous condition and of his intention not to perform further work unless such condition is corrected immediately.

Security personnel, exemption.

"(2) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to security personnel employed by a railroad to protect persons and property transported by such railroad.

Dispute resolution.

"(c)(1) Any dispute, grievance, or claim arising under this section shall be subject to resolution in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 3 of the Railway Labor Act (45 U.S.C. 153).

Backpay; reinstatement.

"(2) In the case of any violation of subsection (a) or (b) of this section, the Adjustment Board (or any division or delegate thereof) or any other board of adjustment created under section 3 of the Railway Labor Act shall, where appropriate, award backpay to the aggrieved employee and order such employee reinstated to his position.

Election of provision.

"(d) Whenever an employee of a railroad is afforded protection under this section and under any other provision of law in connection with the same allegedly unlawful act of an employer, if such employee seeks protection he must elect either to seek relief pursuant to this section or pursuant to such other provision of law.

"Federal railroad safety laws."

"(e) As used in this section, the term 'Federal railroad safety laws' means this Act, the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), and those laws transferred to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Transportation by subsection (e) (1), (2), and (6)(A) of section 6 of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(e) (1), (2), and (6)(A)).".

PAY CLASSIFICATIONS

SEC. 11. The Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 431 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 212, as added by section 10 of this Act, the following new section:

45 USC 443.

"SEC. 213. PAY CLASSIFICATIONS.

"Notwithstanding any other provision of law—

"(1) the position held by a fully experienced and qualified railroad safety inspector employed by the Department of Transportation shall be classified in accordance with chapter 51 of title 5, United States Code, but not lower than Grade GS-12 of the General Schedule; and

5 USC 5101 et seq..
5 USC 5332 note.

"(2) the position held by a railroad safety specialist employed by the Department of Transportation shall be classified in accordance with chapter 51 of title 5, United States Code, but not lower than Grade GS-13 of the General Schedule.".

HOURS OF SERVICE ACT AMENDMENT

SEC. 12. Section 5(a) of the Act of March 4, 1907 (45 U.S.C. 64a(a)), commonly known as the Hours of Service Act, is amended to read as follows:

Penalties.

45 USC 62-63a.

"SEC. 5. (a)(1) Any common carrier subject to this Act, or any officer or agent thereof, that requires or permits any employee to go, be, or remain on duty in violation of section 2, section 3, or section 3A of this Act, or that violates any other provision of this Act, shall be liable for a penalty of $500 for each violation, to be recovered in an action to be brought by the United States attorney in the district court of the United States for the judicial district in which such violation occurred or in which the defendant has its principal executive office. It shall be the duty of the United States attorney to bring such an action upon satisfactory information being lodged with him. In the case of a violation of section 2 (a)(3) or (a)(4) of this Act, each day a facility is in noncompliance shall constitute a separate offense.

Time limitation.

"(2) No action may be brought under this section after the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date the violation occurred unless administrative notification pursuant to the Federal Claims Collection Act (31 U.S.C 951-953) has been provided to the common carrier within such two-year period, but in no event may any such action be brought after the expiration of the period specified in section 2462 of title 28, United States Code.".

LOCOMOTIVE INSPECTION ACT AMENDMENT

Inspection report.

SEC. 13. Section 6 of the Act of February 17, 1911 (45 U.S.C. 29), is amended by striking out the fourth and fifth sentences and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Each carrier subject to such sections shall keep on file the report of each inspection required by such rules and regulations and the report showing the repair of the defects disclosed by the inspection. The rules and regulations referred to in this section shall prescribe the manner in which such reports shall be kept.".

SAFETY OF RAILROAD PASSENGER EQUIPMENT

SEC. 14. Section 202 of the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 (45 U.S.C. 431) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Rules and regulations.

"(h)(1) The Secretary shall, within two years after the date of enactment of this subsection, issue such initial rules, regulations, orders, and standards as may be necessary to insure the safe construction, maintenance, and operation of railroad passenger equipment. The Secretary shall periodically review such rules, regulations, orders, and standards and shall, after a hearing in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, make such revisions in such rules, regulations, orders, and standards as may be necessary.

Review.

"(2) In issuing initial rules, regulations, orders, and standards under this subsection, and in making any subsequent revisions thereto, the Secretary shall—

"(A) concentrate on those areas which, in the judgment of the Secretary, present the greatest opportunity for enhancing the safety of railroad passenger equipment; and

"(B) give significant weight to the expenditures that would be necessary to retrofit existing equipment and to alter specifications for equipment on order;

Consultation.

"(3) In issuing initial rules, regulations, orders, and standards under this subsection, and in making any subsequent revisions thereto, the Secretary may consult with the National Railroad Passenger Corporation, public authorities that operate passenger service, other rail carriers that transport passengers, organizations of passengers, and organizations of employees. Such consultations shall not be subject to the Federal Advisory Committee Act, but minutes of such consultations shall be placed in the public docket of the rulemaking proceeding.

5 USC app.

"Railroad passenger equipment."

"(4) As used in this subsection, the term 'railroad passenger equipment' means all railroad equipment used for the transportation of passengers, whether in commuter or intercity service.".

ALASKA RAILROAD ACT AMENDMENT

SEC. 15. The first section of the Act of March 12, 1914 (43 U.S.C. 975), is amended by inserting immediately after the first undesignated paragraph the following new paragraph:

Security officers.

"Any security officer employed to protect life and property on the railroad is authorized to maintain law and order, to carry firearms, and to make arrests on railroad property with a warrant for any offense committed against the laws of the United States, and to make arrests without a warrant for any offense committed upon property of the railroad if there is reasonable ground to believe that the offense constitutes a felony under the laws of the United States and the person to be arrested has committed or is committing the felony.".

STUDIES AND REPORTS

45 USC 431 note.

SEC. 16. (a) The Secretary of Transportation shall conduct a study regarding employee training in the railroad industry as it affects railroad safety. Among other factors, such study shall consider the appropriate Federal role, if any, in such training, and the adequacy of such training. The results of such study, together with recommendations for any necessary legislation, shall be submitted to the Congress by December 31, 1980.

Submittal to Congress.

Status report, submittal to Congress.

(b)(1) The Secretary of Transportation shall make every possible effort to expedite promulgation of a final rule regarding the retrofitting of Department of Transportation specification one hundred and five tank cars with shelf couplers. In the event that such rule is not promulgated prior to December 31, 1980, the Secretary of Transportation shall submit to the Congress a status report with respect to such rule, indicating the Federal Railroad Administration's activities to such date, the current status of such rule, and an estimate as to when a final rule will be promulgated.

Recommendations and anticipated action, submittal to Congress.

(2) Whenever the Secretary of Transportation submits a status report pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection, or when the Federal Railroad Administration promulgates a final rule with respect to the retrofitting of Department of Transportation specification one hundred and five tank cars with shelf couplers, the Secretary shall transmit to the Congress any other recommendations and anticipated action by the Department of Transportation with respect to the retrofitting of such tank cars.

Systems safety plan, submittal to Congress.

(c)(1) The Secretary of Transportation shall submit to the Congress a systems safety plan relating to the activities of the Department of Transportation in carrying out rail safety laws. The Secretary shall complete such plan at the earliest possible date, but in no event shall the study be submitted later than January 31, 1981.

Methodology.

(2) As part of the plan submitted to the Congress under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the Secretary of Transportation shall develop a methodology to determine frequency and schedules of safety inspections, giving appropriate priority to track and equipment involved with passenger trains and hazardous cargos. Such methodology shall further take into consideration safety records of the rail carriers, location of track and equipment in population centers, volume of usage of track and equipment, and any other factors that the Secretary considers relevant to railroad safety.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Sec. 17. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the provisions of this Act shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act. 45 USC 431 note.

(b) Section 11 of this Act shall take effect on October 1, 1980, or on the date of enactment of this Act, whichever is later.

Approved October 10, 1980.

An Act

To amend title V of the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act to reduce administrative burdens on low volume automobile manufacturers, to encourage an increase of the domestic value added content in labor and materials of foreign automobiles sold in the United States, to extend the time available to all manufacturers for carryforward or carryback of credits earned under the Act, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[S. 2475]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Automobile Fuel Efficiency Act of 1980.
15 USC 1901 note.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the "Automobile Fuel Efficiency Act of 1980".

(b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—

Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
Sec. 2. Purposes.
Sec. 3. Fuel efficiency standards applicable to small manufacturers.
Sec. 4. Modification of local content requirements to encourage domestic production of fuel efficient automobiles.
Sec. 5. Adjustments regarding standards for 4-wheel drive, light-duty trucks.
Sec. 6. Determinations of unlawful conduct; 3-year carryforward and carryback.
Sec. 7. Exemptions for emergency vehicles.
Sec. 8. Technical, clerical, and conforming amendments.
Sec. 9. Effective date.

SEC. 2. PURPOSES.

15 USC 2001 note.

It is the purpose of this Act—

(1) to amend certain Federal automobile fuel economy requirements to improve fuel efficiency, and thereby facilitate conservation of petroleum and reduce petroleum imports, and

(2) to encourage full employment in the domestic automobile manufacturing sector.

SEC. 3. FUEL EFFICIENCY STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO SMALL MANUFACTURERS.

Applications for exemption and alternative standards.

(a) STANDARDS.—(1) Section 502(c) of the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act (15 U.S.C. 2002(c)) is amended by inserting "(1)" after "(c)", and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) Any manufacturer may elect in any application submitted under paragraph (1) to have the applications for, and administrative determinations regarding, exemptions and alternative average fuel economy standards be consolidated for two or more of the model years after model year 1980 and before model year 1986. The Secretary may grant an exemption and set an alternative standard or standards for all model years covered by such application.".

15 USC 2002 note.

(2) Any application filed for model year 1981 under section 502(c) of such Act before the effective date of this Act may be amended by the applicant to make the election allowed under the amendment made by paragraph (1) and have such application apply for the model years covered by the election. Additional information shall not be required in connection with such application for the years covered by such election except information which the Secretary of Transportation may specifically request.

Review.
15 USC 2002 note.
15 USC 2002.

(3)(A) The Secretary of Transportation shall review the requirements and procedures established pursuant to section 502(c)(1) of such Act (as redesignated by this subsection) as soon as practicable after the date of the enactment of this Act and modify such requirements and procedures to the maximum extent practicable in order to further reduce administrative burdens on such applicants and the Secretary, and expedite determinations regarding such applications.

Notification of Congress.
15 USC 2012.

(B) The Secretary shall notify the Congress of the review and actions taken or to be taken under this paragraph in the first annual report to the Congress which is made under section 512 of such Act after the completion of such review.

(b) CERTAIN REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—Section 505(a) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2005(a)) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any manufacturer for any model year for which that manufacturer is subject to an alternative average fuel economy standard under section 502(c).".

SEC. 4. MODIFICATION OF LOCAL CONTENT REQUIREMENTS TO ENCOURAGE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF FUEL EFFICIENT AUTOMOBILES.

Passenger automobile standards, exemption.

(a) CERTAIN NEW DOMESTIC MANUFACTURERS.—(1) Section 503(b) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2003(b)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(3)(A) After consideration of a petition (and comments thereon) for an exemption from the provisions of paragraph (1) filed by a manufacturer, the Secretary shall, by order, grant an exemption from such provisions for passenger automobiles manufactured by that manufacturer during the period provided for in such order, unless the Secretary finds, after notice and reasonable opportunity for written or oral comment, that the proposed exemption would, for such period, result in reduced employment in the United States related to motor vehicle manufacturing.

"(B) Any exemption granted under subparagraph (A) shall be effective for a period of 5 model years or, at the request of the manufacturer, such longer period as the Secretary may provide, as specified in the order.

"(C) An exemption granted under subparagraph (A) for any manufacturer shall not be effective unless the manufacturer—

"(i) began automobile production or assembly in the United States after December 22, 1975, and before May 1, 1980; or

"(ii) began automobile production or assembly in the United States on or after May 1, 1980, and has engaged in such production or assembly in the United States for at least one model year ending on or before December 31, 1985.

Publication in Federal Register.

"(D)(i) Any decision by the Secretary to grant or deny an exemption under subparagraph (A) shall be made, and notice thereof published in the Federal Register, not later than 90 days after the date of the petition for that exemption. The Secretary may extend such period to a specified date if the Secretary publishes notice thereof in the Federal Register, together with the reasons for such extension. In no event may such period be extended beyond the 150th day after the date of the petition for such exemption.

"(ii) The period for written or oral comment provided in subparagraph (A) for any petition shall end not later than 60 days after the filing of the petition, except that such period may be extended by the Secretary for not to exceed an additional 30 days. If the Secretary fails to make a decision pursuant to this paragraph within the period for a decision in clause (i)—

"(I) the petition shall be deemed to have been granted; and

Report to congressional committees.

"(II) the Secretary, within 30 days after the end of such decision period, shall submit a written statement to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the House of Representatives setting forth the reasons for failing to decide within such decision period.

Judicial review of exemption application decisions.

"(E)(i) Any person adversely affected by a decision of the Secretary denying or granting an exemption pursuant to this paragraph may, not later than 30 days after publication of the notice of such decision, file a petition of review of such decision in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. Such court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review such decision, in accordance with section 706(2) (A) through (D) of title 5, of the United States Code, and to affirm, remand, or set aside the decision of the Secretary.

"(ii) Any such proceeding shall be assigned for a hearing and completed at the earliest possible date and shall be expedited in every possible way by such court. The court shall render its decision in any such proceeding within 60 days after the date of filing the petition for review unless the court determines that a longer period of time is necessary to satisfy the requirements of the Constitution of the United States.

USC prec. title 1.
Review by Supreme Court.

"(iii) The judgment of the court affirming, remanding, or setting aside, in whole or in part, any such decision shall be final, subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari or certification as provided in section 1254 of title 28 of the United States Code. Application therefor shall be made within 30 days after entry of such judgment.

"(iv) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a decision of the Secretary on an exemption pursuant to this paragraph shall not be subject to judicial or administrative review except as provided in this paragraph.

15 USC 2002.
Post, p. 1826.

"(F) Notwithstanding section 502(l), in the case of any model year for which an exemption under this subsection is effective for any manufacturer—

"(i) no credit may be earned under section 502(l)(1)(B) by the manufacturer; and

"(ii) no credit may be made available under section 502(l)(1)(C) for the manufacturer.".

(2) Section 512 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2012) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Annual joint examination and report to Congress.
15 USC 2003.

"(c)(1) After an exemption has been granted under section 503(b)(3), the Secretary and the Secretary of Labor shall annually conduct a joint examination of the extent to which the amendment made to section 503(b) by section 4(a)(1) of the Automobile Fuel Efficiency Act of 1980—

"(A) achieves the purposes of that Act and this title, including whether such amendment has promoted employment in the United States related to motor vehicle manufacturing,

"(B) has not caused undue harm to the motor vehicle manufacturing sector in the United States, and

"(C) has permitted any manufacturer that has assembled passenger automobiles which are considered domestically manufactured under section 503(b)(2)(E) to thereafter assemble in the United States passenger automobiles of the same model type which have less than 75 percent of their value added in the United States or Canada, together with the reasons for such action.

"(2) The Secretary shall include the results of such examination in each annual report that is made to the Congress under subsection (a) more than 180 days after an exemption has been granted under section 503(b)(3) of this subsection, or transmit the results of such examination directly to the Congress before such a report in any case in which circumstances so warrant.".

Manufacturer's production plan.

(b) TRANSITION PROVISIONS FOR CERTAIN NEW DOMESTIC PRODUCTION.—Section 503(b) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2003(b)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4)(A) If a plan has been submitted by a manufacturer and approved by the Secretary under subparagraph (B), the EPA Administrator shall for each of the four model years covered by such plan include under paragraph (1)(A) (and exclude under paragraph (1)(B)) with respect to that manufacturer not more than 150,000 passenger automobiles which are manufactured by that manufacturer but which do not qualify as domestically manufactured if—

"(i) the model type or types involved have not previously been domestically manufactured;

"(ii) at least 50 percent of the cost to the manufacturer of each such automobile is attributable to value added in the United States or Canada;

"(iii) in the case of any such automobile the assembly of which is completed in Canada, that automobile is imported into the United States not later than 30 days following the end of the model year involved; and

"(iv) such automobile model type or types are domestically manufactured before the close of the fourth model year covered by such plan.

"(B)(i) A manufacturer may submit to the Secretary for approval a plan, including supporting material, which shall set forth the actions, and the dates by which such actions are to be taken, which will assure that the automobile model type or types referred to in subparagraph (A) will be domestically manufactured before the end of the fourth model year covered by such plan.

"(ii) The Secretary shall promptly consider and act upon any plan submitted under this subparagraph. The Secretary shall approve any such plan unless—

"(I) the Secretary finds that the plan is inadequate to meet the requirements of this paragraph, or

"(II) the manufacturer has previously submitted a plan which has been approved by the Secretary under this paragraph.

"(C) This paragraph shall only apply with respect to model years beginning after model year 1980.".

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—(1) Section 501(8) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2001(8)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Such term also includes any predecessor or successor of such a manufacturer to the extent provided under rules which the Secretary shall prescribe.".

(2) Section 503(b)(1) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2003(b)(1)) is amended—

(A) in subparagraph (A), by inserting "and passenger automobiles which are included within this category pursuant to paragraph (3)" after "manufactured by such manufacturer"; and

(B) in subparagraph (B), by inserting "and which are not included in the domestic category pursuant to paragraph (3)" after "manufactured by such manufacturer".

(3) Section 503(b)(2)(F) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2003(b)(2)) is amended by striking out "or 1979," and inserting in lieu thereof "or any subsequent model year,".

SEC. 5. ADJUSTMENTS REGARDING STANDARDS FOR 4-WHEEL DRIVE, LIGHT-DUTY TRUCKS.

Section 502 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2002), as amended, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Average fuel economy standards, impact examinations.

"(k)(1) On the petition of any manufacturer for any model year beginning after model year 1981 and before model year 1986, the Secretary may conduct an examination of the impacts on that manufacturer or a class of manufacturers of any standard under subsection (b) applicable to 4-wheel drive automobiles. If after consideration of the results of that examination the Secretary finds in accordance with paragraph (2) that the manufacturer has demonstrated that such manufacturer or class of manufacturers would not otherwise be able to comply with such standard for that model year as it applies to 4-wheel drive automobiles without causing severe economic impacts, such as plant closures or reduction in employment in the United States related to motor vehicle manufacturing, the Secretary shall, by order, make an adjustment or otherwise provide relief regarding—

"(A) the manner by which the average fuel economy of that manufacturer or class of manufacturers is calculated for purposes of that standard as it applies to 4-wheel drive automobiles, or

"(B) other aspects regarding the application of that standard to the manufacturer or class of manufacturers with respect to such automobiles to the extent consistent with the provisions of this title.

"(2) Any finding by the Secretary under paragraph (1) shall be made (A) after notice and a reasonable opportunity for written or oral comment, and (B) after consideration of the benefits available under the amendments made by the Automobile Fuel Efficiency Act of 1980.

Limitation.

"(3) The authority of the Secretary under this subsection to make any adjustment or provide other relief shall not be effective for any model year after model year 1985.

Notification of Congress.
15 USC 2012.

"(4) The Secretary shall notify the Congress of any adjustment or other relief provided under this subsection in the first annual report submitted to the Congress under section 512 after the order is issued providing for that adjustment or relief.

Publication in Federal Register.

"(5)(A) Any final decision of the Secretary under this subsection shall be made, and notice thereof published in the Federal Register, not later than 120 days after the date of the petition involved. The Secretary may extend such period to a specified date if the Secretary publishes notice thereof in the Federal Register, together with the reasons for such extension. Any such decision by the Secretary shall become final 30 days after the publication of the notice of final decision unless a petition for judicial review is filed under subparagraph (B).

Review.

"(B) Any person adversely affected by such a decision may, not later than 30 days after publication of notice of such decision, file a petition for review of such decision with the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia or for the circuit in which such person resides, or in which the principal place of business of such person is located. The United States court of appeals involved shall have jurisdiction to review such decision in accordance with section 706(2) (A) through (D) of title 5, United States Code, and to affirm, remand, or set aside the decision of the Secretary. Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, section 504 (c) and (d) shall apply to such review to the same extent and manner as it applies with respect to review of any rule prescribed under this section or section 501, 503, or 506.

15 USC 2004.

15 USC 2001, 2003, 2006.

"(6) The availability of any adjustment or other relief under this subsection shall not be taken into account in prescribing standards under subsection (b).".

SEC. 6. DETERMINATIONS OF UNLAWFUL CONDUCT; 3-YEAR CARRYFORWARD AND CARRYBACK.

(a) UNLAWFUL CONDUCT.—Section 507 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2007) is amended—

(1) by striking out "The" and inserting in lieu thereof "(a) Subject to subsection (b), the"; and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(b) A manufacturer shall not be considered to have engaged in unlawful conduct, or to have failed to comply with any fuel economy standard applicable to such manufacturer under section 502, if the average fuel economy of such manufacturer, after taking into account the credits then available to the manufacturer under section 502(l), would result in the applicable standard being met or exceeded.".

15 USC 2002.

(b) 3-YEAR CARRYFORWARD AND CARRYBACK OF CREDITS.—Section 502 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2002), as amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(l)(1)(A) For purposes of this part, credits under this subsection shall be considered to be available to any manufacturer upon the completion of the model year in which such credits are earned under subparagraph (B) unless under subparagraph (C) the credits are made available for use at a time prior to the model year in which earned.

"(B) Whenever the average fuel economy of the passenger automobiles manufactured by a manufacturer in a particular model year exceeds an applicable average fuel economy standard established under subsection (a) or (c) (determined by the Secretary without regard to any adjustment under subsection (d) or any credit under this subsection), such manufacturer shall be entitled to a credit, calculated under subparagraph (C), which—

"(i) shall be available to be taken into account with respect to the average fuel economy of that manufacturer for any of the three consecutive model years immediately prior to the model year in which such manufacturer exceeds such applicable average fuel economy standard, and

"(ii) to the extent that such credit is not so taken into account pursuant to clause (i), shall be available to be taken into account with respect to the average fuel economy of that manufacturer for any of the three consecutive model years immediately following the model year in which such manufacturer exceeds such applicable average fuel economy standard.

Manufacturer's plan, submittal.

"(C)(i) At any time prior to the end of any model year, a manufacturer which has reason to believe that its average fuel economy for passenger automobiles will be below such applicable standard for that model year may submit a plan demonstrating that such manufacturer will earn sufficient credits under subparagraph (B) within the next 3 model years which when taken into account would allow the manufacturer to meet that standard for the model year involved.

"(ii) Such credits shall be available for the model year involved subject to—

"(I) the Secretary approving such plan; and

"(II) the manufacturer earning such credits in accordance with such plan.

"(iii) The Secretary shall approve any such plan unless the Secretary finds that it is unlikely that the plan will result in the manufacturer earning sufficient credits to allow the manufacturer to meet the standard for the model year involved.

Substandard average fuel economy, notice.

"(iv) The Secretary shall provide notice to any manufacturer in any case in which the average fuel economy of that manufacturer is below the applicable standard under subsection (a) or (c), after taking into account credits available under subparagraph (B)(i), and afford the manufacturer a reasonable period (of not less than 60 days) in which to submit a plan under this subparagraph.

"(D) The amount of credit to which a manufacturer is entitled under this paragraph shall be equal to—

"(i) the number of tenths of a mile per gallon by which the average fuel economy of the passenger automobiles manufactured by such manufacturer in the model year in which the credit is earned pursuant to this paragraph exceeds the applicable average fuel economy standard established under subsection (a) or (c), multiplied by

"(ii) the total number of passenger automobiles manufactured by such manufacturer during such model year.

"(E) The Secretary shall take credits into account for any model year on the basis of the number of tenths of a mile per gallon by which the manufacturer involved was below the applicable average fuel economy standard for that model year and the volume of passenger automobiles manufactured that model year by the manufacturer. Credits once taken into account for any model year shall not thereafter be available for any other model year. Prior to taking any credit into account, the Secretary shall provide the manufacturer involved with written notice and reasonable opportunity to comment thereon.

Notice

"(2) Credits for manufacturers of automobiles which are not passenger automobiles shall be earned and be available to be taken into account for model years in which the average fuel economy of such class of automobiles is below the applicable average fuel economy standard established under subsection (b) to the same extent and in the same manner as provided for under paragraph (1). Not later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this subsection, the Secretary shall prescribe regulations to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

Regulations.

Civil penalties, refunds.
15 USC 2008.

"(3) Whenever a civil penalty has been assessed and collected under section 508 from a manufacturer who is entitled to a credit under this subsection, the Secretary of the Treasury shall refund to such manufacturer the amount of the civil penalty so collected to the extent that penalty is attributable to credits available under this subsection.

Rules.

"(4) The Secretary may prescribe rules for purposes of carrying out the provisions of this subsection.".

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—(1) Subsections (a) and (b) of section 508 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2008) are each amended by striking out "507(1)", "507(2)", "507(3)", and "507 (1) or (2)" each place such terms appear and inserting in lieu thereof "507(a)(1)", "507(a)(2)", "507(a)(3)", and "507(a) (1) or (2)", respectively.

(2) Section 508(a) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2008(a)) is amended by striking out paragraph (3).

(3) Subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 508(b)(1) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2008) are each amended—

(A) by striking out "(i) $5 for each tenth" and inserting in lieu thereof "the amount obtained by multiplying $5 by (i) the number of tenths";

(B) by striking out "by (ii) the total" and inserting in lieu thereof "by the"; and

Ante, p. 1826.

(C) by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof ", reduced by (ii) the credits then available under section 502(l) for such model year".

(4) Section 508(d) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2008(d)) is amended by striking out paragraph (4).

15 USC 2002 note.

(d) Effective Date.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of Transportation shall prescribe, the amendments made by this section shall apply to the 3 model years preceding the model year during which this Act is enacted.

SEC. 7. EXEMPTION FOR EMERGENCY VEHICLES.

Section 502 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2002) is amended by redesignating subsection (g) and the following two subsections as subsections (h), (i), and (j), respectively, and by inserting after subsection (f) the following new subsection:

Notice.

"(g)(1) At the election of any manufacturer, the fuel economy of any emergency vehicle shall not be taken into account in applying any fuel economy standard prescribed by or under subsection (a), (b), or (c). Any manufacturer electing to have the provisions of this subsection shall provide written notice of that election to the Secretary and to the Environmental Protection Agency Administrator.

"Emergency vehicle."

"(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term 'emergency vehicle' means any automobile manufactured primarily for use—

"(A) as an ambulance or combination ambulance-hearse,

"(B) by the United States or by a State or local government for police or other law enforcement purposes, or

"(C) for other emergency uses prescribed by the Secretary of Transportation by regulation.".

SEC. 8. TECHNICAL, CLERICAL, AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.

(a)(1) The table of contents for such Act is amended by striking out the item relating to part A.

(2) Section 2 of such Act (15 U.S.C. 1901) is amended by striking out "except part A of title V" and inserting in lieu thereof "except title V".

(3) Title V of such Act is amended by striking out the designation relating to part A.

(b) Section 501(9) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2001(9)) is amended by striking out "manufacturer" and inserting in lieu thereof "manufacture".

(c) Section 502(b) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2002(b)) is amended by striking out "and shall be" and inserting in lieu thereof "and such standards shall be".

(d) Section 502(d)(3)(E) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2002(d)(3)(E)) is amended by striking out "subparagraph," and inserting in lieu thereof "subsection,".

(e) Section 503(b)(2)(A)(ii)(I) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2003(b)(2)(A)(ii)(I)) is amended by striking out "base" the last place it appears.

(f) Section 508(b)(1)(A) of such Act (15 U.S.C. 2008(b)(1)(A)) is amended by inserting before ", shall be" the following "with respect to any model year".

SEC. 9. EFFECTIVE DATE.

15 USC 2001 note.

Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the amendments made by this Act shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act.

An Act

To amend chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, to increase the amounts of regular and optional group life insurance available to Federal employees and provide optional life insurance on family members, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7666]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SHORT TITLE

Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Act of 1980.
5 USC 8701 note.

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the "Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Act of 1980".

REGULAR GROUP INSURANCE PAYMENTS

SEC. 2. (a) Section 8701 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in the section heading, by striking out "Definition" and inserting in lieu thereof "Definitions"; and

(2) by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"Basic insurance amount."

"(c) For the purpose of this chapter, 'basic insurance amount' means, in the case of any employee under this chapter, an amount equal to the greater of—

"(1) the annual rate of basic pay payable to the employee, rounded to the next higher multiple of $1,000, plus $2,000, or except that the amount of insurance may not exceed the annual rate of basic pay payable for positions at level II of the Executive Schedule under section 5313 of this title, rounded to the next higher multiple of $1,000, plus $2,000. In the case of any former employee entitled to coverage under this chapter, the term means the basic insurance amount applicable for the employee at the time the insurance to which the employee is entitled as an employee under this chapter stops pursuant to section 8706(a) of this title.".

"(2) $10,000,

5 USC 5313.
5 USC 8706.

(b) Section 8704(a) of title 5 is amended to read as follows:

"(a) An employee eligible for insurance is entitled to be insured for an amount of group life insurance equal to—

"(1) the employee's basic insurance amount, multiplied by

"(2) the appropriate factor determined on the basis of the employee's age in accordance with the following schedule:

"If the age of the employee is:	The appropriate factor is:
35 or under	2.0
36	1.9
37	1.8
38	1.7
39	1.6
40	1.5
41	1.4
42	1.3
43	1.2
44	1.1
45 or over	1.0.".

(c) Section 8704(b) of title 5 is amended—

(1) by inserting before "Subject to" the following new sentence: "An employee eligible for insurance is entitled to be insured for group accidental death and dismemberment insurance in accordance with this subsection.";

(2) in the table, by striking out "shown in the schedule in subsection (a) of this section" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "of the employee's basic insurance amount"; and

(3) in the last sentence, by striking out "the amount shown in the schedule in subsection (a) of this section" and inserting in lieu thereof "an amount equal to the employee's basic insurance amount.".

"Annual pay."

(d) Section 8704(c) of title 5 is amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For the purpose of this chapter, 'annual pay' includes—

5 USC 5545.

"(1) premium pay under section 5545(c)(1) of this title; and

5 USC 8331.

"(2) with respect to a law enforcement officer as defined in section 8331(20) of this title, premium pay under section 5545(c)(2) of this title.".

5 USC 5545.

(e) The item relating to section 8701 in the table of sections for chapter 87 of title 5 is amended by striking out "Definition" and inserting in lieu thereof "Definitions".

Effective date.
5 USC 8704 note.

(f) Subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall take effect beginning with the first pay period beginning on or after October 1, 1981.

CONTINUATION OF REGULAR GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

Sec. 3. (a) Section 8706(b) of title 5, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) In the case of any employee who retires on an immediate annuity and has been insured under this chapter throughout—

"(A) the 5 years of service immediately preceding the date of the employee's retirement, or

"(B) the full period or periods of service during which the employee was entitled to be insured, if fewer than 5 years, life insurance, without accidental death and dismemberment insurance, may be continued, under conditions determined by the Office.

5 USC 8101.

"(2) In the case of any employee who becomes entitled to receive compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee and has been insured under this chapter throughout—

"(A) the 5 years of service immediately preceding the date the employee becomes entitled to compensation, or

"(B) the full period or periods of service during which the employee was entitled to be insured, if fewer than 5 years, life insurance, without accidental death and dismemberment insurance, may be continued, under conditions determined by the Office, during the period the employee is receiving compensation and is held by the Secretary of Labor or the Secretary's delegate to be unable to return to duty.

"(3) The amount of life insurance continued under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection shall be continued, with or without reduction, at the end of each full calendar month after the date the employee becomes 65 years of age and is retired or is receiving compensation for disease or injury, in accordance with the employee's written election at the time eligibility to continue insurance during retirement or receipt of compensation arises, as follows:

"(A) the employee may elect to have the deductions required by section 8707 of this title withheld from annuity or compensation, and the employee's life insurance shall be reduced each month by 2 percent of the face value until 25 percent of the amount of life insurance in force before the first reduction remains; or 5 USC 8707.

"(B) in addition to any deductions which would be required if the insurance were continued as provided under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the employee may elect continuous withholdings from annuity or compensation in amounts determined by the Office, and the employee's life insurance coverage shall be either continued without reduction or reduced each month by no more than 1 percent of its face value until no less than 50 percent of the amount of insurance in force before the first reduction remains.

"(4) If an employee elects to continue insurance under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of this subsection at the time eligibility to continue insurance during retirement or receipt of compensation for disease or injury arises, the individual may later cancel that election and life insurance coverage shall continue as if the individual had originally elected coverage under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of this subsection.".

EMPLOYEE DEDUCTIONS; WITHHOLDING

SEC. 4. (a) Section 8707 of title 5, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 8707. Employee deductions; withholding 5 USC 8707.

"(a) During each period in which an employee is insured under a policy purchased by the Office of Personnel Management under section 8709 of this title, there shall be withheld from the employee's pay a share of the cost of the group life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment insurance. 5 USC 8709.

"(b)(1) Whenever life insurance continues after an employee retires on an immediate annuity or while the employee is receiving compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee, as provided in section 8706(b) of this title, deductions for insurance shall be withheld from the employee's annuity or compensation, except that, in any case in which the insurance is continued as provided in section 8706(b)(3)(A) of this title, the deductions shall not be made for months after the calendar month in which the employee becomes 65 years of age. 5 USC 8101. 5 USC 8706.

"(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, insurance shall be so continued without cost (other than as provided under section 8706(b)(3)(B)) to each employee who so retires, or commences receiving compensation, on or before December 31, 1989.

"(c) The amount withheld from the pay, annuity, or compensation of each employee subject to insurance deductions shall be at the rate, adjusted to the nearest half-cent, of 66⅔ percent of the level cost as determined by the Office for each $1,000 of the employee's basic insurance amount.

"(d) If an agency fails to withhold the proper amount of life insurance deductions from an individual's salary, compensation, or retirement annuity, the collection of unpaid deductions may be waived by the agency if, in the judgment of the agency, the individual is without fault and recovery would be against equity and good conscience. However, if the agency so waives the collection of unpaid deductions, the agency shall submit an amount equal to the sum of Waiver.

5 USC 8708.

the uncollected deductions and related agency contributions required under section 8708 of this title to the Office for deposit to the Employees' Life Insurance Fund.".

PREEMPTION

SEC. 5. (a) Section 8709 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d)(1) The provisions of any contract under this chapter which relate to the nature or extent of coverage or benefits (including payments with respect to benefits) shall supersede and preempt any law of any State or political subdivision thereof, or any regulation issued thereunder, which relates to group life insurance to the extent that the law or regulation is inconsistent with the contractual provisions.

"State."

"(2) For the purpose of this section, 'State' means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and a territory or possession of the United States.".

CONTINUATION OF REGULAR OPTIONAL INSURANCE

SEC. 6. (a) Section 8714a(c)(2)(C) of title 5, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(C) The amount of optional life insurance continued under subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B) of this paragraph shall be reduced by 2 percent at the end of each full calendar month after the date the employee becomes 65 years of age and is retired or is receiving compensation for disease or injury. The Office shall prescribe minimum amounts, not less than 25 percent of the amount of life insurance in force before the first reduction, to which the insurance may be reduced.".

(b) Section 8714a(d) of title 5 is amended by inserting "(1)" after "(d)" and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Waiver.

"(2) If an agency fails to withhold the proper cost of optional insurance from an individual's salary, compensation, or retirement annuity, the collection of amounts properly due may be waived by the agency if, in the judgment of the agency, the individual is without fault and recovery would be against equity and good conscience. However, if the agency so waives the collection of any unpaid amount, the agency shall submit an amount equal to the uncollected amount to the Office for deposit to the Employees' Life Insurance Fund.".

ADDITIONAL OPTIONAL LIFE INSURANCE

SEC. 7. (a) Chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, is further amended by inserting after section 8714a the following new section:

5 USC 8714b.

"§ 8714b. Additional optional life insurance

5 USC 8709–8712.

5 USC 8702.

5 USC 8714a.

"(a) Under the conditions, directives, and terms specified in sections 8709 through 8712 of this title, the Office of Personnel Management, without regard to section 5 of title 41, may purchase a policy which shall make available to each employee insured under section 8702 of this title amounts of additional optional life insurance (without accidental death and dismemberment insurance). An employee may elect coverage under this section without regard to whether the employee has elected coverage under optional insurance available under section 8714a of this title.

"(b) The additional optional insurance provided under this section shall be made available to each eligible employee who has elected coverage under this section, under conditions the Office shall prescribe, in multiples, at the employee's election, of 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5 times the annual rate of basic pay payable to the employee (rounded to the next higher multiple of $1,000) except that coverage may not exceed an amount equal to 5 times the annual rate of basic pay payable for positions at level II of the Executive Schedule under section 5313 of this title (rounded to the next higher multiple of $1,000). An employee may reduce or stop coverage elected pursuant to this section at any time. 5 USC 5313.

"(c)(1) The additional optional insurance elected by an employee pursuant to this section shall stop on separation from service, 12 months after discontinuance of pay, or on entry on active military duty or active duty for training, subject to provision for a 31-day temporary extension of insurance coverage and for conversion to an individual policy, as provided in sections 8706(a) and 8706(c) of this title. 5 USC 8706.

"(2) In the case of any employee who retires on an immediate annuity or who becomes entitled to receive compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee, so much of the additional optional insurance as has been in force for not less than— 5 USC 8101.

"(A) the 5 years of service immediately preceding the date of retirement or entitlement to compensation, or

"(B) the full period or periods of service during which the insurance was available to the employee, if fewer than 5 years, may be continued under conditions determined by the Office after retirement or while the employee is receiving compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title and is held by the Secretary of Labor (or the Secretary's delegate) to be unable to return to duty. The amount of insurance continued under this paragraph shall be reduced each month by 2 percent effective at the beginning of the second calendar month after the date the employee becomes 65 years of age and is retired or is in receipt of compensation. The reduction shall continue for 50 months at which time the insurance stops.

"(d)(1) During each period in which the additional optional insurance is in force on an employee the full cost thereof shall be withheld from the employee's pay. During each period in which an employee continues additional optional insurance after retirement or while in receipt of compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the full cost thereof shall be withheld from the former employee's annuity or compensation, except that, beginning at the end of the calendar month in which the former employee becomes 65 years of age, the additional optional life insurance shall be without cost to the former employee. Amounts so withheld shall be deposited, used, and invested as provided in section 8714 of this title and shall be reported and accounted for together with amounts withheld under section 8714a(d) of this title. 5 USC 8714.

"(2) If an agency fails to withhold the proper cost of additional optional insurance from an individual's salary, compensation, or retirement annuity, the collection of amounts properly due may be waived by the agency if, in the judgment of the agency, the individual is without fault and recovery would be against equity and good conscience. However, if the agency so waives the collection of any unpaid amount, the agency shall submit an amount equal to the Waiver.

uncollected amount to the Office for deposit to the Employees' Life Insurance Fund.

"(e) The cost of the additional optional insurance shall be determined from time to time by the Office on the basis of the employee's age relative to such age groups as the Office establishes under section 8714a(e) of this title. 5 USC 8714a.

"(f) The amount of additional optional life insurance in force on an employee at the date of his death shall be paid as provided in section 8705 of this title.". 5 USC 8705.

(b) The table of sections for chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 8714a the following new item:

"8714b. Additional optional life insurance.".

OPTIONAL LIFE INSURANCE ON FAMILY MEMBERS

SEC. 8. (a) Chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, is further amended by inserting after section 8714b (as added by section 7 of this Act) the following new section:

5 USC 8714c.

"§ 8714c. Optional life insurance on family members

"(a) Under the conditions, directives, and terms specified in sections 8709 through 8712 of this title, the Office of Personnel Management, without regard to section 5 of title 41, may purchase a policy which shall make available to each employee insured under section 8702 of this title amounts of optional life insurance (without accidental death and dismemberment insurance) on the employee's family members. 5 USC 8709–8712. 5 USC 8702.

"(b) The optional life insurance on family members provided under this section shall be made available to each eligible employee who elects coverage under this section, under conditions the Office shall prescribe, in the amount of $5,000 for a spouse and $2,500 for each child described in section 8701(d). The employee may stop coverage elected under this section at any time. 5 USC 8701.

"(c)(1) Optional life insurance on family members shall stop at the earlier of the employee's death, the employee's separation from the service, 12 months after discontinuance of pay, or the employee's entry on active duty or active duty for training, as provided in sections 8706(a) and 8706(c) of this title, subject to provision for a 31-day temporary extension of insurance coverage and for conversion to individual policies under conditions approved by the Office. 5 USC 8706.

"(2) In the case of any employee who retires on an immediate annuity or who becomes entitled to receive compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee and who has had in force insurance under this section for no less than— 5 USC 8101.

"(A) the 5 years of service immediately preceding the date of retirement or entitlement to compensation, or

"(B) the full period or periods of service during which the insurance was available to the employee, if fewer than 5 years, optional life insurance on family members may be continued under the same conditions as provided in section 8714b(c)(2) of this title. Ante, p. 1834.

"(d)(1) During each period in which the optional life insurance on family members is in force the full cost thereof shall be withheld from the employee's pay. During each period in which an employee continues optional life insurance on family members after retirement or while in receipt of compensation under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title because of disease or injury to the employee, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the full cost shall be withheld from the annuity or compensation, except that, beginning at the end of the calendar month in which the former employee becomes 65 years of age, the optional life insurance on family members shall be without cost to the employee. Amounts so withheld shall be deposited, used, and invested as provided in section 8714 of this title and shall be reported and accounted for together with amounts withheld under section 8714a(d) of this title.

5 USC 8714.

5 USC 8714a.

Waiver.

"(2) If an agency fails to withhold the proper cost of optional life insurance on family members from an individual's salary, compensation, or retirement annuity, the collection of amounts properly due may be waived by the agency if, in the judgment of the agency, the individual is without fault and recovery would be against equity and good conscience. However, if the agency so waives the collection of any unpaid amount, the agency shall submit an amount equal to the uncollected amount to the Office for deposit to the Employees' Life Insurance Fund.

"(e) The cost of the optional life insurance on family members shall be determined from time to time by the Office on the basis of the employee's age relative to such age groups as the Office establishes under section 8714a(e) of this title.

"(f) The amount of optional life insurance which is in force under this section on a family member of an employee or former employee on the date of the death of the family member shall be paid, on the establishment of a valid claim by the employee, to such employee or, in the event of the death of the employee before payment can be made, to the person or persons entitled to the group life insurance in force on the employee under section 8705 of this title.".

5 USC 8705.

Ante, p. 1831.

(b) Section 8701 of title 5 is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"Family member."

"(d)(1) For the purpose of this chapter, 'family member', when used with respect to any individual, means—

"(A) the spouse of the individual; and

"(B) an unmarried dependent child of the individual (other than a stillborn child), including an adopted child, stepchild (but only if the stepchild lived with the individual in a regular parent-child relationship), or recognized natural child—

"(i) who is less than 22 years of age, or

"(ii) who is 22 years of age or older and is incapable of self-support because of a mental or physical disability which existed before the child became 22 years of age.

"Dependent."

"(2) For the purpose of this subsection, 'dependent', in the case of any child, means that the individual involved was, at the time of the child's death, either living with or contributing to the support of the child, as determined in accordance with the regulations the Office shall prescribe.".

(c) The table of sections for chapter 87 of such title 5 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 8714b (as added by section 7 of this Act) the following new item:

"8714c. Optional life insurance on family members.".

REPEAL OF SECTION 8713 OF TITLE 5

SEC. 9. (a) Section 8713 of title 5, United States Code, is repealed.

(b) The table of sections for chapter 87 of title 5 is amended by striking out the item relating to section 8713.

EFFECTIVE DATES

5 USC 8701 note.

SEC. 10. (a) Unless otherwise specified, this Act shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act and shall have no effect in the case of an employee who died, was separated, or retired before the date of enactment.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (d) of section 2 of this Act shall apply with respect to premium pay payable under section 5545(c)(2) of title 5, United States Code, from and after the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(c) The amendments made by section 3 of this Act shall apply only in the case of an employee who retires or becomes entitled to receive compensation for work injury on or after the 180th day following the date of the enactment of this Act, or any earlier date that the Office of Personnel Management may prescribe which is at least 60 days after the date of enactment.

(d) The amendments made by sections 7 and 8 of this Act shall take effect on the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after the 180th day following the date of the enactment of this Act, or on any earlier date that the Office may prescribe which is at least 60 days after the date of enactment, and shall have no effect in the case of an employee who died, was finally separated, or retired before the effective date.

AVAILABILITY OF CERTAIN FUNDS IN EMPLOYEES' LIFE INSURANCE FUND

5 USC 8714a note.

Public Law 96-428
96th Congress

An Act

To establish the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in the State of Georgia, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7218]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) in order to protect and interpret for the benefit, inspiration, and education of present and future generations the places where Martin Luther King, Junior, was born, where he lived, worked, and worshipped, and where he is buried, there is hereby established the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in the State of Georgia. The national historic site shall consist of that real property in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, within the boundary generally depicted on the map entitled "Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site Boundary Map", numbered NASM/SERO/20, 109–C, and dated May 1980, together with the property known as 234 Sunset Avenue, Northwest. The map referred to in this subsection shall be on file and available for public inspection in the local and Washington, District of Columbia offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site. Establishment. 16 USC 461 note.

(b) In furtherance of the purposes of this Act, there is hereby established the Martin Luther King, Junior, Preservation District, which shall consist of the area identified as "Preservation District" in the map referred to in subsection (a) of this section.

Preservation District.

Sec. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter referred to as "the Secretary") shall administer the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site and Preservation District in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the provisions of law generally applicable to national historic sites, including the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U.S.C. 1, 2–4) and the Act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 666; 16 U.S.C. 461-7).

Administration.

16 USC 461-467.

(b)(1) Within the national historic site the Secretary is authorized to acquire by donation, purchase with donated or appropriated funds, transfer, or exchange, lands and interests therein, except that property owned by the State of Georgia or any political subdivision thereof may be acquired only by donation.

Lands and interests, acquisition.

(2) Notwithstanding the acquisition authority contained in paragraph (1), any lands or interests therein which are owned wholly or in part, by the widow of Martin Luther King, Junior, or by the Martin Luther King, Junior, Center for Social Change, shall be acquired only with the consent of the owner thereof, except that—

Exceptions.

(A) the Secretary may acquire such property in accordance with the provisions of this section if he determines that the property is undergoing or is about to undergo a change in use which is inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, and

(B) with respect to properties owned by the Center for Social Change, the Secretary shall have the first right of refusal to purchase such property for a purchase price not exceeding the fair market value of such property on the date it is offered for sale.

(3) Property may be acquired pursuant to this section subject to such conditions and reservations as in the judgment of the Secretary are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act and the administration of the national historic site, including, in the event that the burial site of Martin Luther King, Junior, is acquired, the condition that his widow may be interred therein.

Parcel A property, conveyance to Interior Dept.

(4) Any and all legal or equitable title, interests, or encumbrances, if any, held by the Department of Housing and Urban Development in the property designated "Parcel A" on the map referenced in section one are hereby conveyed to the Secretary to be administered in accordance with the purposes of this Act.

(5) Structural space requirements of the National Park Service to meet its administrative, operational, and interpretive functions for the national historic site and preservation district shall, to the maximum extent feasible without displacing residents, be met within the district through the adaptive use of existing structures.

Freehold or leasehold property interest, conveyance.

SEC. 3. (a) Within the national historic site, the Secretary may convey a freehold or leasehold interest in any property, for such sums as he deems appropriate, and subject to such terms and conditions and reservations as will assure the use of the property in a manner which is, in the judgment of the Secretary, consistent with the purposes of this Act and the administration of the national historic site. The Secretary shall offer the last owner or tenant of record a reasonable opportunity to purchase or lease, as appropriate, the property proposed to be conveyed prior to any conveyance under this subsection, and in the case of a lease to such tenant of record, the initial rental charge shall not be substantially more than the last rent paid by the tenant for that property, with any future increases not to exceed the general escalation of rental rates in the surrounding area.

Cooperative agreements with property owners.

(b) The Secretary may enter into cooperative agreements with the owners of properties of historical or cultural significance as determined by the Secretary, pursuant to which the Secretary may mark, interpret, improve, restore, and provide technical assistance with respect to the preservation and interpretation of such properties. Such agreements shall contain, but need not be limited to, provisions that the Secretary shall have the right of access at reasonable times to public portions of the property for interpretive and other purposes, and that no changes or alterations shall be made in the property except by mutual agreement. The authorities in this subsection shall also be available to the Secretary with respect to properties within the Martin Luther King, Junior, Preservation District.

Property improvement and restoration, funds.

(c) The Secretary may, in carrying out his authorities with respect to the interpretation of properties within the national historic site and the preservation district, accept the services and assistance, with or without reimbursement therefor, of qualified persons and entities to the extent he deems necessary and appropriate. Funds appropriated for the purposes of this Act may be expended for the improvement, restoration, and maintenance of properties in which the Secretary has acquired a leasehold interest.

Appropriate mementos, concession contract.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary shall give first preference to the Martin Luther King, Junior, Center for Social Change with respect to any contract for a concession to sell books, postcards, tapes, or similar types of appropriate mementos related to the purposes of this Act, on facilities operated and maintained by the Secretary within the historic site: Provided, That agreement can be reached on terms and conditions acceptable to the Secretary.

Ebenezer Baptist Church, maintenance and preservation.

(e) The Secretary is authorized to take only such actions within and upon the grounds of the Ebenezer Baptist Church as will directly support appropriate public visitation to and within the church in accordance with the purposes of this Act, or which will assist in the maintenance or preservation of those portions of said church which are directly related to the purposes of this Act.

Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site Advisory Commission. Establishment.

Membership, terms.

SEC. 4. (a) There is hereby established the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site Advisory Commission (hereinafter referred to in this section as the "Commission"). The Commission shall consist of thirteen members, eleven of whom shall be appointed by the Secretary as follows:

(1) three members appointed for terms of three years from recommendations submitted by the governing body of the Martin Luther King, Junior, Center for Social Change;

(2) two members appointed for terms of four years from recommendations submitted by the Governor of the State of Georgia, one of whom shall have professional expertise in historic preservation matters;

(3) two members appointed for terms of five years from recommendations submitted by the mayor of the city of Atlanta, Georgia, one of whom shall represent the economic and cultural interests of the Sweet Auburn Historic District;

(4) one member appointed for a term of five years from recommendations submitted by the governing body of the Ebenezer Baptist Church;

(5) the Chairman of the Atlanta Urban Design Commission and one additional member from the Commission to be chosen by the Commission; and

(6) one member, appointed for a term of five years by the Secretary, who shall chair the Commission. In addition to the foregoing members, Mrs. Coretta Scott King, or such other appropriate family member as may be designated by the immediate family of Martin Luther King, Junior, and the Director of the National Park Service shall be ex officio members of the Commission.

Compensation.

(b) Any vacancy in the membership of the Commission shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made. Members of the Commission shall serve without compensation as such, but the Secretary may pay expenses of Commission members reasonably incurred by them in carrying out their responsibilities under this section upon presentation of vouchers signed by the chair of the Commission. Necessary administrative services and expenses shall be provided to the Commission by the Department of the Interior.

Administrative services and expenses.

Function.

(c) The function of the Commission shall be to:

(1) advise the Secretary with respect to the formulation and execution of plans for and the overall administration of the national historic site and the preservation district, including advice with respect to the consummation of cooperative agreements, and interpretation of properties, and the use and appreciation of the national historic site and the preservation district by the public;

Generalized impact area plan.

(2) prepare a generalized impact area plan for a one-mile radius outside the District which shall examine overall community development goals, plans, and efforts within that area, including historic preservation, transportation, parking, housing, urban revitalization, and parks and recreation functions, in order to maximize beneficial relationships between these goals, plans, and efforts and the district herein established; and Detailed development plan.

(3) prepare, on the basis of the findings and recommendations of the impact area plan required by the preceding paragraph, a detailed development plan for the neighborhoods and outlying commercial areas immediately outside the district for such development, conservation, preservation, rehabilitation activities and transportation, parking, and land use planning as would complement and enhance the District and the purposes for which the District is established.

Staff and technical assistance, funds.

(d) The Secretary is directed to provide the appropriate planning agency of the city of Atlanta an amount of the local planning funds authorized by section 6 sufficient for that agency to provide such staff and technical assistance to the Advisory Commission as are required for it to develop the plans required by subsection (c) of this section. Such plans, prepared in full coordination with and opportunities for participation by, all relevant public agencies and private groups, shall be delivered to the Secretary in a timely fashion for use in preparing the general management plan for the district.

Termination date.

(e) The Commission shall terminate ten years from the effective date of this Act.

Admission fees.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no fees shall be charged for entrance or admission to the national historic site or the preservation district established by this Act.

Effective date.

SEC. 6. Effective October 1, 1980, there are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, but not to exceed $1,000,000 for development, $100,000 for local planning, and $3,500,000 for the acquisition of lands and interests therein. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, authority to enter into contracts, to incur obligations, or to make payments under this Act shall be effective only to the extent, and in such amounts, as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts.

SEC. 7. (a) In order to better integrate the east and west portions of the Martin Luther King, Junior, Preservation District, the Federal Highway Administration, in cooperation with the Georgia Department of Transportation, is hereby directed to insure that any design and reconstruction of the North Interstate 85 and Interstate 75 Expressway over Auburn and Edgewood Avenues in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and the interchange at Edgewood Avenue, shall minimize the adverse impacts on the preservation district.

(b) In carrying out the provisions of this subsection, the Federal Highway Administration shall require that, where feasible, any major change required for the Auburn Avenue overpass results in a design which permits a wider distance between overpass support structures and the disposition of understructure development rights for appropriate business or recreation uses.

Land use change, review and comment.

(c) Plans for the construction, exterior renovation, or demolition of any structure or change in land use within the preservation district by the National Park Service or any Federal agency must be submitted to the Atlanta Urban Design Commission in a timely fashion for its review and comment.

Management plan, transmittal to congressional committees.

SEC. 8. Within three complete fiscal years from the effective date of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States House of Representatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the United States Senate, a comprehensive general management plan for the historic site and the preservation district consistent with the provisions of this Act and pursuant to the provisions of section 12(b) of the Act of August 18, 1970 (84 Stat. 825), as amended (16 U.S.C. 1a-1 et seq.).

An Act

To provide for the establishment of the Boston African American National Historic Site in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7434]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, Boston African American National Historic Site, establishment.

16 USC 461 note.

TITLE I—BOSTON AFRICAN AMERICAN NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Sec. 101. In order to preserve for the benefit and inspiration of the people of the United States as a national historic site certain historic structures and properties of outstanding national significance located in Boston, Massachusetts, and associated with the creation and development of a free African American community within Beacon Hill prior to the Civil War, the Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to establish the Boston African American National Historic Site, including the African American Meeting House, within the area generally depicted on the map entitled "Boundary Map, Boston African American National Historic Site", numbered BOAF-80,000 and dated March 1980. The map shall be on file and available for public inspection in the offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

Map, public availability.

Sec. 102. At such time as the Secretary determines that sufficient properties within the boundary of the site are the subject of cooperative agreements pursuant to section 103, he may establish the area as the Boston African American National Historic Site. Pending such establishment and thereafter, the site shall be administered by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the provisions of law generally applicable to the administration of national historic sites, including the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U.S.C. 1, 2-4) and the Act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 666; 16 U.S.C. 461-467).

Administration.

Sec. 103. The Secretary may accept any gift or bequest of any property depicted on the map referred to in the first section of this Act, and he is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the city of Boston, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or any of their political subdivisions, or any private person or organization, including the Beacon Hill Architectural Commission, to mark, interpret, restore, provide technical assistance, or any combination thereof, and for such other activities as may be necessary for the preservation of any properties depicted on such map. Cooperative agreements shall contain, but need not be limited to, provisions that (1) the Secretary, through the National Park Service, or some appropriate private group contracted to the National Park Service for this purpose, shall have the right at all reasonable times to interpret the exterior of the properties, and such portions of the interior as have been mutually agreed upon, and (2) no changes or alterations shall be made in such properties except by mutual agreement between the Secretary and the other parties to such agreements. The agreements may contain specific provisions which outline in detail the extent of the participation by the Secretary in the restoration, preservation, or maintenance of such historic properties. The Secretary is authorized in his discretion to assist with maintenance directly related to public visitation of those properties covered by cooperative agreements consummated pursuant to this Act. No funds may be expended on a property until after the Secretary determines that there is applicable to that property a binding written cooperative agreement which remains in force and effect assuring the preservation and historical integrity of such property. If any fees are charged for the use of a property covered by a cooperative agreement, and Federal funds are committed in the cooperative agreements, the income from such fees shall be applied to the costs of maintenance and renovation of that property. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no Federal fees shall be charged for entrance or admission to the historic site.

Gifts or bequests, cooperative agreements.

Fees.

Site identification.

SEC. 104. The Secretary, in cooperation with other interested groups, may identify other significant sites relating to the nineteenth century free African American community on Beacon Hill, Boston, which are related to the historic site authorized by this Act, and, with the consent of the owners thereof, may mark them appropriately and make reference to them in any interpretive literature.

Management plan, submittal to congressional committees.

SEC. 105. Within three complete fiscal years from the effective date of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States House of Representatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the United States Senate, a comprehensive general management plan for the historic site, pursuant to the provisions of section 12(b) of the Act of August 18, 1970 (84 Stat. 825; 16 U.S.C. 1a-1 et seq.).

Appropriation authorization.

SEC. 106. Effective on October 1, 1981, there are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, authority to enter into contracts, to incur obligations, or to make payments under this Act shall be effective only to the extent, and in such amounts, as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts.

National Center for the Study of Afro-American History and Culture Act. 20 USC 3701 note.

TITLE II—NATIONAL CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORY AND CULTURE

SEC. 201. This title may be cited as the "National Center for the Study of Afro-American History and Culture Act".

Commission. 20 USC 3701.

SEC. 202. (a) There is established a commission to be known as the National Afro-American History and Culture Commission (hereinafter in this title referred to as the "Commission") which shall be composed of fifteen members, as specified in section 203 of this title.

Duties.

Plan, submittal to President and Congress.

(b) The Commission shall have the following duties:

(1) The Commission shall be responsible for the development of a definitive plan for the construction and operation of the National Center for the Study of Afro-American History and Culture and shall submit the plan, together with any recommendations for additional legislation, to the President of the United States and the Congress not later than twenty-four months after the date of the enactment of this title. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, identification of—

(A) the main objectives to be achieved by the establishment, development, and operation of the National Center for the Study of Afro-American History and Culture;

(B) the types of uses, both public and private, to be accommodated by such a center;

(C) the criteria and recommendations for the design and appearance of such a center;

(D) the proposed ownership and operation of the center;

(E) the criteria and recommendations for interpretive, cultural, and educational programs and uses of the center;

(F) the areas where cooperative agreements might be developed between the center and Afro-American institutions, organizations, and universities to enhance their programs and projects relating to the knowledge, preservation, and presentation of the history and culture of Afro-Americans;

(G) the estimates of costs, both public and private, for implementing the plan; and

(H) the procedures to be used in implementing the plan.

Funds, solicitation.

(2)(A) The Commission shall solicit subscriptions of funds from private and public sources to help meet the costs of carrying out its duties under this section; the costs of the construction, furnishing, and operation of the center; the costs of research programs and research staff positions, and reasonable administrative costs which may include, subject to the availability of funds, payment to members of the Commission of travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as persons employed intermittently in the Government service are allowed expenses under section 5703 of title 5, United States Code. Any funds so received by the Commission shall be placed in a special deposit account with the Treasurer of the United States, and may be expended by the Commission only to meet the costs specified in this subparagraph.

Special deposit account.

Art and artifacts, donation or loan.

(B) The General Services Administration, the Smithsonian Institution, and other agencies of the Government may donate or loan to the Commission for the purposes of the center any works of art, artifacts, or other materials under their control.

Property, acquisition and disposal.

(c) For the purpose of carrying out this title, the Commission may—

(1) acquire by gift, purchase with appropriated or donated funds (including funds from State or local sources), transfer from any Federal or State agency, exchange, or otherwise, suitable land (together with any buildings or other improvements thereon) and interest in land in the vicinity of Wilberforce, Ohio, for the location of the headquarters of the center;

(2) borrow or acquire by gift, purchase with appropriated or donated funds (including funds from State or local sources), or otherwise, any other real or personal property necessary for the establishment and operation of the center; and

(3) sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any property acquired under this subsection and designate any proceeds from such disposal for the benefit of the center.

Membership. 20 USC 3702.

SEC. 203. (a) The Commission shall be composed of fifteen members as follows:

(1) The Secretary of the Interior (or his designee).

(2) The Secretary of Education (or his designee).

(3) The Librarian of Congress (or his designee).

(4) The President of the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History.

(5) The presidents of Wilberforce University and Central State University in Ohio.

(6) Nine members appointed by the President, who are especially qualified to serve on the Commission by reason of their background and experience. No more than two members appointed under this paragraph shall be from any one State.

Terms of office.

(b) Subject to subsection (c), the members of the Commission specified in paragraphs (1) through (5) of subsection (a) shall serve for the life of the Commission. The members of the Commission appointed under paragraph (6) of such subsection shall serve for terms of four years, except that of the members first appointed—

(1) three shall be appointed for terms of one year;

(2) three shall be appointed for terms of two years; and

(3) three shall be appointed for terms of four years;

as designated by the President at the time of appointment.

Membership continuation.

(c) If any member of the Commission who was appointed to the Commission under paragraphs (1) through (5) as an officer designated under such paragraphs leaves such office, such member may continue as a member of the Commission for not longer than the thirty-day period beginning on the date he leaves that office.

Vacancies.

(d)(1) Any vacancy in the Commission shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

(2) Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term. Members may be reappointed.

Quorum.

(e) Six members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

Voting.

(f) The Commission shall act by affirmative majority vote.

Officers.

(g) The Commission shall elect a chairman and other officers from among its members to serve for terms established by the Commission.

Meetings.

(h) The Commission shall meet at the call of the chairman or a majority of its members, but not less than two times each year. The headquarters of the Commission shall be at Wilberforce, Ohio, and the Commission shall conduct its meetings in such city unless circumstances otherwise require.

Seal; bylaws, rules.

(i) The Commission may adopt an official seal which shall be judicially noticed and may make such bylaws, rules, and regulations as it considers necessary to carry out its functions under this title.

Compensation.

(j) Members of the Commission shall serve without pay.

Services, procurement.

(k) The Commission may procure, subject to the availability of funds, temporary and intermittent services to the same extent as is authorized by section 3109(b) of title 5, United States Code.

Personnel details.

(l) Upon request of the Commission, and subject to the availability of funds, the head of any Federal agency may detail to the Commission on a reimbursable basis any of the personnel of such agency to assist the Commission in carrying out its duties under this title.

GSA administrative support services.

(m) The Administrator of the General Services Administration shall provide to the Commission on a reimbursable basis such administrative support services as the Commission may request to carry out its duties under this title.

Report to congressional committees. 20 USC 3703.

SEC. 204. On the first January 1 occurring after the date of the enactment of this title, and on each subsequent January 1, the Commission shall submit to appropriate committees of the Congress a report which contains a detailed statement of the financial transactions of the Commission and the activities undertaken by the Commission during the previous year. The report shall contain such other appropriate information as the committees to whom the report is submitted may from time to time request.

Approved October 10, 1980.

An Act

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 6065]

To amend title 5, United States Code, to provide that military leave be made available for Federal employees on a fiscal year rather than a calendar year basis, to allow certain unused leave to accumulate for subsequent use, and for other purposes.

Military leave for Federal employees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 6323(a) of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking out "An employee" and inserting in lieu thereof "(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, an employee";

(2) by striking out "for each day, not in excess of 15 days in a calendar year, in which he is on active duty or is engaged in field or coast defense training" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "for active duty or engaging in field or coast defense training";

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Leave under this subsection accrues for an employee or individual at the rate of 15 days per fiscal year and, to the extent that it is not used in a fiscal year, accumulates for use in the succeeding fiscal year until it totals 15 days at the beginning of a fiscal year."; and

(4) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) In the case of an employee or individual employed on a part-time career employment basis (as defined in section 3401(2) of this title), the rate at which leave accrues under this subsection shall be a percentage of the rate prescribed under paragraph (1) which is determined by dividing 40 into the number of hours in the regularly scheduled workweek of that employee or individual during that fiscal year.".

An Act

To amend the Securities Investor Protection Act to increase the amount of protection available under such Act to customers of brokers and dealers, and to provide for the applicability of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7939]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Brokers and dealers' customers, increased protection; financial privacy, applicability to SEC.

AMENDMENTS TO THE SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION ACT

SECTION 1. Section 9(a) of the Securities Investor Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 78fff-3(a)) is amended—

(1) by striking out "$100,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$500,000"; and

(2) in paragraph (1), by striking out "$40,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$100,000".

AMENDMENT TO THE RIGHT TO FINANCIAL PRIVACY ACT OF 1978

SEC. 2. Section 1122 of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3422) is amended to read as follows:

"SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

"SEC. 1122. Except as provided in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, this Act shall apply with respect to the Securities and Exchange Commission.".

15 USC 78a.

AMENDMENT TO THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

SEC. 3. Section 21 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78u) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(h)(1) The Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 shall apply with respect to the Commission, except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

12 USC 3401 note.

"(2) Notwithstanding section 1105 or 1107 of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, the Commission may have access to and obtain copies of, or the information contained in financial records of a customer from a financial institution without prior notice to the customer upon an ex parte showing to an appropriate United States district court that the Commission seeks such financial records pursuant to a subpena issued in conformity with the requirements of section 19(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 21(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 18(c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 42(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or section 209(b) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and that the Commission has reason to believe that—

15 USC 77s.
15 USC 78u.
15 USC 79r.
15 USC 80a-41.
15 USC 80b-9.

"(A) delay in obtaining access to such financial records, or the required notice, will result in—

"(i) flight from prosecution;

"(ii) destruction of or tampering with evidence;

"(iii) transfer of assets or records outside the territorial limits of the United States;

"(iv) improper conversion of investor assets; or

"(v) impeding the ability of the Commission to identify or trace the source or disposition of funds involved in any securities transaction;

"(B) such financial records are necessary to identify or trace the record or beneficial ownership interest in any security;

"(C) the acts, practices or course of conduct under investigation involve—

"(i) the dissemination of materially false or misleading information concerning any security, issuer, or market, or the failure to make disclosures required under the securities laws, which remain uncorrected; or

"(ii) a financial loss to investors or other persons protected under the securities laws which remains substantially uncompensated; or

"(D) the acts, practices or course of conduct under investigation—

"(i) involve significant financial speculation in securities; or

"(ii) endanger the stability of any financial or investment intermediary.

"(3) Any application under paragraph (2) for a delay in notice shall be made with reasonable specificity.

Ex parte order granting delay.

"(4)(A) Upon a showing described in paragraph (2), the presiding judge or magistrate shall enter an ex parte order granting the requested delay for a period not to exceed ninety days and an order prohibiting the financial institution involved from disclosing that records have been obtained or that a request for records has been made.

Delay, extension.

12 USC 3409.

"(B) Extensions of the period of delay of notice provided in subparagraph (A) of up to ninety days each may be granted by the court upon application, but only in accordance with this subsection or section 1109(a), (b)(1), or (b)(2) of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978.

Subpena.

"(C) Upon expiration of the period of delay of notification ordered under subparagraph (A) or (B), the customer shall be served with or mailed a copy of the subpena insofar as it applies to the customer together with the following notice which shall describe with reasonable specificity the nature of the investigation for which the Commission sought the financial records:

Notice.

Ante, p. 1855.

" 'Records or information concerning your transactions which are held by the financial institution named in the attached subpena were supplied to the Securities and Exchange Commission on (date). Notification was withheld pursuant to a determination by the (title of court so ordering) under section 21(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that (state reason). The purpose of the investigation or official proceeding was (state purpose).'.

Proceedings and records.

"(5) Upon application by the Commission, all proceedings pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (4) shall be held in camera and the records thereof sealed until expiration of the period of delay or such other date as the presiding judge or magistrate may permit.

Annual tabulation; report to Congress.
12 USC 3401 note.

"(6) The Commission shall compile an annual tabulation of the occasions on which the Commission used each separate subparagraph or clause of paragraph (2) of this subsection or the provisions of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 to obtain access to financial records of a customer and include it in its annual report to the Congress. Section 1121(b) of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 shall not apply with respect to the Commission.

12 USC 3421.

"(7)(A) Following the expiration of the period of delay of notification ordered by the court pursuant to paragraph (4) of this subsection, the customer may, upon motion, reopen the proceeding in the district court which issued the order. If the presiding judge or magistrate finds that the movant is the customer to whom the records obtained by the Commission pertain, and that the Commission has obtained financial records or information contained therein in violation of this subsection, other than paragraph (1), it may order that the customer be granted civil penalties against the Commission in an amount equal to the sum of—

Reopening of proceeding.

Civil penalties.

"(i) $100 without regard to the volume of records involved;

"(ii) any out-of-pocket damages sustained by the customer as a direct result of the disclosure; and

"(iii) if the violation is found to have been willful, intentional, and without good faith, such punitive damages as the court may allow, together with the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees as determined by the court.

"(B) Upon a finding that the Commission has obtained financial records or information contained therein in violation of this subsection, other than paragraph (1), the court, in its discretion, may also or in the alternative issue injunctive relief to require the Commission to comply with this subsection with respect to any subpena which the Commission issues in the future for financial records of such customer for purposes of the same investigation.

Injunctive relief.

"(C) Whenever the court determines that the Commission has failed to comply with this subsection, other than paragraph (1), and the court finds that the circumstances raise questions of whether an officer or employee of the Commission acted in a willful and intentional manner and without good faith with respect to the violation, the Office of Personnel Management shall promptly initiate a proceeding to determine whether disciplinary action is warranted against the agent or employee who was primarily responsible for the violation. After investigating and considering the evidence submitted, the Office of Personnel Management shall submit its findings and recommendations to the Commission and shall send copies of the findings and recommendations to the officer or employee or his representative. The Commission shall take the corrective action that the Office of Personnel Management recommends.

OPM investigation.

Findings and recommendations, submittal to SEC.

"(8) The relief described in paragraphs (7) and (10) shall be the only remedies or sanctions available to a customer for a violation of this subsection, other than paragraph (1), and nothing herein or in the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 shall be deemed to prohibit the use in any investigation or proceeding of financial records, or the information contained therein, obtained by a subpena issued by the Commission. In the case of an unsuccessful action under paragraph (7), the court shall award the costs of the action and attorney's fees to the Commission if the presiding judge or magistrate finds that the customer's claims were made in bad faith.

12 USC 3401 note.

Costs and fees.

"(9)(A) The Commission may transfer financial records or the information contained therein to any government authority if the Commission proceeds as a transferring agency in accordance with section 1112 of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, except that the customer notice required under section 1112 (b) or (c) of such Act may be delayed upon a showing by the Commission, in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraphs (4) and (5), that one or more of subparagraphs (A) through (D) of paragraph (2) apply.

Records, transfer.

12 USC 3412.

Records, transfer.
12 USC 3412.

Disclosure restrictions, customer notification.

"(B) The Commission may, without notice to the customer pursuant to section 1112 of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, transfer financial records or the information contained therein to a State securities agency or to the Department of Justice. Financial records or information transferred by the Commission to the Department of Justice or to a State securities agency pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph may be disclosed or used only in an administrative, civil, or criminal action or investigation by the Department of Justice or the State securities agency which arises out of or relates to the acts, practices, or courses of conduct investigated by the Commission, except that if the Department of Justice or the State securities agency determines that the information should be disclosed or used for any other purpose, it may do so if it notifies the customer, except as otherwise provided in the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, within 30 days of its determination, or complies with the requirements of section 1109 of such Act regarding delay of notice.

12 USC 3401 note.

Procedures and penalties.

"(10) Any government authority violating paragraph (9) shall be subject to the procedures and penalties applicable to the Commission under paragraph (7)(A) with respect to a violation by the Commission in obtaining financial records.

Financial institution's records.

"(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the Commission may obtain financial records from a financial institution or transfer such records in accordance with provisions of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978.

Records requests, challenges.

"(12) Nothing in this subsection shall enlarge or restrict any rights of a financial institution to challenge requests for records made by the Commission under existing law. Nothing in this subsection shall entitle a customer to assert any rights of a financial institution.

Defined terms.

"(13) Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms defined in the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 which are common to this subsection shall have the same meaning as in such Act.".

CONFORMING AMENDMENT

SEC. 4. The second sentence of section 21(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78u(g)) is amended by inserting "and in subsection (h)" after "as used herein".

EFFECTIVE DATES

15 USC 78u note.

SEC. 5. (a) The amendments made by section 1 of this Act shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act.

(b) The amendments made by sections 2, 3, and 4 of this Act shall take effect on November 10, 1980. Nothing in this Act or in the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 shall apply to any Securities and Exchange Commission subpena issued prior to such date.

To authorize the Assiniboine Tribe to file in the Court of Claims any claims against the United States for damages for delay in payment for lands claimed to be taken in violation of the United States Constitution, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Assiniboine Tribe. Claims against U.S.

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding sections 2401 and 2501 of title 28, United States Code, and section 12 of the Indian Claims Commission Act of August 13, 1946 (60 Stat. 1052; 25 U.S.C. 70k), and notwithstanding the lapse of time, statutes of limitations, or the defense of res judicata or collateral estoppel, or any other provisions of law, jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment on any claim filed by the Assiniboine Nation or Tribe within one year from the date of this Act for the taking under the fifth amendment of the Constitution of the six million four hundred and seventy-seven thousand nine hundred and forty acres of land defined as the territory of the Assiniboine Nation in the Treaty of Fort Laramie of September 17, 1851 (11 Stat. 749), to which the Assiniboine Nation and the United States were parties, being the same land determined by the Court of Claims to have an average value of 50 cents per acre for a total of $3,238,970 in Assiniboine Indian Tribe versus United States (77 Ct. Cl. 347) (1933), appeal dismissed and certiorari denied (292 U.S. 606) (1934) (hereinafter "prior case"): Provided, That the value of the land fixed at an average of 50 cents per acre in the prior case shall be binding on the parties in any suit brought under this Act.

Award.

Interest rate.

SEC. 2. If the Court of Claims determines that the claimant is entitled to just compensation under the fifth amendment, the Court shall enter an award computed on the basis of established judicial precedent: Provided, however, That as a measure of just compensation the Court shall compute interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum. In calculating any award due claimant, the Court shall treat the amount of $2,492,319, that portion of offsets in the prior case that represents the tribe's own funds, as if that sum had not been offset in the prior case: Provided further, That the court shall give appropriate credit to the United States for that portion of the $2,492,319, to wit the amount of $1,242,796 paid to the tribe by the Act of January 8, 1971 (84 Stat. 1981), in satisfaction of the judgment of the Indian Claims Commission in Assiniboine Tribes against United States, Numbered 279A, affirmed 192 Ct. Cl. 679 (1970). No offsets, including gratuities, subsequent to the terminal date of the accounting in the prior case shall be allowed or deducted from any judgment entered under authority of this Act, except that the United States shall be entitled to an offset, against any judgment entered under authority of this Act, of the sum of money, if any, awarded as a judgment in the prior case.

Offsets.

SEC. 3. The provisions of section 15 of the Act of August 13, 1946 (60 Stat. 1053; 25 U.S.C. 70n), shall be applicable with respect to any claim filed pursuant to this Act in the same manner and to the same extent as if such claim were pending before the Indian Claims Commission except that the functions of the Commission shall be performed by the Court of Claims.

SEC. 4. The provisions of the Act of November 4, 1963 (77 Stat. 301; 25 U.S.C. 70n-1-7), shall be applicable with respect to any claim filed pursuant to this Act in the same manner and to the same extent as if such claim were pending before the Indian Claims Commission except that reference to the Commission shall be deemed to be to the Court of Claims.

Authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to accept the conveyance of the United First Parish Church in Quincy, Massachusetts, and authorizing the Secretary to administer the United First Parish Church as a national historic site, and for other purposes.

Oct. 10, 1980
[H.R. 7411]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) in order to preserve for the benefit, education, and inspiration of present and future generations the church in which John Adams, John Quincy Adams, and Abigail Adams are buried, the Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the "Secretary") is authorized to accept the conveyance, without monetary consideration, of the following for administration as part of the Adams National Historic Site in Quincy, Massachusetts:

Adams National Historic Site, Quincy, Mass.

(1) The property known as the United First Parish Church, at 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, together with such adjacent real property as the Secretary considers desirable.

(2) The furnishings and personal property located in the United First Parish Church, after consultation with the chairman of the board of the United First Parish Church and with the owners of such furnishings and personal property.

(b) The Secretary shall administer the property acquired pursuant to subsection (a) of this section as part of the Adams National Historic Site in accordance with this section and the provisions of law generally applicable to national historic sites, including the Act of August 25, 1916 (16 U.S.C. 1 et seq.) and the Act of August 21, 1935 (16 U.S.C. 461 note).

Separation of church and state, report to congressional committees.

SEC. 2. Prior to accepting the donation of any or all of the property referred to in section 1 above, the Secretary shall submit, after consultation with the Attorney General of the United States, a report to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the United States Senate and to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the United States House of Representatives describing the measures which the Secretary intends to take to ensure that in the management of said property there is no violation of the constitutional provisions regarding the separation of church and state.

Contracts, obligations, payments.

SEC. 3. Effective on October 1, 1981, there are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, authority to enter into contracts, to incur obligations, or to make payments under this Act shall be effective only to the extent, and in such amounts, as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts.

Provided, That the amounts provided under this head for construction, and for debt payment, shall remain available until September 30, 1985: Provided further, That funds previously appropriated under this head in fiscal year 1979 and prior fiscal years for construction in the amount of $400,000 for the Navy and Marine Corps, and for debt payment in the amount of $18,251,000 for the Department of Defense shall be transferred and merged in the Family Housing Management Account with, and be available for the same period as, the funds appropriated in this Act for construction and debt service for such departments and agencies, and such funds may be obligated and expended for such purposes: Provided further, That of the amounts appropriated for operation and maintenance, not less than $811,711,000 shall be available only for the maintenance of real property facilities.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Prior appropriations.

SEC. 101. Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction in prior years are hereby made available for construction authorized for each such department by the authorizations enacted into law during the second session of the Ninety-sixth Congress.

Contracts.

SEC. 102. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be expended for payments under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract for work, where cost estimates exceed $25,000, to be performed within the United States, except Alaska, without the specific approval in writing of the Secretary of Defense setting forth the reasons therefor.

Construction costs.

SEC. 103. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be expended for additional costs involved in expediting construction unless the Secretary of Defense certifies such costs to be necessary to protect the national interest and establishes a reasonable completion date for each project, taking into consideration the urgency of the requirement, the type and location of the project, the climatic and best copy available

seasonal conditions affecting the construction, and the application of economical construction practices.

Service facilities.

SEC. 104. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used for the construction, replacement, or reactivation of any bakery, laundry, or drycleaning facility in the United States, its territories, or possessions, as to which the Secretary of Defense does not certify, in writing, giving his reasons therefor, that the services to be furnished by such facilities are not obtainable from commercial sources at reasonable rates.

Motor vehicles, hire.

31 USC 638f.

SEC. 105. Funds herein appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction shall be available for hire of passenger motor vehicles.

Access roads, construction.

31 USC 700b.

SEC. 106. Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction may be used for advances to the Federal Highway Administration, Department of Transportation, for the construction of access roads as authorized by section 210 of title 23, United States Code, when projects authorized therein are certified as important to the national defense by the Secretary of Defense.

New bases.

SEC. 107. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to begin construction of new bases inside the continental United States for which specific appropriations have not been made.

Land purchases or easements.

SEC. 108. No part of the funds provided in this Act shall be used for purchase of land or land easements in excess of 100 per centum of the value as determined by the Corps of Engineers or the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, except: (a) where there is a determination of value by a Federal court, or (b) purchases negotiated by the Attorney General or his designee, or (c) where the estimated value is less than $25,000, or (d) as otherwise determined by the Secretary of Defense to be in the public interest.

Foreign projects.

SEC. 109. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to make payments under contracts for any project in a foreign country unless the Secretary of Defense or his designee, after consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury or his designee, certifies to the Congress that the use, by purchase from the Treasury, of currencies of such country acquired pursuant to law is not feasible for the purpose, stating the reason therefor.

Family housing limitations.

SEC. 110. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used to (1) acquire land, (2) provide for site preparation, or (3) install utilities for any family housing, except housing for which funds have been made available in annual military construction appropriation Acts.

Notification to Committee on Appropriations.

SEC. 111. None of the funds appropriated in this Act for minor construction may be used to transfer or relocate any activity from one base or installation to another, without prior notification to the Committee on Appropriations.

Base realignment or closure activities.

SEC. 112. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available under this Act shall be obligated or expended in connection with any base realignment or closure activity, until all terms, conditions and requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act have been complied with, with respect to each such activity.

42 USC 4321 note.

Steel, procurement.

SEC. 113. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the procurement of steel for any construction project or activity for which American steel producers, fabricators, and manufacturers have been denied the opportunity to compete for such steel procurement.

Notification to congressional committees.

93 Stat. 939.

SEC. 114. None of the funds available to the Department of Defense for military construction during the current fiscal year may be obligated for projects under the authority of section 402 of the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1980, or similar provisions in prior-year military construction authorization Acts until twenty-one days have passed after the Secretary of Defense has notified the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the purpose and estimated cost of construction for which these funds are to be used under such authorities.

Indian Ocean dredging.

SEC. 115. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act for dredging in the Indian Ocean may be used for the performance of the work by foreign contractors: Provided, That the low responsive bid of a United States contractor does not exceed the lowest responsive bid of a foreign contractor by greater than 20 per centum.

Solar energy systems, installation.

SEC. 116. During the current fiscal year none of the funds available to the Department of Defense for military construction or family housing shall be available to furnish or install solar energy systems in new facilities (including family housing) unless such systems can be shown to be cost effective using the sum of all capital and operating expenses associated with the energy system of the building involved over the expected life of such system or during a period of twenty-five years, whichever is shorter, and using marginal fuel costs as determined by the Secretary of Defense and at a discount rate of 7 per centum per year.

Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

SEC. 117. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act for construction of space transportation system facilities at Vandenberg Air Force Base, California, may be obligated until the first rollout of the Space Shuttle has been accomplished.

MX missile facilities, design.

SEC. 118. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be obligated for design of any site-specific facilities for the MX missile system until all terms, conditions, and requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 4332) are met, which will include a complete analysis of a split basing alternative.

SEC. 119. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the design of an area security system for the MX missile system.

SEC. 120. None of the funds available to the Department of Defense for military construction or family housing during the current fiscal year may be used to pay real property taxes in any foreign nation.

Naval medical facility, San Diego, Calif.

SEC. 121. None of the funds appropriated under this Act to construct facilities required for and associated with a Naval hospital or medical center in San Diego, California, may be used unless such construction is performed on real property in which the interests of the United States is at least fee title: Provided, however, That fee title may be subject to a reverter to the City of San Diego in the event and at such time as the United States shall cease to use the property for a site for a Naval hospital or medical center, and for related purposes.

SEC. 122. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to pay the compensation of an officer of the Government of the United States or to reimburse a contractor for the employment of a person for work in the continental United States by any such person if such person is an alien who has not been lawfully admitted to the United States.

Consulting service contracts.

SEC. 123. The expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for any consulting service through procurement contract, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 3109, shall be limited to those contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record and available for public inspection, except where otherwise provided under existing law, or under existing Executive order issued pursuant to existing law.

SEC. 124. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any funds appropriated to a military department or defense agency for the construction of military projects may be obligated for a military construction project or contract, or for any portion of such a project or contract, at any time before the end of the fourth fiscal year after the fiscal year for which funds for such project were appropriated if the funds obligated for such project (1) are obligated from funds available for military construction projects, and (2) do not exceed the amount appropriated for such project, plus any amount by which the cost of such project is increased pursuant to law.

Overdue debts.

SEC. 125. Each department and agency for which appropriations are made under this Act shall take immediate action (1) to improve the collection of overdue debts owed to the United States within the jurisdiction of that department or agency; (2) to bill interest on delinquent debts as required by the Federal Claims Collection Standards; and (3) to reduce amounts of such debts written off as uncollectible.

Report to congressional committees.
31 USC 28.
31 USC 2.

SEC. 126. (a) For fiscal year 1982 and thereafter, a department or establishment—as defined in section 2 of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921—shall submit annually to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, as part of its budget justification, the estimated amount of funds requested for consulting services; the appropriation accounts in which such funds are located; and a brief description of the need for consulting services, including a list of major programs that require consulting services.

Report to Congress.

(b) For fiscal year 1982 and thereafter, the Inspector General of such department or establishment, or comparable official, or if there is no Inspector General or comparable official, the agency head or the agency head's designee, shall submit to the Congress along with the budget justification, an evaluation of the agency's progress to institute effective management controls and improve the accuracy and completeness of the data provided to the Federal Procurement Data System regarding consultant service contractual arrangements.

SEC. 127. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the purchase of foreign steel for the construction of the shelters or bases of the proposed MX missile system.

Short title.

This Act may be cited as the "Military Construction Appropriation Act, 1981".

An Act

Oct. 13, 1980
[H.R. 5546]

To amend the United States Grain Standards Act to permit grain delivered to export elevators by any means of conveyance other than barge to be transferred into such export elevators without official weighing, and for other purposes.

U.S. Grain Standards Act, amendment. 7 USC 75.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 3 of the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) is amended by—

(1) in subsection (aa) striking out the period and inserting in lieu thereof "; and", and

(2) adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"Intracompany shipment."

"(bb) the term 'intracompany shipment' means the shipment, within the United States, of grain lots between facilities owned or controlled by the person owning the grain. The shipment of grain owned by a cooperative, from a facility owned by that cooperative, to an export facility which it jointly owns with other cooperatives, qualifies as an intracompany shipment.".

SEC. 2. Section 5(a)(2) of the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U.S.C. 77(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) except as the Administrator may provide in emergency or other circumstances which would not impair the objectives of this Act, all other grain transferred out of and all grain transferred into an export elevator at an export port location shall be officially weighed in accordance with such standards or procedure: Provided, That, unless the shipper or receiver requests that the grain be officially weighed, intracompany shipments of grain into an export elevator by any mode of transportation, grain transferred into an export elevator by transportation modes other than barge, and grain transferred out of an export elevator to destinations within the United States shall not be officially weighed; and".

Public Law 96-438
96th Congress

An Act

To amend the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act.

Oct. 13, 1980
[S. 985]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act, amendment.

RENEWABLE RESOURCE ENERGY LOANS

SECTION 1. The Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act is amended by—

(1) in section 303(b), amending paragraph (1) to read as follows:

7 USC 1923.
"Improving farms."

"(1) the term 'improving farms' includes, but is not limited to, the acquisition, installation, and modification of any qualified nonfossil energy system located on a family farm; and";

7 USC 1932.

(2) in the first sentence of section 310B(a), striking out all that follows "individuals" down through the end of the sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "for the purposes of (1) improving, developing, or financing business, industry, and employment and improving the economic and environmental climate in rural communities, including pollution abatement and control, (2) the conservation, development, and use of water for aquaculture purposes in rural areas, and (3) reducing the reliance on nonrenewable energy resources by encouraging the development and construction of solar energy systems, including the modification of existing systems, in rural areas. For the purposes of this subsection, the term 'solar energy' means energy derived from sources (other than fossil fuels) and technologies included in the Federal Nonnuclear Energy Research and Development Act of 1974, as amended."; and

"Solar energy."

42 USC 5901 note.
7 USC 1942.

(3) in the first sentence of section 312(a), striking out "and" immediately before clause (10) and inserting immediately before the period at the end of the sentence a comma and the following: "and (11) assisting farmers and ranchers in reducing their dependence on nonrenewable energy resources through the development and construction of solar energy systems, including the modification of existing systems".

LOAN ELIGIBILITY

SEC. 2. The Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act is amended by—

7 USC 1926.
"Rural."
"Rural area."

(1) in section 306(a)(7), immediately after "in excess of ten thousand inhabitants, except that", inserting the following: "(A) for the purpose of loans for essential community facilities under subsection (a)(1) of this section, the terms 'rural' and 'rural area' may include any area in any city or town that has a population not in excess of twenty thousand inhabitants; and (B)";

"Owner-operator."
7 USC 1991.

(2) in section 343, inserting a new clause (3) as follows: "(3) the term 'owner-operator' shall include in the State of Hawaii the lessee-operator of real property in any case in which the Secretary determines that such real property cannot be acquired in fee simple by such lessee-operator, that adequate security is provided for the loan with respect to such real property for which such lessee-operator applies under this title, and that there is a reasonable probability of accomplishing the objectives and repayment of such loan,"; and

(3) adding at the end thereof a new section 348 as follows:

Resident aliens.
7 USC 1996.

"SEC. 348. Notwithstanding the provisions of this title limiting the making and insuring of loans to citizens of the United States, the Secretary may make and insure loans under this title to aliens lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act: Provided, That no loans may be made or insured under this title to such aliens until the Secretary issues regulations establishing the terms and conditions under which such aliens may receive loans: Provided further, That the Secretary shall submit the regulations to the Committee on Agriculture of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the Senate at least thirty days prior to the date the regulations are published in the Federal Register.".

8 USC 1101 note.

EMERGENCY LOAN PROGRAM

Repeal.

SEC. 3. (a) Section 120 of the Act of July 2, 1980 (94 Stat. 841), is repealed.

(b) Subtitle C of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act is amended by—

(1) amending sections 321, 322, 323, and 324 to read as follows:

Eligibility.
7 USC 1961.

"SEC. 321. (a) The Secretary shall make and insure loans under this subtitle to (1) established farmers, ranchers, or persons engaged in aquaculture, who are citizens of the United States, and (2) farm cooperatives or private domestic corporations or partnerships in which a majority interest is held by members, stockholders, or partners who are citizens of the United States if the cooperative, corporation, or partnership is engaged primarily in farming, ranching, or aquaculture, where the Secretary finds that the applicants' farming, ranching, or aquaculture operations have been substantially affected by a natural disaster in the United States or by a major disaster or emergency designated by the President under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974: Provided, That they have experience and resources necessary to assure a reasonable prospect for successful operation with the assistance of such loan and are not able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere.

42 USC 5121 note.

7 USC 1983.

"(b) Notwithstanding the credit elsewhere requirements of subsection (a) of this section and section 333(a) of this title, the Secretary shall implement a program under which the Secretary may make or insure loans under this subtitle to applicants able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere, subject to the other terms and conditions for loans made or insured under this subtitle and such other terms and conditions as the Secretary may, by regulation, prescribe.

"(c) The Secretary shall conduct the emergency loan program under this subtitle in a manner that will foster and encourage the family farm system of agriculture, consistent with the reaffirmation of policy and declaration of the intent of Congress contained in section 102(a) of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1977.

Family farm system.

7 USC 2266.

Definitions.

"(d) For the purposes of this subtitle—

"(1) 'aquaculture' means the husbandry of aquatic organisms under a controlled or selected environment; and

"(2) 'able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere' means able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere to finance the applicant's actual needs at reasonable rates and terms, taking into consideration prevailing private and cooperative rates and terms in the community in or near which the applicant resides for loans for similar purposes and periods of time.

Loan determination factors.
7 USC 1962.

"SEC. 322. (a) For the purpose of determining whether to make or insure any loan under this subtitle, the Secretary shall take into consideration the net worth of the applicant involved, including all the assets and liabilities of the applicant.

Written credit declination.

"(b) For the purpose of determining whether an applicant under this subtitle is not able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere, the Secretary shall require at least one written indication of declination of credit, from a legally organized lending institution within reasonable proximity to the applicant, that specifies the reasons for the declination: Provided, That for loans in excess of $300,000, the Secretary shall require at least two such written declinations: Provided further, That for loans of $300,000 or less, the Secretary may waive the requirement of this subsection if the Secretary determines that it would impose an undue burden on the applicant.

Loans, extent.
7 USC 1963.
7 USC 1922, 1941.

"SEC. 323. Loans may be made or insured under this subtitle for any purpose authorized for loans under subtitle A or B of this title and for crop or livestock changes deemed desirable by the applicant, subject to the limitations on the amounts of loans provided in section 324(a) of this title.

Loan limitation.
7 USC 1964.

"SEC. 324. (a)(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, no loan made or insured under this subtitle may exceed the amount of the actual loss caused by the disaster or $500,000, whichever is less, for each disaster.

Excess loan amounts.

"(2) Through September 30, 1982, loans may be made or insured under this subtitle in amounts in excess of the amount of actual loss (as limited under paragraph (1) of this subsection) to applicants who are not able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere, within the following limits:

"(A) Through the end of fiscal year 1980, no such loan may be made or insured in an amount that would cause the total unpaid principal indebtedness of the applicant for loans or portions of loans in excess of the amount of actual loss to exceed $1,500,000;

"(B) During fiscal year 1981, no such loan may be made or insured in an amount that would cause the total unpaid principal indebtedness of the applicant for loans or portions of loans in excess of the amount of actual loss to exceed $1,000,000;

"(C) During fiscal year 1982, no such loan may be made or insured in an amount that would cause the total unpaid principal indebtedness of the applicant for loans or portions of loans in excess of the amount of actual loss to exceed $500,000; and

"(D) No loan or portion of a loan in excess of the amount of actual loss that is for more than $300,000 may be made or insured under this subtitle unless the Secretary determines that the applicant is not able to obtain from a private or cooperative lending agency a loan guaranteed by the Secretary under this subtitle sufficient to finance the applicant's actual needs at reasonable rates and terms (taking into consideration prevailing private and cooperative rates and terms in the community in or near which the applicant resides for loans for similar purposes and periods of time).

Interest rates.

"(b) Loans under this subtitle shall be at rates of interest as follows:

"(1) For loans or portions of loans up to the amount of the applicant's actual loss caused by the disaster, as limited under subsection (a)(1) of this section, the interest shall be at rates prescribed by the Secretary, but (A) if the applicant is not able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere, not in excess of 5 per centum per annum, and (B) if the applicant is able to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere, not in excess of the current average market yield on outstanding marketable obligations of the United States with remaining periods to maturity comparable to the average maturities of such loans, plus an additional charge of not to exceed 1 per centum per annum as determined by the Secretary, and adjusted to the nearest one-eighth of 1 per centum; and

"(2) For loans or portions of loans in excess of the amount of the applicant's actual loss caused by the disaster, as limited under subsection (a)(1) of this section, (A) the interest for insured loans shall be at rates prevailing in the private market for similar loans, as determined by the Secretary, and (B) the interest for guaranteed loans shall be at rates agreed on by the borrower and lender, but not in excess of such rates as may be determined by the Secretary.

Interest subsidies.

"(c) For guaranteed loans under this subtitle, the Secretary may pay interest subsidies to the lenders for those portions of the loans up to the amount of the actual loss caused by the disaster, as limited under subsection (a)(1) of this section. Any such subsidy shall not exceed the difference between the interest rate being charged for loans up to the amount of the actual loss, as established under subsection (b)(1) of this section, and the maximum interest rate for guaranteed loans, as established under subsection (b)(2) of this section.

Repayment.

7 USC 1922, 1941.

Security.

"(d) All loans under this subtitle shall be repayable at such times as the Secretary may determine, taking into account the purposes of the loan and the nature and effect of the disaster, but not later than as provided for loans for similar purposes under subtitles A and B of this title, and upon the full personal liability of the borrower and upon the best security available, as the Secretary may prescribe: Provided, That the security is adequate to assure repayment of the loans, except that if such security is not available because of the disaster, the Secretary shall (1) accept as security such collateral as is available, a portion or all of which may have depreciated in value due to the disaster and which in the opinion of the Secretary, together with the Secretary's confidence in the repayment ability of the applicant, is adequate security for the loan, and (2) make such loan repayable at such times as the Secretary may determine, not later than as provided under subtitles A and B of this title, as justified by the needs of the applicant: Provided further, That for any disaster occurring after January 1, 1975, the Secretary, if the loan is for a purpose described in subtitle B of this title, may make the loan repayable at the end of a period of more than seven years, but not more than twenty years, if the Secretary determines that the need of the loan applicant justifies such a longer repayment period: Provided further, That for any direct or insured loan (other than a guaranteed loan) approved under section 321(b) of this title, three years after the loan is made or insured, and every two years thereafter for the term of the loan, the Secretary shall review the loan; and if, based on such review, the Secretary determines that the borrower is able to obtain a loan from non-Federal sources at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, the borrower shall on request by the Secretary, apply for and accept such non-Federal loan in sufficient amount to repay the Secretary.

7 USC 1922, 1941.

Repayment period, extension.

Review; non-Federal loans.

Ante, p. 1872.

"(e) Any political subdivision of a State with a population of less than ten thousand inhabitants that, if such subdivision had a population of ten thousand or more inhabitants, would be eligible for a grant under the first title of the Community Emergency Drought Relief Act of 1977 shall be eligible for a grant under the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act during any period in which the Community Emergency Drought Relief Act of 1977 is or has been in effect."; and

Grant eligibility.

42 USC 5184 note.

7 USC 1921 note.

(2) amending section 330 to read as follows:

7 USC 1971.

"Sec. 330. Subsequent loans to continue the farming, ranching, or aquaculture operation may be made under this subtitle on an annual basis, for not to exceed two additional years, to eligible borrowers, subject to the limits on loans and the rates of interest established under section 324 of this title.".

Ante, p. 1873.

(c) Section 333(b) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act is amended by striking out "321(b)(2)" wherever it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "321(a)(2)".

7 USC 1983.

(d) The amendments to subtitle C of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act made by subsection (b) of this section shall be effective with respect to loans approved by the Secretary of Agriculture under subtitle C after the date of enactment of this Act, except that, for borrowers with loans outstanding under subtitle C as of December 15, 1979—

7 USC 1961 note.

7 USC 1961.

(1) the limits on loans under section 324 of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act made by subsection (b)(1) of this section, and

Ante, p. 1873.

(2) the reduction in the time limit on subsequent emergency loans under section 330 of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act made by subsection (b)(2) of this section shall not apply to subsequent emergency loans under section 330 (as in effect on the date preceding the date of enactment of this Act) that are made to such borrowers for the disasters for which the borrowers obtained loans under subtitle C prior to December 16, 1979.

LENDING LIMITS UNDER THE CONSOLIDATED FARM AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT ACT

7 USC 1994.

SEC. 4. Section 346 of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act is amended by inserting "(a)" after "SEC. 346" and adding at the end thereof new subsections (b) and (c) as follows:

"(b)(1) Loans for each of the fiscal years 1980, 1981, and 1982 are authorized to be insured, or made to be sold and insured, or guaranteed under the Agricultural Credit Insurance Fund as follows:

"(A) real estate loans, $1,615,000,000, including $1,500,000,000 for farm ownership loans of which $1,400,000,000 may be for insured loans and $100,000,000 may be for guaranteed loans with authority to transfer 25 per centum of such amounts between categories, and $100,000,000 for water development, use, and conservation loans of which $90,000,000 may be for insured loans and $10,000,000 may be for guaranteed loans with authority to transfer 25 per centum of such amounts between categories;

"(B) operating loans, $1,200,000,000 of which $1,150,000,000 may be for insured loans and $50,000,000 may be for guaranteed loans with authority to transfer 25 per centum of such amounts between categories; and

"(C) emergency insured and guaranteed loans in amounts necessary to meet the needs resulting from natural disasters.

Not more than 75 per centum of the insured loans authorized for farm ownership purposes and not more than 75 per centum of the insured loans authorized for farm operating purposes may be for applicants other than low-income, limited-resource borrowers.

"(2) Loans for each of the fiscal years 1980, 1981, and 1982 are authorized to be insured, or made to be sold and insured, or guaranteed under the Rural Development Insurance Fund as follows:

"(A) insured water and sewer facility loans, $1,000,000,000;

"(B) industrial development loans, $1,500,000,000 of which $100,000,000 may be for insured loans and $1,400,000,000 may be for guaranteed loans with authority to transfer amounts between categories; and

"(C) insured community facility loans, $500,000,000.

Cost projections.

"(c) The Secretary shall develop long-term cost projections for loan program authorizations required under subsection (a) of this section. Each such projection shall include analyses of (1) the long-term costs of the lending levels that the Secretary requests to be authorized under subsection (a) of this section and (2) the long-term costs for increases in lending levels beyond those requested to be authorized, based on increments of $10,000,000 or such other levels as the Secretary deems appropriate. Long-term cost projections for the three-year period beginning with fiscal year 1983 and each three-year period thereafter shall be submitted to the House Committee on Agriculture, the House Committee on Appropriations, the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, and the Senate Committee on Appropri-

Privacy Protection Act of 1980.
42 USC 2000aa note.

TITLE I—FIRST AMENDMENT PRIVACY PROTECTION

PART A—UNLAWFUL ACTS

Work product materials, search or seizure.
42 USC 2000aa.

SEC. 101. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, it shall be unlawful for a government officer or employee, in connection with the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense, to search for or seize any work product materials possessed by a person reasonably believed to have a purpose to disseminate to the public a newspaper, book, broadcast, or other similar form of public communication, in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce; but this provision shall not impair or affect the ability of any government officer or employee, pursuant to otherwise applicable law, to search for or seize such materials, if—

(1) there is probable cause to believe that the person possessing such materials has committed or is committing the criminal offense to which the materials relate: Provided, however, That a government officer or employee may not search for or seize such materials under the provisions of this paragraph if the offense to which the materials relate consists of the receipt, possession, communication, or withholding of such materials or the information contained therein (but such a search or seizure may be conducted under the provisions of this paragraph if the offense consists of the receipt, possession, or communication of information relating to the national defense, classified information, or restricted data under the provisions of section 793, 794, 797, or 798 of title 18, United States Code, or section 224, 225, or 227 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 U.S.C. 2274, 2275, 2277), or section 4 of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 783)); or

(2) there is reason to believe that the immediate seizure of such materials is necessary to prevent the death of, or serious bodily injury to, a human being.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, it shall be unlawful for a government officer or employee, in connection with the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense, to search for or seize documentary materials, other than work product materials, possessed by a person in connection with a purpose to disseminate to the public a newspaper, book, broadcast, or other similar form of public communication, in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce; but this provision shall not impair or affect the ability of any government officer or employee, pursuant to otherwise applicable law, to search for or seize such materials, if—

(1) there is probable cause to believe that the person possessing such materials has committed or is committing the criminal offense to which the materials relate: Provided, however, That a government officer or employee may not search for or seize such materials under the provisions of this paragraph if the offense to which the materials relate consists of the receipt, possession, communication, or withholding of such materials or the information contained therein (but such a search or seizure may be conducted under the provisions of this paragraph if the offense consists of the receipt, possession, or communication of information relating to the national defense, classified information, or restricted data under the provisions of section 793, 794, 797, or 798 of title 18, United States Code, or section 224, 225, or 227 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 U.S.C. 2274, 2275, 2277), or section 4 of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 783));

(2) there is reason to believe that the immediate seizure of such materials is necessary to prevent the death of, or serious bodily injury to, a human being;

(3) there is reason to believe that the giving of notice pursuant to a subpena duces tecum would result in the destruction, alteration, or concealment of such materials; or

(4) such materials have not been produced in response to a court order directing compliance with a subpena duces tecum, and—

(A) all appellate remedies have been exhausted; or

(B) there is reason to believe that the delay in an investigation or trial occasioned by further proceedings relating to the subpena would threaten the interests of justice.

Affidavit.

(c) In the event a search warrant is sought pursuant to paragraph (4)(B) of subsection (b), the person possessing the materials shall be afforded adequate opportunity to submit an affidavit setting forth the basis for any contention that the materials sought are not subject to seizure.

PART B—REMEDIES, EXCEPTIONS, AND DEFINITIONS

Customs laws.
42 USC 2000aa-5.

SEC. 105. This Act shall not impair or affect the ability of a government officer or employee, pursuant to otherwise applicable law, to conduct searches and seizures at the borders of, or at international points of, entry into the United States in order to enforce the customs laws of the United States.

Damages, civil actions.
42 USC 2000aa-6.

SEC. 106. (a) A person aggrieved by a search for or seizure of materials in violation of this Act shall have a civil cause of action for damages for such search or seizure—

(1) against the United States, against a State which has waived its sovereign immunity under the Constitution to a claim for damages resulting from a violation of this Act, or against any other governmental unit, all of which shall be liable for violations of this Act by their officers or employees while acting within the scope or under color of their office or employment; and

(2) against an officer or employee of a State who has violated this Act while acting within the scope or under color of his office or employment, if such State has not waived its sovereign immunity as provided in paragraph (1).

Defense.

(b) It shall be a complete defense to a civil action brought under paragraph (2) of subsection (a) that the officer or employee had a reasonable good faith belief in the lawfulness of his conduct.

(c) The United States, a State, or any other governmental unit liable for violations of this Act under subsection (a)(1), may not assert as a defense to a claim arising under this Act the immunity of the officer or employee whose violation is complained of or his reasonable good faith belief in the lawfulness of his conduct, except that such a defense may be asserted if the violation complained of is that of a judicial officer.

(d) The remedy provided by subsection (a)(1) against the United States, a State, or any other governmental unit is exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding for conduct constituting a violation of this Act, against the officer or employee whose violation gave rise to the claim, or against the estate of such officer or employee.

Evidence.

(e) Evidence otherwise admissible in a proceeding shall not be excluded on the basis of a violation of this Act.

Damage recovery.

(f) A person having a cause of action under this section shall be entitled to recover actual damages but not less than liquidated damages of $1,000, and such reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred as the court, in its discretion, may award: Provided, however, That the United States, a State, or any other governmental unit shall not be liable for interest prior to judgment.

Attorney General, claim settlement; regulations.

(g) The Attorney General may settle a claim for damages brought against the United States under this section, and shall promulgate regulations to provide for the commencement of an administrative inquiry following a determination of a violation of this Act by an officer or employee of the United States and for the imposition of administrative sanctions against such officer or employee, if warranted.

Jurisdiction.

(h) The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under this section.

Definitions.
42 USC 2000aa-7.

SEC. 107. (a) "Documentary materials", as used in this Act, means materials upon which information is recorded, and includes, but is not limited to, written or printed materials, photographs, motion picture films, negatives, video tapes, audio tapes, and other mechanically, magentically or electronically recorded cards, tapes, or discs, but does not include contraband or the fruits of a crime or things otherwise criminally possessed, or property designed or intended for use, or which is or has been used as, the means of committing a criminal offense.

(b) "Work product materials", as used in this Act, means materials, other than contraband or the fruits of a crime or things otherwise criminally possessed, or property designed or intended for use, or which is or has been used, as the means of committing a criminal offense, and—

(1) in anticipation of communicating such materials to the public, are prepared, produced, authored, or created, whether by the person in possession of the materials or by any other person;

(2) are possessed for the purposes of communicating such materials to the public; and

(3) include mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or theories of the person who prepared, produced, authored, or created such material.

(c) "Any other governmental unit", as used in this Act, includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any local government, unit of local government, or any unit of State government.

Effective date.
42 USC 2000aa note.

SEC. 108. The provisions of this title shall become effective on January 1, 1981, except that insofar as such provisions are applicable to a State or any governmental unit other than the United States, the provisions of this title shall become effective one year from the date of enactment of this Act.

TITLE II—ATTORNEY GENERAL GUIDELINES

42 USC 2000aa-11.

SEC. 201. (a) The Attorney General shall, within six months of date of enactment of this Act, issue guidelines for the procedures to be employed by any Federal officer or employee, in connection with the investigation or prosecution of an offense, to obtain documentary materials in the private possession of a person when the person is not reasonably believed to be a suspect in such offense or related by blood or marriage to such a suspect, and when the materials sought are not contraband or the fruits or instrumentalities of an offense. The Attorney General shall incorporate in such guidelines—

(1) a recognition of the personal privacy interests of the person in possession of such documentary materials;

(2) a requirement that the least intrusive method or means of obtaining such materials be used which do not substantially jeopardize the availability or usefulness of the materials sought to be obtained;

(3) a recognition of special concern for privacy interests in cases in which a search or seizure for such documents would intrude upon a known confidential relationship such as that which may exist between clergyman and parishioner; lawyer and client; or doctor and patient; and

(4) a requirement that an application for a warrant to conduct a search governed by this title be approved by an attorney for the government, except that in an emergency situation the application may be approved by another appropriate supervisory official if within 24 hours of such emergency the appropriate United States Attorney is notified.

Report to congressional committees.

(b) The Attorney General shall collect and compile information on, and report annually to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives on the use of search warrants by Federal officers and employees for documentary materials described in subsection (a)(3).

SEC. 202. Guidelines issued by the Attorney General under this title shall have the full force and effect of Department of Justice regulations and any violation of these guidelines shall make the employee or officer involved subject to appropriate administrative disciplinary action. However, an issue relating to the compliance, or the failure to comply, with guidelines issued pursuant to this title may not be litigated, and a court may not entertain such an issue as the basis for the suppression or exclusion of evidence. 42 USC 2000aa-12.

An Act

To amend the Act entitled "An Act to preserve within Manassas National Battlefield Park, Virginia, the most important historic properties relating to the battle of Manassas, and for other purposes", approved April 17, 1954 (68 Stat. 56; 16 U.S.C. 429b).

Oct. 13, 1980
[H.R. 5048]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Manassas National Battlefield Park Amendments of 1980".

Manassas National Battlefield Park Amendments of 1980.
16 USC 429b note.

SEC. 2. The Act entitled "An Act to preserve within the Manassas National Battlefield Park, Virginia, the most important historic properties relating to the battle of Manassas, and for other purposes", approved April 17, 1954 (16 U.S.C. 429b), is amended to read as follows: "That there is established as a unit of the national park system in the Commonwealth of Virginia the Manassas National Battlefield Park which shall contain within its boundaries the important historical lands relating to the two battles of Manassas. The total area of the park shall not be greater than four thousand five hundred and twenty-five acres. The boundaries of the park shall be the boundaries depicted on the map entitled 'Boundary Map, Manassas National Battlefield Park', dated October 1980, and numbered 379/80,009, which shall be on file and available for public inspection in the offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior. The Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register, as soon as practicable after the date of the enactment of this Act, but no later than one year from the effective date of this section, a detailed description and map of the boundaries. Notwithstanding section 7(c) of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965 (91 Stat. 211), as amended (16 U.S.C. 460l), the Secretary may not make any changes in the boundaries of the park. The Secretary shall administer the park in accordance with laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the national park system.

16 USC 429b.
Description.
Publication in Federal Register.
16 USC 460*l*-9.

"SEC. 2. (a) In order to effectuate the purposes of this Act, the Secretary is authorized to acquire by donation, purchase with donated or appropriated funds or exchange, any property or interests therein which are located within the boundaries of the park, except that property owned by the Commonwealth of Virginia or by any political subdivision thereof may be acquired only by donation.

Funding.
16 USC 429b-1.

"(b) With respect to areas within the 1954 boundaries of the park, as identified on the map referred to in the first section of this Act, the Secretary may not acquire fee simple title to such areas without the consent of the owner so long as the lands continue to be devoted to a use which is the same as that in effect on September 1, 1980. Further, if the Secretary proposes to acquire fee simple title to such property because of a change in use, the owner of such property may seek a review of the proposed acquisition of his or her property and is entitled to a hearing on the record in accordance with section 554 of title 5 of the United States Code.

Route 234 bypass.

"(c) If the Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation determines that the proposed Route 234 bypass should be properly located between the Virginia Electric Power Company powerline easement and Route 705, the Secretary shall make available the land necessary for such bypass, subject to such revisions, terms, and conditions as the Secretary deems are necessary and appropriate to assure that such bypass is located, constructed, operated, and maintained in a manner consistent with the administration of the park.

"(d) The Secretary may not close any State roads within the park unless action permitting the closing of such roads has been taken by appropriate officials of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Residential property.
16 USC 429b-2.

"SEC. 3. (a) Subsequent to the date of enactment of this section, the owner of improved property on the date of its acquisition by the Secretary may, as a condition of such acquisition, retain for himself and his heirs and assigns a right of use and occupancy of the improved property for noncommercial residential purposes for a definite term of not more than twenty-five years or for a term ending at the death of the owner or the death of the spouse of the owner, whichever is later. The owner shall elect the term to be reserved. Unless this property is wholly or partially donated to the United States, the Secretary shall pay the owner an amount equal to the fair market value of the property on the date of its acquisition less the value on such date of the right retained by the owner. If such property is donated (in whole or in part) to the United States, the Secretary may pay to the owner such lesser amount as the owner may agree to. A right retained pursuant to this section shall be subject to termination by the Secretary upon his determination that it is being exercised in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, and it shall terminate by operation of law upon the Secretary's notifying the holder of the right of such determination and tendering to him an amount equal to the fair market value of that portion of the right which remains unexpired.

42 USC 4601.
42 USC 4623-4626.

"(b) No property owner who elects to retain a right of use and occupancy under this section shall be considered a displaced person as defined in section 101(6) of the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1894). Such owners shall be considered to have waived any benefits which would otherwise accrue to them under sections 203 through 206 of such Act.

Definitions.
16 USC 429b-3.

"SEC. 4. For purposes of this Act—

"(1) The term 'improved property' means a detached, one-family dwelling, construction of which was begun before January 1, 1979, which is used for noncommercial residential purposes, together with not to exceed three acres of land on which the dwelling is situated and together with such additional lands or interests therein as the Secretary deems to be reasonably necessary for access thereto, such lands being in the same ownership as the dwelling, together with any structures accessory to the dwelling which are situated on such land.

"(2) The term 'park' means the Manassas National Battlefield Park established under this Act.

"(3) The term 'Secretary' means the Secretary of the Interior.

"(4) The term 'owner' means the owner of record as of September 1, 1980.

16 USC 429b-4.

"SEC. 5. (a) In addition to sums heretofore expended for the acquisition of property and interests therein for the park, from funds available for expenditure from the Land and Water Conservation Fund, as established under the Land and Water Conservation Fund

Act of 1965, not more than a total of $8,700,000 may be expended for the acquisition of property and interests therein under this Act. 16 USC 460*l*-4 note.

"(b) It is the express intent of Congress that, except for property referred to in subsection 2(b), the Secretary shall acquire property and interests therein under this Act within two complete fiscal years after the date of the enactment of the Manassas National Battlefield Park Amendments of 1980. Ante, p. 1885.

"SEC. 6. (a) Authorizations of moneys to be appropriated under this Act from the Land and Water Conservation Fund for acquisition of properties and interests shall be effective on October 1, 1981. Effective date. 16 USC 429b-5.

"(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, authority to enter into contracts, to incur obligations, or to make payments under this Act shall be effective only to the extent, and in such amounts as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts.".

SEC. 3. (a) The Secretary of the Interior shall conduct a study to determine appropriate measures for the protection, interpretation, and public use of the natural wetlands and undeveloped uplands of that portion of the Hackensack Meadowlands District identified as the DeKorte State Park on the official zoning maps of that District. The Secretary shall, in the course of the study, consult with and seek the advice of, representatives of interested local, State, and other Federal agencies. As a part of the study, the Secretary shall determine the suitability and feasibility of establishing the area as a unit of the national park system, including its administration as a unit of Gateway National Recreation Area, together with alternative measures that may be undertaken to protect and interpret the resources of the area for the public. Not later than two complete fiscal years from the effective date of this Act, the Secretary shall transmit a report of the study, including the estimated development, operation, and maintenance costs of alternatives identified therein, to the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources and the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs of the House of Representatives, together with his recommendations for such further legislation as may be appropriate. Study. 16 USC 460cc note. Report to congressional committees.

(b) There is authorized to be appropriated from amounts previously authorized to study lands for possible inclusion in the national park system not to exceed $150,000 to carry out the provisions of this Act. Appropriation authorization.

Joint Resolution

Oct. 13, 1980
[H.J. Res. 568]

To authorize and request the President to issue a proclamation designating October 12 through October 19, 1980, as "Italian-American Heritage Week".

Whereas the Congress fully recognizes that it is essential for the people of the United States of America to understand and respect the rich heritage of all American ethnic groups if we are to maintain and foster the national unity; and

Whereas the many great contributions of Italian-Americans to our country must be recognized and the deep Western roots of Italian-American culture, history, and traditions must be appreciated; and

Whereas the long recognized American holiday of Columbus Day is celebrated on the second Monday of October to commemorate the discovery of America by the famous Italian geographer-navigator-explorer, and this day is of special significance to the Italian-American community as a symbol of their essential contributions to American society as courageous immigrants, hard-working citizens, and true American achievers: Now, therefore, be it

Italian-American Heritage Week. Designation authorization.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating October 12 through October 19, 1980, as "Italian-American Heritage Week" and calling upon the people of the United States, State, and local government agencies, and interested organizations to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs.

An Act

To transfer certain employees of the Architect of the Capitol to the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate.

Oct. 13, 1980
[S. 2936]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a)(1) those employees engaged by the Architect of the Capitol under the provisos in the paragraph beginning "Capitol garages:" under the center heading "CAPITOL BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS" under the general heading "ARCHITECT OF THE CAPITOL" in section 1 of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Legislative Branch of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, and for other purposes", approved June 30, 1932 (40 U.S.C. 185a), for the primary purpose of servicing official motor vehicles, together with the functions performed by such employees, shall, on October 1, 1980, be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate.

Certain legislative branch employees, tranfer.
40 USC 185a.

(2) For purposes of section 8339(m) of title 5, United States Code, the days of unused sick leave to the credit of any such employee as of the date such employee is transferred under paragraph (1), shall be included in the total service of such employee in connection with the computation of any annuity under subsections (a)–(e) and (o) of such section.

Unused sick leave, annuity computation.
40 USC 185a note.

(3) In the case of days of annual leave to the credit of any such employee as of the date such employee is transferred under paragraph (1), the Architect of the Capitol is authorized to make a lump sum payment to each such employee for that annual leave. No such payment shall be considered a payment or compensation within the meaning of any law relating to dual compensation.

Unused annual leave, lump sum payment.
40 USC 185a note.

(b) As used in subsection (a), the term "servicing" includes, with respect to an official motor vehicle, the washing and fueling of such vehicle, the checking of its tires and battery, and checking and adding oil.

"Servicing."
40 USC 185a.

SEC. 2. (a) Effective October 1, 1980, the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate is authorized to appoint and fix the compensation of four garage attendants at not to exceed $14,100 per annum each.

Garage attendants, compensation.
40 USC 185a note.

(b) If, and to the extent that, positions established by subsection (a) are first filled by individuals transferred under subsection (a)(1) of the first section, the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate is authorized to fix, in lieu of the compensation prescribed in subsection (a), the compensation—

(1) of not more than two of such positions so filled at not to exceed $16,560 per annum each;

(2) of one of such positions so filled at not to exceed $15,485 per annum; and

(3) of one of such positions so filled at not to exceed $14,390 per annum.

Compensation fixed under this subsection for a position first filled by an individual transferred under subsection (a)(1) of the first section shall cease to be applicable with respect to such position on the date that such individual first ceases to occupy such position.

Longevity compensation.

(c) During any period with respect to which subsection (b) is applicable to a position occupied by an individual described in such subsection, such individual shall be credited, for purposes of longevity compensation, as authorized by section 106 (a), (b), and (d) of the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1963 (2 U.S.C. 60j), for service performed by such individual in the position of garage attendant, as an employee of the Architect of the Capitol, as certified to the Secretary of the Senate by the Architect of the Capitol.

To establish priorities in the payment of claims against the People's Republic of China.

Oct. 13, 1980
[H.R. 6440]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 8 of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 is amended—

People's Republic of China, claim payment priorities.
22 USC 1627.

(1) in subsection (e), by striking out "The" after "(e)" and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in subsection (f), the"; and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(f)(1) Out of sums covered after May 11, 1979, into the special fund created pursuant to this section to receive funds paid by the People's Republic of China, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to make payments on account of awards certified by the Commission pursuant to title V with respect to claims included within the terms of the Agreement Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the People's Republic of China Concerning the Settlement of Claims, signed on May 11, 1979, in the following order of priority:

22 USC 1643.

"(A) Payment in the amount of $1,000 or the principal amount of the award, whichever is less.

"(B) Thereafter, except as provided in paragraph (2), to the extent there remain unpaid principal balances on awards, payments from time to time on account of the unpaid principal balance of each remaining award which bear to such unpaid principal balance the same proportion as the total amount available for distribution at the time such payments are made bears to the aggregate unpaid principal balance of all such awards.

"(C) Thereafter, payments from time to time on account of the unpaid balance of each award of interest which bear to such unpaid balance of interest the same proportion as the total amount available for distribution at the time such payments are made bears to the aggregate unpaid balance of interest of all such awards.

Federal tax benefits.

"(2)(A) For the purpose of computing the payments to be made under paragraph (1) to any claimant which was an incorporated business enterprise on the date of nationalization or other taking of property, the award certified by the Commission under title V shall be reduced by the amount of Federal tax benefits derived by such claimant on account of the losses upon which such claim was based, but in no case shall such payments be reduced below the amount paid to such claimant on account of such claim before the date of the enactment of this subsection. For purposes of this subparagraph, such Federal tax benefits shall be the amount by which the claimant's taxes in any prior taxable year or years under chapters 1, 2A, 2B, 2D, and 2E of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, or subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, were decreased with respect to the loss or losses upon which the claim was based. The sum of the amounts which would otherwise be payable but for this paragraph which are not paid to any such claimant shall be aggregated, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to make payments out of such aggregated sums in accordance with subparagraph (B).

Nonprofit organizations.

"(B) To the extent that there remain unpaid principal balances on awards to claimants which were, on the date of nationalization or other taking of property, nonprofit organizations operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, religious, charitable, or educational purposes (after payments made to such nonprofit organizations pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) are taken into account), the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to make payments from time to time on account of the unpaid principal balance of each remaining award to such nonprofit organizations which bear to such unpaid principal balance the same proportion as the total sums aggregated pursuant to subparagraph (A) at the times such payments are made bear to the aggregate unpaid principal balance of all such awards to nonprofit organizations.".

FINDINGS

49 USC 10101a note.

SEC. 2. The Congress hereby finds that—

(1) historically, railroads were the essential factor in the national transportation system;

(2) the enactment of the Interstate Commerce Act was essential to prevent an abuse of monopoly power by railroads and to establish and maintain a national railroad network;

(3) today, most transportation within the United States is competitive;

(4) many of the Government regulations affecting railroads have become unnecessary and inefficient;

(5) nearly two-thirds of the Nation's intercity freight is transported by modes of transportation other than railroads;

(6) earnings by the railroad industry are the lowest of any transportation mode and are insufficient to generate funds for necessary capital improvements;

(7) by 1985, there will be a capital shortfall within the railroad industry of between $16,000,000,000 and $20,000,000,000;

(8) failure to achieve increased earnings within the railroad industry will result in either further deterioration of the rail system or the necessity for additional Federal subsidy; and

(9) modernization of economic regulation for the railroad industry with a greater reliance on the marketplace is essential in order to achieve maximum utilization of railroads to save energy and combat inflation.

GOALS

49 USC 10101a note.

SEC. 3. The purpose of this Act is to provide for the restoration, maintenance, and improvement of the physical facilities and financial stability of the rail system of the United States. In order to achieve this purpose, it is hereby declared that the goals of this Act are—

(1) to assist the railroads of the Nation in rehabilitating the rail system in order to meet the demands of interstate commerce and the national defense;

(2) to reform Federal regulatory policy so as to preserve a safe, adequate, economical, efficient, and financially stable rail system;

(3) to assist the rail system to remain viable in the private sector of the economy;

(4) to provide a regulatory process that balances the needs of carriers, shippers, and the public; and

(5) to assist in the rehabilitation and financing of the rail system.

TITLE I—RAIL TRANSPORTATION POLICY

RAIL TRANSPORTATION POLICY

SEC. 101. (a) Chapter 101 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 10101 the following new section:

"§ 10101a. Rail transportation policy

49 USC 10101a.

"In regulating the railroad industry, it is the policy of the United States Government—

"(1) to allow, to the maximum extent possible, competition and the demand for services to establish reasonable rates for transportation by rail;

"(2) to minimize the need for Federal regulatory control over the rail transportation system and to require fair and expeditious regulatory decisions when regulation is required;

"(3) to promote a safe and efficient rail transportation system by allowing rail carriers to earn adequate revenues, as determined by the Interstate Commerce Commission;

"(4) to ensure the development and continuation of a sound rail transportation system with effective competition among rail carriers and with other modes, to meet the needs of the public and the national defense;

"(5) to foster sound economic conditions in transportation and to ensure effective competition and coordination between rail carriers and other modes;

"(6) to maintain reasonable rates where there is an absence of effective competition and where rail rates provide revenues which exceed the amount necessary to maintain the rail system and to attract capital;

"(7) to reduce regulatory barriers to entry into and exit from the industry;

"(8) to operate transportation facilities and equipment without detriment to the public health and safety;

"(9) to cooperate with the States on transportation matters to assure that intrastate regulatory jurisdiction is exercised in accordance with the standards established in this subtitle;

"(10) to encourage honest and efficient management of railroads and, in particular, the elimination of noncompensatory rates for rail transportation;

"(11) to require rail carriers, to the maximum extent practicable, to rely on individual rate increases, and to limit the use of increases of general applicability;

"(12) to encourage fair wages and safe and suitable working conditions in the railroad industry;

"(13) to prohibit predatory pricing and practices, to avoid undue concentrations of market power and to prohibit unlawful discrimination;

"(14) to ensure the availability of accurate cost information in regulatory proceedings, while minimizing the burden on rail carriers of developing and maintaining the capability of providing such information; and

"(15) to encourage and promote energy conservation.".

(b) Section 10101(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "To ensure" and inserting in lieu thereof "Except where policy has an impact on rail carriers, in which case the principles of section 10101a of this title shall govern, to ensure". Ante, p. 1897.

(c) The section analysis of chapter 101 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 10101 the following new item:

"10101a. Rail transportation policy.".

TITLE II—RAILROAD RATES AND INTER-CARRIER PRACTICES

REGULATION OF RAILROAD RATES

SEC. 201. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 10701 the following new section:

49 USC 10701a.

"§ 10701a. Standards for rates for rail carriers

"(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section and unless a rate is prohibited by a provision of this title, a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may establish any rate for transportation or other service provided by the carrier. 49 USC 10501.

"(b)(1) If the Commission determines, under section 10709 of this title, that a rail carrier has market dominance over the transportation to which a particular rate applies, the rate established by such carrier for such transportation must be reasonable. 49 USC 10709.

"(2) In any proceeding to determine the reasonableness of a rate described in paragraph (1) of this subsection—

"(A) the shipper challenging such rate shall have the burden of proving that such rate is not reasonable if—

"(i) such rate (I) is authorized under section 10707a of this title, and (II) results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is less than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 10707a(e)(2)(A) of this title; or Post, p. 1901.

"(ii) such rate does not meet the description set forth in clause (i) of this subparagraph, but the Commission does not begin an investigation proceeding under section 10707 of this title to determine whether such rate is reasonable; and

49 USC 10707.

"(B) the rail carrier establishing the challenged rate shall have the burden of proving that such rate is reasonable if—

"(i) such rate (I) is greater than that authorized under section 10707a of this title, or (II) results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is equal to or greater than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 10707a(e)(2)(A) of this title; and

Post, p. 1901.

"(ii) the Commission begins an investigation proceeding under section 10707 of this title to determine whether such rate is reasonable.

"(3) In determining whether a rate established by a rail carrier is reasonable for purposes of this section, the Commission shall recognize the policy of this title that rail carriers shall earn adequate revenues, as established by the Commission under section 10704(a)(2) of this title.

Post, p. 1906.

"(c)(1) A rate for transportation or other service provided by a rail carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may not be established below a reasonable minimum. Any rate for transportation by such a rail carrier that does not contribute to the going concern value of such carrier is presumed to be not reasonable. A rate that contributes to the going concern value of such carrier is conclusively presumed not to be below a reasonable minimum.

49 USC 10501.

"(2) A rate for transportation by a rail carrier that equals or exceeds the variable cost of providing the transportation is conclusively presumed to contribute to the going concern value of such rail carrier.

"(3)(A) Upon the filing of a complaint alleging that a rate is in violation of this subsection, the Commission shall take final action thereon by the 90th day after the date such complaint is filed.

"(B) If the Commission determines, based on the record after opportunity for a hearing, that a rate is in violation of this subsection, the Commission shall order such rate to be raised, but only to the minimum level required by this subsection. The complainant shall have the burden of proving that such rate is in violation of this subsection.

"(4)(A) For purposes of this subsection, variable costs shall be determined under formulas or procedures prescribed or certified by the Commission.

"(B) In the determination of variable costs for purposes of minimum rate regulation, the Commission shall, on application of the rail carrier proposing the rate, determine only the costs of such carrier and only those costs of the specific service in question unless the specific information is not available. The Commission may not include in such variable costs an expense that does not vary directly with the level of transportation provided under the proposed rate.".

(b)(1) Section 10701(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(A) by inserting "(other than a rail rate)" immediately after "A rate" in the first sentence;

(B) by inserting "(including a rail carrier)" immediately after "such a carrier" in the second sentence thereof; and

(C) by inserting "(including rail carriers)" immediately after "those carriers" in the third sentence thereof.

Repeal.

(2) Section 10701(b) of title 49, United States Code, is repealed.

(3) The section analysis of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately below the item relating to section 10701 the following new item:

"10701a. Standards for rates for rail carriers.".

DETERMINATION OF MARKET DOMINANCE

SEC. 202. Section 10709 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Definitions.

"(d)(1) In this subsection—

"(A) 'fixed and variable cost' means all cost incurred by rail carriers in the transportation of freight, but limiting the return on equity capital to a rate equal to the embedded cost of debt.

"(B)(i) 'cost recovery percentage' means the lowest revenue-variable cost percentage which, if all movements that produced revenues resulting in revenue-variable cost percentages in excess of the cost recovery percentage are deemed to have produced only revenues resulting in the cost recovery percentage, would produce revenues which would be equal, when combined with total revenues produced by all other traffic transported by rail carrier, to the total fixed and variable cost of the transportation of all traffic by rail carrier.

"(ii) for purposes of determining the cost recovery percentage only, 'revenue-variable cost percentage' means the quotient, expressed as a percentage figure, obtained by dividing the total revenues produced by the transportation of all traffic received by rail carriers for rail transportation by the total variable cost of such transportation.

"(2) In making a determination under this section, the Commission shall find that the rail carrier establishing the challenged rate does not have market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies if such rail carrier proves that the rate charged results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for such transportation that is less than—

Ante, p. 1895.

"(A) 160 percent during the period beginning on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and ending September 30, 1981;

"(B) 165 percent during the period beginning October 1, 1981, and ending September 30, 1982;

"(C) 170 percent during the period beginning October 1, 1982, and ending September 30, 1983;

"(D) 175 percent or the cost recovery percentage, whichever is less, during the period beginning October 1, 1983, and ending September 30, 1984; and

"(E) the cost recovery percentage, during each 12-month period beginning on or after October 1, 1984.

Cost recovery percentage.

For purposes of subparagraphs (D) and (E) of this paragraph, the cost recovery percentage shall in no event be less than a revenue-variable cost percentage of 170 percent or more than a revenue-variable cost percentage of 180 percent.

Revenue-variable cost percentage.
Ante, p. 1916.

"(3) For purposes of determining the revenue-variable cost percentage for a particular transportation, variable costs shall be determined pursuant to section 10705a(m)(1) of this title, with adjustments specified by the Commission. A rail carrier may meet its burden of proof under this subsection by establishing its variable costs in accordance with such section 10705a(m)(1), but a shipper may rebut that showing by evidence of such type, and in accordance with such burden of proof, as the Commission shall prescribe.

"(4) A finding by the Commission that a rate charged by a rail carrier results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is equal to or greater than the applicable percentage under paragraph (2) of this subsection does not establish a presumption that (A) such rail carrier has or does not have market dominance over such transportation, or (B) the proposed rate exceeds or does not exceed a reasonable maximum.

Cost recovery percentages. Ante, p. 1895.

"(5)(A) Within 180 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and on an annual basis thereafter, the Commission shall determine the cost recovery percentage for the transportation of all traffic received by rail carriers. The Commission shall make such determination after considering each individual revenue-variable cost percentage resulting from the revenues and costs of a valid and reliable statistical sample of all movements of commodities transported by class I rail carriers during the most recent calendar year for which such information is available.

"(B) If, on the basis of calculations under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the Commission determines that revenues earned by all class I rail carriers during the previous calendar year do not exceed the fixed and variable costs of such carriers, then the cost recovery percentage for purposes of this section shall be deemed to be equal to the cost recovery percentage last determined by the Commission.

49 USC 10311.

"(C) The Commission shall, in its annual report submitted to the Congress under section 10311 of this title, set forth the cost recovery percentage determined for that year under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.".

ZONE OF RATE FLEXIBILITY

SEC. 203. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 10707 the following new section:

49 USC 10707a.

"§ 10707a. Zone of rail carrier rate flexibility

"(a) In this section—

"Base rate."

"(1)(A) 'base rate' means, with respect to the transportation of a particular commodity (i) for the 24-month period beginning on October 1, 1980, the rate in effect on October 1, 1980, (ii) for the 24-month period beginning on October 1, 1982, the rate in effect on October 1, 1982, and (iii) for the 5-year period beginning on October 1, 1984, and for each subsequent 5-year period, the rate in effect on the first day of the applicable 5-year period.

"(B) If no rate exists for the transportation of a particular commodity on October 1, 1980, the base rate for the transportation of such commodity shall be the rate established by the rail carrier (divided by the latest rail cost adjustment factor published by the Commission), unless such rate is found to be unreasonable by the Commission, in which case the base rate shall be the rate authorized by the Commission (divided by the latest rail cost adjustment factor published by the Commission).

"Adjusted base rate."

"(2)(A) 'adjusted base rate' means the base rate for the transportation of a particular commodity multiplied by the latest rail cost adjustment factor published by the Commission pursuant to this paragraph.

Rail cost adjustment factor.

"(B) Commencing with the fourth quarter of 1980, the Commission shall, as often as practicable but in no event less often than quarterly, publish a rail cost adjustment factor which shall be a fraction, the numerator of which is the latest published Index of Railroad Costs (which index shall be compiled or verified by the Commission, with appropriate adjustments to reflect the changing composition of railroad costs, including the quality and mix of material and labor), and the denominator of which is the same index for the fourth quarter of 1980, or for the fourth quarter of 1982 or for the fourth quarter of every fifth year thereafter, as appropriate.

Rate increase.

49 USC 10501.
49 USC 10709.

"(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may increase any rate over which the Commission has jurisdiction under section 10709 of this title so long as the increased rate is not greater than the adjusted base rate for the transportation involved, plus any rate increases implemented under subsection (c) or (d) of this section.

"(2) A rate increase authorized under this subsection may not be found to exceed a reasonable maximum for the transportation involved.

49 USC 10706.
49 USC 10712.

"(3) A rail carrier may not increase a rate under this subsection to the extent that the cost increases to such carrier due to inflation are recovered through (A) general rate increases pursuant to section 10706 of this title, or (B) inflation-based rate increases under section 10712 of this title applicable to that rate.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(c)(1) During the 12-month period beginning on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and during each of the 3 succeeding 12-month periods, a rail carrier may, in addition to rate increases authorized under subsection (b) of this section, increase any rate over which the Commission has jurisdiction under section 10709 of this title by an annual amount of not more than 6 percent of the adjusted base rate, except that in no event shall the total increase under this subsection result in a rate which is more than 118 percent of the adjusted base rate.

"(2)(A) If any portion of a rate increase under this subsection is not implemented in the year in which it is authorized, such portion may, except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, be implemented only in the next succeeding year.

"(B) If any portion of the total rate increase authorized under this subsection is not implemented by the end of the 4-year period beginning on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, such portion may be implemented in the next 2 succeeding years, except that in no event may a rail carrier increase a rate under this subsection or under subsection (d) of this section in either of such 2 succeeding years by an annual amount of more than 10 percent of the adjusted base rate.

"(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, during the 12-month period beginning on October 1, 1984, and during each succeeding 12-month period, a rail carrier may, in addition to rate increases under subsection (b) of this section, increase any rate over which the Commission has jurisdiction under section 10709 of this title by an annual amount of not more than 4 percent of the adjusted base rate.

"(2) No portion of any rate increase under this subsection which is not implemented in the year in which it is authorized may be implemented in any other year.

"(3)(A) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a rail carrier proposing to increase a single line rate if such carrier earns adequate revenues, as determined by the Commission under section 10704(a)(2) of this title.

Post, p. 1906.
Joint rates, rules.

"(B) The Commission shall, after a hearing on the record, prescribe such rules with respect to joint rates as necessary to ensure that rail carriers which earn adequate revenues, as determined under section 10704(a)(2) of this title, do not receive the rate increases authorized by this subsection unless the Commission determines that it is unable to prescribe such rules without precluding rail carriers not earning adequate revenues from receiving the rate increases authorized under this subsection.

49 USC 10707.

"(e)(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10707 of this title, in the case of any rate increase by a rail carrier that is authorized under subsection (c) or (d) of this section—

"(A)(i) the Commission may not suspend such rate increase pending final Commission action; and

"(ii) except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Commission may not begin an investigation proceeding under section 10707 of this title with respect to the reasonableness of such rate increase; but

49 USC 11701.

"(B) an interested party may file a complaint under section 11701(b) of this title alleging that such rate increase violates the provisions of this subtitle.

In considering any complaint challenging a rate increase that is authorized under subsection (c) of this section and that results in a revenue-variable cost percentage that is less than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of paragraph (2)(A), the Commission shall, in determining the reasonableness of such rate increase, give due consideration to whether the carrier proposing the rate increase has attained adequate revenues, as determined by the Commission under section 10704(a)(2) of this title, giving regard to preventing a carrier with adequate revenues from realizing excessive profits on the traffic involved and also the policy of bringing to an adequate level the revenues of carriers not having an adequate revenue level.

"(2)(A) If a rate increase authorized under this section in any year results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is equal to or greater than—

"(i) 20 percentage points above the revenue-variable cost percentage applicable in that year under section 10709(d) of this title; or

Ante, p. 1900.

"(ii) a revenue-variable cost percentage of 190 percent, whichever is less, the Commission may, on its own initiative, or on complaint of an interested party, begin an investigation proceeding to determine whether the proposed rate increase violates this subtitle.

"(B) In determining whether to investigate or not to investigate any proposed rate increase that results in a revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is equal to or greater than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph (without regard to whether such rate increase is authorized under this section), the Commission shall set forth its reasons therefor, giving due consideration to the following factors:

"(i) the amount of traffic which is transported at revenues which do not contribute to going concern value and efforts made to minimize such traffic;

"(ii) the amount of traffic which contributes only marginally to fixed costs and the extent to which, if any, rates on such traffic can be changed to maximize the revenues from such traffic; and

Ante, p. 1897.

49 USC 10704.

"(iii) the impact of the proposed rate or rate increase on the attainment of the national energy goals and the rail transportation policy under section 10101a of this title, taking into account the railroads' role as a primary source of energy transportation and the need for a sound rail transportation system in accordance with the revenue adequacy goals of section 10704 of this title.

This subparagraph shall not be construed to change existing law with regard to the nonreviewability of such determination.

"(C) In determining whether a rate is reasonable, the Commission shall consider, among other factors, evidence of the following:

"(i) the amount of traffic which is transported at revenues which do not contribute to going concern value and efforts made to minimize such traffic;

"(ii) the amount of traffic which contributes only marginally to fixed costs and the extent to which, if any, rates on such traffic can be changed to maximize the revenues from such traffic; and

"(iii) the carrier's mix of rail traffic to determine whether one commodity is paying an unreasonable share of the carrier's overall revenues.

"(f) In any proceeding under this section, evidence of the underlying rail carrier rate is admissible.

"(g) A finding by the Commission that a rate increase exceeds the increase authorized under this section does not establish a presumption that (1) the rail carrier proposing such rate increase has or does not have market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies, or (2) the proposed rate exceeds or does not exceed a reasonable maximum.

"(h) The authority of the Commission to determine and prescribe reasonable rules, classifications, and practices may not be used, directly or indirectly, to limit the rates which rail carriers are otherwise authorized to establish under this subtitle.".

(b) The section analysis of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 10707 the following new item:

"10707a. Zone of rail carrier rate flexibility.".

Rail carrier rate increases.
49 USC 10707a note.

(c)(1) Any rail carrier rate which increased over 70 percent between 1976 and 1979 inclusive for the transportation, in shipper owned equipment over a distance exceeding 1,550 miles between points within the United States, of coal pursuant to a tariff calling for an annual volume of more than 2,000,000 tons per year purchased by a municipally owned utility for the generation of electric power under a 20-year purchase agreement entered into by such utility in the year 1974 shall not be increased so long as coal is purchased under such original agreement, except that—

(A) during the period beginning October 1, 1980, and ending September 30, 1987, the Interstate Commerce Commission may permit increases in such rate which result in a revenue-variable cost percentage of not more than 162 percent; and

Ante, p. 1898.

Ante, p. 1900.

(B) after October 1, 1987, such rate shall be subject to section 10701a of title 49, United States Code, and related provisions of such title governing regulation of rail carrier rates, except that until such rate results in a revenue-variable cost percentage that is equal to or greater than the revenue-variable cost percentage applicable under section 10709(d) of such title, such rate may not be increased more than 4 percent, in addition to inflation, in any year.

(2) Neither the provisions of this subsection nor any rate subject to this subsection shall be admissible as evidence or considered in any way in any proceeding involving any other rail carrier rate that is commenced to determine market dominance under section 10709 of title 49, United States Code, or to determine reasonableness under section 10701a of such title.

Ante, p. 1898.

TRANSPORTATION OF RECYCLABLE MATERIALS

Sec. 204. Section 10731 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title or any other law, within 90 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, all rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title shall take all actions necessary to reduce and thereafter maintain rates for the transportation of recyclable or recycled materials, other than recyclable or recycled iron or steel, at revenue-to-variable cost ratio levels that are equal to or less than the average revenue-to-variable cost ratio that rail carriers would be required to realize, under honest, economical, and efficient management, in order to cover total operating expenses, including depreciation and obsolescence, plus a reasonable and economic profit or return (or both) on capital employed in the business sufficient to attract and retain capital in amounts adequate to provide a sound transportation system in the United States. As long as any such rate equals or exceeds such average revenue-to-variable cost ratio established by the Commission, such rate shall not be required to bear any further rate increase. The Commission shall have jurisdiction to issue all orders necessary to enforce the requirements of this subsection.".

49 USC 10501.

RATE REGULATION PROCEEDINGS; ADEQUATE REVENUES

Sec. 205. (a)(1) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall commence a proceeding for purposes of determining whether, and to what extent, product competition should be considered in proceedings under subtitle IV of title 49, United States Code, to determine the reasonableness of rail carrier rates. The Commission shall complete its proceeding under this subsection within 230 days after the effective date of this Act.

49 USC 10701a note.

49 USC 10101.

(2)(A) For purposes of this subsection, the term "product competition" means the availability to a consignee, at a competitive delivered cost and in sufficient quantities, of products or commodities which are of the same type as the commodity or product to which the rate in question applies, without regard to whether such products or commodities are available from the same or a different origin as those to which the rate applies.

"Product competition."

(B) In determining the availability of alternative sources of a particular commodity for purposes of this subsection, such commodity must be capable, by reason of similar specifications, of being effectively utilized by the consignee.

(C) In determining the availability of alternative sources of coal for purposes of this subsection, such coal must be capable, by reason of similar specifications such as Btu's, sulfur content, and ash content, of being effectively utilized by the consignee.

(D) For purposes of this subsection, any coal imported in the United States for the generation of electricity by utilities shall not be taken into account in the determination of whether coal is available to a consignee from another source.

(3)(A) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring the Commission to modify its standards for the determination of the reasonableness of rail carrier rates under existing law and procedures.

"Market dominance."

(B) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as altering the meaning, use, or interpretation by the Commission, the courts, or any party of the term "market dominance", as defined in section 10709(a) of title 49, United States Code. The enactment of this subsection shall not be considered by the Commission in any proceeding, or by any court on an appeal from that or any other proceeding, to determine the proper scope of the term "market dominance" or whether there is market dominance over the transportation to which any particular rate applies.

(b)(1) Section 10704(a)(2) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting "and revise as necessary" immediately after "shall maintain".

(2) Section 10704(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

"(3) The Commission shall conclude a proceeding under paragraph (2) of this subsection within 180 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and thereafter as necessary.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(4) On the basis of the standards and procedures under paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Commission shall, within 180 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and on an annual basis thereafter, determine which rail carriers are earning adequate revenues.".

INFLATION-BASED RATE INCREASES

SEC. 206. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

49 USC 10712.

"§ 10712. Inflation-based rate increases

Ante, p. 1897.

"(a) The Commission may, on a quarterly basis and consistent with the rail transportation policy set forth in section 10101a of this title, prescribe a percentage rate increase or rate index for rail carriers in order to compensate for inflationary cost increases. Such percentage rate increase or rate index may be applicable on an industry-wide, territory-wide, or carrier-by-carrier basis.

"(b) Within 60 days after the date the Commission prescribes a percentage rate increase or rate index under subsection (a) of this section, each rail carrier or group of rail carriers shall notify the Commission of any rate or group of rates which such carrier or carriers intend to be excluded from the application of such percentage rate increase or rate index.

Percentage rate index.

"(c) For purposes of this section, a percentage rate index may permit rate increases within a specified range to allow carriers to recover a total revenue increase specified by the Commission as necessary to compensate for inflationary cost increases.".

(b) The section analysis for chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 10711 the following new item:

"10712. Inflation-based rate increases.".

INVESTIGATION AND SUSPENSION OF RATES

Sec. 207. (a) Section 10707(b)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) The Commission must complete a proceeding under this section and make its final decision by the end of the 5th month after the rate, classification, rule, or practice was to become effective, except that if the Commission reports to the Congress by the end of such 5th month that it cannot make a final decision by that time and explains the reason for the delay, it may take an additional 3 months to complete the proceeding and make its final decision. If the Commission does not reach a final decision within the applicable time period, the rate, classification, rule, or practice—

"(A) is effective at the end of that time period; or

"(B) if already in effect at the end of that time period, remains in effect.".

(b) Section 10707(c) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(c)(1) The Commission may not suspend a proposed rate, classification, rule, or practice during the course of a Commission proceeding under this section unless it appears from the specific facts shown by the verified statement of a person that—

"(A) it is substantially likely that the protestant will prevail on the merits;

"(B) without suspension, the proposed rate change will cause substantial injury to the protestant or the party represented by the protestant; and

"(C) because of the peculiar economic circumstances of the protestant, the provisions of subsection (d) of this section do not protect the protestant.

"(2) The burden shall be on the protestant to prove the matters described in paragraph (1) (A), (B), and (C) of this subsection.".

(c) Section 10707(d) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(d)(1) If the Commission does not suspend a proposed rate increase under subsection (c) of this section, the Commission shall require the rail carrier to account for all amounts received under the increase until the Commission completes its proceedings under subsection (b) of this section. The accounting shall specify by whom and for whom the amounts are paid. When the Commission takes final action, it shall require the carrier to refund to the person for whom the amounts were paid that part of the increased rate found to be unreasonable, plus interest at a rate equal to the average yield (on the date the statement is filed) of marketable securities of the United States Government having a duration of 90 days.

"(2) If a rate is suspended under subsection (c) of this section and any portion of such rate is later found to be reasonable under this title, the carrier shall collect from each person using the transportation to which the rate applies the difference between the original rate and the portion of the suspended rate found to be reasonable for any services performed during the period of suspension, plus interest at a rate equal to the average yield (on the date the statement is filed) of marketable securities of the United States Government having a duration of 90 days, except that this paragraph shall not apply to general rate increases under section 10706 of this title. 49 USC 10706.

"(3) If any portion of a proposed rate decrease is suspended under subsection (c) of this section and later found to be reasonable under this title, the rail carrier may refund any part of the portion of the decrease found to comply with this title if the carrier makes the refund available to each shipper who participated in the rate, in accordance with the relative amount of such shipper's traffic transported at such rate.

"(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10741 or section 10761 of this title, the Commission shall, by rule, establish standards and procedures permitting a rail carrier to waive the collection of amounts due under this subsection if such amounts are not significant.".

Repeal.

(d) Section 10707(e) of title 49, United States Code, is repealed.

CONTRACTS

SEC. 208. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, as amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

49 USC 10713.

"§ 10713. Contracts

49 USC 10501.

"(a) One or more rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may enter into a contract with one or more purchasers of rail services to provide specified services under specified rates and conditions. Such a rail carrier may not enter into a contract with purchasers of rail service except as provided in this section.

Special tariff rules.

"(b) Each contract entered into under this section shall be filed with the Commission, together with a summary of the contract containing such nonconfidential information as the Commission prescribes. The Commission shall publish special tariff rules for such contracts in order to assure that the essential terms of the contract are available to the general public in tariff format.

Approval.

"(c) A contract filed under this section shall be approved by the Commission, as provided in subsection (e) of this section, unless the Commission determines in a proceeding under subsection (d) of this section that such contract is in violation of this section.

Review.

"(d)(1) No later than 30 days after the date of filing of a contract under this section, the Commission may, on its own initiative or on complaint, begin a proceeding to review such contract on the grounds described in this subsection.

Complaint filing.

"(2)(A) In the case of a contract other than a contract for the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products and paper), a complaint may be filed—

49 USC 11101.

"(i) by a shipper only on the grounds that such shipper individually will be harmed because the proposed contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting carrier or carriers to meet their common carrier obligations to the complainant under section 11101 of this title; or

"(ii) by a port only on the grounds that such port individually will be harmed because the proposed contract will result in unreasonable discrimination against such port.

Agricultural commodities.

"(B) In the case of a contract for the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products and paper), in addition to the grounds for a complaint described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, a complaint may be filed by a shipper on the grounds that such shipper individually will be harmed because—

"(i) the rail carrier has unreasonably discriminated by refusing to enter into a contract with such shipper for rates and services for the transportation of the same type of commodity under similar conditions to the contract at issue, and that shipper was ready, willing, and able to enter into such a contract at a time essentially contemporaneous with the period during which the contract at issue was offered; or

"(ii) the proposed contract constitutes a destructive competitive practice under this subtitle.

In making a determination under clause (ii) of this subparagraph, the Commission shall consider the difference between contract rates and published single car rates.

"Unreasonable discrimination."

"(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'unreasonable discrimination' has the same meaning as such term has under section 10741 of this title.

49 USC 10741.

"(3)(A) Within 30 days after the date a proceeding is commenced under paragraph (1) of this subsection, or within such shorter time period after such date as the Commission may establish, the Commission shall determine whether the contract that is the subject of such proceeding is in violation of this section.

Rates and service.

"(B) If the Commission determines, on the basis of a complaint filed under paragraph (2)(B)(i) of this subsection, that the grounds for a complaint described in such paragraph have been established with respect to a carrier, the Commission shall, subject to the provisions of this section, order such carrier to provide rates and service substantially similar to the contract at issue with such differentials in terms and conditions as are justified by the evidence.

Effective dates.

"(e) Approval of a contract filed under this section shall be effective—

"(1) on the date the Commission expressly approves such contract, but in no event before the end of the 30-day period beginning on the date such contract is filed or after the end of the 60-day period beginning on such date; or

"(2) if the Commission has not disapproved such contract by the end of the 60-day period beginning on the date such contract is filed, at the end of such 60-day period.

Future contracts.

"(f) The Commission may limit the right of a rail carrier to enter into future contracts under this section following a determination that additional contracts would impair the ability of the rail carrier to fulfill its common carrier obligations under section 11101 of this title.

49 USC 11101.

"(g) The Commission may not require a rail carrier to violate the terms of a contract that has been approved under this section, except to the extent necessary to comply with section 11128 of this title.

49 USC 11128.

"(h) A party to a contract entered into under this section shall have no duty in connection with services provided under such contract other than those duties specified by the terms of the contract.

"(i)(1) A contract that is approved by the Commission under this section, and transportation under such contract, shall not be subject to this subtitle, and may not be subsequently challenged before the Commission or in any court on the grounds that such contract violates a provision of this subtitle.

"(2) The exclusive remedy for any alleged breach of a contract entered into under this section shall be an action in an appropriate State court or United States district court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

"(j) The provisions of this section shall not affect the status of any lawful contract between a rail carrier and one or more purchasers of rail service that is in effect on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980. Any such contract shall hereafter have the same force and effect as if it had been entered into in accordance with the provisions of this section. Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the parties to challenge the existence of such a contract.

Ante, p. 1895.

Agricultural commodities, transportation.

"(k)(1) Any rail carrier may, in accordance with the terms of this section, enter into contracts for the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products and paper) involving the utilization of carrier owned or leased equipment not in excess of 40 percent of the capacity of such carrier's owned or leased equipment by major car type (plain boxcars, covered hopper cars, gondolas and open top hoppers, coal cars, bulkhead flatcars, pulpwood rackcars, and flatbed equipment, including TOFC/COFC), except that in the case of a proposed contract between a class I carrier and a shipper originating an average of 1,000 cars or more per year during the prior 3-year period by major car type on a particular carrier, not more than 40 percent of carrier owned or leased equipment utilized on the average during the prior 3-year period may be used for such contract without prior authorization by the Commission.

"(2) The Commission may, on request of a rail carrier or other party or on its own initiative, grant such relief from the limitations of paragraph (1) of this subsection as the Commission considers appropriate, if it appears that additional equipment may be made available without impairing the rail carrier's ability to meet its common carrier obligations under section 11101 of this title.

49 USC 11101.

"(l) Service under a contract approved under this section shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct class of service, and the equipment used in the fulfillment of such a contract shall not be subject to car service decisions under section 11123 of this title.

49 USC 11123.

Railroad contract rate advisory service.

"(m) The Commission shall establish a railroad contract rate advisory service. The advisory service shall—

"(1) compile and disseminate to interested parties nonconfidential summaries of the provisions of individual contract information relating to the provisions of contracts entered into under this section with regard to various goods, items, and commodities covered by such contracts;

"(2) provide the Commission and interested parties with advice regarding contracts; and

"(3) assess the impact on competition among shippers of variations between contract rates for various shipments and the published single car rates, and submit a report on such impact to the Congress not later than 90 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980.".

Ante, p. 1895.

(b) The section analysis for chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 10712, as added by this Act, the following new item:

"10713. Contracts.".

DEMAND SENSITIVE RATES

Repeal.

SEC. 209. Section 10727 of title 49, United States Code, and the item relating to such section in the section analysis for chapter 107 of such title, are repealed.

PHASEOUT OF CAPITAL INCENTIVE RATES

Repeal.

SEC. 210. (a) Section 10729 of title 49, United States Code, and the item relating to such section in the section analysis of chapter 107 of such title, are repealed.

49 USC 10729 note.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any rate established by a rail carrier under section 10729 of title 49, United States

Code, prior to the effective date of this Act shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms, but for no longer than 5 years after the date it became effective, unless the parties otherwise agree. However, the Interstate Commerce Commission may, during the period such a rate is in effect, order such rate revised to a level equal to the incremental cost of providing the transportation if the Commission finds that the level then in effect reduces the going concern value of the rail carrier.

Rate revision.

PERMISSIVE LIMITED LIABILITY RATES

SEC. 211. (a) Section 10730(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting "and excluding any rail carrier" immediately after "motor common carrier of property".

(b) Section 10730 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) A rail carrier providing transportation or service subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may establish rates for transportation of property under which the liability of the carrier for such property is limited to a value established by written declaration of the shipper or by a written agreement between the shipper and the carrier, and may provide in such written declaration or agreement for specified amounts to be deducted from any claim against the carrier for loss or damage to the property or for delay in the transportation of such property.".

49 USC 10501.

(c) Section 11707(d) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting "(1)" immediately after "(d)";

(2) by inserting "(other than a rail carrier)" immediately after "delivering carrier"; and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2)(A) A civil action under this section may only be brought—

"(i) against the originating rail carrier, in the judicial district in which the point of origin is located;

"(ii) against the delivering rail carrier, in the judicial district in which the principal place of business of the person bringing the action is located if the delivering carrier operates a railroad or a route through such judicial district, or in the judicial district in which the point of destination is located; and

"(iii) against the carrier alleged to have caused the loss or damage, in the judicial district in which such loss or damage is alleged to have occurred.

"(B) A civil action under this section may be brought in a United States district court or in a State court.

"(C) In this section, 'judicial district' means (i) in the case of a United States district court, a judicial district of the United States, and (ii) in the case of a State court, the applicable geographic area over which such court exercises jurisdiction.".

"Judicial district."

(d) Within one year after the effective date of this Act, the Attorney General and the Interstate Commerce Commission shall independently investigate whether rail carriers should continue to be subject to section 11707 of title 49, United States Code, and submit a report to the Congress setting forth recommendations to Congress for appropriate legislative action. Each such investigation shall address the following issues:

Investigation; report to Congress.
49 USC 11707 note.

(1) Whether, in the case of traffic with respect to which rail carriers do not have market dominance, such carriers should be subject to any higher level of liability for loss and damage than they are willing to agree to with the shippers of such traffic.

(2) Whether, in the case of traffic with respect to which rail carriers have market dominance, such carriers should be subject to any greater liability than would be imposed under a statutory comparative negligence standard.

(3) Whether liability for damage to rail traffic should be determined under a no-fault liability system and what shippers should bear the cost of such a system.

(4) Whether venue in cases arising from rail carrier liability for damages to traffic should be further limited.

(5) Whether rail carrier property damage cases should be subject to laws other than Federal law.

(6) Whether the right to claims should be limited to either the shipper or receiver of property.

(7) Whether maximum time limits should be imposed on the filing of claims with rail carriers and the courts.

(8) Whether the prevailing party in a claims proceeding should be awarded attorneys fees in order to limit needless litigation.

(9) Whether excessive attorneys fees are awarded in cases under section 11707 of title 49, United States Code.

(10) Whether claimants should be able to recover damages in excess of the market value of the commodity transported unless liability for special or consequential damages is agreed to by the carrier in unity.

RATE DISCRIMINATION

SEC. 212. Section 10741 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out subsection (e) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:

"(e) Differences between rates, classifications, rules, and practices of rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title do not constitute a violation of this section if such differences result from different services provided by rail carriers.

49 USC 10501.

"(f) This section shall not apply to—

"(1) contracts approved under section 10713 of this title, other than as provided in subsection (d)(2)(A)(ii) and (d)(2)(B) of such section;

Ante, p. 1908.

"(2) surcharges or cancellations under section 10705a of this title;

"(3) separate rates for distinct rail services under section 10728 of this title;

49 USC 10728.

"(4) rail rates applicable to different routes; or

"(5) expenses authorized under section 10751 of this title, except that with respect to rates described in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4), nothing in this subsection shall affect the authority of the Commission under this section with respect to rate relationships between ports or within the same port.".

49 USC 10751.

EXEMPTION

SEC. 213. Section 10505 of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 10505. Authority to exempt rail carrier transportation

"(a) In a matter related to a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under this subchapter, the Commission shall exempt a person, class of persons, or a transaction or service when the Commission finds that the application of a provision of this subtitle—

"(1) is not necessary to carry out the transportation policy of section 10101a of this title; and Ante, p. 1897.

"(2) either (A) the transaction or service is of limited scope, or (B) the application of a provision of this subtitle is not needed to protect shippers from the abuse of market power.

"(b) The Commission may, where appropriate, begin a proceeding under this section on its own initiative or on application by the Secretary of Transportation or an interested party.

"(c) The Commission may specify the period of time during which an exemption granted under this section is effective.

Exemption revocation.

"(d) The Commission may revoke an exemption, to the extent it specifies, when it finds that application of a provision of this subtitle to the person, class, or transportation is necessary to carry out the transportation policy of section 10101a of this title.

Liability and claims.

"(e) No exemption order issued pursuant to this section shall operate to relieve any rail carrier from an obligation to provide contractual terms for liability and claims which are consistent with the provisions of section 11707 of this title. Nothing in this subsection or section 11707 of this title shall prevent rail carriers from offering alternative terms nor give the Commission the authority to require any specific level of rates or services based upon the provisions of section 11707 of this title. 49 USC 11707.

"(f) The Commission may exercise its authority under this section to exempt transportation that is provided by a rail carrier as a part of a continuous intermodal movement.

Intermodal ownership, prohibition.

"(g) The Commission may not exercise its authority under this section (1) to authorize intermodal ownership that is otherwise prohibited by this title, or (2) to relieve a carrier of its obligation to protect the interests of employees as required by this subtitle."

INTRASTATE RATES

SEC. 214. (a) Section 11501(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking out paragraph (2).

(2) by striking out "(a)(1)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(a)";

(3) by striking out "subchapter I or IV" and inserting in lieu thereof "subchapter IV"; and

(4) by redesignating subparagraphs (A) and (B) as paragraphs (1) and (2), respectively.

(b) Section 11501 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by redesignating subsections (b) and (c) as subsections (d) and (e), respectively, and by inserting immediately after subsection (a) the following new subsections:

"(b)(1) A State authority may only exercise jurisdiction over intrastate transportation provided by a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title if such State authority exercises such jurisdiction exclusively in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle. 49 USC 10501.

"(2) Within 120 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, each State authority exercising jurisdiction over intrastate Ante, p. 1895.

rates, classifications, rules, and practices for intrastate transportation described in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall submit to the Commission the standards and procedures (including timing requirements) used by such State authority in exercising such jurisdiction.

"(3)(A) Within 90 days after receipt of the intrastate regulatory rate standards and procedures of a State authority under paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Commission shall certify such State authority for purposes of this subsection if the Commission determines that such standards and procedures are in accordance with the standards and procedures applicable to regulation of rail carriers by the Commission under this title. If the Commission determines that such standards and procedures are not in such accordance, it shall deny certification to such State authority, and such State authority may resubmit new standards and procedures to the Commission for review in accordance with this subsection.

Certification denial.

"(B) The standards and procedures existing in each State on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 for the exercise of jurisdiction over intrastate rail rates, classifications, rules, and practices shall be deemed to be certified by the Commission from that date until the date an initial determination is made by the Commission under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(4)(A) Any State authority which is certified by the Commission under this subsection may use its standards and procedures in exercising jurisdiction over intrastate rail rates, classifications, rules, and practices during the 5-year period commencing on the date of such certification. Any State authority which is denied certification or which does not seek certification may not exercise any jurisdiction over intrastate rates, classifications, rules, and practices until it receives certification under this subsection.

"(B) Any intrastate transportation provided by a rail carrier in a State which may not exercise jurisdiction over an intrastate rate, classification, rule, or practice of that carrier due to a denial of certification under this subsection shall be deemed to be transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title.

49 USC 10501.

5-year certification period.

"(5)(A) Certification of a State authority under this subsection is valid for the 5-year period beginning on the date of such certification. Prior to the expiration of such 5-year period, the State authority shall resubmit its intrastate regulatory standards procedures to the Commission for subsequent certification in accordance with this subsection.

"(B) During any 5-year certification period, a State may not change its certified standards and procedures without notifying and receiving express approval from the Commission.

"(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, a State authority may not exercise any jurisdiction over general rate increases under section 10706 of this title, inflation-based rate increases under section 10712 of this title, or fuel adjustment surcharges approved by the Commission.

49 USC 10706.
Ante, p. 1906.

"(c) Any rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may petition the Commission to review the decision of any State authority, in any administrative proceeding in which the lawfulness of an intrastate rate, classification, rule, or practice is determined, on the grounds that the standards and procedures applied by the State were not in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle. The Commission shall take final action on any such petition within 30 days after the date it is received. If the Commission determines that the standards and procedures were not in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle, its order shall determine and authorize the carrier to establish the appropriate rate, classification, rule, or practice.".

(c)(1) Section 11501(d)(2) of title 49, United States Code, as redesignated by subsection (b) of this section, is amended by inserting "and chapter 107 of this title" immediately before the period at the end of the first sentence.

(2) Section 10103(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "The" and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as otherwise provided in this subtitle, the".

(3) Section 10501(a)(2) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting "such jurisdiction is not limited by subsection (b) of this section or the extent" immediately after "to the extent".

(4) Section 10501(c) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting "(1) the transportation is deemed to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission pursuant to section 11501(b)(4)(B) of this title, or (2)" immediately after "unless". Ante, p. 1913.

(5) Section 10501 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) The jurisdiction of the Commission and of State authorities (to the extent such authorities are authorized to administer the standards and procedures of this title pursuant to this section and section 11501(b) of this title) over transportation by rail carriers, and the remedies provided in this title with respect to the rates, classifications, rules, and practices of such carriers, is exclusive.".

BUSINESS ENTERTAINMENT EXPENSES

SEC. 215. Section 10751 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "(other than transportation by rail)" in subsections (a) and (b).

(b) The provisions of section 10751 of title 49, United States Code, as amended by subsection (a) of this section, shall apply to any expense of the type described in subsection (a) of such section 10751 that was incurred prior to the effective date of this Act (other than an expense with respect to which a penalty was paid pursuant to section 10761 of such title 49) or that is incurred on or after such effective date. 49 USC 10751 note. 49 USC 10761.

EFFICIENT MARKETING

SEC. 216. (a) Section 10762(c)(3) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In the case of a carrier other than a rail carrier, a proposed rate change or a new or reduced rate may not become effective for 30 days after the notice is published, filed, and held open as required under subsections (a) and (b) of this section. In the case of a rail carrier, a proposed rate change resulting in an increased rate or a new rate shall not become effective for 20 days after the notice is published and a proposed rate change resulting in a reduced rate shall not become effective for 10 days after the notice is published, except that a contract authorized under section 10713 of this title shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of such section.". Ante, p. 1908.

(b) Section 10762(d)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "30-day" and inserting in lieu thereof "notice".

COMPENSATORY JOINT RATE RELIEF

SEC. 217. (a)(1) Chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 10705 the following new section:

49 USC 10705a.

"§ 10705a. Joint rate surcharges and cancellations

"(a)(1)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title may publish and apply a surcharge increasing or decreasing the through charge applicable to any movement between points designated by the surcharging carrier subject to a joint rate. Such a surcharge may be applied without the concurrence of the other carriers that are party in such joint rate.

49 USC 10501.

"(B) A carrier earning adequate revenues, as determined under section 10704(a)(2) of this title, may not apply such a surcharge to any movement on a line operated by such carrier which carried more than 3,000,000 gross ton miles of traffic per mile in the preceding calendar year.

Ante, p. 1906.

"(C) Any surcharge applied pursuant to this subsection must be applied in equal dollar amounts to the movement subject to the surcharge over all routes between the points designated by the surcharging carrier which such carrier participates in under the joint rate involved, and when the surcharge increases the through charges, under any of such carrier's single line rates between the same points.

"(2)(A) Whenever a rail carrier applies a surcharge increasing a through charge pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection, any other rail carrier that participates in any movement subject to such surcharge may cancel the application of such surcharge to any route participated in by such other carrier, if such carrier makes the demonstration described in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

"(B) A rail carrier may cancel the application of a surcharge under this paragraph if such carrier demonstrates to the Commission that the surcharging carrier's share of the revenues, at the time the surcharge was filed with the Commission, from its participation in the movement over the route involved would have been equal to or greater than 110 percent of its variable costs of providing service over such route, under either—

"(i) the applicable joint rate in effect at the time the surcharge was filed with the Commission, without the surcharge;

"(ii) a new rate division increasing the share of the surcharging carrier;

"(iii) a new higher lawful rate published by the canceling carrier; or

"(iv) a new, lesser surcharge which shall be prescribed by the Commission upon and in conformity with the request of the carrier proposing to cancel the surcharge. Any such prescribed surcharge shall, in conjunction with the surcharging carrier's division of the joint rate in effect on the date the original surcharge was filed with the Commission, provide the carrier proposing the original surcharge revenues equal to or greater than 110 percent of such surcharging carrier's variable cost of providing service over such route.

"(C)(i) The canceling tariff shall only become effective if the rail carrier proposing to cancel the application of the surcharge makes the demonstration described in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

"(ii) If the demonstration described in clause (i) of this subparagraph is made on the basis of the applicable joint rate in effect at the time the surcharge was filed with the Commission, without the surcharge, the tariff shall become effective on one day's notice after such determination is made.

"(iii) If the demonstration described in clause (i) of this subparagraph is made on the basis of a new rate, division, or surcharge prescribed pursuant to subparagraph (B)(iv) of this paragraph, the tariff shall become effective on the date such new rate, division, or surcharge becomes effective.

"(D) The remedy available to a rail carrier canceling the application of a surcharge under this paragraph shall be in addition to any other remedy available to such carrier under this chapter.

"(3)(A) The Commission may cancel the application of a surcharge to a route to which such surcharge applies if a shipper moving traffic over such route demonstrates to the Commission that—

"(i) there is no competitive alternative to such route for the movement of the traffic involved that is not subject to such surcharge; and

"(ii) the surcharging carrier's share of the revenues from its participation in the movement over the route to which such surcharge applies, under the applicable joint rate in effect at the time the surcharge was filed with the Commission, with the surcharge, would be greater than 110 percent of its variable cost of providing service over such route.

Surcharge level, determination.

"(B) If the Commission cancels the application of a surcharge to a particular route pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the Commission shall determine the level of surcharge which, in conjunction with the surcharging carrier's division of the joint rate in effect at the time the surcharge was filed with the Commission, would equal 110 percent of the surcharging carrier's variable cost of providing service over such route, and shall authorize such carrier immediately to apply such a surcharge without any further proceedings under this subsection.

"(4) A rail carrier may not apply a surcharge under this subsection unless, for the one-year period preceding the surcharge, such carrier has concurred in all rate increases of general applicability applicable to the joint rate to which such surcharge applies and agreed to by all other carriers that are party to such joint rate.

"(5) A rail carrier may not apply a surcharge under this subsection increasing a through charge applicable to a particular movement more than once each calendar year.

Total charges, reduction.

"(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, a rail carrier may, by tariff, reduce the total charges applicable to a movement over any specific joint line or single line route or routes in which such carrier participates, if such reduction does not lower the total charges applicable to such movement to a level that is less than the lowest total charges applicable to the same movement over a competing route. Any such reduction may be made without the concurrence of any other rail carrier, and shall be borne solely by the carrier reducing the charge. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the right of a carrier to reduce rates over routes not in direct competition between the same points with routes to which it has applied a surcharge.

"(b)(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section—

"(A) a rail carrier not earning adequate revenues, as determined under section 10704(a)(2) of this title, may publish and apply a surcharge applicable to traffic originating or terminating upon any of its lines that carried less than 3,000,000 gross ton

Ante, p. 1906.

miles of traffic per mile in the most recent calendar year for which traffic data is available; and

"(B) a rail carrier earning adequate revenues, as so determined, may publish and apply a surcharge applicable to traffic originating or terminating upon any of its lines that carried less than 1,000,000 gross ton miles of traffic per mile in such most recent calendar year.

Such a surcharge may be applied without the concurrence of any rail carrier. Any such surcharge may be allocated, subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this subsection, in different amounts among different movements between different origins and destinations, and shall accrue solely to the surcharging carrier.

"(2) A rail carrier may apply a surcharge under this subsection if, prior to the application of such surcharge, that portion of the charges applicable to traffic to and from the line to which the surcharge applies and accruing to the surcharging carrier does not provide such carrier revenues adequate to cover—

"(A) 110 percent of such carrier's variable cost of transporting the traffic involved to or from such line; plus

"(B) 100 percent of such carrier's reasonably expected costs of continuing to operate such line, which shall include all costs necessary to sustain service on the line.

Ante, p. 1895.

The Commission shall, within 120 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, complete a proceeding to define the term 'reasonably expected costs' as used in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph. In the interim, the term shall be construed in accordance with Rail Services Planning Office subsidy standards.

Shipper petition.

"(3)(A) Upon petition of a shipper located upon a line to which a surcharge under this subsection is applied, the Commission may cancel the application of a surcharge under this subsection if such shipper demonstrates to the Commission that, after application of the surcharge, the surcharging carrier's revenues from all traffic originating or terminating upon the line to which the surcharge applies exceed 110 percent of such carrier's variable cost of transporting all traffic to or from such line plus such carrier's reasonably expected costs of continuing to operate such line.

"(B)(i) A rail carrier's revenue from all traffic originating or terminating upon a line shall be presumed to exceed 110 percent of its variable cost of transporting all traffic to or from such line plus its reasonably expected costs of continuing to operate such line if the complaining shipper demonstrates that the carrier is earning revenues from all traffic originating or terminating upon such line that result in a revenue-variable cost percentage that is equal to or greater than the revenue-variable cost percentage applicable in that year under section 10709(d) of this title.

Ante, p. 1900.

"(ii) A surcharging carrier may rebut the presumption set forth in clause (i) of this subparagraph by demonstrating to the Commission that its reasonably expected costs for operating the line to which the surcharge applies exceed the percentage of variable cost set forth in such clause (i).

"(C) Upon a finding by the Commission that application of the surcharge will produce revenues in excess of 110 percent of the surcharging carrier's variable cost of transporting traffic to or from the line plus its reasonably expected costs for operating the line, the Commission shall determine the level of surcharge which would produce revenues equal to such figure and shall authorize such carrier immediately to apply such surcharges as will generate such revenues without any further proceedings, subject only to the right of a shipper to proceed under paragraph (4) of this subsection.

"(4)(A) A rail carrier may not apply a surcharge under this subsection that results in any shipper being required to bear more than a reasonable proportion of the reasonably expected costs of continuing to operate the line to which such surcharge applies.

Shipper complaint.

"(B) Upon complaint of a shipper, the Commission shall determine whether the shipper is being required to bear more than a reasonable proportion of the costs described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

"(C) If the Commission finds that a complaining shipper is being required to bear more than a reasonable proportion of the costs described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the Commission may reallocate the surcharge among the traffic originating or terminating on the line to which the surcharge applies, but may not order relief which would result in the surcharging carrier earning revenues less than those which the carrier would have earned had the surcharge been applied as filed.

Relief.

"(5) A shipper may, in a single complaint, seek relief under paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection. In any such complaint, the Commission shall first determine the right to relief under paragraph (3) and shall grant such relief as is appropriate under such paragraph.

"(6) In any proceeding brought before the Commission challenging the application or amount of a surcharge under this subsection, whether the surcharge is claimed to violate this subsection or some other provision of this chapter, the Commission shall not suspend the application of any such surcharge unless the person filing the verified statement required by section 10707(c) of this title, in addition to the matters required by such section, also makes the demonstration required by paragraph (3)(A) of this subsection. If the demonstration required by such paragraph (3)(A) is made, the Commission may suspend the application of only so much of the surcharge as will produce revenues in excess of the amount so demonstrated.

Ante, p. 1907.

"(c)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, any prior agreement in effect on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, or any requirement of the Commission, a rail carrier may cancel the application of a joint rate to a through route in which it participates, without the concurrence of any other rail carrier that is a party to such joint rate, unless another rail carrier that participates in such through route or a shipper that has no competitive alternative to such route makes the demonstration described in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(2) The application of a joint rate to a through route may not be canceled under this subsection if a rail carrier that participates in such through route or a shipper that has no competitive alternative to such route from an origin or destination served by such route demonstrates to the Commission that the canceling carrier's share of the revenues, under the joint rate in effect at the time the application of the joint rate is canceled, is equal to or greater than—

"(A) 110 percent of the canceling carrier's variable cost of providing service over such route; or

"(B) such lesser percent of the canceling carrier's variable cost as such carrier earns over a competing through route to which application of the joint rate has not been canceled, or over a competing single line route.

"(3) When a complaining party is unable to make the demonstration required by paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Commission may suspend the tariff canceling the joint rate only if—

"(A) a complaining carrier publishes a new rate division or a new higher lawful rate which increases the canceling carrier's share of the revenues over such route to the amount calculated under paragraph (2)(A) or (2)(B) of this subsection, whichever is less; or

"(B) a complaining carrier or shipper petitions the Commission and the Commission imposes a surcharge, in conformity with such petition, upon the joint rate which will accrue solely to the canceling carrier and which, in conjunction with the canceling carrier's division of the joint rate in effect on the date the tariff canceling the joint rate was filed, will provide the canceling carrier revenues equal to or greater than 110 percent of its variable cost of providing service over such route.

Unless a new rate, division, or surcharge described in this paragraph becomes effective within 120 days after the proposed effective date of the rate cancellation, the canceling tariff shall, nevertheless, become effective.

"(4) If the demonstration described in paragraph (2) is made or a new rate, division, or surcharge described in paragraph (3) becomes effective, the tariff canceling the joint rate shall be considered by the Commission in accordance with section 10705 of this title. The existing joint rate or the new rate, division, or surcharge, shall remain in effect during the pendency of the Commission's consideration.

49 USC 10705.

"(5) Whenever the application of a joint rate to a through route is canceled under this subsection and a rate other than a joint rate is or has been published by the canceling carrier to apply to such route, such rate shall thereafter apply in lieu of all other rates (except joint rates subsequently agreed to by such carrier) and any through rate of which such rate is a factor shall divide as the separate factors of such rate are made.

"(6) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit the authority of the Commission under section 10705(a) of this title to prescribe joint rates which provide a rail carrier participating in such joint rate revenues equal to or greater than 110 percent of its variable cost of providing service over each route to which such rate applies.

Increased or decreased revenues.

"(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, any increase or decrease in revenue resulting from the application of a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section, or from the cancellation of the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section, shall accrue solely to or be borne solely by the carrier applying the surcharge or canceling the application of the joint rate, as the case may be.

"(2) Whenever a class III rail carrier which participates in a through route to which a surcharge has been applied under subsection (a) of this section by a carrier operating in the same rate territory as such class III carrier demonstrates to the Commission that the application of such surcharge to such route provides, in the absence of any increase in the joint rate in effect on the date the surcharge was filed with the Commission, revenues from traffic moving over such route to such surcharging carrier in excess of 110 percent of its variable costs over such route, such surcharging carrier shall, from the date of such demonstration, share those revenues from such route, from the surcharge and the applicable joint rate in effect on the date the surcharge was filed with the Commission, in excess of 110 percent of its variable costs with all class III rail carriers in the same rate territory participating in such route, on the basis of their existing divisions of the joint rate to which the surcharge applies.

"(e)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, whenever a rail carrier proposes to apply a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or to cancel the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section and another rail carrier subsequently agrees to a new rate division or a new lawful rate that increases the surcharging or canceling carrier's share of the total through charges for a movement over a particular through route subject to a joint rate, such other rail carrier shall also agree to any other new rate division and new lawful rate—

"(A) that is proposed within 120 days after the date of the first agreement; and

"(B) that increases the surcharging or canceling carrier's share of the total through charges for movements over a competing through route subject to such joint rate.

"(2) A rail carrier shall not be required to agree under this subsection to any proposed new division or new rate which would—

"(A) reduce such carrier's share of the total through charges for a movement over any through route to less than (i) 110 percent of its variable costs of providing service over such route, or (ii) such lesser percent of its variable costs as such carrier earns from such movement over a competing through route with respect to which such carrier has agreed to a new division or rate;

"(B) increase the surcharging or canceling carrier's share of the total through charges for a movement over any through route to an amount in excess of 110 percent of its variable costs of providing service over such route;

"(C) reduce such carrier's share of the total through charges for a movement over any through route by a dollar amount in excess of the greatest dollar reduction which such carrier has agreed to make, for purposes of increasing the surcharging or canceling carrier's share, to its share of the total through charges for a movement over any competing through route; or

"(D) reduce such carrier's share of the total through charges for a movement over any through route in an amount in excess of such carrier's pro rata share (based on established divisions for movements over such route) of the increase of the surcharging or canceling carrier's share of the total through charges for movements over such route.

Tariff filing.

49 USC 10762.

"(f) A rail carrier applying a surcharge or canceling the application of a joint rate under this section shall file a tariff with the Commission in accordance with section 10762 of this title. Such a tariff may not become effective until the expiration of the 45-day period (or such longer period as the filing carrier specifies) beginning on the date such tariff is filed.

Ante, p. 1898.
49 USC 10709.

"(g)(1) Any rail rate to which a surcharge is applied under this section shall be subject to section 10701a and 10709 of this title, and any such surcharge shall constitute a rate increase for purposes of such sections.

"(2) For purposes of rate regulation under section 10701a of this title—

"(A) only the rail carrier proposing a surcharge under this section shall be required to defend such surcharge; and

"(B) the reasonableness of the surcharge and the revenues received by the rail carrier proposing the surcharge under the joint rate to which the surcharge applies shall be determined without regard to amount received and services performed by other rail carriers that are party to such joint rate.

"(3) Except as provided in subsection (i), (j), or (k) of this section, if the application of a surcharge or the cancellation of the application of a joint rate under this section is found to constitute a violation of any provision of this title, such violation shall not be ordered remedied in any manner which—

"(A) requires the carrier applying a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or canceling the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section to provide service over any rate under a rate that provides revenues to such carrier that are less than 110 percent of its variable costs of providing such service; or

"(B) which requires the carrier applying a surcharge under subsection (b) of this section to provide service over the route to which such surcharge applies in a manner that provides revenues to such carrier that are less than 110 percent of such carrier's variable cost of transporting the traffic involved to or from the line to which the surcharge applies, plus such carrier's reasonably expected costs of providing service over such line.

Variable costs and revenues, determination.

"(h) Within 5 days after the request of a rail carrier participating in a joint rate subject to a surcharge or cancellation under this section, a shipper moving traffic over a route to which such surcharge or cancellation applies, or an affected port, the Commission shall make available to such carrier, shipper, or port the Commission's determination of the variable costs and revenues, over the route or routes to which the surcharge or cancellation applies, of the carrier applying the surcharge or canceling the application of the joint rate.

Investigation.

Rescinding order.

"(i)(1) Whenever a class III rail carrier, in a protest filed with the Commission, makes a prima facie showing that the application of a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or the cancellation of the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section will have an adverse effect on competition, the Commission shall investigate such protest. If, on the basis of such investigation, the Commission finds that the protested surcharge or cancellation is or is intended to be anticompetitive, the Commission shall, within 30 days after the date such protest is filed, enter an order rescinding such surcharge or cancellation, and may, on presentation of an adequate record, prescribe new joint rates or divisions of joint rates.

"(2) No order prescribed under this subsection shall require a carrier to provide service over any route under a rate which provides revenues less than 110 percent of the variable cost of providing such service unless the Commission determines that the public interest requires a lesser revenue to variable cost ratio to avoid anticompetitive action and to preserve service on the route involved.

"(j)(1) Any class III rail carrier which originates or terminates traffic subject to the application of a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or the cancellation of the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section may protest such surcharge or cancellation whenever—

"(A) such surcharge or cancellation affects the sole remaining route available to that carrier for that traffic; and

"(B)(i) such carrier demonstrates that alternative transportation is available or that a shipper dependent on that carrier will suffer significant market loss because of such surcharge or cancellation; or

"(ii) such surcharge or cancellation, alone or when considered in conjunction with other surcharges or cancellations affecting the carrier, is likely to unduly impair a carrier's ability to earn an adequate rate of return.

"(2)(A) The Commission may, after an investigation on the basis of a protest under this subsection, prescribe a lesser surcharge or a different division of the joint rate. The Commission shall grant the surcharging or canceling carrier revenues not less than 110 percent of its variable cost of the movement involved, unless it determines that the public interest requires a lesser revenue to variable cost ratio to preserve service on the route involved. Any action by the Commission based on a protest under this subsection shall be taken within 30 days after the date such protest is filed.

"(B) If the Commission prescribes a different division of a joint rate under this paragraph, the Commission shall, upon petition of the surcharging or canceling carrier or the protesting class III rail carrier, reopen the proceeding in which such division was prescribed to reconsider whether such prescribed division is reasonable. If, on the basis of such reconsideration, the Commission determines that such division is not reasonable, it shall prescribe a new, reasonable division of the joint rate to which the surcharge or cancellation applied.

Rail carrier complaint, investigation.

"(k)(1) Upon the complaint of a class III rail carrier which originates or terminates traffic subject to the application of a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or the cancellation of the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section that such surcharge or cancellation will result in differences or greater differences in rates, including any surcharges, for the traffic to which the surcharge or cancellation applies over different routes in which the surcharging or canceling carrier participates—

"(A) from a single origin point to destination points within a 75 mile direct radius from the destination point on such class III rail carrier; or

"(B) to a single destination point from origin points within a 75 mile direct radius from the origin point on such class III rail carrier, the Commission shall investigate such complaint and shall, within 30 days after the date such complaint is filed, take such actions, including rescinding surcharges or cancellations or prescribing new joint rates or surcharges, as it determines are required to eliminate such differences in rates, unless it finds that such actions are not warranted by the public interest in ensuring effective competition among rail carriers or in the preservation of rail service on the route involved.

"(2) No action taken by the Commission under this subsection shall require a carrier to provide service over any route under a rate which provides a revenue to variable cost ratio over such route less than that provided under the joint rate to which the surcharge or cancellation was applied or less than 110 percent, whichever is greater, unless the Commission determines that the public interest in ensuring effective competition among rail carriers or in preserving service over such route warrants requiring the surcharging or canceling carrier to provide service at a lesser revenue to variable cost ratio.

"(3) Notwithstanding subsection (m)(1) of this section, if, in a proceeding under this subsection or under subsection (i) or (j) of this section, the Commission considers whether to require the revenues of a carrier applying a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section or canceling the application of a joint rate under subsection (c) of this section to be less than 110 percent of its variable costs (as calculated using the Commission's Rail Form A cost finding methodology), such surcharging or canceling carrier may prove its actual variable costs on the basis of evidence other than unadjusted costs calculated using such Rail Form A cost finding methodology. Such evidence shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

New compensatory through rate.

"(l) Whenever the application of a joint rate to a through route is canceled under subsection (c) of this section, the Commission shall, upon petition by a class II or III rail carrier participating in such route, prescribe a new compensatory through rate or rates over such route within 30 days after the date such petition is filed.

Variable costs and revenue share.

"(m) For purposes of this section—

"(1) variable costs for a class I rail carrier shall be determined only by using such carrier's unadjusted costs, calculated using the Commission's Rail Form A cost finding methodology (or an alternative methodology adopted by the Commission in lieu thereof) and indexed quarterly to account for current wage and price levels in the region in which the carrier operates;

"(2) variable costs for a rail carrier other than class I shall be presumed to be the average variable costs of all class I rail carriers in the region in which such carrier operates (as determined under paragraph (1) of this subsection) unless a rail carrier rebuts such presumption with other proof of variable costs; and

"(3) at the option of a carrier applying a surcharge or canceling the application of a joint rate under this section, revenue share may be determined by reference to past revenue settlements actually made in the most recent calendar year by connecting lines.

49 USC 10726.

"(n) Surcharges applied under subsection (a) or (c) of this section and cancellations under subsection (c) of this section shall not be subject to the provisions of section 10726 (a)(1)(B) of this title.

Ante, p. 1897.

"(o) The Special Counsel of the Commission may, consistent with the rail transportation policy in section 10101a of this title, provide assistance to class III rail carriers and small businesses in preparing actions under this section.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(p)(1) The authority to apply a surcharge under subsection (a) of this section, and (except as provided in paragraph (2)) the authority to cancel such a surcharge, shall expire 3 years after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 unless extended for one additional year by the Commission upon petition of any rail carrier and for good cause shown.

"(2) Any surcharge lawfully applied under subsection (a) of this section shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms following the expiration of the provisions of this section. Any such surcharge applied during the 45-day period immediately preceding the date of the expiration of the provisions of this section shall, notwithstanding such expiration, be subject to cancellation under subsection (a)(2) or (a)(3) of this section during the 45-day period beginning on the date such surcharge is applied.".

(2) The section analysis of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 10705 the following new item:

"10705a. Joint rate surcharges and cancellations.".

49 USC 10705a note.
Ante, p. 1916.

(b) For purposes of section 10705a of title 49, United States Code, the Interstate Commerce Commission shall classify all rail carriers on the basis of revenues, shall from time to time review its regulations setting forth revenue-based classifications for rail carriers, and shall make appropriate changes in such regulations in order to reflect inflation. The Commission shall not reclassify switching and terminal carriers, or any other rail carriers not classified on the basis of revenues on the effective date of this Act, for any purpose other than for purposes of such section 10705a.

Ante, p. 1916.

Report to Congress.
49 USC 10311 note.

(c)(1) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall include in its annual report to the Congress under section 10311 of title 49, United States Code, a report with respect to the application of surcharges and the cancellation of the application of joint rates by the Consolidated Rail Corporation and other rail carriers, during the preceding year, under section 10705a of title 49, United States Code. Each such report shall include—

Ante, p. 1916.
Contents.

(A) an analysis of the effect of application of surcharges and the cancellation of the application of joint rates under such section 10705a on shippers, ports, class II and class III rail carriers, railroad employees, and other elements of the rail system;

(B)(i) the number of surcharges applied by the Consolidated Rail Corporation and all other rail carriers under such section 10705a and the amount of revenue received by the Corporation and all other rail carriers from the application of such surcharges, (ii) the number of surcharges applied by the Corporation and all other rail carriers that were canceled under the procedures of such section 10705a, and (iii) the number of cancellations of the application of a joint rate by the Corporation and all other rail carriers under such section 10705a; and

(C) an analysis of the operation of the remedies made available to class III rail carriers under subsections (i), (j), and (k) of such section 10705a and to class II and class III rail carriers under subsection (l) of such section 10705a.

Report to Congress.
49 USC 10705a note.
Ante, p. 1916.

(2) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall, within 2 years after the effective date of this Act, submit a report to the Congress with respect to whether the provisions of section 10705a of title 49, United States Code, have adequately addressed the joint rate problems of rail carriers. The report shall include such recommendations with respect to such joint rate problems as the Commission considers necessary and appropriate.

EXPEDITED DIVISION OF REVENUES PROCEEDINGS

SEC. 218. (a) Section 10705(f)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(f)(1)(A) The Commission may begin a proceeding under subsection (a) or (b) of this section on its own initiative or on complaint. The Commission must complete all evidentiary proceedings to adjust the division of joint rates for transportation by a rail carrier within 9 months after the complaint is filed if the proceeding is brought on complaint or within 18 months after the commencement of a proceeding on the initiative of the Commission. The Commission must take final action by the 180th day after completion of the evidentiary proceedings, except that—

"(i) when the proceeding involves a railroad in reorganization or a contention that the divisions at issue do not cover the variable costs of handling the traffic, the Commission shall give the proceedings preference over all other proceedings and shall take final action at the earliest practicable time, which in no event may exceed 100 days after the completion of the evidentiary proceedings; and "(ii) in all cases other than those specified in clause (i) of thi subparagraph, the Commission may decide to extend such proceeding to permit its fair and expeditious completion, bu whenever the Commission decides to extend a proceeding pursuant to this clause, it must report its reasons to Congress.

"(B) The provisions of this paragraph imposing time limitations upon Commission action shall not apply to any division proceeding involving a joint rate participated in by a class III rail carrier.".

(b) Section 10705(f)(1) of title 49, United States Code, as amended by subsection (a) of this section, is further amended—

(1) by striking out subparagraph (B);

(2) by striking out "(A)" immediately before "The Commission";

(3) by striking out "(i)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(A)";

(4) by striking out "(ii)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(B)"; and

(5) by striking out "clause (i) of this subparagraph" and inserting in lieu thereof "subparagraph (A) of this paragraph".

RATE BUREAUS

SEC. 219. (a) Section 10706(a)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(C) 'practicably participates in that movement' shall have such meaning as the Commission shall by regulation prescribe.".

(b) Section 10706(a)(2)(A) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting "publication," immediately after "initiation," in the first sentence; and

(2) by striking out "section 10101" in the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof "section 10101a".

(c)(1) Section 10706(a)(3)(A) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(3)(A) An organization established or continued under an agreement approved under this subsection shall make a final disposition of a rule or rate docketed with it by the 120th day after the proposal is docketed. Such an organization may not—

"(i) permit a rail carrier to discuss, to participate in agreements related to, or to vote on single line rates proposed by another rail carrier, except that for purposes of general rate increases and broad tariff changes only, if the Commission finds at any time that the implementation of this clause is not feasible, it may delay or suspend such implementation in whole or in part;

"(ii) permit a rail carrier to discuss, to participate in agreements related to, or to vote on rates related to a particular interline movement unless that rail carrier practicably participates in that movement; or

"(iii) if there are interline movements over two or more routes between the same end points, permit a carrier to discuss, to participate in agreements related to, or to vote on rates except with a carrier which forms part of a particular single route. This clause shall take effect on January 1, 1984, or on such earlier date as the Commission determines. If the Commission finds at any time that the implementation of this clause is not feasible, it may delay or suspend such implementation in whole or in part.".

(2) Section 10706(a)(3)(B) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(B) Until January 1, 1984, subparagraph (A)(ii) and (A)(iii) of this paragraph do not apply to—

"(i) general rate increases to cover inflationary cost increases, or general rate decreases, for joint rates if the agreement gives shippers, under specified procedures, at least 15 days notice of the proposal and an opportunity to present comments on it before a tariff containing the increases or decreases is filed with the Commission; or

"(ii) broad tariff changes that are of at least substantially general application throughout the area where the changes will apply, except single line rates where subparagraph (A)(i) of this paragraph prohibits the participation of carriers with single line rates.

If the Commission finds at any time that the implementation of this subparagraph is not feasible, it may delay or suspend such implementation in whole or in part.".

(3) Section 10706(a)(3)(C) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(A) by inserting "(i)" immediately after "(C)"; and

(B) by adding at the end thereof the following new clause:

"(ii) In any proceeding in which it is alleged that a carrier was a party to an agreement, conspiracy, or combination in violation of a Federal law cited in subsection (a)(2)(A) of this section or of any similar State law, proof of an agreement, conspiracy, or combination may not be inferred from evidence that two or more carriers acted together with respect to an interline rate or related matter and that a party to such action took similar action with respect to a rate or related matter on another route or traffic. In any proceeding in which such a violation is alleged, evidence of a discussion or agreement between or among such carrier and one or more other carriers, or of any rate or other action resulting from such discussion or agreement, shall not be admissible if the discussion or agreement—

"(I) was in accordance with an agreement approved under paragraph (2) of this subsection; or

"(II) concerned an interline movement of the carrier, and the discussion or agreement would not, considered by itself, violate the laws referred to in the first sentence of this clause.

In any proceeding before a jury, the court shall determine whether the requirements of clause (I) or (II) are satisfied before allowing the introduction of any such evidence.".

(4) Section 10706(a)(3) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

Records.

"(D) An organization described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall provide that transcripts or sound recordings be made of all meetings, that records of votes be made, and that such transcripts or recordings and voting records be submitted to the Commission and made available to other Federal agencies in connection with their statutory responsibilities over rate bureaus, except that such material shall be kept confidential and shall not be subject to disclosure under section 552 of title 5, United States Code.".

(d) Section 10706(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, one or more rail carriers may enter into an agreement, without obtaining prior Commission approval, that provides solely for compilation, publication, and other distribution of rates in effect or to become effective. The Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1 et seq.), the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 12 et seq.), the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.), sections 73 and 74 of the Wilson Tariff Act (15 U.S.C. 8 and 9), and the Act of June 19, 1936, as amended (15 U.S.C. 13, 13a, 13b, 21a) shall not apply to parties and other persons with respect to making or carrying out such agreement. However, the Commission may, upon application or on its own initiative, investigate whether the parties to such an agreement have exceeded its scope, and upon a finding that they have, the Commission may issue such orders as are necessary, including an order dissolving the agreement, to ensure that actions taken pursuant to the agreement are limited as provided in this paragraph.".

Investigation.

49 USC 10101.
Ante, p. 1897.

(e) Section 10706(i)(1)(B) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "section 10101" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 10101a".

49 USC 10706 note.

(f) The Interstate Commerce Commission may not take any action with respect to the elimination of general rate increases or decreases prior to April 1, 1982.

49 USC 10706 note.

"Employees."

(g) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall require rail carrier members of a rate bureau to provide the employees of such rate bureau who are affected by the amendments made by this section with fair arrangements no less protective of the interests of such employees than those established pursuant to section 11347 of title 49, United States Code. For purposes of this subsection, the term "employees" does not include any individual serving as president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, comptroller, counsel, member of the board of directors, or any other person performing such functions.

RAILROAD ENTRY

SEC. 221. (a) Section 10901(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking "will be enhanced by" and inserting in lieu thereof "permit".

(b) Section 10901 of title 49, United States Code, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

"(d)(1) Where a rail carrier has been issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity by the Commission authorizing the construction or extension of a railroad line, no other rail carrier may block such construction or extension by refusing to permit the carrier to cross its property if (A) the construction does not unreasonably interfere with the operation of the crossed line, (B) the operation does not materially interfere with the operation of the crossed line, and (C) the owner of the crossing line compensates the owner of the crossed line.

"(2) If the carriers are unable to agree on the terms of operation or the amount of payment for purposes of paragraph (1) of this subsection, either party may submit the matters in dispute to the Commission for determination.

"(e) The Commission may require any rail carrier proposing both to construct and operate a new railroad line pursuant to this section to provide a fair and equitable arrangement for the protection of the interests of railroad employees who may be affected thereby no less protective of and beneficial to the interests of such employees than those established pursuant to section 11347 of this title.".

49 USC 11347.

SERVICE DURING PERIODS OF PEAK DEMAND

SEC. 222. Section 11101(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "A rail carrier shall not be found to have violated this section because it fulfills its commitments under contracts approved under section 10713 of this title before responding to reasonable requests for service.". Ante, p. 1908.

RECIPROCAL SWITCHING

SEC. 223. Section 11103 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c)(1) The Commission may require rail carriers to enter into reciprocal switching agreements, where it finds such agreements to be practicable and in the public interest, or where such agreements are necessary to provide competitive rail service. The carriers entering into such an agreement shall establish the conditions and compensation applicable to such agreement, but, if the carriers cannot agree upon such conditions and compensation within a reasonable period of time, the Commission may establish such conditions and compensation.

"(2) The Commission may require reciprocal switching agreements entered into by rail carriers pursuant to this subsection to contain provisions for the protection of the interests of employees affected thereby.".

CAR SERVICE COMPENSATION

SEC. 224. (a)(1) Section 11122(b)(2) of title 49, United States Code, is repealed. Repeal.

(2) Section 11122(b)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out "(1)" immediately before "The rate".

(b) Section 10706(a) of title 49, United States Code, as amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5)(A) Whenever two or more shippers enter into an agreement to discuss among themselves that relates to the amount of compensation such shippers propose to be paid by rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title, for use by such rail carriers of rolling stock owned or leased by such shippers, the shippers shall apply to the Commission for approval of that agreement under this paragraph. The Commission shall approve the agreement only when it finds that the making and carrying out of the agreement will further the transportation policy set forth in section 10101a of this title and may require compliance with conditions necessary to make the agreement further that policy as a condition of approval. If the Commission approves the agreement, it may be made and carried out under its terms and under the terms required by the Commission, and the antitrust laws set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection do not apply to parties and other persons with respect to making or carrying out the agreement. The Commission shall approve or disapprove an agreement under this paragraph within one year after the date application for approval of such agreement is made. 49 USC 10501. Ante, p. 1897.

"(B) If the Commission approves an agreement described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph and the shippers entering into such agreement and the rail carriers proposing to use rolling stock owned or leased by such shippers, under payment by such carriers or under a published allowance, are unable to agree upon the amount of compensation to be paid for the use of such rolling stock, any party directly involved in the negotiations may require that the matter be settled by submitting the issues in dispute to the Commission. The Commission shall render a binding decision, based upon a standard of reasonableness and after taking into consideration any past precedents on the subject matter of the negotiations, no later than 90 days after the date of the submission of the dispute to the Commission.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(C) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to change the law in effect prior to the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 with respect to the obligation of rail carriers to utilize rolling stock owned or leased by shippers.".

CAR UTILIZATION

SEC. 225. (a) Subchapter II of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section:

49 USC 10734.

"§ 10734. Car utilization

"In order to encourage more efficient use of freight cars, notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, rail carriers shall be permitted to establish tariffs containing premium charges for special services or special levels of services not provided in any tariff otherwise applicable to the movement. The Commission shall facilitate development of such tariffs so as to increase the utilization of equipment.".

(b) The section analysis of chapter 107 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by inserting immediately after the item relating to section 10731 the following new item:

"10734. Car utilization.".

CAR SERVICE ORDERS FOR EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES

SEC. 226. Section 11123(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(a)(1) When the Interstate Commerce Commission finds that a shortage of equipment, congestion of traffic, or other failure in traffic movement exists which creates an emergency situation of such magnitude as to have substantial adverse effects on rail service in the United States or a substantial region of the United States, the Commission may, for a period not to exceed thirty days—

"(A) suspend any car service rule or practice;

"(B) take action during the emergency to promote service in the interest of the public and of commerce regardless of the ownership (as between carriers) of a locomotive, car, or other vehicle on terms of compensation the carriers establish between themselves, subject to subsection (b)(2) of this section;

"(C) require joint or common use of facilities, on terms of compensation the carriers establish between themselves, subject to subsection (b)(2) of this section, when that action will best meet the emergency and serve the public interest; and

"(D) give directions for preference or priority in transportation, embargoes, or movement of traffic under permits.

Commission action, extension.

"(2) The Commission may extend any action taken under paragraph (1) of this subsection beyond the thirty-day period provided in such paragraph only if the full Commission, after a hearing, certifies that a transportation emergency exists.

"(3) In carrying out the provisions of this subsection, the Commission shall require, to the maximum extent practicable, the use of the employees who would normally have performed work in connection with the traffic subject to the action of the Commission.".

EMPLOYEE PROTECTION

Railroad line abandonments.

SEC. 227. (a) Section 1170 of title 11, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e)(1) In authorizing any abandonment of a railroad line under this section, the court shall require the rail carrier to provide a fair arrangement at least as protective of the interests of employees as that established under section 11347 of title 49.

"(2) Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to affect the priorities or timing of payment of employee protection which might have existed in the absence of this subsection.".

(b) Section 1172 of title 11, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c)(1) In approving an application under subsection (b) of this section, the Commission shall require the rail carrier to provide a fair arrangement at least as protective of the interests of employees as that established under section 11347 of title 49.

"(2) Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to affect the priorities or timing of payment of employee protection which might have existed in the absence of this subsection.".

MERGERS AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS

Applications.

SEC. 228. (a) Section 11344(b) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting immediately after "section" the following: "which involves the merger or control of at least two class I railroads, as defined by the Commission"; and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5) whether the proposed transaction would have an adverse effect on competition among rail carriers in the affected region.".

(b) Section 11344 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) In a proceeding under this section which does not involve the merger or control of at least two class I railroads, as defined by the Commission, the Commission shall approve such an application unless it finds that—

"(1) as a result of the transaction, there is likely to be substantial lessening of competition, creation of a monopoly, or restraint of trade in freight surface transportation in any region of the United States; and

"(2) the anticompetitive effects of the transaction outweigh the public interest in meeting significant transportation needs.

In making such findings, the Commission shall, with respect to any application that is part of a plan or proposal developed under section 5 (a)–(d) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1654 (a)–(d)), accord substantial weight to any recommendations of the Secretary of Transportation.".

(c) Section 11344 of title 49, United States Code, as amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(e) A rail carrier, or a person controlled by or affiliated with a rail carrier, together with one or more affected shippers, may apply for approval under this subsection of a transaction for the purpose of providing motor carrier transportation prior or subsequent to rail transportation to serve inadequately served shippers located on a railroad other than the applicant carrier. Such application shall be approved by the Commission if the applicants demonstrate presently impaired rail service and inadequate motor common carrier service which results in the serious failure of the rail carrier serving the shippers to meet the rail equipment or transportation schedules of shippers or seriously to fail otherwise to provide adequate normal rail services required by shippers and which shippers would reasonably expect the rail carrier to provide. The Commission shall approve or disapprove applications under this subsection within 30 days after receipt of such application. The Commission shall approve applications which are not protested by interested parties within 30 days following receipt of such application.".

(d) Section 11345 of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

Applications. 49 USC 11345.

"§ 11345. Consolidation, merger, and acquisition of control: rail carrier procedure

49 USC 10501. 49 USC 11343, 11344. Publication in Federal Register.

"(a) If a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title is involved in a proposed transaction under section 11343 of this title, this section and section 11344 of this title also apply to the transaction. The Commission shall publish notice of the application in the Federal Register by the end of the 30th day after the application is filed with the Commission and after a certified copy of it is furnished to the Secretary of Transportation. However, if the application is incomplete, the Commission shall reject it by the end of that period. The order of rejection is a final action of the Commission under section 10327 of this title. The published notice shall indicate whether the application involves—

49 USC 10327.

"(1) the merger or control of at least two class I railroads, as defined by the Commission, to be decided within the time limits specified in subsection (b) of this section;

"(2) transactions of regional or national transportation significance, to be decided within the time limits specified in subsection (c) of this section; or

"(3) any other transaction covered by this section, to be decided within the time limits specified in subsection (d) of this section.

Comments.

"(b) If the application involves the merger or control of two or more class I railroads, as defined by the Commission:

"(1) Written comments about an application may be filed with the Commission within 45 days after notice of the application is published under subsection (a) of this section. Copies of such comments shall be served on the Secretary of Transportation and the Attorney General, each of whom may decide to intervene as a party to the proceeding. That decision must be made by the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments, and if the decision is to intervene, preliminary comments about the application must be sent to the Commission by the end of the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments.

"(2) The Commission shall require that applications inconsistent with an application, notice of which was published under subsection (a) of this section, and applications for inclusion in the transaction, be filed with it and given to the Secretary of Transportation by the 90th day after publication of notice under that subsection.

Evidentiary proceedings.

"(3) The Commission must conclude evidentiary proceedings by the end of the 24th month after the date of publication of notice under subsection (a) of this section. The Commission must issue a final decision by the 180th day after the date on which it concludes the evidentiary proceedings.

"(c) If the application involves a transaction other than the merger or control of at least two class I railroads, as defined by the Commission, which the Commission has determined to be of regional or national transportation significance:

Comments.

"(1) Written comments about an application may be filed with the Commission within 30 days after notice of the application is published under subsection (a) of this section. Copies of such comments shall be served on the Secretary of Transportation and the Attorney General, each of whom may decide to intervene as a party to the proceeding. That decision must be made by the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments, and if the decision is to intervene, preliminary comments about the application must be sent to the Commission by the end of the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments.

"(2) The Commission shall require that applications inconsistent with an application, notice of which was published under subsection (a) of this section, and applications for inclusion in the transaction, be filed with it and given to the Secretary of Transportation by the 60th day after publication of notice under that subsection.

Evidentiary proceedings.

"(3) The Commission must conclude any evidentiary proceedings by the 180th day after the date of publication of notice under subsection (a) of this section. The Commission must issue a final decision by the 90th day after the date on which it concludes the evidentiary proceedings.

"(d) For all applications under this section other than those specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this section:

Comments.

"(1) Written comments about an application may be filed with the Commission within 30 days after notice of the application is published under subsection (a) of this section. Copies of such comments shall be served on the Secretary of Transportation and the Attorney General, each of whom may decide to intervene as a party to the proceeding. That decision must be made by the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments, and if the decision is to intervene, preliminary comments about the application must be sent to the Commission by the end of the 15th day after the date of receipt of the written comments.

Evidentiary proceedings.

"(2) The Commission must conclude any evidentiary proceedings by the 105th day after the date of publication of notice under subsection (a) of this section. The Commission must issue a final decision by the 45th day after the date on which it concludes the evidentiary proceedings.

Notice to Congress.
49 USC 10327.

"(e) If the Commission does not issue a decision that is a final action under section 10327 of this title, it shall send written notice to Congress that a decision was not issued and the reasons why it was not issued.

Waiver.

49 USC 11341.

"(f) The Commission may waive the requirement that an initial decision be made under section 10327 of this title and make a final decision itself when it determines that action is required for the timely execution of its functions under this subchapter or that an application governed by this section is of major transportation importance. The decision of the Commission under this subsection is a final action under section 10327 of this title.".

49 USC 10327.

Adjudication.
49 USC 11343 note.
Ante, p. 1932.

(e) Any application filed or pending on the effective date of this Act under section 11343, 11344, or 11345 of title 49, United States Code, before the Secretary of Transportation, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or any court shall be adjudicated or determined as if this Act had not been enacted.

SAVINGS PROVISIONS

Rate complaints.
49 USC 10701a note.
49 USC 10501.

SEC. 229. (a) Any rate that is in effect on the effective date of this Act for transportation by a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of title 49, United States Code, may, during the 180-day period beginning on such effective date, be challenged in a complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by any interested party alleging that the rail carrier has market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies, as determined under section 10709 of such title, and that the rate is not reasonable under section 10701a of such title.

49 USC 10709.
Ante, p. 1898.

(b) Any rate described in subsection (a) of this section—

(1) which is not challenged in a complaint filed within the 180-day period provided in such subsection; or

(2) which is challenged in such a complaint, but (A) the rail carrier is found not to have market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies, or (B) the rate is found to be reasonable, shall be deemed to be lawful and may not thereafter be challenged in the Commission or in any court (other than on appeal from a decision of the Commission).

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any rate under which the volume of traffic moved during the 12-month period immediately preceding the effective date of this Act did not exceed 500 net tons and has increased tenfold within the 3-year period immediately preceding the bringing of a challenge to the reasonableness of such rate.

(d) The burden of proof in any proceeding under this section shall be on the complainant.

TITLE III—RAILROAD COST DETERMINATIONS

UNIFORM ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

SEC. 301. Section 11142 of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

49 USC 11142.

"§ 11142. Uniform accounting system

"The Interstate Commerce Commission may prescribe a uniform accounting system for classes of carriers providing, and brokers for, transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapters II, III, and IV of chapter 105 of this title.".

49 USC 10521, 10541, 10561.

RAILROAD COST ACCOUNTING

SEC. 302. (a) Chapter 111 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subchapter:

"SUBCHAPTER IV—RAILROAD COST ACCOUNTING

"§ 11161. Railroad Accounting Principles Board

Establishment. 49 USC 11161.

"(a)(1) There is established a Railroad Accounting Principles Board which shall be within and responsible to the legislative branch of the Federal Government.

Membership.

"(2) The Board shall be composed of the Comptroller General of the United States, who shall serve as chairman, and six members to be appointed by the Comptroller General.

"(3) The Comptroller General shall appoint members of the Board from among persons who are well qualified for such position by virtue of experience in or knowledge of rate regulation, accounting, or cost determinations. Of the members of the Board so appointed—

"(A) one shall be from the accounting profession;
"(B) one shall be from the railroad industry;
"(C) one shall be a representative of major rail shippers;
"(D) one shall be from the Interstate Commerce Commission;
"(E) one shall be a representative of small rail shippers; and
"(F) one shall be from the economics profession.

"(4) The term of office of each appointed member of the Board shall be three years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy in the Board shall serve for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was appointed.

"(5) The Board shall not act in the absence of a quorum, which shall consist of three members.

Compensation.

"(b) Each appointed member of the Board shall receive compensation at a rate equal to 1/260 of the rate prescribed for level IV of the Executive Schedule, under section 5315 of title 5, for each day (including traveltime) in which he is engaged in the actual performance of duties vested in the Board.

Advisory committees; staff services.

"(c)(1) The Board may utilize personnel from the Federal Government, with the consent of the head of the appropriate Federal department or agency, or appoint individuals from private life, to serve on advisory committees or to provide the staff services necessary to assist the Board in carrying out its functions and responsibilities under this subchapter.

"(2) Individuals appointed by the Board under this subsection may be appointed without regard to the provisions of title 5 governing appointments in the competitive service, and may be paid without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title, relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates.

5 USC 5101 et seq., 5331.

"(d) All Federal departments and agencies are authorized to cooperate with the Board and to furnish information, appropriate personnel (with or without reimbursement), and such financial and other assistance as may be agreed upon by the Board and the Federal department or agency involved.

Confidential information.

"(e) Members and employees of the Board and all other individuals appointed under this subsection having or having had access to information in the possession of the Board shall be subject to the provisions of section 1905 of title 18.

Termination. Ante, p. 1895.

"(f) The Board shall cease to exist three years after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980.

"§ 11162. Cost accounting principles

49 USC 11162.

"(a) Within two years after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, the Railroad Accounting Principles Board shall establish, for rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title, principles governing the determination of economically accurate railroad costs directly and indirectly associated with particular movements of goods, including the variable costs associated with particular movements of goods or such other costs as the Board believes most accurately represent the economic costs of such movements. Such principles shall govern the determination of all railroad costs for specific regulatory proceedings under this title.

"(b) In developing cost accounting principles under this section, the Board shall take into account the following considerations:

"(1) The specific regulatory purposes for which railroad costs are required.

"(2) The degree of accuracy of the cost information which is needed to meet regulatory purposes.

"(3) The existing capability and the probable future capability of rail carriers to provide such information and the relative benefits and costs of requiring development of additional capability.

"(4) The means by which the degree of economic accuracy required can be obtained at the least possible expense and with the least possible information reporting.

"(5) The means by which the confidentiality of such costs can best be maintained while meeting the need for such information in regulatory proceedings.

Cost information disclosure.

"(c) The cost accounting principles established by the Board shall require that cost information be reported or disclosed only for the essential regulatory purposes defined by the Board.

Rules.
49 USC 11163.

"§ 11163. Implementation of cost accounting principles

Review.

"Upon the establishment of cost accounting principles by the Railroad Accounting Principles Board under section 11162 of this title, the Interstate Commerce Commission shall promptly promulgate rules to implement and enforce such principles. Not less than once every five years after the promulgation of the original rules, the Commission shall review the principles of the Board and shall, by rule, make such changes in such principles as are required to achieve the regulatory purposes of this title and the goals of this subchapter. The Commission shall insure that the rules promulgated under this section are the most efficient and least burdensome means by which the required information may be developed for regulatory purposes.

49 USC 11164.

"§ 11164. Certification of rail carrier cost accounting systems

Ante, p. 1895.
49 USC 10501.

"(a) Within 180 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, each rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title shall file with the Commission a request for preliminary certification of its cost accounting system. The Commission shall grant such preliminary certification if it determines that the cost accounting system of such rail carrier is in compliance with the accounting standards of the Commission in effect on the day prior to the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980.

"(b)(1) As soon as practicable, but not later than 9 months, after the promulgation of rules by the Commission under section 11163 of this title, each rail carrier described in subsection (a) of this section shall file with the Commission a request for final certification of its cost accounting system developed to comply with this section.

"(2) Within 90 days, or such additional time as the Commission finds necessary, after a rail carrier files its request for final certification under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the Commission shall grant such final certification to such carrier if the Commission determines that the cost accounting system of such carrier is in compliance with the rules promulgated by the Commission under section 11163 of this title. If the Commission denies such final certification, the rail carrier shall revise its cost accounting system and file a new request for certification within 90 days after the date of such denial. The Commission shall thereupon grant final certification if it determines that such cost accounting system, as revised, is in compliance with such rules. If the Commission again denies final certification to the rail carrier, the Commission shall prescribe a cost accounting system which such carrier shall adopt within a reasonable time and which shall be considered a finally certified cost accounting system for purposes of this section.

"(c) Each rail carrier shall have and maintain a cost accounting system that is in compliance with the rules promulgated by the Commission under section 11163 of this title.

"(d)(1) Certification under this section that the cost accounting system of a rail carrier is in compliance with the rules promulgated by the Commission under section 11163 of this title shall be valid until the promulgation of new rules by the Commission.

Cost accounting systems, modification.

"(2) After the cost accounting system of a rail carrier is certified under this section, such rail carrier may, after notifying the Commission, make modifications in such system unless, within 60 days after the date of notification, the Commission finds such modifications to be inconsistent with the rules promulgated by the Commission under section 11163 of this title.

Compliance determination.

"(e) For purposes of determining whether the cost accounting system of a rail carrier is in compliance with the rules promulgated by the Commission, the Commission shall have the right to examine and make copies of any documents, papers, or records of such rail carrier relating to compliance with such rules. Such documents, papers, and records (and any copies thereof) shall not be subject to the mandatory disclosure requirements of section 552 of title 5.

"§ 11165. Cost availability

49 USC 11165.

"As required by the rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission governing discovery in Commission proceedings, rail carriers shall make relevant cost data available to shippers, States, ports, communities, and other interested parties that are a party to a Commission proceeding in which such data is required.

"§ 11166. Accounting and cost reporting

Rules.
49 USC 11166.

"(a) To obtain expense and revenue information for regulatory purposes, the Interstate Commerce Commission may promulgate reasonable rules for rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title, prescribing expense and revenue accounting and reporting requirements consistent with generally accepted accounting principles uniformly applied to such carriers. Such requirements shall be cost effective and compatible with and not duplicative of the managerial and responsibility accounting requirements of those carriers. To the extent such rules are required solely to provide expense and revenue information necessary for determining railroad costs in regulatory proceedings pursuant to this title, such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with the cost accounting principles established by the Railroad Accounting Principles Board under section 11162 of this title.

Reports.

"(b) Any reports required by the rules established by the Commission under this section shall include only information considered necessary for disclosure under the cost accounting principles established by the Board or under generally accepted accounting principles or the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Submittal to Congress.
49 USC 11167.
Ante, p. 1895.

"§ 11167. Report

"The Railroad Accounting Principles Board shall, within 2 years after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, submit to the Congress a report setting forth any recommendations of the Board for appropriate legislative or administrative action in order to integrate the cost accounting principles and the cost accounting system certification process under this subchapter into existing rail carrier rate regulation under this title, including determinations under section 10709 of this title.

49 USC 10709.

49 USC 11168.

"§ 11168. Authorization of appropriations

"There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out the provisions of this subchapter not to exceed $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1981, not to exceed $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982, and not to exceed $1,000,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983.".

(b) The analysis of chapter 111 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"SUBCHAPTER IV—RAILROAD COST ACCOUNTING

"11161. Railroad Accounting Principles Board.
"11162. Cost accounting principles.
"11163. Implementation of cost accounting principles.

"11913a. Accounting principles violations.".

Confidential data, disclosure.

(b) Section 11910 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Ante, p. 1937.

"(d) A person that knowingly discloses confidential data made available to such person under section 11165 of this title by a rail carrier providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under subchapter I of chapter 105 of this title shall be fined not more than $50,000.". 49 USC 10501.

TITLE IV—RAILROAD MODERNIZATION ASSISTANCE

FEEDER RAILROAD DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

SEC. 401. (a) Subchapter I of chapter 109 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"§ 10910. Railroad development 49 USC 10910.

"(a) In this section— Definitions.

"(1) 'financially responsible person' means a person who (A) is capable of paying the constitutional minimum value of the railroad line proposed to be acquired, and (B) is able to assure that adequate transportation will be provided over such line for a period of not less than 3 years. Such term includes a government authority but does not include a class I or a class II rail carrier.

"(2) 'railroad line' means (A) during the 3-year period beginning on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, a line of railroad which carried less than 3,000,000 gross ton miles of traffic per mile in the preceding calendar year, and (B) after the end of such 3-year period, any line of railroad. Ante, p. 1895.

"(b)(1) When the Interstate Commerce Commission finds that— Railroad lines, sale.

"(A)(i) the public convenience and necessity require or permit the sale of a particular railroad line under this section; or

"(ii) a railroad line has been placed on a system diagram map as required under section 10904 of this title, but the rail carrier owning such line has not filed an application to abandon such line under sections 10903 and 10904 of this title; and 49 USC 10904. 49 USC 10903.

"(B) an application to purchase such line has been filed, in accordance with regulations required under subsection (k) of this section, by a financially responsible person, the Commission shall require the rail carrier owning the railroad line to sell such line to such financially responsible person at a price not less than the constitutional minimum value.

"(2) For purposes of this subsection, the constitutional minimum value of a particular railroad line shall be presumed to be not less than the net liquidation value of such line or the going concern value of such line, whichever is greater, but shall not include the cost of providing a protective arrangement under subsection (j) of this section.

"(c)(1) For purposes of this section, the Commission may determine that the public convenience and necessity require or permit the sale of a railroad line if the Commission determines, after a hearing on the record, that—

"(A) the rail carrier operating such line refuses within a reasonable time to make the necessary efforts to provide adequate service to shippers who transport traffic over such line;

"(B) the transportation over such line is inadequate for the majority of shippers who transport traffic over such line;

"(C) the sale of such line will not have a significantly adverse financial effect on the rail carrier operating such line;

"(D) the sale of such line will not have an adverse effect on the overall operational performance of the rail carrier operating such line; and

"(E) the sale of such line will be likely to result in improved railroad transportation for shippers that transport traffic over such line.

Publication in Federal Register.

"(2) In a proceeding under this subsection, the burden of proving that the public convenience and necessity require or permit the sale of a particular railroad line is on the person filing the application to acquire such line. If the Commission finds under this subsection that the public convenience and necessity require or permit the sale of a particular railroad line, the Commission shall concurrently notify the parties of such finding and publish such finding in the Federal Register.

Trackage rights.

"(d) In the case of any railroad line subject to sale under subsection (a) of this section, the Commission shall, upon the request of the acquiring carrier, require the selling carrier to provide to the acquiring carrier trackage rights to allow a reasonable interchange with the selling carrier or to move power equipment or empty rolling stock between noncontiguous feeder lines operated by the acquiring carrier. The Commission shall require the acquiring carrier to provide the selling carrier reasonable compensation for any such trackage rights.

"(e) The Commission shall require, to the maximum extent practicable, the use of the employees who would normally have performed work in connection with a railroad line subject to a sale under this section.

Joint rates.

49 USC 10705.

"(f) In the case of a railroad line which carried less than 3,000,000 gross ton miles of traffic per mile in the preceding calendar year, whenever a purchasing carrier under this section petitions the Commission for joint rates applicable to traffic moving over through routes in which the purchasing carrier may practicably participate, the Commission shall, within 30 days after the date such petition is filed and pursuant to section 10705(a) of this title, require the establishment of reasonable joint rates and divisions over such route.

Exemptions.

49 USC 10701 et seq.

"(g)(1) Any person operating a railroad line acquired under this section may elect to be exempt from any of the provisions of this title, except that such a person may not be exempt from the provisions of chapter 107 of this title with respect to transportation under a joint rate.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall apply to any line of railroad which was abandoned during the 18-month period immediately prior to the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and was subsequently purchased by a financially responsible person.

"(h) If a purchasing carrier under this section proposes to sell or abandon all or any portion of a purchased railroad line, such purchasing carrier shall offer the right of first refusal with respect to such line or portion thereof to the carrier which sold such line under this section. Such offer shall be made at a price equal to the sum of the price paid by such purchasing carrier to such selling carrier for such line or portion thereof and the fair market value (less deterioration) of any improvements made, as adjusted to reflect inflation.

Preconditions for shippers.

"(i) Any person operating a railroad line acquired under this section may determine preconditions, such as payment of a subsidy, which must be met by shippers in order to obtain service over such lines, but such operator must notify the shippers on the line of its intention to impose such preconditions.

Employee interests, protection.

"(j) In the case of any railroad line sold pursuant to this section, the Commission shall require the selling carrier to provide a fair arrangement at least as protective of the interests of employees as that established under section 11347 of this title.

49 USC 11347.

Regulations and procedures.
Ante, p. 1895.

"(k) The Commission shall, within 60 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, prescribe such regulations and procedures as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.".

(b) The section analysis of chapter 109 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by adding immediately after the item relating to section 10909 the following new item:

"10910. Railroad development.".

ABANDONMENT

SEC. 402. (a)(1) Section 10903(b)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking out the first sentence.

(b)(1) Section 10904(a) of title 49, United States Code, is amended—

(A) by striking out "at least 60" and all that follows through "effective" in paragraph (1);

(B) by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (2)(A);

(C) by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (2)(B) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and";

(D) by adding at the end of paragraph (2) the following new subparagraph:

"(C)(i) a statement that the line is available for subsidy or sale in accordance with section 10905 of this title, (ii) a statement that the carrier will promptly provide to each interested party an estimate of the subsidy and minimum purchase price required to keep the line in operation, calculated in accordance with section 10905 of this title, and (iii) the name and business address of the person who is authorized to discuss sale or subsidy terms for the carrier."; and

Post, p. 1942.

(E) by inserting immediately before the period at the end of paragraph (3)(E) the following: ", and certifying that clauses (A)-(D) have been satisfied within the most recent 30 days prior to the date the application is filed".

(2) Section 10904(b) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(b) If no protest is received within 30 days after the application is filed, the Commission shall find that the public convenience and necessity require or permit the abandonment or discontinuance. In such a case, the Commission shall, within 45 days after the application is filed, issue a certificate which permits the abandonment or discontinuance to occur within 75 days after the application is filed.".

Certificate.

(3) Section 10904(c) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

Protests.

"(c)(1) If a protest is received within 30 days after the application is filed, the Commission shall, within 45 days after the application is filed, determine whether an investigation is needed to assist in determining what disposition to make of the application.

"(2) If the Commission decides that no investigation is to be undertaken, the Commission shall, within 75 days after the application is filed, decide whether the present or future public convenience and necessity require or permit the abandonment or discontinuance, taking into consideration the application of the rail carrier and any materials submitted by protestants. If the Commission finds that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or permit the abandonment, it shall, within 90 days after the date of application, issue a certificate which permits the abandonment or discontinuance to occur within 120 days after the application is filed.

Investigation.

"(3) If the Commission decides that an investigation should be undertaken under this section, the investigation must be completed within 135 days, and an initial decision must be rendered within 165 days, after the date the application is filed. Thirty days after such decision, the initial decision shall become the final decision of the Commission unless, during the interim, the Commission decides to hear appeals. If an initial decision is appealed and considered by the Commission, the Commission shall issue a final decision within 255 days after the date of application. Whenever the Commission decides upon investigation that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or permit the abandonment or discontinuance of rail service, it shall, within 15 days of the final decision, issue a certificate which permits the abandonment or discontinuance to occur within 75 days of the date of the final decision.

Infra.

"(4) The effective date of any certificate which permits abandonment or discontinuance may be stayed by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of section 10905 of this title.".

(4) Section 10904 of title 49, United States Code, is amended by redesignating subsection (d) as subsection (e), and by inserting immediately after subsection (c) the following new subsection:

"(d)(1) The burden is on the person applying for the certificate to prove that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or permit the abandonment or discontinuance.

"(2) For applications approved by the Secretary of Transportation as part of a plan or proposal under section 5(a)–(d) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1654(a)–(d)), the Commission shall consider whether any detriment from the abandonment or discontinuance exceeds the transportation benefit from the plan or proposal as a whole.".

Waiver.

(5) Section 10904(e) of title 49, United States Code, as redesignated by paragraph (4) of this subsection, is amended by inserting immediately before the period at the end thereof the following: ", except that the requirement of such description or identification in such diagram may be waived by the Commission if the application was approved by the Secretary of Transportation as part of a plan or proposal under section 5(a)–(d) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1654(a)–(d)), or the application is filed by a railroad in bankruptcy".

(c) Section 10905 of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

49 USC 10905.

"§ 10905. Offers of financial assistance to avoid abandonment and discontinuance

Definitions.

"(a) In this section—

"(1) 'avoidable cost' means all expenses that would be incurred by a rail carrier in providing transportation that would not be incurred if the railroad line over which the transportation was provided were abandoned or if the transportation were discontinued. Expenses include cash inflows foregone and cash outflows incurred by the rail carrier as a result of not abandoning or discontinuing the transportation. Cash inflows foregone and cash outflows incurred include—

"(A) working capital and required capital expenditure;

"(B) expenditures to eliminate deferred maintenance;

"(C) the current cost of freight cars, locomotives, and other equipment; and

"(D) the foregone tax benefits from not retiring properties from rail service and other effects of applicable Federal and State income taxes.

"(2) 'reasonable return' means—

"(A) if a rail carrier is not in reorganization, the cost of capital to the rail carrier, as determined by the Interstate Commerce Commission; and

"(B) if a rail carrier is in reorganization, the mean cost of capital of rail carriers not in reorganization, as determined by the Commission.

"(b) Any rail carrier which has filed an application for a certificate of abandonment or discontinuance shall provide promptly to a party considering an offer of financial assistance and shall provide concurrently to the Commission—

"(1) an estimate of the annual subsidy and minimum purchase price required to keep the line or a portion of the line in operation;

"(2) its most recent reports on the physical condition of that part of the railroad line involved in the proposed abandonment or discontinuance;

"(3) traffic, revenue, and other data necessary to determine the amount of annual financial assistance which would be required to continue rail transportation over that part of the railroad line; and

"(4) any other information that the Commission may deem necessary to allow a potential offeror to calculate an adequate subsidy or purchase offer.

Publication in Federal Register.
49 USC 10903.

Subsidy or purchase offer.

"(c) When the Commission finds under section 10903 of this title that the public convenience and necessity require or permit abandonment or discontinuance of a particular railroad line, it shall, concurrently with service of the decision upon the parties, publish the finding in the Federal Register. Within 10 days following the publication, any person may offer to pay the carrier a subsidy or offer to purchase the line. Such offer shall be filed concurrently with the Commission. If the offer to subsidize or purchase the line is less than the carrier's estimate provided under subsection (b)(1) of this section, the offer shall explain the basis of the disparity, and the manner in which the offer of subsidy or purchase is calculated.

Abandonment or discontinuance, postponement.

"(d) If, within 15 days after the publication required in subsection (c) of this section, the Commission finds that—

"(1) a financially responsible person (including a government authority) has offered financial assistance to enable the rail transportation to be continued over that part of the railroad line to be abandoned or over which all rail transportation is to be discontinued; and

"(2) it is likely that the assistance would be equal to—

"(A) the difference between the revenues attributable to that part of the railroad line and the avoidable cost of providing rail freight transportation on the line, plus a reasonable return on the value of the line; or

"(B) the acquisition cost of that part of the railroad line;

the Commission shall postpone the issuance of a certificate authorizing abandonment or discontinuance in accordance with subsections (e) and (f) of this section.

"(e) If the carrier and a person offering financial assistance enter into an agreement which will provide continued rail service, the Commission shall postpone the issuance of the certificate for so long as the agreement, or an extension or modification of the agreement, is in effect. If the carrier and a person offering to purchase a line enter into an agreement which will provide continued rail service, the Commission shall approve the transaction and dismiss the application for abandonment or discontinuance. If the carrier and a financially responsible person (including a government authority) fail to agree on the amount or terms of the subsidy or purchase, either party may, within 30 days after the offer is made, request that the Commission establish the conditions and amount of compensation. If no agreement is reached within 30 days after the offer is made and neither party requests that the Commission establish the conditions and amount of compensation during that same period, the Commission shall immediately issue a certificate authorizing the abandonment or discontinuance.

Subsidy or purchase terms, establishment.

"(f)(1) Whenever the Commission is requested to establish the conditions and amount of compensation under this section—

"(A) the Commission shall render its decision within 60 days;

"(B) where subsidy has been offered, the Commission shall determine the amount and terms of subsidy based on the avoidable cost of providing continued rail transportation, plus a reasonable return on the value of the line; and

"(C) where an offer of purchase has been made in order to continue rail service on the line, the Commission shall determine the price and other terms of sale. In no case shall the Commission set a price which is below the fair market value of the line (including, unless otherwise mutually agreed, all facilities on the line or portion necessary to provide effective transportation services).

"(2) The decision of the Commission shall be binding on both parties, except that the person who has offered to subsidize or purchase the line may withdraw his offer within 10 days of the Commission's decision. In such a case, the Commission shall immediately issue a certificate authorizing the abandonment or discontinuance, unless other offers are being considered pursuant to paragraph (3) of this subsection.

"(3) If a carrier receives more than one offer to purchase or subsidize, it shall select the offeror with whom it wishes to transact business, and complete the sale or subsidy agreement, or request that the Commission establish the conditions and amount of compensation prior to the 40th day after the date on which notice was published under subsection (c) of this section. If no agreement on subsidy or sale is reached within the 40-day period and the Commission has not been requested to establish the conditions and amount of compensation, any other offeror may request that the Commission establish the conditions and amount of compensation. If the Commission has established the conditions and amount of compensation and the original offer has been withdrawn, any other offeror may accept the Commission's decision within 20 days of such decision, and the Commission shall require the carrier to enter into a sale or subsidy agreement with such offeror, if such sale or agreement incorporates the Commission's decision.

Service discontinuance or transfer, prohibition.

"(4) No purchaser of a line or portion of line sold under this section may transfer or discontinue service on such line prior to the end of the second year after consummation of the sale, nor may such purchaser transfer such line, except to the carrier from whom it was purchased, prior to the end of the fifth year after consummation of the sale.

Subsidy discontinuance.

"(5) Any subsidy provided under this section may be discontinued on notice of 60 days. Unless, within such 60-day period, another financially responsible party enters into a subsidy agreement at least as beneficial to the carrier as that which was or was to be discontinued, the Commission shall, at the carrier's request, immediately issue a certificate authorizing the abandonment or discontinuance of service on the line.".

CONVERSION OF ABANDONED RAILROAD RIGHTS-OF-WAY

SEC. 403. Section 809(d) of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976 is amended— 49 USC 10906 note.

(1) by inserting "(1)" immediately before the first sentence thereof; and

(2) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) There are authorized to be appropriated, for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of subsection (b)(2) of this section, not to exceed an aggregate amount of $10,000,000 for the fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983. Such sums are authorized to remain available until expended. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b)(2) of this section, the Federal share for each grant made from the funds authorized to be appropriated pursuant to this paragraph may not exceed 80 percent of the total cost of any project.". Appropriation authorization.

SEC. 407. Section 211(i) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 721(i)) is amended—

(1) by inserting "or any other railroad" immediately after "the Corporation" the first place it appears;

(2) by inserting "or such railroad" immediately after "the Corporation" the second and third places it appears; and

(3) by inserting immediately after the first sentence the following new sentences: "Upon application by the Corporation or by any railroad in reorganization in the region which receives a loan under section 211(a) of this Act, the Secretary shall, pursuant to the provisions of and within the obligational limitations contained in sections 511 through 513 of such Act, guarantee obligations of the Corporation or such railroad for purposes of making capital improvements to coal export facilities.". 45 USC 831-833.

AMENDMENT TO THE REGIONAL RAIL REORGANIZATION ACT OF 1973

SEC. 408. (a) The second sentence of section 211(d) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 721(d)) is amended by inserting "is not required to make the findings with respect to subsections (e)(3) and (f) and" immediately after "the Association" the first place it appears.

(b) Section 211(d)(2) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 721(d)(2)) is amended by striking out "$4,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$7,500,000".

(c) The last sentence of section 211(d) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 721(d)) is amended by striking out "1980" and inserting in lieu thereof "1981".

FEDERAL ASSISTANCE REPORT

Submittal to Congress.
49 USC 1654a.

SEC. 409. Within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, the Secretary of Transportation shall submit a report to the Congress listing the specific Federal assistance provided the railroad industry during such fiscal year. Each such report shall set forth the reasons for each Federal loan or grant and explain the way in which such loan or grant contributed to the overall goal of providing a safe and efficient transportation system.

TITLE V—CONRAIL TITLE V LABOR PROTECTION

MONTHLY DISPLACEMENT ALLOWANCE

Pay rate.

SEC. 501. Section 505(b) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(b)) is amended to read as follows:

"(b) MONTHLY DISPLACEMENT ALLOWANCE.—A protected employee shall be paid a monthly displacement allowance for any calendar month within the period identified in subsection (c) of this section in which the employee is deprived of employment or adversely affected with respect to such employee's compensation, in accordance with the following provisions:

Ante, p. 1895.

"(1)(A) Effective on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, the protected rate of pay of a protected nonoperating employee (other than a maintenance-of-way employee) who has been deprived of employment or adversely affected with respect to such employee's compensation shall be based on the rate of pay of the position held by the employee on September 1, 1979, or if the employee held no position on that date, the rate of pay of the last position held by the employee prior to that date. A guaranteed hourly rate of pay will be computed for each protected employee, based on the rate described in the preceding sentence, and will be (i) the actual hourly rate for hourly rated employees, (ii) the daily rate divided by 8 for daily rated employees, and (iii) the monthly rate divided by the working days in the claim month, further divided by 8, in the case of monthly rated employees. For employees occupying relief positions, the guarantee shall be computed on the basis of the weighted average daily rate of the positions relieved. Extra list employees will be guaranteed the extra list rate.

"(B) In the event a protected employee's position is abolished or such employee is displaced and is thereby required to occupy a position paying an hourly rate that is less than such employee's guaranteed hourly rate, the protected employee shall be paid the difference between the hourly rate of pay of the position such employee is occupying and his guaranteed hourly rate for all hours included in the straight time work schedule of such employee's position for the month of claim, less any time lost on account of voluntary absences other than vacations. Hours worked in excess of the straight time work schedule shall be paid in addition to the guarantee at the rate applicable to the position occupied, as provided for in the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

"(C) For any month or portion thereof in which a protected employee is deprived of employment, the protected employee shall be paid such employee's guaranteed hourly rate for the number of hours such employee would have worked in the straight time work schedule of such employee's previously held position.

"(D) Notwithstanding the provision that the protected rate shall be the rate of the position held on or immediately preceding September 1, 1979, if a protected employee becomes the permanent incumbent of a higher rated position and is not disqualified therefrom, the higher rate shall become such employee's protected rate.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, effective on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, a protected maintenance-of-way employee shall be afforded his average monthly compensation, which is defined as the total compensation received by such employee during the 12 months immediately preceding January 1, 1975, divided by his total time paid for during that period and multiplied by 174 or by his average monthly time paid for, whichever is less, and adjusted to reflect subsequent general wage increases. If a protected employee is deprived of employment or if the employee's straight-time compensation in his current position is less in any month than the employee's average monthly compensation, the employee shall be paid the difference between his straight-time earnings, if any, and 80 percent of the average monthly compensation, less any time lost on account of voluntary absences other than vacations. If, at the close of the calendar year, the sum of the protected employee's annual straight-time compensation, monthly displacement allowance payments and offsets applicable pursuant to this title is less than the employee's average monthly compensation multiplied by 12, the employee shall receive an additional payment representing the difference. If in the previous calendar year an employee has received displacement allowance payments in excess of his annual entitlement, the excess payments shall be recovered from any current or future entitlement to monetary benefits afforded by this title, exclusive of benefits afforded by section 505(g) of this title.

45 USC 775.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(3) Effective on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 a protected operating employee (as defined in Interstate Commerce Commission classifications 107 through 128) who has been deprived of employment or adversely affected with respect to such employee's compensation shall be afforded his average monthly compensation computed in accordance with this subsection as in effect prior to such effective date, but subject to a maximum amount equal to one-twelfth of the average annual earnings of all employees in the Interstate Commerce Commission classification, computed by cumulating the employee earnings reported to the Commission by the Corporation on a monthly basis for calendar year 1977 for the Interstate Commerce Commission classification of operating service in which such employee performed the preponderance of such employee's work in calendar year 1974, increased by applicable general wage increases. If the employee performed no operating service in 1974, the Interstate Commerce Commission classification shall be determined by the preponderance of such employee's operating service in an immediately preceding calendar year. If the average monthly compensation of a protected operating employee exceeds the maximum amount described in the first sentence of this paragraph, the average monthly compensation of the employee will be reduced to such maximum amount for purposes of computing such employee's monthly displacement allowance, if any. If the average monthly compensation of a protected operating employee is less than such maximum amount, the average monthly compensation of the employee will be used to compute such employee's monthly displacement allowance, if any. If a protected employee is deprived of employment, or if the employee is adversely affected with respect to his compensation such that the compensation in such employee's current position is less in any month than the average monthly compensation of the employee or such maximum amount, whichever is less, the employee shall be paid 75 per centum of the difference between such employee's earnings, if any, and the lesser figure, minus any time lost on account of voluntary absences other than vacations. If at the close of the calendar year the sum of the protected employee's annual earnings, monthly displacement allowance payments, and offsets applicable pursuant to this title is less than such employee's average monthly compensation subject to the maximum amount and multiplied by 12, the employee shall receive an additional payment representing the difference. In the computation of the annual payment, if during the calendar year an employee has been force assigned to, or has been required to exercise seniority to, a position in an Interstate Commerce Commission classification with a lesser maximum amount than the maximum amount applicable to such employee's 1974 Interstate Commerce Commission classification, such employee shall be paid the difference without credit being taken for compensation earned by virtue of actual working hours in the calendar year in excess of the number of hours paid for in such employee's average monthly compensation multiplied by 12 or such employee's annual 1977 maximum amount, whichever is less. An employee's compensation for purposes of this subsection shall not include savings sharing productivity payments received pursuant to paragraph (t) of the Crew Consist Agreement between the Corporation and the United Transportation Union dated September 8, 1978. If, in the previous calendar year, an employee has received displacement allowance payments in excess of such employee's annual entitlement, the excess payments shall be recovered from any current or future entitlement to monetary benefits afforded by this title, exclusive of benefits afforded by subsection (g) of this section.

"(4) Effective on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, a protected noncontract employee who has been deprived of employment or adversely affected with respect to such employee's compensation shall retain his average monthly compensation and monthly displacement allowance computed in accordance with this subsection as in effect prior to such effective date. In the event such noncontract employee exercises or has exercised seniority in a craft or class of operating employees, such employee's entitlement to a monthly displacement allowance and fringe benefits, and such employee's eligibility for transfer, shall be the same as the entitlement and eligibility of other protected employees in the craft or class in which seniority is exercised. In the event such noncontract employee exercises or has exercised seniority in a craft or class of nonoperating employees, the entitlement of such employee to a monthly displacement allowance and fringe benefits, and such employee's eligibility for transfer, shall be consistent with the entitlement and eligibility of other protected employees in the craft or class in which seniority is exercised, except that the protected rate of pay shall be based on the rate of pay of the position first obtained through the exercise of seniority, rather than the rate of any position held on or prior to September 1, 1979.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(5) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this subsection, employees who, prior to September 1, 1979, accepted transfer to positions requiring a change of residence pursuant to subsection (d) of this section, shall retain their average monthly compensation and monthly displacement allowance computed in accordance with this subsection prior to the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980.

"(6) In determining compensation in a protected employee's current employment, such employee shall be treated as occupying the position producing the highest rate of pay to which such employee's qualifications and seniority entitle the employee under the applicable collective bargaining agreement and which does not require a change in residence. A protected operating employee will be considered to be occupying the position producing the highest rate of pay if the employee occupies a position producing compensation equal to such employee's average monthly compensation, subject to the maximum amount.

"(7) With respect to a protected employee who has been deprived of employment, the monthly displacement allowance shall be reduced by (A) the full amount of any unemployment compensation benefits received by such employee, and (B) an amount equivalent to any outside earnings of such employee.

"(8) A protected employee's average monthly compensation or protected rate of pay shall be adjusted from time to time thereafter to reflect subsequent general wage increases.

"(9) The average monthly compensation or protected rate of pay provided by this section shall in no event exceed $2,500 in any month, except that such amount shall be adjusted to reflect general wage increases subsequent to April 1, 1976.

"(10) A protected employee and his representative shall be furnished with such employee's protected rate of pay, or average monthly compensation and average monthly time paid for, subject to the maximum amount, computed in accordance with the terms of this subsection. Each protected employee who has been deprived of employment or his representative and the employer shall agree upon a procedure by which the employee shall keep the employer currently informed of the unemployment compensation benefits received by such employee and the earnings of such employee in employment other than with such employer.

"(11) In the case of a supplemental transaction—

"(A) with respect to an employee described in paragraph (1) of this subsection who was not employed on September 1, 1979, the protected rate of pay of such employee shall be based on the rate of pay of the position held by such employee on the first day of the first month after September 1979 in which such employee was employed;

"(B) with respect to an employee described in paragraph (2) of this subsection who was not employed during the 12 months immediately preceding January 1, 1975, the average monthly compensation of such employee shall be determined on the basis of the first 12-month period after January 1, 1974, during which such employee was employed; and

"(C) with respect to an employee described in paragraph (3) of this subsection—

"(i) if such employee was employed during the 12 months immediately preceding January 1, 1975, the average monthly compensation of such employee shall be determined on the basis of such 12-month period; and

"(ii) if such employee was not employed during the 12 months immediately preceding January 1, 1975, the preponderance of work of such employee shall be determined on the basis of the first 12-month period after January 1, 1974, during which such employee was employed.".

DURATION OF MONTHLY DISPLACEMENT ALLOWANCE

SEC. 502. Section 505(c) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(c)) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) DURATION OF MONTHLY DISPLACEMENT ALLOWANCE.—The monthly displacement allowance provided for in subsection (b) of this section shall, in the case of a protected employee with 5 or more years of service on the effective date of this Act, continue until the attainment of age 65 by such employee, and shall, in the case of a protected employee who has less than 5 years of service on such date, continue for a period equal to the employee's total prior years of service, except that such monthly displacement allowance—

"(1) shall terminate upon the protected employee's death, retirement, resignation, or dismissal for cause;

"(2) shall not be paid with respect to any period of disciplinary suspension for cause, failure to work due to illness or disability, voluntary furlough, or failure to retain or obtain a position available to the employee by the exercise of such employee's seniority rights in accordance with the provisions of this section;

"(3) shall not be paid to a protected employee deprived of employment with respect to any period of failure to work due to strike, fire, flood, snowstorm, hurricane, earthquake, tornado, or other similar natural occurrence that causes a suspension of operations in whole or in part and precludes performance of the work which would be performed by the incumbents of the positions to be abolished or the work which would be performed by the employees involved in the force reductions (but the payment of monthly displacement allowances shall be resumed upon termination of the emergency); and

"(4) shall not be paid with respect to any month that commences after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 Ante, p. 1895. for which the employee has failed to make a claim for such allowance within 3 full calendar months (unless otherwise agreed upon by the employee or his representative and the employer) after the last day of the month for which such allowance is sought, except that such 3-month limit shall not apply to any claim which is the subject of or is based upon an arbitration decision issued pursuant to section 507 of this title. 45 USC 777.

Unless otherwise agreed upon by the employee or his representative and the employer, the entitlement of an employee to an allowance shall be approved or denied within 150 days after the claim therefor is made if such claim is filed during the 12-month period beginning on the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, and within 90 days after the claim therefor is made if such claim is filed after such 12-month period. Any claim not approved or denied at the expiration of the time limits described in the preceding sentence shall be deemed approved.".

TRAINING AND TRANSFER

SEC. 503. (a)(1) Section 505(d) (1) and (3) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(d) (1) and (3)) are each amended by inserting "or other employers with employees protected under this section" immediately after "Corporation" wherever it appears.

(2) Section 505(d)(1) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(d)(1)) is amended by inserting "or the system of other employers with employees protected under this section" immediately after "Corporation's system".

(3) Section 505(d)(2) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(d)(2)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, a protected employee of the National Railroad Passenger Corporation shall not be required to transfer to a location outside the seniority district of such protected employee.".

(b) Section 505(d)(4) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(d)(4)) is amended by striking out "Transfers" and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subsection, transfers".

(c) Section 505(d) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(d)(4)), as amended, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(5) In the case of a marine craft or class on the Corporation's system, or in the craft or class of a Penn Truck Lines, Incorporated, employee, transfers to vacancies requiring a change in residence shall be subject to the following:

"(A) The vacancy shall be first offered to the junior qualified protected employee or employees deprived of employment in the seniority district where the vacancy exists, and each such employee shall have 20 days to elect one of the options set forth in paragraph (1) of this subsection. The Corporation shall determine the number of junior qualified protected employees deprived of employment (not to exceed four employees per offer) who will be included in the offer of transfer. The vacancy will be awarded to the most junior qualified protected employee who accepts transfer. Other qualified protected employees who have accepted the transfer will retain their status as employees deprived of employment. Employees junior to the acceptor who have elected one of the options set forth in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall retain the option. If the vacancy is not filled, it may be again offered in inverse seniority order to remaining qualified protected employee(s) deprived of employment (not to exceed four employees per offer) in the seniority district.

"(B) If there are no qualified protected employees deprived of employment in the seniority district where the vacancy exists, the vacancy may be offered in inverse seniority order to qualified protected employees deprived of employment (not to exceed four employees per offer) on the system, in accordance with the procedure in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph. Employees offered transfer pursuant to this paragraph will be afforded 30 days to elect one of the options set forth in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

"(C) The provisions of this paragraph shall not prevent the adoption of other procedures pursuant to an agreement made by the Corporation and representatives of the class or craft of employees involved.

"(D) When no bona fide vacancies exist in such craft or class, the Corporation may offer such employee comparable employment for which the employee is qualified, or for which the employee can be trained, in another craft or class. The Corporation shall first attempt to locate a comparable position in a seniority district which encompasses the employee's last work location, and if successful, a transfer notice may be tendered pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph. If no such position exists, the Corporation may tender the employee a transfer notice involving a position elsewhere on the system pursuant to subparagraph (B) of this paragraph. In the event it is necessary to train an employee after such employee's acceptance of a position pursuant to this paragraph, such training shall be provided by the Corporation at no cost to the employee.".

(d) Section 505(i)(1) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 775(i)(1)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences: "The Corporation may simultaneously offer a position to not more than 4 protected noncontract employees. The position shall be given to the protected employee accepting transfer whom the Corporation considers to be best qualified for the particular position involved. Other protected employees who have accepted the transfer shall retain their previous status. Employees who have elected a voluntary suspension of employment at their home location in lieu of protective benefits or a severance of employment shall retain the option elected.".

PAYMENT, AUDIT, AND REPORT

SEC. 504. Section 509 of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 779) is amended to read as follows:

"PAYMENT, AUDIT, AND REPORT

"SEC. 509. (a) PAYMENT.—The Corporation, the Association (where applicable), replacement operators, and acquiring railroads, as the case may be, shall be responsible for the actual payment of all allowances, expenses, and costs provided protected employees pursuant to the provisions of this title. The Corporation, the Association (where applicable), replacement operators, and acquiring railroads shall then be reimbursed for the actual amounts paid to, or for the benefit of, protected employees, pursuant to the provisions of this title (including such amounts paid by the employer prior to the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 and training costs incurred by the Corporation pursuant to section 505(d)(4)(D) of this title), other than provisions with respect to employee pension benefits, not to exceed an aggregate sum of $485,000,000, by the Railroad Retirement Board, upon certification to such Board in such detail as the Board may reasonably require, by the Corporation, the Association (where applicable), replacements operators, and acquiring railroads, of the amounts paid such employees, except that the aggregate amount of reimbursements made by the Board for the payment of monthly displacement allowances in the period after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 shall not exceed $180,000,000. There is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary annually such sums as may be required to meet the obligations payable under this title, not to exceed the aggregate sum of $485,000,000. Upon the exhaustion of such authorization, the Corporation, the Association (where applicable), replacement operators, and acquiring railroads shall retain responsibility for the payment of benefits otherwise reimbursable under this title, but they shall not be reimbursed therefor. There is further authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary such sums as may be necessary to provide for additional administrative expenses to be incurred by the Railroad Retirement Board in the performance of its functions under this section. Appropriations authorized under this section may be allocated by the Secretary to the Railroad Retirement Board.

Ante, p. 1895.
45 USC 775.

Appropriation authorization.

"(b) AUDIT.—Beginning October 1, 1980, the Association shall conduct a program audit of the payment of benefits pursuant to this title and shall evaluate the effectiveness of the provisions of this title in improving the Corporation's management of certain protected employees in its workforce who are entitled to receive monthly displacement allowances. Such audits and evaluations shall be conducted in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Association may prescribe. The representatives of the Association shall have access to all books, accounts, records, reports, files, and other papers, things, or property belonging to, or in use by or in connection with, the Corporation, replacement operators, acquiring railroads, or the Railroad Retirement Board which pertain to the benefits provided protected employees pursuant to this title and which are necessary to facilitate such audit and evaluation.

Records, accessibility.

"(c) REPORT.—The Association shall transmit to the Congress and the President, not later than 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, a comprehensive and detailed report on the payment of benefits under this title and the effectiveness of the provisions of this title in improving the Corporation's management of certain protected employees in its workforce who are entitled to receive monthly displacement allowances.".

Transmittal to Congress and the President.

RAILROAD HIRING

SEC. 505. Title V of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 771 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"RAILROAD HIRING

45 USC 780.

"SEC. 510. Any protected employee of the Corporation and any employee of the Corporation who is separated or furloughed from his employment with the Corporation (other than for cause) shall, unless found to be less qualified than other applicants, have the first right of hire by any other railroad that is subject to regulation by the Commission for any vacancy that is not covered by (1) an affirmative action plan, or a hiring plan designed to eliminate discrimination, that is required by Federal or State statute, regulation, or Executive order, or by the order of a Federal court or agency, or (2) a permissible voluntary affirmative action plan. For purposes of this section, a railroad shall not be considered to be hiring new employees when it recalls any of its own furloughed employees.".

SINGLE COLLECTIVE-BARGAINING AGREEMENT

SEC. 506. Section 504(d) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 774(d)) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) NEW COLLECTIVE-BARGAINING AGREEMENTS.—Not later than 60 days after the effective date of any conveyance pursuant to the provisions of this Act, the representatives of the various classes of crafts of the employees of a railroad in reorganization involved in a conveyance and representatives of the Corporation shall commence negotiation of a new single collective-bargaining agreement for each class and craft of employees covering the rate of pay, rules, and working conditions of employees who are employees of the Corporation. Such collective-bargaining agreement shall include appropriate provisions concerning rates of pay, rules, and working conditions, but shall not include any provisions for job stabilization resulting from any transaction effected pursuant to this Act which may exceed or conflict with those established herein. Negotiations with respect to such single collective-bargaining agreement, and any successor thereto, shall be conducted systemwide.".

EMPLOYEE PROTECTION PAYMENTS

45 USC 779 note.

45 USC 771.

Ante, p. 1955.

SEC. 507. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Consolidated Rail Corporation and other employers with employees protected under the provisions of title V of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 shall, until the effective date of this Act, continue to make payments for employee protection under such Act in accordance with the provisions of such Act which were in effect on January 1, 1979. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such Corporation and employers shall be reimbursed for such payments in accordance with the provisions of section 509(a) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 779(a)).

TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS

SEC. 508. (a)(1) The item relating to section 509 in the table of contents of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 701 et seq.) is amended to read as follows:

TITLE VI—EXPEDITED SUPPLEMENTAL TRANSACTION PROPOSALS

EXPEDITED SUPPLEMENTAL TRANSACTION PROPOSALS

SEC. 601. (a) Section 305 of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 745) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Rail properties in Connecticut and Rhode Island, transfer. Ante, p. 1895.

"(f) EXPEDITED PROPOSALS.—(1) Within 240 days after the effective date of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, the Secretary, after providing an opportunity for comments from interested parties, shall determine whether to initiate a proposal for a supplemental transaction under this section for the transfer of all rail properties of the Corporation in the States of Connecticut and Rhode Island to another railroad in the region. If the Secretary determines that—Conditions.

"(A) the proposed transferee railroad is financially and operationally capable of assuming the freight operations and freight service obligations of the Corporation on a financially self-sustaining basis;

"(B) the proposed transfer would promote the establishment and retention of a financially self-sustaining rail system in the States of Connecticut and Rhode Island adequate to meet the needs of such States; and

45 USC 716.

"(C) the proposed transfer is consistent with the goals set forth in section 206(a)(8) of this Act, the Secretary shall develop such a proposal and may, after providing the Association, the Commission, and the States of Connecticut and Rhode Island an opportunity to review and comment on such proposal, petition the special court for an order to carry out such proposal.

Price establishment.

"(2) The Secretary shall establish a fair and equitable price for any rail properties transferred pursuant to a proposal developed under this subsection.

"(3) If the special court determines that a proposal developed under this subsection is fair and equitable, meets the requirements of this subsection, and is in the public interest, it shall issue such orders as may be necessary to carry out such proposal. The provisions of paragraphs (2)–(6) of subsection (d) of this section shall apply to the determination of the special court under this subsection, except that the standards for such determination shall be those set forth in this paragraph.

Agreement.

45 USC 771.

45 USC 778.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(4) In complying with the requirements of subsection (d)(7) of this section with respect to the application of the provisions of title V of this Act to supplemental transactions, the parties to an expedited supplemental transaction under this subsection and the representatives of the employees affected thereby shall enter into a new agreement pursuant to section 508 of this Act and shall not be bound by the terms of any agreement executed under such section 508 and in effect on the date of enactment of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980.".

(b) Section 102(19) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (45 U.S.C. 702(19)) is amended by striking out ", within 6 years after the date on which the special court orders conveyances of rail properties to the Corporation".

TITLE VII—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ROCK ISLAND AND MILWAUKEE RAILROADS AMENDMENTS

SEC. 701. (a)(1) The Rock Island Railroad Transition and Employee Assistance Act (45 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) is amended by redesignating section 124 as section 125 and by inserting immediately after section 123 the following new section:

(b)(1) Section 106 of the Rock Island Railroad Transition and Employee Assistance Act (45 U.S.C. 1005) is amended to read as follows:

Ante, p. 401.

"EMPLOYEE PROTECTION AGREEMENTS

"SEC. 106. (a) No later than 5 days after the date of enactment of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, in order to avoid disruption of rail service and undue displacement of employees, the Rock Island Railroad and labor organizations representing the employees of such railroad with the assistance of the National Mediation Board, may enter into an agreement providing protection for employees of such railroad who are adversely affected as a result of a reduction in service by such railroad. Such employee protection may include, but need not be limited to, employee relocation incentive compensation, moving expenses, and separation allowances.

Ante, p. 1895.

"(b) If the Rock Island Railroad and the labor organizations representing the employees of such railroad are unable to enter into an employee protection agreement under subsection (a) of this section within 5 days after the date of enactment of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, the matter shall be immediately submitted to the Commission. The Commission shall impose upon the parties by appropriate order a fair and equitable arrangement with respect to employee protection no later than 15 days after the date of enactment of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980, unless the Rock Island Railroad, and the authorized representatives of its employees have by then entered into a labor protection agreement. For purposes of this subsection, the term 'fair and equitable' means no less protective of the interests of employees than protection established by and pursuant to section 9 of the Milwaukee Railroad Restructuring Act (45 U.S.C. 908), subject to the limitations set forth in section 110 of this title.

Ante, p. 1895.

"Fair and equitable."

Ante, p. 403.

"(c) If an employee protection arrangement is imposed by the Commission under subsection (b) of this section, the bankruptcy court shall immediately authorize and direct the Rock Island Railroad trustee to, and the Rock Island Railroad trustee and the labor organizations representing the employees of the railroad shall, immediately implement such arrangement.

"(d) Any order of the Commission under subsection (b) of this section and any order of the bankruptcy court under subsection (c) of this section may be appealed only to the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Any such appeal to such court of appeals shall be filed within 5 days after the date of entry of the order of the Commission or the bankruptcy court, as the case may be, and such court of appeals shall finally determine such appeal within 60 days after the date such appeal is filed.

Employee benefits and allowances.

"(e)(1) Any claim of an employee for benefits and allowances under an employee protection agreement or arrangement entered into under this section shall be filed with the Board in such time and manner as the Board by regulation shall prescribe. The Board shall determine the amount for which such employee is eligible under such agreement or arrangement and shall certify such amount to the Rock Island Railroad for payment.

"(2) Benefits and allowances under such agreement or arrangement entered into this section shall be paid by the Rock Island Railroad from its own assets or in accordance with section 110 of this title, and claims of employees for such benefits and allowances shall be treated as administrative expenses of the estate of the Rock Island Railroad.

"(f) The first sentence of section 7(b)(7) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 (45 U.S.C. 231f(b)(7)) is amended by striking out "Milwaukee Railroad Restructuring Act" and inserting in lieu thereof ", the Milwaukee Railroad Restructuring Act, and the Rock Island Railroad Transition and Employee Assistance Act.".

Ante, p. 402.

Ante, p. 399.

(3) Section 103(5) of the Rock Island Railroad Transition and Employee Assistance Act (45 U.S.C. 1002(5)) is amended by inserting immediately before the period at the end thereof the following: ", the estate of such Company in its reorganization proceeding, or the trustee appointed in such proceeding".

(c)(1) Section 7 of the Milwaukee Railroad Restructuring Act (45 U.S.C. 906) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(h)(1) All obligations to the United States or any agency or instrumentality of the United States incurred pursuant to this section by the Milwaukee Railroad or the trustee of the property of the Milwaukee Railroad shall be waived and canceled when—

"(A) the Milwaukee Railroad is reorganized as an operating rail carrier; or

"(B) substantially all of the Milwaukee Railroad is purchased.

"(2) For purposes of this subsection, substantially all of the Milwaukee Railroad shall be considered as having been purchased when (A) more than 50 percent of the rail system operated by the Milwaukee Railroad on the date of enactment of the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 has been purchased, and (B) more than 50 percent of the employees employed by the Milwaukee Railroad on such date of enactment have obtained employment with other rail carriers.".

Ante, p. 1895.

(2) Section 14 of the Milwaukee Railroad Restructuring Act (45 U.S.C. 913) is amended by redesignating subsection (d) as subsection (e) and by inserting after subsection (c) the following new subsection:

Appropriation authorization.

"(d) There are authorized to be appropriated $15,000,000 for purposes of providing transaction assistance in accordance with section 505(h)(1) (A) and (B) of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976.".

Ante, p. 404.

(d) Section 505(h) of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976 (45 U.S.C. 825(h)) is amended—

(1) in paragraph (1)(A), by striking out "$25,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$38,000,000";

(2) in paragraph (1)(B), by striking out "$18,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$27,000,000"; and

(3) by amending paragraph (4) to read as follows:

"(4) This subsection shall apply to (A) purchase offers submitted to the Trustee of the Rock Island Railroad Estate and filed with the Commission prior to September 15, 1980 (or such other time as the Secretary considers appropriate), and (B) purchase applications filed with the Commission prior to September 15, 1980 (or such other time as the Secretary considers appropriate) and approved by the court having jurisdiction over the reorganization of the Rock Island Railroad or the Milwaukee Railroad, as the case may be, and by the Commission.".

LOAN GUARANTEES

Powder River Coal Region, Mont. and Wyo. 45 USC 831 note.

SEC. 702. (a) To promote competition in the transportation of coal, the Secretary of Transportation shall, no later than 75 days after the date of the issuance of the final environmental impact statement with respect to the loan application, take final action on any application for loan guarantees, under section 511 of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, to be used in connection with joint ownership, construction, or rehabilitation of any facilities (including support facilities) for a second rail carrier to serve the Powder River Coal Region in Montana and Wyoming.

45 USC 831.

Chicago and Northwestern connector line route, review.

(b)(1) The Secretary of Transportation shall review the proposed Chicago and North Western connector line route and shall not approve any route which requires the use of any agricultural land unless (A) there is no feasible and prudent alternative to the use of such land, and (B) the proposed route construction plan requires all possible planning to minimize harm to such agricultural land resulting from such use. The Secretary of Transportation may not otherwise disapprove a proposed route for the Chicago and North Western line under the authority of this subsection. This review of a proposed route shall be conducted within 90 days after the final action specified in subsection (a) of this section.

Private grade crossings.

(2)(A) The Secretary shall review the use of any agricultural land used in any route for newly constructed line and shall require, to the maximum extent prudent and feasible, that such railroad provide a private grade crossing for the convenience of each landowner whose agricultural holdings are divided by such newly constructed line when the Secretary finds that such division of property will cause a substantial disruption to the agricultural use of such land. The owners of such property shall file a request for such grade crossing with the Secretary within 180 days of the final determination of the route. The finding of the Secretary under this subsection shall be final.

(B) The Secretary shall render a decision on each request for grade crossing under this paragraph within 180 days of its receipt. Such review shall not require the delay of construction of new line under subsection (a) of this section.

Claims and judicial review.

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the actions of the Secretary of Transportation taken pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not be subject to judicial review except as provided in this section.

(2) A claim alleging the invalidity of this section may be brought no later than the 60th day following the date a final action is taken pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(3) A claim challenging an action of the Secretary of Transportation under subsection (a) or (b) of this section may be brought only on the grounds that such action will deny rights under the Constitution of the United States, is arbitrary, capricious, or an abuse of discretion, exceeds statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or is short of statutory right. Such a claim may be brought not later than the 60th day following the date of such action.
